Notes—Court's omission to make order declaring proper service is essential. It is not a mere irregularity. A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 813=39 M. L. T. 34=26 L. W. 481=103 Ind. Cas. 825; see also A. I. The Court must either declare the service to be sufficient or order such service as it thinks fit. 1933 M. W. N. 478=37 L. W. 622=A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 466=64 M. L. J. 329; see also A. I. The provision of Order 5, r. 19, will apply to all cases in which return of summons is made under Order 5, rule 17, whether due to absence or refusal of person to be served. Even in the case of a refusal, unless there is a declaration by the Court that the service under Order 5, rule 17, is sufficient as required by the provisions of Order 5, r. 19, any order passed by the Court in the absence of judgment-debtor will not constitute res judicata. A. I. R. 1937 Mad. 84.

20. [S 82, second para, Ss. 83, 84.] (1) Where the Court is satisfied that there is reason to believe that the defendant is keeping out of the way for the purpose of avoiding service, or that for any other reason the summons cannot be served in the ordinary way, the Court shall order the summons to be served by affixing a copy thereof in some conspicuous place in the Court-house, and also upon some conspicuous part of the house (if any) in which the defendant is known to have last resided or carried on business or personally worked for gain, or in such other manner as the Court thinks fit.

(2) Service substituted by order of the Court shall be as effectual as if it had been made on the defendant personally.

(3) Where service is substituted by order of the Court, the Court shall fix such time for the appearance of the defendant as the case may require.

Effect of substituted service.

Where service substituted, time for appearance to be fixed.

Scope.—Substituted service amounts to personal service. A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 1052=116 Ind. Cas. 363; A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 815=51 M. 860; A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 487=52 M. L. J. 512=101 Ind. Cas. 651. Even though substituted service may be considered as personal service on the defendants under the provisions of Order 5, rule 20 and clause (2), this does not preclude the defendants from afterwards showing that in fact there had been no service on him at all and that the order for substituted service was procured on misrepresentation of facts. A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 745=60 C. L. J. 106=38 C. W. N. 1066=152 Ind. Cas. 830; see also A. I. R. 1935 Pesh. 112. Substituted service should not be ordered unless defendant could not be served in the ordinary way or has refused to accept service. 120 Ind. Cas. 594; see also (1930) M. W. N. 1227; A. I. It is not correct to order substituted service on a person to show cause why he should not be appointed guardian. A. I. R. 1930 All. 609=(1930) A. L. J. 1020=124 Ind. Cas. 191. Affixation of summons without being accompanied by copy of plaint is not a sufficient compliance with the law. A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 376=28 P. L. R. 300=101 Ind. Cas. 615. Where plaintiff has failed to make enquires substituted service should not be ordered. A. I. R. 1924 Lah. 191=69 Ind. Cas. 467. Service by registered post is a poor substitute for personal service. A. I. R. 1922 Bom. 377=46 B. 130=23 Bom. L. R. 928=64 Ind. Cas. 386. Question of effecting substituted service being primarily on discretion of trial Court, appellate Court has only to see that rules of law are observed. A. I. R. 1931 Lah. 118=31 P. L. R. 1006=131 Ind. Cas. 146=1932 M. W. N. 133.

The advisability of effecting service by substituted service is a matter primarily for the trial Court and if it is satisfied on the matters set out in Order 5, rule 20, it should order substituted service which is as effectual as if service was made personally. 131 Ind. Cas. 344=31 P. L. R. 1006=A. I. R. 1931 Lah. 118 ; see also 132 Ind. Cas. 778=14 O. L. J. 543=A. I. R. 1931 Oudh 369. But if for no fault of the defendant, a defendant was never put in a position to know that a suit has been instituted against him whatever steps might have been taken for serving the summons on him, these steps can never be taken as amounting to due service. 1931 A. ORDER VI.

Pleadings generally.

Pleading.

1. [New.]. "Pleading" shall mean plaint or written statement.

Pleading.—No definition of the pleading is given in the Act. But according to s. 100 of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act of 1873 pleading "shall include any petition or summons, and also shall include the statements in writing of the claim or demand of any plaintiff and of the defence of any defendant thereto; and of the reply of the plaintiff to any counter claim of a defendant." A writ of summons is not a pleading. Murray v. Stephenson (1887) 19 Q. B. D. 60; Wallis v. Jackson, (1883) 23 Ch. D. 204; but a special endorsement on the writ of summons may be considered a pleading for some purposes. Anlaby v. Practorius, (1888) 20 Q. B. D. 764 C. A. Roberts v. Plants (1895) 1 Q. B. 597. "The Committee have added a few rules relating to pleadings based upon the pleading introduced by the Judicature Acts in England, which is generally admitted to be the best form of pleading in civil suits". Report of the Special Committee. "The whole object of pleadings" says Jessel M. R. in Thorp v. Holdsworth, (1876) 3 Ch. D. 637, 639 "is to bring the parties to an issue, and the meaning of the rule (relating to pleadings) was to prevent the issue being enlarged, which would prevent either party from knowing when the cause came on for trial, what the real point to be discussed and decided was, in fact, the whole meaning of the system is to narrow the parties to definite issues, and thereby to diminish expense and delay, especially as regards the amount of testimony required on either side at the hearing." In a case (6 A. 406) under the old Act it has been held the pleadings in Indian Courts need not be construed with the same strictness as in English Court. But it seems that, that is no longer the law. Party must make all necessary assertions to carry the reliefs and prove them in an alternative case. A. I. R. 1931 Cal. 25=57 C. 795=129 Ind. Cas. 355. Documents satisfying substantially the requirements of Order VI and Order VII is a plaint. 17 S. L. R. 223=85 Ind. Cas. 893. It is for the Court to find and examine all pleas of law applicable to the facts of a particular case. A. I. R. 1928 Nag. 206=107 Ind. Cas. 513.

2. [R. S. C. O. 19, r. 4.] Every pleading shall contain and contain only, a statement in a concise form of the material facts on which the party pleading relies for his claim or defence, as the case may be, but not the evidence by which they are to be proved, and shall, when necessary, be divided into paragraphs, numbered consecutively. Dates, sums and numbers shall be expressed in figures.

Pleading to state material facts and not evidence.

Scope.—The law of pleadings may be tersely summarised in four words. "Plead facts not law." It is the duty of the parties to state only the facts on which they rely their claim. It is for the Court to declare the law arising out of those facts. 143 Ind. Cas. 713=A. I. R. 1933 Sind 103; see also 137 Ind. Cas. 33=A. I. R. 1932 Nag. 23=27 N. L. R. 327=A. L. R. 1932 Nag. 70; A. I. R. 1930 Bom. 511=32 Bom. L. R. 1178=128 Ind. Cas. 609. Plaint should state substantially the facts which make up the plaintiff's case and should be so framed as to enable the other party to know what case he has to meet. 22 C. L. J. 254=20 C. W. N. 310=31 Ind. Cas. 181. Under this rule besides pleas which should be definitely taken, facts constituting them should also be stated. A. I. R. 1925 Pat. 168=(1924) Pat. 297=6 P. L. T. 465=84 Ind. Cas. 386. The decision of a case should be based on pleading. In collision case, plaint should be so framed as to enable the adversary to know the case he has to meet, and to state the particular acts of negligence the result of which is collision. 25 C. W. N. 519=34 C. L. J. 178=66 Ind. Cas. 745. Assertion of non-performance of marriage ceremony also includes denial of the validity of marriage. 64 Ind. Cas. 150. Inconsistent pleas each destructive of the other, should not be permitted. A. I. R. 1931 Nag. 57=26 N. L. R. 367=130 Ind. Cas. 108. But where not so destructive may be permitted. A. I. R. 1925 Oudh 120=27 O. C. 175=11 O. L. J. 619=82 Ind. Cas. 333. The plaintiff need not set out the evidence whereby he proposes to prove the facts which give him the title. 20 C. W. N. 310 (312)=22 C. L. J. 254; see also 38 C. W. N. 908=152 Ind. Cas. 117. Under this rule facts and only material facts are to be stated in the plaint and not the evidence by which they are to be proved. A. I. R. 1925 Pat. 410=31 Pat. L. R. 36=85 Ind. Cas. 629.

3. [R. C. O. 19, r. 5.] The forms in Appendix A when applicable, and where they are not applicable forms of the like character, as nearly as may be, shall be used for all pleadings.

4. [R. S. C. O. 19, r. 6.] In all cases in which the party pleading relies on any misrepresentation, fraud, breach of trust, wilful default or undue influence, and in all other cases in which particulars may be necessary beyond such as are exemplified in the forms aforesaid, particulars (with dates and items if necessary) shall be stated in the pleading.

Particulars to be given where necessary.

Scope.—The object of particulars is to enable the party asking for them to know what case he has to meet at the trial, and so to save unnecessary expense and avoid allowing parties to be taken by surprise. Spedding v. Fitzpatrick, 38 Ch. D. 413 C. A. Whenever either party imputes, fraud, negligence or misconduct to his opponent the facts must be stated with special particularity. Vide Halsbury Vol. XXII, p. 454. "Under the contract law of India, as well as by ordinary principles, coercion, undue influence, fraud and misrepresentation, are all separate and separable categories in law. It is true that they may overlap or may be combined. There is a well-known rule of pleading expressed in the frequently quoted language of Lord Selborne that—"With regard to fraud if there be any principle which is perfectly well settled, is that general allegations, however strong may be the words in which they are stated are insufficient even to amount to an averment of fraud of which any Court ought to take notice.' The law of India is in no way different from this, and it has been decided over and over again e.g., in Ganga Narain Gupta v. Tilukram, L. R. 15 I. A. 119; 19 C. W. N. 745 P. C. The Court has inherent jurisdiction to interfere and direct particulars of a petition or affidavit to be furnished if it considers that a litigant will be substantially embarrassed owing to a lack of precision therein. 40 C. W. N. 913=165 Ind. Cas. 24.

Misrepresentation.—Particulars of misrepresentation and fraud must be given at the instance of the auction purchaser in an auction to resist auction purchaser's title under s. 65. A. I. R. 1926 Bom. 33=27 Bom. L. R. 1318=91 Ind. Cas. 426.

Fraud.—In an action based on general allegations of fraud, breach of trust, specific particular constituting the fraud or the breach of trust must be given. Mere general allegations is insufficient. A. I. R. 1930 Mad. 78=57 M. L. J. 609=30 L. W. 914=123 Ind. Cas. 15; see A. I. R. 1921 Mad. 759=54 M. L. J. 644=28 L. W. 367=110 Ind. Cas. 763; 145 Ind. Cas. 118=A. I. R. 1933 Rang 153; A. I. Where fraud is alleged particulars must be given in plaint, mere general allegation is not sufficient. A. I. R. 1921 Pat. 193=2 P. L. T. 528=6 P. L. J. 373=62 Ind. Cas. 962; A. I. Cas. 890=13 Rang. 175. The fraud which has been pleaded should be proved. A party is not entitled to succeed on any other ground of fraud than that pleaded by it. A. I. R. 1935 Lah. 222.

Undue Influence.—In a case of an action based on fraud or undue influence, particulars as regards the fraud or undue influence must be given. A. I. R. 1928

Oudh 330=5 O. W. N. 435=110 Ind. Cas. 91. Undue influence is a fraud of a gravest nature, and where fraud is already alleged in plaint, undue influence need not be specifically alleged. A. I. R. 1922 Cal. 202=34 C. L. J. 529=26 C. W. N. 177=68 Ind. Cas. 577; 33 Ind. Cas. 576=18 Bom. L. R. 27. If there are facts on record to justify the inference of undue influence, the Court has power to administer relief notwithstanding inartistic pleadings. 27 N. L. R. 19=A. I. R. 1931 Nag. 63.

Custom.—In an action based on custom, custom should be specifically pleaded and all the requisites to its validity must be proved. 34 C. L. J. 319 (F. B.)=66 Ind. Cas. 640. In a case it is not permissible to split up the custom set up by a party. It must be taken as a whole and not piece meal. A custom different from one set up by a party should not ordinarily be allowed to be proved. A. I. R. 1929 Oudh 204=114 Ind. Cas. 113.

Estoppel—Where there are allegations in the written statement which are such that the plea of estoppel might have been raised, it is not always proper, though not absolutely essential that the plea should be definitely raised and issue framed thereon. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 1052=96 Ind. Cas. 915.

Negligence.—In an action based on negligence all particulars, which constitute negligence must be specifically stated in pleading. A. I. R. 1922 Pat. 17=3 P. L. T. 222=67 Ind. Cas. 664.

Damage.—That he was ready to perform his part of the contract is not necessary for the plaintiff to allege, in a suit for damages by purchaser for breach of contract unless defendants put him to its proof. A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 553=31 P. L. R. 110=121 Ind. Cas. 723.

Illegal contract.—In a suit for money advanced if defendant pleads illegality of contract, he must so clearly plead and give particulars and prove illegality. A. I. R. 1925 Rang. 275=3 Rang. 275=92 Ind. Cas. 270. A contract is not valid in absence of consideration, but if there is consideration contract exists, though it may be voidable for fraud. 39 P. L. Forgery.—Allegation of forgery may be inferred from the allegation that the document was not executed but that it was executed by fraud cannot be inferred therefrom. A. I. R. 1929 Cal. 77=111 Ind. Cas. 746.

Easement.—Where the action be brought against the servient owner or a stranger, a party cannot safely allege his right to an easement generally but should state specifically the manner in which he claims title to the easement, whether by grant (actual or lost), prescription at common law, or under the Act. 142 Ind. 5. [R. S. C. O. 19, r. 7.] A further and better statement of the nature of the claim or defence, or further and better particulars of any matter stated in any pleading, may in all cases be ordered, upon such terms, as to costs and otherwise, as may be just.

Scope and object.—In some cases, where other circumstances are such that the party pleading, does not know the facts necessary to enable him to give the particulars, but his opponent knows or ought to know them, the giving of particulars may be postponed till after discovery, and the party applying for particulars may be ordered to give discovery before the party pleading is required to deliver particulars. Waynes v. Radford, (1896) 1 Ch. 29; Maxim Nordenfelt v. Nordenfelt, (1893) 3 Ch. 122 C.A.; Yearly Practice, 1921, p. 250. In Miller v. Harper (1888), 38 Ch. 110 C.A. Bowen L. J. said: "It is good practice and good sense that where defendant knows the facts and the plaintiffs do not, the defendant should give discovery before the plaintiffs deliver particulars." See also Carr v. Anderson, (1901) 18 T. L. R. 206; Yorshire v. Gilbert, (1895) 2 Q. B. 148. The particulars tend to narrow the issue and to limit the enquiry at the trial. Thompson v. Birkley, 31 W. R. Eng. 230. Defendant can ask for particulars of allegations not precisely given in plaint, failure to do which operates as espoppel in second appeal. 1 P. L. T. 34=(1919) Pat. 451=52 Ind. Cas. 964. Where particulars ordered are not supplied by defendant in time Court can strike out his defence even where penalty is not specified in Court's order. A. I. R. 1930 Mad. 473=31 L. W. 387=59 M. L. J. 22=53 M. 645=126 Ind. Cas. 629; see also 45 A. 627=74 Ind. Cas. 466=A. I. R. 1924 All. 17=21 A. L. J. 571. Where in a suit under Bengal Tenancy Act, plaint did not give particulars in s. 148, the defendant should ask for them, but on failure amendment of plaint should be allowed, if cause of action is given. A. I. R. 1931 Pat. 135=11 P. L. T. 617=128 Ind. Cas. 785.

6. [R. S. C. O. 19, r. 14.] Any condition precedent, the performance or occurrence of which is intended to be tested, shall be distinctly specified in his pleading by the plaintiff or defendant, as the case may be; and, subject thereto, an averment of the performance or occurrence of all conditions precedent necessary for the case of the plaintiff or defendant shall be implied in his pleading.

Scope.—The true principle appears to be that wherever a condition precedent goes to the root of the cause of action it is always proper and safer to allege it, and the performance of it, or the excuse for non-performance of it, in the pleading and this rule only deals with the general allegation of the performance of all conditions and with minor matters, such as the lapse of a reasonable time, etc. Yearly Practice, p. 266; Bullen and Leakes P. C. 6th. Ed. 157. Condition precedent and its non-performance must be specified by defendant in pleading otherwise performance will be presumed. Plaintiff need not plead it. Pleadings if silent imply allegation of performance. A. I. R. 1924 Pat. 205=72 Ind. Cas. 1.

In a suit for damages for breach of contract averment of the willingness of the plaintiffs to perform their part of the contract, must be implied and the defendants if they contest that fact must raise the matter expressly in their pleadings. A. I. R. 1926 Lah. 318=7 Lah. 442=94 Ind. Cas. 304. Where service of notice is the foundation of the defendant's liability, the plaint must prove such service of notice, although an averment as regards service of notice in the plaint can be implied. 60 C. 733=37 C. W. N. 504=146 Ind. Cas. 671.

7. [R. S. C. O. 19, r. 16.] No pleading shall, except by way of amendment, raise any new ground of claim or contain any allegation of fact inconsistent with the previous pleadings of the party pleading the same.

Departure. Object and scope.—The effect of the rule is to prevent a plaintiff from setting up in his reply a new claim which is inconsistent with the cause of action alleged in the statement of claim. Yearly Practice, p. 270 citing Earp v. Henderson, (1876) 3 Ch. D. 254.

8. [R. S. C. O. 19, r. 20.] Where a contract is alleged in any pleading, a bare denial of the same by the opposite party shall be construed only as a denial in fact of the express contract alleged or of the matters of fact from which the same may be implied, and not as a denial of the legality or sufficiency in law of such contract.

Denial of contract. Scope.—If the defendant disputes the legality or sufficiency in point of law of the contract set up by the plaintiff, he must state specifically the grounds of his objection, and it is not sufficient to merely traverse any allegations the plaintiff may have made by way of anticipation. Clarke v. Callow, (1876) 46 L. J. C. P. 53; Yearly Practice, p. 274. But when it is brought to the notice of a Court that the consideration for a contract which it is, asked to enforce is in whole or in part an unlawful consideration such Court is bound to give effect to the fact thus brought to its notice, notwithstanding that the contract may appear upon the face of it to be perfectly legal contract, and that the unlawfulness of the consideration therefore was never pleaded by the defendant. 27 A. 266. In Scott v. Brown, L. R. (1892) 2 Q. B. D. 724. Lindley L. J. said: "No Court ought to enforce an illegal contract or allow itself to be made the instrument of enforcing obligations alleged to arise out of a contract or transaction which is illegal, if the illegality is only brought to the notice of the Court, and if the person invoking the aid of the Court is himself implicated in the illegality. It matters not whether the defendant has pleaded the illegality or whether he has not. If the evidence adduced by the plaintiff proves the illegality the Court ought not to assist him". See also Gedge v. Royal Exchange, (1900) 2 Q. B. 214. "It is on the grounds of public policy" said Truro L. C. "namely, that those who violate the law must not apply to the law for protection." Benyon v. Nettlefold, 3 Mac. N. & G. 94.

9. [R. S. C. O. 19, r. 21.] Wherever the contents of any document are material, it shall be sufficient in any pleading to state the effect thereof as briefly as possible, without setting out the whole or any part thereof, unless the precise words of the document or any part thereof are material.

Notes.—Precise words of the document need not be set out. All that is required that the effect of the document should be stated. Darbyshire v. Leigh, (1896) 1 Q. B. at 554=65 L. J. Q. B. 360; see also Phillips v. Phillips, (1878) 4 Q. B. D. 127.

10. [R. S. C. O. 19, r. 22.] Wherever it is material to allege malice, fraudulent intention, knowledge or other condition of the mind of any person, it shall be sufficient to allege the same as a fact without setting out circumstances from which the same is to be inferred.

Object and Scope.—Rule 2 provides that the material facts must be pleaded, but not the evidence by which they are to be proved. So also in the case of malice, fraudulent intention, knowledge or other condition of the mind of any person, the circumstances from which the same inferred is not to be stated. Mistake and bona fide belief and good faith cannot be presumed but must be distinctly alleged in the pleadings. A. I. R. 1931 Mad. 110=33 L. W. 78=130 Ind. Cas. 506. In an action for malicious prosecution, malice must be alleged and proved. Mitchell v. Jenkins, (1833) 5 B. & Ad. 588; Hick v. Faulkner, (1881) 8 Q. B. D. 167. The rule is the same as regards fraud or fraudulent intention. Davy v. Garret, (1878) 7 Ch. D. 489. Facts constituting fraud must be given in detail. A. I. R. 1921. Pat. 181=2 P. L. T. 401=61 Ind. Cas. 823; see also Re Rica Gold Washing Co., (1879) 11 Ch. D. 36; 43, 47 (C. A.); Redgrave v. Hurd, (1881) 20 Ch. D. 1. 12; Smith v. Chadwick, (1881) 20 Ch. D. 27; Wallingford v. Mutual Society, (1880) 5 App. Cas. 685, 701. Allegation of fraud cannot be allowed to be made at a later stage of the suit. It must be made in pleadings. (1916) 1 M. W. N. 180=34 Ind. Cas. 1. Where knowledge or abuse of it is material, it should be stated expressly. Vide Griffiths v. London Docks, (1884) 13 Q. B. D. 259; Osborne v. Chocqual, (1896) 2 Q. B. 109.

11. [R. S. C. O. 19, r. 23.] Wherever it is material to allege notice to any person of any fact, matter or thing, it shall be sufficient to allege such notice as a fact, unless the form or the precise terms of such notice, or the circumstances from which such notice is to be inferred, are material.

Scope.—Where notice is a part of the cause of action, it should be pleaded specifically. To exercise the power of re-sale by vendor giving of notice is condition precedent. Plaintiff therefore pleads and proves notice. A. I. R. 1924 Nag. 162=28 Ind. Cas. 1026; see also s. 80 supra; where notice should also be proved before the suit is decreed.

12. [R. S. C. O. 19, r. 24.] Whenever any contract or any relation between any persons is to be implied from a series of letters or conversations or otherwise from a number of circumstances, it shall be sufficient to allege such contract or relation as a fact and to refer generally to such letters, conversations or circumstances without setting them out in detail. And if in such case the person so pleading desires to rely in the alternative upon more contracts or relations than one as to be implied from such circumstances, he may state the same in the alternative.

Notes.—Vile Brogden v. Metropolitan Co., (1877) 2 App. Cas. 666,

13. [R. S. C. O. 19, p. 25.] Neither party need in any pleading allege any matter of fact which the law presumes in his favour or as to which the burden of proof lies upon the other side unless the same has first been specifically denied (e.g., consideration for a bill of exchange where the plaintiff sues only on the bill and not for the consideration as a substantive ground of claim).

14. [Ss. 51, 115.] Every pleading shall be signed by the party and his pleader (if any): Provided that where a Pleadings to be signed. party pleading is, by reason of absence or for other good cause, unable to sign the pleading, it may be signed by any person duly authorized by him to sign the same or to sue or defend on his behalf.

N.B.—For insertion of new rule in Calcutta.—Vide infra.

Application to Company.—Order 29, rule 1, C.P. Code, relating to the procedure of signing and verification of pleadings in suits by or against corporation is only permissive in its nature, and Order 6, rule 14 applies to the case of companies as well as to private persons. Therefore a plaint in a suit by a company is properly signed if it complies with the provisions of Order 6, rule 14. 32 P. L. R. 655; see also 134 Ind. Cas. 1170=A. I. R. 1931 Sind 178.

Sign.—The procedure for signing is the same for vakalatnama affidavits and pleading. A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 175=54 M. L. J. 65=(1927) M. W. N. 885=51 M. 242=107 Ind. Cas. 804. This rule does not apply to suit on behalf of a limited company in which case the plaint must be signed and verified either by the Secretary or by a Director or other principal officer of the company. Persons having instructions of real and ostensible plaintiff to sign is a duly authorized person. A. I. R. 1925 Lah. 144=75 Ind. Cas. 880. Person in jail unable to sign may authorise another to sign for him and plaint so signed is valid. 16 A. L. J. 64=40 A. 147=44 Ind. Cas. 28. Before accepting pleadings of pardanashin ladies as satisfactory proof of contents there must be strict proof that they have been read out and explained to them. 38 A. 627=31 M. L. J. 607=14 A. L. Signing plaint is matter of procedure and defect therein can be cured at any stage of litigation even in appellate Court as it is not a defect affecting merits of case. A. I. R. 1928 Pat. 51=8 P. L. “Party to suit” in the rule would include even a corporation. 26 S. L. R. 158=A. I. R. 1931 Sind 178=134 Ind. Cas. 1170=A. L. R. 1932 Sind 195. There is no rule that a person named as a co-plaintiff is not to be treated as a plaintiff unless he signs and verifies a plaint. The object of the signature to this plaint is to prevent as far as possible disputes as to whether the suit was instituted with the plaintiff’s knowledge and authority. Such authority may be established by other means besides the signature. This rule which requires a pleading to be signed by a party is merely a matter of procedure and it is the business of the Court to see that this provision is carried out. 26 S. L. R. 167=139 Ind. Cas. 114=A. I. R. 1932 Sind 9.

15. [Ss. 51, 52, 115.] (1) Save as otherwise provided by any law for the time being in force, every pleading shall be verified at the foot by the party or by one of the parties pleading or by some other person proved to the satisfaction of the Court to be acquainted with the facts of the case.

(2) The person verifying shall specify, by reference to the numbered paragraphs of the pleading, what he verifies of his own knowledge and what he verifies upon information received and believed to be true.

(3) The verification shall be signed by the person making it and shall state the date on which and the place at which it was signed.

Scope.—Verification by plaintiff is ordinarily required. 6 W. R. 213. One partner can verify. 12 B. L. R. 35. A plaintiff may be duly authorized agent if he is well acquainted with the facts of the case. 4 B. 468; 26 A. 154; 48 P. R. 1866=9 A. 188; 1 P. L. T. 647=59 Ind. Cas. 282; A. I. All facts relating to suit which are within plaintiff's knowledge must be placed before the Court and plaintiffs must vouch for truth of allegations in plaint. 4 O. L. J. 522=42 Ind. Cas. 416. Where the verification states that certain statements are true according to the information and belief, the mere omission to disclose the sources of such information may affect the weight that is to be attached to that verification; but so long as the verification is made in strict accordance with Order 6, rule 15, it cannot be said to be faulty in form. A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 632=38 C. W. N. 551=59 C. L. J. 391. Where in a suit by a company registered under the Indian Companies Act the plaint was signed and verified by the Secretary and the plaint stated that he was authorized by the Articles of Association of the company to do all acts in connection with suits, and it appeared that the Articles of Association empowered the Secretary to verify pleadings: Held that the requirements of Order 29, rule 1 of the C. P. Code were satisfied and no affidavit testifying to the fitness of the Secretary to verify was required. 40 C. W. N. 930. Verified plaint is not legal evidence of its contents though a false verification may be the basis of a prosecution under s. 195, C. P. Code. 20 C. W. N. 1192=43 C. 1001=34 Ind. Cas. 235. A plaint with defective verification can always be amended and the defect remedied as the defect is one of form. A. I. R. 1924 Lah. 28=5 Lah. L. J. 217=74 Ind. Cas. 688; see also 87 Ind. 16. [R. S. C. O. 19, r. 27.] The Court may at any stage of the proceedings order to be struck out or amended any matter Striking out pleadings. in any pleading which may be unnecessary or scandalous or which may tend to prejudice, embarrass or delay the fair trial of the suit.

Scope.—Parties should stick up to the pleadings as regards the fact to be proved at the trial; inconsistent rights claimed alternatively should be permitted except when they are destructive of each other. 22 C. L. J. 254=20 C. W. N. 310=31 Ind. Cas. 181. If Court is not moved under this rule at trial that party cannot contest it in second appeal. A. I. R. 1930 Mad. 814=32 L. W. 61=127 Ind. Cas. 292. Where defendant fails to supply particulars of his defence after being ordered by the Court to do so he runs the risk of having his defence struck out. A. I. R. 1930 Mad. 743=59 M. L. J. 22=53 M. 645=31 L. W. 387=126 Ind. Cas. 629. Contradictory pleas cannot be refused. A. I. R. 1926 Nag. 265=93 Ind. Cas. 926; see also A. I. R. 1924 Pat. 280=5 P. L. T. 49=(1923) Pat. 357=75 Ind. The jurisdiction under Order VI, rule 6, should be exercised with care and caution. A. I. R. 1925 Cal. 860=29 C. W. N. 670=88 Ind. Cas. 435.

Unnecessary.—As rule a pleading allegation should not be struck out merely because it is unnecessary unless it is also scandalous or embarrassing. Knowles v. Roberts, (1888) 38 Ch. D. 263, 270 (C. A.); Rock v. Prussell, 84 L. T. Jo. 45; Yearly Practice, p. 278. Order of the High Court refusing to direct certain allegations in defendants' written statement to be struck out as being unnecessary and scandalous is not a judgment. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 64=49 M. L. J. 632=(1925) M. W. N. 75=91 Ind. Cas. 666.

Scandalous.—Allegations made in a pleading for the mere purpose of abusing or prejudicing the opposite party and any indecent or offensive matters are scandalous. Christie v. Christie, L. R. 8 Ch. 499; Coyle v. Cuming, 40 L. T. 455; Yearly Practice, p. 278. "It is well settled as pointed out in a work of high authority (Daniell on Chancery Practice, Vol. I, p. 336) that scandalous matter should be avoided in pleadings and any proceedings before the Court may be objected to for scandal and the scandalous matter ordered to be expunged. The Court may take action on its own motion or upon the application of the aggrieved party. But the question still remains what is the test to be applied to determine whether a matter is scandalous. There can be no doubt that allegations of dishonesty are scandalous, but they cannot be treated as such if they are relevant to the issue, for in the words of Lord Justice Cotton in Fisher v. Own, (8 Ch. D. 645 at p. 653) 'nothing can be scandalous which is relevant', or as put by Lord Justice Brett in Millington v. Lorrington (6 Q. B. D. 196), the mere fact that these paragraphs stated a scandalous fact does not make them scandalous. The sole question is as Lord Chancellor Selborne stated in Christie v. Christie, (L. R. 8 Ch. App. 499), whether the matter alleged to be scandalous would be admissible in evidence to show the truth of any allegation in the pleadings, which is material with reference to relief prayed." 14 C. W. N. 153 (156)=10 C. L. J. 414.

Tend to prejudice and embarrass, etc.—"The rule that the Court is not to dictate to the parties how they should frame their case is one that ought always to be preserved sacred. But the rule is of course subject to the modification and limitation that the parties must not offend against the rules of pleading which have been laid down by the law, and if a party introduces a pleading which is unnecessary, and tends to prejudice, embarrass and delay the trial of the action, it becomes a pleading which is beyond his right." Per Bowen L. J. in Knowles v. Roberts, 38 Ch. D. 263 (269). It is for the Judge to decide whether a pleading is embarrassing. Russell v. Shilbs, (1913) 2 K. B. 230. Where a plaint is verbose, extremely long and involved, and impossible to understand and does not allege clearly any fact which would show that the Judge had jurisdiction to hear the case at all the whole document should be struck out. 114 Ind. Cas. 906=1929 A. L. J. 495. Matter in pleading embarrassing fair trial of suit can be struck out by Court at any stage of the proceeding. 20 O. C. 192=4 O. L. J. 499=41 Ind. Cas. 903. Suit should be dismissed for inconsistent and embarrassing allegations in course of suit and not when occurring in plaint only. 2 Pat. L. W. 226=42 Ind. Cas. 620.

17. [R. S. C. O. 28. r. 1.] The Court may at any stage of the proceedings, allow either party to alter or amend his pleadings in such manner and on such terms as may be just, and all such amendments shall be made as may be necessary for the purpose of determining the real questions in controversy between the parties.

Principle.—"It is a well established principle that the object of Courts is to decide the rights of the parties and not to punish them for mistakes they make in the conduct of their cases by deciding otherwise than in accordance with their right. I know of no kind of error or mistake which if not fraudulent or intended to over-reach, a Court ought not to correct, if it can be done without injustice to the other party. The Courts do not exist for the sake of discipline, but for the sake of deciding matters in controversy, and I do not regard such amendments as a matter of favour or grace. It seems to me that as soon as it appears that the way in which a party has framed his case will not lead to a decision of the real matter in controversy, it is as much a matter of right on his part to have it corrected, if it can be done without injustice, as anything else in a case is a matter of right". Per Bowen L. J. in Copper v. Smith, (1884) 26 Ch. D. 700 (C. A.); see also Shoe Machinery v. Cutlan, (1896) 1 Ch. D. 108. A prayer for amendment should be allowed unless the Court is satisfied that the party applying is acting mala fide or that his blunder has done some injury to his opponent which cannot be compensated for by costs or otherwise. Tildesley v. Harper, 10 Ch. D. 393; Steward v. North Metropolitan Tramways 16 Q. B. D. 178 180; Australian Steam Navigation v. Smith, 14 App. Cas. 318, 320; In Re Trufort, 53 L. T. 498, 500. So the rule is that however negligent or careless the first omission may have been, and however late the proposed amendment, the amendment should be allowed, if it can be made without injustice to the other side. And there is no injustice if the other side can be compensated by costs.

Clarapade v. Commercial Union, (1883) 32 W. R. 262, 263. So amendment can be allowed at any stage of the proceedings provided it is necessary for determination of real question in issue and there is no question of prejudice, the object being to administer justice and not to punish for mistakes. A. I. R. 1931 Nag. 20=130 Ind. Cas. 105 ; 7 O. W. N. 1195=A. I. R. 1931 Oudh 54 ; A. I. R. 1921 Lah. 220=3 Lah. L. J. 227=60 Ind. Cas. 502. An amendment is not objectionable where it does not change the subject-matter of the suit or is not otherwise objectionable. A. I. R. 1937 P. C. 42. "Amendment" is a very wide term and include addition of claims and claims which are not time-barred, can always be added if otherwise permissible. 156 Ind. Cas. 479=A. I. R. 1935 Pat. 365.

Where amendment is only asked for out of abundant caution because of a conflict of decision on the point it should be allowed as it does not injure the defendant and prevents plaintiffs being formally driven to a fresh suit on the same matter. A. I. R. 1934 Mad. 267=39 L. W. 476=1934 M. W. N. 478=148 Ind. Cas. 869. When a previous application for amendment has been dismissed on merits a second application on the same facts cannot be allowed. A. I. R. 1934 Sind 193. Where no new case is made in the application for amendment and where all thing is done is to change the history of the transaction, the prayer for amendment can be granted. A. I. Where the plaintiff prayed for amendment of his prayer without amending the cause of action, for saving his suit from being barred by limitation, his prayer can be granted. A. I. Court has no right to direct an amendment of a plaint when it has no jurisdiction over the subject-matter of the plaint. A. I. R. 1935 All. 842=1935 A. L. J. 981=158 Ind. Cas. 516. The main point in considering whether leave should be granted to any party to amend his pleading is whether in the words of Order 6, rule 17, the amendment is necessary for the purpose of determining the real controversy between the parties. In this respect two complementary propositions arise : firstly, that the determination of the real questions in controversy is the prime object of the frame and settlement of the pleadings ; and on the other hand, that leave to amend should not be granted if the amendment would convert the case set up into another of a different and inconsistent character. The Court will not allow an amendment that would involve a complete change of forms in the defence A. I. R. 1935 Pat. 463=157 Ind. Cas. 764.

Scope—Order 6, rule 17, is considerably wider than the corresponding section of the old Code and the Court is given very wide power of discretion to allow amendment especially to avoid multiplicity of suits. 155 Ind. Cas. 1016=41 L. W. 429=1935 M. W. N. 56=A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 286. Under this rule amendment can always be allowed unless suit is changed or great inconvenience is caused to the defendant. A. I. Court cannot compel the parties to amend their pleadings. 111 Ind. Cas. 787. The three chief conditions on which an amendment should ordinarily be allowed are (1) that the application should be bona fide (2) that no injustice is done to the otherside thereby, and (3) that the nature of the case is not changed. The plaintiff's suit was one for recovery of a sum of Rs. 307 odd, said to be due on account of certain business transaction between the parties from 11-12-26 to 11-3-29 ; and after the original ex parte decree has been set aside and the suit restored the plaintiff made an application to amend his plaint in answer to the written statement. In the written statement it had been pleaded that some of the items named in the plaint were barred by limitation, and the plaintiff therefore applied to amend the plaint with reference to the acknowledgment said to have been made on 27-7-29 : Held that as the proposed amendment itself did not alter the nature of the suit, the amendment should be allowed. 55 A. 256=A. I. R. 1933 All. 374=145 Ind. Cas. 859=(1933) A. L. J. 768. So where fundamental character of the suit is not changed, amendment should be allowed. A. L. R. 1933 Rang. 247=A. I. R. 1933 Rang. 247. The powers of the Court under the C. P. Code to allow amendment are very wide and leave to amend should always be given unless the Court is satisfied that the party applying for leave is acting mala fide, or that by his blunder he has done some injury to the opponent which cannot be compensated for by costs or otherwise. Where therefore it is conceded that the proposed amendment would not change the character of the suit, nor would it cause irreparable injury to the defendant and all the facts necessary for the decision of the case on the proposed amendment are before the Court, the amendment of the plaint should be allowed. A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 245=33 P. L. R. 694=139 Ind. Cas. 441. The amendment of a plaint relates back to the date of institution of the suit with regard to a question of limitation. 143 Ind. Cas. 504=A. At any stage of the proceedings.—Under this rule amendment in a proper case may be allowed at any stage of the proceedings i.e., before, at or trial or even after judgment or in appeal. After disposal of appeal, amendment of plaint was allowed by adding a new claim for mesne profits. 45 Ind. Additional Relief.—In a suit for specific performance, amendment as to relief of possession may be allowed. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 155=22 L. W. 579=92 Ind. Cas. 599=(1925) M. W. N. 802. Amendment should be allowed even if the original cause of action is modified to some extent or another is added. 122 Ind. Cas. 174; see also 33 C. W. N. 359=56 C. 622=A. I. R. 1929 Cal. 519=119 Ind. Amendment to introduce new cause of action after limitation ought not to be allowed. 13 Bur. L. T. 201=64 Ind. Cas. 29. In a suit for possession of property against wife on the ground of adultery amendment adding prayer for divorce should be allowed even in second appeal. A. I. R. 1923 Rang. 160=2 Bur. L. J. 65=75 Ind. Cas. 6. A plaintiff with a good cause of action cannot be turned out merely because although he has stated the facts quite accurately he has asked for confirmation of possession instead of asking for recovery of possession. In such a case the Court can order an amendment. 35 C. W. N. 620.

Addition of parties.—New plaintiff may be added for really deciding plaintiff's claim. A. I. R. 1931 Cal. 765=2 C. L. J. 357=58 C. 561=129 Ind. Cas. 860. Opportunity should be given to parties to remove the defect of non-joinder. A. I. R. 1930 Rang. 295=129 Ind. Cas. 508; see also A. I. R. 1923 Bom. 305=25 Bom. L. R. 689=47 B. 809=83 Ind. Cas. 856. Amendment seeking to bring new plaintiff on record at a time when the suit would be time-barred, cannot be allowed. A. I. R. 1925 Mad. 917=85 Ind. Cas. 961. Whereby non-joinder of necessary parties as respondent the appeal would be incompetent, even in such case amendment cannot be allowed where omission was due to negligence. A. L. R. 1934 Lah. 41. Adding parties at the stage of execution is not permissible. 60 C. 801=A. I. R. 1930 Cal. 668. Amendment by Appellate Court.—In a proper case amendment can even be permitted for the first time in second appeal. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 1117=51 M. L. J. 418=98 Ind. Cas. 39; see also A. I. sought in second appeal by which defendant is likely to lose his plea of limitation should not be allowed. A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 650=25 L. W. 506=38 M. L. T. 345=101 Ind. Cas. 390. Amendment of plaint in second appeal should not also be allowed where such paryer could have been made at the earlier stage of the proceeding and the bringing of a fresh suit for obtaining relief sought is not barred. A. I. R. 1935 Rang. 88. In appeal amendment should not be allowed except on exceptional circumstances. A. I. R. 1936 Mad. 545 ; A. I. R. 1936 Pat. 191. Appeal and Revision.—Amendment permitted by appellate Court is not subject to appeal. 42 Ind. Cas. 455. A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 867 ; see also 60 C. L. J. 91=38 C. W. N. 1146.

18. [R. S. C. O. 28, r. 7.] If a party who has obtained an order for Failure to amend after leave to amend does not amend accordingly order. within the time limited for that purpose by the order, or if no time is thereby limited then within fourteen days from the date of the order, he shall not be permitted to amend after the expiration of such limited time as aforesaid or of such fourteen days, as the case may be, unless the time is extended by the Court.

Scope.—Order VI, rule 17 of the Civil Procedure Code only provides that the Court may allow an amendment, and if the party to whom the permission is given does not avail himself of it, the only consequence is that, under Order VI, rule 18, he cannot amend his pleading afterwards unless the time allowed for amendment is extended by the Court. Therefore where a plaintiff fails to amend his plaint when directed to do so, the Court has no power, merely on this account, to dismiss the suit. 60 Ind. Cas. 376 ; see also 19 Ind. Cas. 472=169 P. L. R. 1913=107 P. W. R. 1913. Time however may be extended by the Court even after the expiry of the time originally fixed. 16 B. 348. Refusal to amend seeking to introduce a certain cause of action is no bar to bring a fresh suit on the same cause of action. 99 Ind. Cas. 538=A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 83. Under Order 6, C. P. Code failure to amend merely involves loss of right to amend and therefore not to the determination of the suit as expressed in the original plaint. A. I. R. 1936 Pesh. 155=164 Ind. Cas. 181.

ORDER VII.

Plaint.

Particulars to be contained in plaint.

1. [S. 50, para 1.] The plaint shall contain the following particulars :—

(a) the name of the Court in which the suit is brought ;

- (b) the name, description and place of residence of the plaintiff ;
- (c) the name, description and place of residence of the defendant, so far as they can be ascertained ;
- (d) where the plaintiff or the defendant is a minor or a person of unsound mind, a statement to that effect ;
- (e) the facts constituting the cause of action and when it arose ;
- (f) the facts showing that the Court has jurisdiction ;
- (g) the relief which the plaintiff claims ;
- (h) where the plaintiff has allowed a set-off or relinquished a portion of his claim, the amount so allowed or relinquished ; and
- (i) a statement of the value of the subject-matter of the suit for the purposes of jurisdiction and of Court-fees, so far as the case admits.

Plaint.—Plaint in law means nothing more than a private memorial tendered to a Court in which a person sets forth his cause of action ; the exhibition of an action in writing. Substantial compliance with Order VI, and Order VII makes a document a plaint. A. I. R. 1921 Sind 166=17 S. L. R. 223=85 Ind. Cas. 893 (22 M. 494 foll.) Formerly "plaint" meant in the Superior Court of England, the cause for which the plaintiff complained against the defendant and for which he obtained the King's writ—Byrne's Law Dictionary. It is absolutely essential that the pleading, not to be embarrassing to the defendants, should state those facts which will put the defendants on their guard and tell them what they will have to meet when the case comes on for trial. This the plaintiff is bound to do though he need not set out the evidence whereby he proposes to prove the facts which give him the title. Williams v. Wilcox, 8 A. & E 33 ; Gantrel v. Egerton, L. R. 2 C. P. 371 ; 20 C. W. N. 310 =22 C. L. J. 254. A plaintiff may in certain circumstances rely upon several different rights alternately though they may be inconsistent. 34 C. 51=11 C. W. N. 26=4 C. L. J. 437 ; 20 C. W. N. 310=22 C. L. J. 254 ; Phillips v. Phillips, 4 Q. B. D. 127 ; Berdan v. Greenwood, 3 E. X. D. 255 ; Hawkesley v. Bradshaw, 5 Q. B. D. 303 ; In re Morgan, 35 Ch. D. 496. The Court should look to the substance of the plaint rather than to their wordings, when they are prepared in mufassil Courts. 12 P. L. T. 636=131 Ind. Cas. 529=A. I. R. 1931 Pat. 179. Application under para 20 does not become suit to enforce award by mere fact of being brought under Order 7, rule 1. A. I. R. 1934 Mad. 68.

Shall contain.—The word "shall" was substituted for the word "must" which occurred in the old Code. The word "must" was held to be a strong imperative. 18 A. 403. The description of a suit in the heading of a plaint does not determine the nature of the suit. A. I. R. 1927 Sind 78=97 Ind. Cas. 257.

Clause (b)—A corporation should sue in its own name. 10 W. R. 366. An unregistered or unincorporated company must sue by the name of all its members. 8 W. R. 45. The description of the plaintiff as residing in Chitpur Road in the town of Calcutta is not a sufficient description of his place of abode. Where the defendant is described as "formerly of Calcutta" the description also is insufficient. 4 C. L. R. 366. The name of the street and the number of the premises should be inserted. 134 Ind. Cas. 538=58 C. 418=A. I. R. 1931 Cal. 458. The heading of the plaint filed by a corporation should also contain the name and description or place of residence of the person who represents such corporation. 26 S. L. R. 431=142 Ind. Cas. 361=A. I. R. 1933 Sind 102. Where plaintiff is not described in the cause title shebail of the idol it is certainly a misdescription, but may be cured by amendment without hardship to defendant. A. I. R. 1926 Cal. 417=42 C. L. J. 30=87 Ind. Cas. 159.

Clause (c)—The description contemplated by the Code includes all the titles by which a party is known. 18 W. R. 301=12 B. L. R. 443 (P. C.) (12 W. R. 450 disapproved). Father's name and age should also be given as they fall under the word "description". 7 M. L. J. 81. When a person is suing or is sued as executor of another person, it should be stated in the description of the party. 9 A. 188. A corporation should be sued in its corporate name. 15 W. R. 534 ; 9 W. R. 206. Dismissal is not justified for the omission of full description of the defendant in plaint or his capacity in title of plaint. 35 Ind. Cas. 792.

Clause (d).—For suits by or against minor vide Order XXXII. Where under a bona fide belief that the plaintiff is a minor and is represented by his mother as next friend, the suit is maintainable, notwithstanding the plaintiff is major. A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 477=100 Ind. Cas. 469.

Clause (e)—"Cause of action" means every fact necessary for the plaintiff to prove, if traversed to support his right to judgment of Court. It does not mean every piece of evidence necessary to prove each fact but every fact necessary to be proved. A. I. R. 1921 Sind 205=17 S. L. R. 41=80 Ind. Cas. 985. Under Order VII, aggregate of claim put forward in plaint is treated as one suit though there may be several causes of action. One plaint is only one suit. 40 M. 1=5 L. W. 580=32 M. L. J. 231=(1917) M. W. N. 367=39 Ind. Cas. 439. It is imperative under Order VII, rule 1 (e), that the plaint should contain in addition to other particulars "the facts constituting the cause of action and when it arose." 42 C. 85=28 Ind. Cas. 463; see also 39 Ind. Cas. 21=13 N. L. R. 16; 19 C. W. N. 18; 6 C. W. N. 585 (588); 11 W. R. 238. A plaintiff when he files his suit must allege the cause of action in the manner prescribed in this rule and must prove necessary allegations in so far as they are not admitted by the defendant. 4 Bom. L. R. 58=26 B. 360. It is doubtful whether a plaintiff can be allowed to take advantage of any express ground of exemption from the ordinary law of limitation which has not been pleaded in the plaint, having regard to the terms of this section. 30 C. 699=7 C. W. N. 651. No suit is maintainable when instituted by a person in his capacity as administrator of the estate of a deceased person unless and until letters of administration are issued to him to entitle him to sue in such representative capacity. 12 C. W. N. 738. When a plaintiff does satisfy the requirements of s 50, C. P. Code, by granting what in his opinion the ground upon which he intends to get over the bar of limitation, he ought not to be precluded from taking another and not inconsistent ground should be latter advised that the latter is the true ground. 10 Bom. L. R. 346. Estoppel being rule of evidence should not be set out in plaint which should confine itself to facts. 16 S. L. R. 207=83 Ind. Cas. 360. The Court can disregard the form of the plaint where in substance all the facts necessary to raise the point in controversy are mentioned in plaint. A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 806=46 C. L. J. 149=105 Ind. Cas. 22.

In a suit for defamation, plaint should allege specific time, place and words and also individuals to whom words are spoken. A. I. R. 1926 All. 672=96 Ind. Cas. 89.

Only facts entitling plaintiff to decree need be set out in plaint. A. I. R. 1923 Lah. 475=83 Ind. Cas. 807. Plaintiff must prove that he is in time as regards a suit of limitation. A. I. R. 1924 Cal. 420=38 C. L. J. 218. A Court must see whether a plaintiff has brought his suit within limitation. A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 30=97 Ind. Cas. 635. Where relied on as alternative ground adverse possession should be specifically pleaded. A. I. R. 1925 Mad. 1005=(1925) M. W. N. 232=88 Ind. Cas. 249. Facts not specifically pleaded in plaint but admitted by the defendant can be relied on by the plaintiff to establish his claim. A. I. R. 1921 Bom. 307=45 B. 535=58 Ind. Cas. 69. A person's authority to bring a suit is a question of principle, but the proper signing and verification of the plaint is a matter of practice, omission therein may be amended at any time. A. I. R. 1925 Sind 159=19 S. L. R. 286=80 Ind. Cas. 141; see also 105 Ind. Cas. 22=A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 806=46 C. L. J. 149. The plaintiff and not the defendant has to state and prove when his cause of action arose. A. I. R. 1930 Mad. 742=123 Ind. Cas. 197. The Court is entitled to determine the date when the cause of action arose from the facts alleged and proved and is not confined to plaint alone. A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 516=119 Ind. Cas. 258. The plaint should contain a distinct statement as to where the cause of action arose. If the narration of facts constituting the cause of action contains the date, no separate statement in a separate para as to when it arose is unnecessary. 35 C. W. N. 990; see also A. I. R. 1931 Cal. 458=58 C. 418. In a suit for redemption prima facie proof in support of the plaintiff's claim for redemption must be forthcoming. 132 Ind. Cas. 793=14 O. L. J. 452=8 O. W. N. 732=A. I. R. 1931 Oudh 378.

Clause (f).—The provisions of this clause is imperative. A. I. R. 1925 Nag. 183=82 Ind. Cas. 201. The jurisdiction of Court to try the suit must then depend on the amount or value of the subject-matter of the suit as fixed by the plaintiff. The plaint must contain a statement of the value of the subject-matter of the suit for the purpose of jurisdiction and of Court-fees so far as the case admits. 39 Ind. Cas. 439=40 M. 1=31 M. L. J. 231=(1917) M. W. N. 367 (F. B.). If such jurisdiction is disputed, it is determined by the Court, and that determination which is preliminary to the adjudication of the suit, determines the Court which has jurisdiction to try the suit. Ibid; see also 2 C. L. J. 431; 2 Ind. Cas. 269=12 O. C. 90. If the plaintiff rely upon the defendants' residence or place of business giving jurisdiction, the facts showing this should be stated in the body of the plaint. A. I. R. 1931 Cal 458=58 C. 418.

Clause (g).—Substance and not form of plaint should be looked to. Prayer in particular form is not necessary when relief is substantially claimed in body of plaint. A. I. R. 1931 Mad. 94=(1930) M. W. N. 358=129 Ind. Cas. 824 If a plaintiff ask for "the following reliefs and such other relief as to the Court may seem just and proper to grant, namely", and follows this up with several prayers without any disjunctive adverb, the presumption is that they are intended to be cumulative and not alternative. 7 Ind. Cas. 505=86 P. W. R. 1910. On a prayer by plaintiff for such general relief as the Court might grant if prayer for possession is refused, the Court can grant the plaintiff a declaration of his title though he fails to obtain the specific relief prayed for. 4 Lah. L. J. 393.

Clause (h).—Vide A. W. N. (1906) 214.

Clause (i).—Vide notes under clause (f). Fanciful valuation should not be given. 92 Ind. Cas. 730=A. I. R. 1929 Mad. 591. Plaint may be returned for gross under valuation. 3 A. W. R. 405.

Verification.—The provisions regarding verification of plaints appears to be useless. 58 C. 418=134 Ind. Cas. 538=A. I. R. 1931 Cal. 458. Order 29, rule 1, only requires that a pleading filed by a corporation should be verified by its principal officer. 26 S. L. R. 431=142 Ind. Cas. 361=A. I. R. 1933 Sind 102.

2. [S. 50, paras 2, 3.] Where the plaintiff seeks the recovery of money, the plaintiff shall state the precise amount claimed.

But where the plaintiff sues for mesne profits or for an amount which will be found due to him on taking unsettled accounts between him and the defendant, the plaintiff shall state approximately the amount sued for.

N. B.—For local amendment in Lahore.—Vide infra.

Scope.—The power to reject a plaint arises only upon its being proved that the suit is under-valued. The correct valuation of the property in dispute is not necessary for admission of a plaint before the plaint is registered. A. I. R. 1930 Cal. 65=50 C. L. J. 164=33 C. W. N. 952=57 C. 587.

Suit for money.—In a money suit, precise amount claimed must be stated. 12 B. 625. Where the suit is on a promissory-note, all the facts giving rise to the alternative claim are fully stated in the plaint, the fact that the plaintiff has not formally asked for relief on the original consideration is no bar to the granting of the relief on that basis. 27 N. L. R. 327.

Suits for mesne profits or for accounts.—When mesne profits are claimed only from the date of institution of the suit, it is not possible to state even approximately the amount of mesne profits. A. I. R. 1923 Rang. 110=1 Bur. L. J. 267=4 U. B. R. 140=77 Ind. Cas. 53; see also 40 M. 1=32 M. L. J. 221; 29 Ind. Cas. 195=1915 M. W. N. 319; 10 Ind. Cas. 312; 18 C. W. N. 622; 15 B. 416. Where plaintiff claims mesne profits both for period antecedent to suit and period subsequent thereto, the valuation refers to both periods. If he sues for mesne profits in respect of only one of these two periods, the valuation refers to that period alone. 93 Ind. Cas. 939=A. I. R. 1926 Pat. 218 (F. B.)=5 Pat. 361=7 P. L. T. 313. Neither Order VII, rule 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure nor s. 7, cl. (IV) (f) of the Court Fees Act would apply to unascertained future mesne profits. Per Jawla Prosad J. in A. I. R. 1926 Pat. 218 (F. B.)=5 Pat. 361=7 P. L. T. 313=(1926) P. 49=93 Ind. Cas. 939; see also 15 B. 416. Approximate valuation need only be given to past mesne profits. 24 Ind. Cas. 232. This rule is also applicable in suits for accounts. 20 Ind. Cas. 928=9 N. L. R. 112; 18 B. 40; 40 M. 1. In suit for damages, the amount of damages claimed should also be given approximately. 17 M. L. J. 625.

3. [New.] Where the subject-matter of the suit is immovable property, the plaintiff shall contain a description of the property sufficient to identify it, and, in case such property can be identified by boundaries or numbers in a record of settlement or survey, the plaintiff shall specify such boundaries or numbers.

Where the subject-matter of the suit is immovable property.

boundaries or numbers in a record of settlement or survey, the plaintiff shall specify such boundaries or numbers.

N. B.—For local amendment in Calcutta.—Vide infra.

Scope.—There is some apparent conflict of decisions on the point whether in a suit relating to immovable properties the boundaries should be given. In 26 C. 845=4 C. W. N. 162, a bench of the Calcutta High Court held that the plaintiff's suit would not necessarily fall upon the ground that there were no boundaries given in the plaint, when they merely seek for a declaratory decree in respect of their title. In 1 C.W.N. 574, Mr. justice Rampini went further and said in the course of his judgment at p. 576 : "I am not aware of there being any provision in the Civil Procedure Code authorising the dismissal of a suit" on the ground that the land in suit cannot be identified. But in the above case it is submitted the learned Judge's opinion is a mere obiter dictum. In 19 W. R. 81, the decree which was successfully objected to in special appeal was a decree for the portion only of the land in suit, such portion not being specified by boundaries in the decree which consequently was incapable of execution. See also 23 W. R. 285 ; 25 W. R. 39 ; 2 C. L. R. 134. But now it is clear from this rule that boundaries of the immovable property are not absolutely necessary but in all kinds of suits whether declaratory or not, if it relates to immovable property, the plaint shall contain a description of the property sufficient to identify it. See also 18 W. R. 461 ; 5 C. W. N. 121 ; 7 C. W. N. 121. Where there are two conflicting descriptions of the subject-matter of a grant or two conflicting parts of the same description, that which is more certain and stable, and the least likely to have been mistaken or to have inserted inadvertently, must prevail if it sufficiently identifies the subject-matter. 10 C. L. J. 570=37 C. 293. But where these two elements, the boundaries and the quantity, are equally certain and exactly defined, or the boundaries are as precise and definite as the quantity is specific and exact, and there is gross divergence between the quantity specified and the quantity found to be included within the defined boundaries, preference should be given to that element of the description of the subject-matter which is more consistent with the intention of the parties to be collected from the other parties of the deed, illuminated if necessary, by the surrounding circumstances and the subsequent conduct of the parties. Ibid. (on appeal 40 I. A. 223=41 C. 493=18 C. W. N. 66=19 C. L. J. 95) ; see also 13 C. W. N. 702. Where boundaries of property as given in the plaint are not correct the property within those boundaries cannot pass. A. I. R. 1929 Pat. 49=108 Ind. Cas. 814.

4. [S. 50, para 4.] Where the plaintiff sues in a representative character the plaintiff shall show not only that he has an actual existing interest in the subject-matter, but that he has taken the steps (if any) necessary to enable him to institute a suit concerning it.

Scope—Representative capacity need not be stated in cause-title. It is sufficient if it appears in the body of the plaint. 50 Ind. Cas. 525=46 C. 877 ; see also A. I. R. 1938 Nag. 319=109 Ind. Cas. 785 ; 19 C. W. N. 1193=28 Ind. Cas. 818 ; 34 C. 548. The plaint must contain a statement that the suit is brought in a representative capacity. A. I. R. 1925 Nag. 183=82 Ind. Cas. 201 ; see also 7 B. 467 ; 8 B. 309 ; 5 C. 144 ; 12 C. 437 ; 77 Ind. Cas. 1028. In a suit by the manager of an undivided family on a promissory-note passed in his name by the defendant the other members are not necessary parties and the suit is not bad for non-joinder. A. I. R. 1922 Bom. 283=46 B. 358=23 Bom. L. R. 1135=64 Ind. Cas. 966 ; see also 14 B. 597.

Has taken steps.—So long as the compliance with s. 187 of the Succession Act (of 1865) is prior to the decree, the fact that it is after the institution of the suit makes no difference and the Court is fully competent to deal with the suit. A. I. R. 1923 Cal. 1=50 C. 49=36 C. L. J. 35 ; see also 15 B. 105 ; 38 C. 327 ; 37 B. 158 ; 12 C. W. N. 738. But Mahomedan executors need not take out probate before suing. 14 C. 37.

Suit by or against a club.—In a suit by or against an unregistered club the names of all the members should be given.—Vide 14 M. 362 ; 20 A. 497.

C. P. Code—57

5. [S. 50, para 5] The plaintiff shall show that the defendant is or claims to be interested in the subject-matter, and that he is liable to be called upon to answer the plaintiff's demand.

Defendant's interest and liability to be shown.

Scope.—A plaintiff which does not show the cause of action is a defective plaintiff. The Court in such a case is bound to call upon the plaintiff to disclose his cause of action correctly against each defendant. A. I. R. 1924 Nag 191=79 Ind. Cas. 614 ; see also 25 Ind. Cas. 77=12 A. L. J. 339.

6. [S. 50, para 6.] Where the suit is instituted after the expiration of the period prescribed by the law of limitation, the plaintiff shall show the ground upon which exemption from such law is claimed.

Ground of exemption from limitation law.

Scope.—This rule should be construed liberally and reasonably. Where exemption from limitation is not stated in the plaintiff the Court should allow the inclusion of that ground. Where that point is expressed in the plaintiff, r. 6 is satisfied but in such a case plaintiff may try to get over the bar of limitation by putting forth another ground if he believes the latter to be true. 3 Lah. L. J. 22=60 Ind. Cas. 772. Where suit is prima facie barred by limitation, plaintiff must state in plaintiff the ground on which the bar is saved. 52 Ind. Cas. 243=(1919) M. W. N. 429=9 L. A ground to save limitation which has not been taken in the plaintiff cannot be taken unless the plaintiff is amended. 1933 M. W. N. 931 (30 C. 699 ; 31 C. 195 ; 17 M. L. J. 281 ; 1919 M. W. Where nothing is stated and no issue is framed, no evidence can be given to prove facts that limitation has been saved. 25 M. L. T. 295=1919 M. W. N. 429=9 L. W. 82=51 Ind. Cas. 956 ; A. I. Though an acknowledgment is not pleaded in plaintiff, yet it can be set up in reply to defence of the defendant. A. I. R. 1922 Oudh 135=25 O. C. 89=68 Ind. Cas. 196. But where plaintiff shows how plaintiff's claim is within limitation, plaintiff ought not to be debarred from taking another and even on inconsistent ground to get over the bar of limitation. A. I. R. 1921 Nag. 1=17 N. L. R. 209=65 Ind. Cas. 279 ; see also 12 C. W. N. 617=7 C. L. J. 560 ; 14 C. W. N. 128 ; 8 Ind. Cas. 81=13 C. L. J. 139 ; 65 Ind. Cas. 772=A. I. R. 1922 Lah. 230=2 Lah. 13=3 Lah. L. J. 22=63 P. L. R. 1921. Where the plaintiff is defective in this respect, the plaintiff should be allowed to amend his plaintiff. 116 P. W. R. 1918=102 P. R. 1918=120 P. L. R. 1918=46 Ind. Cas. 495. This section has no application in a case when prima facie the case is not time-barred. 25 Ind. Cas. 463=70 P. R. 1914=260 P. L. R. 1914 ; see also A. I. R. 1923 Lah. 591=82 Ind. Cas. 866. In a suit to redeem mortgage alleged to have executed within 60 years, it is not necessary for plaintiff to plead acknowledgment to save limitation. 51 Ind. Cas. 283=17 A. L. J. 330. An omission to show ground of exemption in respect of a suit filed on the day the Court reopened after its summer vacation would not entail the dismissal of the suit. The plaintiff should be allowed to be amended. 16 N. L. R. 198=56 Ind. Cas. 926. Where suit would be barred but for the alleged minority of plaintiffs onus is on the plaintiffs to prove that the suit is within time. 10 Lah. L. J. 309=30 P. L. R. 105=109 Ind. Cas. 331. An acknowledgment of liability sufficient under s. 19 of the Limitation Act to give a fresh period of limitation from the date thereof should be pleaded specifically. A. I. R. 1924 Pat. 806=5 P. L. T. 551=78 Ind. Cas. 919. The plaintiff having mentioned one ground of exemption in the plaintiff is not debarred from taking another inconsistent ground to get over the bar of limitation. But where no ground of exemption from the law of limitation is stated in the plaintiff, acknowledgment as a ground of exemption cannot be allowed to be set up in appeal. A. I. R. 1922 Lah. 39=3 Lah. 233=69 Ind. Cas. 419=4 Lah. L. J. 190. Special plea of limitation ought to be taken in the written statement ; though a plea of limitation can be raised at any stage of suit, even in appeal. A. I. R. 1924 Cal. 463=69 Ind. Cas. 194. Objection as regards omission to set out in plaintiff the ground of exemption from limitation cannot be allowed to be taken in revision. 4 L. W. 148=36 Ind. Cas. 593. Where a plaintiff is presented on the reopening date after Court holidays and the period of limitation has expired during the holidays, the fact that the ground of exemption under s. 4, Limitation Act, was not specifically mentioned in the plaint will not entail the dismissal of the suit in as much as the Court is bound to take judicial notice of the holidays. A. I. R. 1937 Pesh. 41.

7. [R. S. O. 20, P. 6.] Every plaint shall state specifically the relief which the plaintiff claims either simply or in the alternative, and it shall not be necessary to ask for general or other relief which may always be given as the Court may think just to the same extent as if it had been asked for. And the same rule shall apply to any relief claimed by the defendant in his written statement.

Scope—The same cause of action can give rise to different reliefs. A plaintiff may claim them, separately, or collectively. It has always been the practice of the Court to confine the relief given under the power to grant general relief, the relief which is inconsistent with the case made out on the pleadings, and not to give relief inconsistent with it. Cockerell v. Dickens, Mont. D. & D. 45; Mathers v. Green (1865) 35 L. J. Ch. 1; Hill v. G. N. Ry. Co., (1854) 5 De. G. M. & G. 66; Hutton v. Hutton, (1916) 1 K. B. 642, 656. The power of Court to grant general or other relief not specifically claimed, while undoubted is always subject to the condition that the relief so granted is not inconsistent with that specifically claimed and with the case raised by the pleadings. A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 267.

General or other relief.—The intent and purpose of Order 7, rule 7, is to take the place of practice previously followed by Courts. 13 Lah. L. T. 31. A prayer for a general relief is no longer necessary under the new Code. Where facts pleaded and found proved show that the plaintiff is entitled to a particular relief the Court can grant him such relief though it is not specifically pleaded. A. I. R. 1930 Nag. 92=26 N. L. R. 94=120 Ind. Cas. 321; see also A. I. R. 1930 Pat. 71=10 P. L. T. 630=127 Ind. Cas. 292; 118 Ind. Cas. 381=A. I. R. 1929 All. 555. So a prayer for general relief is unnecessary. All that is necessary is that the necessary foundation of facts must be laid in the plaint. A. I. R. (1923) Pat. 386=(1923) Pat. 153=5 P. L. T. 337=76 Ind. Cas. 940; A. I. R. 1921 Lah. 125=2 Lah. 256=107 P. L. R. 1921=64 Ind. Cas. 896; A. I. R. 1921 Pat. 14=6 Pat. L. J. 190=2 P. L. T. 325=60 Ind. Cas. 980; 54 Ind. Cas. 797. Court can give the plaintiff a decree for less than what he had demanded if the Court finds him entitled to less relief. A. I. R. 1923 Sind 5 (F. B.)=16 S. L. R. 112=71 Ind. Cas. 161; 44 Ind. Cas. 557; 33 M. L. J. 631=22 M. L. T. 391=(1918) M. W. N. 110=43 Ind. Cas. 760. Where the plaint sets out facts in issue that are material the plaintiff is entitled to relief which those facts will sustain under the general prayer but he cannot desert specific relief prayed and under the general prayer ask specific relief on another description unless the facts and circumstances mentioned in the plaint will, consistently with the rules of the Court maintain that relief. A. I. R. 1924 Lah. 324=69 Ind. Cas. 501; see also 43 C. 743=22 C. L. J. 419=20 C. W. N. 446=32 Ind. Cas. 437. Accounts can be directed to be taken although there is no prayer in the plaint to that effect but only a general prayer. 23 C. W. N. 500=29 C. L. J. 280=51 Ind. Cas. 597. Rights to which a person is found entitled cannot be refused on ground of an exaggerated claim. 140 P. W. R. 1918=13 P. R. 1919=46 Ind. Cas. 679. Court can in a proper case pass a decree for redemption of a mortgage, though the suit as framed was one in ejectment. 44 Ind. Cas. 921. Where in a suit for khas possession, plaintiff was found not entitled to possession till after expiry of term decree for declaration at the end of such term, can be granted. 1 P. L. W. 405=39 Ind. Cas. 596. In a suit for partition, decree for ejectment can be given, if that was asked for in effect and defendant was not taken by surprise. 13 S. L. R. 159=53 Ind. Cas. 722.

The discretion under Order VII, rule 7 and Order XLI, rule 33, covers the granting of a declaratory decree in a suit for possession, where alternative relief is claimed therein. A. I. R. 1923 Lah. 412=85 Ind. Cas. 95. Decree in a suit should conform with the rights of the parties as they were at the time of its institution. 44 C. 47=24 C. L. J. 140=20 C. W. N. 1099=34 Ind. Cas. 869. A suit for share of inheritance is an administration suit, though not brought in that form and decree should be passed on lines of model decrees in App. D. Forms 17 and 20, C. P. Code. 41 Ind. Cas. 579. Where written contract is inadmissible in evidence for want of stamp, oral evidence is admissible to prove the said terms. A suit should be brought within three years of the date of the transaction if it can be maintained on the original consideration. 29 C. L. J. 508=51 Ind. Cas. 945.

Where in a suit for possession by partition the estate is found impartible, a decree for joint possession should be given and the suit must not be dismissed although plaintiff may not have expressly asked for a declaratory decree. A. I. R. 1921 All. 106=43 A. 318=19 A. L. J. 61=65 Ind. Cas. 878 But where right of easement has been claimed but has not been established, the Court cannot give relief to plaintiff on basis of natural right not specifically claimed and created a new case. 57 Ind. Cas. 504. In a suit on a negotiable instrument, relief on the strength of the original consideration can be granted if prayed for in the alternative, 46 C. 663=29 C. L. J. 340=17 A. L. J. 405=25 M. L. T. 258=36 M. L. J. 429=21 Bom. L. R. 606=23 C. W. N. 937=50 Ind. Cas. 216 (P. C.). But in a suit for ejectment where property is found encumbered, prayer for redemption cannot be allowed. 4 O. L. J. 365=41 Ind. Cas. 171. In a suit to enforce transfer unenforceable under law, transferee cannot recover consideration money as damages. 4 O. L. J. 425=41 Ind. Cas. 435.

8. [R. S. C. O. 20. r. 7.] Where the plaintiff seeks relief in respect of several distinct claims or causes of action founded upon separate and distinct grounds, they shall be stated as far as may be separately and distinctly.

Notes.—Where the plaintiff claims property by ownership as successor to a person in the mohant-ship of a temple and in his reply to the defendant's written statement pleads, that he is entitled, even if not to the ownership, to the management of the property, the first claim cannot include the second and plaintiff has two distinct claims, founded on separate and distinct grounds and the case falls under Order VII, rule 8. A. I. R. 1929 Nag. 347=120 Ind. Cas. 404.

9. [S. 58.] (1) The plaintiff shall endorse on the plaint, or annex thereto, a list of the documents (if any) which he has produced along with it; and, if the plaint is admitted, shall present as many copies on plain paper of the plaint as there are defendants, unless the Court by reason of the length of the plaint or the number of the defendants, or for any other sufficient reason, permits him to present a like number of concise statements of the nature of the claim made, or of the relief claimed in the suit, in which case he shall present such statements.

(2) Where the plaintiff sues, or the defendant or any of the defendants is sued, in a representative capacity, such statements shall show in what capacity the plaintiff or defendant sues or is sued.

(3) The plaintiff may, by leave of the Court, amend such statements so as to make them correspond with the plaint.

(4) The chief ministerial officer of the Court shall sign such list and copies of statements if, on examination, he finds them to be correct.

N. B.—For local amendments in Allahabad, Calcutta, C. P., Madras, Oudh. Rangoon and Sind.—Vide infra.

Suit instituted.—A suit is instituted when the plaint is filed and not when it is ordered to be registered. 34 C. L. J. 465=66 Ind. Cas. 923.

Documents.—There is distinction between documents sued upon and documents relied upon by the plaintiff. 24 C. W. N. 302=56 Ind. Cas. 457. There is no provision of law which necessitates or even empowers the Court to return a plaint on the ground that the plaintiff has not mentioned therein the list of the documents on which he relies. The only effect of a person not furnishing the list of documents on which he relies is that, unless the Court permits him to do so he is not entitled to produce them at a later stage. A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 480=122 Ind. Cas. 480.

*10. [S. 57.] (1) The plaint shall, at any stage of the suit, be returned to be presented to the Court in which the suit should have been instituted.

* This section has been applied to suits for the recovery of rent under the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908 (Ben. Act VI of, 1908).

(2) On returning a plaint the Judge shall endorse thereon the date of its presentation and return, the name of the party presenting it, and a brief statement of the reasons for returning it.

Soope—"When a suit is instituted in a Court which has no jurisdiction to try it then the Court must return the plaint to the plaintiff for presentation to the Court having jurisdiction. The provisions are wide enough to cover all cases where the Court is unable to entertain the suit for want of jurisdiction, whatever may be the nature of the objection to the jurisdiction. I am unable to construe this provision to be limited to cases where the Court is incompetent to try the suit by reason of the nature of the subject-matter and not on account of the value thereof being beyond the jurisdiction or even the subject-matter thereof being beyond the territorial jurisdiction of the Court, as for instance, merely to a case where a suit which should have been instituted in a Revenue Court is instituted in a Civil Court or vice versa." Per Jallal J. in A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 394=127 Ind. Cas. 908; see also A. I. R. 1934 Pat. 234; A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 233. A Court not having jurisdiction to try a suit can neither transfer its jurisdiction temporarily to an arbitrator nor send the suit to the District Judge for transfer to the proper Court. The only course for the Court is to return the plaint for presentation to the proper Court. The only exception to the rule is where a preliminary decree for accounts has been passed by a Court not having jurisdiction to pass a final decree on the examination of accounts. A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 195=125 Ind. Cas. 334. In a suit for partition if it is found at the time of the final decree that the suit is undervalued, the Court cannot if the value of the property exceeds the pecuniary limits of the Court, declare preliminary decree a nullity and return the plaint for presentation to competent Court. A. I. R. 1930 Cal. 147=125 Ind. Cas. 104; see also A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 248=117 Ind. Cas. 369. This rule applies where suit as ordinarily framed is wrongly instituted in that Court, but does not apply while it is found at the trial whether as the result of admissions made by the parties or evidence led by them, that the relief which the plaintiff is really entitled to is different from that claimed in the suit and that that relief is not cognisable by that Court. In the latter case the Court cannot decline jurisdiction but should proceed with the trial or pass such decree as the circumstances permit. It may in certain fit cases grant permission for the withdrawal of the suit with liberty to file a fresh suit. A. I. R. 1930 Sind 252=25 S. L. R. 68=130 Ind. Cas. 554. A plaint may be returned for proper presentation even at the instance of the plaintiff filing it in wrong Court. A. I. R. 1929 Pat. 722=118 Ind. Cas. 139. Court cannot return a plaint on the ground that the plaintiff has not mentioned therein the list of the documents on which he relies. A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 480=122 Ind. Cas. 488. Where the first suit is instituted in a Court without jurisdiction, and a second suit in a Court of proper jurisdiction, the second suit cannot be regarded as a continuation of the first, even though the subject-matter and the parties to the suits are identical. A. I. R. 1929 P. C. 103=56 C. 1048=56 I. A. 128=1929 A. L. J. 254=33 C. W. N. 485=29 L. W. 682=56 M. L. J. 614=49 C. L. J. 462=31 Bom. L. R. 741=(1929) M. W. N. 546 (P. C.)=115 Ind. Cas. 713. Although Order 7, rule 10, does not apply to a chartered High Court, it can by virtue of its inherent powers direct the return of a plaint for presentation to proper Court on dismissing a suit for want of jurisdiction. 12 Rang. 432=A. I. R. 1934 Rang. 342. For passing an order returning plaint to be presented to proper Court, it is not necessary that the Court so returning and the Court to which the plaint is ordered to be presented should be exercising the same kind of jurisdiction. A. I. R. 1934 Pat. 234=149 Ind. Cas. 106. Rejection or return of plaint by Court is not justified merely because the suit is tenable by some other Court. 1936 A. M. L. J. 67. A Court returning a plaint for presentation to the proper Court cannot fix a time for such presentation. Ibid. Order 7, rule 10, says the plaint should be returned and the word "plaint" must refer to the plaint which is the basis of the suit at the time it is returned. If a Court has jurisdiction, it is impossible for it to act under Order 7, r. 10, for the Court itself, if it has jurisdiction is the Court in which the suit should be instituted. A. I. R. 1935 Rang. 310=158 Ind. Cas. 613. Where in a suit for possession, the value of land exceeds the pecuniary jurisdiction of the Court in which the suit is filed an order should be passed directing the plaintiff to present the plaint to a proper Court having jurisdiction in the matter. 153 Ind. Cas. 53=37 P. L. R. 125.

Where a Court originally had jurisdiction to try the suit but discovers at the time of passing a decree that it is incompetent to pass the decree because of the pecuniary valuation, Order VII, rule 10, does not apply. A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 484=110 Ind. Cas. 293. Order VII. r. 10, had not been overridden in the Punjab. A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 484=110 Ind. Cas. 293. Court in which the suit is instituted cannot return the plaint for presentation to the proper Court on the ground that it would be more advantageous to the defendant to have the suit tried in that Court. The plaint can be returned only on the ground for want of jurisdiction. A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 87=97 Ind. Cas. 979. Where a Judge holds a case set out in the plaint to be untrue in fact, he ought to dismiss the suit on the merits and not return the plaint under Order VII, rule 10. If he returns the plaint, he fails to exercise the jurisdiction vested in him by law and the order is open to revision. A. I. R. 1926 All. 58=48 A. 168=24 A. L. J. 83=90 Ind. Cas. 353. This rule applies only when it is found that the suit as originally framed was wrongly instituted; it does not apply when it is found at the trial on the evidence that the Court has no jurisdiction to grant relief prayed for. 135 Ind. Cas. 257=A. I. R. 1932 Sind 67=A. L. R. 1932 Sind 293; A. I. R. 1933 Sind 296. Where a Court found that it has no jurisdiction to try a suit, it should at once return it for presentation to the proper Court. It has no power to call on plaintiff to pay deficit Court-fee and on his default to reject the plaint. A. L. R. 1933 Nag. 359. In case of transfer of parties raising valuation of subject-matter of suit beyond the Court's jurisdiction the Court should add parties and return the plaint for presentation to proper Court. A. I. R. 1926 Pat. 28=90 Ind. Cas. 82. Court for determining jurisdiction cannot decide material issue in the case. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 339=91 Ind. Cas. 737. Where a Court finds that it has no jurisdiction to try a suit it cannot try it on merits. If a decree be passed it can be set aside in revision. A. I. R. 1925 Oudh 735=88 Ind. Cas. 991. Plaint cannot be returned for amendment. After retaining it on the Court file the plaintiff must if necessary be ordered to amend it within a certain time. A. I. R. 1921 Sind 166=17 S. L. R. 223=85 Ind. Cas. 893.

Where a suit under s. 92, included claim for possession, Court should not return plaint altogether. The Court may allow the plaintiffs, to amend the plaint by striking off the claim for possession or may dismiss the claim with regard to that particular relief in its judgments. A. I. R. 1925 All. 683=47 A. 770=23 A. L. J. 661=89 Ind. Cas. 40. A Court should on plaintiff's refusal to pay Court-fee though for a claim exceeding its jurisdiction reject the plaint. If plaintiff pays the requisite Court-fees the plaint should be returned for presentation to proper Court. A. I. R. 1924 Mad. 646=45 M. L. J. 345=34 M. L. T. 92=77 Ind. Cas. 338; 77 Ind. Cas. 781. The provisions of this rule are absolute in their terms. (1920) M. W. N. 163=10 L. W. 535=53 Ind. Cas. 308. Where valuation is not contested, Court must entertain plaint. 18 O. C. 364=33 Ind. Cas. 619. Where plaint is returned both by the second class subordinate Judge's Court as well as Small Cause Court, the correct procedure would be to make an application to the District Judge under the provisions of Order 45, rule 7. 145 Ind. Cas. 261=A. I. R. 1933 Nag. 221. Where the plaint of a pauper suit has been returned by a Munsiff's Court as being undervalued, the plaintiff must get fresh leave to sue as pauper from the subordinate Judge. 1933 M. W. N. 197. Out of two claims, one which is out of jurisdiction shall be regarded as a separate claim. A. I. R. 1921 All. 193=19 A. L. J. 822=64 Ind. Cas. 628; see also 54 Ind. Cas. 655; 54 Ind. Cas. 364=6 O. L. J. 27=45 Ind. Cas. 266. The Revenue Court must admit the plaint when it is returned to it by the Civil Court. 6 L. W. 239=42 Ind. Cas. 483. Court must entertain plaint when valuation is not contested. 18 O. C. 364=33 Ind. Cas. 619. Failure to adopt proper procedure such as could have given the Court the jurisdiction entails the dismissal of the suit. A. I. R. 1922 Bom. 152=46 B. 229=23 Bom. L. R. 1086=64 Ind. Cas. 919. Where a suit which is ordinarily to be instituted in a Munsiff's Court is filed in a Subordinate Judge's Court who has jurisdiction to entertain the suit and the evidence has been gone into and concluded on both sides but objection is raised when arguments are being heard that the suit ought to have been instituted in the Munsiff's Court, the Subordinate Judge should bring the hearing to a conclusion and deliver judgment and not direct the plaint to be returned to the Munsiff's Court even though it is irregular on the part of the plaintiff to have instituted the suit in the subordinate Judge's Court. A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 524.

At any stage of the suit—These words have been added in the new Code of 1908. There were no such words in the previous Codes. Still under the old Codes it was held that the plaint should be returned at any stage of the suit where it would be discovered that the Court had no jurisdiction to try the suit. 23 W. R. 263 ; 8 C. 834 ; 8 M. 62 ; 2 A. 357 ; 8 B. 313 (F. B.). The plaint should be at once returned where the Court discovers that the valuation is beyond its jurisdiction. A. I. R. 1931 Mad. 69=59 M. L. J. 890=(1930) M. W. N. 656=33 L. W. 68=129 Ind. Cas. 625 ; A. I. R. 1927 Pat. 258=6 Pat. 351=103 Ind. Cas. 435 ; A. I. R. 1922 All. 424=44 A. 686=70 Ind. Cas. 98 Where suit is not cognizable by Small Causes Court, plaint should be returned at any stage but should not be dismissed. 27 C. L. J. 590=41 Ind. Cas. 203.

Want of jurisdiction.—Where a Court finds that on correct valuation of plaint suit is beyond its pecuniary jurisdiction, the plaint should be returned for presentation to proper Court. The latter Court can consider whether proper Court-fees have been paid and proceed as provided by law. The former Court has no such power. A. I. R. 1931 Mad. 67=129 Ind. Cas. 826 ; see also A. I. R. 1930 Mad. 699=31 L. W. 831=58 M. L. J. 651=126 Ind. Cas. 111. The jurisdiction in a particular case is determined by the nature of the claim as brought. A. I. R. 1928 Nag. 221=107 Ind. Cas. 671. The subject-matter of the suit or application must be determined by looking into the application itself or the plaint of the suit itself. A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 711=46 C. L. J. 46=104 Ind. Cas. 349. Court in which the suit is instituted cannot return the plaint for presentation to the proper Court on the ground that it would be more advantageous to the defendant to have the suit tried in that Court. The plaint can be returned only on the ground of want of jurisdiction. A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 87=97 Ind. Cas. 979. Where the plaint is not mala fide it will determine jurisdiction although it may be mistaken. A. I. R. 1926 All. 747=96 Ind. Cas. 787. Where some causes of action are within and some outside the jurisdiction of a Court, the Court should retain the plaint, strike out that part which is beyond its jurisdiction and try the case. For the struck-out part, the plaintiff may file another suit in proper Court. A. I. R. 1926 Bom. 383=28 Bom. L. R. 521=94 Ind. Cas. 783. Where return of plaint has been ordered, but plaintiff is willing to drop part of his claim to bring his case within Court's pecuniary jurisdiction, Court can admit the plaint as amended. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 133=22 L. W. 582=(1925) M. W. N. 804=92 Ind. Cas. 800.

A suit should not be dismissed on the ground that the Court has no jurisdiction to try the suit but it should be returned for proper presentation. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 140=22 L. W. 522=(1925) M. W. N. 771=91 Ind. Cas. 280. Where Judge holds a case set out in the plaint to be untrue in fact, he ought to dismiss the suit on the merits and not to return the plaint under this rule. If he returns the plaint, he fails to exercise jurisdiction vested in him by law and the order is open to revision. A. I. R. 1926 All. 51=48 A. 168=24 A. L. J. 83=90 Ind. Cas. 353. Under Order 7, rule 10, a Court which finds that it has no jurisdiction to entertain a suit should return the plaint for presentation to the proper Court. The suit cannot be dismissed straightway. 133 Ind. Cas. 411=A. I. R. 1931 All. 664 ; see also 129 Ind. Cas. 826=34 L. W. 352=A. I. R. 1931 Mad. 67=61 M. L. J. 43 ; A. I. R. 1933 Nag. 82 ; A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 851=34 P. L. R. 658=145 Ind. Cas. 755. After arguments of both parties the Court cannot raise the question of jurisdiction suo motu and return the plaint. 32 P. L. R. 737=131 Ind. Cas. 303. The question of jurisdiction and valuation should be decided at the earliest possible opportunity and where the Court finds that it has no jurisdiction, it should return the plaint for presentation to a Court having jurisdiction. It should not enforce payment of Court-fees. 29 N. L. R. 367=A. I. R. 1933 Nag. 312. Allegations in the plaint determine the jurisdiction of Courts. If the plaint discloses allegations which are cognizable by the Munsiff and he decides against the claim of the plaintiff for rendition of accounts, the plain duty of the Court is to dismiss the suit and not to return the plaint for representation to some other Court, which on the plea of the defendants, would have jurisdiction. 1933 A. L. J. 667=A. I. R. 1933 All. 745.

The return of plaint by appellate court.—Even after the trial of the suit, the appellate Court is competent to order for the return of the plaint for presentation to the proper Court. 1 B. 538 ; 55 P. R. 1878 ; W. R. (1864) 65 ; 11 M. 197 ; 5 W. R. Act X, Ruling 87 ; 8 C. 126 ; 9 B. 259 ; 9 B. 266 ; 7 C. L. J. 152. There is no bar for the exercise of this power even in second appeal. 9 B. 250; 9 B. 266; 10 M. 211. By virtue of s. 107, Order VII, r. 10, applies to appeals. A. I. R. 1923 Nag. 310=8 N. L. R. 63=74 Ind. Cas. 93. The order of an appellate Court returning a plaint is appealable. 8 C. 126; 3 C. W. N. 243=27 C. 275. It is within the power of the High Court to decide questions of jurisdiction necessary for the trial of the suit. A. I. R. 1922 Pat. 368=2 P. L. T. 739=64 Ind. Cas. 496.

Limitation.—Where a plaint is returned the time to be excluded under s. 14, Limitation Act, is the period from the date of presentation to the date of return of plaint. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 178=22 L. W. 816=92 Ind. Cas. 373. Court ordering a return of plaint for presentation to proper Court on payment of additional Court-fee, cannot review its order and extend time previously fixed for payment of Court-fee. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 133=22 L. W. 582=(1925) M. W. N. 804=92 Ind. Cas. 800. No date was fixed by the Subordinate Judge when he passed his order on 25th March, 1924, on which the plaintiff should ask the office to hand over the plaint to him, in pursuance of the order returning the plaint under Order 7, rule 10, C. P. Code. The plaint was actually returned by the office on 10th April, 1924, on which the proper Court was closed owing to an epidemic of plague in the district. The plaint was presented on 22nd April, when Court re-opened. The lower appellate Court dismissed the suit holding that plaintiff was remiss in not trying to obtain the plaint earlier: Held that no litigant party could suffer on account of laches or delay of the Court or its office and that, therefore, the Courts below were not justified in throwing out the plaintiff's suit as barred by limitation. A. L. R. 1933 Lah. 1207=A. I. R. 1933 L. h. 711=145 Ind. Cas. 5=34 P. L. R. 634.

Appeal.—The return of a plaint does not deprive the plaintiff of his right of appeal, even after filing the plaint in the directed Court. 41 M. 721=34 M. L. J. 397=45 Ind. Cas. 89. Where on appeal from an order returning a plaint to be presented to the proper Court, an order is passed remanding the case to the trial Court, no further appeal therefrom lies, nor is it liable to a revision. 125 Ind. Cas. 581. High Court can revise the order directing the plaint to be returned for presentation to proper Court. A. I. R. 1930 All. 158=(1929) A. L. J. 1157=124 Ind. Cas. 478. An appeal lies against an order wrongly returning the plaint to be presented to the proper Court. A. I. R. 1930 Nag. 207=13 N. L. J. 4=121 Ind. Cas. 668. Where a plaint is returned by a Civil Court after it had been returned by a Small Causes Court, the order of the Civil Court does not come under Order VII, rule 10, and no appeal lies on it. A. I. R. 1926 Cal. 83=85 Ind. Cas. 1002. Where Civil Court has held that it cannot entertain appeal and that the appeal lies in a Revenue Court, it should not dismiss the appeal, but return the Memorandum of Appeal for presentation to the proper Court. A. I. R. 1925 Oudh 499=12 O. L. J. 362=2 O. W. N. 499=89 Ind. Cas. 511. An appeal lies from an order returning a plaint for presentation to the proper Court but a second appeal does not lie in such a case. 134 Ind. Cas. 203=32 P. L. R. 362=A. I. R. 1931 Lah. 294; A. I. Where the averments contained in the plaint given jurisdiction to the Court to entertain the suit as framed and such Court on finding that the allegations contained in that plaint to be false dismisses the suit, the proper order that the appellate Court should pass is to uphold the decree of the trial Court and not to return the plaint for presentation to the proper Court. A. I. R. 1933 All. 745=1933 A. L. J. 667=A. L. R. 1933 All. 537. An appeal is provided under Order 43, rule 1, clause (a) on an order returning plaint under Order VII, rule 10. The order by the appellate Court becomes final under s. 104, cl (2) and section 105 does not preclude the aggrieved party from disputing the correctness of the remand order in second appeal if he is otherwise entitled to do so. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 900=51 M. L. J. 119=24 L. W. 630=97 Ind. Cas. 790. Appellate Court reversing order rejecting plaint should leave parties to seek their own remedies. (1915) M. W. N. 784=32 Ind. Cas. 759. An appeal presented to the High Court wrongly without any excuse, should be dismissed, as the High Court will in such cases refuse to return the Memorandum of Appeal. A. I. R. 1925 Cal. 335=80 Ind. Cas. 858. Where plaint has been returned for presentation to proper Court, the plaintiff can present the same to proper Court even after unsuccessful appeal if it is not barred by limitation. A. I. R. 1925 Bom. 418=27 Bom. L. R. 652=89 Ind. Cas. 68. Order returning a Memorandum of Appeal to be presented to the proper Court can be revised. A. I. R. 1925 Lah. 479=7 Lah. L. J. 285=26 P. L. Representation.—Where a plaint is returned for presentation to proper Court, it can after amendment be represented to the same Court. A. I. R. 1931 Mad. 8=32 L. W. 694=59 M. L. J. 953=129 Ind. Cas. 254. When a plaint is returned for presentation to proper Court, the suit is said to be instituted on date of such presentation and the suit thus presented cannot be said to be in continuation of the suit filed in a Court without jurisdiction. A.I.R. 1928 Bom. 421=30 Bom. L.R. 970=52 B. 548=113 Ind. Cas. 511; A. I. R. 1926 Cal. 355=30 C. W. N. 90. The presentation of a plaint in another Court, after its return by the Court to which it is first presented by mistake is a continuation of the original suit and therefore a fresh vakaltnama in another Court is not necessary. A. I. R. 1923 Nag. 182=19 N. L. R. 3=6 N. L. J. 100=71 Ind. Cas. 436. When a plaint is returned for presentation to the proper Court, the plaintiff can pay the deficit Court-fees in the Court having jurisdiction to hear the case by taking advantage of previously paid Court-fees. A. I. R. 1927 Bom. 257=51 B. 236=29 Bom. L. R. 280=101 Ind. Cas. 343. If the Court-fees Act is amended in the meantime increasing the amount of Court-fee payable thereunder the plaintiff should be credited with originally paid Court-fee. A. I. R. 1926 Cal. 355=30 C. W. N. 90=91 Ind. Cas. 862.

Rejection of plaint.

11. [S. 54.] The plaint shall be rejected in the following cases :—

- (a) where it does not disclose a cause of action ;
- (b) where the relief claimed is undervalued, and the plaintiff, on being required by the Court to correct the valuation within a time to be fixed by the Court, fails to do so ;
- (c) where the relief claimed is properly valued, but the plaint is written upon paper insufficiently stamped, and the plaintiff, on being required by the Court to supply the requisite stamp paper within a time to be fixed by the Court, fails to do so ;
- (d) where the suit appears from the statement in the plaint to be barred by any law.

N. B.—For local amendment in Calcutta.—Vide infra.

Scope—This rule applies to first proceedings only. A. I. R. 1930 Nag. 224=26 N. L. R. 183=124 Ind. Cas. 241. This rule is only a rule of procedure and is only meant to secure proper Court-fees and stamps. A. I. R. 1930 Cal. 686=58 C. 281=131 Ind. Cas. 587. An order refusing permission to sue in forma pauperis does not come under the rule. A. I. R. 1928 Nag. 24=10 N. L. J. 177=105 Ind. Cas. 30. Provisions of this rule is not exhaustive, plaint may be rejected under s. 151. A. I. R. 1924 Oudh 413=11 O. L. J. 260=83 Ind. Cas. 778. The dismissal of a suit and rejection of a plaint are not identical terms. In one case a decree is passed, in the other it is merely an appealable order. 54 A. 525=138 Ind. Cas. 396=1932 A. L. J. 489=A. I. R. 1932 All. 543; see also 59 C. 388=138 Ind. Cas. 643=A. I. R. 1932 Cal. 482. This rule read with s. 107 (2) would seem to make it clear that the Memorandum of Appeal should first be returned for correct stamping. 1932 M. W. N. 104. Suit not otherwise bad and which has reached the stage of arguments must be dismissed and not rejected. A. I. R. 1928 Oudh 495=5 O. W. N. 927=114 Ind. Cas. 510. It is not absolutely necessary to draw up a decree in an order rejecting a plaint. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 83=108 Ind. Cas. 597. Court can dismiss the suit filed by next friend of minor, if not in minor's interest. A. I. R. 1924 Oudh 413=11 O. L. J. 260=83 Ind. Cas. 778. Plaint must be rejected as a whole but with due discretion. A. I. R. 1921 Sind 106=17 S. L. R. 9=80 Ind. Cas. 958. Proceedings taken in a plaint insufficiently stamped are not bad in law. A. I. A suit can be rejected at any stage of the suit even after its registration. A. I. R. 1935 Cal. 764. An application for leave to sue in forma pauperis is not governed by this rule because until the application is granted the suit cannot be regarded as instituted. 158 Ind. Cas. 790=1935 M. W. N. 863=42 L. W. 655=A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 878; see also 40 C. W. N. 747=A. I. R. 1936 Cal. 221=162 Ind. Cas. 689. The mandatory provision contained in Order 7, rule 11, is intended for cases where no other complication intervened, and the Court has sufficient inherent power to depart from the normal procedure to suit in exigencies of the situation. Ibid. A plaint can be rejected at any stage of the suit even after registration. 40 C. W. N. 1390. In deciding an application for rejection of a plaint, under the provisions of Order 7, rule 11, the Court is not entitled to go beyond the pleadings, and cannot look at the affidavits filed in connection with the application. 41 C. W. N. 193.

Clause (a).—Does not disclose cause of action.—Cause of action means every fact which would be necessary for the plaintiff to prove, if traversed, in order to support his judgement of the Court. It does not contemplate any rule of limitation barring the claim. 54A. 525=138 Ind. Cas. 396=1932 A. L. J. 489=A. I. R. 1932 All. 543. A suit should not be wholly dismissed for non-compliance with s. 80, C. P. Code. A. I. R. 1931 Mad. 175=32 L. W. 810=59 M. L. J. 923=54 M. 416=129 Ind. Cas. 456. In a suit to set aside a mortgage decree on the ground that the execution of the mortgage was fraudulent, fraud in conduct of mortgage suit need not be alleged. A. I. R. 1925 Mad. 792=48 M. L. Mortgagee paying Government revenue for two out of three mortgagors in separate possession and suing all for money, has no cause of action against third for paying his revenue. 14 A. L. J. 605=35 Ind. Cas. 198. Power of appellate Court is co-extensive with trial Court. A. I. R. 1924 Nag. 80=69 Ind. Cas. 554. Rejection of a plaint for no cause of action by appellate Court operates as res judicata. 57 Ind. Cas. 684. If the plaint is defective, suit cannot be dismissed or rejected. Court is bound to give time for amendment. 1 Pat. L. T. 188=2 U. P. L. R. (Pat) 29=55 Ind. Cas. 445. There is no provision in the Code for rejection of a plaint in part. A. I. R. 1936 Lah. 1021.

Clause (b).—This rule extends to or is applicable to cases where the Court has jurisdiction to try the suit, even if the relief claimed is undervalued. A. I. R. 1927 Bom. 257=51 B. 236=29 Bom. L. R. 280=101 Ind. Cas. 343. Undervalued suit should not be dismissed but plaint should be returned for being presented to proper Court. 41 Ind. Cas. 167; see also 77 Ind. Cas. 781=46 M. L. J. 345; 13 B. 517; 133 Ind. Cas. 654=32 P. L. R. 455=A. I. R. 1931 Lah. 622. Clause (b) gives power to Court in a case of under-valuation of a relief to require the plaintiff to correct the valuation given by him in his plaint and to reject the plaint in case the plaintiff fails to do so. A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 448=59 C. L. J. 233=38 C. W. N. 589=61 C. 796=149 Ind. Cas. 3. Plaint alone can be considered to value suits. Circumstances subsequently influencing Court's judgment are not to be taken into consideration. A. I. R. 1924 Cal. 959=40 C. L. J. 150=79 Ind. Cas. 982; see also 17 B. 56; 33 C. 734=9 C. W. N. 690. This clause applies only to a case in which the relief claimed is undervalued. 59 C. 388=138 Ind. Cas. 643=A. I. R. 1932 Cal. 482. A plaint returned for presentation to the proper Court if again returned on account of wrongful valuation by the latter Court to the Court which first returned it cannot be said to have been filed on the latter date of presentation, to the Court first returning it. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 409=30 P. L. R. 206=11 Lah. L. J. 251=116 Ind. Cas. 317. Where a Court finds that on a correct valuation of the plaint it is not cognizable by it, the proper thing to be done is to return the plaint so that it may be presented to the proper Court. It has no jurisdiction to ask the plaintiff to amend his valuation and pay additional Court-fee and then return the plaint. A. I. R. 1931 Mad. 67=61 M. L. J. 438=129 Ind. Cas. 269. This rule controls Court-fees Act, s. 7, sub-section (4). A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 448 (F. B.).

Clause (c).—The words "properly valued" are sufficiently wide to cover the case where a proper valuation has been arrived at by the Court, equally with the case where the proper valuation has been stated by the plaintiff himself. 36 C. W. N. 567=139 Ind. Cas. 520=A. I. R. 1932 Cal. 685. So a Court can make proper valuation after investigation in course of suit and can require the plaintiff to supply the deficit Court-fees within a fixed time. On failure on the part of the plaintiff to pay the deficit Court-fee, the Court is bound to reject the plaint. Ibid; see also A. I. R. 1932 Pat. 111=133 Ind. Cas. 449=A. L. R. 1932 Pat. 451. The question whether a plaint ought to be rejected under Order 7, rule 11, cannot depend on anything which the defendant may say in his written statement. The defect which entitles the Court to reject the plaint ought to be apparent on the face of the plaint, and it is the duty of the Court under Order 7 to examine a plaint before issuing summons. The discovery of the patent defect should, as a rule, not be deferred until, the summons has gone out, and the written statement has come in. A. I. R. 1933 Sind 1=142 Ind. Cas. 501. Where the plaintiff instituted a suit in the ordinary way and subsequently when called upon to pay additional Court-fee he applied to continue the suit in forma pauperis, held that the Court has power to allow him to continue the suit, which has been instituted in forma pauperis. ORDER VIII.

Written Statement and Set-off.

1. [S. 110.] The defendant may, and, if so required by the Court, shall, at or before the first hearing or within such time as the Court may permit, present a written statement of his defence.

N. B.—For local amendments in Lahore Oudh and Peshwar.—Vide infra.

Scope.—Ordinarily written statements should be submitted before the first hearing of the suit. 5 W. R. Act X, 39; 4 B. 576. But the Court may extend time for filing the same. 4 B. 576. A written statement filed at or before the first hearing requires no stamp-duty. 12 C. L. R. 367; 5 B. 400. Where the Court calls for a written statement after the first hearing, it is also exempt from stamp-duty. 5 B. 400. In Small Causes Court suits written statement is not necessary in the absence of specific notice in the summons. But, should such a statement be found necessary, time should be granted without burdening the defendant with adjournment costs. A. I. R. 1930 Oudh 171=4 Luck. 529=7 O. W. N. 894=121 Ind. Cas. 894. Exaggeration of claims by the parties does not render them to criminal prosecutions. 129 Ind. Cas. 111=32 Cr. L. J. 238. Written statement should be filed by the defendant or by his agent. Filing of written statement on behalf of the defendant by a stranger is not sanctioned by the Code. 53 A. 466=131 Ind. Cas. 548=1931 A. L. J. 181=A. I. R. 1931 All. 333.

2. [R. S. C. O. 19, r. 15.] The defendant must raise by his pleading all matters which show the suit not to be maintainable, or that the transaction is either void or voidable in point of law, and all such grounds of defence as, if not raised, would be likely to take the opposite party by surprise, or would raise issues of fact not arising out of the plaint, as for instance, fraud, limitation, release, payment, performance or facts showing illegality.

Scope.—In written statements, it is necessary to plead facts only and not points of law. A. I. R. 1930 Bom. 511=32 Bom. L. R. 1178=128 Ind. Cas. 609; see also A. I. R. 1923 Cal. 578=76 Ind. Cas. 603. Defendants having admitted execution of documents but failing to plead fraud or undue influence and no issue thereon was raised, Court cannot come to the finding that the contents were unknown to the defendants. A. I. R. 1922 Pat. 154=1922 Pat. 184=37 Ind. Cas. 980. Unless suit is barred prima facie, appellate Court cannot enter into the enquiry as regards bar by limitation; plea of limitation under special law must be pleaded specifically. 28 C. L. J. 216=46 Ind. Cas. 787; see also 69 Ind. Cas. 194; 34 C. L. J. 205=66 Ind. Cas. 287; 32 C. L. J. 236=60 Ind. Cas. 280. There is a defence of confusion and avoidance when the basis of the claim is admitted but is sought to be set aside on the ground of fraud, release, limitation, etc. 54 Ind. Cas. 131. Plea as regards want of legal necessity in a mortgage suit by the manager of a joint Hindu family cannot in an appeal be raised for the first time. A. I. R. 1922 Pat. 356=3 P. L. T. 367=1 Pat. 612=67 Ind. Cas. 790.

3. [R. S. C. O. 19, r. 17.] It shall not be sufficient for a defendant in his written statement to deny generally the grounds alleged by the plaintiff, but the defendant must deal specifically with each allegation of fact of which he does not admit the truth, except damages.

Scope.—Order VIII, rule 5, should be considered along with rule 3. A. I. R. 1925 Mad. 950=22 L. W. 26=85 Ind. Cas. 900. In a mortgage suit defendant putting plaintiff to proof of mortgage-deed means requiring him to prove that it was duly executed. 6 O. L. J. 600=54 Ind. Cas. 107.

Except damages.—In 43 C. 1001=20 C. W. N. 1192=34 Ind. Cas. 235, Sanderson, C. J. said: "It should be noted that in this case where the claim is, for unliquidated damages, even if a written statement had been put in, it would not have been necessary for the defendant to deny specifically the damages; it would have been quite sufficient if they had pleaded generally to the damages and in that case even though all other material facts were admitted in the defence there would still have been the necessity for some enquiry to be made either by the Court which heard the case, or by the official referee or some other person to whom the Court might refer the enquiry, to ascertain the amount of damages to which the plaintiffs would be entitled."

4. [R. S. C. O. 19. r. 19.] Where a defendant denies an allegation of fact in the plaint, he must not do so evasively but answer the point of substance. Thus, if it is alleged that he received a certain sum of money, it shall not be sufficient to deny that he received that particular amount, but he must deny that he received that sum or any part thereof, or else set out how much he received. And if an allegation is made with diverse circumstances, it shall not be sufficient to deny it along with those circumstances.

Scope.—Pleadings should be specific. A. I. R. 1929 All. 721=(1929) A. L. J. 1153=122 Ind. Cas. 598; see also 115 Ind. Cas. 425=29 P. L. R. 715=A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 769; A. I. R. 1923 Cal. 578=76 Ind. Cas. 603. Under certain circumstances as evasive denial may tantamount to admission. 113 Ind. Cas. 370=A. I. R. 1929 Sind 7. Denial by defendant of plaintiff's allegation as to the date of certain event is no evasive denial, nor is it admission notwithstanding the failure of the defendant to give therein his own date. A. 5. [R. S. C. O. 19. r. 13.] Every allegation of fact in the plaint, if not denied specifically or by necessary implication, or stated to be not admitted in the pleading of the defendant, shall be taken to be admitted except as against a person under disability :

Provided that the Court may in its discretion require any facts so admitted to be proved otherwise than by such admission.

Scope.—This rule implies that the defendant making written defence shall make it specific. But this rule has no application where the defendant had not put in any written defence. A. I. R. 1930 Pat. 293=126 Ind. Cas. 369; A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 769=10 Lah. L. J. 339=29 P. L. R. 715=115 Ind. Cas. 425. R. 1923 Nag. 7=68 Ind. Cas. 664; 49 Ind. Cas. 733. This rule should be read with rule 3. A. I. R. 1925 Mad. 950=22 L. W. 26=85 Ind. Cas. 900. Though wording of this rule is defective, it clearly means that evasive denials of facts alleged in the plaint, should be taken as admission of alleged facts. A. I. R. 1927 All. 225=96 Ind. Cas. 778; see also A. I. R. 1924 All. 180=46 A. J. 55=21 A. L. J. 830=79 Ind. Cas. 562; A. I. R. 1929 Sind 7=113 Ind. Cas. 370; but see 71 Ind. Cas. 779=A. I. R. 1923 Lah. 409. Provisions expressly made applicable to allegations in plaint, and to defendant's failure to deny them should not be applied to an oral pleading of the defendant so as to infer from the absence of a reply by plaintiff that the latter accepted it as true. A. I. R. 1925 Nag. 380=85 Ind. Cas. 768. A denial of knowledge of a fact is not a denial of the fact, nor is it even putting the fact in issue. Where a defendant to a mortgage suit instead of denying specifically, or refusing to admit specifically, the mortgage in favour of the mortgagee merely denies knowledge of no mortgage such a procedure is neither a specific denial of the mortgage nor is it a statement that the mortgage is not admitted, and consequently under Order 8, rule 5, it must be held against such defendant that he has by implication admitted the mortgage in favour of the mortgagee. A. I. R. 1934 Rang. 278=152 Ind. Cas. 395. But mere omission to file a written statement does not amount to an admission of the facts stated in the plaint. A. I. R. 1935 Pat. 306=14 Pat. 70=157 Ind. Cas. 433; but see A. I. R. 1936 Bom. 285=38 Bom. L. R. 577=60 Bom. 788. Where it has been held that a defendant who does not put in any defence is bound by all the allegations in the plaint. So according to the views of the Bombay High Court this rule is not confined to a case where a pleading has been put in by the defendant, it equally applies to a case in which the defendant puts in no pleading.

Omission to deny in written statement plaintiff's title does not amount to constructive admission of plaintiff's title. 45 Ind. Cas. 878. Written statements in the mofoosil are not given strict construction as is done in England or in the original side of the High Court in spite of Order VIII, rule 5. 39 Ind. Cas. 460. Evidence is not to be excluded on the ground, evasive denial amounting to admission, or verification of a plaint, except in cases under Negotiable Instrument. Under Order 37, rule 2, Order 8, rule 5. is limited in its application where there is pleading in fact. 20 C. W. N. 1192=43 C. 1001=34 Ind. Cas. 235. In a suit for recovery of land, omission to deny the plaintiff's title thereto, does not mean that the plaintiff had no cause of action against the defendant particularly when there was no such admission at any time before the suit. 20 C. W. N. 636=32 Ind. Cas. 752. Mere general denial in written statement of fact explicitly relied on in the plaint is not enough unless equities are in favour of the defendant under Order VIII, rule 6. A. I. R. 1923 Mad. 114=43 M. L. J. 579=16 L. W. 911=31 M. L. T. 258=(1923) M. W. N. 42=69 Ind. Cas. 724. Evasive denial of facts alleged in the plaint amounts to admission and it would be wrong for the Appellate Court to require proof of them. 39 M. L. J. 463=(1920) M. W. N. 512=28 M. L. T. 213=60 Ind. Cas. 554. Under Order VIII, rule 5, omission to deny allegation of facts is not admission in case of minor defendants. 47 Ind. Cas. 589=35 M. L. J. 372. Defendant's statement that they do not admit plaintiff's allegation, as to the date of a certain event is not evasive denial or admission notwithstanding that defendants do not give their own date for the event. A. I. R. 1924 Mad. 838=47 M. L. J. 520=20 L. W. 399=(1924) M. W. N. 788=82 Ind. Cas. 584. It is not necessary to prove document relied upon by a party and not specifically denied by the other. 41 B. 89=18 Bom. L. R. 946=38 Ind. Cas. 14. A fact admitted by the defendant's muktear is not conclusive before the framing of the issues and may be required to prove otherwise. A. I. R. 1924 Lah. 744=6 Lah. L. J. 358=82 Ind. Cas. 617. It cannot be held that the pleading "not known" is tantamount to the pleading "not admitted." A. I. R. 1931 All. 423=133 Ind. Cas. 414. Where the statement in the written statements admits plaintiff's claim, no proof on the plaintiff's part is necessary. 131 Ind. Cas. 206=12 L. L. J. 293=A. I. R. 1931 Lah. 203. A recital in the written statement that a certain allegation in the plaint is not admitted cannot be deemed to be an admission, but amounts to denial by necessary implication. 55 A. 700=145 Ind. Cas. 802=1933 A. L. J. 998=A. I. R. 1933 All. 521. The traversal of a statement in a plaint is enough to put the plaintiff to the proof of it. A. I. R. 1934-Mad 579=67 M. L. J. 327=1934 M. W. 6 [S. 111.] (1) Where in a suit for the recovery of money the defendant claims to set-off against the plaintiff's particulars of set-off to be demand any ascertained sum of money legally given in written statement. recoverable by him from the plaintiff, not exceeding the pecuniary limits of the jurisdiction of the Court, and both parties fill the same character as they fill in the plaintiff's suit, the defendant may, at the first hearing of the suit, but not afterwards unless permitted by the Court, present a written statement containing the particulars of the debt sought to be set-off.

(2) The written statement shall have the same effect as a plaint in a cross-suit so as to enable the Court to pronounce a final judgment in respect both of the original claim and of the set-off; but this shall not affect the lien, upon the amount decreed, of any pleader in respect of the costs payable to him under the decree.

(3) The rules relating to a written statement by a defendant apply to a written statement in answer to a claim of set-off.

Illustrations.

(a) A bequeaths Rs. 2,000 to B and appoints C his executor and residuary legatee. B dies and D takes out administration to B's effects. C pays Rs. 1,000 as surety for D; then D sues C for the legacy. C cannot set-off the debt of Rs. 1,000 against the legacy, for neither C nor D fills the same character with respect to the legacy as they fill with respect to the payment of Rs. 1,000.

(b) A dies intestate and in debt to B. C takes out administration to A's effects and B buys part of the effects from C. In a suit for the purchase-money by C.

against B, the latter cannot set-off the debt against the price, for C fills two different characters one as the vendor to B, in which he sues B, and the other as representative to A.

(c) A sues B on a bill of exchange. B alleges that A has wrongfully neglected to insure B's goods and is liable to him in compensation which he claims to set-off. The amount not being ascertained cannot be set-off.

(d) A sues B on a bill of exchange for Rs. 500. B holds a judgment against A for Rs. 1,000. The two claims being both definite pecuniary demands may be set-off.

(e) A sues B for compensation on account of trespass. B holds a promissory-note for Rs. 1,000 from A and claims to set off that amount against any sum that A may recover in the suit. B may do so, for as soon A recovers, both sums are definite pecuniary demands.

(f) A and B sue C for Rs. 1,000. C cannot set off a debt due to him by A alone.

(g) A sues B and C for Rs. 1,000. B cannot set off a debt due to him alone by A.

(h) A owes the partnership firm of B and C Rs. 1,000, B dies, leaving C surviving. A sues C for a debt of Rs. 1,500 due in his separate character. C may set off the debt of Rs. 1,000.

Scope of the Section.—A set-off under order 8, rule 6, may be pleaded by a defendant, although the claim of the plaintiff is denied. Set-off is not merely a defence to the plaintiff's claim, and a decree may be granted to the defendant although the suit of the plaintiff is dismissed. A.I.R. 1934 All. 543=1934 A.L.J. 393=150 Ind. Cas. 433. A set off is either legal or equitable. Order 8, rule 6, is restricted to legal set-off. Equitable set-off is allowed if the demands arise out of the transaction or are so connected that they can be looked upon as part of the same transaction and when the amount is unascertained. A. I. R. 1936 Cal. 277. Where in a suit on a promissory-note the defendant puts in a counter-claim that he had pledged gold with plaintiff and prays for a decree for the excess of gold value over plaint amount, but does not stamp his counter-claim, on his admission of the execution of the suit both, the suit must be decreed as the two transactions are separate. But if the defendant stamps his counter claim properly the two cases can be tried together in one suit. But the finding of the stamp paper in the Appellate Court will not validate the counter claim in the trial Court, the defendant's remedy is only to file a separate regular suit on his counter-claim. A. I. R. 1935 Rang. 116=156 Ind. Cas. 425.

Equitable Set-off.—This rule deals with legal set-off only and does not apply to equitable set-off. 65 P. W. R. 1917=62 P. R. 1917=39 Ind. Cas. 508. An equitable set-off can be claimed independently of the specific provisions of the Civil Procedure Code. 128 Ind. Cas. 763=A. I. R. 1930 All. 875=1. R. 1931 All. 91. An equitable set-off can be pleaded only in respect of an unascertained sum, and there is no ground for extending the meaning of equitable set-off to a claim for ascertained sums. A. I. R. 1936 Nag. 290. Referring to the corresponding section in Act VIII of 1859, the following observation were made by the High Court of Madras: "These are provisions of a Code regulating procedure only, and whilst we are think that the language used has not the effect of enlarging the right of set-off, we ought at the same time to say, that according to our present opinion, the Civil Procedure Code was not intended to take away right of set-off, whether legal or equitable, which parties would have independently of its provisions. It seems to us that the right of set-off will be found to exist not only in the cases of mutual debts and credits, but also where cross-demands arise out of one and the same transaction, or are so connected in their nature and circumstances as to make it inequitable that the plaintiff should recover and the defendant be driven to a cross-suit." 2 M. 296; see also 35 C. W. N. 17=132 Ind. Cas. 195=A. I. R. 1931 Cal. 358; 17 C. W. N. 1560=19 C. L. J. 152; 11 C. 557; 16 C. 711; 40 B. 407; 20 C. 527; 7 A. 284; 15 A. 9; 27 A. 145; 8 C. W. N. 174; 19 C. W. N. 1183; 20 W. R. 410. Claim of equitable set-off can be allowed independently of the provisions of C. P. Code and no Court-fees need be charged. A. I. R. 1930 All. 875=128 Ind. Cas. 763. The principle underlying the equitable set-off is that even if it is not ascertained sum, it must arise out of the same transaction so as to make it inequitable that the plaintiff should recover and the defendant be driven to a separate suit. A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 808=125 Ind. Cas. 444; see also A. I. R. 1926 Oudh 301=92 Ind. Cas. 787; 90 Ind. Cas. 465=49 M. L. J. 14=(1925) M. W. N. 228=A. I. R. 1925 Mad. 830. Under Order XX, r. 19, equitable set-off can be allowed on payment of Court-fee in a suit for account. Such set-off is not governed by Order 8, rule 6. A. I. R. 1931 Cal. 358=35 C. W. N. 17=132 Ind. Cas. 195. A legal set-off requires a Court-fee because it is a claim that might be established by a separate suit in which a Court-fee would have to be paid. But there is no such fee required in the case of an equitable set-off which is for an amount that may be equitably deducted from the claim of the plaintiff, where a Court-fee has been paid on the gross amount. An equitable set-off may however only be claimed by the defendant for a claim arising out of the same transaction as the plaintiff's claim. A. I. R. 1934 All. 115=1934 A. L. J. 421. A person cannot have a share in an estate by way of inheritance without paying a debt due from him to the estate, even though the debt be time-barred. 40 C. W. N. 75=62 C. L. J. 430. But in order that a claim for equitable set-off may arise, it is not sufficient that there are cross-demands: it is further necessary that there should be a connection between them which makes it inequitable to drive the defendant to a separate suit as when the demands arise out of the same transaction or when there is on each side knowledge of and confidence in one debt discharging the other. 40 C. W. N. 75.

In a suit for recovery of money.—Every suit in which the final decree is for money is a suit for recovery of money. 10 A. 587. It is doubtful whether a mere suit for account is a suit for recovery of money. 13 I. A. 48 (56)=13 C. 124. A suit for enforcement of mortgage security is not a suit for recovery of money. 8 C. W. N. 174. Set-off cannot be claimed in a suit for damages for breach of contract. 2 L. B. R. 186. Even in a money suit set-off cannot be allowed unless the sum is ascertained and legally recoverable. 1 P. L. R. 615=2 P. L. J. 451=40 Ind. Cas. 150; see also 38 Ind. Cas. 203; 1936 A. M. L. J. 60. That the suit is based on negotiable instrument is no bar to claim for set-off by the defendant. A. I. R. 1931 Nag. 12=130 Ind. Cas. 87. In a suit for money the defendant claimed to set-off a sum of money under a mortgage in his favour and in which a current decree had been passed directing an account to be taken of what will be due to the mortgage, held as the amount has not been ascertained and as there is difficulty in treating the written statement to set-off as a plaint, the defendant is not entitled to claim set-off. A. I. R. 1931 Cal. 23=129 Ind. Cas. 420=57 C. 855. A suit on a promissory-note accompanied by deposit of title-deeds is a claim for recovery of money as the words "suits for recovery of money" do not necessarily mean a suit for money pure and simple. A. I. R. 1933 Rang. 13. Set-off under rule 6 has wider meaning than English set-off, but not as wide as counter claim. A. I. R. 1934 All. 543. A set-off under Order 8, rule 6, may be pleaded by a defendant, although claim of the plaintiff is denied. Set-off is not merely a defence to the plaintiff's claim, and a decree may be granted to the defendant although the suit of the plaintiff is dismissed. Ibid. Court must treat defendant's claim under Order 8, rule 6, as plaint and grant decree under Order 20, rule 19 (1). Ibid. Where a plaintiff sues several defendants, alleging a joint debt, a defendant, who denies the joint debt may plead a set-off due to him alone. The illustration (g) to this rule does not prohibit this. There is nothing in the wording of this rule to show that such a set-off could not be pleaded. Ibid.

Ascertained sum.—Ascertained sum does not mean sum admitted by the plaintiff. The term is simply contradictory of unliquidated damages, that is the sum of money of which the amount is known. It excludes both unliquidated damages as well as mesne profits. A. I. R. 1931 Nag. 12=130 Ind. Cas. 87; see also 82 Ind. Cas. 340; 22 A. L. J. 844; 46 A. 922; A. I. R. 1924 All. 822; 12 S. L. R. 70=49 Ind. Cas. 193. Ascertained sum means conclusive and indisputable amount. 37 Ind. Cas. 367. A counter claim for a definite amount by way of set-off though not admitted is a claim for an ascertained sum. A. I. R. 1933 Rang. 13. Preliminary decree for sale directing accounts to be taken of what is due under the mortgage cannot be a set-off under Order VIII, rule 6. A. I. R. 1931 Cal. 23=57 C. 855=129 Ind. Cas. 420. Set-off claimed under the basis of damages to be ascertained after the protracted enquiry cannot be allowed as such. A. I. R. 1929 All. 52=111 Ind. Cas. 790. Party can set off the costs awarded to him by one order in the same suit as against those awarded to another party by a subsequent order in the same suit. 2 P. L. W. 62=39 Ind. Cas. 888. Sums specified are not necessarily ascertained, so that they may be legally recoverable within the meaning of Order VIII, rule 6. A. I. R. 1926 Sind 225=21 S. L. R. 385. In a money suit set-off cannot be allowed unless the sum is ascertained and legally recoverable. 40 Ind. Cas. 350=2 P. L. J. 451=(1917) Pat. 279; 38 Ind. Cas. 203.

Counter-Claim.—Distinction between set-off and counter-claim is that set-off is for ascertained sum or it must arise out of the same transaction as the plaintiff's claim. Counter-claim need not arise out of the same transaction. Set-off is ground of defence and it should be pleaded in the written statement. Counter claim is not any defence to the plaintiff's claim, it is good ground of independent action against the plaintiff. If the statute of limitation is pleaded in defence of set-off, the plaintiff in order to establish his plea, must prove that the set-off was barred when the plaintiff commenced his action. In the case, however, of counter-claim it is enough for the plaintiff to prove that the counter claim was barred when it was pleaded. A. I. R. 1923 Bom. 113=24 Bom. L. R. 998=77 Ind. Cas. 943; see also 66 Ind. Cas. 209=48 C. 817=25 C. W. N. 800=A. I. R. 1921 Cal. 67; 67 Ind. Cas. 326=24 Bom. L. R. 328=47 B. 182=A. I. R. 1923 Bom. 24; A. I. R. 1934 All. 427; A. I. R. 1923 P. C. 114=40 C. L. J. 1=28 C. W. N. 689=50 I. A. 162=4 Lah. 281=25 Bom. L. R. 1248=45 M. L. J. 497=33 M. L. T. 349=40 C. L. J. 1 (P. C.). There is a different terminus ad duem for the case of a mere set-off and the case of counter demand. In the former case the amount claimed must be legally recoverable by him on the date of the suit, while in the latter it must be legally recoverable by him on the date of his written statement. A. I. R. 1934 All. 427=1934 A. L. J. 286=150 Ind. Cas. 105. Counter claim if properly stamped may be tried as a cross-suit. A. I. R. 1924 Rang. 346=2 Rang. 276=82 Ind. Cas. 721. Counter claim must be within time at the date the defendant files his pleadings. A. I. R. 1925 Nag. 445=89 Ind. Cas. 371. A set-off under Order 8, rule 6, is wider than a set-off at English law but it is not as wide as a counter-claim. When the provisions now embodied in Order 8, rule 6, were framed by the legislature the word counter-claim was not introduced, but some of the attributes of counter claim were given to a set-off and some of the attributes of set-off at English law were modified. A set-off under Order 8, rule 6, is not as wide as a counter claim, as the suit of the plaintiff must be for recovery of money and the set-off of the defendant must be of any ascertained sum of money legally recoverable by him from the plaintiff. A. I. R. 1934 All. 543=1934 A. L. J. 393=150 Ind. Cas. 433. No provision is made by C. P. Code, Order 8 for counter-claim in money suits though it provides for set-off. 80 Ind. Cas. 192. Claim to share of profits realised by manager of the tenancy land, cannot be a set-off in a suit for contribution of rent between the plaintiffs and the defendant but can be allowed as a counter-claim. A. I. R. 1926 Nag. 155=8 N. L. J. 205=92 Ind. Cas. 74. Ordinarily a defendant is not allowed to set up a counter-claim in answer to the claim of the plaintiff but the Court may grant equitable relief to the defendant in an appropriate case and enable the defendant to claim compensation for loss occasioned by the act of the plaintiff. 59 C. 833. Where defendant makes a counter-claim to the plaintiff's suit and the Court decides to hear two together but the plaintiff withdraws his suit with liberty to bring a fresh one, the counter-claim can be continued as a plaint and proceeded on merits. A. I. R. 1934 Rang. 160.

Same Character.—Claim to set-off is not allowable where the parties claiming are in different capacities. A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 228=8 Lah. 105=28 P. L. R. 427=101 Ind. Cas. 762; see also 39 B. 131=16 Bom. L. R. 746; 5 A. 299; A. I. R. 1936 Pesh. 57. Where capacities of the parties are not varied, defendant is entitled to set-off wages due to him by the plaintiff. 41 C. 163=19 Bom. L. R. 67=30 Ind. Cas. 17. Where a principal is also a banker under another name, in a suit by principal against the agent for sale proceeds in agent's hands, agent can set-off the amount deposited in the bank. A. I. R. 1921 P. C. 103=15 L. W. 201=24 C. W. N. 1004=76 Ind. Cas. 944. Employer cannot counter-claim to set-off month's salary as damages in the same suit. 39 A. 362=15 A. L. J. 262=38 Ind. Cas. 206. In a rent suit, tenant can set-off commission for rent collected. 38 Ind. Cas. 71.

Omission to claim set-off.—Omission to claim an equitable set-off or a counter-claim does not bar a fresh suit. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 1020=51 M. L. J. 258=97 Ind. Cas. 437; see also 90 Ind. Cas. 465=49 M. L. J. 192=1925 M. W. N. 228=A. I. R. 1925 Mad. 830. Set-off which is not claimed as such in the suit cannot be so claimed in execution. A. I. R. 1924 Oudh 434=11 O. L. J. 517=27 O. C. 248=81 Ind. Cas. 651. Omission to plead set-off does not bar a fresh suit but it was so pleaded, and was within the competence of the Court, but was not allowed by the Court, bars a fresh suit in respect of the whole or part of it as the case may be. 12 L. W. 173=60 Ind. Cas. 226.

Limitation.—If statute of limitation is pleaded in defence of set-off the plaintiff in order to establish his plea, must prove that the set-off was barred when the plaintiff commenced his action. A. I. R. 1923 Bom. 113=24 Bom. L. R. 998=77

Ind. Cas. 943; see also 7 A. 284; 39 M. 939; 31 P. L. R. 107=122 Ind. Cas. 490. Claim which is time-barred cannot be claimed as legal set-off. A. I. R. 1936 Pesh. 57=160 Ind. Cas. 908. But time-barred debt may be claimed as equitable set-off. A. I. R. 1926 Pat. 77=7 P. L. T. 158=90 Ind. Cas. 785; see also 14 C. W. N. 170; 12 C. W. N. 60; 19 C. W. N. 1183; 32 C. 576. Expiry of the period of limitation only bars the remedy and does not extinguish the right. Limitation affects only the plaintiff and not the defendant. A. I. R. 1926 Lah. 633=96 Ind. Cas. 844. Claim time-barred at the time of filing written statement cannot be allowed to be set-off. 47 Ind. Cas. 938; 44 Ind. Cas. 428=34 M. L. J. 32; 42 M. 863=37 M. L. J. 193=10 L. W. 183=26 M. L. T. 276=53 Ind. Cas. 234; 62 Ind. Cas. 852=41 M. L. J. 370.

Not exceeding the pecuniary jurisdiction.—The whole of the sum claimed as set-off should be within the jurisdiction of the Court. A. I. R. 1925 Rang. 22=2 Rang. 349=84 Ind. Cas. 956; 84 Ind. Cas. 971=A. I. R. 1925 Rang. 65=2 Rang. 462; see also 20 C. 527; 3 N. W. P. H. C. R. 114; 17 P. R. 1890; 21 C. 419; 14 B. 371; 15 A. 404; 18 W. R. 339; but see 12 B. 31. The amount of the set-off must be within the pecuniary limits of the jurisdiction of the Court in which the plaintiff's suit is brought. The nature of the set-off must also be within the cognizance of the Court. A Court cannot entertain a set-off if its nature is such that if it is made the subject-matter of a separate suit, it will not come within its jurisdiction. But a Court can entertain a set-off as a defence to an action, even if it would have no territorial jurisdiction in respect of the subject-matter of the set-off, if a suit was filed in respect of such subject-matter. In this respect there is a distinction between set-off and counter-claim. In one sense both are cross-actions, but a set-off is also a ground of defence, if established, it accords answers to the plaintiff's claim either wholly or pro tanto, for a set-off is really a debt claimed by the defendant against the plaintiff balancing debt claimed by the plaintiff against the defendant. A counter-claim on the other hand is really a weapon of offence, and enables a defendant to enforce a claim against the plaintiff as effectually as in an independent action. It is allowed to be pleaded by the defendant at his option, subject to certain rules, in order to avoid multiplicity of proceedings between the parties. 34 Bom. L. R. 1401.

Court fee.—Court-fee is payable for the excess over plaintiff's claim in case of claim to set-off exceeding plaintiff's claim and if the decree for the excess is prayed for. A. I. R. 1927 Nag. 74=97 Ind. Cas. 916. What is a plea of satisfaction cannot be a set-off and the Court-fee was unnecessary. A. I. R. 1927 Nag. 120=9 N. L. J. 227. A legal set-off requires a Court-fee because it is a claim and might be established by a separate suit in which a Court-fee would have to be paid. But there is no such fee required in the case of equitable set-off which is for an amount that may equitably be deducted from the claim of the plaintiff where a Court-fee has been paid on the gross amount. An equitable set-off may however only be claimed by the defendant for a claim arising out of the same transaction as the plaintiff's claim. A. I. R. 1934 All. 115.

Attorney's lien.—No set-off can be allowed at least to the extent of attorney's lien when a creditor's petition against the debtor is dismissed with costs to be paid to the debtor. A. I. R. 1930 Bom. 516=32 Bom. L. R. 1076=128 Ind. Cas. 24. Whether an attorney's lien should or should not be allowed to intercept a set-off between the parties to a suit is in India a matter of discretion. Attorney's lien is not allowed to prevail over rights of parties to a suit. 34 Bom. L. R. 1429=A. I. R. 1932 Bom. 619=A. L. R. 1932 Bom. 1195. The law relating to solicitor's lien in the High Courts in India is still governed by the relevant principles of English law—the Civil Procedure Code not being abrogated the preexisting law on the subject. 38 C. W. N. 1037.

Sub-section (2).—The Provisions of Order 8, rule 6, and Order 20, rule 19(1), read together, show that the Court must treat the claim of the defendant exactly as if the defendant had filed a plaint and the Court must pass a decree in favour of the defendant, if his claim is established, even though the claim of the plaintiff against the defendant is dismissed. A. I. R. 1934 All. 543=1934 A. L. J. 393; A. I. R. 1934 Rang. 160=152 Ind. Cas. 552. Where there has been an order for costs against the defendant and costs have been taxed and the precise amount of the taxed costs has been paid into Court, the defendant is not entitled to a set-off claimed by him against the plaintiff in answer to the plaintiff's attorney's claim to exercise his right of lien. 40 C. W. N. 458.

7. [R. S. C. O. 20, r. 7.] Where the defendant relies upon several distinct grounds of defence or set-off founded upon separate and distinct facts, they shall be stated, as far as may be, separately and distinctly.

8. [New.] Any ground of defence which has arisen after the institution of the suit or the presentation of a written statement claiming a set-off may be raised by the defendant or plaintiff, as the case may be, in its written statement.

9. [S. 112.] No pleading subsequent to the written statement of a defendant other than by way of defence to a set-off shall be presented except by the leave of the Court and upon such terms as the Court thinks fit, but the Court may at any time require a written statement or additional written statement from any of the parties and fix a time for presenting the same.

Notes.—In order to file pleadings subsequent to written statement, order of Court is necessary. A. I. R. 1935 Bo.n. 395=27 Bo.n. L. R. 890=91 Ind. Cas. 272. But Court has discretionary power to allow additional written statement setting up totally new case. (1918) Pat. 323=48 Ind. Cas. 746. Order VIII, rule 9 and Order XIV, rule 5, preclude party to adduce evidence with regard to any plea unless if written statement is amended and issues framed accordingly. 25 M. L. T. 257=(1919) M. W. N. 23=9 L. W. 193=49 Ind. Cas. 273. Under Order 8, rule 9, an additional written statement otherwise than by way of defence to a set-off shall only be presented by leave of the Court and on such terms as the Court thinks fit and hence a minor defendant is not entitled on attaining majority to put in an additional written statement without leave of the Court consequently the refusal of the trial Court to grant permission except in the one instance named would not be a matter with which the High Court could interfere in revision. A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 117=41 L. W. 640=153 Ind. Cas. 453.

10. [S 113.] Where any party from whom a written statement is so required fails to present the same within the time fixed by the Court, the Court may pronounce judgment against him, or make such order in relation to the suit as it thinks fit.

N. B.—For addition of new rules in Allahabad, Bombay, C. P., Lahore, Oudh, Patna, Peshawar and Sind.—Vide infra.

Scope.—This rule applies only on failure to file written statement required by Order 8, rule 9, and not in other cases. A. I. R. 1925 Oudh 567=12 O. L. J. 532=2 O. W. N. 391=88 Ind. Cas. 540; see also A. I. R. 1928 Rang. 261=6 Rang. 466=112 Ind. Cas. 438. This rule enables the Court to declare ex parte against defendant on his failure to file written statement within fixed time. (1917) M. W. N. 241=40 Ind. Cas. 223. Order requiring written statement must be unconditional, otherwise decree would be interfered with in revision. A. I. R. 1937 Mad. 1007=53 M. L. J. 504=39 M. L. T. 273=105 Ind. Cas. 288. Court has power to strike out defence of defaulting party. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 459=115 Ind. Cas. 31. Provisions of this rule apply to corporations as well as to other litigants. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 459=115 Ind. Cas. 31. Order refusing to strike out the plaint is not subject to appeal. A. I. R. 1931 Lah. 77=131 Ind. Cas. 129=31 P. L. R. 946.

ORDER IX.

Appearance of Parties and Consequence of Non-appearance.

1. [S. 96.] On the day fixed in the summons for the defendant to appear and answer, the parties shall be in attendance at the Court house in person or by their respective pleaders, and the suit shall then be heard unless the hearing is adjourned to a future day fixed by the Court.

Parties to appear on day fixed in summons for defendant to appear and answer.

Scope of Order IX.—The provisions of order IX are not applicable to execution proceedings. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 744=121 Ind. Cas. 189 ; see also A. I. R. 1925 Oudh 552=28 O. C. 158=85 Ind. Cas. 450 ; A. I. R. 1925 Cal. 510=41 C. L. J. 286=79 Ind. Cas. 351 ; A. I. R. 1921 Sind 55=17 S. L. R. 105=83 Ind. Cas. 749 ; 8 S. L. R. 325 ; 5 P. L. W. 208 ; 15 A. 84 ; 18 B. 429 ; A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 412=50 M. L. J. 220=23 L. W. 227=(1926) M. W. N. 245=92 Ind. Cas. 533 ; A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 420=100 Ind. Cas. 518 ; A. I. R. 1926 Cal. 735=43 C. L. J. 285=94 Ind. Cas. 172. This order is also not applicable to Provincial Insolvency Act regarding annulment order. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 942=49 M. 935=51 M. L. J. 209=(1926) M. W. N. 674=97 Ind. Cas. 706. Order IX also does not apply to Order X, rule 4. A. I. R. 1921 Mad. 417=14 L. W. 15=63 Ind. Cas. 961. This order is not applicable where Courts sit after prescribed times without consent of parties and pleaders. A. I. R. 1925 Pat. 772=4 Pat. 646=26 Cr. L. J. 1441=89 Ind. Cas. 961. By virtue of section 141, C. P. Code, this order is extended to applications under Order IX itself. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 325=50 M. L. J. 75=23 L. W. 409=92 Ind. Cas. 802. The rules of this order in strictness do not apply to Probate Proceedings. 29 Ind. Cas. 133=13 A. L. J. 441=37 A. 380. An issue referred to a Civil Court for decision by a Revenue Court is an original matter in the nature of a suit. The Civil Court has jurisdiction under the provisions of s. 141 and order 9 to entertain an application for the setting aside of an ex parte decision and to decide the issue on the merits. A. I. R. 1934 All. 86=1934 A. L. J. 831=56 A. 390. The provisions of Order 9, C. P. Code, by themselves do not apply to a case in which the plaintiff or the defendant has already appeared but has failed to appear at on adjourned hearing of the case. For such a case the procedure is laid down in Order 17, which deals with adjournment. 156 Ind. Cas. 754=1935 A. L. J. 209=A. I. R. 1935 All. 210. The provisions of this order do not in terms apply to execution proceedings but applications can be restored under the inherent powers of Court. 13 Lah. 761=142 Ind. Cas. 686=34 P. L. R. 70=A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 99 ; see also 145 Ind. Cas. 995=1933=A. L. J. 1032 A. I. R. 1933 All. 783 (F. B.) ; 143 Ind. Cas. 1=37 M. L. W. 607=1933 M. W. N. 566=64 M. L. J. 664=56 Mad. 490=A. I. Scope of the section.—Ex parte decree cannot be justified when the case is taken for hearing on a wrong date and a party apply for time. A. I. R. 1929 Pat. 609=10 P. L. T. 589=120 Ind. Cas. 304. Mere presence of party is appearance. A. I. R. 1924 Nag. 26=76 Ind. Cas. 288 ; see also A. I. R. 1922 Pat. 485=1 Pat. 188=68 Ind. Cas. 337. Appearance by a pleader means appearance by a pleader when he is duly instructed and able to answer all the material questions. A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 831=110 Ind. Cas. 377 ; A. I. R. 1929 All. 729=96 Ind. Cas. 564 ; 82 Ind. Cas. 107=47 M. L. J. 514 ; 22 A. 66 ; 4 C. 318 ; A. I. R. 1922 Pat. 485=1 Pat. 188=69 Ind. Cas. 837 ; 8 A. 140 ; 4 B. H. C. R. A. C. 206 ; 20 A. 195 ; 12 C. 605 ; 23 B. 414. The term "day fixed in the summons" refers to the day fixed for the first hearing of the suit. 2 A. 67=5 I. A. 233. The mere putting of a written statement is not appearance. 1 N. W. P. H. C. R. 154.

2. [S. 97.] Where on the day so fixed it is found that the summons has not been served upon the defendant in consequence of the failure of the plaintiff to pay the Court-fee or postal charges (if any) chargeable for such service, the Court may make an order that the suit be dismissed :

Dismissal of suit where summons not served in consequence of plaintiff's failure to pay costs.

Provided that no such order shall be made although the summons has not been served upon the defendant, if on the day fixed for him to appear and answer he attends in person or by agent when he is allowed to appear by agent.

N. B.—For local amendment in Allahabad.—Vide infra.

Scope.—When a time is not fixed for the deposit of process-fee an order for dismissal is irregular. 3 B. L. R. App. 25=11 W. R. 290 ; 158 Ind. Cas. 250. This section is only applicable to cases in which plaintiff fails to file tallubana for the first hearing. 65 P. W. R. 1908. The default under this rule, owing to the plaintiff's omission to deposit the requisite Tallubana in the proper Court is not excused by the fact of its having been committed by an ignorant karpurdas. 11 W. R. 417. The failure contemplated by Order IX, rule 2, is not confined to an entire omission to pay the requisite Court-fee, but also includes an omission to pay that fee within the time which the Court is required to fix for payment under Order XLVIII, rule 1, 7 N. L. R. 114. A guardian ad litem is not a defendant in a suit, and the penal provisions of Order 9, r. 2 of the Code have no application to the case of a failure to pay in process-fee for summons to be served on him. 115 P.W.R. 1911. Court can dismiss a suit under this order, for plaintiff's failure to pay damages for not getting summons served. A. I. R. 1927 All. 464=100 Ind. Cas. 691. Dismissal under Order 9, rule 2, on failure to pay postal charges (according to proviso of Lahore High Court) when process-fee is paid, is not proper. A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 157=9 Lah. L. J. 96=99 Ind. Cas. 909. Dismissal is not proper where process-fee was paid not on fixed day but in sufficient time for service of summons. A. I. R. 1922 Lah. 63=4 Lah. L. J. 71=67 Ind. Cas. 945. Dismissal under Order IX, rule 2, is not justified if plaintiff fails to give defendant's correct address or does not accompany process-server. A. I. R. 1932 Lah. 170=9 Lah. L. J. 135=99 Ind. Cas. 898. Where process-fee has not been paid for one defendant, dismissal as against other defendants is improper. A. I. R. 1921 Pat. 422=2 P. L. T. 256=60 Ind. Cas. 377. Court should give reasonable time for paying process-fees; two days' time when party is absent is not reasonable time. 55 Ind. Cas. 650. Where plaintiff failed to file affidavits of service of summons on guardian of minor defendants, decree is not binding on minor; but dismissal against major defendants is improper. 1 P. L. T. 125=55 Ind. Cas. 826. Rule 4 does not apply where date is fixed for paying process-fee only. A. I. R. 1921 Pat. 422=2 P. L. T. 256=60 Ind. Cas. 377. Where defendant asks time for filing written statement, dismissal under this section is improper, even when the plaintiff failed to file process-fee in as much as filing application amounts to appearance. 53 Ind. Cas. 41. An order dismissing a suit for default is not appealable. 38 A. 357=14 A. L. J. 347=33 Ind. Cas. 737. There is no appeal from the order of an appellate Court restoring a suit dismissed for want of payment of process-fee. 9 Ind. Cas. 484. Where the plaintiff deposited process-fee several times for service of summonses on the defendant but the summonses could not be served and the Court ultimately dismissed the suit, held that in the circumstances it was the duty of the Court to direct the issue of substituted service under Order 5, rule 20, and that the dismissal of the suit was bad. 12 P. L. T. 644=135 Ind. Cas. 99=A. I. R. 1931 Pat. 420. Non-payment of process-fee required for fresh summons with the application is no ground for dismissal of suit. A. I. R. 1933 Pat. 582.

Where neither party appears, 3. [S. 98.] Where neither party appears when the suit is called on for hearing, the Court may make an order that the suit be dismissed.

Scope.—Unless a date has been fixed for the appearance of the defendants and neither party appears when the suit is called on for hearing on that date, Order 9, rule 3, would not apply. A. I. R. 1935 Lah. 656=159 Ind. Cas. 226. The provisions of this rule is not obligatory. The Court is at liberty to exercise its discretion in a suitable case. A. I. R. 1936 Pat. 437=162 Ind. Cas. 557. The order of a District Munsiff to strike a case off his file on neither party appearing, is an illegal order. 10 M. 270; see also 17 W. R. 219; 21 W. R. 124. Where a suit is referred to arbitration and is pending before the arbitrators, the Court has no power to dismiss the suit under this rule. 10 P. R. 1899. The dismissal of a suit for default on an adjourned date, of which the parties had no notice is illegal. 14 C. P. L. R. 134. The officers presiding over Courts of Justice, when on tour should not dismiss any suit for default in appearance, without satisfactory evidence that due notice of the exact date and place of hearing was given to the parties. 37 P. R. 1904. Where parties are absent on date of re-hearing fixed for want of time of Court, the dismissal if made is under Order 9, rule 3 and not under Order 17, rule 3. 32 Ind. Cas. 714. Where defendant is absent but plaintiff fails to produce evidence, the dismissal is one under Order 17, rule 3 and not under Order 9 rule 3 and no fresh suit is barred. 40 A. 590=16 A. L. J. 462=46 Ind. Cas. 390. Where parties are absent on day fixed for hearing preliminary issues, suit should not be dismissed. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 830=31 P. L. R. 441=122 Ind. Cas. 465. Where date is fixed for hearing application in suit only, suit cannot be dismissed. A. I. R. 1927 Sind 228=102 Ind. Cas. 416. Where preliminary, mortgage decree for sale has been passed, an application for final decree cannot be dismissed for default of appearance. A. I. R. 1934 Pat. 18. Where plaintiff is ill and the Counsel is late only by a few minutes, a case should be restored if dismissed for default. A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 34. Where the plaintiff has deposited the fee for service of summons but the summons has not been issued to the defendant, and a date is fixed for the appearance of the plaintiff only, the Court cannot dismiss the suit for non-appearance of the plaintiff, but should issue summons to the defendant and fix a date for the hearing of the suit. 32 P. L. R. 300=A. I. R. (1931) Lah. 69. When the plaintiff was absent from Court on account of unavoidable delay, held, the order dismissing the suit for default ought to be set aside. A. I. R. 1931 Pat. 87=130 Ind. Cas. 542. Where fresh summons was ordered to be issued along with amended plaint and summons was not issued on account of failure of plaintiff to file copies of amended plaint, the non-appearance of parties on day fixed is governed by rule 3 and not by rule 5. A. I. R. 1934 Pat. 18. Where an application to restore a suit dismissed for default under Order 9, rule 3, is also dismissed in default, a second application to restore it is competent. A. I. R. 1934 Pesh. 13=148 Ind. Cas. 917. When an application is made for the amendment of issues and the Court fixes a day for the consideration of the application for amendment but the parties do not appear on the fixed date the Court has no right to dismiss the suit for default. It can only dismiss the application for amendment. A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 237=35 P. L. R. 342.

A suit cannot be dismissed for non-appearance on day fixed for judgment. A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 888=9 Lah. L. J. 178=28 P. L. R. 324=100 Ind. Cas. 472. Where date is only for seeing date fixed for defendant's appearance, absence of plaintiff does not entail dismissal. A. I. R. 1995 Lah. 96=78 Ind. Cas. 15. Dismissal for non-appearance of pleader is wrong if authorized agent is present with witness. A. I. R. 1922 Pat. 504=3 P. L. T. 447=68 Ind. Cas. 659. Dismissal is also improper when parties are absent at hearing for amendment of issues. 6 P. L. J. 331=2 P. L. T. 760=63 Ind. Cas. 746. Where an adjournment had been granted at the request of the plaintiff, in order to enable the latter to amend his plaint and on the date fixed the plaintiff's pleader again applied for time, and therefore the Court dismissed the suit : Held (1) that the order under rules 2 and 3 of Order 17 of the C. P. Code, the Court had no power to proceed with the disposal of the suit : (2) that the Court could not be said to have acted under rule 3, Order 9, because the plaintiff's pleader did in fact appear and ask for an adjournment and there was nothing in the order recorded to show that he was not willing to prosecute the suit upon the original plaint without amending it. 4 Pat. L. J. 277=51 Ind. Cas. 189. Where date for defendant's appearance has not been fixed, rule 3 does not apply. A. I. R. 1927 All. 439=49 A. 592=25 A. L. J. 437=101 Ind. Cas. 676 ; see also A. I. R. 1921 Lah. 320=27 P. L. R. 1921=60 Ind. Cas. 475 ; A. I. R. 1931 Lah. 69=130 Ind. Cas. 771.

In case of dismissal under Order 9, rule 3, remedy of the plaintiff lies either in fresh suit or in an application for restoration. 39 Ind. Cas. 191=20 O. C. 66 ; 63 Ind. Cas. 239 ; 43 Ind. Cas. 518=16 A. L. J. 143 ; 43 Ind. Cas. 180 ; 44 B. 767=22 Bom. L. R. 328=56 Ind. Cas. 455 ; A. I. R. 1925 Nag. 31=76 Ind. Cas. 46 ; 85 Ind. Cas. 788=A. I. R. 1925 All. 425. But where restoration is impossible for want of sufficient cause, inherent power cannot be used. A. I. R. 1927 Pat. 369=9 P. L. T. 136=103 Ind. Cas. 620. Obstruction by the picketing volunteers is unavoidable cause sufficient to set aside order of dismissal in default. A. I. R. 1931 Pat. 87=130 Ind. Cas. 542. Where application for restoration of a case dismissed under rule 3 is filed, no notice need be served on the other party. A. I. R. 1923 Oudh 55=24 O. C. 347=9 O. L. J. 52=64 Ind. Cas. 767. Where dismissal under rule 3 is by Court without jurisdiction, fresh application lies to competent Court. 58 Ind. Cas. 203. Same Court only can set aside order of dismissal for default. 100 P. L. R. 1920=2 Lah. L. J. 48=19 P. W. R. 1920=56 Ind. Cas. 884. But striking off of suit as settled is tantamount to withdrawal and therefore no fresh suit lies. (1916) M. W. N. 171=32 Ind. Cas. 624. Order X, r. 4, is not governed by Order IX, r. 3. 1921 M. W. N. 390=14 L. W. 15=63 Ind. Cas. 961. Where date is fixed for consideration of application for amendment of issues and parties are absent, suit cannot be dismissed. A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 237.

Appeal.—An order of dismissal under this section is not a decree and hence no appeal lies from it. 29 C. 60. No application for review is either maintainable. 33 P. L. R. 1909=44 P. L. R. 1909=31 P. R. 1909 (2 C. W. N. 318 F.)

4. [S. 99.] Where a suit is dismissed under rule 2 or rule 3, the plaintiff may (subject to the law of limitation) bring a fresh suit ; or he may apply for an order to set the dismissal aside, and if he satisfies the Court that there was sufficient cause for his not paying the Court-fee and postal charges (if any) required within the time fixed before the issue of the summons or for his non-appearance, as the case may be, the Court shall make an order setting aside the dismissal and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the suit.

N. B.—For local amendment in Bombay.—Vide infra.

Scope.—In case of dismissal under rule 3 fresh suit lies, 14 R. D. 395 ; see A. I. R. 1929 All. 131=56 A. 837=26 A. L. J. 776=115 Ind. Cas. 118. In case of dismissal of pauper application, fresh application lies. A. I. R. 1924 Rang. 161=2 Bur. L. J. 217=76 Ind. Cas. 785. The two remedies allowed to a plaintiff whose suit is dismissed under Order 9, rule 2 or 3, C. P. Code, the remedy of bringing a fresh suit, or of applying to have the dismissal set aside are not mutually exclusive. Thus, if he fails in his attempt to have the dismissal set aside, he still has the remedy of bringing a fresh suit. 63 Ind. Cas. 239 ; A. I. R. 1926 All. 678=96 Ind. Cas. 187. Where the plaintiff is in jail and his muktear is absent through mistake, restoration application on same date should be entertained. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 882=124 Ind. Cas. 320 ; see also A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 70=31 P. L. R. 335=123 Ind. Cas. 834. Where suit is dismissed for default of plaintiff, some applying for restoration, restoration of entire suit is proper. A. I. R. 1930 All. 168=(1929) A. L. J. 1103=120 Ind. Cas. 560. In case of dismissal through mistake of Court, Court has inherent power to restore. A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 534=108 Ind. Cas. 603. Absence through bona fide mistake is "sufficient cause" for restoration. A. I. R. 1926 Lah. 634=96 Ind. Cas. 881. Remark "file" amounts to neither rejection nor dismissal. A. I. R. 1924 Pat. 698=5 P. L. T. 567=79 Ind. Cas. 598. Where in case of dismissal for default, restoration against some defendants is prayed for Court cannot implead them on its own motion. A. I. (b) such defendant is avoiding service of process, or

(c) there is any other sufficient cause for extending the time, in which case the Court may extend the time for making such application for such period as it thinks fit.

(2) In such case the plaintiff may (subject to the law of limitation) bring a fresh suit.

Scope.—Order IX, rule 5, of the Civil Procedure Code, is only an enabling provision enacted for a special purpose only. 5 Ind. Cas. 537. This rule is not Rule 5 has no application to a case when plaintiff has failed to appear; and the fact that summons is returned unserved on the opposite party, is no ground for setting aside the order of dismissal for default. When summons not duly served.

(c) if it is proved that the summons was served on the defendant, but not in sufficient time to enable him to appear and answer on the day fixed in the summons, the Court shall postpone the hearing of the suit to a future day to be fixed by the Court, and shall direct notice of such day to be given to the defendant.

(2) Where it is owing to the plaintiff's default that the summons was not duly served or was not served in sufficient time, the Court shall order the plaintiff to pay the costs occasioned by the postponement.

Scope.—The phrase "when the suit is called on for hearing" when an appearance under Order IX is in question, means on the first day of hearing, and when an appearance under Order XVII, is in question it is limited to the commencement of the hearing on each day of hearing. Clause (a).—This rule lays down when the Court may proceed ex parte but there appears to be no explanation in the Code what is ex parte procedure is though the plaintiff is always called upon in quite general terms to prove his case. A. I. R. 1925 Lah. 517=86 Ind. Cas. 616. Where the dismissal for default is under rule 3, Order IX, there is no bar to a fresh suit, while a dismissal under rule 8 of Order IX precludes a second suit. No rigid rule can be laid down that in all cases where a party arrives late at Court and finds his suit dismissed he is entitled to have as of course his suit restored on payment of such costs as may be incurred by reason of his default. Each case must be dealt with on its merits bearing in mind that Order 9, rule 9, requires that "sufficient cause" be shown and that dismissal of a suit for non-appearance of the plaintiff is a heavy penalty. What is sufficient cause in each case must quite obviously depend upon the particular facts. A. I. R. 1935 Sind 198=158 Ind. Cas. 942. When sufficient cause is shown re-opening is mandatory, but when sufficient cause is not shown such re-opening is discretionary with the trial Judge. A. I. R. 1936 Rang. 335=164 Ind. Cas. 236. Where a suit has been dismissed in default under Order 9, rule 8, on account of the failure of the representative of plaintiff firm to appear on the date of hearing and the representative alleges that he was unable to appear on the due date by reason of his missing the last train available by a few minutes, the question to be considered by the Court is whether the representative honestly intended to be in Court and he did his best to get there in time. Once the Court is satisfied that the man did try to get there, and that he could have been there but for the fact of having missed his train by a few minutes, it is the duty of the Court to set aside the order of dismissal after directing him to pay costs to the other party. If the Court is of opinion that there was a reasonable attempt by the pleader to appear or be represented but that he was unable to do so because of causes which he could not reasonably control, then it must be held that there is a good case for restoration. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 96=10 Lah. 570=30 P. L. R. 628=114 Ind. Cas. 76. Where the absence of one of the parties for fetching his pleader and of other because of his blindness, in such a case restoration should be ordered. A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 454=10 Lah. L. J. 70=111 Ind. Cas. 848. Sufficient cause for non-appearance must depend on the facts of each case. Where the pleader was actually sitting in the adjoining Court room and did not hear the call but soon after appeared and applied for restoration: Held, that there was sufficient cause for restoration. A. I. R. 1927 Sind 228=102 Ind. Cas. 416.

Plaintiff's explanation for his counsel's absence is condition precedent for restoring suit dismissed for default. 117 Ind. Cas. 382. Where suit is dismissed for pleader's absence, mere negligence is not a ground for restoring the suit though it may be ground for a suit for damages against the agent or pleader. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 148=112 Ind. Cas. 379. No orders of dismissal in default should be passed till the end of the day when the Court rises for the day, because there can be no default until the Court rose for the day. The Court has inherent power to rescind mistaken order of dismissal for default under s. 151. A. I. R. 1928 All. 301=26 A. L. J. 382=

108 Ind. Cas. 576. The pleader being busy elsewhere the plaintiff's agents going to call him is no excuse for restoring the suit. A. I. R. 1927 Oudh 211=4 O. W. N. 508. A mis-judgment by a counsel, as to the time when his case would be taken up, who does not state that he was engaged in some other Court, is not a sufficient ground for absentsing himself when his case is taken up. A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 224=100 Ind. Cas. 793. Late arrival of a train, which prevented a party from appearing in Court is a sufficient cause within rule 9. A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 40=98 Ind. Cas. 868. Where plaintiff after calling of case ran away to call his pleader and returned a few minutes after the suit was dismissed, the case should be restored. A. I. R. 1926 Lah. 650=96 Ind. Cas. 821. The dismissal of suit for default must be set aside. Where plaintiff or his counsel is not informed about the adjournment. 96 Ind. Cas. 245. When the plaintiff attended the Court, but went to a well in order to ease himself, and on his return he found that the case had been dismissed in default, held that the case should have been restored. 8 Lah. L. J. 422=27 P. L. R. 431=96 Ind. Cas. 402.

The provisions of s. 151 should be applied with the greatest caution. Where a party is absent from the Court when he ought to have been present, and does not give any satisfactory reason for his absence, then Court should not exercise its inherent powers in his favour, so as to interfere with the rights of third parties, such as an auction purchaser, which have come into existence owing to his default. A. I. R. 1926 Bom. 377=50 B. 457=28 Bom. L. R. 686=96 Ind. Cas. 411. But Court has power to interfere under s. 151 in fit cases where sufficient cause under Order IX, r. 13, is not shown. A. I. R. 1926 Sind 249=20 S. L. R. 266=95 Ind. Cas. 533. Illness of plaintiff can be a sufficient cause. A. I. R. 1926 Lah. 541=95 Ind. Cas. 240. A party who has engaged a counsel to represent him can remain personally absent, therefore if his counsel fails or betrays him he has sufficient cause for his personal absence. A. I. R. 1926 Nag. 409=9 N. L. J. 145=95 Ind. Cas. 260. A plaintiff should be given an opportunity to prove the cause of his non-appearance before dismissing suit for his appearance, though ordered to appear in the Court in person. 3 O. L. J. 712=38 Ind. Cas. 477. Applications under Order IX, rule 6 have to be disposed of on evidence and not on the ground that they are bona fide or otherwise. 22 C. W. N. 671=42 Ind. Cas. 649. Restoration of suit without sufficient cause is not bad. 48 Ind. Cas. 961.

Where suit was dismissed for default but subsequently was restored on plaintiff's application, the restoration relates back to the date of the application. 50 Ind. Cas. 727. An order of a Collector restoring an execution case to his file after it was dismissed by him in default of the decree-holder is illegal and without jurisdiction. 51 Ind. Cas. 237. An order under Order IX, r. 9, setting aside an order of dismissal for default made on the application of some of the plaintiffs may operate in favour of all of them, if the Court setting aside the order so directs. 7 O. Puncture of tyre on the way to Court amounts to sufficient cause. A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 416. Where plaintiff is absent but his pleader is present and is willing to argue the case, the case should not be dismissed. A. I. R. 1933 All. 539. So also where notice of transfer of a case was not served upon the plaintiff and the case has been dismissed for default by the transferee Court, it should be restored on the application of the plaintiff. A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 558=14 Lah. 240=34 P. L. R. 540. Where a suit has been dismissed for default, it should only be restored on showing sufficient cause for default. 141 Ind. Cas. 188=34 P. L. Where plaintiff was a female and her husband was in Court with her witnesses on the day in question, nor was vakil actually engaged in another Court, when the case was called at 4 p. m., her husband went to call the vakil, and the suit was dismissed: Held that the plaintiff has done all that lay in her power to have the case proceeded with and the suit should be restored. 93 Ind. Where a party appears a few minutes after the case has been called and dismissed during his absence, he should only be made to pay the costs of the application to restore the suit and his suit should be restored and heard on merits. Where a suit was called for hearing the plaintiff who was present in Court left the Court precincts to fetch his pleader who was engaged in another Court, the case had been called and dismissed for default in the meantime: Held, that in the circumstances of the case the suit should be restored for re-hearing on condition of the plaintiff paying into the Court the costs of the defendant within a prescribed time failing which his application should stand dismissed. A. I. R. 1923 All. 189=71 Ind. Cas. 283.

Where the plaintiff deliberately refused to proceed with the suit, during various dates of hearing, the fact the plaintiff was not aware of the last date of hearing is no ground for holding order dismissing the suit improper. A. I. R. 1921 Mad. 617=13 L. W. 334=62 Ind. Cas. 378. Words "satisfies" and "was prevented by sufficient cause" should receive same interpretation as in Order 41, r. 19 and Limitation Act, s. 5. A. Order passed on a petition under Order 9, rule 9, for restoration of dismissed petition is revisable. A. I. R. 1934 Mad. 669=40 L. W. 774=1934 M. W. N. 1114=151 Ind. Cas. 765=67 M. L. J. 485.

Dismissal of application under Order 9, rule 9.—Where an application under Order 9, rule 9, has been dismissed for default, Court has inherent power to deal with application for setting aside order of dismissal. A. I. R. 1933 Rang. 406. Order IX, rule 9, does not apply to set aside dismissal under rule 9 because s. 141 does not authorise such procedure. If a second application is in time, it may be treated as an application to restore the suit itself. If it is not in time, s. 151 may be revoked. A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 534=54 C. 405=31 C. W. N. 576=103 Ind. Cas. 69; but see 94 Ind. Cas. 151=1926 Mad. 654=24 L. W. 538; 93 Ind. Cas. 94=A. I. R. 1926 Rang. 74. Where an application for setting aside dismissal of a suit for default is dismissed for default, a subsequent application to restore it is maintainable either under Order IX and s. 141 or under s. 151. A. I. R. 1925 All. 773=23 A. L. J. 817=47 A. 878=89 Ind. Cas. 350. No application can lie under Order IX, to set aside a dismissal for default of an application under Order IX, rule 9. 4 Pat. L. J. 287=51 Ind. Cas. 152. An order dismissing for default an application to set aside the dismissal of a suit under Order IX, rule 9, does not come under rule 1 (c) of Order 43 and therefore is not appealable. A. I. R. 1928 Pat. 335=2 Pat. 333=9 P. L. T. 669=109 Ind. Cas. 264.

Limitation.—Application under Order 9, rule 9, made after period of limitation, cannot be entertained. A. I. R. 1931 Cal. 319=52 C. L. J. 23=129 Ind. Cas. 778. Section 5 and Art. 164 of the Limitation Act apply to applications under Order IX, rule 9. A. I. R. 1929 Bom. 262=53 B. 453=31 Bom. L. R. 484=122 Ind. Cas. 76. Application for an order to set aside the dismissal, must be filed within the period of 30 days. Extension of that period cannot be made by a Court under s. 151. A. I. R. 1928 Nag. 91=23 N. L. R. 183=107 Ind. Cas. 193 ; 1 P. L. T. 573=58 Ind. Cas. 191 ; 1 Pat. L. J. 547=38 Ind. Cas. 63. Section 5, Limitation Act, does not apply to an application under Order IX, rule 9 and, therefore the Court cannot admit the application on the ground that the applicant had sufficient cause for not preferring his application within the time prescribed. A. I. R. 1925 Bom. 521=27 Bom. L. R. 1150=49 B. 839=90 Ind. Cas. 610. Where an application to set aside ex parte decree is dismissed for default, a fresh application lies only within 30 days of the decree. A. I. R. 1924 All. 503=46 A. 319=22 A. L. J. 191=78 Ind. Cas. 358 ; 41 Ind. Cas. 586=21 C. W. N. 769.

10. [S. 105.] Where there are more plaintiffs than one, and one or more of them appear, and the others do not appear, the Court may, at the instance of the plaintiff or plaintiffs appearing, permit the suit to proceed in the same way as if all the plaintiffs had appeared, or make such order as it thinks fit.

Notes.—Where one of several plaintiffs in a suit does not appear, the Court has discretion under Order IX, rule 10 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to permit the suit to proceed in the same way as if all the plaintiffs had appeared. A decree, therefore, in a suit on a mortgage-bond by two plaintiffs in favour of both the plaintiffs, although one of them only has appeared, is not illegal. In such a case Order IX, rule 8, Civil Procedure Code, does not apply. 62 Ind. Cas. 112.

11. [S. 106.] Where there are more defendants than one, and one or more of them appear and the others do not appear, the suit shall proceed, and the Court shall, at the time of pronouncing judgment, make such order as it thinks fit with respect to the defendants who do not appear.

Scope.—Where all the defendants did not enter appearance, and a decree is passed against all of them on a ground common to them all, it was held that the decree was not an ex parte decree against those defendants who were not present. 12 W. R. 376 ; see also 9 W. R. 597 ; but see 15 W. R. 210. Order IX, rule 13, must be read with rule 11, and effect should be given to all the provisions contained in them. It cannot be laid down as an inflexible rule of law, that whenever an order is made under s. 108 of the Code, the effect is to set aside the whole decree, although it may have been made against some of the defendants after a contest, or although an unsuccessful effort may have been made by some of the defendants to set aside the ex parte decree. 6 C. L. J. 226. There is nothing in this rule which conflicts with or limits the operation of Order 9, rule 13 and the application of the latter rule is not limited to the case of a sole defendant who has not appeared, or to the case where there are several defendants and none of them has appeared. 8. C. W. N. 621. Having regard to the language of rules 11 and 13 of Order IX, an application by a co-defendant praying for setting aside an ex parte decree in a Small Cause suit, if granted, does not re-open the case against the defendant or defendants who were present and contested the case. 18 B. 42.

12. [S. 107.] Where a plaintiff or defendant, who has been ordered to appear in person, does not appear in person, or show sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the Court for failing so to appear, he shall be subject to all the provisions of the foregoing rules applicable to plaintiffs and defendants, respectively, who do not appear.

Scope.—The Court is competent to order a party to appear in person. 17 Ind. Cas. 762=23 M. L. J. 676=13 M. L. T. 19. This rule contemplates a summons issued after the perusal of the plaint for the first appearance of the defendant in person on the date specified for the hearing, or an order passed at the same time for the personal appearance of the plaintiff on that date. It does not contemplate the summoning of a party as a witness at any stage of the proceedings. 6 C. P. L. R. 83. Where a defendant is ordered to appear in person before a Court, the Court's order striking out his defence for his persistent failure to attend is quite proper and competent. A. I. R. 1928 Oudh 262=5 O. W. N. 291=111 Ind. Cas. 473 ; see also 41 M. 256=41 Ind. Cas. 719=6 L. W. 337 ; 4 Pat. L. J. 152. But a plaintiff should be given an opportunity to prove the cause of his non-appearance, though ordered to appear in the Court in person. 3 O. L. J. 712=38 Ind. Cas. 477. Minor represented by a guardian can be compelled to appear by a direction to his guardian and the failure on the part of the guardian to comply with the direction, will entitle the Court to act under Order IX, rule 12. 27 M. L. T. 171=(1920) M. W. N. 241=11 L. W. 289=55 Ind. Cas. 945. This rule covers case of party ordered to appear in person but not appearing. 138 Ind. Cas. 613=1932 A. L. J. 726=A. I. R. 1932 All. 595. In such a case appearance by pleader is no appearance. 137 Ind. Cas. 792=36 L. W. 422=1932 M. W. N. 423=A. I. R. 1932 Mad. 414. The order should be free from ambiguity. 1933 M. W. N. 696=A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 821.

Setting aside Decrees Ex parte.

13. [S. 108.] In any case in which a decree is passed ex parte against a defendant, he may apply to the Court by which the decree was passed for an order to set it aside ; and if he satisfies the Court that the summons was not duly served, or that he was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing when the suit was called on for hearing, the Court shall make an order setting aside the decree as against him upon such terms as to costs, payment into Court or otherwise as it thinks fit, and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the suit :

Provided that where the decree is of such a nature that it cannot be set aside as against such defendant only it may be set aside as against all or any of the other defendants also.

This rule contemplates the case of a Court setting aside its own decree and not that of another Court. 4 C. W. N. 456. This rule does not apply to the setting aside of an ex parte order declaring a person an insolvent. 8 C. W. N. 468. An application for substitution of names was decided ex parte. ceedings. A. W. N. 1937, 176=4 A. L. J. 480=29 A. 574. But it is not competent to the legal representative of a deceased defendant against whom an ex parte decree has been passed to apply to the Court under this rule to get such ex parte decree set aside, since the section in term is limited to the defendant against whom the decree has been passed ex parte. 21 A. 274=A. Where first application for setting aside ex parte decree is dismissed for default, second application is allowable. A. I. R. 1923 Cal. 552=76 Ind. Cas. 533. Where a decree against several defendants some of whom were ex parte in the trial Court was appealed against by the contesting defendants impleading the ex parte ones as respondents, the latter cannot maintain an application in the appellate Court to set aside the ex parte decree under Order IX, r. 13 of the Code. In an application under this rule, what the Court has to find is not whether the defendant has any good defence on the merits, but whether there is proper service, and if there is proper service, whether there was sufficient cause for his non-service. Where a Court decides an ex parte decree under Order 9, rule 13, although it is not obligatory on the Court to state reasons, it is most desirable that it should state why it thinks the ex parte decree should be set aside. A. I. R. 1936 Mad. 524=163 Ind. Cas. 732.

Sub-section (2).—Cause of action against all defendants not being joint and indivisible, Court at the instance of some of the defendants alone can set aside ex parte decree as regards defendants applying only. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 256=22 L. W. 695=(1926) M. W. N. 112=92 Ind. Cas. 776. Appeal from ex parte decree—It is open to a defendant to prefer an appeal against the ex parte decree as also to make an application under Order IX, rule 13 and then to come up in appeal under Order 43, rule 1, clause (d). If he proceeds in an appeal against the original ex parte decree, he will be at some disadvantage because the Court of appeal will not be in possession of the materials which prevented his appearance. A. I. R. 1929 Pat. 609=10 P. L. T. 589=120 Ind. Cas. 303. Appeal lies against an ex parte decree passed in application filed under para 20, Sch. II, C. P. Code. A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 969=55 M. L. Plaintiff's refusal to make admissions about matters not directly involved in suit and helpful to defendant is not improper. A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 228=116 Ind. Cas. 717. Where a Court thinks it necessary to clear up the points of controversy further, the proper procedure to be followed is that laid down under Order X, rule 1 ; but on failure of plaintiff to put in a Court a counter written statement as directed by the Court, the Court is not justified in dismissing the suit under Order VIII, r 10, which in terms applies only to a written statement and set-off. A. I. R. 1929 Bom. 413=31 Bom. L. R. 1118=122 Ind. Cas. 423. Where all defendants are confessing judgments, joint statement is legal. A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 540=35 P. L. R. 431.

2. [S. 118.] At the first hearing of the suit, or at any subsequent hearing any party appearing in person or present in Court, or any person able to answer any material questions relating to the suit by whom such party or his pleader is accompanied, may be examined orally by the Court ; and the Court may, if it thinks fit, put in the course of such examination questions suggested by either party.

Scope.—This rule is intended to ascertain the question of controversy between the parties. 2 A. L. J. 777 ; 15 C. 533=15 I. A. 119. The statement of a person examined on behalf of the party is not necessarily binding on the party. A. I. R. 1925 All. 411=94 Ind. Cas. 1003. Power under this rule is to be used to obtain information on material question and not for superseding ordinary procedure at trial. 134 Ind. Cas. 669=33 Bom. L. R. 1251=1931 M. W. N. 931=8 O. W. N. 936=34 M. L. J. 7=35 C. W. N. 925=1931 A. L. J. 550=A. I. R. 1931 (P. C.) 151 ; see also 94 Ind. Cas. 1003=A. I. R. 1926 All. 411. The statement under this section cannot be treated as evidence. 129 Ind. Cas. 301=31 P. L. R. 913=A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 947.

3. [S. 119.] The substance of the examination shall be reduced to writing by the Judge, and shall form part of the record.

4. [S. 120.] (1) Where the pleader of any party who appears by a pleader or any such person accompanying a pleader as is referred to in rule 2, refuses or is unable to answer any material question relating to the suit which the Court is of opinion that the party whom he represents ought to answer, and is likely to be able to answer if interrogated in person, the Court may postpone the hearing of the suit to a future day and direct that such party shall appear in person on such day.

(2) If such party fails without lawful excuse to appear in person on the day so appointed, the Court may pronounce judgment against him, or make such order in relation to the suit as it thinks fit.

Scope.—Personal attendance of parties is required only when material questions are not answered by pleaders. 21 O. C. 252=49 Ind. Cas. 269 ; see also 23 B. 318 ; 5 Bom. L. R. 687 ; 2 W. R. 161. An order passed by Court when party or pleader is absent at an adjourned hearing is really one under Order XVII, rule 2, read with Order IX, r. 8, though purporting to be passed under Order X, r. 4 (2). 42 Ind. Cas. 945. Where in a suit for rent, defendant pleads discharge but is prepared to withdraw that plea if plaintiff deposed that there was no discharge, the proper procedure is to take defendant's evidence of discharge and draw the natural inference from plaintiff's refusal to appear. Court cannot summon the plaintiff under Order X, rule 4, but can summon under Order XII, rule 1. 24 L. W. 757=98 Ind. Cas. 723. Order IX does not apply to the special set of circumstances contemplated by Order X, rule 4. A. I. R. 1921 Mad. 417=14 L. W. 15=(1921) M. W. N. 395=63 Ind. Cas. 961. Even under Order 10, rule 4, pardanashin lady cannot be compelled to attend Court. 1933 A. L. J. 1384=A. I. R. 1933 All. 551. Personal appearance of plaintiff can be compelled only under Order 5, rule 3, and Order 10, rule 4. 145 Ind. Cas. 716=28 N. L. R. 146=A. I. R. 1932 Nag. 135. Where pleader or agent is not refusing or is not unable to answer material questions, Court cannot order personal attendance. 1933 A. L. J. 1318=A. I. R. 1933 All. 517. Under Order 10, rule 4 (2), Court can dismiss suit for default of appearance of party. 138 Ind. Cas. 613=1932 A. L. J. 726=A. I. R. 1932 All. 595; see also A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 922.

ORDER XI.

Discovery and Inspection.

1. [R. S. C. O. 31, r. 1.] In any suit the plaintiff or defendant by leave of the Court may deliver interrogatories in writing for the examination of the opposite parties or any one or more of such parties, and such interrogatories when delivered shall have a note at the foot thereof stating which of such interrogatories each of such person is required to answer: Provided that no party shall deliver more than one set of interrogatories to the same party without an order for that purpose: Provided also that interrogatories which do not relate to any matters in question in the suit shall be deemed irrelevant, notwithstanding that they might be admissible on the oral cross-examination of a witness.

Scope.—Interrogatories cannot be delivered without the leave of the Court, for the examination of the opposite parties. The words "opposite parties" mean parties between whom there is some right to adjust in the suit. Shaw v. Smith, 18 Q. B. D. 193 (198,200); Molloy v. Kilby, 15 Ch. D. 162. It may include co-defendants, if there be some dispute between them. Birchall v. Birch, (1913) 2 Ch. 375. Where plaintiff and some of the defendants have the same interest in the suit and plaintiff is really fighting the case on their behalf as well as for himself plaintiff cannot administer interrogatories to those defendants. A. I. R. 1921 Mad. 381=30 M. L. T. (H. C.) 26=63 Ind. Cas. 258; see also Alcoy Ry. Co. v. Green Hill, (1906) 1 Ch. 19 C. A. The Judge has absolute discretion to issue or refuse interrogatories. Codd v. Delah, (1906) W. N. 57; Muass v. Gus Light, (1911) 2 K. B. 543; Knapf v. Harvey, (1911) 2 K. B. at p. 728. Court will not order the defendant to particulars of his traverse of plaintiff's allegations where the onus of proof is on the plaintiff. A. I. R. 1921 Sind 106=17 S. L. R. 9=80 Ind. Cas. 958. The object of the interrogatories to find out what really is in issue [Saunders v. Jones, 7 Ch. D. 435; Ashley v. Taylor, 38 L. T. 44 (C. A.)] and to avoid surprise at the trial. Lyon v. Tweddell, 13 Ch. D. 375. The facts which will prove a party's case can be put in interrogatories. Hooton v. Dalby, (1907) 2 K. B. 18 (21). In a suit on promissory-note, where the plea is want of consideration, application by defendant without letting in evidence to issue interrogatories to plaintiff must be dismissed. 142 Ind. Cas. 17=A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 298. So also interrogatories for discovering other party's evidence cannot be allowed. 142 Ind. Cas. 484=56 C. L. J. 440=A. I. R. 1933 Cal. 151. But interrogatories to discover facts directly in issue as well as facts relevant to those facts are permissible. Osrarn Lamp Works v. Gabriel Lamp Co., (1914) 2 Ch. 129 (C. A.). Facts which destroy other party's case may be put in the interrogatories. Plymouth Mutual v. Traders' Association, (1906) 1 K. B. 403 (417). An interrogatory may deal with any fact the existence or non-existence of which is relevant to the existence or non-existence of the facts directly in issue. Marriot v. Chamberlain, 17 Q. B. D. 154 (162); Nash v. Layton, (1911) 2 Ch. 71 (76, 83); Kennedy v. Dodson, (1895) 1 Ch. 334. "The legitimate use, and the only legitimate use of interrogatories is to obtain from the party interrogated admissions of facts while it is necessary for the party interrogated to prove in order to establish his case ; and if the party interrogated goes further and seeks by his interrogatories to get from the other party matters while it is not incumbent on him to prove, although such matters may indirectly assist his case, the interrogatories ought not to be admitted." Per A. L. Smith L. J. in Kennedy v. Dodson, (1895) 1 Ch. 334 (341) ; but see Hooton v. Dalby, (1907) 2 K. B. at p. 21.

Order XI is applicable to proceedings in probate and a Court on submission of interrogatories direct an enquiry. 43 C. 300=23 C. L. J. 480=43 Ind. Cas. 227 ; see also Re Holloway (1887), 12 P. D. 167. Order XI of the present Civil Procedure Code relating to discovery and inspection is the same as Order XXXI of the Rules of the Supreme Court. 41 C. 6=24 Ind. Cas. 765. An interrogatory must not be scandalous. Kemble v. Hope, 10 T. L. R. 254.

By and to what person.—Discovery by way of interrogatories may be allowed to a plaintiff from a co plaintiff, or to a defendant from a co-defendant, in cases in which there may be rights to be adjusted between them. Shaw v. Smith, 50 L. J. Q. B. 174=18 Q. B. D. 193. But discovery cannot be allowed to a defendant from a co-defendant with a view to show that the co-defendant and not the defendant is liable to the plaintiff, as where a defendant, sued for subsidence under the plaintiff's land, proposes to inspect the mines of a co-defendant in adjoining land. Ibid. An infant plaintiff or defendant cannot be compelled to answer interrogatories. Mayor v. Collins, 59 L. J. Q. B. 199=24 Q. B. D. 361. A guardian ad litem is not a party to the action within the meaning of this rule and therefore cannot be compelled to answer interrogatories. 11 Q. B. D. 251.

Power of High Court.—Where lower Court declines to re-issue interrogatories, the High Court can interfere under s. 107, Government of India Act of 1919. A. I. R. 1937 Lah. 28.

2. [R. S. C. O. 31, r. 2.] On an application for leave to deliver interrogatories, the particular interrogatories proposed to be delivered shall be submitted to the Court.

Particular interrogatories to be submitted. In deciding upon such application, the Court shall take into account any offer, which may be made by the party sought to be interrogated to deliver particulars, or to make admissions, or to produce documents relating to the matters in question, or any of them, and leave shall be given as to such only of the interrogatories submitted as the Court shall consider necessary either for disposing fairly of the suit or for saving costs.

Scope.—Under rule 2, the Judge has not any power to settle interrogatories, but he can decide what should be administered. The dicta in English cases with regard to the more extensive powers of Courts in matters of probate, seem to imply that the strictest relevancy in the interrogatories may not be required, but the Courts certainly be obliged to exclude anything offensive or improper in the same way as in any other case. 43 C. 300=23 C. L. J. 480=34 Ind. Cas. 227. Interrogatories should be disallowed when they aim at discovering the nature of the opponents' evidence to ascertain what documents the defendant had on the particulars of the documents. 36 Ind. Cas. 883. The mere fact that the Court allows an interrogatory does not amount to a decision that it must be answered. The party interrogated is at liberty to answer it or to raise on objection under rule 6. Peck v. Ray, (1894) 3 Ch. 282 (C. A.). Service on pleader of the party interrogated is good. Re Mulcastar, 47 L. J. Ch. 609 ; Little v. Roberts, 30 L. T. 367. The proper time for allowing interrogatories is after the defence is put in, although the Court is competent to allow interrogatories at an earlier stage. Mercier v. Cotton, 1 Q. B. D. 442 ; In re, A. Debtor, (1910) 2 K. B. p. 63 ; Beal v. Pilling, 38 L. T. 486. A party may deliver interrogatories in order to ascertain the nature of the opponent's case or to support his own case, in order to narrow the points in issue or to avoid proving facts which are admitted. But the procedure of delivering interrogatories in order to prove the contents of documents which have been held inadmissible in evidence is entirely misconceived. A. I. R. 1934 Nag. 181=17 N. L. J. 63=151 Ind. Cas. 104.

3. [R. S. C. O. 31, r. 3.] In adjusting the costs of the suit inquiry shall at the instance of any party be made into the propriety of exhibiting such interrogatories, and Costs of interrogatories. if it is the opinion of the taxing officer or of the Court, either with or without an application for inquiry, that such interrogatories have been exhibited unreasonably, vexatiously, or at improper length, the costs occasioned by the said interrogatories and the answers thereto shall be paid in any event by the party in fault.

4. [R. S. C. O. 31, r. 4.] Interrogatories shall be in Form No. 2 in Appendix C, with such variations as circumstances may require, Form of interrogatories.

5. [R. S. C. O. 31, r. 5.] Where any party to a suit is a corporation or a body of persons, whether incorporated or not, empowered by law to sue or be sued, whether in its own name or in the name of any officer or other person, any opposite party may apply for an order allowing him to deliver interrogatories to any member or officer of such corporation or body, and an order may be made accordingly. Corporations.

Scope.—In the case of corporation, the Court is to decide what member or officer is most likely to be competent to answer the interrogatories. Berkely v. Standard, (1879) 13 Ch. D. 97. Ordinarily the Secretary of the Corporation is the fit person to be interrogated. In re, Alexandra Palace Co., (1880) 16 Ch. D. 58. The answer to the interrogatories need not be based on the personal knowledge of the member of the corporation but may be based on information. South Work Water Co. v. Quick, 3 Q. B. D. 315 (321); Welsback Incandescent v. New Sunlight, (1900) 2 Ch. 1. If the Court is satisfied that a proper officer is named the leave will be granted as of course. In re, Alexandra Palace Co. 50. L. J. Ch. 7=16 Ch. D. 58. An ordinary member of a company ought not to be examined on interrogatories unless the Judge is satisfied that there is no officer of the company capable of making the discovery, and that the member proposed to be examined has the required information. Berkeley v. Standard Investment Co., 13 Ch. D. 97. Where in an action against a company an application is made under this rule for leave to deliver interrogatories to a member of the company, notice of the application must be served upon the member. Chaddock v. British South Africa, (1896) 2 Q. B. 153.

6. [R. S. C. O. 31, r. 6.] Any objection to answering any interrogatory on the ground that it is scandalous or irrelevant or not exhibited bona fide for the purpose of the suit, or that the matters inquired into are not sufficiently material at that stage, or on any other ground, may be taken in the affidavit in answer. Objections to interrogatories by answer.

Scope.—The mere issue of interrogatories does not debar the party interrogated to make objection under this rule. Peck v. Ray (1894), 3 Ch. 282. In answer the party interrogated may state that objects to answer the particular interrogatory or interrogatories but must put in the grounds of his objection. Church v. Perry, 36 L. T. 513; Smith v. Brig, 36 L. T. 471. The Court should adjudicate an objection as to the relevancy of interrogatories. 46 Ind. Cas. 660.

Scandalous.—An objection on the ground that interrogatory or information sought is scandalous. But nothing can be scandalous which is relevant. Fisher v. Owen, 8 Ch. D. 645 (653); Kemble v. Hope, 10 T. L. R. 254. A thing is scandalous, the mere purpose of which is to be abuse or prejudice the opposite party or which is indecent or offensive. Christie v. Christie, 8 Ch. 499; Coyle v. Cuming, 40 L. T. 455. A person is also not bound to answer an interrogatory if the answer tends to criminate him. Lee v. Read, 5 Beav. 381; Lamb v. Monster, 10 Q. B. D. 110.

Irrelevant.—Irrelevant interrogatories need not be answered. Parker v. Wells, 18 Ch. D. 477 (486). "I entertain a strong opinion said" Lord Herschell in Kernedy v. Dodson, (1895) 1 Ch. 334 at p. 338, "that interrogatories of this description, unless they are strictly relevant to the question at issue in the action, ought to be rigorously excluded." See also Re Howel Morgan, 39 Ch. D. 316; Allhusen v. Labouchere, 3 Q. B. D. 654 (661); 23 C. 117; 16 A. L. J. 762=46 Ind. Cas. 660.

Bonafide—Interrogatories may become oppressive and may be used for improper purposes. In such a case the Court has discretion to disallow them on the merits of the case. Heaton v. Gidney, (1910) 1 K. B. at p. 758. So a party may object to interrogatories which are not put bona fide for the purpose of the suit. Allhusen v. Labouchere, 3 Q. B. D. 654 (664); Edmondson v. Brich & Co, (1905) 2 K. B. 523, 526.

Not sufficiently material.—Vide Parker v. Wells, 18 Ch. D. 477 (483).

7. [R. S. C. O. 31, r. 7.] Any interrogatories may be set aside on the ground that they have been exhibited unreasonably or vexatiously, or struck out on the ground that they are prolix, oppressive, unnecessary or scandalous; and any application for this purpose may be made within seven days after service of the interrogatories.

Scope.—This rule deals with two cases, first, where interrogatories are exhibited which are in themselves unobjectionable, but which, by reason of the circumstances of the case, it would be unreasonable or vexatious to call upon the party interrogated to answer; secondly, where interrogatories are in themselves objectionable by reason of being prolix, oppressive, unnecessary or scandalous. In the first case, all or any of the interrogatories may be set aside by Judge's order; in the second case, all or any may be struck out. Oppenheim v. Sheffield, 62 L. J. Q. B. 167=(1893) 1 Q. B. 5. Where interrogatories are unreasonably prolix, it is the duty of the Court to strike them out under this rule. Grumbrecht v. Parry, 32 W. R. 558. If the Judge thinks that interrogatories as a whole, or enblock, are vexatious or unreasonable, he may strike out the whole of them without sifting the mass for the purpose of saving those questions which may be reasonable and fit. And he may, if he thinks proper, allow the parties whose interrogatories have been struck out to administer interrogatories again to the opposite party. Cawley v. Birton, 32 W. R. 33. If the Judge considers a set of interrogatories to be as a whole prolix, oppressive or unnecessary, he has power to strike them all out, though some of them may be unobjectionable. Oppenheim v. Sheffield, (1893) 1 Q. B. 5. Objections to answer to interrogatories must be specific. Church v. Perry, 36 L. T. 513. A party who applies to strike interrogatories must, unless they are altogether an abuse of the practice of the Court, specify those to which he objects. Allhusen v. Labouchere, 3 Q. B. D. 654=47 L. J. Ch. 819.

8. [R. S. C. O. 31, r. 8.] Interrogatories shall be answered by affidavit to be filed within ten days, or within such other time as the Court may allow.

Affidavit in answer filing.

Scope.—The defendants cannot refuse to answer on the ground that they have got no personal knowledge, of the matter interrogated. Pavitt v. North Metropolitan, 48 L. T. 730. A party to a cause is not excused from answering interrogatories relevant to the question in issue on the ground that they are as to matters which are not within such party's own knowledge, but are only within the knowledge of his agents or servants, if derived in the ordinary course of their employment; and he is bound to obtain an information from such agents or servants unless he shows that it would be unreasonable to require him to do so, as that, either such agents or servants have left his employment, or it would occasion unreasonable expense, or an unreasonable amount of detail or the like. Bolckow v. Fisher, 10 Q. B. D. 161; but see Rashotham v. Shropshire Union, 24 Ch. D. 110=53 L. J. Ch. 327.

9. [R. S. C. O. 31, r. 9.] An affidavit in answer to interrogatories shall be in Form No. 3 in Appendix C, with such variations as circumstances may require.

Form of affidavit in answer.

10. [R. S. C. O. 31, r. 10.] No exceptions shall be taken to any affidavit in answer, but the sufficiency or otherwise of any such affidavit objected to as insufficient shall be determined by the Court.

No exception to be taken.

Scope.—The duty of the Court, with reference to answers to interrogatories, is regulated by rules 10, 11, and limited to considering the sufficiency or insufficiency of the answers, i.e., whether the party interrogated has answered that which he has no excuse for not answering—and only in the case of insufficiency can it require a further answer. Lyell v. Kennedy, 53 L. J. 937. An embarrassing answer to interrogatories may be dealt with as insufficient. Ibid; see also Lyell v. Kennedy, 33 W. R. 44.

11. [R. S. C. O. 31, r. 11, S. 127.] Where any person interrogated omits to answer, or answers insufficiently, the party interrogating may apply to the Court for an order requiring him to answer, or to answer further, as the case may be. And an order may be made requiring him to answer or answer further, either by affidavit or by visa voce examination, as the Court may direct.

Scope.—The terms of Order XI, rule 11, contemplates two orders being made. First an order for the answer to the interrogatories or for the discovery or inspection of the documents within a specified time; and secondly upon the failure to comply with such an order a further order dismissing the suit. An order dismissing the suit should not be made unless the Court is satisfied that the plaintiff is endeavouring to avoid giving a fair and proper discovery. A. I. R. 1925 Cal. 166=50 C.L.J. 397=78 Ind. Cas. 859. Although no time is mentioned in rule 9 within which an order will be made requiring a further answer to interrogatories, the application for such an order must be made within a reasonable time, the Court will have regard for the period (namely six weeks), limited by the former English practice for taking exceptions for insufficiency, and in ordinary cases applications for a further answer should be made. Lloyd v. Morley, 5 L. R. Ir. 74. Where document is not formally proved, production of document in compliance with order of discovery cannot be regarded as a production of it, as a piece of evidence in Court. A. I. R. 1921 Lah. 328=4 Lah. L. J. 385. Where objection as to prayer for discovery was not taken in grounds of appeal in lower appellate Court it cannot be taken in second appeal. 37 C. W. N. 758=A. I. R. 1933 Cal. 865. It is open to an assessee to object to answering interrogatories on statements made by him in income-tax proceedings on the ground that they are privileged. A. I. R. 1934 Nag. 181=17 N. L. J. 63=151 Ind. Cas. 104. The order of the lower Court under Order 11, rule 11, asking to make sufficient answers amounts to a case decided and if there has been a material irregularity in allowing interrogatories which are not necessary either for disposing fairly of the suit or for saving costs it is necessary to intervene to prevent injustice being done. Ibid. Where in a suit of restitution of conjugal rights by husband, the husband relies upon certain documents, the wife is entitled to inspect those documents before she filed her defence. A. I. R. 1937 Sind 97.

12. [R. S. C. O. 31, r. 12, S. 129.] Any party may, without filing any affidavit, apply to the Court for an order directing any other party to any suit to make discovery on oath of the documents which are or have been in his possession or power, relating to any matter in question therein. On the hearing of such application the Court may either refuse or adjourn the same, if satisfied that such discovery is not necessary, or not necessary at that stage of the suit, or make such order, either generally or limited to certain classes of documents, as may, in its discretion, be thought fit: Provided that discovery shall not be ordered when and so far as the Court shall be of opinion that it is not necessary either for disposing fairly of the suit or for saving costs.

Scope.—The words "any party" "and any other party" contemplate opposite party. 134 Ind. Cas. 935=58 C. 1091=A. I. R. 1932 Cal. 72. In administration suit defendants inter se are not opposite parties without issues between them. 134 Ind. Cas. 935=58 C. 1091=A. I. R. 1932 Cal. 72. Discovery of title-deeds cannot be ordered on mere filing application. When application is well founded presumption arises from non-production. 135 Ind. Cas. 85=10 Pat. 630=13 P. L. T. 405=A. I. R. 1932 Pat. 5=A. I. R. 1931 Pat. 426. Upon an application for discovery under rule 12, the Judge has power to demand an affidavit by the party applying of his belief that the party from whom discovery is sought has documents in his possession to the discovery of which he is entitled, and it is entirely within the Judge's discretion whether such an affidavit shall be made or not. Johnson v. Smith, 36 L. T. 741. This rule is not intended entirely to alter the principles as by production of documents, but give the Court to a discretion to refuse the discovery of them when there was no reasonable prospect of its being of any use. On an application for an affidavit of documents evidence ought not to be entered into; the Court will form its conclusions from the pleadings, but any other proceedings in the action et c., evidence used on a former occasion, may be looked at. Downing v. Falmouth, 57 L. J. Ch. 234.

Who can be compelled to make discovery.—Where the agent of a principal resident abroad brings an action in his own name, and on a contract made with him as agent the defendant is entitled to discovery to the same extent as if the principal were a party to the action, and to have the action stayed till such discovery is made. Willis v. Baddeley, 61 L. J. Q. B. 769=(1892) 2 Q. B. 324. An order for discovery of documents can be made on a party who lives abroad. The Ema, 34 L. T. 742. Discovery by way of production of documents may be allowed to a plaintiff from a co-plaintiff in cases in which there may be rights to be adjusted between them respectively. Saw v. Smith, 56 L. J. Q. B. 174=18 Q. B. D. 193. Discovery by way of production of documents may be allowed to a defendant from a co-defendant in cases in which there may be rights to be adjusted between them respectively. Ibid; Alcoy v. Greenhill, 74 L. T. 345; 17 B. 348; Kennedy v. Wakefield, 39 L. J. Ch. 827. In a suit by shareholders against company for fraud of directors, the company can be ordered to make discovery of documents. Stokes v. Grosvenor, (1837) 2 Q. B. 124.

At what time.—A plaintiff will not in general be allowed production from a defendant until he has delivered a statement of claim. Caspin v. Craddock, 2 Ch. D. 410=34 L. T. 52; see also Davies v. Williams, 13 Ch. D. 554; Phillips v. Phillips, 40 L. T. 815. A plaintiff after delivering a statement of claim is not as a general rule, entitled under this rule, to an order for discovery of documents before a statement of defence is delivered, because until that happens it is impossible to say what the matters "in question in action" are. Honcock v. Guerin, 4 Ex. D. 3. A defendant may obtain discovery of documents before a statement of defence has been delivered when such discovery is necessary for the purpose of ascertaining what damage the plaintiff has actually suffered with a view to paying money into Court with the defence. Megaw v. Diormid, 10 L. R. Ir. 376. The Court has a discretion in ordering discovery, and there is no absolute rule that a defendant should not be ordered to make an affidavit of documents before the delivery of defence. Edelstone v. Russel, 57 L. T. 927.

What documents.—"The rule as to discovery is the exact contrary to that of production. You must set out every document you have in your possession, whether you are bound to produce them or not" Per Jessel M. R. in Swanstone v. Lishman, 45 L. T. 360. The general rule is that a defendant is bound to discover all the facts within his knowledge, and to produce all documents in his possession which are material to the case of the plaintiff. However disagreeable it may be to make the disclosure, however contrary to his personal interests, however fatal to his claim, he is compelled to set forth on oath all he knows, believes or thinks, in relation to the matters in question. Flight Robinson, 8 Beav. 22=13 L. J. Ch. 425. A defendant, in an action for the recovery of land of which he is in possession may be compelled by order to make an affidavit of his documents of title, although he may have a right to object to produce them. New British Mutual Interst v. Pew, 3 C. P. D. 196. So a party must make an affidavit of all documents which are not privileged or irrelevant to the matter of the action. Dickinson v. Harrison, 47 L. J. Ch. 686. Where a party to a suit is required to make an affidavit as to documents in his possession, and alleges in his affidavit as a reason for not producing them that they were in the possession of himself and a third person as joint owners, he is bound to state the nature of the joint ownership. Bovil v. Cowan, 39 L. J. Ch. 768=L. R. 5 Ch. 495.

Affidavit of documents.—The affidavit must sufficiently describe the documents for the purpose of identification. Bruicke v. Graham, 7 Q. B. D. 400. The affidavit of documents required from a party under rule 15 or rule 13 is ordinarily conclusive on the question whether the documents are in his possession or power unless a counter application is made by the opponent. 5 Pat. L. J. 550=1 P. L. T. 668=58 Ind. Cas. 281; Jones v. Monte Video, 5 Q. B. D. 556; Hall v. Truman, 29 Ch. D. 307. Order of discovery even in cases against corporate bodies can be secured without filing an affidavit by applying to Court for order of discovery against other party for documents in his possession relating to any matters or question in suit. A. I. R. 1922 All. 1=44 A. 202=20 A. L. J. 1=65 Ind. Cas. 984. Where an affidavit has been made in answer to an order for discovery of documents, a further order will not be granted unless there are facts or admissions showing that documents are withheld. Welsh Steam v. Gaskell, 36 L. T. 352. It is not enough for the party applying for further discovery to swear to a belief that documents are in the other party's possession. Ibid. The Court will order further affidavit as to documents to be made by a defendant, if it is satisfied from the admissions in the defendant's answer that material documents not mentioned in his affidavit may be in his possession, even although the answer does not in express terms admit the existence of such documents. Saull v. Browne, L. R. 17 Eq. 402. Order for production of documents must follow an order as to affidavit of documents. In absence of such order as to affidavit, Court cannot compel defendants on plaintiff's application to produce account books alleged to be with them A. I. R. 1923 Pat. 437=1 Pat. L. R. 233=76 Ind. Cas. 991. Where a party claims privilege against the production of documents on the ground that they support their own title and do not relate to that of his opponent, this affidavit must be taken as conclusive, unless the Court can see from the nature of the case or of the documents, that the party has misunderstood the effect of the documents. 26 Ch. D 724; see also Bulman v. Young, 49 L. T. 736. But the Court in spite of a party's affidavit to the contrary, may order the production of the document. All. Gen. v. Emerson, 10 Q. B. D. 191. The omission of the words "and never have had" from an affidavit of documents is in itself a sufficient reason for ordering a further and better affidavit. Wagstaff v. Anderson, 39 L. T. 332.

Material document.—Documents are material to the matters in question in the action within the meaning of Order 31, rule 12, if it is not unreasonable to suppose that they may contain information directly or indirectly enabling the party seeking discovery, either to advance his own cause, or to damage the case of his adversary. Compagnie v. Peruvian, 11 Q. B. D. 55. "The documents to be produced are not confined to those which would be evidence either to prove or to disprove any matter in question in the action, it seems to me that every document relates to the matters in question in the action." Brett L. J. in Compagnie Financière v. Peruvian, 11 Q. B. D. 62 (63).

Documents produced.—A document produced in compliance with an order of discovery becomes an exhibit of the party at whose instance the order for discovery is passed and not of the party who produced it. A. I. R. 1921 Lah. 328=4 Lah. L. J. 385. Where the plaintiff disputes the validity of the votes recorded in a meeting, he is entitled to inspection of the documents concerned. But when such inspection will cause delay which the nature of the case will not permit and when the plaintiffs do not show that the inspection would yield any result in their favour, refusal of inspection is not wrong so as to merit reversal by the superior Court. A. I. R. 1925 Bom. 105=26 Bom. L. R. 907=84 Ind. Cas. 363.

13. [R. S. C. O. 31, r. 13; S. 129, second para.] The affidavit to be made by a party against whom such order as is mentioned in the last preceding rule has been made, shall specify which (if any) of the documents therein mentioned he objects to produce, and it shall be in Form No. 5 in Appendix C, with such variations as circumstances may require.

Scope.—Where an order as to affidavit of documents was obtained against defendant who dies and his representatives have been brought on record, a fresh order as to affidavit must be obtained against them. A. I. R. 1925 Bom. 386=27 Bom. L. R. 694=89 Ind. Cas. 215. As regards conclusiveness of an affidavit, vide the judgment of Hamilton L. J. in Birmingham, etc., Co. v. L. & N. W. Ry. Co., (1913) 3 K. B. at p. 859.

14. [R. S. C. O. 31, r. 14; S. 130.] It shall be lawful for the Court, at any time during the pendency of any suit, to order the production by any party thereto, upon oath, of such of the documents in his possession or power, relating to any matter in question in such suit, as the Court shall think right; and the Court may deal with such documents, when produced, in such manner as shall appear just.

Scope.—A party to a suit only can be ordered to produce a document. Starker v. Reynolds, 22 Q. B. D. 262 (265); Elder v. Carter, 6 T. L. R. 283. Production of privileged documents will not be ordered. O'Rourke v. Derbyshire, (1920) A. C. 581. The general rule is that every document which is in the possession or power of the parties and which is material to the case and is not privileged can be ordered to be produced in Court. Anderson v. Bank of British Columbia, 2 Ch. D. 644 (656); Jones v. Great Central Ry., (1910) A. C. 4. Documents which are protected by profession or legal privilege need not be produced. Confidential communications between solicitor and client need not be produced. Re Whitworth (1919), 1 Ch. 320 C. A.; O'Shea v. Wood, (1891) P. 286; Wheeler v. Le Merchant, 17 Ch. D. 675. Instructions and briefs to counsel or statement of case for his opinion need not be produced. Mostyn v. West Mostyn, 26 Ch. D. 678; Curtis v. Beaney, (1911) p. 181. A document which solely relates to a party's case is also privileged. Bewick v. Graham, 7 Q. B. D. 400. Documents in possession of a party on behalf of another need be produced. Few v. Guppy, 13 Beav. 457. Production of a document may be resisted on the ground of public policy. Hennessy v. Wright, (1888) 21 Q. B. D. 599; Asiatic Petroleum Co. v. Anglo Persian Oil Co. Ltd., (1916) 1 K. B. 822.

Mere inability to particularise instances of fraud in accounts, should not be a ground for refusing application for inspection of accounts. 137 Ind. Cas. 636=(1932) M. W. N. 93=A. I. R. 1932 Mad. 284. No order can be made under rule 14 against a party unless he has directly or indirectly admitted the document to be in his possession or power. 5 Pat. L. J. 650=1 P. L. T. 668=58 Ind. Cas. 281. An order for production of documents follows an order as to affidavits of documents under Order XI, r. 12. When that order is passed against a party he can say that so long as the opposite party has not established his title to the property in respect of which that order is sought, it is not open to the Court to disclose the documents. A. I. R. 1923 Pat. 337=1923 Pat. 143=1 Pat. L. R. 233=5 P. L. T. 43=76 Ind. Cas. 991. The Court should first determine whether the party who seeks to inspect the documents is entitled to do so and if so, whether he is entitled to the right at that stage of the proceeding. The Court can and must exercise discretion as to whom it is going to permit to conduct on inspection of the documents produced by a party. A. I. R. 1924 Mad. 846=47 Mad. 934=47 M. L. J. 460=20 L. W. 533=80 Ind. Cas. 604. This rule contemplates further orders being passed on document being produced. A. I. R. 1924 Mad. 512=46 M. L. J. 350=19 L. W. 355=77 Ind. Cas. 766. Where the order of the Court is to produce a document under this rule, the non-compliance of the order does not warrant the striking of the defence. A. I. R. 1922 All. 235=44 A. 565=20 A. L. J. 422=67 Ind. Cas. 73; see also 26 A. L. J. 1376=112 Ind. Cas. 285. A Court cannot dismiss a suit under rule 21 for non-compliance with an order by the Court under rule 14 for production of documents. A. I. R. 1929 All. 83=115 Ind. Cas. 464; 1933 M. W. N. 927=A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 870.

15. [R. S. C. O. 31, r. 15; S 131.] Every party to a suit shall be entitled at any time to give notice to any other party, in whose pleadings or affidavits reference is made to any document, to produce such document for the inspection of the party giving such notice, or of his pleader, and to permit him or them to take copies thereof; and any party not complying with such notice shall not afterwards be at liberty to put any such document in evidence on his behalf in such suit unless he shall satisfy the Court that such document relates only to his own title, he being a defendant to the suit, or that he had some other cause or excuse which the Court shall deem sufficient for not complying with such notice, in which case the Court may allow the same to be put in evidence on such terms as to costs and otherwise as the Court shall think fit.

Scope.—Rules 15—18 refer only to documents mentioned in the affidavits or pleadings. As regards those documents it is proper and just that the opposite party should have the same advantage as if those documents were fully set out in the pleadings or affidavits. Quiller v. Heatley, 23 Ch. D. 42; see also A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 234=156 Ind. Cas. 246. Inspection of documents referred to in pleadings incidentally and which are not material cannot be claimed by the opposite party. A. I. R. 1923 Bom. 73=46 B. 866=3 Bom. L. R. 1255=66 Ind. Cas. 8. Document not in the possession or power of the person called upon to produce it is a good cause for its non-production. 5 Pat. L. J. 550=1 P. L. T. 668=58 Ind. Cas. 281. There is no distinction between documents sued upon and documents relied upon by plaintiff only after the defendant files his written statement. 24 C. W. N. 302=56 Ind. Cas. 457. List of documents is to be deemed part of plaint for granting inspection 135 Ind. Cas. 421=61 M. L. J. 704=34 M. L. W. 654=A. I. R. 1931 Mad. 825; see also 185 P. W. R. 1911. The parties can take verbatim et literatim copies of documents of which inspection is allowed. 11 Bom. L. R. 402=2 Ind. Cas. 422.

16. [R. S. C. O. 31, r. 16.] Notice to any party to produce any documents referred to in his pleading or affidavits Notice to produce. shall be in Form No. 7 in Appendix C, with such variations as circumstances may require.

17. [R. S. C. O. 31, r. 17; S. 132.] The party to whom such notice is given shall, within ten days from the receipt of such notice, deliver to the party giving the notice a notice stating a time within three days from the delivery thereof at which the documents, or such of them as he does not object to produce, may be inspected at the office of his pleader, or in the case of Bankers' books or other books of account or books in constant use for the purposes of any trade or business, at their usual place of custody, and stating which (if any) of the documents he objects to produce, and on what ground. Such notice shall be in Form No. 8 in Appendix C, with such variations as circumstances may require.

Scope—As regards proper place of inspection of documents, vide 5 B. 457; Prestney v. Colchester Corporation, (1883) 24 Ch. D. 376.

18. [R. S. C. O. 31, r. 18; Ss. 133, 134.] (1) Where the party served with notice under rule 15 omits to give such Order for inspection. notice of a time for inspection or objects to give inspection, or offers inspection elsewhere than at the office of his pleader, the Court may, on the application of the party desiring it, make an order for inspection in such place and in such manner as it may think fit: Provided that the order shall not be made when and so far as the Court shall be of opinion that it is not necessary either for disposing fairly of the suit or for saving costs.

(2) Any application to inspect documents, except such as are referred to in the pleadings, particulars or affidavits of the party against whom the application is made or disclosed in his affidavit of documents, shall be founded upon an affidavit showing of what documents inspection is sought, that the party applying is entitled to inspect them, and that they are in the possession or power of the other party. The Court shall not make such order for inspection of such documents when and so far as the Court shall be of opinion that it is not necessary either for disposing fairly of the suit or for saving costs.

Scope.—The filing of an affidavit of documents under Order XI, rule 13, C. P. Code by one party, does not preclude the other party from making a subsequent application for discovery and inspection under Order XI, r. 18 (2). 38 C. 428. All the requirements of Order XI, rule 18, must be satisfied before an order under that rule can be passed. A. I. R. 1922 All. 235=20 A. L. J. 422=44 A. 565=67 Ind. Cas. 73. Suit cannot be dismissed under rule 21, when order under rule 18 is not obeyed. A. I. R. 1926 Sind 27=20 S. L. R. 309=96 Ind. Cas. 1003. Order of dismissal under r. 21 is to be set aside if made in the absence of denial by the other party if the possession of documents sought to be inspected in affidavit afterwards found improper. A. I. R. 1924 All. 510=46 All. 417=22 A. L. J. 199=80 Ind. Cas. 787. Under Order XI, r. 18 (2) order of inspection can be made not only in respect of document mentioned in the plaint and written statement and the affidavit but also in respect of other documents provided their relevancy is proved or in the former their relevancy is admitted. A. I. R. 1931 All. 221=(1931) A. L. J. 94=130 Ind. Cas. 7. Fact that inspection is sought for before written statement is filed is no ground for refusing it. 135 Ind. Cas. 745=55 M. 421=6 M. L. J. 704=34 M. W. N. 654=A. I. R. 1932 Mad. 825; 1932 M. W. N. 984=A. I. R. 1932 Mad. 825. It cannot be said that unless the party who has given notice of inspection which is not replied to, takes the further action which is open to him under rule 18, the party who has omitted to reply or give inspection is absolved from penalties of r. 15. There is nothing in rule 18 to suggest that it is pre-requisite to rule 15. 156 Ind. Cas. 246=A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 234. Under rule 18 Court is not a proper place to offer the inspection of documents. Ibid.

19. [R. S. C. O. 31, r. 19A.] (1) Where inspection of any business books is applied for, the Court may, if it thinks fit, instead of ordering inspection of the original Verified copies. books, order a copy of any entries therein to be furnished and verified by the affidavit of some person who has examined the copy with the original entries and such affidavit shall state whether or not there are in the original book any and what erasures, interlineations or alterations: Provided that notwithstanding that such copy has been supplied, the Court may order inspection of the book from which the copy was made.

(2) Where on an application for an order for inspection privilege is claimed for any document, it shall be lawful for the Court to inspect the document, for the purpose of deciding as to the validity of the claim of privilege.

(3) The Court may on the application of any party to a suit at any time, and whether an affidavit of documents shall or shall not have already been ordered or made, make an order requiring any other party to state by affidavit whether any one or more specific documents, to be specified in the application, is or are, or has or have at any time been, in his possession or power; and, if not then in his possession when he parted with the same and what has become thereof. Such application shall be made on an affidavit stating that in the belief of the deponent the party against whom the application is made has, or has at sometime had, in his possession or power the document or documents specified in the application, and that they relate to the matters in question in the suit, or to some of them.

20. [R. S. C. O. 31, r. 20; S. 135.] Where the party from whom discovery

Premature discovery. of any kind or inspection is sought objects to the same, or any part thereof, the Court may, if satisfied that the right to the discovery or inspection sought depends on the determination of any issue or question in dispute, in the suit, or that for any other reason it is desirable that any issue or question in dispute in the suit should be determined before deciding upon the right to the discovery or inspection, order that such issue or question be determined first, and reserve the question as to the discovery or inspection.

Notes.—Where the information required is necessarily within the opponent's knowledge, and the Court is satisfied that no unfair attempt to fish out a case is being made then discovery may precede particulars even where the object, the action is to reopen settled accounts between principal and agent. A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 288=68 M. L. J. 241=41 L. W. 275.

21. [R. S. C. O. 31, r. 21; S. 136.] Where any party fails to comply

Non-compliance with order with any order to answer interrogatories, for discovery. or for discovery or inspection of documents, he shall, if a plaintiff, be liable to have his suit dismissed for want of prosecution, and, if a defendant to have his defence, if any, struck out and to be placed in the same position as if he had not defended, and the party interrogating or seeking discovery or inspection may apply to the Court for an order to that effect, and an order may be made accordingly.

Scope.—The Court should not exercise the powers given to it under this rule except in extreme cases. 5 C. 707=5 C. L. R. 509; A. W. N. 1897, 140; see also A. I. R. 1935 Rang. 310=158 Ind. Cas. 613. The power to dismiss plaint under this rule is optional and not obligatory. Hartley v. Owen, 34 L. T. 752; Kennedy v.

Lyell, W. N. (1882) 137. The powers conferred under this section should not be exercised in dismissing the plaintiffs unless the omission or neglect to comply is not culpable one on the plaintiff's part. Cardwell v. Tamlinson, 54 L. J. Ch. 957; Wilson v. Raffalovitch, 7 Q. B. D. 561. So also the power of striking out the defence should not be exercised lightly. Twycroft v. Grant, W. N. (1875) 201; Haigh v. Haigh, 31 Ch. D. 478. A Court has no power to strike out the defence of a defendant of its own motion under rule 21. 84 P. L. R. 1910=8 Ind. Cas. 245. If there is obstinacy or contumacy on the part of the defendants or a wilful attempt to disregard the order of the Court, an order under s. 136 of the Civil Procedure Code is appropriate. 7 C. L. J. 295. A party to a suit failing to comply with an order for production or inspection of documents can be dealt with only in the manner prescribed by Order XI, rule 21 and is not punishable under s. 175 or any other section of the Penal Code. 15 P. W. R. 191 O.=5 Ind. Cas. 842. Defendant failing to comply with order for discovery of documents should not be shut out from producing further evidence. 121 Ind. Cas. 337=A. I. R. 1931 Pat. 114. An order to strike out defence under r. 21 should be made only if the default is wilful and that too as the last resort. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 750=11 Lah. 209=121 Ind. Cas. 421; 65 Ind. Cas. 661. Wilful means act done deliberately and intentionally so that the mind of the party concerned is with the act. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 750. Negligence does not amount to wilful default and in such cases an order under this rule should not be passed. A. I. R. 1929 All. 750. It is only when an order under rule 18 has been made and not complied with that the Court can dismiss a suit under rule 21. A. I. R. 1926 Sind. 272=20 S. L. R. 309=96 Ind. Cas. 1003. Order under r. 21 can be passed only when there is previous order under r. 11 and is not complied with. A. I. R. 1926 All. 553=24 A. L. J. 589=99 Ind. Cas. 16. Opportunity should always be given to the defendant disobeying Court's order to show cause why his defence should not be struck out. A. I. R. 1925 Bom. 386=27 Bom. L. R. 691=89 Ind. Cas. 215; see also 67 Ind. Cas. 73=44 A. 565=A. I. R. 1922 A. 235=20 A. L. J. 422. Suit should be dismissed under rule 21 for non-compliance with order under the same rule only after the Court is satisfied that the plaintiff is avoiding fair discovery. A. I. R. 1925 Cal. 66=50 C. L. J. 397=78 Ind. Cas. 859. The proper remedy for the party seeking the discovery, the order respecting which has not been complied with by the other party, is to apply stay-proceedings or to dismiss the suit. 4 P. L. J. 394=48 Ind. Cas. 711. This rule which speaks of only interrogatories or inspection and does not apply to production. A. I. R. 1924 Mad. 582=46 M. L. J. 350=19 L. W. 355=(1924) M. W. N. 340=77 Ind. Cas. 776. Non-compliance with the order of the Court amounts to contempt for which he may be dealt with and the party continues in contempt till the order is obeyed. A. I. R. 1929 Cal. 117=55 C. 1110=115 Ind. Cas. 189. Order 11, rule 21, is part of the rules of the High Court, unless the High Court had made a rule of itself expressly or by implication abrogating it. 39 C. W. N. 1029.

Appeal.—Order of dismissal of a suit under Order 11, rule 21, by a Court without jurisdiction is a decree and hence appealable. A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 158=98 Ind. Cas. 70; A. I. R. 1925 Rang. 218=3 Rang. 63=88 Ind. Cas. 751. An appeal lies from an order refusing to strike out defence under Order XI, rule 21. A. I. R. 1930 Cal. 426=34 C. W. N. 220=126 Ind. Cas. 781. An appeal is competent against an order dismissing a suit under rule 21. 137 Ind. Cas. 842=1932 M.W.N. 301=A. I. R. 1932 Mad. 316.

Review.—An order of dismissal purporting to be made under Order XI, rule 21, is a decree and hence a review lies from it. A. I. R. 1925 Rang. 218=88 Ind. Cas. 761. Court cannot review its order under s. 151 passed under Order XI, rule 21, since such an order is appealable. A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 158=98 Ind. Cas. 70; but see 34 Bom. L. R. 714.

22. [R. S. C. O. 31, r. 24.] Any party may, at the trial of a suit, use in evidence any one or more of the answers or any part of an answer of the opposite party to interrogatories without putting in the others or the whole of such answer: Provided always that in such case the Court may look at the whole of the answers, and if it shall be of opinion that any others of them are so connected with those put in that the last mentioned answers ought not to be used without them, it may direct them to be put in.

Scope.—Under Order XI, rule 22, C. P. Code, the answer or portions of the answers obtained to interrogatories served in a case are admissible as against the party answering them, though great caution should be exercised in using them as evidence. 39 Ind. Cas. 893; Nagh v. Layton, (1911) 2 Ch. 71.

23. [R. S. C. O. 31, r. 29.] This Order shall apply to minor plaintiffs and defendants, and to the next friends and guardians for the suit of person under disability.
Order to apply to minors.

ORDER XII.

Admissions.

1. [R. S. C. O. 32, r. 1.] Any party to a suit may give notice, by his pleading, or otherwise in writing, that he admits the truth of the whole or any part of the case of any other party.
Notice of admission of case.

Scope.—Court is not bound by the admission made by the party on a pure question of law. 76 Ind. Cas. 255=A. I. R. 1923 Nag. 101=18 N. L. R. 200. Pleadings include a plaint and hence in construing admission therein, Court ought to look to the pleadings as a whole. A. I. R. 1924 Nag. 129=78 Ind. Cas. 542; see also 71 Ind. Cas. 270; 41 M. L. J. 525. An admission made for the purpose of one trial may not be binding on a new trial. Dawson v. G. C. Rail Co., 88 L. J. K. B. 1177. Leave may be given to withdraw admission on terms. Hollis v. Burton, (1892) 3 Ch. 226.

2. [R. S. C. O. 32, r. 2; S. 128.] Either party may call upon the other party to admit any document, saving all just exceptions; and in case of refusal or neglect to admit, after such notice, the costs of proving any such document shall be paid by the party so neglecting or refusing, whatever the result of the suit may be, unless the Court otherwise directs; and no costs of proving any document shall be allowed unless such notice is given, except where the omission to give the notice is, in the opinion of the Court, a saving of expense.
Notice to admit documents.

And in case of refusal or neglect to admit the same within six days after service of such notice, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Court, the costs of proving such fact or facts shall be paid by the party so neglecting or refusing, whatever the result of the suit may be, unless the Court otherwise directs: Provided that any admission made in pursuance of such notice is to be deemed to be made only for the purposes of the particular suit, and not as an admission to be used against the party on any other occasion or in favour of any person other than the party giving the notice: Provided also that the Court may at any time allow any party to amend or withdraw any admission so made on such terms as may be just.
Notice to admit facts.

An affidavit of the pleader, or his clerk, of the service of any notice to produce, and of the time when it was served, with a copy of the notice to produce, shall in all cases be sufficient evidence of the service of the notice, and of the time when it was served.

ORDER XIII.

Production, Impounding and Return of Documents.

1. [Ss. 138, 140.] (1) The parties or their pleaders shall produce, at the first hearing of the suit, all the documentary evidence of every description in their possession or power, on which they intend to rely, and which has not already been filed in Court, and all documents which the Court has ordered to be produced.

(2) The Court shall receive the documents so produced: Provided that they are accompanied by an accurate list thereof prepared in such form as the High Court directs.

N. B.—For local amendments in Oudh, Patna and Rangoon.—Vide infra.

Scope.—This rule has been enacted with the object of preventing fraud by the late production of suspicious documents. It cannot therefore be so construed as to shut out formal evidence beyond suspicion such as certified copies of public documents like records of Government, 22 B. 173; see also 23 W. R. 29. The object of this rule is not to penalize parties for not producing documents in time. Main object of Order XIII, rule 1, is to prevent parties from manufacturing evidence during trial to meet unexpected exigencies. Unless there is good ground to believe that the document produced has been manufactured then Court exercises its discretion wrongly in rejecting a document on the ground of delay. A. I. R. 1928 Pat. 537=110 Ind. Cas. 821; see also A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 516=51 M. 472=27 L. W. 520=55 M. L. J. 34=110 Ind. Cas. 16; A. I. R. 1928 Pat. 794=114 Ind. Cas. 194. Scope.—Late production of document should be discouraged. 104 Ind. Cas. 104=13 P. L. T. 545=A. I. R. 1932 Pat. 332. Document not produced in time cannot be received. A. I. R. 1923 Oudh 59=25 O. It is in the discretion of the Court to admit documents not produced in evidence in first appeal at the re-hearing obtained on a review. A. I. R. 1928 Cal. 416=108 Ind. Cas. 246. Discretion of trial Court receiving documentary evidence at late stage must not be lightly interfered with by appellate Court. A. I. R. 1928 Pat. 555=7 Pat. 589=110 Ind. Cas. 536. Once where document produced at late stage was refused to be admitted by trial Court, neither the lower appellate Court nor the High Court would interfere with the discretion of the trial Court. A. 3. [S 140.] The Court may at any stage of the suit reject any document which it considers irrelevant or otherwise inadmissible, recording the grounds of such rejection.

Scope.—Where documents were put on record but not admitted or endorsed under rule 4 as result of judicial determination, the Court can reject them under this rule, on the ground of insufficiency of stamp. 143 Ind. 4. [S. 141.] (1) Subject to the provisions of the next following sub-rule, there shall be endorsed on every document which has been admitted in evidence in the suit the following particulars, namely :—

- (a) the number and title of the suit,
- (b) the name of the person producing the document,
- (c) the date on which it was produced, and
- (d) a statement of its having been so admitted ; and the endorsement shall be signed or initialled by the Judge.

(2) Where a document so admitted is an entry in a book, account or record, and a copy thereof has been substituted for the original under the next following rule, the particulars aforesaid shall be endorsed on the copy and the endorsement thereon shall be signed or initialled by the Judge.

admitted in evidence in the suit is an entry in a letter-book or a shop book or other account in current use, the party on whose behalf the book or account is produced may furnish a copy of the entry.

(2) Where such a document is an entry in a public record produced from a public office or by a public officer, or an entry in a book or account belonging to a person other than a party on whose behalf the book or account is produced, the Court may require a copy of the entry to be furnished—

(a) where the record, book or account is produced on behalf of a party, then by that party, or

(b) where the record, book or account is produced in obedience to an order of the Court acting of its own motion, then by either or any party.

(3) Where a copy of an entry is furnished under the foregoing provisions of this rule, the Court shall, after causing the copy to be examined, compared and certified in manner mentioned in rule 17 or Order VII, mark the entry and cause the book, account or record in which it occurs to be returned to the person producing it.

Scope.—A copy or extract from an entry in an account book, filed under rules 5 and 7, does not require to be stamped. 4 Bom. L. R. 223=26 B. 522.

considered by the Court to be inadmissible in evidence, there shall be endorsed thereon the particulars mentioned in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of rule 4, sub-rule (1), together with a statement of its having been rejected, and the endorsement shall be signed or initialled by the Judge.

N. B.—For local amendments in Rangoon.—Vide infra.

7. [S. 142A.] (1) Every document which has been admitted in evidence, or a copy thereof where a copy has been substituted for the original under rule 5, shall form part of the record of the suit.

Recording of admitted and return of rejected documents.

(2) Documents not admitted in evidence shall not form part of the record and shall be returned to the persons respectively producing them.

N. B.—For local amendments in Madras and Rangoon.—Vide infra.

Notes.—This rule shows that the documents must be either placed on the record or return to the person producing it. There is no alternative. It is highly desirable and even necessary for the ends of justice, that a disputed document should be placed on the record and should not be returned to the person producing it. A. I. R. 1936 Oudh 298=1936 O. W. N. 619=162 Ind. Cas. 527.

8. [S. 143.] Notwithstanding anything contained in rule 5 or rule 7 of this Order or in rule 17 of Order VII, the Court may, if it sees sufficient cause, direct any document or book produced before it in any suit to be impounded and kept in the custody of an officer of the Court, for such period and subject to such conditions as the Court thinks fit.

9. [S. 144.] (1) Any person, whether a party to the suit or not, desirous of receiving back any document produced by him in the suit and placed on the record shall, unless the document is impounded under rule 8, be entitled to receive back the same,—

(a) where the suit is one in which an appeal is not allowed, when the suit has been disposed of ;

(b) where the suit is one in which an appeal is allowed, when the Court is satisfied that the time for preferring an appeal has elapsed and that no appeal has been preferred or, if an appeal has been preferred, when the appeal has been disposed of :

Provided that a document may be returned at any time earlier than that prescribed by this rule if the person applying therefor delivers to the proper officer a certified copy to be substituted for the original and undertakes to produce the original if required to do so :

Provided also that no document shall be returned which, by force of the decree, has become wholly void or useless.

(2) On the return of a document admitted in evidence, a receipt shall be given by the person receiving it.

N. B.—For local amendments in Bombay, C. P., Lahore, Madras and Patna.—Vide infra.

Scope.—Proceedings for return of documents are ministerial and there cannot arise question making compulsory the taking of evidence on oath. 24 C. L. J. 202=26 C. W. N. 660=71 Ind. Cas. 666.

10. [S. 137.] (1) The Court may of its own motion, and may in its discretion upon the application of any of the parties to a suit, send for, either from its own records or from any other Court, the record of any other suit or proceeding, and inspect the same.

(2) Every application made under this rule shall (unless the Court otherwise directs) be supported by an affidavit showing how the record is material to the suit in which the application is made, and that the applicant cannot without unreasonable delay or expense obtain a duly authenticated copy of the record or of such portion thereof as the applicant requires, or that the production of the original is necessary for the purposes of justice.

(3) Nothing contained in this rule shall be deemed to enable the Court to use in evidence any document which under the law of evidence would be inadmissible in this suit.

N. B.—For local amendments in Allahabad and Rangoon.—Vide infra.

Scope.—Order XIII, rule 10, only gives authority to Court to send for records of another case for inspection. It does not make the whole record evidence in the case. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 78=111 Ind. Cas. 361. Mere summoning by Court of record containing documents relied on by party will not absolve that party from placing the document by formal admission or proof upon record of trial for which it is required as evidence. 131 Ind. Cas. 374=31 P. L. R. 926=A. I. R. 1931 Lah. 119. If it is necessary to produce the original for technical proof an application must be made in strict accordance with rule 10, Order XIII, specifying the documents required. Unless affidavit satisfies the Court that copies of the documents cannot be produced without unreasonable delay or expense or that the production of the original is necessary application for summoning record should be rejected. A. I. R. 1931 Lah. 119=31 P. L. R. 926=12 Lah. L. J. 290=131 Ind. Cas. 374. The provisions of this rule must be strictly complied with. A. W. N. 1894, 3. The Court need only send for the papers specifically mentioned in an application under s. 138. W. R. 1864, 272.

The Court should send for documents filed in another Court. 6 W. R. 79. Omission to send for the document is no ground for setting aside the decision of the lower Court if the party is not prejudiced thereby. 10 C. L. J. 27. This rule is intended to arm the Court with a power of initiation in getting at the truth. But the act of sending for a document under section 165, Evidence Act, or for a record under Order XIII, rule 10, does not ipso facto make such document or record evidence in the case. If the Court finds in the document or record so sent for relevant evidence, or a guide to relevant evidence, to be found somewhere else, proceedings must be adopted, if such evidence may be properly admitted at that stage, to have it brought into the trial according to the provisions of law. 18 Ind. Cas. 857=9 N. L. R. 11. Where a Court summarily rejects application under this section a case may be remanded by the higher Court. 43 Ind. Cas. 57; see also 11 C. W. N. 112.

11. [S. 145.] The provisions herein contained as to documents shall, so far as may be, apply to all other material objects producible as evidence.
Provisions as to documents applied to material objects.

ORDER XIV.

Settlements of Issues and Determination of Suit on Issues of Law or on Issues agreed upon.

1. [S. 146.] (1) Issues arise when material proposition of fact or law is affirmed by the one party and denied by the other.
Framing of issues.

(2) Material propositions are those propositions of law or fact which a plaintiff must allege in order to show a right to sue or a defendant must allege in order to constitute his defence.

(3) Each material proposition affirmed by one party and denied by the other shall form the subject of a distinct issue.

(4) Issues are of two kinds : (a) issues of fact, (b) issues of law.

(5) At the first hearing of the suit the Court shall, after reading the plaint and the written statements, if any, and after such examination of the parties as may appear necessary, ascertain upon what material propositions of fact or of law the parties are at variance, and shall thereupon proceed to frame and record the issues on which the right decision of the case appears to depend.

(6) Nothing in this rule requires the Court to frame and record issues where the defendant at the first hearing of the suit makes no defence.

Scope.—Where issues are drafted by counsel, and merely signed by Judge knowing nothing of the case are worse than useless. A. I. R. 1930 Mad. 78=57 M. L. J. 609=30 L. W. 914=123 Ind. Cas. 15. Framing of issues on question not disputed in pleadings is not justified. (1919) Pat. 393=51 Ind. Cas. 981. Where there is no averment in plaint and no denial in pleading, no issues arise and there is no error in not framing an issue not arising on pleadings. 2 Lah. L. J. 188=68 Ind. Cas. 106; 53 Ind. Cas. 975; 47 Ind. Cas. 589. Proper issues arising from pleadings must be framed, party cannot be expected to produce evidence respecting points not covered by the issues. 60 Ind. Cas. 751. Court must frame proper issues on questions purely of law. 35 M. L. J. 372=47 Ind. Cas. 589. Unless the issues are framed carefully to cover only the points of difference between the parties and to cover each point it is difficult to decide case properly. A. I. R. 1924 Nag. 156=78 Ind. Cas. 1015. The Court should not raise facing points not raised by the parties themselves but should limit themselves to the dispute between them. A. I. R. 1923 All. 167=77 Ind. Cas. 913. Courts are not bound to raise an issue which the plaintiff himself never put forward. Where the parties appear to have known what the question between them was, the defect in the form of issues is immaterial. A. I. R. 1921 Sind 159=16 S. L. R. 207=83 Ind. Cas. 350. Burden of proof is fixed when issues are framed and cannot be transferred from side to side. A. I. R. 1933 Rang. 174. Where the parties have adduced evidence on a question and discussed it before the Court which decides it as if there was an issue about it, the decree need not be set aside on appeal merely on the ground that no such issue was framed. A. I. R. 1926 Bom. 384=28 Bom. L. R. 743=96 Ind. Cas. 827. Under Order 14, rule 1, issues arise only when a material proposition of fact or law is affirmed by one party and denied by the other. Such affirmation or denial must be contained in the pleadings as defined in Order 6, rule 1. Where there is no written statement the only issues would be that arising out of the plaint which allegations are put in issue when not admitted. A. I. R. 1936 Nag. 177. The Court while striking issue regarding limitation should first ascertain what article the parties consider to be applicable to the suit as framed. If the application of a particular article raises a question of fact, an issue should be struck on those facts; and if the facts are not in dispute, it may be possible to decide the question on purely legal arguments in the initial stages of the case without putting the parties to the expense of the trial. A. I. R. 1935 Lah. 982.

Clause (5).—The words "first hearing of the suit" in Order 13, rule 1, are obviously different from the words "the first hearing of the suit" under Order 14, rule 1, clause 5, because parties have not to produce their documents till issues are framed. "First hearing" would clearly extend at least up to the period of the "first hearing" of the suit referred to in Order 13, rule 1. Hence it cannot be said that the powers conferred by Order 14, rule 1(5) only extend to the first discussion of issues and not to any subsequent ones which intervene between 'the first hearing of the suit' as meant by Order 14, rule 1, clause 5 and the first hearing as meant by Order 13, rule (1). A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 261.

2. [S. 146, sixth para.] Where issues both of law and of fact arise in the same suit, and the Court is of opinion that Issues of law and of fact. the case or any part thereof may be disposed of on the issues of law only, it shall try those issues first, and for that purpose may, if it thinks fit, postpone the settlement of the issues of fact until after the issue of law have been determined.

N. B.—For local amendment in Madras.—Vide infra.

Scope.—This rule gives Court power, where issues of fact and of law arise in same suit, to postpone settlement of issues of fact until after issues of law have been determined, if Court is of opinion that case or any part of it may be disposed of on issue of law at first. There is no such power to separate issues of fact. A plaintiff is entitled to a trial of the issues of fact which he raised and the Court has no authority to refuse to try these issues if the suit is properly framed. A. I. R. 1925 Pat. 674=7 P. L. T. 82=1925 Pat. 294=89 Ind. Cas. 814; see also A. I. R. 1927 Pat. 467=6 P. L. T. 729=2 P. L. R. 303=85 Ind. Cas. 29. Where number of issues are framed, and Court tries some of them first postponing the trial of others, order is not proper. A. I. R. 1921 Pat. 323=2 P. L. T. 154=60 Ind. Cas. 528 (20 C. L. J. 426 foll). Non-inclusion of all the issues in the preliminary trial does not render the order for hearing on certain preliminary issues perverse or such as is likely to cause injury, when those issues would any how be actually tried. The Court can post a case for trial on preliminary issues of law even though the issue of law and fact had been settled long before. A. I. R. 1922 Mad. 321=15 M. L. W. 667=1922 M. W. N. 521=68 Ind. Cas. 167 ; see also A. I. R. 1923 Bom. 249=25 Bom. L. R. 164=47 B. 509=72 Ind. Cas. 266. As regards the meaning of preliminary issue, vide 72 Ind. Cas. 409=4 P. L. T. 202=1 P. L. R. 332=72 Ind. Cas. 409. Trial of some issues may however be postponed, although preliminary issues of fact cannot be framed. 137 Ind. Cas. 362=34 Bom. L. R. 6=57 B. 224=A. I. R. 1932 Bom. 128. As a general rule subordinate Court ought not to dismiss action on preliminary issue. 136 Ind. Cas. 497=33 Bom. L. R. 1291=A. I. R. 1932 Bom. 1. Order in which issues are to be tried is to be decided by trial Court and the High Court will not interfere in revision. 1933 A. L. J. 784=A. I. R. 1933 All. 749. Where there are issues of law and fact it is obligatory in Court to consider whether case can be disposed of on legal issue alone. 1933 A. L. J. 707=A. I. R. 1933 All. 753. Where application is made after date fixed for first hearing for trial of some of the issues, as issues of law without taking evidence, this rule or Order 15, rule 3, has no application. 145 Ind. Cas. 446=57 C. L. J. 127=A. I. R. 1933 Cal. 559. Where once jurisdiction is vested in a Court, it is not taken away afterwards although it is found that the portion of the property being situated within the local limits of the Court which gave it jurisdiction does not belong to the plaintiff as alleged in the plaint unless the inclusion of that portion is not a bona fide one. The trial of an issue as to whether the portion belongs to the plaintiff as alleged as a preliminary point is quite unnecessary and is not warranted by law. Such preliminary point does not raise a question of only and therefore this rule does not apply. 124 Ind. Cas. 703=A. I. R. 1930 Nag. 189=26 N. L. R. 103. In deciding the question as to whether the Court should grant or refuse a prayer to try a preliminary issue on a point of law, some harmony is to be observed between the general principle that it is undesirable to try cases piece-meal and the specific and wholesome provisions of Order 14, rule 2, which is for the purpose of preventing the injustice of a party being able to force his opponent to go at great length into evidence when the single decision on a point of law might render the investigation of the facts unnecessary. A. I. R. 1936 Pat. 250 ; see also 18 N. L. J. 339. Rule 2 is mandatory, the only thing left open to the Court is to form and express an opinion of whether the case can be disposed of on the issue of law, but the opinion even if expressed must be expressed upon some reasonable materials. A. I. R. 1936 Pat. 250.

8. [S. 147.] The Court may frame the issues from all or any of the following materials from which issues may be framed. materials :—

(a) allegations made on oath by the parties, or by any persons present on their behalf, or made by the pleaders of such parties ;

(b) allegations made in the pleadings or in answers to interrogatories delivered in the suit ;

(c) the contents of documents produced by either party.

Scope.—Court should settle the issues on pleadings and after hearing the pleaders. 51 Ind. Cas. 1007. Issues can be framed from other materials than the pleadings as contained in the plaint. 3 U. P. L. R. (P. R.) 94 ; see also A. I. R. 1925 Cal. 1157=87 Ind. Cas. 575. Court has first to frame necessary issue but the parties are entitled to be heard. A. I. R. 1925 Mad. 169=78 Ind. Cas. 1.

4. [S. 148.] Where the Court is of opinion that the issues cannot be correctly framed without the examination of some person not before the Court or without the inspection of some document not produced in the suit, it may adjourn the framing of the issues to a future day, and may (subject to any law for the time being in force) compel the attendance of any person or the production of any document by the person in whose possession or power it is by summons or other process.

Court may examine witnesses or documents before framing issues.

5. [S. 149.] (1) The Court may at any time before passing a decree amend the issues or frame additional issues on such terms as it thinks fit, and all such amendments or additional issues as may be necessary for determining the matters in controversy between the parties shall be so made or framed.

(2) The Court may, also, at any time before passing a decree, strike out any issues that appear to it to be wrongly framed or introduced.

Scope.—Trial Judge is competent to frame a special issue after taking evidence and hearing arguments. A. I. R. 1922 Pat. 514=2 Pat. 52=4 Pat. L. T. 239=63 Ind. Cas. 383. The Court in its discretion can amend or alter an issue at any time before the passing of the decree. 1928 M. W. N. 836=113 Ind. Cas. 313; see also A. I. R. 1930 Nag. 225=27 N. L. R. 75=124 Ind. Cas. 609; 91 Ind. Cas. 426=A.I.R. 1926 Bom. 33=27 Bom. L. R. 1318; A.I.R. 1930 Cal. 534=57 C. 39=127 Ind. Cas. 777; 137 Ind. Cas. 274=1932 M.W.N. 494=35 M.L.W. 279=62 M.L.J. 154=A.I.R. 1932 Mad. 583. In case of definite pleadings and a definite issue on those pleadings the finding must be confined to matters raised in the issue. A.I. R. 1928 Nag. 179=107 Ind. Cas. 514. Although a Court has power under Order XIV. r. 5 of the Code to add any issue before judgment is pronounced, yet in exercising that power it ought not to allow a new plea to be put forward and add an issue shortly before pronouncing judgment. 10 Ind. Cas. 230.

6. [S. 150.] Where the parties to a suit are agreed as to the question of fact or of law to be decided between them, they may state the same in the form of an issue, and enter into an agreement in writing that, upon the finding of the Court in the affirmative or the negative of such issue,—

(a) a sum of money specified in the agreement or to be ascertained by the Court, or in such manner as the Court may direct, shall be paid by one of the parties to the other of them, or that one of them be declared entitled to some right or subject to some liability specified in the agreement;

(b) some property specified in the agreement and in dispute in the suit shall be delivered by one of the parties to the other of them, or as that other may direct; or

(c) one or more of the parties shall do or abstain from doing some particular act specified in the agreement and relating to the matter in dispute.

Scope.—In an ordinary suit, the duty of settling the issues between the parties for trial is placed upon the Court. This rule simply enables the parties themselves, by mutual agreement to settle the issues that are to be tried, but this rule does not place the Court on a higher footing as to finality in respect of proceedings held for the trial of these issues. A. W. N. 1886, 233.

Court, if satisfied that agreement was executed in good faith, may pronounce judgment.

7. [S. 151.] Where the Court is satisfied, after making such inquiry as it deems proper,—

(a) that the agreement was duly executed by the parties,

(b) that they have a substantial interest in the decision of such question as aforesaid, and

(c) that the same is fit to be tried and decided, it shall proceed to record and try the issue and state its finding or decision thereon in the same manner as if the issue had been framed by the Court; and shall, upon the finding or decision on such issue, pronounce judgment according to the terms of the agreement; and upon the judgment so pronounced a decree shall follow.

ORDER XV.

Disposal of the Suit at the first Hearing.

1. [S. 152.] Where at the first hearing of a suit it appears that the parties are not at issue on any question of law or of fact, the Court may at once pronounce judgment.

N. B.—For local amendment in Madras—Vide infra.

2. [S. 153.] Where there are more defendants than one, and any one of the defendants is not at issue with the plaintiff on any question of law or of fact, the Court may at once pronounce judgment for or against such defendant and the suit shall proceed only against the other defendants.

N. B.—For local amendment in Madras—Vide infra.

3. [S. 154.] (1) Where the parties are at issue on some question of law or of fact, and issues have been framed by the Court as hereinbefore provided, if the Court is satisfied that no further argument or evidence than the parties can at once adduce is required upon such of the issues as may be sufficient for the decision of the suit, and that no injustice will result from proceeding with the suit forthwith, the Court may proceed to determine such issues, and, if the finding thereon sufficient for the decision, may pronounce judgment accordingly, whether the summons has been issued for the settlement of issues only or for the final disposal of the suit :

Provided that, where the summons has been issued for the settlement of issues only, the parties or their pleaders are present and none of them objects.

- (2) Where the finding is not sufficient for the decision, the Court shall postpone the further hearing of the suit, and shall fix a day for the production of such further evidence, or for such further argument as the case requires.

Scope.—Application of Order XV, r. 3(1), is not confined to first hearing. A. I. R. 1922 Mad. 321=15 L. W. 667=(1922) M. W. N. 521=68 Ind. Cas. 267. Court has power at its discretion to try issues of law first. A. I. R. 1921 Pat. 467=6 P. L. T. 729=2 Pat. L. R. 393 Civ.=85 Ind. Cas. 29. Court cannot shut out evidence on issue involving question of arbitrator's jurisdiction. A. I. R. 1926 Lah. 125=7 Lah. 42=7 Lah. L. J. 611=27 P. L. R. 287=92 Ind. Cas. 712. In appealable case the Court should so far as may be practicable, renounce its opinion on all the important points. A. I. R. 1930 Cal. 787=53 C. L. J. 91=58 C. 474=34 C. W. N. 1129. When application is made after date fixed for first hearing for trial of some of the issues as issues of law without taking evidence, Order 14, rule 2 or Order 15, rule 3, has no application. 145 Ind. Cas. 446=57 C. L. J. 1127=A. I. R. 1933 Cal. 559. When the issues are framed and the plaintiff and defendants are ready and willing to proceed the sitting Judge has power, under this rule to proceed to the hearing and final disposal of the case. 1 Ind. Jur. O. S. 14. It is not competent for the Court to act under this rule and dispose of the case at the first hearing, when the plaintiff's pleader has appeared and objected to the adoption of such procedure. 16 M. 198.

4. [S. 155.] Where the summons has been issued for the final disposal of the suit and either party fails without sufficient cause to produce the evidence on which he relies, the Court may at once pronounce judgment, or may, if it thinks fit, after framing and recording issues, adjourn the suit for the production of such evidence as may be necessary for its decision upon such issues.

Scope.—A suit, in which further evidence is required, must be adjourned by the Court under this rule (although it has been posted for final disposal), unless it is satisfied that the plaintiff had, without sufficient cause, failed to produce his evidence. 7 W. R. 84 ; see also 1 N. W. P. 147 ; A. W. N. 1887, 105. The great object of the C. P. Code in fixing a day for hearing of a case is that the parties may be confronted together. 15 W. R. 150. But where conditional order of adjournment for production of evidence is made in suit fixed for final disposal and the condition is not fulfilled, Court cannot dismiss the suit for want of prosecution. If it is so dismissed, an appeal lies from the order which amounts to a decree. A. I. R. 1929 All. 543=117 Ind. Cas. 105.

ORDER XVI.

Summoning and Attendance of Witnesses.

1. [S. 159.] At any time after the suit is instituted, the parties may obtain, on application to the Court or, to such officer as it appoints in this behalf, summonses to persons whose attendance is required, either to give evidence or to produce documents.

N. B.—For local amendments, in Allahabad, Bombay, Lahore, Patna, Rangoon Sind, Oudh, and Peshawar.—Vide infra.

Scope.—A Court is not given discretion under this rule to refuse an application for issue of summonses to witnesses. 13 C. P. L. R. 152; 5 N. L. R. 181; 132 Ind. Cas. 579=32 P. L. R. 34=A. I. R. 1931 Lah. 135. But the Court has inherent power under s. 151, to prevent abuse of its process, and refuse to issue summonses; where it is convinced that a vexatious desire to obstruct the course of justice is the governing motive of the party applying for summonses. 5 N. L. R. 181. Court must in all cases issue summonses on application by either party at any time after institution of suit. A. I. R. 1931 Lah. 135=32 P. L. R. 34; see also A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 281=9 Lah. L. J. 154=28 P. L. R. 173=108 Ind. Cas. 541; 60 Ind. Cas. 656; 63 Ind. Cas. 736; A. I. R. 1924 Lah. 617=75 Ind. Cas. 866. The Court cannot refuse an application for summonses. Filing of application at a late stage is no ground for refusing it though the Court may when the case is heard, refuse to adjourn the hearing. A. I. R. 1926 Cal. 364=87 Ind. Cas. 355; see also A. I. R. 1923 Nag. 58=68 Ind. Cas. 272; A. I. R. 1925 Lah. 67=79 Ind. Cas. 143; A. I. R. 1924 Pat. 36=4 P. L. T. 545=89 Ind. Cas. 1028; A. I. R. 1925 Lah. 572=26 P. L. R. 181=86 Ind. Cas. 1012; A. I. Where the plaintiff applies for summonses to witnesses eleven days prior to the date fixed for hearing and the Court dismisses the application, the dismissal is wrong. A. I. R. 1925 Bom. 368=27 Bom. L. R. 471=87 Ind. Cas. 702. When Court refuses to summon witnesses and decides the suit on evidence of parties, if the refusal has injuriously affected the decision of the case, the decision can be set aside in appeal. A. I. R. 1929 Pat. 622=122 Ind. Cas. 535. Where certain witnesses are absent on the date of hearing owing to non-service of summonses upon them without fault of a party the Court ought to issue fresh summonses. A. I. R. 1926 Lah. 26=26 P. L. R. 630=90 Ind. Cas. 1030. Non-service of summons is not sufficient to constitute fraud, but the non-service taken together with other circumstances may constitute fraud. A. I. R. 1926 Cal. 1=42 C. L. J. 280=93 Ind. Cas. 385. So long as the application for issue of summonses is made after the institution of the suit and before its final disposal the Court is bound to issue summons except where the application is not made bona fide, and in such a case the Court acts in the exercise of its inherent power to prevent the abuse of its own process. A. I. R. 1924 Cal. 971=39 C. L. J. 598=84 Ind. Cas. 9. A witness can produce at the hearing documents which are not referred to in the summons and these documents are admissible in evidence on behalf of the party calling the witnesses. A. I. 2. [S. 160.] (1) The party applying for a summons shall, before the summons is granted and within a period to be fixed, pay into Court such a sum of money as appears to the Court to be sufficient to defray the travelling and other expenses of the person summoned in passing to and from the Court in which he is required to attend and for one day's attendance.

(2) In determining the amount payable under this rule, the Court may, in the case of any person summoned to give evidence as an expert, allow reasonable remuneration for the time occupied both in giving evidence and in performing any work of an expert character necessary for the case.

(3) Where the Court is subordinate to a High Court, regard shall be had in fixing the scale of such expenses, to any rules made in that behalf.

N. B.—For local amendments in Allahabad, Bombay, Burma, Calcutta, C. P. Lahore, Patna and Rangoon.—Vide infra.

Scope—Government servants and persons in Municipality or private service, cited as witnesses in civil suits, cannot claim as part of their expenses the payment of the salary which they would earn in their ordinary employment for the time which they spend in attending Court. 38 C. L. J. 149=76 Ind. Cas. 353. A pleader was merely called to give evidence as to what had occurred in a previous suit in which he has been engaged as a pleader: Held, that no special fees could be paid to ordinary witnesses. A. I. R. 1922 Bom. 116=46 B. 89=23 Bom. L. R. 898=64 Ind. Cas. 78.

3. [S. 161.] The sum so paid into Court shall be tendered to the person summoned, at the time of serving the summons, if it can be served personally.

N. B.—For local amendments in Bombay, Calcutta, C. P., Lahore and Patna,—Vide infra.

4. [S. 162.] (1) Where it appears to the Court or to such officer as it appoints in this behalf that the sum paid into Court is not sufficient to cover such expenses or reasonable remuneration, the Court may direct such further sum to be paid to the person summoned as appears to be necessary on that account, and, in case of default in payment, may order such sum to be levied by attachment and sale of the movable property of the party obtaining the summons; or the Court may discharge the person summoned, without requiring him to give evidence; or may both order such levy and discharge such person as aforesaid.

(2) Where it is necessary to detain the person summoned for a longer period than one day, the Court may, from time to time, order the party at whose instance he was summoned to pay into Court such sum as is sufficient to defray the expenses of his detention for such further period, and, in default of such deposit being made, may order such sum to be levied by attachment and sale of the movable property of such party; or the Court may discharge the person summoned without requiring him to give evidence; or may both order such levy and discharge such person as aforesaid.

N. B.—For local amendments and insertion of additional rules in Calcutta, C. P., Lahore, Madras and Rangoon.—Vide infra.

Scope—In default in payment of the expenses of a witness, Court can order the same to be levied by attachment and the sale of only the movable property of the party obtaining the summons and the immovable property of the debtor cannot be put up to sale. A. I. R. 1921 Cal. 430=26 C. W. N. 877=70 Ind. Cas. 123.

5. [S. 163.] Every summons for the attendance of a person to give evidence or to produce a document shall specify the time and place at which he is required to attend, and also whether his attendance is required for the purpose of giving evidence or to produce a document, or for both purposes; and any particular document, which the person summoned is called on to produce, shall be described in the summons with reasonable accuracy.

6. [S. 164.] Any person may be summoned to produce a document, without being summoned to give evidence; and any person summoned merely to produce a document shall be deemed to have complied with the summons if he causes such document to be produced instead of attending personally to produce the same.

Power to require persons present in Court to give evidence or to produce document. 7. [S. 165.] Any person present in Court may be required by the Court to give evidence or to produce any document then and there in his possession or power.

N. B.—For insertion of rule 7 A. in Calcutta.—Vide infra.

8. [S. 166.] Every summons under this Order shall be served as nearly as may be in the same manner as a summons to a defendant, and the rules in order V as to proof of service shall apply in the case of all summonses served under this rule.

N. B.—For local amendments in Allahabad, Calcutta, Oudh, Patna and Rangoon.—Vide infra.

9. [S. 167.] Service shall in all cases be made a sufficient time before the time specified in the summons for the attendance of the person summoned, to allow him a reasonable time for preparation and for travelling to the place at which his attendance is required.

N. B.—For local amendment in Rangoon.—Vide infra.

10. [S. 168.] (1) Where a person to whom a summons has been issued either to attend to give evidence or to produce a document, fails to attend or to produce the document in compliance with such summons, the Court shall, if the certificate of the serving-officer has not been verified by affidavit, and may, if it has been so verified, examine the serving-officer on oath, or cause him to be so examined by another Court touching the service or non-service of the summons.

(2) Where the Court sees reasons to believe that such evidence or production is material, and that such person has, without lawful excuse, failed to attend or to produce the document in compliance with such summons or has intentionally avoided service, it may issue a proclamation requiring him to attend to give evidence or to produce the document at a time and place to be named therein; and a copy of such proclamation shall be affixed on the outer-door or other conspicuous part of the house in which he ordinarily resides.

(3) In lieu of or at the time of issuing such proclamation, or at any time afterwards, the Court may, in its discretion, issue a warrant, either with or without bail, for the arrest of such person, and may make an order for the attachment of his property to such amount as it thinks fit, not exceeding the amount of the costs of attachment and of any fine which may be imposed under rule 12:

Provided that no Court of Small Causes shall make an order for the attachment of immovable property.

Scope.—The Court can issue proclamation only on being satisfied that the evidence of the witness or the production of the document is material and that he has failed without lawful excuse to attend or produce the document. Section 32 vests the Court with power to impose fine for failing to comply with a summons. The jurisdiction to impose fine can only be exercised in the manner laid down by Order XVI. A. I. R. 1929 A. 850=(1929) A. L. J. 1216=121 Ind. Cas. 97. Certain witnesses of the plaintiff who are duly served did not appear on the date of hearing and after the Court offered to issue warrants for them, the Court declined to put in process-fee for warrants but offered to bring the witnesses with him on the next date: Held that the Court was not legally in error in not allowing the plaintiff to bring his own witnesses. 101 Ind. If witness appears, attachment may be withdrawn.

11. [S. 169.] Where, at any time after the attachment of his property, such person appears and satisfies the Court,—

(a) that he did not, without lawful excuse, fail to comply with the summons or intentionally avoid service, and,

(b) where he has failed to attend at the time and place named in a proclamation issued under the last preceding rule, that he had no notice of such proclamation in time to attend, the Court shall direct that the property be released from attachment, and shall make such order as to the costs of the attachment as it thinks fit.

Scope.—Order XVI, rule 11, applies to a case where the person satisfied the Court that he has not intentionally failed to carry out the order. Rule 12 applies to the alternative case of a person failing to satisfy the Court whether he appears in order to offer an explanation or not. In either case whether the facts are those contemplated in rule 11 or rule 12 the Court can only proceed after attachment of the property. 31 C. L. J. 363=55 Ind. Cas. 425.

but fails so to satisfy the Court, impose upon him such fine not exceeding five hundred rupees as it thinks fit, having regard to his condition in life and all the circumstances of the case, and may order his property, or any part thereof, to be attached and sold or, if already attached under rule 10 to be sold for the purpose of satisfying all costs of such attachment, together with the amount of the said fine, if any:

Provided that, if the person whose attendance is required pays into Court the costs and fine aforesaid, the Court shall order the property to be released from attachment.

Scope.—An order under rule 12 can only be made if proclamation has been issued or a warrant for arrest issued or an order for attachment is passed. If neither of these conditions are satisfied the Court has no jurisdiction to impose under rule 12. A. I. R. 1929 All. 850=(1929) A. L. J. 1216=123 Ind. Cas. 97. Attachment of property is not condition precedent to the imposition of fine under rule 12. A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 979=115 Ind. Cas. 472. After an order for attachment of property if the person concerned fails to attend in obedience to a warrant, the Court may impose upon him a fine under Order XVI, r. 12. 31 C. L. J. 363=55 Ind. Where the witness or a party is present and the Court directs him by word of mouth to produce a document, and there cannot be the slightest mistake as to the witness or the party having received information of such direction and fails to produce the document he can be fined without going through the cumbrous procedure of issuing summons, followed by proclamation and attachment of his property to make him understand Court's discretion. A. I. R. 1929 All. 99=116 Ind. Cas. 483.

13. [New.] The provisions with regard to the attachment and sale of property in the execution of a decree shall, so far as they are applicable, be deemed to apply to any attachment and sale under this Order as if the person whose property is so attached was a judgment-debtor.

14. [S. 171.] Subject to the provisions of this Code as to attendance and appearance and to any law for the time being in force, where the Court at any time thinks it necessary to examine any person other than a party to the suit and not called as a witness by a party to the suit, the Court may, of its own motion, cause such person to be summoned as a witness to give evidence, or to produce any document in his possession, on a day to be appointed, and may examine him as a witness or require him to produce, such document.

Scope.—Where lawyer present all through, he should not be examined as Court witness. 145 Ind. Cas. 1=14 P. L. T. (Sup) 1=12 Pat. 359=A. I. R. 1922 Pat. 306. Where a Court desires to have the evidence of a particular witness, whom the defendant does not desire to call, the Court is not justified in insisting on the defendant paying the amount necessary to secure the attendance of the witness, and, on defendant's refusal to do so, declining to issue summons for the attendance of his witnesses. In such a case the correct procedure is to take action under Order 16, rule 14. 159 P. L. R. 1911 ; see also L. B. R. (1893-1900), 658 ; 2 Ind. Cas. 347=5 L. B. R. 1.

15. [S. 172.] Subject as last aforesaid, whoever is summoned to appear and give evidence in a suit shall attend at the time and place named in the summons for that purpose, and whoever is summoned to produce a document shall either attend to produce it, or cause it to be produced, at such time and place.

Scope.—Where a summons was issued calling upon the chief officer of the Karachi Municipality to cause the production of certain entries from his records, which were not specified, and where the chief officer caused a search to be made and claimed a search-fee : Held, that there was no provision, under which the search-fee could be claimed from the party who caused the summons to be issued. A witness is bound to produce documents duly specified when summoned by Court, but he is not bound to produce documents not duly specified. He might apply for the specification of the documents. 5 S. L. R. 44.

16. [S. 173.] (1) A person so summoned and attending shall, unless the Court otherwise directs, attend at each hearing until the suit has been disposed of. When they may depart. (2) On the application of either party and the payment through the Court of all necessary expenses (if any), the Court may require any person so summoned and attending to furnish security to attend at the next or any other hearing or until the suit is disposed of and, in default of his furnishing such security, may order him to be detained in the civil prison.

Notes.—Where a Court adjourns a case but omits to bind the witness to be present at the adjourned date, and the witness does not, in consequence, attend the Court should give the parties a reasonable opportunity to summon their witness and to enforce his attendance and to grant another adjournment for the purpose. 16 Ind. Cas 986.

17. [Ss. 174-175.] The provisions of rules 10 to 13 shall, so far as they are applicable, be deemed to apply to any person who having attended in compliance with a summons departs, without lawful excuse, in contravention of rule 16.

Scope.—Where a witness went out of British India in order to avoid having to give evidence, the contempt is gross and for such a contempt proceedings under Order XVI, rule 17, C. P. Code, are inadequate and a Judge of the High Court is neither bound nor ought, in such a case to proceed under s. 480 or s. 476, Cr. P. Code. A. I. R. 1926 Rang. 188=4 Rang. 257=27 Cr. L. J. 1241.

18. [Ss. 174, fifth para.] Where any person arrested under a warrant is brought before the Court in custody and cannot, owing to the absence of the parties or any of them, give the evidence or produce the document which he has been summoned to give or produce, the Court may require him to give reasonable bail or other security for his appearance at such time and place as it thinks fit, and, on such bail or security being given may release him, and, in default of his giving such bail or security, may order him to be detained in the civil prison.

19. [S. 176.] No one shall be ordered to attend in person to give evidence unless he resides—

(a) within the local limits of the Court's ordinary original jurisdiction, or
(b) without such limits but at a place less than fifty or (where there is railway or steamer communication or other established public conveyance for five-sixths of the distance between the place where he resides and the place where the Court is situate) less than two hundred miles distance from the Court-house.

Scope.—This rule does not apply to a case where a party to a suit desires to give evidence of his own motion in his own favour. A. I. R. 1922 Cal. 42=35 C. L. J. 78=68 Ind. Cas. 9; see also A. I. R. 1924 Mad. 541=46 M. L. J. 131=34 M. L. T. 314=(1924) M. W. N. 191=78 Ind. Cas. 407. This rule has no application to the persons summoned under s. 36 of the Presidency Towns Insolvency Act. A. I. R. 1923 Cal. 427=27 C. W. N. 370=82 Ind. Cas. 76. Ordinarily in the case of a witness not under the control of the party asking for the commission, and residing beyond 200 miles a commission should issue as a matter of right, unless the Court is satisfied that a party is merely abusing its authority to issue process. A. I. R. 1923 Mad. 321=44 M. L. J. 202=17 L. W. 251=(1923) M. W. N. 157=46 M. 574=71 Ind. Cas. 530. Where a plaintiff is not residing within Court's jurisdiction nor within 200 miles from the Court-house, he cannot be compelled to appear in person as defendant's witness but should be examined on commission. 140 Ind. Cas. 716=28 N. L. R. 146=A. I. R. 1932 Nag. 135.

20. [S. 177.] Where any party to a suit present in Court refuses, without lawful excuse, when required by the Court, to give evidence or to produce any document then and there in his possession or power, the Court may pronounce judgment against him or make such order in relation to the suit as it thinks fit.

Scope.—Under the Code of Civil Procedure, a defendant who, bona fide and for a substantial reason requires the evidence of the plaintiff to be taken, ought not in ordinary circumstances to have a decree against him until that evidence has been given. 24 W. R. 72. Where a document is produced but refused to be exhibited, the Court cannot dismiss the suit. 28 C. L. J. 24=46 Ind. Cas. 879.

21. [S. 178.] Where any party to a suit is required to give evidence or to produce a document, the provisions as to Rules as to witnesses to apply to parties summoned. witnesses shall apply to him so far as they are applicable.

N. B.—For local amendments and insertion of new rules in Allahabad and Calcutta.—Vide infra.

Scope.—It is one of the artifices of a weak and somewhat paltry kind of advocacy for each litigant to cause his opponent to be summoned as a witness with the design that each party shall be bound to produce the opponent so summoned as a witness, and this give the counsel for each litigant the opportunity of cross-examining his own client. It is a practice which all judicial tribunals ought to set themselves to render as abortive as it is objectionable. 1 Ind. Cas. 128=13 C. W. N. 320=5 M. L. T. 58=9 C. L. J. 172=13 C. W. Code to order the travelling expenses of a party who has given evidence in support of his own case. A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 244=68 M. L. J. 203=1935 M. W. N. 113=41 L. W. 244.

ORDER XVII.

Adjournments.

1. [S. 156.] (1) The Court may, if sufficient cause is shown, at any stage of the suit grant time to the parties or to any of them, and may from time to time adjourn the hearing of the suit.

(2) In every such case the Court shall fix a day for the further hearing of the suit, and may make such order as it thinks fit with respect to the costs occasioned by the adjournment :

Provided that when the hearing of evidence has once begun, the hearing of the suit shall be continued from day to day until all the witnesses in attendance have been examined, unless the Court finds the adjournment of the hearing beyond the following day to be necessary for reasons to be recorded.

N. B.—For local amendments in Allahabad and Lahore.—Vide infra.

Scope.—The granting of adjournment is optional with the Court. 24 Ind. Cas. 206; see also 10 Ind. Cas. 748. Discretion of the trial Court should not ordinarily be interfered with in appeal. Appeal does not lie from an order granting or refusing adjournment. 45 Ind. Cas. 898. Adjournment ought to be given in cases where delay in service of summons is due to vacation. 85 Ind. Cas. 890. Granting of an adjournment is in the discretion of the trial Court and not in that of an Appellate Court and still less in that of a Court of second appeal. A. I. R. 1922 Nag. 81=66 Ind. Cas. 850. Adjournment cannot be granted unless due zeal and diligence is shown. A. I. R. 1923 Lah. 584=4 Lah. 258=5 Lah. L. J. 438=37 Ind. Cas. 523; 37 Ind. Cas. 266. Party cannot insist on adjournment as of right due to non-compliance with a provision of law. It is within the discretion of the Court. Court may grant an adjournment or else it may dismiss the suit. A. I. R. 1921 Pat. 1=5 Pat. L. J. 350=1 Pat. L. J. 666=57 Ind. Cas. 250. There is difference between the hearing of the suit and hearing of evidence. 27 C. L. J. 119=46 Ind. Cas. 246. Adjournment to allow to produce further evidence, cannot be granted after the parties had closed their evidence. 36 Ind. Cas. 76. In case of pending suits, the date of the adjourned hearing must be communicated to the parties or to their legal representatives or at least to such of them as were present at the adjournment of the suit. A. I. R. 1923 Nag. 20=20 A. L. J. 912=77 Ind. Cas. 91. Liberal construction should be put upon provisions of Order XVII. A. I. R. 1924 Nag. 298=79 Ind. Cas. 123. The grant of postponement to a defendant is in the discretion of the Court and will be exercised upon considerations of the materials placed empowered by him to act on his behalf. But it is improper for the Court to take action on letters written by third parties, and adjourn the suit indefinitely without hearing the plaintiff and behind his back. 15 Pat. 561=162 Ind. Cas. 568=17 Pat. L. T. 329=A. I. R. 1936 Pat. 472 (S.B.).

Adjournment should be applied for at the earliest possible opportunity. A. I. R. 1925 Nag. 236=83 Ind. Cas. 257. Where non-appearance of the witnesses was not due to the party's fault the party concerned should be granted another opportunity to prove his case. A. I. R. 1925 Oudh 304=84 Ind. The trial Court has discretion to allow a party to produce a witness for giving rebuttal evidence and to give adjournments for the purpose. A. I. R. 1926 Nag. 486=96 Ind. Cas. 1905. Propriety of order refusing adjournment can be questioned in appeal from ex parte decree. A. I. R. 1925 Pat. 534=7 P. L. T. 381=91 Ind. Cas. 167. In cases of adjournment the principle on which a Court should award costs is that it should order the payment of a sum commensurate with the costs, which in the opinion of the Court, the party ready to proceed, will have to incur owing to the adjournment. A. I. R. 1930 Oudh 171=4 Luck. 529=121 Ind. Cas. 894. When late in the day, the defendant applied for adjournment at a time when, even if the case had gone on the Court could not be proceeded very far with the defence case, the Court shall exercise its discretion in allowing an adjournment. Unless a party ordered to pay costs, does pay before date of next hearing, he would have no right to be heard. A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 786=111 Ind. Cas. 168. Even where the plaintiff is allowed to sue as a pauper, an order making payment of the costs of the adjournment a condition of allowing time for amendment of the plaint is not justified. A. I. Soope.—Order 17, rule 2, applies to a case where the date on which the decree is passed is one to which the hearing of the suit has been adjourned and a party fails to appear. It does not apply to a case where the suit comes up for disposal on the date which is the date for the first hearing. A. I. R. 1937 All. 347. Under rule 2 it is in the discretion of the Court to proceed in each case under Order IX and not obligatory. If a plaintiff is absent and had at earlier hearing made out a definite case the suit in such cases should not be adjourned and not dismissed for default which order would be improper. A. I. R. 1929 Pat. 248=120 Ind. Cas. 625. Rules 2 and 3 are mutually exclusive. Rule 2 gives the procedure to be followed in the absence of a party or parties. Rule 3 gives the procedure to be followed where the parties are present but fail to produce evidence. A. I. R. 1930 Nag. 152=127 Ind. Cas. 351; see also A. I. R. 1928 Pat. 167=7 Pat. 236=107 Ind. Where a case is adjourned and neither defendants nor their vakil having no instructions beyond applying for an adjournment appears on their behalf and a decree is passed, the decree is ex parte as the Code contemplates only a pleader duly instructed and able to answer all material questions. When on a date fixed for its own motion by the Court, the defendant on whom lay the burden of proof was absent, the Court decided the case on merits, it was held that the case should not have been tried on merits and the order must be held to be one under Order XVII, rule 2. A. I. R. 1929 Rang. 73=6 Rang. 766=115 Ind. Cas. 668. The last of party's appearance when he is represented by a pleader is whether he is in possession of necessary facts and if he is duly instructed and whether he follows these instructions. Distinction between rules 2 and 3.—Rule 2 which finds a place in the Chapter of adjournments, provides that if on any day, to which the hearing of the suit is adjourned, the parties or any of them fail to appear, the Court may proceed to dispose of the suit in one of the modes directed in that behalf by Order IX, or make such order as it thinks fit. The effect of this rule is to make rule 8 of Order IX applicable to adjourned hearing of the cases. (23 C. 738). Rule 3 then provides that, if any party to a suit, to whom time has been granted, fails to produce his evidence or to cause the attendance of his witnesses or to perform any other act necessary to the further progress of the suit for which time has been allowed, the Court may notwithstanding such default, proceed to decide the case forthwith. It is obvious that the scope of rule 2 is quite distinct from that of rule 3. Rule 3 appears to contemplate a case in which the Court has materials before it to enable it to proceed to a decision of the suit. What rule 3 provides is, that the mere fact of a party making default in performance of what he was directed to do would not lead to the dismissal of the plaintiff's suit, if he was the party in default, or the decreeing of the claim against the defendants, if the defendant was the person who made the default; the words "notwithstanding such default" clearly imply that the Court is to proceed with the disposal of the suit in spite of the default, upon such materials as are before it. Rule 2, on the other hand speaks of the disposal of the suit, and undoubtedly includes cases in which there might not be any materials before the Court to enable it to pronounce a decision on the merits. It is clear that the contingency contemplated in rule 2 may happen in a case which falls within the letter of rule 3. It may well happen, for instance, that a plaintiff to whom time has been granted to produce evidence, not only fails to do so, but also fails to appear. In such a case, if there are no materials on the record, the appropriate procedure to follow would be that laid down in rule 2, but if there are materials on the record, the Court ought to proceed under rule 3. 34 C. 235 (237, 238); see also 41 C. 956=18 C.W.N. 775. The proper way of construing rule 3 is, that where no default occurring under rule 2, default occurs under rule 3, Court should proceed under the latter provision and dispose of a case on merits; but if the default consists in non-appearance, it is rule 2, which deals with such a case specifically that in terms applies. A. I. R. 1936 Mad. 625=70 M. L. J. 688=1936 M. W. N. 589=43 L. W. 738=1936 M. W. N. 589; see also A. I. R. 1936 All. 670=1936 A. L. J. 902. In order to attract the provisions of Order 17, r. 3 of the Civil Procedure Code, two conditions must co-exist. First, the application for adjournment must be at the instance of the party to suit applying for the production of evidence and secondly, there must be some materials on record on which the Court can proceed to pass judgment. When these two conditions are not satisfied, the proper course is to pass an order under rule 2 of Order 17. 39 C. W. N. 859; see also A. I. R. 1935 All. 210=1935 A. L. J. 209=156 Ind. Cas. 754; 30 N. L. R. 94=149 Ind. Cas. 512; 39 L. W. 353=1934 M. W. N. 40=A. I. R. 1934 Mad. 199; A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 56=34 P. L. R. 1027; but see A. I. R. 1934 Oudh 171=11 O. W. N. 393=148 Ind. Cas. 456; A. I. R. 1935 All. 210=1935 A. L. J. 290; A. I. R. 1930 Rang. 123. Order IX, rule 6, provides for hearing of the suit on the day fixed in the summons for the defendant's appearance, whereas Order XVII, rule 2, does for hearing of the suit at some later stage. In either case what is contemplated in these two rules is the procedure on the first day on which the hearing of suit, as distinguished from interlocutory proceedings takes place. Order XVII, rule 3, does not apply to a case of default in appearance but a case, in which a party who has appeared and has been given time to do some act in further prosecution of his case has failed to do so within the time allowed. In such a case the Court may proceed with the suit and the decision is not ex parte. A. I. R. 1922 Pat. 485=1 Pat. 188=69 Ind. Cas. 837; 57 Ind. Cas. 748. In default of appearance of the party, the proper order for the trial Court to pass is one under Order XVII, rule 2, and not rule 3. A. I. R. 1925 Bom. 328=27 Bom. L. R. 477=87 Ind. Cas. 710; see also A. I. R. 1925 Oudh. 433=2 O. W. N. 432=89 Ind. Cas. 418. The dismissal of a suit dismissed on having mistaken the date of hearing is under Order XVII, rule 2, and not r. 3. A. I. R. 1927 Rang. 46=4 Rang. 408=99 Ind. Cas. 717. Lower Appellate Court is competent to determine the question whether a decree was passed under Order XVII, rule 2 or under Order XVII, r. 3. A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 427=108 Ind. Cas. 61. Case of non-appearance falls under Order XVII, rule 2 and not under r. 3 and as such provisions of Order IX must be followed in such cases, there being no trial on merits. A. I. R. 1925 Oudh. 360=85 Ind. Cas. 528; see also A. I. R. 1925 All. 267=47 A. 140=85 Ind. Cas. 470. Provisions of Order XVII, r. 2, apply even where defendant takes time for producing evidence and absents himself. A. I. R. 1925 All. 267=47 A. 140=85 Ind. Cas. 470. Even if the defendant is absent on the date of hearing the Court ought to pass an ex parte decree and not a judgment on merits under Order XVII, rule 3. The words "make such order as it thinks fit" in rule 2 do not include an order under r. 3. A. I. R. 1925 All. 182=47 A. 181=22 A. L. J. 1041=85 Ind. Cas. 27. Order 2 cannot be distinguished from Order IX, which provides the procedure to be followed in cases falling under Order XVII, r. 2. Order XVII, r. 3, is quite different and the remedy of the party in that case is by way of appeal. It applies where two elements namely, extension of time for producing evidence is granted and where there is material on record to decide the case on merits. A. I. R. 1925 Oudh 278=78 Ind. Cas. 340; see also A. I. R. 1934 All. 107; A. I. R. 1934 Oudh 171; A. I. R. 1934 Mad. 199; 29 N. L. R. 326=A. I. R. 1933 Nag. 234. Where both parties are absent on account of heavy rains, the order should be under rule 2. A. I. R. 1933 Nag. 370. Court can proceed under rule 3 if adjournment is given at instance of party and if there are materials on record. 37 C. W. N. 666=A. I. R. 1933 Cal. 412=144 Ind. Cas. 462; see also 32 Bom. L. Appeal and Revision.—Revision lies from a wrong decision that Order IX, rule 13, did not apply to a case under Order XVII, rule 2. A. I. R. 1925 All. 267=47 A. 140=85 Ind. Cas. 470. Where the Court acted wrongly in deciding the case on merits under Order 17, rule 3, the remedy lay by way of appeal. A. I. R. 1925 All. 252=84 Ind. Cas. 521. Pleader's unpreparedness to argue does not amount to non-appearance and the Court must proceed to decide the case on merits but a revision can lie on the ground that in dismissing an appeal the Court clearly acts illegally, and with material irregularity. A. I. R. 1925 Nag. 236=83 Ind. Cas. 257. The case cannot be dismissed after the decree is passed and an order under Order XVII, r. 2, would be without jurisdiction which can be rightly set aside in High Court. A. I. R. 1924 P. C. 158=35 M. L. T. 143=47 M. L. J. 441=20 M. L. W. 491=51 I. A. 321=22 A. L. J. 990=40 C. L. J. 339=29 C. W. N. 391=5 P. L. T. 623=81 Ind. Cas. 741.

3. [S. 158.] Where any party to a suit to whom time has been granted fails to produce his evidence, or to cause the attendance of his witnesses, or to perform any other act necessary to the further progress of the suit, for which time has been allowed, the Court may notwithstanding such default, proceed to decide the suit forthwith.

N. B.—For local amendments in Allahabad and Oudh—Vide infra.

Scope.—This Rule is directed to a case where a party is definitely given time in order that he may take a certain step while it is necessary for him to take if he is to prosecute his case, and fails to take the step. A. I. R. 1928 Cal. 341=111 Ind. Cas. 430=47 C. L. J. 467. This rule applies only when a default is subsequently made by a party who himself had asked for adjournment. A. I. R. 1929 Rang. 73=6 Rang. 766=115 Ind. Cas. 668; A. I. R. 1928 Rang. 191. The word "default" in the rule includes any default amounting to non-prosecution of the appeal, by the plaintiff. A. I. R. 1931 Mad. 133=(1930) M. W. N. 1236=130 Ind. Cas. 657. Failure of a party to produce a stay order within the time which is not an act necessary to the further progress of the suit, cannot be ground for the dismissal of the suit for non-prosecution. A. I. R. 1928 Nag. 24=10 N. L. J. 177=105 Ind. Cas. 30. Words "notwithstanding such default" clearly imply that the Court is to proceed with the suit in spite of the default upon such materials as are before it. And if such materials fail to substantiate the claim, the suit will be dismissed for this reason and not for default. A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 109=51 M. L. J. 684=99 Ind. Cas. 32. "Forthwith" means on merits as gathered from facts available. 3 L. W. 1067=31 Ind. Cas. 307. Rule is an enabling and not a mandatory rule. 52 Ind. Cas. 292=150 P. R. 1919. Where no time was granted for production of evidence, r. 3 is not applicable. A. I. R. 1923 Lah. 281=69 Ind. Cas. 368. A case for default in appearance is not contemplated by Order XVII, rule 3, but a case where party is given time to do some act in further prosecution of case and fails to do it within that time. The suit may in such case be proceeded with but the decision is not ex parte. A. I. R. 1922 Pat. 485=1 Pat. 188=69 Ind. Cas. 837; see also A. I. R. 1921 Bom. 458=45 B. 1181=23 Bom. L. Rule 3 applies only after suit has been instituted and only after it has been adjourned for evidence. 86 Ind. Cas. 491=A. I. R. 1925 Mad. 1045. The dismissal of a suit under Order XVII, rule 3, for failure to supply copies of entry in account books in certain specific language is illegal. A. I. R. 1925 Pat. 316=75 Ind. Cas. 1. Where vakil pleads on instruction and party is not prepared to go on, rule 2 applies. A. I. R. 1934 Mad. 199. Rule 3 applies only where party to whom time has been granted fails to perform any act necessary for the progress of suit.

Where plaintiff was present on the day of hearing, Court is not justified in dismissing the suit under Order XVII, r. 3, on the ground that the plaintiff was absent on the day fixed for hearing for return of summons. Such an order is illegal. A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 484=102 Ind. Cas. 289 Order dismissing a suit on default after having refused adjournment is a decree and not an order from which an appeal lies. A. I. R. 1927 Rang. 148=5 Rang. 838=6 Bur. L. J. 77=101 Ind. Cas. 618. Failure of plaintiff to give evidence as a witness as ordered is ground for the dismissal of a suit and the Court must try the suit on merits. A. I. R. 1917 Lah. 388=100 Ind. Cas. 788. Order XVII, r. 3 of the Code does not apply to non-production of document which ought to be produced by plaintiff when plaint is presented. A. I. R. 1924 Lah. 608=76 Ind. Cas. 254. Rule 3 does not authorise summary dismissal where party has paid the process-fee and the Court and its officers are responsible for effecting service and an adjournment caused by non-attendance of witnesses for want of service is an adjournment in the ordinary course and does not amount to time granted under Order XVII, r. 3. A. I. R. 1924 Lah. 404=71 Ind. Cas. 862 ; A. I. R. 1926 Lah. 27=89 Ind. Cas. 857. Plaintiff alone cannot be held responsible for failure to cause attendance of witnesses for not paying process-fee in time where process-server was negligent. This stringent provisions of Order XVII, r. 3, should not be applied to such a case. A. I. R. 1924 Lah. 272=69 Ind. Cas. 665. Where defendant wanting stay of suit is ordered to produce copy of certain document on date fixed and defendant fails to appear on that date an ex parte decree cannot be passed where no order is passed fixing date for trial and case should be heard on merits. 111 P. L. R. 1916=137 P. W. R. 1916=36 Ind. Cas. 32. Where in a suit a date was fixed for the appointment of a guardian of a minor defendant, and on plaintiff's failure to appear on that day the suit was dismissed : Held that the default of the plaintiff fell under Order XVII, r. 3 and not under Order IX, r. 8 of the C. P. Code. A. I. R. 1922 Pat. 252=6 P. L. J. 650=2 P. L. T. 572=63 Ind. Cas. 570. Where a pleader appears for a defendant who is absent and says there is no instruction and a decree is passed under Order XVII, r. 3, the decree is on merits and not an ex parte decree. A. I. R. 1922 All. 497=77 Ind. Cas. 527. Re-hearing cannot be claimed in any case in which a suit is decided under Order XVII, r. 3, even if Order XVII, r. 2, is mentioned by mistake instead of Order XVII, r. 3 in the judgment. The remedy is by way of appeal. A. I. R. 1925 Oudh 495=86 Ind. Cas. 356. There is no justification in dismissing suit for failure to amend plaint and pay adjournment costs, under Order IX, r. 8, nor can the dismissal come under Order XVII, r. 3, where there is no judgment on merits. A. I. R. 1926 Lah. 571=96 Ind. Cas. 312. After having allowed five days' time to the defendant to produce his witnesses, the Court was not justified in passing an ex parte decree without waiting for five days. A. I. R. 1930 Cal. 251=50 C. L. J. 549=126 Ind. Cas. 411. Where order apparently passed under Order XVII, r. 3 but really was under Order IX, r. 8, the lower Court was competent to hear the appeal from an order refusing to restore the suit. 27 A. L. J. 391=116 Ind. Cas. 752. Where an application for setting aside of an ex parte decree was allowed conditionally on payment of costs, and on default of payment the Court decided the suit on merits, it was held that the decision is a decree under Order XVII, r. 3 and not an order under Order IX, r. 6. A. I. R. 1930 Oudh 351=70 W. N. 582=127 Ind. Cas. 27. Adjournment having been refused, pleader withdrew from the suit and failed even to examine witness in attendance for which no valid reason was given, held the order of dismissal under Order XVII, r. 3, should be passed. A. I. R. 1929 All 432=(1929) A. L. J. 507=119 Ind. Cas. 569.

Rule 2 of Order XVII applies only when one of the parties or both parties are absent. Where both parties were present but the suit was dismissed for default, the fact that a formal order and not a decree was prepared by the Court, cannot be final of the question whether or not the decision of Court was one under rule 3 of Order XVII. A. I. R. 1927 All. 507=102 Ind. Cas. 273. In a revenue suit adjournment was granted on payment of costs which were not paid and the suit was decreed it was held that the case ought not to have been decided on merits from the evidence available and not arbitrarily. 14 R. D. 86. Court should not be too technical in the matter of adjournment and should not refuse it for a solitary failure to produce witnesses. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 859=(1926) M. W. N.

434=96 Ind. Cas. 536 ; see also 93 Ind. Cas. 1024=A. I. R. 1926 Lah. 501. Where suit is dismissed for default on failure of party to produce evidence when party is present, the dismissal must be deemed to be an order under rule 3 and an appeal is competent. 95 Ind. Cas. 798.

Appeal.—Where a decree is wrongly passed on merits under Order XVII, rule 3, party aggrieved should appeal against decree itself and not treat it as ex parte and against order refusing to set it aside. 3 L. W. 524=33 Ind. Cas. 660. Order purporting to be passed under Order XVII, rule 3, cannot be treated as an ex parte decree and hence an application to set aside would not lie but an appeal does lie therefrom. A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 562=103 Ind. Cas. 192.

ORDER XVIII.

Hearing of the Suit and Examination of Witnesses.

1. [S. 179, Expl.] The plaintiff has the right to begin unless the defendant admits the facts alleged by the plaintiff and contends that either in point of law or on some additional facts alleged by the defendant the plaintiff is not entitled to any part of the relief which he seeks, in which case the defendant has the right to begin.

Scope.—Where in a suit for restitution of conjugal rights by husband, the wife admitted marriage but pleaded coercion and non-consent, the defendant had the right to begin. 23 Ind. Cas. 242=7 Bur. L. T. 129. The general rule is that the party on whom the burden of proof lies should begin. Taylor on Evidence § 379. Generally a plaintiff has the right to begin in a civil case. 7 C. L. R. 274. In a claim for mesne profits by the successful appellant against the other party who had taken possession in execution of decree of trial Court the person claiming it in the position of a plaintiff and he should begin. A. I. R. 1925 Mad. 145=47 M. 800=48 M. L. J. 89=92 Ind. Cas. 792. If on the issue or issues of facts, the burden of proof is on the defendant, he has the right to begin. 40 C. W. N. 865.

2. [S. 179, first para, S. 180, first and second paras.] (1) On the day fixed for the hearing of the suit or on any other day to which the hearing is adjourned, the party having the right to begin shall state his case and produce his evidence in support of the issues which he is bound to prove.

(2) The other party shall then state his case and produce his evidence (if any) and may then address the Court generally on the whole case.

(3) The party beginning may then reply generally on the whole case.

N. B.—For local amendments in Calcutta, Madras and Rangoon.—Vide infra.

Scope.—Day on which issues are framed is not meant by or included in "day fixed for hearing of suit." A. I. R. 1925 All. 98=82 Ind. Cas. 73. Party cannot introduce new pleadings without leave of Court, at the time of stating the case under O. XVIII, r. 2, but has only the right to state his case as already put forward. A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 615=103 Ind. Cas. 501. Where parties were not ready on day to which case was adjourned for argument, but was permitted to put in written argument and subsequently the Judge's predecessor came in and after local inspection delivered judgment : Held parties had sufficient opportunity to argue and judgment was not vitiated. A. I. R. 1924 Lah. 107=4 Lah. 364.

3. [S. 180, third para.] Where there are several issues, the burden of proving some of which lies on the other party, the party beginning may, at his option, either produce his evidence on those issues or reserve it, by way of answer to the evidence produced by the other party ; and, in the latter case, the party beginning may produce evidence on those issues after the other party has produced all his evidence, and the other party may then reply specially on the evidence so produced by the party beginning ; but the party beginning will then be entitled to reply generally on the whole case.

4. [S. 181.] The evidence of the witnesses in attendance shall be taken orally in open Court in the presence and under the personal direction and superintendence of the Judge.

Scope.—Evidence in civil cases must be recorded by Judge himself. It is extremely undesirable to allow witnesses to be examined by some one else, and the procedure is gravely objectionable. Yet the procedure is only an error, defect or irregularity in the proceedings, and does not affect the merits of the case or the jurisdiction of the Court and is no ground for reversing the decision of the Judge. A. I. R. 1928 Pat. 438=10 P. L. T. 474=115 Ind. Cas. 237. A Court should in all cases exercise the powers, with which they are entrusted by law in the examination of witnesses if they are not properly examined. 10 W. R. 280. 5. [S. 182.] In cases which an appeal is allowed the evidence of each witness shall be taken down in writing, in the language of the Court, by or in the presence and under the personal direction and superintendence of the Judge, not ordinarily in the form of question and answer, but in that of a narrative, and, when completed, shall be read over in the presence of the Judge and of the witness, and the Judge shall if necessary, correct the same, and shall sign it.

N. B.—For local amendment in Rangoon.—Vide infra.

Scope.—Provisions of this section are not complied with where Judge dictates evidence to the typist and revises and signs the typed copy, but it amounts to a mere irregularity and not illegality. A. I. R. 1929 Cal. 78=55 C. 1084=113 Ind. Cas. 833. If there is only one record in cases where an appeal is allowed it should be made in writing by the Judge's own hand ; while if evidence is taken down by some other person though, in the presence and under the personal direction and superintendence of the Judge, the Judge also must make or cause to be made a memo as provided by rr. 8 and 14. Statements of witnesses are required to be read out to him for a double reason. Any mistake by deponent or by the writer may be rectified and secondly, a locus penitential is provided for a person who had made a false statement. Omission to read out deprives him of locus penitential and such omission renders conviction under s. 193, I. P. Code, illegal altogether. 12 P. R. Cr. 1917=18 Cr. L. J. 607=15 P. W. R. Non-compliance with provisions of Order XVIII, rules 5, and 6 do not render the deposition inadmissible in evidence at a subsequent trial of the deponent for perjury the provisions being directory only. Reading out deposition to a witness in adjoining room and at a distance of 30 feet from Judge's seat is sufficient compliance and deposition is admissible in evidence in prosecution under s. 193, I. Where a Commissioner of partition and Special Referee is appointed by the original side of the High Court, the provisions of Order 18, rules 5 and 6 apply although Order 49, rule 3, makes those provisions inapplicable to the proceedings conducted by the Court itself. W. N. 624=61 C. 488.

6. [S. 183.] Where the evidence is taken down in a language different from that in which it is given, and the witness does not understand the language in which it is taken down, the evidence as taken down in writing shall be interpreted to him in the language in which it is given.

N. B.—For local amendment in Rangoon.—Vide infra.

Scope.—Where evidence by witness given in urdu and recorded by Judge in English and not interpreted to him, this rule is not applicable. 132 Ind. Cas. 270=8 O. W. N. 685=A. I. R. 1931 Oudh 385.

7. [New.] Evidence taken down under section 138 shall be in the form prescribed by rule 5 and shall be read over and signed and, as occasion may require, interpreted and corrected as if it were evidence taken down under that rule.

8. [S. 184.] Where the evidence is not taken down in writing by the Judge, he shall be bound, as the examination of each witness proceeds, to make a memorandum of the substance of what each witness deposes and such memorandum shall be written and signed by the Judge and shall form part of the record.

N. B.—For local amendment in Rangoon.—Vide infra.

9. [S. 185.] Where English is not the language of the Court, but all the parties to the suit who appear in person, and the pleaders of such as appear by pleaders, do not object to have such evidence as is given in English taken down in English, the Judge may so take it down.

10. [S. 186.] The Court may, of its own motion or on the application of any party or his pleader, take down any particular question and answer, or any objection to any question, if there appears to be any special reason for so doing.

11. [S. 187.] Where any question put to a witness is objected to by a party or his pleader, and the Court allows the same to be put, the Judge shall take down the question, the answer, the objection and the name of the person making it, together with the decision of the Court thereon.

Notes.—Court may rule out as irrelevant any particular answer after it is given but cannot say beforehand that all evidence yet to be taken is going to be irrelevant and cannot refuse to record it on the ground that it believed it to be biased. A. I. R. 1923 Nag. 58=68 Ind. Cas. 272.

12. [S. 188.] The Court may record such remarks as it thinks material respecting the demeanour of any witness while under examination.

Notes.—Court's power as regards demeanour, vide. A. I. R. 1922 All. 107=44 A. 401=66 Ind. Cas. 1005.

13. [S. 189.] In cases in which an appeal is not allowed, it shall not be necessary to take down the evidence of the witnesses in writing at length; but the Judge, as the examination of each witness proceeds, shall make a memorandum of the substance of what he deposes, and such memorandum shall be written and signed by the Judge and shall form part of the record.

Notes.—Memorandum of substance of evidence and not short extract should be taken. 9 C. W. N. 418; 9 C. W. N. 420; 30 Ind. Cas. 634=2 L. W. 803=(1915) M. W. N. 768,

14. [S. 190.] (1) Where the Judge is unable to make a memorandum as required by this Order, he shall cause the reason of such inability to be recorded, and shall cause the memorandum to be made in writing from his dictation in open Court.

(2) Every memorandum so made shall form part of the record.

N. B.—For local amendment in Rangoon—Vide infra.

15. [S. 191.] (1) Where a Judge is prevented by death, transfer or other cause from concluding the trial of a suit, his successor may deal with any evidence or memorandum taken down or made under the foregoing rules as if such evidence or memorandum had been taken down or made by him or under his direction under the said rules and may proceed with the suit from the stage at which his predecessor left it.

(2) The provisions of sub-rule (1) shall, so far as they are applicable, be deemed to apply to evidence taken in a suit transferred under section 24.

Scope.—This rule provides the case of a Judge dying or leaving the Court before the conclusion of a suit and gives his successor powers to deal with the evidence as if he himself has taken it down. 110 P. R. 1886 ; 17 Ind. Cas. 278=1912 M. W. N. 599. But it does not empower the Judge to decide a case on evidence taken by his predecessor without giving notice to the parties and giving them an opportunity of being heard before judgment is pronounced. 110 P. T. 324 ; see also 39 Ind. Cas. 651=14 P. R. 1917. This rule is applicable where a case has been transferred after being heard in part. 25 M. 595.

16. [S. 192.] (1) Where a witness is about to leave the jurisdiction of the Court, or other sufficient cause is shown to the satisfaction of the Court why his evidence should be taken immediately, the Court may upon the application of any party or of the witness, at any time after the institution of the suit, take the evidence of such witness in manner hereinbefore provided.

(2) Where such evidence is not taken forthwith and in the presence of the parties such notice as the Court thinks sufficient of the day fixed for the examination, shall be given to the parties.

(3) The evidence so taken shall be read over to the witness, and if he admits it to be correct, shall be signed by him, and the Judge shall, if necessary, correct the same, and shall sign it, and it may then be read at any hearing of the suit.

Notes.—Vide 5 B. L. R. O. C. 252.

17. [S. 193.] The Court may at any stage of a suit recall any witness who has been examined and may (subject to the law of evidence for the time being in force) put such questions to him as the Court thinks fit.

18. [New.] Court may at any stage of a suit inspect any property or thing concerning which any question may arise.

Scope.—A decree should distinctly and accurately state what property it deals with. 24 W. R. 291; see also 19 W. R. 81; 25 Ind. Cas. 534; 23 W. R. 285; 22 W. R. 330; 74 P. R. 1905.

10. [S. 208.] Where the suit is for movable property, and the decree is for the delivery of such property, the decree shall also state the amount of money to be paid as an alternative if delivery cannot be had.

Scope.—Under Order XX, rule 10, delivery of property may not be decreed in every case. A. I. R. 1924 Nag. 176=75 Ind. Cas. 833. Decree-holders executing decree under Order XX, rule 10, must comply with provisions of Order XXI, r. 31, if money portion is to be executed. A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 652=55 C. 26=31 C. W. N. 850=103 Ind. Cas. 740. Order 20, rule 10, Civil Procedure Code, does not say that a person who is entitled to the delivery of specific movables must in all cases sue for such delivery and not for their value or damages, for in many cases the movables themselves would be of no use to him after conversion or detention. Nor does the rule say that the Court must invariably decree the articles claimed and not their value only. The Court is bound to pass a decree for the articles in the first instance and in the alternative only for their value. 61 C. 711=A. I. R. 1935 Cal. 39. Where a decree is in the form contemplated by this rule and there is no question of determination in value of the articles decreed to be recovered, the decree-holder is not entitled to execute the money, part of the decree before applying for delivery of the articles; it is in the defendant's election whether he would deliver the chattels or pay the assessed value on them. Ibid.

11. [S. 210.] (1) Where and in so far as a decree is for the payment of money the Court may for any sufficient reason at the time of passing the decree order that payment of the amount decreed shall be postponed or shall be made by instalments, with or without interest notwithstanding anything contained in the contract under which the money is payable.

(2) After the passing of any such decree the Court may, on the application of the judgment-debtor and with the consent of the decree-holder, order that payment of the amount decreed shall be postponed or shall be made by instalments on such terms as to the payment of interest, the attachment of the property of the judgment-debtor, or the taking of security from him, or otherwise, as it thinks fit.

N. B.—For Local amendments in Madras and Rangoon—Vide infra.

Scope.—Passing of instalment decree on certain conditions is not bad in law. A. I. R. 1927 Oudh 236=1 Luck. Cas. 75=101 Ind. Cas. 816. Order postponing payment if incorporated in decree is appealable as part of decree. 133 Ind. Cas. 233=A. I. R. 1931 Rang. 152; see also 142 Ind. Cas. 833=A. I. R. 1933 Pesh. 31. Order of instalments made on time-barred application is not nullity. A. I. R. 1937 Cal 236. Where after the decree parties agree that the decretal amount should be paid by instalments and the Court accepts a compromise and dismisses an execution case, the Court must be deemed to have directed that the payment of the amount decreed should be made by instalments under Order 20, rule 11 (2). The order of the executing Court directing the payment of the decretal amount to be made in instalments with the consent of the parties therefore clearly comes within the provisions of Order 20, rule 11 (2) of the Code and is therefore executable in the execution proceedings. A. I. R. 1937 Cal.

236. The discretion to order payment of a decretal amount by instalments must never be exercised so as to constitute a virtual denial of the decree-holder's rights. A. I. R. 1935 Rang. 495. Even a Small Cause Court in granting instalments is required under the provisions of Order 20, rule 11, C.P. Code, to state the reasons for granting the prayer. Simply because instalment is prayed for and the claim is not contested, that does not entitle a debtor to get an instalment decree as a matter of course. In making orders for instalments not only the condition of the debtor and his ability to pay must be considered, but also all other circumstances must be taken into consideration, namely, the date when the loan was incurred, the amount of the loan, the amount of the instalments ordered and the number of years in the course of which it is to be satisfied. An instalment decree spreading the instalments over a large number of years is a thing oppressive to the creditor and the Court should, in passing instalment decree be careful to guard also the interest of the creditor. Too much pity on a debtor is not consideration which is to prevail over all other claims. A. I. R. 1935 Cal. 559=61 C. L. J. 93=157 Ind. Cas. 12 ; see also A. I. R. 1934 Pesh. 2=148 Ind. Cas. 349.

Where Court passes a decree for Rs. 884 and orders that defendant should pay in six monthly instalments of Rs. 60 each and allowing no future interests, it is not proper exercise of discretion. 143 Ind. Rule 11 is not controlled by Imperial Bank Act. Refusal to grant instalments in proper cases on grounds of postponement of realization of dues by Bank over six months would amount to failure of duty. 16 N. L. J. 78=A. I. R. 1933 Nag. 330. Where there is no special reasons for special indulgence, normal course should be followed. A. I. R. 1934 Pesh. 2.

Sub-section (2).—A variation of a decree after it is passed can only be made by the Court which passed the decree. Hence where a decree passed by a Small Cause Court is transferred to the High Court for execution, the High Court cannot make the decree payable in instalments while acting as an executing Court. A. I. R. 1934 Rang. 197=149 Ind. Cas. 763. The Court referred in sub-section (1) of Order 20, rule 11, is clearly a Court which passed the decree and as the same wording is used in sub-section (2) also, it seems clear that the variation of the decree after it is passed can only be made by the Court which passed the decree. A Court to which a decree has been transferred for execution must take the decree as it stands and is not entitled to question the validity of the decree. Ibid; see also A. I. R. 1931 Rang. 252=4 Rang. 480 (F. B.); A. I. R. 1934 Rang. 165=151 Ind. Cas. 937=12 Rang. 320; 40 L. W. 883=67 M. L. J. 801.

The provisions of clause (c) of Order 20, rule 12, Civil Procedure Code, suggest that when a person obtains a decree for possession of immovable property, the defendant would be answerable to the plaintiff for mesne profits either until he delivers up possession to the decree-holder or at least relinquishes possession with notice to the decree-holder through the Court. These provisions indicate the prima facie, liability of a defendant in possession of immovable property. 70 M. L. J. 87=A. I. R. 1936 Mad. 137=43 L. W. 221 ; see also 71 M. L. J. 388. Cas. 755. Even where the decree passed after 1908 directs ascertainment of mesne profits in the course of execution, the effect of the dismissal of the previous application for execution on the ground of default does not amount to a dismissal of the claim for mesne profits and fresh application is not barred. Although the decree is a wrong decree, parties not having appealed it is binding. A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 472=38 C. W. N. 141=151 Ind. Cas. 913. There is no provision in the Code for deciding the basis upon which mesne profits are to be assessed, at a date subsequent to the passing of the preliminary decree. When the Judge passes the preliminary decree under Order 20, rule 12, and directs an inquiry as to mesne profits he should, at the same time, decide the basis upon which the mesne profits are to be assessed. Then at a subsequent date an application can be made by one or other of the parties for the appointment of a Commissioner who would proceed to hold an inquiry, and assess the mesne profits upon the basis which the Judge had already directed when he passed the preliminary decree. Decree in administration suit. for its due administration under the decree of the Court, the Court shall, before passing the final decree, pass a preliminary decree ordering such accounts and inquiries to be taken and made, and giving such other directions as it thinks fit.

(2) In the administration by the Court of the property of any deceased person, if such property proves to be insufficient for the payment in full of his debts and liabilities, the same rules shall be observed as to the respective rights of secured and unsecured creditors and as to debts and liabilities provable, and as to the valuation of annuities and future and contingent liabilities respectively, as may be in force for the time being, within the local limits of the Court in which the administration suit is pending with respect to the estates of persons adjudged or declared insolvent; and all persons who in any such case would be entitled to be paid out of such property, may come in under the preliminary decree, and make such claim against the same as they may respectively be entitled to by virtue of this Code.

Notes—Decree in administration suit must comply with provisions of Code regarding secured and unsecured debts. Under s. 49, Presidency Towns Insolvency Act, Crown debts must first be satisfied. 45 C. 653=22 C. W. N. 793=49 Ind. Cas. 529. Where a preliminary decree is passed in an administration suit, all the attaching creditors stand on the same footing, even though the attachment may have been effected before the decree, provided that the decree was passed before any payment is made. 61 C. 240=A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 559=152 Ind. Cas. 69. A debtor who got heavily indebted asked another to take up the administration of his debt for the purpose of liquidating his liabilities. A composition-deed was drawn up whereby all movable and immovable property were alleged to be handed over to latter and a list of creditors was incorporated in the document. Some of the creditors brought a suit on 29th July, 1926, against the debtor and the other persons and got a decree passed in accordance with the provisions of the composition-deed: Held that the composition-deed and the decree amounted to nothing more nor less than a private arrangement between debtor and the other person. It was certainly not an administration decree as contemplated by Order 20, rule 13, as it was not the administration of the estate of a deceased person. It was a judgment in personam and obviously binding on the person who were parties to it. A. I. R. 1935 Pesh. 63.

14. [S. 214] (1) Where the Court decrees a claim to pre-emption in respect of a particular sale of property and Decree in pre-emption suit. the purchase-money has not been paid into Court, the decree shall—

(2) Where the Court has adjudicated upon rival claims to pre-emption, the decree shall direct—

(a) if and in so far as the claims decreed are equal in degree, that the claim of each pre-emptor complying with the provisions of sub-rule (1) shall take effect in respect of a proportionate share of the property, including any proportionate share in respect of which the claim of any pre-emptor failing to comply with the said provisions would, but for such default, have taken effect; and.

(b) if, and in so far as the claims decreed are different in degree, that the claim of the inferior pre-emptor shall not take effect unless and until the superior pre-emptor has failed to comply with the said provisions.

Scope.—Compromise decree in a pre-emption suit is not a decree under Order XX, rule 14, in strict terms. 26 P. W. R. 1917=37 Ind. Cas. 806. Rights of a pre-emptor are different from those of ordinary purchaser. Under a pre-emption decree the right of possession of the property and the consequential right to mesne profits accrue to the pre-emptor only from the date when he pays the amount of purchase price.

15. [S. 215.] Where a suit is for the dissolution of a partnership or the taking of partnership accounts, the Court, before passing a final decree, may pass a preliminary decree declaring the proportionate share of the parties, fixing the day on which the partnership shall stand dissolved or be deemed to have been dissolved, and directing such accounts to be taken, and other acts to be done, as it thinks fit.

16. [S. 215A.] In a suit for an account of pecuniary transactions between a principal and an agent, and in any other suit not hereinbefore provided for, where it is necessary, in order to ascertain the amount of money due to or from any party, that an account should be taken, the Court shall, before passing its final decree, pass a preliminary decree directing such accounts to be taken as it thinks fit.

Scope.—Rule 16 is not restricted to suits between agent and principal but applies wherever taking of accounts is involved and the Court does not want to do it itself. A. I. R. 1921 Sind 42=15 S. L. R. 16=62 Ind. Cas. 537; see also A. I. R. 1937 All. 276. In partnership suit also wherever one partner has contracted to render accounts decree under Order XX, rule 16, can be passed. 21 P. W. In a suit for accounts which has been remanded to the District Judge in second appeal, the actual decree for costs should not ordinarily be made until the stage of final decree is reached. But if the preliminary decree does specify the costs in the decree and such decree is put in execution, High Court cannot interfere to amend the decree. The proper course is to proceed to exercise a proper discretion at the time of the final decree and set all the matters right. A. I. R. 1934 Pat. 146=143 Ind. Cas. 572.

17. [New] The Court may either by the decree directing an account to be taken or by any subsequent order give special directions with regard to the mode in which the account is to be taken or vouched and in particular may direct that in taking the account the books of account in which the accounts in question have been kept shall be taken as prima facie evidence of the truth of the matters therein contained with liberty to the parties interested to take such objection thereto as they may be advised.

Adjustment.—An adjustment under Order XXI, rule 2, means settlement which extinguishes the decree-debt. A. I. R. 1930 Mad. 410=(1930) M. W. N. 137=123 Ind. Cas. 604. An adjustment is not the same thing as satisfaction. It is some method of settling the decree which is not provided for in the decree itself. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 184=49 M. L. J. 730=22 L. W. 853=(1926) M. W. N. 29=91 Ind. Cas. 1051; see also 80 Ind. Cas. 454=A. I. R. 1925 Oudh 136. N. 297=72 Ind. Cas. 836. Order 21, rule 2, contemplates an adjustment to the satisfaction of the decree-holder. An adjustment to be binding must be one between the decree-holder and the judgment-debtor and by their consent. The rule does not contemplate an adjustment which, although not consulted to is made binding by operation of law. A. I. R. 1937 Cal. 211. The executing Court is entitled to look at the agreement made prior to the date of the decree in order to see whether it prevented execution according to the terms of the decree. And there is nothing in Order 21, rule 2, which prevents proof of the fact that a condition precedent to the coming into operation of such an agreement as this has been performed. A. I. R. 1934 Bom. 370=36 Bom. L. R. 798=152 Ind. Cas. 575=58 B. 610; see also 22 B. 463. An adjustment of a decree must be presumed to have been duly certified. 19 N. L. J. 175. Actual payment is not necessary to constitute valid adjustment within this rule. A. I. R. 1936 Bom. 277=38 Bom. L. R. 505=60 B. 729=164 Ind. Cas. 9. Valid adjustment of decree can be made pending an appeal from the decree. Such an adjustment if not certified or recorded as required under Order 21, rule 2, the Court is debarred by sub-rule 3 from recognizing such an adjustment. A. I. R. 1936 Mad. 494=43 L. W. 601=1936 M. W. N. 123. One of several decree-holders cannot, be receiving payment of the decretal amount out of Court, certify satisfaction of the entire decree, if not authorized by his co-decree-holders. 62 C. L. J. 560. After a sale is duly held, the Court cannot refuse to confirm the sale on the ground that the decree-holder and the judgment-debtor say that the decree has been satisfied out of Court. A.I.R. 1931 P. Decree-holder may accept and parties may record an adjustment agreement itself to perform something else. A.I.R. 1937 Cal. 222. Where an agreement clearly reduces the amount of the decree by reason of certain arrangements between the parties, it is an adjustment of the decree. A. I. R. 1921 Pat. 135=2 P.L.T. 765=9 P. L. J 337=63 Ind. Cas. 535. The executing Court cannot enlarge, extend or modify the decree even by consent of parties subsequent to the decree unless it is an adjustment of the decree contemplated by Order XXI, r. 2. A. I. R. 1922 Cal. 311=27 C. W. N. 280=38 C. L. J. 17=71 Ind. Cas. 378. An agreement discharging liability under the decree by substituting a new liability under the agreement may properly be held to be step of adjustment of the decree. A. I. R. 1926 Oudh 385=29 O. C. 26=94 Ind. Cas. 317. Adjustment not certified can be proved by judgment-debtor for proving that assignee of decree-holder is benamidar for judgment-debtor. A.I.R. 1924 Mad. 189=18 L. W. 453=76 Ind. Cas. 845. When an award is filed subject to terms agreed upon between the parties and has been entered as part satisfaction of the award execution can be taken for balance of the award. A. I. R. 1921 Sind 132=16 S. L. R. 245=79 Ind. Cas. 477. An adjustment need not be in writing. If the parties make a final and binding agreement with regard to the decree then it amounts to an adjustment. If, on the other hand, the finality of the agreement or compromise is conditional on the future acts of the parties; as for instance, the execution of documents then the agreement is still in the executing stage and does not come within the definition of adjustment. A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 544=102 Ind. Cas. 753. Judgment-debtor in bar to execution of a decree against him can plead a pre-decree arrangement that the decree was not to be executed. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 582=48 M. 513=50 M. L. J. 364=(1926) M. W. N. 368=24 L. W. 72=98 Ind. Cas. 428. An adjustment of decree by surety of judgment-debtor with decree-holder may be proved unless there is some bar to its proof. A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 61=108 Ind. Cas. 376. When an adjustment is not certified a Court executing a particular decree is barred by the provisions of sub-rule (3), r. 2, Order XXI, from trying the question of the satisfaction for adjustment of the decree. A. I. R. 1928 Oudh 195=3 Luck. 170=5 O. W. N. 68=108 Ind. Cas. 105. "Otherwise adjusted" in r. 2 (1) of Order XXI, cover an oral adjustment of a decree. A. I. R. 1926 Cal. 643=91 Ind. Cas. 705. A compromise after decree, effecting immovable property worth over Rs. 100 and embodied in a petition presented under Order XXI, r. 2, which has been recorded by the Court is exempt from registration. A. I. R. 1927 Sind 66=97 Ind. Cas. 321. The Court executing a decree is barred from trying the question of the satisfaction or adjustment of the decree when such satisfaction or adjustment has not been certified to the Court under sub-rule (1) or (2) of the same rule. 5 O. W. N. 452=110 Ind. Cas. 244. The adjustment referred to in Order XXI, rule 2, is such an adjustment as completely or partly extinguishes the decree under execution and cannot mean an adjustment to give effect to the terms which would be to create a new decree at variance with the decree under execution and which will again have to be executed. A. I. R. 1928 Cal. 527=32 C. W. N. 434=113 Ind. Cas. 9. Fresh contract otherwise legal though involving promise by judgment-debtor to do something in future is adjustment. 141 Ind. Cas. 429=1932 M. W. N. 840=63 M. L. J. 598=36 M. L. W. 558=56 M. 193=A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 28. Compromise after decree with promise to be performed in future cannot operate as bar to execution and does not amount to adjustment. 132 Ind. Cas. 205=A. I. R. 1931 Lah. 505. Adjustment means alteration of liability under decree. 146 Ind. Cas. 3=A. I. R. 1933 Pat. 576; see also 144 Ind. Cas. 721=A. I. R. 1933 Pesh. 53.

In order to constitute an adjustment which can be recorded under Order 21, rule 2, it is indeed necessary that the arrangement between the parties should extinguish the decree either wholly or in part. A. I. R. 1935 Lah. 595=62 C. 28=158 Ind. Cas. 1074. An agreement to accept a portion of the decretal amount to be paid in instalments in full satisfaction of the decree is an adjustment within the meaning of Order 21, rule 2, and if certified as required by law, then it can be recorded and acted upon if proved. It is not necessary that such an agreement should be reduced to writing and it is open to the Court to accept oral evidence of it. A. I. R. 1935 Bom. 303=37 B. 230=157 Ind. Cas. 646.

Whether an adjustment has been made as contemplated by rule 2 is not a question of law only but a mixed question of law and fact and in such case the question is to be determined from the intention of the parties. The only test to determine whether an adjustment has taken place or not is to find whether the decree has been completely satisfied or not ; if the decree is completely satisfied then the adjustment is complete as required by rule 2 of the order. If it is not complete, Court is not bound to record it. A. I. R. 1935 Lah. 347 ; A. I. R. 1935 Lah. 973.

Soope.—Order XXI, rule 2, is not confined to money decrees only but applies also to a decree for partition. A. I. R. 1928 Cal. 715=117 Ind. Cas. 833 ; see also A. I. R. 1922 Bom. 380=46B. 226=64 Ind. It is not necessary for the application of Order 21, rule 2, that there should be relations of judgment-creditor and judgment-debtor between the parties to an uncertified adjustment at the time of adjustment. A. I. R. 1937 Cal. 31. The words "the decree" in Order 21, rule 2, surely mean "a decree of any kind" and would include a decree for possession of a house. No adjustment of such decree can be recognized by the Court unless it is certified and no application for certification can be made, except within 90 days. A. I. R. 1936 Lah. 842=165 Ind. Cas. 358. The words "of any kind" in sub-rule (1) of Order 21, rule 2, were introduced in the amended Code of Civil Procedure of 1908, in order to get over the conflicts between various High Courts on the question whether or not the mere word "decree" as it originally stood referred only to decrees for payment of money. The term "decree of any kind" means a decree of any kind capable of execution. 14 Pat. 488=185 Ind. Cas. 976=16 Pat. L. T. 311=A. I. R. 1935 Pat. 385. The terms of Order 21, rule 2, C. P. Code, must be understood in the light of the scheme of the Code and with due regard to the scope of Order 23, rule 3. Comparing the terms of Order 23, rule 3 with Order 21, rule 2, one difference is noteworthy. Under the former the Court may not merely order the agreement, compromise or satisfaction to be recorded, but also pass a decree in accordance therewith, whereas under Order 21, rule 2, the Court can only record the adjustment. A Court acting under Order 21, rule 2, cannot pass a fresh executable decree on the agreement of the parties, but further proceedings, if any, in execution, as for instance, when part satisfaction has been recorded, can take place on foot of the original decree. 42 L. Sub-rule (8).—Sub-rule (3) to Order 21, rule 2, C. P. Code, does not give right to decree-holder to ignore any payment against the decretal amount. On the contrary, sub-rule 1, says that he shall certify the payment. The purpose of Order 21, rule 2 (3), which merely prevents the judgment-debtor from pleading an uncertified payment, seems to be to avoid unnecessary delay and to obviate the trial of complicated issues in execution proceedings, which might prevent decree holders from realising promptly the fruit of the decrees. A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 511.

Agreement.—An ulterior agreement that a decree shall not be executed cannot be set up as a bar to execution. Suit can be brought to restrain execution contrary to the agreement. A. I. The part payment of a decree-amount entered in an execution petition presented within three years from the date of such alleged payment will operate, to save limitation under s. 20 of the Limitation Act as it amounts to a certificate of payment under rule 2. A. I. R. 1924 Lah. 670. Where decree-holder applies for entering satisfaction, any one objecting to such certification, must prove that the certification is not bona fide. 35 M.L.J. 252=51 Ind. Form of certification.—A mere admission by decree-holder of part satisfaction and its record by Court is legally sufficient 55 P. L. R. 1919=54 Ind. Cas. 257. Rule 2 (1) governs the case where the decree-holder seeks to certify a payment made to him out of Court by the judgment-debtor. The application need not be distinct from an application for execution of decree. A. I. R. 1922 Cal. 30=35 C. L. J. 71=26 C. W. N. 529=68 Ind. Cas. 780. A casual reference of satisfaction of a decree in a plaint or other civil proceedings is not enough. 13 S. L. R. 130=22 Ind. Cas. 901. An executing Court can take evidence for considering whether the decree-holder has certified satisfaction of the decree. Order XXI, rule 2 (2), enables a Court to recognize a payment or adjustment which has been certified but not recorded. 52 Ind. Cas. 764. Enquiry.—A Court executing a decree cannot enquire into the fact of payment or adjustment which has not been certified as required by Order XXI, rule 2, even if fraud is imputed to the decree-holder. When it appears to the Court that the decree-holder has been acting fraudulently, the Court can examine the merits of an uncertified adjustment when it is pleaded in bar to execution. A. I. Fraud as regards certification.—Executing Court cannot recognise payment made out of Court, if not certified. Notice.—A notice in writing of the payment of the amount due under a decree by the judgment-debtor in Court should be served on the decree-holder like the summons. A. I. R. 1925 Nag. 52=81 Ind. Cas. 1001. Where a case of a judgment-debtor for adjustment of decree was adjourned without notice to the decree-holder and on the day fixed he being absent, an ex parte decree was passed, such order is not justified. 115 Ind. Cas. 467=A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 113=36 P. L. R. 510. Although there is no specific provision in the Code in that behalf, when the decree-holder certifies part satisfaction and the materials put before the Court by the decree-holder are such as to put the Court on notice that there was a dispute between the parties as to whether the amount certified was less than the amount which had been actually paid, it is quite competent for the Court to give notice to the judgment-debtor and enter into an enquiry as to whether more has been paid than that the decree-holder certifies. A. I. R. 1936 Mad. 468=1936 M. W. N. 140=164 Ind. Cas. 434.

Decree-holder filing application for execution and judgment-debtor opposing him on ground of payment made less than 20 days previously but not yet got certified, Court must treat judgment-debtor's petition of objection as application under sub-rule 2, so that bar under sub-rule 3 cannot come into operation. A. I. R. 1930 Pat. 526=9 Pat. 251=11 P. L. T. 763=126 Ind. Cas. 159. In the absence of a certificate of payment decree-holder is entitled in law to execute his decree against the judgment-debtor. A. Where the creditor by taking out a darkhast recovers the decretal amount over again, the judgment-debtor can by suit recover the amount paid to his creditor without its being certified. A. I. R. 1923 Bom. 253=25 Bom. L. R. 247=95 Ind. Cas. 410. Where the payment is made out of Court and is not certified the Court cannot take any legal notice of it. 14 L. R. 859 (Rev.). There is no reason why the position of an assignee decree-holder under Order 21, rule 16, seeking to execute his decree should in any way be inferior to the position of an original decree-holder in regard to the provisions contained in sub-clause (3). A. I. R. 1934 Sind 205. The provisions of Order 21, rule 2 (3), are highly technical in that they preclude, on the execution side, proof of a payment or adjustment which has not been certified or recorded according to sub-rules (1) and (2). These provisions must therefore, be construed very strictly. A. I. R. 1935 Nag. 230. Until the name of the transferee of a decree is formally substituted in place of the original decree-holder, the decree-holder referred to in Order 21, rule 2 (1), is the only person in whose favour the decree is passed and whose name stands on the face of the decree in the record of the Court. Transferee of the decree is not a decree-holder unless he is recognized by the Court. Where therefore an adjustment embodied in an agreement is made by the judgment-debtors with the transferee of a decree when he is not brought on the record as the decree-holder in place of the original decree-holder, Order 21, rule 2 (2), does not impose upon the judgment-debtors, the duty of having the adjustment recorded as certified and adjustment can be successfully pleaded as a bar to the execution in spite of the fact that it is not certified. A. I. R. 1935 Nag. 230. Any satisfaction of a decree the report of which has not been made in the suit or in execution proceedings connected therewith and where it has also been certified or recorded within the meaning of Order 21, rule 2 (3), cannot be recognized by the executing Court. 39 C. W. N. 961 ; see also A. I. R. 1935 Rang. 481. The obvious policy of the legislature is to prevent a controversy during execution proceedings as to whether the dispute between the parties has been settled and the legislature enacting Order 21, rule 2, has used words which are of widest application. A. I. R. 1936 Pat. 253=162 Ind. Cas. 482. Sub-rule (3) is mandatory and means that if there is a question of any payment in satisfaction of the decree or adjustment of the decree which has not been certified, the Court shall refuse to recognize it in execution proceedings. Sub-clause (3) clearly contemplates a certification before the objection is taken to the execution on the basis of adjustment, etc. A. I. R. 1930 Pat. 253=162 Ind. Cas. 482. A claim for restitution under s. 144, before it is allowed by the Court of first instance, cannot be regarded as a decree or order of the Court. An adjustment of a claim to restitution does not therefore come within the provisions of Order 21, rule 2 and the Court is not precluded from taking into consideration such adjustment on the ground that it is certified. A. I. R. 1936 Mad. 840=71 M. L. J. 344=1936 M. W. N. 758.

Mortgage decree.—A final decree in a mortgage suit can also be adjusted under Order XXI, rule 2. A. I. R. 1923 Nag. 20=68 Ind. Cas. 443. An uncertified adjustment of the preliminary mortgage-decree cannot be pleaded in bar to the execution of the final decree though the adjustment was made in pursuance of the arrangement entered into, before the passing of the preliminary decree. 37 M. L. J. 356=54 Ind. Cas. 137. Even after a mortgage-decree a judgment-debtor can in the execution Court plead to the effect that something has taken place since the passing of the decree which amounts to a partial satisfaction of the decree. If such a plea be entered in the execution Court can enquire into the same and continue the execution proceedings, in respect of so much only of the decree which it finds after inquiry to be still unsatisfied. A. I. R. 1924 All. 297=21 A. L. J. 818=83 Ind. Cas. 832; see also 5 Pat. L. J. 672=1 P. L. T. 416=57 Ind. Cas. 473. Application to make a decree absolute in a mortgage suit is not a proceeding in execution, and sub-rule (3) does not prevent the Court from recognising an uncertified payment or adjustment made out of Court. 14 Pat. 488=16 Pat. Payment of decretal amount.—The Court is not bound to record a payment when it is not satisfied that such payment has been made. A. I. R. 1928 Rang. 185=6 Rang. 218=111 Ind. Cas. 371. Where a decree is admitted by the decree-holder to be satisfied it ceases to exist as a decree capable of execution and the confirmation of sale, which is a proceeding in execution should not be ordered. Under rule 2 payment need not both be certified and recorded but should either be certified or recorded to enable the executing Court to recognize payment made by judgment-debtor. A. I. A specific provision of the Code, that a plea of payment cannot be recognised when it has not been previously certified, or rather not certified within the time allowed by law cannot be overridden by Court's general power of considering questions between parties to a decree and evidence is not admissible to prove fact of payment. A. I. R. 1926 Oudh 620=91 Ind. Cas. 979. For certification deposit by judgment-debtor of decretal amount under Order XXI, r. 89, to prevent confirmation of sale, though made after 30 days of sale, can be treated as payment under Order XXI, r. 2. A. I. R. 1925 Nag. 17=79 Ind. Cas. 903. Where the defendant in reply to an execution application alleges an adjustment within ninety days of the alleged adjustment that information given to the Court in a written statement put in by defendant in answer to an application for application for execution may be regarded as a sufficient compliance within the terms of Order 21, rule 2(2). On such an application for recording adjustment can be entertained by the executing Court. A. I. R. 1935 Bom. 303=37 Bom. L. R. 230. In an application under Order 21, rule 2(2), the burden is on the judgment-debtor to prove the adjustment set up. 1935 A. M. L. J. 97. Where the judgment-debtor pleads that the decree-holder has accepted a smaller sum that was due to him under the decree in full satisfaction of it, s. 92 of the Evidence Act does not bar him from proving such adjustment

Where petition contains a prayer for transfer of decree and for handing over decree, papers to applicant, the latter prayer is no "distinct subject" and double Court-fee is not required. A. I. There is no justification for the view that if the mode of transfer laid down in Order 21, r. 5, is not strictly followed, the proceedings of the Court, to which the decree is transferred must of necessity be without jurisdiction. 164 Ind. Cas. 917; see also 64 C. L. J. 47=A. I. R. 1936 Cal. 571; A. I. R. 1936 Lah. 765=164 Ind. Cas. 693=38 P. L. R. 505.

6. [S. 224.] The Court sending a decree Procedure where Court desires that its own decree shall for execution shall send—be executed by another Court.

- (a) a copy of the decree;
- (b) a certificate setting forth that satisfaction of the decree has not been obtained by execution within the jurisdiction of the Court by which it was passed, or, where the decree has been executed in part, the extent to which satisfaction has been obtained and what part of the decree remains unsatisfied; and
- (c) a copy of any order for the execution of the decree, or, if no such order has been made, a certificate to that effect.

N. B.—For local amendments in Allahabad, Oudh, Peshwar and Rangoon.—Vide infra.

Scope.—Decree papers should be handed over to the judgment-creditor on his applying for the same unless he is a person not fit to be treated with such paper. A. I. R. 1933 Sind 343. Omission to send a certificate does not affect jurisdiction of Court to entertain application. 134 Ind. Cas. 944=35 C. W. N. 308=A. I. R. 1931 Cal. 649. Where two Courts are presided over by the same Judge it is not necessary to transfer the decree to himself with all necessary documents. A. I. R. 1928 Rang. 15=5 Rang. 613=105 Ind. Cas. 654. Where decree is transferred to another Court for execution, the transferring Court can again transfer the decree to a third Court. A. I. R. 1928 Nag. 29=23 N. L. R. 125=101 Ind. Cas. 279. The decree of a Native State coming within the purview of s. 44 does not cease to be a foreign judgment. 40 B. 551=18 Bom. L. R. 486=36 Ind. Cas. 363. Where certificate is issued by the Court passing the decree and transferring it to another Court for execution, notice to execute the decree can only be issued by the Court of transfer. 26 C. W. N. 292=63 Ind. Cas. 116. Where decree has been transferred, the decree-holder cannot be compelled to make a second application for execution in the transferee Court. A. I. R. 1924 Pat. 120=2 Pat. 909=5 Pat. L. T. 11=74 Ind. Cas. 753. If the Court transferring the decree puts a wrong construction on the decree in the certificate, the judgment-debtor need not be directed to approach that Court for getting it amended. Any such order passed by the executing Court is ultra vires and an interference in revision is justified. A. I. R. 1925 Pat. 807=4 Pat. 440=7 Pat. L. T. 456=93 Ind. Cas. 257. Where execution has been transferred, application under s. 73 can be entertained by original Court. A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 113.

7. [S. 225.] The Court to which a decree is so sent shall cause such Court receiving copies of decree, etc., to file the same without proof. copies and certificates to be filed, without any further proof of the decree or order for execution or of the copies thereof, unless the Court for any special reasons to be recorded under the hand of the Judge requires such proof.

Scope.—Where decree is transferred for execution, executing Court is not competent to question the validity of decree. A. I. R. 1931 All. 192=(1930) A. L. J. 1552=131 Ind. Cas. 244; see also A. I. Decision of decreeing Court as to who is plaintiff or appellant in decreeing Court is final, executing Court cannot question it. A. I. R. 1930 Bom. 141=31 Bom. L. R. 1254=54 B. 95=124 Ind. Cas. 236. An executing Court to which a decree is sent for execution can refuse to execute a decree which on the face of it, is absolutely bad and a nullity. A. I. R. 1930 Rang. 337=129 Ind. Cas. 519. Where the decree is against a dead person, the Court to whom the decree is transferred can also refuse to execute decree as being nullity. A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 117. Otherwise, the transferee Court cannot question either the validity of the decree or the jurisdiction of the Court passing the decree. 131 Ind. Cas. 244=1930 A. L. J. 1552=53 A. I. R. 1931 All. 52; 138 Ind. Cas. 376=33 P. L. R. 725=A. I. R. 1932 Lah. 601; 136 Ind. Cas. 353=1931 A. L. J. 653=53 A. 747=A. I. R. 1931 All. 689; 142 Ind. Cas. 643=37 M. L. W. 358=1933 M. W. N. 187=A. I. R. 1933 All. 751=17 R. D. 571. Executing Court can refuse execution if decree is passed without jurisdiction. But want of jurisdiction must be patent. 142 Ind. Cas. 487=A. I. R. 1933 Nag. 211. The general powers of Court to which decree is transferred for execution are same as those of Court that passed the decree. A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 652. A Court to which a decree has been transferred for execution under Order 21, rule 7, has no power to go behind the decree and to question, or to enquire into the jurisdiction of the Court which passed the decree. 38 Bom. L. R. 1023; see also 13 Pat. 17=A. I. R. 1934 Pat. 203=151 Ind. Cas. 368. Under Order 21, rule 7, the executing Court has no right to enquire suo motu proof of the jurisdiction of the Court which passed the decree when copies of the decree, order for execution, etc. are forwarded to it under Order 21, r. 6. But Order 21, r. 7, does not seem to deal with the powers of an executing Court to deal with an objection as to jurisdiction if it raised on behalf of the judgment-debtor. The general powers of a Court, to which a decree is transferred for execution are under s. 42, C. P. Code, the same as those of the Court which passed the decree and there is no reason for holding that the transferee Court is debarred from taking cognizance of objections as to jurisdiction, of which the Court which transferred the decree could take cognizance. 152 Ind. Cas. 135=35 P. L. R. 482=A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 652. Where a Munsiff was incompetent to pass the final decree, firstly, because he did not possess the necessary pecuniary powers and secondly, because he lacked inherent jurisdiction in as much as the so-called preliminary decree had been passed by the Subordinate Judge, and the case had never been transferred to the Munsiff's Court, and further because the compromise decree was in fact a final decree which had completely decided the suit, the decree passed by the Munsiff is a mere nullity because he lacked inherent jurisdiction to take cognizance of the matter and that in such a case the executing Court can go into the question of the validity of the decree i.e. as to lack of inherent jurisdiction and refuse to execute it. A. I. R. 1934 Oudh 75 (F. B.)=11 O. W. N. 169=147 Ind. Cas. 1209=9 Luck. 435.

8. [S. 226.] Where such copies are so filed, the decree or order may, if the Court to which it is sent is the District Court, be executed by such Court or be transferred for execution to any subordinate Court of competent jurisdiction.

Notes.—The District Court to which a decree is transferred cannot transfer it to some other District Court for execution. 21 W. R. 337; 3 C. 512; 8 I. A. 165. A subordinate Court of a District is entitled to execute a transferred decree by the order of the District Court. 22 C. 764. An order under this rule forwarding a decree for execution to a subordinate Court by the District Court need not be signed by the latter. 23 C. 480; 5 Ind. Cas. 155=7 M. L. T. 132. Where a decree is transmitted by a Court, having jurisdiction over the property to which it relates, to a Court having no jurisdiction over it, the latter Court cannot execute the same. 33 M. L. J. 750=23 M. L. T. 24=(1918) M. W. N. 132=43 Ind. Cas. 79. The words "competent jurisdiction" under Order 21, rule 8, mean "competent to sell in execution" and is not referable to territorial jurisdiction. 152 Ind. Cas. 891=1934 M. W. N. 878=40 L. W. 284=A. I. R. 1934 Mad. 573.

9. [S. 227.] Where the Court to which the decree is sent for execution is a High Court, the decree shall be executed by such Court in the same manner as if it had been passed by such Court in the exercise of its ordinary original civil jurisdiction.

Local Amendment in Burma.—For "a High Court" read "the High Court".—Vide G. B. Order of 1937.

Notes.—The functions of the High Court in respect of the execution of a decree of another Court, are limited to effecting execution and to the matters arising out of the proceedings in execution. 6 B. L. R. App. 66. As regards the meaning of the words "ordinary jurisdiction," vide 13 B. 520. Where decree passed by Small Cause Court is transferred to High Court for execution, High Court cannot make decree payable by instalment. A. I. R. 1934 Rang. 197.

Application for Execution.

10. [S. 230, first para.] Where the holder of a decree desires to execute it, he shall apply to the Court which passed the decree or to the officer (if any) appointed in this behalf, or if the decree has been sent under the provisions hereinbefore contained to another Court then to such Court or to the proper officer thereof.

Soope.—In case of decree transferred for execution, application is necessary to execute the decree. A. I. R. 1924 Nag. 413=80 Ind. Cas. 59. An application for transfer of a decree for execution by another Court is not a substantive application for execution. The transmission order in such a case is ministerial and not a judicial order. A. I. R. 1935 Lah. 508=158 Ind. Cas. 127. Where decree is transferred for execution application for execution must be made to the transferee Court and not to the transferring Court. A. I. R. 1931 Lah. 14=130 Ind. Cas. 521. Decree-holder cannot be compelled to make a second application for the execution of the decree in the Court to which the decree is transferred if he has already made an application in the Court which passed the decree. A. I. R. 1924 Pat. 120=2 Pat. 909=5 P. L. T. 11=74 Ind. Cas. 753. Where decree has been subsequently amended, fresh notice is necessary. 1930 M. W. N. 166. Application made by decree-holder merely to issue notice to the judgment-debtor to pay the decretal amount is not illegal. A. I. R. 1929 Rang. 95=116 Ind. Cas. 474. Application for the transfer of the execution of the decree is not an application for execution but an application to take a step-in-aid of execution under Art. 181, Limitation Act. A. I. R. 1926 All 473=94 Ind. Cas. 482. The power to make an order for simultaneous or concurrent execution of a decree in more Courts than one is different from the power of transferring Court to order execution after the decree is transferred for execution. A. I.

R. 1927 Cal. 581=31 C. W. N. 653=102 Ind. Cas. 513. Applications presented after the termination of the suit are not within the rule. 8 L. W. 21=41 M. 410=48 Ind. Cas. 840. Where after attachment of property in execution of decree for money, it is transferred to the local limits of the jurisdiction of another Court, the new Court having territorial jurisdiction over the property attached can entertain an application for execution. A. I. R. 1929 Mad. 852=125 Ind. Cas. 90=30 L. W. 649. Where decree has been transferred to another Court for execution and the decree-holder in anticipation a few days before the actual arrival of the decree, application was held incompetent. A. I. R. 1931 Mad. 103=(1930) M. W. N. 568=130 Ind. Cas. 458. Where a decree has been affirmed in appeal the decree of the first Court as affirmed by the Court of appeal should be executed. 129 Ind. Decree-holder applying for execution is not required to satisfy Court that provision in decree sought to be enforced is provision in his favour. 138 Ind. Cas. 832=34 Bom. L. R. 670=A. I. R. 1932 Bom. 378. Execution application against dead judgment-debtor is not step-in-aid of execution. A. I. R. 1934 All. 463. Where a decree is passed in favour of three persons awarding them separate costs, a joint application for separate amounts due to them is maintainable; and it is obviously more convenient for the purposes of attachment and sale that for the execution of a single decree there should be a single application and a single procedure of attachment and a single procedure of sale, otherwise if there were a multiplicity of applications and attachments and sales there would be considerable confusion. A. I. R. 1935 All. 402=157 Ind. Cas. 429. Where a decree is transferred for execution without any reservation, the original Court has no longer the power to execute the decree until and unless the decree is returned by the transferee Court with a certificate of non-satisfaction. It is, however, open to the original Court to re-transfer the proceedings to itself or to some other Court. 152 Ind. Cas. 128=A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 728=35 P. L. R. 751.

11. [Ss. 256, 235.] (1) Where a decree is for the payment of money

(2) Save as otherwise, provided by sub-rule (1) every application for the execution of a decree shall be in writing signed

(3) The Court to which an application is made under sub-rule (2) may require the applicant to produce a certified copy of the decree.

Sub-section (1).—In cases of applications for execution the primary consideration must be the interest of the decree-holder and where interests are likely to be jeopardised by the granting of any application for time, Courts have no option but to execute the decree. The Courts have power to stay execution against the person for such time as it thinks reasonable unless there is something in the Code which prohibits such power. A. I. R. 1925 Mad. 42=48 M. 494=20 L. W. 175=84 Ind. Cas. 134 An order made at the time of the decree, continuing an interim attachment—in the absence of any formal application for execution—cannot be treated as an order in execution entitling the sheriff to a poundage, even where such an order was followed by an application for the sale of the attached property on the ground that they were perishable. 40 C. W. N. 1317.

Sub-section (2).—Appellate decree whether confirming, varying or reversing the decree of the original Court is the only decree capable of execution. A fresh application for execution is necessary. A. I. R. 1930 Bom. 225=32 Bom. L. R. 300=127 Ind. Cas. 199. Where decree-holder desires to execute his decree by the arrest and detention in prison of the judgment-debtor, the executing Court cannot deprive him of his right and compel him to accept payment in instalments. A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 220=30 P. L. R. 736=125 Ind. Cas. 61. The verification need not be signed by all the decree-holders when there are more than one. A. I. R. 1924 Pat. 23=2 Pat. 809=4 Pat. L. T. 513=(1923) Pat. 229=1 P. L. R. 453=74 Ind. Cas. 174. This rule is no bar to the maintenance of concurrent execution. A. I. R. 1923 Pat. 224=2 Pat. 328=4 Pat. L. T. 99=(1923) Pat. 61=71 Ind. Cas. 741. Defect in not mentioning the date of disposal of a previous application for execution is not material where numbers of execution case are given. Where cross-decree could not be set-off it need not be mentioned. A. I. R. 1924 Cal. 398=71 Ind. Cas. 1054. Where decree-holders deliberately refrained from mentioning a previous adjustment in their application for execution application was held not in accordance with law. A. I. R. 1924 Nag. 185=78 Ind. Cas. 291 ; see also A. I. R. 1926 Nag. 164=89 Ind. Cas. 1009. Omission to state in the application for execution names of all the persons interested in the decree, is not such a decree as would invalidate the execution proceedings. A. I. R. 1926 Cal. 811=30 C. W. N. 562=96 Ind. Cas. 692. Where the property is described in the plaint and in the mortgage-decree and a plan of the property is also on the record, it is doubtful whether an application in the form prescribed under Order 21, rule 11, is in every case necessary. A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 58=149 Ind. Cas. 1066.

Order rejecting application which is not accompanied by process-fee, is a mistake. Proper course is to order the decree-holder to file process-fee within reasonable time. A. I. R. 1930 Oudh 65=6 O. W. N. 1064=124 Ind. Cas. 445. Where a decree-holder disappears but his death cannot be legally presumed, his pleader can under rule 11 (2), file an application for execution. A. I. Where pleader signed and verified the execution application being under the impression that decree-holder was still a minor while he was in reality a major, his action was held bona fide and his application was held valid. A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 603. Where an application for execution, though not signed and verified by the decree-holder, but signed and verified by the pleader in the original suit it is a valid application. A. I. R. 1929 Bom. 196=(1929) Bom. 430=31 Bom. L. R. 355=117 Ind. Cas. 526. When after a decree (in this case an award under the Co-operative Societies Act) the Court accepts a compromise arrived at between the parties to the effect that the decretal amount will be paid by instalments and dismisses the execution case in terms of such compromise, the order must be deemed to be one made under Order 20, rule 11 (2), C. P. Code, and although passed on an application made after six months of the decree, it would be binding till set aside in appropriate proceedings. 41 C. W. N. 480.

Application praying only for rateable distribution is not a valid application for execution. A. I. R. 1929 Nag. 148=25 N. L. J. 94=12 N. L. J. 64=116 Ind. Cas. 655. Except in a case where the decree itself directs the appointment of a Receiver, no decree-holder has a right to ask for the appointment of a Receiver only. A. I. R. 1929 Mad. 20=114 Ind. Cas. 839. Any method suggested for the satisfaction of decree not actually prohibited by law falls within the purview of r. 11 (2) (j) (v). A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 7=111 Ind. Cas. 259. Where a sum has been paid up, and the interest on the sum has been waived, the decree-holder's application to execute the decree should be dismissed. A. I. R. 1929 Rang. 182=119 Ind. Executing Court has an inherent power to stay or defer the issue or operation of its own processes in cases demanding the exercise of such power in the interest of justice. A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 581=31 C. W. N. 653=102 Ind. Cas. 513. The decree-holder has the right to execute his decree in the manner he desires. Court has no reason to refuse to allow the decree-holder to attach and sell the library and office furniture of a pleader. A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 153=28 P. L. R. 86=99 Ind. Cas. 291. It is not reasonable to compel debtors to pay their debts by means which will deprive them of their livelihood, if there is available an alternative method which will be reasonably fair to the creditor. A. I. R. 1925 Rang. 33=3 Bur. L. J. 97=82 Ind. Cas. 827. Where application was filed on the last day, and time was given to the applicant for supplying the defects without fixing any date the application was held to be time-barred. A. I. Where an application was in form prescribed by the Civil Rules of Practice but filed under Order XXI, rule 11, with the main particulars required by the rule and the Court overlooking the want of form passed an order granting the relief prayed for, the application is in execution. A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 129=107 Ind. Cas. 298. Where application for execution was put in by decree-holder's son without power-of-attorney but the judgment-debtor did not object and the power-of-attorney was presented a month before the application for execution would have been time-barred, the application for execution was held to be a proper application. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 478=113 Ind. Cas. 781.

Whether an omission is or is not material will depend on the facts of the particular case. Omission to specify all the previous applications with their dates and their results is not material irregularity such as would render the whole of the execution proceedings illegal. A. I. R. 1926 Cal. 1145=96 Ind. Cas. 554. Proceedings in execution are proceedings in continuation of the suit and as such fresh vakalatnama is not required. A. I. R. 1925 Pat. 692=7 P. L. The pleaders, who represented the client in the case, out of which the execution proceedings arise, must be held to be a person who is acquainted with the facts of the case. The application in execution signed and verified by such pleader is therefore a compliance with r. 11 (2), O. 21, C. P. Code. A. I. R. 1934 Nag. 224. Application need not be verified in the presence of Court even where application for execution is made by a person other than the decree-holder. All that is necessary is that the Court should be satisfied that the person who signed the verified application is acquainted with the facts of the case. A. I. R. 1924 Cal. 811=28 C. W. N. 687=80 Ind. Cas. 313. Where application for execution was rejected wrongly as not being in accordance with law, but the decree-holder acquiesced in it, the application can be of no avail to save limitation for further execution proceedings. Scope.—In the case of attachment of Revenue paying estate, the judgment-creditor must supply the information mentioned in the rule, 11 W. R. 175. (2) Where the Court sees sufficient cause for allowing the decree to be executed on an application made under this rule it shall make such order as it deems necessary for protecting the interests of the persons who have not joined in the application.

Scope.—One decree determining rights of several parties is a joint decree. 139 Ind. Cas. 397=A. I. R. 1932 Pat. 261=11 Pat. 445=13 P. L. T. 719. Order 21 rule 15, C.P. Where out of four joint decree-holders two decree-holders have themselves applied for execution, and the third decree-holder has admitted payment, and the remaining decree-holder has taken no interest in the proceedings, the Court is fully justified in permitting execution by the decree-holders without making any order as to calling the other decree-holder. Ibid. In the absence of anything definite to show to the contrary the purchase made by a joint decree-holder, though in his own name, would undoubtedly be in favour of all the persons interested in the joint-bond which had been utilized in the acquisition of the property. Hence where a decree is passed in favour of two brothers and only one of them signs the execution application and purchases property in execution, the other brother is also entitled to a share in the property. Scope.—This rule only contemplates the occasion when the assignee from a judgment-creditor comes before the Court to apply for execution for the first time; it does not apply each time he comes to get the decree executed. A. I. R. 1934 Rang. 101; see also 131 Ind. Cas. 171. In case of transfer of decretal rights, original decree-holder can still execute until name of transferee is substituted. A. I. R. 1934 Pesh. 40. The provisions contained in rule 16 does not mean that the Court, which passed the decree and to which an application has to be made for execution by a transferee of the decree, ceases to be an execution Court. The application for the transferee must be an application for execution of a decree. 149 Ind. Cas. 218=A. I. R. 1934 All. 445. Assignee is entitled to execution if conditions are satisfied. A. I. Where execution application by assignee is presented in wrong Court, defect is one of procedure and the judgment-debtor acquiescing by not raising objection cannot challenge legality of proceeding. (d) A, B, C, D and E are jointly and severally liable for Rs. 1,000 under a decree obtained by F. A obtains a decree for Rs. 100 against F singly and applies for execution to the Court in which the joint-decree is being executed. F may treat his joint-decree as a cross-decree under this rule.

Scope.—The provisions of the Civil Procedure Code regarding a set-off are contained in rr. 18 and 19, Order 21. It is clear that those rules have been specifically restricted in their application and unless a case can be brought strictly within the terms of those provisions, no set-off can be allowed even under the inherent power of the Court. A. I. R. 1937 Pesh. 83. Principles of proceeding under the rule is the same as under Order VIII, r. 6. A. I. R. 1931 Cal. 23=57 C. 855=129 Ind. Cas. 420. Barred debt cannot be set-off and equity does not help against the rule. 21. C. W. N. 114=40 Ind. Cas. 816. This rule does not provide that all decrees outstanding in the same Court must necessarily be set-off against each other. It merely provides that when two rival applications for execution are pending, execution must be carried out by satisfaction of the smaller decree and partial satisfaction to the same extent of the larger decree. A. I. R. 1935 Lah. 914.* This rule applies only where both the decrees which are sought to be set off against each other are before the Court for execution (i. e., there must be applications for execution from the holders of the two decrees) and each of the decrees must be capable of execution at the same times by the Court. A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 587. Set-off can be claimed even of attached decree against attaching decree-holder.

A. I. R. 1929 All. 502=117 Ind. Cas. 103. This rule applies only to decrees for execution before the same Court. A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 508=126 Ind. Cas. 516. Mortgage decree for sale under which debt is recoverable only out of the property is not ordinary decree for sale in enforcement of mortgage cannot be set off against personal decree. A. I. Defendant cannot set off his preliminary decree for sale, the amount not being ascertained until accounts are taken. A. I. R. 1931 Cal. 23=57 C. 855=129 Ind. Cas. 420. Pre-emption decree-holder is entitled to deduct costs awarded to him, from deposit made by him. A. I. R. 1922 Lah. 142=2 Lah. 294=4 Lah. L. J. 354=23 P. L. R. 1922=65 Ind. Cas. 250. Decree in proceeding under s. 144 is capable of set-off under the rule. A. I. R. 1925 Cal. 102=28 C. W. N. 988=84 Ind. Cas. 747. Attaching decree-holders are assignees as contemplated by Order XXI, rule 18(2). Ibid. Decree for costs awarded to a person by appellate Court if smaller than amount due from him under lower Court's decree, cannot be executed until the latter amount is paid. 46 C. 168=27 C. L. J. 392=45 Ind. Cas. 241. Decree in favour of partners individually can be set-off against decree against firm having same individual as all the partners. A. I. R. 1927 Bom. 255=29 Bom. L. R. 396=104 Ind. Cas. 319. Where there has been an attachment of decree by the judgment-debtor, the decree-holder can still execute his decree after giving set-off judgment-debtor's decree. A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 140. Right of set-off cannot be claimed unless both decrees are before same Court for execution. 145 Ind. Cas. 767=A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 215. Decree to be adjusted by set-off should be capable of execution at time of adjustment. A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 372. A set-off cannot be allowed against the transferee of a decree. 138 Ind. Cas. 285=33 P. L. R. 671=A. I. R. 1932 Lah. 537. If personal remedy is barred this rule ceases to apply. 143 Ind. Cas. 542=14 P. L. T. 189=A. I. R. 1933 Pat. 210. Where there are cross-decrees under Order 21, rule 18, a smaller decree must always be set-off against the larger decree and if the smaller decree is attached by some other decree-holder that other decree-holder has no greater right than the decree-holder whose decree has been attached and the attaching decree-holder cannot claim that he has a right to execute the smaller decree in spite of the existence of a larger decree held by the judgment-debtor. In other words, the rule laid down by Order 21, rule 18, must be first applied before any question can arise for ratable distribution under s. 73. A. I. R. 1937 All. 422. Where there are two execution cases pending before the Court at the same time in respect of cross-decrees, the decree-holder for the larger amount is entitled to set-off the amount of the smaller decree. 38 C. W. N. 1087=59 C. L. J. 500; A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 820=152 Ind. Cas. 889. An agreement between two parties, who had filed cross-suits, was to the effect that after the decrees in their respective suits were passed, the party who was entitled to the larger amount should pursue execution of the decree in his favour to the extent of the excess amount: Held that Order 21, rule 18, did not apply and the set-off thereof would not be a set-off as contemplated by the provisions of the C. P. Code but only as agreed to by the parties to the proceedings, where the two suits were proceeding. A. I. R. 1934 Bom. 307=36 Bom. L. R. 643. An attaching decree-holder cannot be treated as an assignee within the meaning of this rule. A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 587=1935 M. W. N. 415=42 L. W. 767=156 Ind. Cas. 477.

Execution in case of cross-claims under same decree.

19. [S. 247.] Where application is made to a Court for the execution of a decree under which two parties are entitled to recover sums of money from each other, then,—

(a) if the two sums are equal, satisfaction for both shall be entered upon the decree; and,

(b) if the two sums are unequal, execution may be taken out only by the party entitled to the larger sum and for so much only as remains after deducting the smaller sum, and satisfaction for the smaller sum, shall be entered upon the decree.

Scope.—Two parties referred to in the rule are the parties to suit and do not refer to two different representatives of the same party. A. I. R. 1923 Mad. 638= (1923) M. W. N. 474=44 M. L. J. 590=72 Ind. Cas. 865. Decree in suit cannot be set off against that for costs awarded to defendant on objection to attachment. A. I. R. 1930 All. 726=127 Ind. Cas. 525. Claim springing from compromise entered into to put an end to all disputes between parties and not contemplating another action is properly within the rule though the decree merely declares rights of parties without directing any act to be done. A.I.R. 1923 Lah. 151=73 Ind. Cas. 318. Amount of costs and mesne profits until delivery can be set-off against amount of deposit ordered by pre-emption decree. A. I. R. 1930 All. 413=126 Ind. Cas. 831. Deducting of smaller sum under Order XXI, r. 19, if not made by applicant, can be compelled by Court under s. 151 by ordering refund of the excess. 24 C. W. N. 465=56 Ind. Cas. 783. The executing Court has inherent power to give effect to a claim of set-off, although the case does not come within the strict terms of this rule. 39 C. W. N. 106=60 C. L. J. 281; A. I. R. 1936 Cal. 409; see also A. I. R. 1936 Mad. 626=71 M. L. J. 506=1936 M. W. N. 703.

20. [New.] The provisions contained in rules 18 and 19 shall apply Cross-decrees and cross- to decrees for sale in enforcement of a mortgage claims in mortgage-suits. or charge.

Scope.—In order to ascertain whether decrees are cross-decrees or not, the substance of the decree must be looked into and not the form. 143 Ind. Cas. 542=14 P. L. T. 189=A. I. R. 1933 Pat. 210 (2). For principle of set-off it is not necessary that both decrees must be mortgage decrees. Ibid. In mortgage decree, this rule applies if personal remedy is legally available. It is not necessary that personal liability should exist under the decree. Ibid.; see also 140 Ind. Cas. 378=36 M. L. W. 644=1932 M. W. N. 1187=63 M. L. J. 722=56 M. 339=A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 63. Right of set-off is not lost merely because Court is asked to notify encumbrance of decree. 143 Ind. Cas. 542=14 P. L. T. 189=A. I. R. 1933 Pat. 210. Court has ample discretion under the rule and where it is properly exercised, High Court will not interfere. 132 Ind. Cas. 507=33 Bom. L. R. 370=A. I. R. 1931 Bom. 247. The operation of Order 21, r. 20, C. P. Code, is not limited to cases where both decrees are mortgage decrees or to personal judgments such as may be given under Order 34, r. 6. There may be a set-off of a mortgage decree against a decree for money. 41 C. W. N. 449 (P. C.); A. I. R. 1937 P. C. 39. All that rule 20 lays down is that the provisions of rules 18 and 19 shall apply to cross-mortgage-decrees. There is nothing in the provisions of rule 20 which will warrant the Court in holding that a decree obtained on the footing of a mortgage became a decree for payment of money and therefore it can be set-off against a simple money decree held by the opposite party. A. I. R. 1936 All. 639=1936 A. L. J. 562=162 Ind. Cas. 289. All that rule 20 lays down is that the provisions of rules 18 and 19 shall apply to cross-mortgage decrees i.e., if two contending parties hold mortgage decrees against each other then they will be able to set-off decrees one against the other. 162 Ind. Cas. 289=1936 A. L. J. 562=A. I. R. 1936 All. 639.

21. [S. 230, second para.] The Court may, in its discretion refuse execution at the same time against the person and Simultaneous execution. property of the judgment-debtor.

Scope.—Court can refuse simultaneous execution against person and property but cannot refuse execution against person by insisting first proceeding against property. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 86=110 Ind. Cas. 185; A. I. R. 1934 Nag. 140. Discretion under the rule also applies in case of attachment before judgment. A. I. R. 1924 Rang. 381=2 Rang. 362=3 Bur. L. J. 159=84 Ind. Cas. 270. The Code gives the decree-holder the right to decide whether he should execute the decree in one way or the other or both. If the Court considers he should not exercise the right in the manner he desires, it must give reasons. It is not enough to say that there is property against which he may proceed and therefore he must proceed against that first. A. I. R. 1934 Nag. 140=150 Ind. Cas. 95.

Notice to show cause again t 22. [S. 248] (1) Where an application execution in certain cases. for execution is made—

(a) more than one year after the date of the decree, or

(b) against the legal representative of a party to the decree, "or where an application is made for execution of a decree filed under the provisions of section 44A."* the Court executing the decree shall issue a notice to the person against whom execution is applied for requiring him to show cause, on a date to be fixed, why the decree should not be executed against him :

Provided that no such notice shall be necessary in consequence of more than one year having elapsed between the date of the decree and the application for execution if the application is made within one year from the date of the last order against the party against whom execution is applied for, made on any previous application for execution, or in consequence of the application being made against the legal representative of the judgment-debtor, if upon a previous application for execution against the same person the Court has ordered execution to issue against him.

(2) Nothing in the foregoing sub-rule shall be deemed to preclude the Court from issuing any process in execution of a decree without issuing the notice thereby prescribed, if, for reasons to be recorded, it considers that the issue of such notice would cause unreasonable delay or would defeat the ends of justice.

A stay Order under Order 21, rule 29, is purely a matter of discretion. When an order is purely discretionary, the Appellate Court, as a rule will not interfere with the discretion of the Judge who passed it. A. I. R. 1935 Rang. 151 ; 159 Ind. Cas. 495=A. I. R. 1935 Rang. 389. Rule 29 is permissive. A discretionary power cannot be exercised in such a way as to override an imperative duty. A. I. R. 1935 Rang. 151=13 Rang. 351=156 Ind. Cas. 521. Order 21, rule 29, embraces every kind of suits which is maintainable. There is no limitation in the rule. Once it is conceded that a suit is maintainable, the procedure laid down in rule 29 is at once attracted. The object of the rule is that, should a plaintiff in a pending suit succeed therein, then there can be an adjustment of the decree or claim by that plaintiff against the decree obtained against him in the other suit in the same Court without it being necessary for the successful plaintiff in the pending suit to take out execution proceedings. Execution in the other suit is stayed so that the rights of the party can be adjusted. In cases where it is likely that the decree-holder in the other suit may take steps which might deprive the plaintiff in the pending suit of the fruits of any decree which he obtains, an order staying the execution in the other suit should be made. The rule is not an imperative one ; and the Court has a discretion either to grant the relief asked for, namely, stay the execution of the decree or to refuse it. This rule is also applicable where plaintiff has brought a suit against another who is an assignee decree-holder of a decree obtained against the plaintiff. A. I. R. 1936 Mad. 102=70 M. L. J. 120=1936 M. W. N. 349=43 L. W. 493=160 Ind. Cas. 563.

No doubt cases may occur in which simultaneous execution by two or more methods might be reasonable and possible ; but where there is already sufficient security for the realization of the decretal amount and the procedure of the decree-holder savours rather of harassment than a genuine desire to realize the decretal amount the Court may in its discretion refuse the relief against the person of the judgment-debtor. (2) Where any attachment under sub-rule (1) has remained in force for six months, if the judgment-debtor has not obeyed the decree and the decree-holder has applied to have the attached property sold, such property may be sold, and out of the proceeds the Court may award to the decree-holder, in cases where any amount has been fixed by the decree to be paid as an alternative to delivery of movable property, such amount, and, in other cases, such compensation as it thinks fit, and shall pay the balance (if any) to the judgment-debtor on his application.

(3) Where the judgment-debtor has obeyed the decree and paid all costs of executing the same which he is bound to pay, or where, at the end of six months from the date of the attachment, no application to have the property sold has been made, or, if made, has been refused, the attachment shall cease.

(3) Where any attachment under sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) has remained in force for one year, if the judgment-debtor has not obeyed the decree and the decree-holder has applied to have the attached property sold, such property may be sold; and out of the proceeds the Court may award to the decree-holder such compensation as it thinks fit, and shall pay the balance (if any) to the judgment-debtor on his application.

(5) Where a decree for the specific performance of a contract or for an injunction has not been obeyed, the Court may, in lieu of or in addition to all or any of the processes aforesaid, direct that the act required to be done may be done so far as practicable by the decree-holder or some other person appointed by the Court, at the cost of the judgment-debtor, and upon the act being done the expenses incurred may be ascertained in such manner as the Court may direct and may be recovered as if they were included in the decree.

Illustration.

A, a person of little substance, erects a building which renders uninhabitable a family mansion belonging to B. A, in spite of his detention in prison and the attachment of his property declines to obey a decree obtained against him by B and directing him to remove the building. The Court is of opinion that no sum realizable by the sale of A's property would adequately compensate B for the depreciation in the value of his mansion. B may apply to the Court to remove the building and may recover the cost of such removal from A in the execution proceedings.

(2) The Court shall thereupon cause the draft to be served on the judgment-debtor together with a notice requiring his objections (if any) to be made within such time as the Court fixes in this behalf.

(3) Where the judgment-debtor objects to the draft, his objections shall be stated in writing within such time, and the Court shall make such order approving or altering the draft, as it thinks fit.

(4) The decree-holder shall deliver to the Court a copy of the draft with such alterations (if any) as the Court may have directed upon the proper stamp-paper if a stamp is required by the law for the time being in force; and the Judge or such officer as may be appointed in this behalf shall execute the document so delivered.

(6) The Court, or such officers as it may appoint in this behalf, shall cause the document to be registered if its registration is required by the law for the time being in force or the decree-holder desires to have it registered, and may make such order as it thinks fit as to the payment of the expenses of the registration.

(2) Where a decree is for the joint possession of immovable property such possession shall be delivered by affixing a copy of the warrant in some conspicuous place on the property and proclaiming by beat of drum, or other customary mode, at some convenient place, the substance of the decree.

(3) Where possession of any building or enclosure is to be delivered and the person in possession, being bound by the decree, does not afford free access, the Court, through its officers, may, after giving reasonable warning and facility to any woman not appearing in public according to the customs of the country to withdraw, remove or open any lock or bolt or break open any door or do any other act necessary for putting the decree-holder in possession.

A. I. R. 1937 Oudh. 275.

Joint possession.—Rule 35 (2) is applicable to decree for joint possession. A. I. R. 1921 Lah. 236=3 Lah. L. J. 138=43 P. L. R. 1921=59 Ind. Cas. 770. A person entitled to possession of immovable property jointly with others is entitled to a decree for joint possession. Whether he was originally in possession or not matters little. A. I. R. 1936 All. 85. The passing of a decree for joint possession and handing over of symbolical possession in pursuance thereof under Order 21, r. 35, C. P. Code terminates all claims to adverse title previously put forward by the defendants. But the fact that the person in possession continues to be in enjoyment of the property just after the formality under Order 21, rule 35, is over does not to all intents and purposes amount to an immediate dis-possession of the decree-holder after he has been put in possession. The decree-holder must under Art. 142, Limitation Act, come within 12 years to recover possession again and if he does not his suit is barred A. I. R. 1936 Pesh. 7=160 Ind. Cas. 441.

In giving joint possession to a party in execution of a decree, the procedure prescribed by Order 21, rule 35 (2), must be strictly followed. Joint possession under a decree granting joint possession, can only be delivered in the particular manner prescribed by the legislature in Order 21, rule 35 (2). It is not within the competency of any body to attempt to give joint possession in any other manner, and if the partwari or any other person takes upon himself to deliver such joint possession in a manner contrary to the express language of the legislature, their action would not have any legal effect. Such possession is not effective for the purposes of limitation and does not provide a fresh starting point for limitation. A. I. R. 1936 Lah. 749.

Symbolical possession.—Non-accompaniment of warrant for delivery of possession cannot give symbolical delivery. A. I. R. 1923 Lah. 693=5 Lah. L. J. 507=74 Ind. Cas. 1. Examination of judgment-debtor as to his property. 41. [S. 267.] Where a decree is for the payment of money, the decree-holder may apply to the Court for an order that—

- (a) the judgment-debtor, or
- (b) in the case of a corporation, any officer thereof, or
- (c) any other person,

be orally examined as to whether any or what debts are owing to the judgment-debtor and whether the judgment-debtor has any and what other property or means of satisfying the decree ; and the Court may make an order for the attendance and examination of such judgment-debtor, or officer or other person, and for the production of any books or documents.

Scope.—Application for the examination of the judgment-debtor can be made at any stage of the execution proceedings. 34 Ind. Cas. 287. Garnishee should admit or deny debt in express terms. A. I. R. 1933 Sind 350. Attachment does not per se create or confer a title. It only prevents an alienation of the property during the subsistence of the attachment. A. I. R. 1930 All. 552=(1930) A. L. 43. [S. 269.] Where the property to be attached is movable property other than agricultural produce, in the possession of the judgment-debtor, the attachment shall be made by actual seizure, and the attaching officer shall keep the property in his own custody or in the custody of one of his subordinates, and shall be responsible for the due custody thereof :

Provided that, when the property seized is subject to speedy and natural decay, or when the expense of keeping it in custody is likely to exceed its value, the attaching officer may sell it at once.

53. [S. 273] (1) Where the property to be attached is a decree, either for the payment of money or for sale in enforcement of a mortgage or charge, the attachment shall be made,—

(a) If the decrees were passed by the same Court, then by order of such Court, and,

(b) if the decree sought to be attached was passed by another Court, then by the issue to such other Court of a notice by the Court which passed the decree sought to be executed, requesting such other Court to stay the execution of its decree unless and until—

(i) the Court which passed the decree sought to be executed cancels the notice, or

(ii) the holder of the decree sought to be executed or his judgment-debtor applies to the Court receiving such notice to execute its own decree.

(2) Where a Court makes an order under clause (a) of sub-rule (1), or receives an application under sub-head (ii) of clause (b) of the said sub-rule, it shall, on the application of the creditor who has attached the decree or his judgment-debtor, proceed to execute the attached decree and apply the net proceeds in satisfaction of the decree sought to be executed.

(3) The holder of a decree sought to be executed by the attachment of another decree of the nature specified in sub-rule (1) shall be deemed to be the representative of the holder of the attached decree and to be entitled to execute such attached decree in any manner lawful for the holder thereof.

(4) Where the property to be attached in the execution of a decree is a decree other than a decree of the nature referred to in sub-rule (1), the attachment shall be made, by a notice by the Court which passed the decree sought to be executed, to the holder of the decree sought to be attached, prohibiting him from transferring or charging the same in any way ; and, where such decree has been passed by any other Court, also by sending to such other Court a notice to abstain from executing the decree sought to be attached until such notice is cancelled by the Court from which it was sent.

(5) The holder of a decree attached under this rule shall give the Court executing the decree such information and aid as may reasonably be required.

(6) On the application of the holder of a decree sought to be executed by the attachment of another decree, the Court making an order of attachment under this rule shall give notice of such order to the judgment-debtor bound by the decree attached ; and no payment or adjustment of the attached decree made by the judgment-debtor in contravention of such order after receipt of notice thereof, either through the Court or otherwise, shall be recognized by any Court so long as the attachment remains in force.

Under Order 21, rule 53, an attachment of a decree for payment of money is complete as soon as a notice under clause (b), rule 53, is served on the Court which passed the decree sought to be attached. Any private transfer made contrary to such attachment is void as against all claims enforceable under the attachment. A. I. R. 1937 All. 63. A preliminary decree for accounts in a suit for dissolution of partnership, on the face of it is not a decree for payment of money. The amount due to the judgment-debtor is not ascertained sum of money. The final decree in a suit for accounts of the partnership may be either for the payment of money by the plaintiff to the defendant and vice-versa. Hence such a decree cannot be attached and sold under rule 53. A. I. R. 1937 Cal. 4.

The attachment of the decree does not cease when the proceedings in execution of that attached decree, are dismissed in default of the Court which had received notice under Order 21, rule 53 from the Court which passed the decree. The attachment still subsists, having been made by the order of the Court which passed the decree and not by the order of the Court which passed the attached decree and will be deemed to be withdrawn only when the decree has been satisfied through Court or when satisfaction has been certified to the Court. Ibid.

Where a decree is for possession by partition of property, it is not even a preliminary decree for partition and hence if such a decree is to be attached, one has to proceed under Order 21, rule 53, and attachment under Order 21, rule 54, is invalid as it deals with attachment of immovable property. A. I. R. 1937 Pesh. 13. The attachment of a mortgage debt operates not only on the debt but also in the security, which fastens itself to the debt; the security therefore follows the debt. Even granting that the interest of the mortgagee is immovable property, that interest arises from the debt and is ancillary to it; therefore there is no further necessity to attach the security as immovable property, when the debt has already been attached. Hence where a mortgage debt of an anomalous mortgagee is attached, no fresh attachment of right is necessary. A. I. R. 1934 Mad. 498=66 M. L. J. 695=1934 M. W. N. 631=39 L. W. 792. Removal of attachment after satisfaction of decree.

55. [S. 275.] Where—

- (a) the amount decreed with costs and all charges and expenses resulting from the attachment of any property are paid into Court, or
- (b) satisfaction of the decree is otherwise made through the Court or certified to the Court, or
- (c) the decree is set aside or reversed, the attachment shall be deemed to be withdrawn, and, in the case of immovable property, the withdrawal shall, if the judgment-debtor so desires, be proclaimed at his expense, and a copy of the proclamation shall be affixed in the manner prescribed by the last preceding rule.

N. B.—For local amendments in Allahabad and Oudh.—Vide infra.

Scope.—This rule does not exhaust the circumstances under which an attachment may be removed. That rule merely states that under certain circumstances when the decree is satisfied, the attachment shall be deemed to be withdrawn. But there are other circumstances, under which an attachment may be withdrawn and rule 60 of Order 21, itself makes mention of one of such circumstances. A. I. R. 1937 Cal. 390. 57. [New.] Where any property has been attached in execution of a decree but by reason of the decree-holder's default the Court is unable to proceed further the application for execution, it shall either dismiss the application or for any sufficient reason adjourn the proceedings to a future date. Upon the dismissal of such application the attachment shall cease.

Investigation of Claims and Objections.

58. [S 278.] (1) Where any claim is preferred to, or any objection is made to the attachment of, any property attached in execution of a decree on the ground that such property is not liable to such attachment, the Court shall proceed to investigate the claim or objection with the like power as regards the examination of the claimant or objector, and in all other respects, as if he was a party to the suit :

Provided that no such investigation shall be made where the Court considers that the claim or objection was designedly or unnecessarily delayed.

(2) Where the property to which the claim or objection applies has been advertised for sale, the Court ordering the sale may postpone it pending the investigation of the claim or objection.

59. [S. 279.]. The claimant or objector must adduce evidence to show that at the date of the attachment he Evidence to be adduced by had some interest in, or was possessed of, the claimant. property attached.

Scope—Order 21, rule 58 read with r. 59 gives right of claim only to those who had interest in and possession of the property under attachment on the day when the attachment was effected. Rule 58 is no doubt general, but rule 59 makes it clear that the investigation is to be confined to possession on the date of the attachment. Therefore when the interest of a claimant accrued after the attachment, he is not a person who could come under rule 58. A. I. R. 1934 Pat. 511. The "interest" has relation with possession, not title. In order to succeed he must show that person in possession holds it on his behalf. 146 Ind. Cas. 9=A. I. R. 1933 Nag. 297. Nowhere is the Court given power to declare in a course of proceedings under Order 21, rules 59, 60 and 63 that a person who has applied for removal of attachment is subject to a decree which was not passed against him. A. I. R. 1935 Rang. 11. In order to become an order under Order XXI, there is an enquiry and adjudication though summary, of the rights of the parties. A. I. R. 1929 Mad. 69=56 M. L. J. 199=(1929) M. 60. [S. 280.] Where upon the said investigation the Court is satisfied that for the reason stated in the claim or Release of property from attachment objection such property was not, when attached, in the possession of the judgment-debtor or of some person in trust for him, or in the occupancy of a tenant or other person paying rent to him, or that, being in the possession of the judgment-debtor at such time, it was so in his possession, not on his own account or as his own property, but on account of or in trust for some other person, or partly on his own account and partly on account of some other person, the Court shall make an order releasing the property wholly or to such extent as it thinks fit from attachment.

Scope.—Where objector is found to be in possession, attachment should be removed. A. I. R. 1933 Rang. 259. Mistake upon fact or law on merits occasioned by not directing proper attention to rule 60 can be revised by the High Court. A. I. R. 1929 Cal. 225=49 C. L. J. 51=115 Ind. Cas. 362. Claim should be allowed unconditionally. 44 Ind. Cas. 1007. Appeal does not lie against an order allowing objection under rule 60 that the attached property in possession of judgment-debtor did not belong to him but to a Math. A. I. A person in actual possession in his own account before attachment though not proving title can claim under Order XXI, rules 50 and 60 for declaration that property is not saleable in execution against judgment-debtor. Court has in such cases to investigate fact of possession at the time of attachment. A. I. R. 1928 All. 668=110 Ind. Cas. 365. Questions of title arising incidentally as to whether judgment-debtor was in possession of the property as trustee or agent for another have got to be determined under rr. 60 and 61 to that extent. Where property belonging to another person then the judgment-debtor is wrongly attached and the attachment is raised on a claim preferred by that person, the latter has the right to have the property restored to him in status quo ante the attachment and that right can in no way be whittled down by the subsequent deterioration or loss of the properties attached. A. I. R. 1936 Nag. 257.

61. [S. 281.] Where the Court is satisfied that the property was, at the time it was attached, in the possession of the judgment-debtor as his own property and not on account of any other person, or was in the possession of some other person in trust for him, or in the occupancy of a tenant or other person paying rent to him, the Court shall disallow the claim.

Notes.—Extent of investigation under rule 58 depends upon circumstances. High Court should not interfere in revision with decision under rule 61 as party aggrieved by order under r. 58 or rule 61 has his remedy under s. 63. A. I. R. 1930 Pat. 394=125 Ind. 62. [S. 282.] Where the Court is satisfied that the property is subject to a mortgage or charge in favour of some person not in possession, and thinks fit to continue the attachment, it may do so, subject to such mortgage or charge.

Continuance of attachment subject to claim of incumbrancer.

Scope.—Where Court is satisfied that property is subject to mortgage or lien enabling to continue or to dissolve attachment this rule applies but if attachment is to be continued it should be done subject to mortgage or lien. The Code makes a clear distinction between a case where property is sold subject to mortgage as under Order 21, rule 62 and a case in which the notice of an alleged encumbrance is given in the proclamation of sale as under Order 21, rule 66. In the former case the Court is satisfied of the existence of the mortgage and sells only the judgment-debtor's equity of redemption and the purchaser has to redeem the property. In the latter case the purchaser buys the property with notice of the mortgage subject to such risk as the notice might involve; in other words the executing Court does not decide whether the mortgage subsists or not and the purchaser is not precluded from questioning the validity of the mortgage. When a Civil Court in execution proceedings holds under Order 21, rule 62, that the property sought to be sold is subject to mortgage or charge in favour of some person not in possession, it does so only after it has held an enquiry into the matter and has satisfied itself that that is the fact. 63. [S. 283.] Where a claim or an objection is preferred, the party against whom an order is made may institute a suit to establish the right which he claims to the property in dispute, but, subject to the result of such suit, if any, the order shall be conclusive.

Scope—This rule applies to every order against a party to a claim preferred or an objection made under rule 58, whether the order was passed after contest and enquiry or for default and without investigation. 11 Lah 369=31 P. L. R. 752=120 Ind. Cas. 679; see also 113 Ind. Cas. 77=A. I. R. 1931 Oudh. 1=7 O. W. N. 1173=131 Ind. Cas. 77; 2 Bur. L. J. 173=76 Ind. Cas. 841; A. I. R. 1928 All. 327=26 A. L. J. 794=116 Ind. Cas. 81. Where order dismissing objections to attachment under rule 58 has been made and subsequently the attachment itself is set aside and the property in question is not sold, the order of dismissal of objections is vacated and hence the failure of the judgment-debtor to institute a suit under rule 63 cannot make the order dismissing objection final. A. I. R. 1937 Lah. 169. Where an objection by an alienee of certain property to attachment in execution is dismissed and he files a suit for a declaration, the burden of proof is upon him to show that the alienation is not a fraudulent alienation, that it was made bona fide and for consideration. A. I. R. 1937 Nag. 1; see also A. I. R. 1937 Rang. 252. But if he proves his purchase by producing a duly registered sale-deed which contains recitals of consideration, the onus is shifted on to the defendant who has to prove that the consideration is altered by inadequate means and sale is fraudulent. A. I. R. 1937 Nag. 9. Where there has been a claim under Order 21, rule 58, C. P. Code, a suit for a bare declaration will always lie under Order 21, rule 63, and even where the goods have been sold before the suit is filed, the plaintiff is not bound either in law or practice to claim any consequential relief, for once he has obtained his declaration he is not barred by the provisions of Order 21, rule 2 from filing a subsequent suit for recovery of the value of the property or the auction price or whatever it may be, he sues for. A. I. R. 1937 Rang. 249; see also A. I. R. 1937 Rang. 133; A. I. R. 1928 Rang. 34. Where in the execution proceedings there was no order under rule 61, rule 63 does not apply. A. I. R. 1937 Nag. 149. It is not obligatory on a plaintiff in a suit under Order 21, rule 63 to prove the whole of the claim raised by him in objection under Order 21, rule 58. If he realises that part of his claim the objection cannot be sustained, and he is entitled to omit it when bringing a suit under Order 21, rule 63. A. I. R. 1936 Pesh. 206. The absence of judgment-debtor from the suit for declaration gives rise to prolonged litigation unless the judgment-debtor is brought on the record in the suit for declaration. The mere fact that he was impliedly a party to the removal of attachment proceedings will not make the decree in the declaratory suit binding upon him. A. I. R. 1936 Rang. 56=161 Ind. Cas. 950. A summary order of dismissal of objections under Order 21, rule 58, C. P. Code is vacated if the attachment itself is subsequently released owing to the reversal of the decree, and the property in question is not sold. Such an order does not, therefore, become final by reason of failure to institute a suit under Order 21, rule 63. 163 Ind. Cas. 892. This rule has application to a case of attachment before judgment. A. I. R. 1929 Cal. 225=49 C. L. J. 151=115 Ind. Cas. 362. In a suit under r. 63 the plaintiff has to establish his title. 41 M. 205=34 M. L. J. 295=45 Ind. Cas. 703; 43 M. 760=39 M. L. J. 350=28 M. Rule 63 lays down that where a claim or an objection is preferred under the preceding rules of Order 21, the party against whom an order is made may institute a suit to establish "the right which he claims to the property in dispute," obviously these words do not mean that the plaintiff has to establish his ownership of the property in dispute. All that he is required to do is to establish "the right which he claims to the property in dispute." A. I. R. 1936 Lah. 524=17 Lah. 668. In a suit under this rule by the alienees from a judgment-debtor, whose properties have been attached by the decree-holder as properties belonging to the judgment-debtor it is not sufficient for the alienees to prove the deed of transfer. The burden of proving that the transfer was for consideration and was in good faith also lies on them. A. I. R. 1936 Lah. 72=162 Ind. Cas. 495. Where the attachment ceases to exist within the period of one year from the dismissal of the objection it is no longer incumbent upon the claimant to file a suit for a declaration of title to the property in order to avoid the conclusiveness of the order in the claim case. A. I. R. 1934 All. 267 (F. B.)=1934 A. L. J. 19=56 A. 537=148 Ind. Cas. 676. The terms of Order 21, rule 63, are wide enough to include a suit based on title ; and in order to prove that the claimant has a right to the property in dispute, a consideration of his title as well as of possession will be relevant. 156 Ind. Cas. 878=1935 M.W.N. 581=A.I.R. 1935 Mad. 596=41 L. W. 726=68 M. L. J. 590. Order 21, rule 63, has no application to cases where a claim has not been disposed of on the merits or rejected as being too late. A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 328=41 L. W. 500=1935 M. W. N. 331=156 Ind. Cas. 906. Where a claim petition is withdrawn and it is dismissed in consequence of such withdrawal, the order of dismissal is not an order "against" the claimant within the meaning of Order 21, rule 63, C. P. Code. A suit filed by the claimant more than a year from the date of the order is not barred. 156 Ind. Cas. 880=41 L. W. 578=1935 M. W. N. 417=A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 544. Where the attachment is not valid no claim or objection can be raised and therefore no suit under rule 63 would lie. 156 Ind. Cas. 697=A. I. R. 1935 Rang. 186 ; see also 14 Pat. 857=156 Ind. Cas. 930=A. I. R. 1935 Pat. 409. Where objection wrongly filed under rule 58 instead of under s. 47, no separate suit is maintainable. 1935 A. L. J. 74=A. I. R. 1935 All. 183=153 Ind. Cas. 577.

If a claim under r. 58, is allowed and the judgment-debtor is not a party to such claim suit, the order does not bind the judgment-debtor so as to compel him to bring a suit for a declaration under rule 63. A. I. R. 1929 Pat. 604=10 P. L. T. 581=120 Ind. Cas. 762. Order under r. 63 is conclusive as between claimant and decree-holder and does not affect judgment-debtor's right and title to the property. A. I. R. 1931 Lah. 74=131 Ind. Cas. 225. The word "conclusive" means final i. e., unappealable. A. I. R. 1923 Rang. 195=76 Ind. Cas. 677. Dismissal of claim petition by Court without jurisdiction need not be set aside by suit. A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 878=112 Ind. Cas. 619. Where a claim petition is dismissed for default, Court can restore it to file and that right is not taken away by rule 63. A. I. R. 1924 Mad. 715=47 M. 451=47 M. L. J. 13=79 Ind. Cas. 818. Rule 63 does not apply to cases where a claim has not been disposed of on the merits or rejected as being too late. 110 Ind. Cas. 511. Where a claim petition is dismissed but the attachment falls through owing to the insolvency, the claimant need not file suit to set aside the order as there is no attachment. 110 Ind. Cas. 115 ; A. I. R. 1930 All. 177=1930 A. L. J. 594=122 Ind. Cas. 865 ; but see A. I. R. 1929 Rang. 228=124 Ind. Cas. 261.

In defence to a suit under rule 63 an attaching decree-holder can plead that the alienation is a fraudulent one intended to defeat or delay the creditors. 43 M. 760=38 M. L. J. 350=12 L. In a suit under rule 63, the plaintiff has to prove that he and not the judgment-debtor was the owner of the property on the date on which it was attached in execution of the decree. 31 P. L. R. 394. Where defendant pleads that the plaintiff's title was based on nominal transaction intended to defraud creditors the onus of proving fraud is on the defendants. A. I. R. 1931 Mad. 40=32 L. Declaratory suit.—A suit under rule 63, may be a suit for declaration to set aside an order passed in the execution department within one year. A. I. R. 1930 All. 395=124 Ind. If an objector or a claimant wants to get rid of an order that has been passed against him in the removal of attachment case, he must do so by instituting a suit within the time allowed by law asking for a declaration of his title to the property in suit. He must impeach the validity of the order directly as a plaintiff and not indirectly as a defendant. 156 Ind. Cas. 586=A. I. R. 1935 Rang. 161.

Party.—A judgment-debtor not party to the claim proceedings does not become so by reason solely of his being the judgment-debtor. A. I. R. 1924 All. 302=46 A. 45=21 A. L. J. 770=77 Ind. A judgment-debtor or his Official Receiver when not a party to the claim proceedings is not bound by any order passed on the claim petition, nor can he take advantage of such order to defeat the sale executed by the judgment-debtor on the ground that the suit was not brought within one year from the order. 110 Ind. A was declared insolvent and the creditor firm attached and brought to sale his one-third share which he had inherited from his mother. The daughter objected under Order 21, rule 58, on the ground that she was a mortgagee of the whole property from the mother. Her objection was upheld and the insolvent's share was sold subject to her mortgage. She filed a suit under her mortgage whereupon the creditor firm objected to the mortgage and also brought a suit under Order 21, rule, 63, for a declaration that the mortgage was collusive and without consideration. It was contended that the creditor firm had no locus standi and could not be allowed to challenge the mortgage as being without consideration. Held that the firm by purchasing land at the Court auction succeeded to the rights of insolvent in his mother's property and the insolvent being the representative of his mother, the firm was also a representative of the mother and there had a right to challenge the mortgage and to assert that it was a sham and collusive transaction and without consideration. Plaintiff obtained a decree against respondents 3 and 4 and in execution of the decree attached certain property. Respondents 1 and 2 objected to the attachment and their objection was upheld and the attachment removed. Plaintiff filed a declaratory suit under Order 21, rule 63, against the objectors and in the same suit joined respondents 3 and 4 as defendants: Held that the respondents 3 and 4 were possible and proper parties to the suit though not necessary parties. A. I. R. 1936 Rang. 56=161 Ind. Cas. 950. Where a suit is brought under Order 21, rule 63, by an attaching creditor to establish his right to attach and to bring to sale certain property by avoiding a transfer of the property, on the ground that it has been made with intent to defeat or delay the creditors of the transferor, it is the duty of the trial Court to see that the suit is brought in a representative capacity and it can if such a suit is brought by one creditor in his individual capacity, direct the plaintiff to take proper steps to put matters right. A. I. R. 1936 Rang. 117=14 Rang. 81=161 Ind. Cas. 887; see also A. I. R. 1934 Rang. 332=12 Rang. 670. Limitation.—Limitation for suit to set aside an order under r. 58 is one year, even if that order is passed without investigation and not on merits. A. I. R. 1923 Nag. 69=69 Ind. Cas. 522; see also A. I. R. 1923 Nag. 187=6 N. L. J. 66=19 N. L. R. 34=71 Ind. Cas. 404; A. I. R. 1927 Bom. 234=29 Bom. L. R. 285=101 Ind. Cas. 335; 40 C. W. N. 146=165 Ind. Cas. 84. The ordinary rule of law is that a party who is aggrieved by the attachment and sale of his property has a longer period of limitation within which to sue than that prescribed under Art. 11, Limitation Act, which is an exception to the general law and curtail the plaintiff's rights very considerably; consequently, if an order 21, rule 63, is intended to operate to the prejudice of any person, it should be concluded in clear and unambiguous terms, so that there can be no misapprehension as to exactly what is meant. A. I. R. 1937 Nag. 170. Where the order is an ambiguous order, such order is not against the claimant under this rule and as such Art. 11 of the Limitation Act has no application. 19 N. L. J. 308. Where a person has been actually in possession of certain properties adversely to the owner thereof the dismissal of a claim petition preferred by him under Order 21, r. 63, does not operate as an interruption of that adverse possession by operation of law, especially when the attachment is raised subsequently. 1936 M. Costs.—Under s. 63, Court cannot allow the successful party in a regular suit to have his costs of the claim petition. A. I. R. 1925 Mad. 233=20 L. W. 557=35 M. L. T. 106=83 Ind. Appeal.—A claimant under rule 58 cannot file an appeal or second appeal under s. 47. 3 L. W. 377=34 Ind. Cas. 759; see also 35 Ind. Cas. 6=38 A. 537=14 A. L. J. 722; 38 Ind. Cas. 152. If on an objection of a third party the application for execution is dismissed, the decree-holder can either bring a suit against objector or prefer an appeal. No revision can lie. 38 Ind. Cas. 299. Appeal from original side from order in claim case does not lie. 37 C. W. N. 641=60 C. 914=A. I. R. 1933 Cal. 715.

Revision.—Conclusive in rule 63, means "unappealable" and does not preclude revision in case of an order under r. 60, or r. 61 in proper cases. A. I. R. 1927 Nag. 286=10 N. L. J. 155=103 Ind. Cas. 12; see also 120 Ind. Cas. 735. High Court can interfere in revision even though remedy of suit is open. A. I. R. 1933 Rang. 259.

Revival of Attachment.—When the claim being allowed under Order XXI, rule 60, a property is released from attachment and a suit is brought by decree-holder as provided by r. 63, and decided in his favour the result is that the attachment is revived although the property was released from attachment. A. I. R. 1929 Cal. 524=57 C. 122=123 Ind. Cas. 737.

Valuation.—The plaint in a suit under rule 63 has to be charged with a fixed Court-fee of Rs. 10 and not with ad valorem Court-fee. 64 Ind. Cas. 49. The proper valuation for purposes of jurisdiction is the decree-amount and not the value of the property when it is higher than the decree-amount. 38 A. 72=13 A. L. J. 1104=31 Ind. Sale of Movable Property.

74. [New.] (1) Where the property to be sold is agricultural produce, the sale shall be held,—

(a) if such produce is a growing crop, on or near the land on which such crop has grown, or

(b) if such produce has been cut or gathered, at or near the threshing-floor or place for treading out grain or the like or fodder stack on or in which it is deposited :

Provided that the Court may direct the sale to be held at the nearest place of public resort, if it is of opinion that the produce is thereby likely to sell to greater advantage.

(2) Where, on the produce being put up for sale,—

(a) a fair price, in the estimation of the person holding the sale, is not offered for it, and

(b) the owner of the produce or a person authorized to act in his behalf applies to have the sale postponed till the next day or, if a market is held at the place of sale, the next market-day, the sale shall be postponed accordingly and shall be then completed, whatever price may be offered for the produce.

75. [New.] (1) Where the property to be sold is a growing crop and the crop from its nature admits of being stored but has not yet been stored, the day of the sale shall be so fixed as to admit of its being made ready for storing before the arrival of such day, and the sale shall not be held until the crop has been cut or gathered and is ready for storing.

(2) Where the crop from its nature does not admit of being stored, it may be sold before it is cut and gathered, and the purchaser shall be entitled to enter on the land, and to do all that is necessary for the purpose of tending and cutting or gathering it.

N. B.—For local amendments in C. P., Oudh, Peshwar and Punjab.—Vide infra.

76. [S. 296.] Where the property to be sold is a negotiable instrument or a share in a corporation, the Court may, instead of directing the sale to be made by public auction, authorize the sale of such instrument or share through a broker.

77. [S. 297.] (1) Where movable property is sold by public auction the price of each lot shall be paid at the time of sale or as soon after as the officer or other person holding the sale directs, and in default of payment the property shall forthwith be re-sold.

(2) On payment of the purchase-money, the officer or other person holding the sale shall grant a receipt for the same, and the sale shall become absolute.

(3) Where the movable property to be sold is a share in goods belonging to the judgment-debtor and a co-owner, and two or more persons, of whom one is such co-owner, respectively bid the same sum for such property or for any lot, the bidding shall be deemed to be the bidding of the co-owner.

78. [S. 298.] No irregularity in publishing or conducting the sale of movable property shall vitiate the sale; but any person sustaining any injury by reason of such irregularity at the hand of any other person may institute a suit against him for compensation or (if such other person is the purchaser), for the recovery of the specific property and for compensation in default of such recovery.

Scope.—On sale of movable property it automatically becomes absolute. A.I.R. 1930 Lah. 236=3 P. L. R. 241=115 Ind. Cas. 70; see also A. I. R. 1930 All. 513=124 Ind. Cas. 48. 79. [Ss. 299, 300, 301.] (1) Where the property sold is movable property of which actual seizure has been made, it shall be delivered to the purchaser.

(2) Where the property sold is movable property in the possession of some person other than the judgment-debtor, the delivery thereof to the purchaser shall be made by giving notice to the person in possession prohibiting him from delivering possession of the property to any person except the purchaser.

(3) Where the property sold is a debt not secured by a negotiable instrument, or is a share in a corporation, the delivery thereof shall be made by a written order of the Court, prohibiting the creditor from receiving the debt or any interest thereon, and the debtor from making payment thereof to any person except the purchaser, or prohibiting the person in whose name the share may be standing from making any transfer of the share to any person except the purchaser, or receiving payment of any dividend or interest thereon, and the manager, secretary or other proper officer of the corporation from permitting any such transfer or making any such payment to any person except the purchaser.

80. [S. 302.] (1) Where the execution of a document or the endorsement of the party in whose name a negotiable instrument or a share in a corporation is standing is required to transfer such negotiable instrument or share, the Judge or such officer as he may appoint in this behalf may execute such document or make such endorsement as may be necessary, and such execution or endorsement shall have the same effect as an execution or endorsement by the party.

(2) Such execution or endorsement may be in the following form, namely :—

Sale of Immovable Property.

82. [S. 304.] Sales of immovable property in execution of decrees may be ordered by any Court other than a Court of Small Causes.

83. [S. 305.] (1) Where an order for the sale of immovable property has been made, if the judgment-debtor can satisfy the Court that there is reason to believe that the amount of the decree may be raised by the mortgage or lease or private sale of such property, or some part thereof, or of any other immovable property of the judgment-debtor, the Court may, on his application, postpone the sale of the property comprised in the order for sale on such terms and for such period as it thinks proper, to enable him to raise the amount.

(2) In such case the Court shall grant a certificate to the judgment-debtor authorizing him within a period to be mentioned therein, and notwithstanding anything contained in section 64, to make the proposed mortgage, lease or sale :

Provided that all monies payable under such mortgage, lease or sale shall be paid, not to the judgment-debtor, but, save in so far as a decree-holder is entitled to set off such money under the provisions of rule 72, into Court :

• Provided also that no mortgage, lease or sale under this rule shall become absolute until it has been confirmed by the Court.

(3) Nothing in this rule shall be deemed to apply to a sale of property directed to be sold in execution of a decree for sale in enforcement of a mortgage of, or charge on, such property.

Scope—Alienations under Order 21, rule 83, are the "acts of the judgment-debtor alone" and clearly therefore fall under the terms "private transfer" under s. 64. A. I. R. 1934 Mad. 727=67 M. L. J. 741=40 L. W. 720. Where the permission granted to the judgment-debtor under Order 21, rule 83, was qualified and was known to the prospective purchaser the mere fact that there was an arrangement made between her and the judgment-debtor fixing a certain sum as the sale consideration in case the sale was sanctioned by the Court, did not give her any legal rights which were adversely affected by the order cancelling the permission given under Order 21, rule 83. A. I. R. 1934 Pesh. 76. Where immovable property under attachment was sold by the judgment-debtor after obtaining permission of the executing Court under rule 83 and the executing Court had given permission to judgment-debtor to satisfy the decree-holder out of the sale proceeds and out of sale proceeds of the property re-attached, the judgment-debtor kept the balance with him after satisfying some decree-holders and the purchaser filed a suit to set aside the attachment and the sale was upheld by the trial Court on certain conditions and the lower appellate Court held the sale void on second appeal: Held that the trial Court's order to uphold the sale on the payment by the purchaser of the balance left with himself is legal and equitable. That which granting permission under rule 83 the executing Court ought to have ordered the judgment-debtor to deposit entire sale proceeds. A. I. R. 1935 Lah. 481. Discretion is properly exercised in refusing certificate for private sale, after allowing sufficient time. A. I. R. 1921 Lah. 384=2 U. P. L. R. (Lah) 9=118 P. L. R. 1920=5 Lah. L. J. 67=45 Ind. For private alienation under the rule reference to prior incumbrancer is not at all necessary. A. I. R. 1924 Lah. 134=5 Lah. L. J. 279=76 Ind. Cas. 529. Time allowed under mortgage-decree for payment cannot be extended under this rule. A. I. R. 1924 Mad. 234=46 M. L. J. 71=1923 M. W. N. 894=75 Ind. Cas. 901. No special form under r. 83 is necessary for Collector's written permission under the rule. A. I. R. 1921 Oudh 176=8 O. L. J. 358=66 Ind. Cas. 642. Where case falls both under Order XXI, r. 83 and s. 29, Guardian and Wards Act, procedure under both must be followed. A. I. R. 1922 Cal. 150=49 C. 911=28 C. W. N. 57=36 C. L. J. 326=70 Ind. Cas. 990. Order under r. 83 is appealable. 109 Ind. Cas. 524. Mortgage decrees are exempt from operation of the rule because right of sale is specifically provided in decree independently of attachment. A. I. R. 1921 Lah. 384=118 P. L. R. 1921=2 U. P. L. R. 91=5 Lah. L. J. 67=55 Ind. Cas. 816.

Appeal.—No appeal lies from a decision under Order 21, rule 83, C. P. Code, refusing to postpone the sale of the property. A. I. R. 1937 Pesh. 64. An order refusing the judgment-debtor's application to postpone the sale of his property under this rule does not amount to the decision of the case but the order is essentially of an interlocutory nature. Hence an appeal from such an order cannot be treated as revision application. Ibid.

84. [S. 306] (1) On every sale of immovable property the person declared to be the purchaser shall pay immediately after such declaration a deposit of twenty-five per cent. on the amount of his purchase money to the officer or other person conducting the sale, and in default of such deposit, the property shall forthwith be re-sold.

(2) Where the decree-holder is the purchaser and is entitled to set-off the purchase money under rule 72, the Court may dispense with the requirements of this rule.

N. B.—For local amendment in Oudh.—Vide infra.

Scope.—Failure to deposit 25 p. c. of purchase money immediately is only irregularity which does not affect validity of sale unless substantial injury is caused to judgment-debtor. 144 Ind. Cas. 314=10 O. W. N. 440=A. I. R. 1933 Oudh 345. It is essential for the auction purchaser to deposit 25 per cent. whether he was the decree-holder or not. If he was the decree-holder, he ought to ask the Court to dispense with that obligation but if he failed to do so the natural consequence would be that the sale would not be complete. A. I. R. 1934 Pesh. 25. But the provisions of rule 84 are to be read along with rule 72. If the decree-holder's application for set-off, is pending and the decree-holder is not called upon to deposit, the sale is not a nullity because 25 per cent. of the purchase money has not been deposited by the decree-holder at the time of the sale. A. I. R. 1934 Pat. 329=150 Ind. Cas. 733. In case of bid under misrepresentation, Court has power to restore deposit. A. I. R. 1935 All. 204=1935 A. L. J. 249=153 Ind. Cas. 477. Clause 2 of rule 84 must be construed in such a way as to be consistent with rule 72 clause (2) and with the proviso to rule 85 of the same order. A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 893=42 L. W. 564=1935 M. W. N. 792. Where the second part of rule 84 is put into operation, the first part ceases to apply, and hence the use of the word "immediately" in the first part cannot be relied upon in order to ascertain the precise meaning of the second part. The second part must be interpreted according to the plain meaning of the words contained in it alone. There is nothing in those words precluding the Court from passing an order with retrospective effect. A. I. R. 1935 Pesh. 123. Sale of property in auction held by Court does not become complete before its acceptance by Court. 134 Ind. Cas. 447=58 C. 788=A. I. R. 1931 Cal. 583. Soope.—This rule is applicable when bid of decree-holder purchaser allowed set-off before sale exceeds the decretal amount, in which case 25 p. c. if excused from being deposited at sale date, can be paid within 15 days after sale. Time limit of 15 days under the rule does not apply for carrying out order of Appellate Court confirming sale to repay deposit withdrawn or lower Court's setting aside sale. (1917) M. W. Under certain circumstances the provisions of this rule may be directory only and not mandatory and as such the Court may in its discretion refuse to set aside the sale. 122 Ind. Cas. 561=A. I. L. J. 167=57 A. 658.

86. [S. 308.] In default of payment within the period mentioned in the last preceding rule, the deposit may, if the Court thinks fit, after defraying the expenses of the sale, be forfeited to the Government, and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claims to the property or to any part of the sum for which it may subsequently be sold.

Scope.—This rule shows that the effect of delay in paying balance of purchase money is not necessarily to invalidate sale. A. I. R. 1924 Rang. 81=2 Bur. L. J. 166=79 Ind. Cas. 747. Return of purchase money is normal course and forfeiture should be used not for filling Government coffers but as penalty to prevent laxity and delay. A. I. R. 1921 Nag. 120=17 N. L. R. 15=59 Ind. The auction purchaser deposited one-fourth of the purchase money on the date of sale but failed to deposit the rest within 15 days under Order 21, rule 85; within 30 days of the sale the judgment-debtor applied to set aside the sale under Order 21, rule 89, depositing the necessary amount. The decree-holder accepted the deposit and agreed to cancel the sale as he did not want the property to be sold again. The Court, however, purporting to act under Order 21, rule 86, ordered that the one-fourth deposit made by the purchaser should be forfeited to the Government after defraying the expenses of sale as he had failed to deposit the remaining three-fourths: Held that the Court acted with material irregularity in ordering the forfeiture where there was no question of re-sale within Order 21, rule 86. The purchaser was not however, entitled to 5 per cent. of purchase money under rule 89 owing to his failure to pay the full price within time. A. I. R. 1934 Oudh 429=11 O. W. N. 1132=151 Ind. 89. [S. 310A.] (1) Where immovable property has been sold in execution of a decree, any person, either owning such property or holding an interest therein by virtue of a title acquired before such sale, may apply to have the sale set aside on his depositing in Court,—

(a) for payment to the purchaser, a sum equal to five per cent. of the purchase money, and

(b) for payment to the decree-holder ; the amount specified in the proclamation of sale as that for the recovery of which the sale was ordered, less any amount which may, since the date of such proclamation of sale, have been received by the decree-holder.

(2) Where a person applies under rule 90 to set aside the sale of his immovable property, he shall not, unless he withdraws his application, be entitled to make or prosecute an application under this rule.

(3) Nothing in this rule shall relieve the judgment-debtor from any liability he may be under in respect of costs and interest not covered by the proclamation of sale.

Judgment-debtor is to deposit only the amount of that decree under which property is sold. 143 Ind. Cas. 768=14 Lah. 55=A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 226. In an application to set aside a sale under Order 21, rule 89 of the C. P. Code, the judgment-debtor made a double mistake in the challan-deposit. When the deposit was first made there was a deficit of 4 annas in favour of the auction-purchaser and when the deficit was deposited the judgment-debtor made the mistake of depositing it in favour of the decree-holder. The Court disallowed the application on the ground of mistake in challan: Held that it would not be said that the judgment-debtor had not complied with the strict letter of the law on the principle of de mini mis non curas lex. It was therefore proper under the circumstances to allow the application to set aside the sale. A. I. R. 1937 Pat. 409. There is no authority for the proposition that in every case of an application under rule 89 for setting aside a sale, there must be a cash deposit in Court of the amount specified in the sale proclamation. The amount received by the decree-holder since the sale proclamation being deductible under rule 89 (1) (b) in a case where at the date of the application there is nothing due to the decree-holder by reason of payments made to him out of Court since the sale proclamation whether before or after the sale, the application, accompanied only by a deposit of the compensation money payable to the auction-purchaser is in order; and the Court on satisfying itself as to the payment for which it may accept the admission of the decree-holder, may rightly allow the application and set aside the sale. 39 C. W. N. 829. The "amount specified in the proclamation of sale as that for the recovery of which the sale was ordered" in sub-rule (1) (b) means only the amount actually specified in the proclamation. 156 Ind. execution of a decree, the decree-holder, or any person entitled to share in a ratable distribution of assets, or whose interests are affected by the sale, may apply to the Court to set aside the sale on the ground of a material irregularity or fraud in publishing or conducting it:

Attaching decree-holder through another Court can apply. A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 67=51 M. L. J. 661=98 Ind. Cas. 628. A person obtaining an order for attachment before judgment and subsequently obtaining a decree in the suit has locus standi to maintain an application under Order 21, rule 90, to set aside a sale, held in execution of a decree obtained against the same judgment-debtor, provided he obtained the decree in his suit before the sale was held. The fact that there was in fact no attachment before judgment, by reason of failure to affix a copy of prohibitory order in the Court-house according to Order 21, rule 54, does not affect the position of the applicant. It is sufficient if the applicant got the order of attachment and some part of the provision of Order 21, rule 54, had been complied with before the challenged sale and if subsequently obtained his decree before sale. A. I. R. 1937 Cal. 7. The auction purchaser can apply under this rule to set aside the sale. A. I. R. 1937 Nag. 140. The Civil Procedure Code does not lay down that the parties who would be affected by an order setting aside a sale under Order 21, rule 90, should be formally impleaded as parties to the application made for the purpose. An auction purchaser purchasing immovable property at a Court-sale is not entitled to a refund of his purchase-money if subsequently a third party claims the property and obtains a decree for possession. Where an auction purchaser purchases immovable property at an auction sale by a Court, there is no guarantee by the Court corresponding to the guarantee under s. 55 T. P. Act. The auction-purchaser must be aware of the fact that he is purchasing property subject to the risk that it may be claimed subsequently by a third party. It is only the right and title of the judgment-debtor which passes to the auction purchaser and the auction purchaser takes that right and title subject to any claims which may subsequently be made by third parties. A. I. R. 1937 All. 18; see also A. I. R. 1935 All. 910=1935 A. L. J. 474. Once the sale is confirmed it must be presumed conclusively that there is no defect in the sale either under rule 90 or under rule 91; and so there exists no basis for a suit on the ground of want of saleable interest in the judgment-debtor. If there is no warranty of title there is no cause of action in favour of the auction purchaser and no question of equity and justice arises. A. I. R. 1937 Nag. 140. A sale of immovable property in which the judgment-debtor has no interest at the date of the sale is not a nullity in the sense of being beyond the jurisdiction of the executing Court or void as between the judgment-debtor and the decree-holder or auction-purchaser. The decree-holder, if he purchases the property, cannot successfully maintain an application for the revival of the execution proceedings on the ground that the sale has not in fact satisfied his decree to the extent of the sale price, unless he has the sale set aside by applying under this rule. A. I. R. 1936 Pat. 97 (F. B.)=15 Pat. 308=16 Pat. L. T. 908=160 Ind. Cas. 1049. Rule 91 contemplates want of saleable interest in the judgment-debtor. 145 Ind. Cas. 421=12 Pat. 665=14 P. L. T. 388=A. Where Court refused to set aside sale under this rule no second appeal lies. 140 Ind. Cas. 833=33 P. L. R. 625. Decree-holder purchaser cannot set aside sale merely because he is not allowed to set off on account of ratable distribution to other decree-holders. 133 Ind. Cas. 737=33 Bom. L. R. 503=A. I. Sale when to become absolute or be set aside.

rule 90 or rule 91, or where such application is made and disallowed, the Court shall make an order confirming the sale, and thereupon the sale shall become absolute.

(2) Where such application is made and allowed, and where, in the case of an application under rule 89, the deposit required by that rule is made within thirty days from the date of sale, the Court shall make an order setting aside the sale:

Provided that no order shall be made unless notice of the application has been given to all persons affected thereby.

(3) No suit to set aside an order made under this rule shall be brought by any person against whom such order is made.

Scope.—Where there is no irregularity in publishing and conducting the sale, execution Court cannot refuse to confirm the sale. A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 146. Objection not taken before sale is presumed to have been waived. A. I. R. 1937 Lah. 416. This rule applies only to valid sales. 143 Ind. Cas. 854=56 M. L. J. 253=56 M. 808=A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 598. Where objection under rule 90 is dismissed, sale must be automatically confirmed. A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 99=34 P. L. R. 70=13 Lah. 761; A. I. R. 1926 Nag. 193=21 N. L. R. 157. Confirmation of sale may be presumed from conduct of executing Court. 31 Ind. Cas. 254=81 P. R. 1915. Where sale is confirmed by order of Court and becomes absolute under rule 92, the only remedy is by suit, and an application under s. 47 is incompetent. A. I. R. 1922 Mad. 63=70 Ind. Cas. 569=15 L. W. 272. This rule is mandatory in its provisions. A. I. R. 1930 All. 843. Order 21, rule 92, contemplates the passing of an order of confirmation and it is the passing of this order which makes the sale absolute; so it is not the lapse of 30 days that confirms the sale but the passing of the order which cannot be passed within 30 days. A. I. R. 1937 Mad. 560. But the Court may stay confirmation of sale by virtue of its power under s. 151. A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 793; see also A. I. R. 1929 All. 671=121 Ind. Cas. 270. On the date fixed for confirmation of sale held in execution of a decree, decree-holder's presence is not necessary. A. I. R. 1930 Nag. 134=120 Ind. Cas. 405. Order XXI, rule 92, is applicable only to immovable property. A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 236=30 P. L. R. 421=115 Ind. Cas. 70. Under this rule a suit for setting aside a sale does not lie if an order confirming the sale is made. A. I. R. 1926 Oudh. 45=89 Ind. Cas. 107. Order 21, rule 92, C. P. Code under which a sale is to become absolute or be set aside is independent of a proceeding under s. 58. The latter moreover refers to attachments of all kinds of properties, whether movable or immovable, whereas the question of a sale becoming absolute arises only in the case of immovable property. A. I. R. 1937 Cal. 390. Once a sale has taken place the Court has no jurisdiction to refuse to confirm it unless the specified objections are taken and sustained. A. I. R. 1936 Lah. 191=161 Ind. Cas. 752. A judgment-debtor who was declared insolvent during the sale proceedings has no locus standi to appeal from the order confirming the sale. 162 Ind. Cas. 299=38 P. L. R. 108=A. I. R. 1936 Lah. 368. No second appeal lies against an appellate order upholding an order rejecting an application to set aside sale under Order 21, rule 92, C. P. Code. 160 Ind. Cas. 468=1936 O. W. N. 137=A. I. R. 1936 Oudh 172; see also A. I. R. 1936 Pat. 119. Order setting aside or refusing to set aside sale is not one in execution proceedings. A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 508. Where appeal has been filed from order of Sub-judge disallowing application to set aside sale, sale is not absolute till disposal of appeal. A. I. R. 1934 P. C. 134.

Sub-section 2—Proviso.—The proviso to clause (2) of rule 92 of Order 21, C. P. Code, only lays down that a sale should not be ordered to be set aside unless notice is given to the persons affected thereby. It is not necessary that they should be made parties to the application and arrayed in the categories of plaintiffs and defendants. A. I. R. 1935 Cal. 502=62 C. 286.

Sub-rule (8).—The effect of sub-rule (3) is that a Civil suit to set aside an order made under Order 21, r. 92, is prohibited. A. I. R. 1935 All. 470=1935 A. L. J. 261=157 Ind. Cas. 33. But where a decree in execution of which the sale took place is itself found to be invalid or where it is found that the sale officer had no authority to sell the property the remedy of a separate suit would be barred. 1935 A. L. J. 261=A. I. R. 1935 All. 470.

Appeal.—In an appeal against the order confirming the sale, auction-purchaser is a necessary party. A. I. R. 1935 Lah. 802.

Setting aside of sale—The executing Court has to consider in deciding if the sale should be confirmed whether there is any reason with reference to rr. 89-91 for refusing to do so. If there are not, the Court must confirm the sale. If there are circumstances which vitiate the sale at its inception, the executing Court can refuse to confirm the sale, even apart from the contingencies contemplated in rr. 89, 91. A. I. R. 1926 Nag. 17=88 Ind. Cas. 693. Making sale absolute after satisfaction of decree is without jurisdiction. A. I. R. 1922 Nag. 248=18 N. L. R. 134=65 Ind. Cas. 331. A sale cannot be set aside after its confirmation. A. I. R. 1935 All. 889=1935 A. L. J. 940=156 Ind. Cas. 389.

Notice.—Order setting aside sale without notice to auction-purchaser is bad for want of jurisdiction. 32 Ind. Cas. 891; see also A. I. R. 1921 Pat. 498=2 P. L. T. 336=62 Ind. Cas. 61. Order under r. 90 without notice is nullity. A. I. R. 1921 Pat. 293=62 Ind. Cas. 113; 3 Lah. L. J. 463=62 Ind. Cas. 986; see also 68 Ind. Cas. 238; 75 Ind. Cas. 863=5 P. L. T. 233; A. I. 93. [S. 315.] Where a sale of immovable property is set aside under rule 92, the purchaser shall be entitled to an order for repayment of his purchase-money, with or without interest as the Court may direct, against any person to whom it has been paid.

Mistake in sale proclamation is good ground for suit to cancel sale and for refund of proportionate part of purchase-money. 8 L. B. R. 427=33 Ind. Cas. 1030. 95. [S. 318.] Where the immovable property sold is in the occupancy of the judgment-debtor or of some person on his behalf or of some person claiming under title created by the judgment-debtor subsequently to the attachment of such property and a certificate in respect thereof has been granted under rule 94, the Court shall, on application of the purchaser, order delivery to be made by putting such purchaser or any person whom he may appoint to receive delivery on his behalf in possession of the property, and, if need be, by removing any person who refuses to vacate the same.

Scope.—Possession in rule 95 means legal possession. A. I. R. 1928 Oudh 251=3 Luck. 506=5 O.W.N. 372. In execution delivery of possession must be according to either rule 95 or 96. 55 Ind. Where a mortgage decree has been obtained against executors in their representative capacity and there has been a decree for sale and a sale is held, the purchaser cannot by proceeding under Order 21, rr 95 and 96, Civil Procedure Code, obtain possession as against the beneficiaries under the will, that is to say the beneficiaries entitled to the estate which is represented by the executors. The reason for this is that the beneficiaries are not affected by rr. 97, 95 or 35. They are not "judgment-debtors" or some persons on their behalf under rule 95 or any person bound by a decree under rule 35. Beneficiaries do not claim under executors and they are excluded under the definition in s. 2, C. P. Code. A. I. R. 1937 Cal. 301. Where delivery that is originally attempted is under Order 21, rule 95, i. e., actual vacant possession, and the result of the objection raised is the outstanding dispute that remains is only the rights of the tenants, the common sense and reasonable view is that delivery, so far as landlords' right is concerned under Order 21, rule 95, is effected, and what is completed is the right to actual possession asserted by tenants. A. I. R. 1936 Mad. 733. An application by decree-holder auction purchaser under rules 95 and 97 is an application in execution of a decree and the removal of obstruction to the decree-holder auction purchaser is in execution of the decree even though the decree be only for sale. The object of this rule is not far to seek. On the one hand the rule is intended to deprive the claimant of his remedy by way of an appeal or application for revision to a higher Court and on the other hand to declare that the adverse order shall be conclusive against the claimant, subject however to the result of any suit which he may file to establish his claim to the present possession of the property which is the subject-matter of the order passed against him. But the application to bring the legal representatives on record could be regarded as an application to set aside the abatement and as there was sufficient cause for the delay, plaintiff not being guilty of laches, the abatement should be set aside. Procedure in case of death of one of several plaintiffs or of sole plaintiff.

(1) Where one of two or more plaintiffs dies and the right to sue does not survive to the surviving plaintiff or plaintiffs alone, or a sole plaintiff or sole surviving plaintiff dies and the right to sue survives, the Court, on an application made in that behalf, shall cause the legal representative of the deceased plaintiff to be made a party and shall proceed with the suit.

(2) Where within the time limited by law no application is made under sub-rule (1), the suit shall abate so far as the deceased plaintiff is concerned, and, on the application of the defendant, the Court may award to him the costs which he may have incurred in defending the suit, to be recovered from the estate of the deceased plaintiff.

Scope.—Rule 3 is applicable to a suit of a representative character. 88 Ind. Cas. 478=26 P. L. R. 732=7 Lah. L. J. 517. This rule applies in case of substitution after the death of a party, and does not apply to a man who does not come in as a legal representative of the deceased but as an assignee from him. A. I. R. 1936 Pat. 123=15 Pat. 82=159 Ind. Cas. 828; see also A. I. R. 1936 Pat. 591. Order 22, rules 3 and 4, do not apply to cases of death of parties after passing of the preliminary decree. A. I. R. 1935 Lah. 712. Where in a suit brought in a representative capacity, one of the plaintiffs dies during the pendency of the appeal by the defendants and no steps are taken to bring his legal representatives on the record, the appeal does not abate in toto. 152 Ind. Cas. 817=1935 A. L. J. 139=A. I. R. 1935 All. 106. Where one of the plaintiff respondents dies during the pendency of the appeal and the right to sue does not survive the defendant appellants cannot possibly apply under this rule for bringing on the record the legal representatives of the deceased in as much as no such representative in the eye of the law exists and the omission to do what could not legally be done cannot be fatal to the appeal. 152 Ind. Cas. 817=1935 A. L. J. 139=A. I. R. 1935 All. 106. But where during the pendency of the appeal one of the appellants dies and the right to enforce the indivisible contract vested in his legal representatives and the surviving appellant, the appeal must abate in toto in the absence of the legal representatives of the deceased appellant. A. I. R. 1935 Lah. 478=37 P. L. R. 400=155 Ind. Cas. 610; see also 157 Ind. Cas. 994=A. I. R. 1935 Pesh. 126. The test to determine whether or not failure to bring upon the record the heirs of one of the several parties who has died has the effect of causing the entire appeal to abate or not can the appeal be decided, without bringing the legal representatives of the deceased party on the record without bringing into existence two decrees contrary to each other. If the result of hearing and deciding the appeal would be to bring into existence two decrees of Courts of competent jurisdiction contrary to each other the appeal would abate as a whole. A. I. R. 1935 Pat. 4=158 Ind. Cas. 56. Abatement takes place ipso facto if an application for impleading representative of the deceased party is not made within time. A. I. R. 1925 Lah. 598=7 Lah. L. Scope.—The words "right to sue" in this rule should be taken to mean "right to appeal" in case a party dies after decree in the suit, but pending appeal. 1934 A.L.J. 933=A. I. R. 1934 All. 1029. This rule reproduces in principle s. 368 of the old Code as amended in 1888. A.I.R. 1930 Mad. 930=60 M.L.J. 97=54 M. 212=129 Ind. Cas. 469. Where no application to bring representatives of deceased defendant on record is made within time the decree passed during that time has no effect and suit abates. A. I. R. 1931 Lah. 73. Death of defendant disowning any interest in suit does not cause the whole suit to abate. A.I.R. 1927 Lah. 418=28 P. L. R. 330=102 Ind. Cas. 280. On death of a defendant during the pendency of a suit, the question whether whole suit abates, or it abates only as to that defendant, would depend upon whether the deceased person was such a necessary party that his absence from the record should lead to dismissal of the suit itself. Abatement of suit.—Where one of the tort-feasors dies during the course of the suit and his legal representatives are not brought upon the record within time, the suit can proceed without them, as the death of one tort-feasor cannot affect the case against another. 36 P. L. R. 182=A. I. R. 1934 Lah 941. Under rule 4 (3) an appeal can abate against a deceased defendant only, but it is only when not possible to go on with the suit in the absence of the deceased defendant's heir, the whole suit will fail. 150 Ind. It is a settled law that if a respondent dies and his representatives are not impleaded within time the appeal abates automatically as against him on the expiry of the statutory period and it is not necessary for the Court to pass a formal order declaring that the appeal has abated. 152 Ind. Dead persons, suit and decree against.—A suit or appeal abates against a defendant or respondent within the meaning of this rule if he was alive at the time when the suit or appeal was instituted and has since died and not if he died before the institution of the suit or appeal and was erroneously impleaded as a party. Distinct interest.—The fact that interest in subject-matter of suit is defined and separate is one which may be of vital importance in deciding whether suit abates as a whole when it abates as against one of the defendants. R. 1929 Nag. 142 (F. B.)=116 Ind. Cas. 657 ; see also 120 Ind. Cas. 77 ; 122 Ind. Cas. 447=A. I. R. 1929 Nag. 206 ; A. I. R. 1929 Cal. 648 ; A. I. R. 1933 Rang. 318 ; A. I. R. 1933 Pat. 27=13 P. L. A final decree in a mortgage suit is a "decree" within the meaning of s. 2 (2), C. P. Code and as such, is subject to the general rule that a decree made against dead defendant i. e., defendant died at the date it was made, is a nullity. 63 C. 472.

Death of party pending appeal.—Where some respondents die pending appeal and their representatives are not on record the appeal does not abate in total. A. I. R. 1924 Lah. 93 ; 5 Lah. L. J. 203=669 Ind. Cas. 495 ; see also A. I. R. 1921 Lah. 390=4 Lah. L. J. 511 ; 38 M. 1064=33 Ind. Cas. 45 ; A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 572 (F.B.)=10 Lah. 7=30 P. L. R. 453 ; 7 P. L. T. 186=4 Pat. 320=89 Ind. Cas. 280. If the result of non-joinder of some defendants in appeal would be that if the appeal is decreed there will be two inconsistent decrees, the non-joinder is fatal to the appeal. A. I. Test to determine if appeal abated if representative of one respondents be not brought on record is "could suit ab initio have been instituted and prosecuted with the deceased being left out". A. Where a respondent dies leaving more than one heir omission to bring some of the legal representatives on record within time allowed will not cause appeal to abate under Order XXII, rule 4. A. I. R. 1926 Pat. 276=7 P. L. T. 746=94 Ind. Cas. 206. If the result of hearing and deciding the appeal without bringing heirs of deceased respondent would be to bring into existence two decrees of Courts of competent jurisdiction contrary to each other, the appeal must abate as a whole for such failure. A. I. R. 1927 All. 331=100 Ind. Cas. 482 ; see also A. I. R. 1926 Lah. 474=94 Ind. Cas. 300. Where the death of one of the respondents to an appeal does not make the representative of the interest incomplete, the appeal does not abate and can proceed ; but where such death renders the representative incomplete, the appeal as a whole abates. Legal representatives.—The words "legal representatives" do not mean all legal representatives and there is sufficient compliance if the applicant makes a bona fide application to bring on record all the legal representatives known to him so far as he could ascertain them after exercise of due care and industry. A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 6=28 P. L. R. 287. The persons who really represent the estate of deceased at a particular moment ought to be treated as the legal representatives of the deceased debtor. A. I. Substituting representative in memorandum of cross-objections is tantamount to bringing him on record in appeal. 34 M. L. J. 177=45 Ind. Cas. 949=23 M. L. T. 280. Failure by defendant to take objection to non-joinder of some of the legal representatives at proper time estops him from taking it at subsequent stage. A. I. R. 1930 Sind 147. Where a party takes proper steps to substitute on the record the representatives of an adversary who had died pendenti lite he is not to be penalised because he has not brought on record the whole of the representatives. He can act to the best of his knowledge. A. I. R. 1936 Mad. 336=1936 M. W. N. 129=59 Mad. 660=162 Ind. Cas. 214. If in spite of diligence exercised in bringing the legal representatives of the deceased party on the record, any representative is omitted, the omission is venial. A. I. R. 1935 Lah. 712 ; see also 37 Bom. L. R. 288=A. I. R. 1935 Bom. 288. In a case where several legal representatives of a deceased party have been brought on the record if one then dies and the estate continues to be represented by the remaining legal representatives, the omission to implead the heir of the deceased legal representative does not cause abatement of the case. 40 L. W. 604=1934 M. W. N. 901=A. I. R. 1934 Mad. 730=67 M. L. J. 681. An appeal does not become incompetent because the legal representative of a deceased respondent is not impleaded, when such respondent is only a pro forma defendant, in respect of whom no decree has been passed either for or against. 60 C. L. J. 225. No application is necessary where one defendant dies but his legal representative is already on the record. 15 Pat. L. T. 380=A. I. R. 1934 Pat. 427.

Procedure—The introduction of a party for one stage of a suit is an introduction for all stages. A. I. R. 1927 Oudh 531=101 Ind. Cas. 826. Where the legal representatives of a deceased defendant or respondent are on record, it is sufficient if the plaintiff or appellant at some time or other before the hearing of the suit or appeal states the facts and gets it noted on the record. A. I. R. 1929 Mad. 152=51 M. 347=54 M. L. J. 675=109 Ind. Cas. 372 ; see also 96 Ind. Cas. 41=26 P. L. R. 832 ; A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 765=34 P. L. R. 778 ; A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 710. Where a party to a suit dies and an application intimating his death has taken place in the rank of the opposite party is made, the applicant would be quite competent within his rights to give exact information as to the names, addresses and the other particulars of the persons supposed to be the legal representatives of the deceased party within a reasonable period of time without causing the suit to abate. A. I. R. 1927 Oudh 170=4 O. W. N. 329=100 Ind. Cas. 802. Not only cause-title should be corrected, but plaint also should be amended showing how legal representative is responsible for claim. A. I. R. 1933 Cal. 314=56 C. L. J. 228. It is doubtful whether all the legal representatives must be brought on record. A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 765=34 P. L. R. 778. Objection as to proper representative must be brought at earliest opportunity. 36 C. W. N. 1138=60 C. 87=A. I. R. 1933 Cal. 325.

Limitation.—If no representative is brought on record within limitation, time should not be extended. A. I. R. 1922 Lah. 30=5 Lah. L. J. 119. Art. 177 of the Limitation Act governs the case. Where judgment-debtor dies his representative must be brought on record within 90 days. 26 Ind. Cas. 52 ; see also 40 Ind. Cas. 1006=39 A. 550. Originally the period was six months but now it is ninety days. Vide 38 Ind. Cas. 7 ; 40 Ind. Cas. 1006 ; 26 Ind. Cas. 52 ; 70 Ind. Cas. 832. No application can be entertained after the period. A. I. R. 1923 Mad. 66=16 L. W. 721=73 Ind. Cas. 863. Where no application for substitution is made within period of limitation the plaintiff must prove that he had no knowledge of the death of the defendant till within three months of the date on which he applies for substitution of the legal representative of the deceased defendant. A. I. R. 1930 All. 779=1930 A. L. J. 825=126 Ind. Cas. 20 ; see also A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 404=54 M. L. J. 234=108 Ind. Cas. 288 ; 87 Ind. Cas. 632=A. I. R. 1925 Lah. 599 ; A. I. R. 1932 Lah. 426=33 P. L. R. 501=14 Lah. 78.

Sub-rule (3).—Suit or appeal abates automatically if no application is filed within limitation. A. I. R. 1937 Nag. 88 ; see also 62 C. 998 ; A. I. R. 1935 Lah. 443. Where the plaintiff has a separate cause of action against every person who has a specified share in the property in dispute and joins all such persons as defendants in one suit only because the ground of attack and defence being common in law permits him to do so with a view to avoid multifariousness, in fact, he claims a separate relief against each one of them and if any one of them dies and his representatives are not impleaded, the plaintiff loses his remedy against that defendant and not against others. The test in such cases is whether the plaintiff will be debarred from seeking his relief against those persons in a separate suit when he does not join in the previous suit. If so, the suit or appeal would abate in toto in the circumstances mentioned above; if not, the abatement will be limited to the share of those defendants only who were not on record. A. I. R. 1935 Lah. 853=16 Lah. 747=37 P. L. R. 850.

ORDER XXIII.

Withdrawal and Adjustment of Suits.

1. [S. 373.] (1) At any time after the institution of a suit the plaintiff may, as against all or any of the defendants, withdraw his suit or abandon part of his claim.

(2) Where the Court is satisfied—

(a) that a suit must fail by reason of some formal defect, or

(b) that there are other sufficient grounds for allowing the plaintiff to institute a fresh suit for the subject-matter of a suit or part of a claim, it may, on such terms as it thinks fit, grant the plaintiff permission to withdraw from such suit or abandon such part of a claim with liberty to institute a fresh suit in respect of the subject-matter of such suit or such part of a claim.

(3) Where the plaintiff withdraws from a suit or abandons part of a claim, without the permission referred to in sub-rule (2), he shall be liable for such costs as the Court may award and shall be precluded from instituting any fresh suit in respect of such subject-matter or such part of the claim.

(4) Nothing in this rule shall be deemed to authorize the Court to permit one of several plaintiffs to withdraw without the consent of the others.

Scope.—Order under Order 23, rule 1, is not to be lightly passed and when passed is not to be lightly set aside. A. I. R. 1931 All. 19=132 Ind. Cas. 36. Cause of action is equivalent to phrase "subject-matter." A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 937=130 Ind. Cas. 513. An order for the withdrawal with leave under Order 23, r. 1 (2), restores the parties to the position in which they would have stood if the suit had not been filed and, therefore, plaintiff can include portions of claim in the new suit though omitted in the first suit. 84 Ind. Cas. 483=3 Bur. L. J. 189. Bar created by rule 13 has no application where cause of action in first suit is different from that in second suit. A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 343=34 P. L. R. 805. The test of subject-matter is whether cause of action or transaction is same in both suits. A. I. R. 1932 Lah. 138; see also A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 943; A. I. R. 1932 Lah. 130; A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 3=63 M. L. J. 446. Though the C. P. Code is not applicable to proceedings under the Patents and Designs Act, yet the principles of the Code have to be observed by Controller of Patents. 61 C. 450=38 C. W. N. 729=A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 735. The existence of the conditions laid down in Order 23, rule 1, is essential to the exercise of jurisdiction under that provision of law. A. I. R. 1935 Pat. 438. This rule must be read consistently with the other provisions of the Code. It is well-established law that if a suit is so framed as to be open to the charge of multifariousness the plaintiff must elect the cause of action which he is prepared to prosecute or the defendant against whom he will proceed. A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 696=1935 M. W. N. 737=42 L. W. 696=158 Ind. Cas. 909. Where an Appellate Court calls for a finding on a new issue and an application is made by the plaintiff under Order 23, rule 1, the Appellate Court has jurisdiction to pass orders under it. A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 445=156 Ind. Cas. 799.

Formal defect.—If formal defects exist and if it would be fatal to suit must be considered by Court when allowing withdrawal of suit. 35 C. W. N. 112=131 Ind. Cas. 863; see also 32 C. W. N. 1244. The expression "formal defect" connotes defect of various kinds not affecting the merits of the case on substantial questions (including equities and estoppes) reasonably arising between the parties. 81 Ind. Cas. 465=2 Rang. 66; see also A. I. R. 1925 Mad. 617=88 Ind. Cas. 665; A. I. R. 1929 Nag. 72. A suit failing by reason of the cause of action cannot be said to fail by reason of some formal defect. A. I. R. 1925 Oudh 291=27 O. C. 231=79 Ind. Cas. 1033. Objections by defendant do not prove that there are formal defects. Court must be satisfied that there are such defects. 11 O. L. J. 351=79 Ind. Cas. 1031; see also 64 Ind. Cas. 556; 48 Ind. Cas. 97=3 P. L. J. 651; 43 Ind. Cas. 985=7 L. W. 131; 43 Ind. Cas. 346. Objections to jurisdiction and Court-fees are formal defects. 41 M. 701=35 M. L. J. 27=45 Ind. Cas. 265. Formal defects need not be in pleadings. 34 C. W. N. 578=127 Ind. Cas. 549. Institution of suit against insolvent without permission of Court is formal defect. A. I. R. 1925 Rang. 105=2 Rang. 643=84 Ind. Cas. 909. Where neither application, nor order made upon it, stating formal defect, order is bad for material irregularity. A. I. R. 1931 Cal. 107=34 C. W. N. 912=130 Ind. Cas. 142; 34 C. W. N. 912=A. I. R. 1931 Cal. 107. Some necessary parties are not impleaded is not formal defect. A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 59. In such a case no withdrawal is allowed. Ibid.

Grounds for withdrawal.—Court should state grounds for allowing the suit to be withdrawn with leave to bring fresh suit. A. I. R. 1931 All. 19=132 Ind. Cas. 36. Order granting withdrawal with right to file fresh suit made in absence of formal defect or sufficient cause is absolutely without jurisdiction. A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 175=124 Ind. Cas. 686; see also A. Otherwise the Court cannot act under the order. A. I. R. 1922 Cal. 58=76 Ind. Cas. 484. Sufficient grounds must be of the nature of formal defect. A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 1085=112 Ind. Cas. 603=21 O. C. 66. An application to withdraw suit with liberty to bring a fresh suit, on the ground that notices on the heirs could not be served, does not lie. 24 Bom. L. R. 909=47 B. 92=75 Ind. Cas. 283. Where the plaintiff for fear of failure in his case desires to withdraw to be able to bring another suit on completely different allegations, this rule does not apply. 81 Ind. Cas. 276. Withdrawal should be granted only where suit would fail due to defect not for plaintiff's default and such withdrawal would not harass the defendant. 34 C. W. N. 912=A. I. R. 1931 Cal. 107. Permission must be given where plaintiff desires to submit formal proof of document necessary to his success. A. I. R. 1929 All. 133=50 A. 835. The words "subject-matter" mean the cause of action for a claim. A. I. R. 1924 Oudh 181=74 Ind. Cas. 56. The words "other sufficient grounds" are wider than the words used in the preceding clause, namely, "formal defects" and the other ground mentioned in clause (b) must be some ground other than and different from "formal defect." 34 C. W. N. 578=A. I. R. 1931 Cal. 268 ; see also A. I. R. 1934 All. 214.

Sub-section (2).—Clauses (a) and (b) must be read together Clause (a) being an illustration of what the legislature thought would be a sufficient reason, may in that way, to some extent limit the generality of the words in clause (b). But there is no justification in going further and limit the very wide discretion which clause (b) confers on the Court. 36 Bom. L. R. 1110. The language of clause (b) is quite plain, and there is scope for the introduction of ejusdem rule ; Ibid. This clause can be interpreted so as to give the Court authority to pass an order upon any grounds which appears to it to be "sufficient grounds" whether they are in the nature of formal defects or not. 1934 A. L. J. 821=A. I. R. 1934 All. 214 ; see also A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 735 ; 11 O. W. N. 557=A. I. R. 1934 Oudh. 257. A suit may only be withdrawn under clause (b) of sub-rule (2) of rule 1, when the "other sufficient grounds" are closely analogous to the ground given in clause 1. Clause 1 deals with the case where a suit must fail by reason of some formal defect. A. I. R. 1935 Pat. 438=158 Ind. Cas. 986 ; see also A. I. R. 1935 Pat. 251. The failure of the plaintiff to produce documents at the proper time or any other default on his part in properly prosecuting the suit cannot be regarded as a sufficient ground within the meaning of Order 23, rule 1, C. P. Code. 158 Ind. Cas. 280=1935 O. W. N. 1066=A. I. R. 1935 Oudh. 495 ; see also A. I. R. 1935 Nag. 185=18 N. L. J. 149=158 Ind. Cas. 263. The language of rule 1 (2) (a) implies that a Court has jurisdiction to permit withdrawal of a suit only while the suit is pending before it, that is, at any time before it passes a decree. 39 C. W. N. 586. Where a plaintiff has been allowed to withdraw a suit under this rule with liberty to bring a fresh suit on condition that he pays the defendant's cost and the order fixes no date for payment of cost, a suit may be instituted before payment of cost. A. I. R. 1935 Nag. 56=31 N. L. R. 766=157 Ind. Cas. 287.

Leave to withdraw.—Withdrawal must be one with permission of Court. A. I. R. 1928 Rang. 273=6 Rang. 494. Order granting withdrawal of suit or appeal must be a sufficient ground and supported on sound reasons. A. I. R. 1931 Cal. 336=35 C. W. N. 112 ; 34 C. W. N. 912. Application to withdraw suit should not be granted in the absence of other parties interested. A. I. R. 1930 Nag. 151=13 N. L. J. 93. Withdrawal of suit or appeal does not amount to decree. A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 416=51 M. 664 ; see also A. I. R. 1928 All. 679=50 A. 608. Court on its own motion can pass an order and an application by plaintiff is not necessary. A. I. R. 1927 Nag. 302=10 N. L. J. 142 ; see also A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 594=23

L. W. 367. Order granting permission under this rule is tantamount to leave to withdraw, with liberty to institute fresh suit on the same cause of action. A. I. R. 1926 Pat. 259=7 P. L. T. 49; see also A. I. R. 1934 All. 292. Effect of conditional order is that the suit is deemed to be pending in Court till the condition is fulfilled. A. I. R. 1926 Pat. 409=5 Pat 306. A plaintiff should not be allowed to withdraw suit with liberty to bring a fresh suit after an appeal has been filed against the appellate decree. 45 Ind. Cas. 913. Permission to withdraw suit does not mean recognition of maintainability of suit nor can a Court provide to the effect in the order. A. I. R. 1922 Mad. 447=45 M. 90=41 M. L. J. 594=70 Ind. Cas. 432. Application to withdraw suit can itself be withdrawn. 71 Ind. Cas. 288=44 M. L. J. 77. Where the Court is not satisfied that the circumstances contemplated in the rule exist, then it cannot make the order for withdrawal with liberty. 64 Ind. Cas. 337=3 Pat. L. T. 80; see also 61 Ind. Cas. 584=18 N. L. R. 30. Leave can be granted to withdraw a part of the claim with liberty to bring a fresh suit on the ground of misjoinder of causes of action and parties. 64 Ind. Cas. 82. On an application for permission to withdraw a suit with liberty to bring a fresh suit, the Court cannot merely grant such permission without granting also leave to bring a fresh suit. A. I. R. 1921 Pat 360=56 Ind. Cas. 286. Where a Court in dismissing a suit remarks that the plaintiffs are at liberty to file a fresh suit, but there was no formal application under Order 23, rule 1, for withdrawal the remark does not amount to a permission to bring a fresh suit under Order XXIII, rule 1. A. I. R. 1925 (P. C.) 55=27 Bom. L. R. 725=29 C. W. N. 749=23 A. L. J. 739=91 Ind. Cas. 280. Application should be allowed as a whole or dismissed as a whole. 1931 A. L. J. 956=135 Ind. Cas. 160; 11 O. W. N. 1102. Permission should be given only when defect was not due to any fault of plaintiff especially when a leave is asked in the Appellate Court. 34 C. W. N. 912=A. I. R. 1931 Cal. 107. Application under Order 23, rule 2, must be treated as indivisible. A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 155=136 Ind. Cas. 316. Where suit for permission of three plots of land on basis of sale certificates, plaintiff was allowed to withdraw claim in respect of one of the plots as number having been wrongly entered instead of another number. 145 Ind. Cas. 222=A. I. R. 1933 Oudh 225=10 O. W. N. 311. Where plaintiff is suing in representative character, he cannot put an end to it by merely withdrawing from it. A. I. R. 1934 All. 4. Mere application to withdraw suit does not end the suit. Suit terminates only on order being passed by Court on such application. A. I. R. 1934 All. 4. Where the plaintiff is not prepared to meet the defendant's case it is no ground for withdrawal under this rule. A. I. R. 1934 All. 137. Where the defendants have failed to prove that the withdrawal of previous suit, with reference to which the bar under Order 23, rule 2, has been pleaded, was without permission to bring a fresh suit, the suit is not barred by reason of Order 23, rule 1. A. I. R. 1935 Cal. 744. Where payment of cost within one month was a condition precedent to the fresh suit the Court would have no jurisdiction to entertain a new suit unless the costs have been paid within the period fixed. 39 C. W. N. 330.

Withdrawal without leave.—This rule extends to fresh suit only and not to applications. A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 1165. Where a Court allows withdrawal without liberty to bring a fresh suit, a fresh suit in respect of the same matter cannot be brought. 40 M. L. J. 126=62 Ind. Cas. 833; see also 46 Ind. Cas. 913; 40 Ind. Cas. 408=29 C. L. J. 1; A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 490; A. I. R. 1935 Cal. 157; 1935 O. W. N. 661=A. I. R. 1935 Oudh 434; A. I. R. 1935 Cal. 764; A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 755=31 P. L. R. 383; A. Where causes of action are different, this rule is no bar to a fresh suit on the ground that permission to bring a fresh suit had not been taken from the Court at the time of the withdrawal of the former suit. A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 721; 151 Ind. Cas. 458=38 C. W. N. 133=A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 433. The withdrawal of a suit instituted by partners who have not been registered as a firm under the Partnership Act is no bar to a fresh suit filed by them on the same cause of action, after they get themselves registered as a firm. The latter suit is technically a suit by a different plaintiff. A. I. R. 1936 Mad. 697=1936 M. W. N. 888=164 Ind. Cas. 748. With respect to the application of Order 23, rule 1, a suit for partition should be treated differently, and a subsequent suit for partition of the same property involved in the previous suit is not barred under Order 23, rule 1 by the dismissal of the previous suit, even though no permission to institute a fresh suit was obtained when the previous suit was dismissed on the ground of compromise, the reason being that the right to bring a suit for partition unlike other suits is a continuing right, and as soon as the defendants failed to carry out the compromise, the parties are relegated to their rights as they existed prior to the compromise. A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 909=1935 M. W. N. 985=42 L. W. 843=69 M. L. J. 401.

Form of order.—Where an application under Order XXIII, rule 1, contains a prayer for permission to bring a fresh suit but the order of the Court on the application only says "withdrawn—file," the permission prayed for is granted. A. I. R. 1927 Oudh 360=130 Ind. Cas. 510; see also 67 Ind. Cas. 1002=21 Lah. L. J. 242; 44 Ind. Cas. 889=34 M. L. J. 515. The Court can impose the limitation of time for institution of the subsequent suit at a time of withdrawal of the first. 44 B. L. R. 939=22 Bom. L. R. 939=58 Ind. Cas. 45. Where a plaintiff applies for a withdrawal of suit with permission to bring a fresh suit, the Court has no power to decide the application allowing the suit to be withdrawn and refusing the permission to bring a fresh suit. 56 Ind. Cas. 286=1 Pat. L. T. 292; see also 1 Pat. L. T. 299=56 Ind. Cas. 756. Where there is no application and no withdrawal the suit is dismissed. 10 O. L. J. 132=74 Ind. Cas. 549. A permission for fresh suit must be expressly given. 9 P. R. 1916=37 Ind. Cas. 128. An order recorded after the withdrawal of a claim petition under Order 21, rule 62, that "the proceedings are dropped" is equivalent to an order under this rule. 79 Ind. Cas. 1002=20 N. L. R. 106; but see 74 Ind. Cas. 549=10 O. L. J. 132.

Effect of order.—Where a suit is allowed to be withdrawn with leave to bring a fresh suit it should be regarded as never brought. It does not give fresh cause of action nor starts fresh limitation. 29 C. W. N. 755=41 C. L. J. 456=52 Cal. 894 (F. B.)=88 Ind. Cas. 637. Section 14 does not apply to cases where the suit is withdrawn under Order 23, rule 1. A. I. R. 1928 All. 402. Where a prior suit between the parties has been permitted to be withdrawn with liberty to institute a fresh suit, it is not open to the defendant in the subsequent suit to object to the maintainability of the suit on the ground that the previous suit had abated before leave to withdraw the suit was granted to the plaintiff, because he is precluded from going behind the order permitting withdrawal. A. I. R. 1935 Cal. 739=51 C. L. J. 209=A. I. R. 1935 Cal. 216.

Appellate Court.—Appellate Court can also grant withdrawal of a suit. A. I. R. 1929 Mad. 36=114 Ind. Cas. 557; see also A. I. R. 1926 Nag. 444; 40 A. 27=15 A. L. J. 809=42 Ind. Cas. 856; 59 Ind. An appellate Court cannot under Order 23, rule 1 (2), allow a suit to be withdrawn in appeal as distinguished from the appeal itself, with liberty to institute a fresh suit as that would amount to set aside the decree in the suit. 51 Ind. Cas. 579=18 S. L. R. 72; see also 46 Ind. Cas. 392=3 P. L. J. 404; A. I. R. 1934 All. 214. The Court can in appeal allow under Order 23, C. P. Code, to withdraw a suit with liberty to bring a fresh suit but this can only be done in a case where the Appellate Court discovers that the suit ought to fail on the ground of some formal defect and by reason of such discovery it is of opinion that the decree of the trial Court ought to be reversed. A. I. R. 1935 Cal. 711=41 C. L. J. 186=86 Ind. Cas. 1029; see also 60 Ind. Cas. 899=19 A. L. J. 47. An Appellate Court should not allow a suit to be withdrawn with leave to bring a fresh suit, by mere successful plaintiff. 61 Ind. Cas. 584; but see 74 Ind. Cas. 894. Rule 1 does not apply to the case of a plaintiff respondent. 45 M. L. J. 212=46 M. 811=74 Ind. Cas. 4. Effect of appellate Courts leave to withdraw suit with liberty to file fresh suit is to wipe out lower Courts decree. 37 Ind. Cas. 414=44 M. 259.

Power of co-plaintiffs.—One of several plaintiffs cannot withdraw a suit without obtaining the consent of all. 2 U. P. L. R. (B. R.) 33=55 Ind. Cas. 926; see also 52 Ind. Cas. 183=1 U. P. L. R. (B. An appellant can withdraw from an appeal under sub-rule (1) of r. 1, Order XXIII, without the consent of the co-appellants, sub-rule (4) of r. 1 does not govern rule 1. A. I. R. 1927 Bom. 244=29 Bom. L. R. 299=101 Ind. Cas. 348.

Minor.—Court should jealously guard the interest of minors and should not allow a suit to be instituted on a minor's behalf to be withdrawn without being satisfied that it is for his benefit. 47 Ind. Cas. 508=59 P. R. 1919.

Late stage.—A plaintiff has no absolute right to withdraw his suit in appeal. A. I. R. 1923 Oudh 252=77 Ind. Cas. 874 ; see also 46 M. 811=45 M. L. J. 212= A. I. R. 1924 Mad. 79=74 Ind. Cas. 4 ; A. R. 1929 Cal. 88=55 C. 1067=113 Ind. Cas. 845 ; 41 C. L. J. 168=86 Ind. Cas. 1029. Plaintiff can withdraw part of his claim to give jurisdiction, even after evidence and arguments are heard. 116 Ind. Cas. 823. Evidence being meagre is no ground to allow withdrawal of the suit under Order XXIII, rule 1 or under s. 151. A. I. R. 1929 Bom. 320=31 Bom. L. R. 613=119 Ind. Cas. 773 ; see also 85 Ind. Cas. 543.

Order as to costs.—Where suit was allowed to be withdrawn on payment of cost, cost may be paid after filing second suit. A. I. R. 1929 Nag. 135=25 N.L.R. 171. Where leave to withdraw suit with liberty is granted, Court must follow the event. 25 Bom. L. R. 242=47 B. 559=72 Ind. Cas. 324. When permission is granted to withdraw a suit on payment of costs, the payment of costs is not a condition precedent to the institution of the suit and non-payment will not debar the plaintiff from filing a fresh suit. 45 Ind. Cas. 969=7 L. W. 557 ; see also A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 159=99 Ind. Cas. 420 ; A. I. R. 1933 All. 810=1933 A. L. J. 1350, A. I. R. 1926 Pat. 472=95 Ind. Cas. 875 ; 64 Ind. Cas. 738 (Cal.) ; 44 Ind. A. I. R. 1932 Mad. 714=36 M. L. W. 646.

Finality of order.—An appeal does not lie from an order passed under Order XXIII, rule 1, allowing a suit to be withdrawn with liberty to bring a fresh suit. A. I. R. 1926 Oudh. 185=88 Ind. Cas. 1029. The mere fact that the Court may have exercised a wrong discretion is not sufficient to bring the case within the purview of s. 115. A. I. R. 1927 All. 750=25 A. L. J. 838=103 Ind. Cas. 372 ; see also A. I. R. 1931 All. 19. The Court trying the subsequent suit cannot enquire whether the Court which granted the plaintiff's permission to withdraw the first suit had properly made such order. 65 Ind. Cas. 704 ; 58 Ind. Cas. 806=48 C. 138=24 C. W. N. 723 (F. B.). An order under this rule beyond the competency of the Court is an order passed in irregular exercise of jurisdiction as not a nullity. 40 Ind. Mortgage suit.—Vide (1916) 1 M. W. N. 171=32 Ind. Cas. 624.

Partition suit.—In a partition suit, after compromise the plaintiff cannot withdraw the suit. 49 B. 672=27 Bom. L. R. 921=89 Ind. Cas. 984. In a partition suit a defendant seeking a share is in the position of a plaintiff and one plaintiff cannot withdraw without the permission of another according to Order 23, rule 1(4). Ibid ; see also A. Public trust.—Where in a scheme suit under s. 92 of the Code, the plaintiff applies to withdraw the suit to prevent the Court from deciding the suit on merits, the Court can transpose some of the defendants as plaintiffs and proceed with the suit notwithstanding the withdrawal of the plaintiffs. 12 L. W. 25=59 Ind. Cas. 233.

Revision.—The High Court can revise an order passed under this rule if that order proceeds on grounds other than those laid down in rule 1. 90 Ind. Cas. 632=26 P. L. R. 319=7 Lah. L. J. 290 ; see also 92 Ind. Cas. 1030 ; 107 Ind. Cas. 887=5 O. W. N. 61=A. I. R. 1928 Oudh 482=3

Where a judicial discretion has been exercised, the High Court cannot interfere, merely on the ground that had the matter come before that Court as a substantive application, or by way of appeal it might not have taken the same view of the facts of the case in their application to the provisions of Order XXIII, r. 1, commended itself to the Court below. 60 Ind. No appeal lies against an order passed under Order 23, rule (1), dismissing a suit as withdrawn by the plaintiffs. 1935 O. W. N. 842=156 Ind. Cas. 990=A. I. R. 1935 Oudh 486.

2. [S. 374.] In any fresh suit instituted on permission granted under the last preceding rule, the plaintiff shall be bound by the law of limitation in the same manner as if the first suit had not been instituted.

Scope.—The rule contained in this rule viz., that when a suit is withdrawn with leave to bring a fresh suit, the plaintiff shall be bound by the law of limitation in the same manner as if the first suit had not been brought does not apply to execution proceedings. 10 B. 62; see also 17 A. 106. As regards whether section 14 of the Limitation Act applies, vide 29 B. 219; 35 C. 924.

3. [S. 375.] Where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court that a suit has been adjusted wholly or in part by compromise of suit, any lawful agreement or compromise, or where the defendant satisfies the plaintiff in respect of the whole or any part of the subject matter of the suit, the Court shall order such agreement, compromise or satisfaction to be recorded and shall pass a decree in accordance therewith so far as it relates to the suit.

N. B.—For local amendment in Rangoon.—Vide infra.

Scope.—Order 23, rule 3, contemplates an adjustment by a lawful agreement or compromise that is an adjustment by act of parties and not an adjustment which has a statutory operation. A. I. R. 1937 Cal. 381. Whether the compromise under Order 23, rule 3, C. P. Code, in a suit does or does not relate to the suit within the meaning of Order 23, rule 3, is in each case a question of fact depending upon the particular facts of each case. A. I. R. 1937 Sind 190. A decree dismissing the suit on the ground that a plea in bar of the suit on the basis of an alleged compromise is established is not one made under Order XXIII, rule 3. 46 Ind. Cas. 775. Suit in rule 3, includes appellate stages and execution proceedings that follow a decree. 62 Ind. Cas. 608=6 Pat. L. J. 253=2 Pat. L. T. 273. Under rule 1 the Court deals with plaintiff alone, but under rule 3 it deals with plaintiff and defendant and finds out if there is any agreement between them for compromise. 37 Ind. Cas. 421. Injunction can be passed with the consent of the parties, but it must be by order of Court. A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 402. Where party has no interest, his consent to compromise is not necessary. A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 34. Compromise not recorded under rule

3 is still agreement. Party taking advantage of such agreement is estopped from challenging its binding nature. A. I. R. 1924 Lah. 218. This rule is intended to meet cases where parties, having agreed to compromise subsequently fall out. Where a legal compromise subsequent to the suit is alleged by one party and denied by the other, the Court has power to frame an additional issue as to its existence, and if it is proved, to give effect to it. 19 M. 419=4 M. L. J. 263. This rule applies only to a case in which the adjustment or satisfaction is made in Court, and cannot and ought not to be extended so as to specifically perform agreements made out of Court. 24 C. 908=1 C. W. N. 597 (F. B.). "Lawful" in rule 3 refers to the nature of the compromise arrived at and not to the procedure which the parties followed in bringing it about. A. I. R. 1927 Bom. 565 (F. B.)=51 B. 908=29 Bom. 1254=105 Ind. Cas. 516. Rule 3 of Order XXIII refers to cases where the parties themselves come to an agreement. In reference to arbitration it is the unity of the minds of the parties that constitutes the adjustment. A. I. R. 1927 All. 614=25 A. L. J. 787=102 Ind. Cas. 608; see also A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 806; A. I. R. 1930 All. 162=(1930) A. L. J. 397=52 A. 735. "So far as it relates to the suit" mean "so far as it relates to the adjustment or settlement of matters litigated in the suit," the settlement may take any form which is lawful and fair and which satisfies the parties. 64 Ind. Cas. 391=A. I. R. 1922 L. B. 22. A contract of parties is none-the-less a contract because there is superadded to it the command of the Judge. A. I. R. 1924 Pat. 231=81 Ind. Cas. 298. Rule 3 is applicable to suits, but under s. 141 the procedure applicable to suits, so far as it can, should be applicable to in miscellaneous proceedings. A. I. R. 1926 Oudh 311=13 O. L. J. 138=92 Ind. Cas. 732. The provisions contained in rule 3 of Order 23, are applicable to execution proceedings. 44 Ind. Cas. 164; 80 Ind. Cas. 454; but see A. I. R. 1927 Nag. 31=97 Ind. Cas. 768. Once a compromise decree has been passed with reference to the rights of the parties to a suit, no suit but execution is the remedy of the parties. 52 Ind. Cas. 188=151 P. R. 1919. Where a decree includes matters covered by the suit and also matters outside it, the decree can be executed only to the extent of the matters included in the suit and not in respect of the matters outside it. A. I. R. 1925 Cal. 286=78 Ind. Cas. 317. A dismissal under Order 23, Civil Procedure Code, does not amount to an adjudication but only precludes the institution of a second suit on the same cause of action. A. I. R. 1937 Mad. 438. This rule is mandatory in its terms, and if the Court is satisfied that the parties executed the compromise the terms of which were known to them and which is a perfectly valid and binding document, adjusting the suit or appeal, the Court has no option but to order the compromise to be recorded and to pass a decree in accordance thereof. A. I. R. 1935 All. 137=1934 A. L. J. 1183. The word "lawful" in this rule does not merely mean binding or enforceable. The rule refers to agreements which in their very terms and nature are not "unlawful" and may include agreements voidable at the option of one of the parties. 154 Ind. Cas. 746=57 A. 426=A. I. R. 1936 All. 137=1934 A. L. J. 1183. An agreement which purports to deal with the rights of certain minors who are not parties to the suit is not a lawful agreement which can be recorded under Order 23, rule 3, C. P. Code. 61 C. L. J. 88. The provisions of rule 3 are imperative and the special procedure therein prescribed is not affected by the general procedure laid down in Order 23, rule 1. 57 M. 892=39 L. W. 521=150 Ind. Cas. 582=A. I. R. 1934 Mad. 337=66 M. L. J. 517. Where portion of the compromise is valid, and the rest is invalid, valid portion can be executed. A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 792=112 Ind. Cas. 695. Rule 3 gives speedier remedy than suit. A. I. R. 1933 Pat. 306=12 Pat. 356.

"Any other law" in s. 89 include Order 23, rule 3. A. I. R. 1931 Oudh 127=6 Lah. 591=131 Ind. Cas. 443; see also A. I. R. 1927 Bom. 565=29 Bom. L. R. 1254=51 B. 908=105 Ind. Cas. 516. A consent decree does not come within the rule of res judicata as contained in s. 11. It, however, raises an estoppel as much as a decree is passed in invitum. A. I. R. 1926 Cal. 672=43 C. L. J. 116=94 Ind. Cas. 844. Where parties to a suit arrive at a compromise, a Court does not make declarations based on such compromise; because Court not having proved the case cannot form its own opinion as to the merits of the case. A. I. R. 1929 Bom. 350=31 Bom. L. R. 621=119 Ind. Cas. 663. Consent decree requiring personal skill can be passed. A. I. R. 1933 Pat. 306=12 Pat. 359. Duty of Court is to see what party was in the right before thrusting compromise on one party or other.

34 C. W. N. 1068=A. I. R. 1931 Cal. 205. A party in whose favour a decree or order is passed can set it aside by adjustment or compromise under this rule. 47 Ind. Cas. 817.

Adjustment.—Adjustment cannot be refused if lawful. 12 Pat. 359=A. I. R. 1933 Pat. 306. Question whether compromise amounts to adjustment depends on intention of parties and not on question whether terms are to be performed in future or in present. A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 732. Valid award even without intervention of Court can be given effect to adjustment. A. I. R. 1931 Nag. 66=13 N. L. J. 237; A. I. R. 1931 Bom. 343=55 B. 503=33 Bom. L. R. 759; 67 Ind. Cas. 123=3 Lah. L. J. 162; but see 31 P. L. R. 225=A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 225. In a full Bench of the Allahabad High Court, it has been held that an award arrived at by a reference if the subject-matter of an appeal to an arbitration pending the appeal cannot be recognised as an 'adjustment by lawful agreement' by the parties to the appeal or as a "compromise". A compromise is the direct result of an agreement between the parties. Giving the words of r. 3 their plain meaning, an arbitration cannot come within the purview of rule 3. 47 A. 637=23 A. L. J. 561=88 Ind. Cas. 768 (F. B.). This rule restricts the Court's power only to such agreements as are lawful. If an agreement is not legally probable the parties cannot make it the subject of an adjustment so as to oust the Court's jurisdiction to deal with the merits of the case. A. I. R. 1926 Nag. 194=90 Ind. Cas. 378. Where an agreement during suit does not terminate litigation it creates no right and is not compromise. A. I. R. 1926 Bom. 24=27 Bom. L. R. 1441; see also A. I. R. 1928 Cal. 108=46 C. L. J. 353. A compromise under which a plaintiff agrees to withdraw his suit against some defendants only is valid. A. I. R. 1930 Sind 217=123 Ind. Cas. 693. Parties cannot adjust a preliminary decree between themselves out of Court and get such adjustment enforced under this rule, in as much as this rule relates to adjustment of suit and not to a satisfaction of a decree. A. I. R. 1930 Mad. 105=30 L. W. 551=1929 M. W. N. 867. Where a decision of Court of Justice depends on an agreement depending upon contingencies beyond the control of parties, it is not an adjustment. A. I. R. 1927 Oudh 222=102 Ind. Cas. 470; see also 78 Ind. Cas. 540=27 O. C. 157=11 O. L. J. 306. An agreement between the parties to a suit to abide by the decision which may be made in another proceeding is tantamount to an adjustment of the suit when that decision is actually passed. 51 Ind. Cas. 540=8 L. W. 470; see also 80 Ind. Cas. 16=A. I. R. 1924 All. 570; A. I. R. 1930 Bom. 431=32 Bom. L. R. 389=54 B. 696. Courts will not allow an agreement entered into by parties prior to decree to treat the decree to be passed as in part inexecutable. 43 M. 725=39 M. L. J. 222=56 Ind. Cas. 976. The payment of the mortgage money, due on a preliminary decree, made out of Court, if certified by the decree-holder, can be treated as an adjustment of the suit under this rule. 1935 O. W. N. 1087=158 Ind. Cas. 419. Where the parties to the suit request the Court to adopt a certain procedure and to decree, the suit in case a certain event happen, and make an endorsement to that effect on the plaint, they cannot afterwards go behind it or appeal against the decree passed in pursuance of that agreement. 164 Ind. Cas. 611=44 L. W. 351=A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 856=71 M. L. J. 281.

Arbitration.—If the parties in a suit have referred their differences to arbitration without an order of the Court, the award can be recorded under Order XXIII, rule 3. A. I. R. 1931 Oudh 127=8 O. W. R. (Sup) 72. Arbitration in pending suit is subject to the control of the Court. Parties cannot deprive the Court of its jurisdiction by private reference to arbitration, and no award made on such reference, unless consented to by both parties, can be enforced in suit, either by treating it as an adjustment of the matters in dispute under rule 3, Order XXIII, or under the general law of contracts. A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 887=47 C. L. J. 59=104 Ind. Cas. 360; see also 88 Ind. Cas. 61=18 S. L. R. 111; 60 C. L. J. 173. Where after the parties to a suit refer to arbitration a compromise is arrived at between them, but there is no order superseding the arbitration, the Court cannot record the compromise. 51 C. 432=83 Ind. Cas. 606; but see A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 156=99 Ind. Cas. 1002. If after the award has been given there is any dispute between the parties as regards the validity of it, the Court has to determine the objections raised against the award just in the same way as it has to determine the objections raised against the validity of a compromise simpliciter filed before it. A. I. R. 1931 Oudh. 127=8 O. W. N. 71=131 Ind. Cas. 443. An award made on a reference to arbitration without the intervention of the Court, pending a suit, does not come within the purview of Order 23, rule 3, C. P. Code and cannot be enforced unless consented to by both parties. A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 643=38 C. W. N. 648=151 Ind. Cas. 661.

Lawful agreement.—The Court, before it records a compromise, must be satisfied that the suit has been adjusted wholly or in part by any lawful agreement or compromise. 83 Ind. Where all parties do not assent to a compromise the compromise is not lawful. 86 Ind. Cas. 361=6 Lah. L. J. 604; see also 69 Ind. Cas. 395. Where the claim is beyond the jurisdiction of the trial Court, it cannot pass a compromise decree. (1922) M. W. N. 83=16 L. W. 155=66 Ind. Cas. 837. Compromise between plaintiff and one defendant cannot be accepted as prejudicial to other defendants. A. I. R. 1923 Oudh. 252=77 Ind. Cas. 874. Lawful means legally enforceable and not necessary specifically enforceable. Ibid. Repudiating party cannot insist on trial of suit to decide lawfulness of compromise. Ibid. A compromise is not illegal only because among its terms there is withdrawal of certain criminal prosecutions, compoundable by law. A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 860=31 P. L. R. 225. Where a compromise decree is attacked on the ground that the compromise is brought about by undue influence, coercion and compulsion, a regular suit will lie. 85 Ind. Cas. 557=A. I. R. 1925 All. 266. A. I. R. 1930 Sind 217=123 Ind. Cas. 693. Where a compromise is filed in Court but repudiated by some of the parties to it, the Court must hold an enquiry under Order 23, rule 3. A. I. A compromise affecting the rights of a person who is not a party to it cannot be considered to be lawful, and a decree passed thereon is liable to be set aside. 38 P. L. R. 283.

Duty of Court.—A Court to which a petition of compromise is presented should not delay in passing order for recording the compromise. Under this rule the Court is to pass an order directing the compromise to be recorded and this should be done at once. 15 Pat. 456=163 Ind. Cas. 675=A. I. R. 1936 Pat. 401. The Court is also to pass a decree in accordance with the compromise so far as it relates to the suit and the passing of the decree may, if necessary, be postponed till the hearing of the suit if there is a question as to how the interest of other parties to the suit, who would have not entered into the compromise, would be affected by it, but this is no reason to defer the actual recording of the agreement of compromise. Ibid. The Court has no jurisdiction, except in the case of minors, etc., to investigate the fairness or unfairness of a compromise which has been accepted by both the parties. 1936 M. Whether particular clause relates to suit or not is a question of fact. 33 Bom. L. R. 463=A. I. R. 1931 Bom. 295. Where part of compromise does not relate to the suit, the decree is not ultra vires. A. I. R. 1933 All. 649 (F. B.)=1933 A. L. J. 728 ; see also A. I. R. 1932 Bom. 466 ; A. I. R. 1932 Mad. 557=1933 M. W. N. 623. Whether terms go beyond subject-matter in suit should be determined on facts of a particular case. A. I. R. 1932 Bom. 47=33 Bom. L. R. 1457.

Partial compromise.—Where a plaintiff compounds his difference with some of the defendants and prays for withdrawal of suit, the Court should dismiss the suit for want of prosecution. 20 C. W. N. 752=34 Ind. Cas. 186 ; but see 2 Pat. L. T. 471=62 Ind. Cas. 933. A compromise does not bind a person who is not a party to it. 45 Ind. Cas. 33. Where not the whole but only part of a compromise is recorded in the order of the Court, the compromise cannot be enforced. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 291=30 P. L. R. 112=11 Lah. L. J. 50=117 Ind. Cas. 240. Compromise with some is lawful. A. I. R. 1933 Pat. 306=12 Pat. 359=14 P. L. T. (Sup.) 1.

Record of compromise.—Court must record compromise so far as it relates to suit. A. I. R. 1931 Bom. 295=33 Bom. L. R. 463=132 Ind. Cas. 434. Policy of law is not to discourage compromises. Ibid. Court in its inherent powers can confirm any reasonable agreement between the parties appearing before it. A. I. R. 1931 Rang. 58=9 Rang. 39=131 Ind. Cas. 57. A joint petition by both the parties to a suit requesting the Court to adjourn the case for enabling the parties to arrive at the terms of a contemplated settlement does not by itself amount to a compromise when nothing further has been done by the parties in furtherance of their original intention. A decree based on the original petition itself as if it were a compromise is without jurisdiction. 34 C. W. N. 1068=131 Ind. Cas. 257=A. I. R. 1931 Cal. 205. Under rule 3 a decree can be passed only after an order that the compromise be recorded. 43 C. 85=33 Ind. Cas. 769. But when the parties enter into a compromise and the suit is decreed in the terms of the compromise, the omission to record the compromise is not fatal to the validity of the decree. The omission to record the compromise does not affect the merits of the case or the jurisdiction of the Court, and the defect is therefore cured by s. 99. A. I. R. 1935 All. 738=1935 A. L. J. 962. Where a compromise collateral to suit offered by one party in the course of the appeal was accepted by Karpardaz of the other party but the document of compromise was not recorded and a decree was merely drawn up and it was the only document brought into existence: Held that the provisions of Order 23 were not complied with and that the Court should not in pursuance of rule 3 make a decree. 62 I. A. 196=14 Pat. 545=A. I. R. 1935 P. C. 119=37 Bom. L. R. 845=39 C. W. N. 1185=1935 A. L. J. 865=1935 M. W. N. 778=16 Pat. L. T. 479. Under this rule, the Court is under a duty to record a compromise and pass a decree in terms thereof. Omission on the part of the Court to prepare a decree is not however, fatal, and is a purely formal matter not affecting the merits of the case as between the parties. 15 Pat. L. T. 457=A. I. R. 1934 Pat. 380. A compromise cannot be recorded under rule 3 on the basis of a draft compromise petition filed in Court, when it is found that the suit was not really completely adjusted. 61 C. 910=59 C. L. J. 421=A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 846. A compromise though not recorded as required by rule 3 can still be looked upon as an agreement between the parties and a party taking advantage of such an agreement and getting the suit of another party thrown out is estopped from pleading in a subsequent suit that he was not bound by that agreement. 35 P. L. R. 150=A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 218. Where a case is still pending for want of a delivered judgment, the Court can receive a petition for compromise and pass necessary orders on it. 41 M. L. J. 385=65 Ind. Cas. 82. In a case where some only of the parties to the suit join in a petition of compromise the other parties can object to the compromise being recorded, and if they show good cause the Court can refuse to grant a decree in terms of the compromise. A. I. R. 1925 Cal. 193=85 Ind. Cas. 678. Wrong order of Court passed through mistake can be amended under ss. 151 and 152. A. I. R. 1923 Pat. 135. Party receiving benefit under compromise cannot be allowed to retain the advantage on compromise being not recorded, but cannot be prevented from resisting recording of compromise. A. I. R. 1933 Pat. 305=12 Pat. 359=14 P. L. T. (Sup) 1. Although under rule 3 Court has to pass a decree in terms of compromise after it has been recorded, the passing of the decree need not be simultaneous with the recording of the compromise and Court may postpone the passing of a decree in a proper case. A. I. R. 1930 Pat. 395=125 Ind. Cas. 521. For a compromise two things are required: (1) that the Court shall order such compromise to be recorded; and (2) that it shall pass a decree in accordance therewith, so far as it relates to the suit. There should be an enquiry as to the terms being lawful or not and the Court should direct formally a compromise to be recorded after its satisfaction that it was a lawful compromise. The omission to comply with the requirements of the rule goes to the root of the jurisdiction of the Court to pass a decree in accordance with the compromise. A. I. R. 1927 Pat. 354=6 Pat. 108=105 Ind. Cas. 271; see also A. I. R. 1929 Sind. 12; 75 Ind. Cas. 461. Refusing to record a lawful compromise is acting illegally or with material irregularity. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 885. Even in declaratory suits a compromise directing one party to pay a certain sum of money to the other party can be allowed by the Court and such a provision can be included in an operative part of the decree. A. I. R. 1928 Nag. 73=24 N. L. R. 55.

Who can compromise.—A guardian of a minor cannot enter into a compromise on behalf of the minor without the leave of the Court. 62 Ind. Cas. 688; see also A. I. R. 1929 Bom. 350=31 Bom. L. R. 621. A compromise entered into with a minor is entirely void and cannot be given effect to in a Court of law. A. I. R. 1927 Pat. 271=8 P. L. T. 730=102 Ind. Cas. 449. Where a stranger applies to be made a party and objects to acceptance of compromise, application should be rejected. 1932 A. L. J. 509=A. I. R. 1932 All. 478. Where a suit has been instituted in the name of a firm, one partner alone has no power to compromise. A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 618=144 Ind. Cas. 1.

Binding on parties.—A consent decree binds the parties thereto as a decree after a contentious trial. It cannot have a greater validity than the compromise itself. A. I. R. 1921 Cal. 356=33 C. L. J. 244=60 Ind. Cas. 864 ; see also 29 C. W. N. 597=88 Ind. Cas. 369 ; 87 Ind. Cas. 174=47 A. 456 ; 47 A. 921=88 Ind. Cas. 611 ; 60 Ind. Cas. 22. If the compromise decree is not tainted with fraud, no suit lies to set it aside. A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 602. If a right compromise is doubtful, an agreement not to carry on any dispute about it is valid. A. I. R. 1930 Bom. 43=32 Bom. L. R. 389=54 B. 695. A compromise in probate case is binding only upon the parties to it. 23 C. L. J. 82=33 Ind. Cas. 273. A consent decree wrongly passed owing to some legal or technical defect is not a nullity. 51 Ind. Cas. 439. The Court can set aside an order made by consent not in the nature of final order or judgment but merely an interlocutory order in the suit, provided proper grounds are made out. 32 Bom. L. R. 667=A. I. R. 1930 Bom. 362.

Compromise in partition Suit—A compromise of a partition suit is not ineffectual only because every party to the action does not join in it. Each case must depend upon its own facts. A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 594=108 Ind. Cas. 221.

Mortgage decree.—Rule 3 applies to proceedings after preliminary decree in mortgage suit. 43 Ind. Cas. 399 ; see also 58 Ind. Cas. 299=2 Pat. L. T. 38 ; 16 Pat. L. T. 311=14 Pat. 488=A. I. R. 943.

Public trust.—No compromise can be said to be lawful which sacrifices its interest in the case of public trust. A. I. R. 1930 Mad. 629=58 M. L. J. 410=53 M. 398 ; see also 60 Ind. Cas. 22=12 L. W. 562.

Preliminary decree.—Order XXIII, rule 3, does not necessitate two decrees ; i. e., a preliminary and a final ; but only one decree. 29 O. C. 26=94 Ind. Cas. 317.

Pleader's authority to compromise.—Express authority is not needed for a counsel to enter into a compromise within the scope of the suit. Where there is limitation of authority and that limitation is communicated to the other side, consent by counsel outside the limits of his authority would be of no effect. 3 Pat. L. T. 371=A. I. R. 1922 Pat. 232=67 Ind. Cas. 96 ; see also 29 C. W. N. 566=52 C. 386=A. I. R. 1925 Cal. 696=88 Ind. Cas. 413 ; A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 714=55 C. 113=31 C. W. N. 953 ; A. I. R. 1929 Oudh 211 ; 19 A. L. J. 63=60 Ind. Cas. 912 ; 60 Ind. Cas. 22. An agreement to compromise a suit must be established by general principles governing formation of contracts, though there are special rules governing intrinsic nature. If the agreement is on behalf of one or both of the parties by their legal advisers, the first two questions that arise are (1) : had the agent, the actual authority of his principal, express or implied, to conclude the contract : (2) If no actual authority, had he ostensible authority so as to bind his principal against the other party, relying on ostensible authority. A. I. R. 1930 P. C. 158=34 C. W. N. 453=1930 A. L. J. 489=58 M. L. J. 551=32 Bom. L. R. 645 (P. C.). Where a compromise has been made by advocate but there is mis-understanding between the advocate and his client, the Court can refuse to give effect to the compromise. A. I. R. 1935 Rang. 150=13 Rang. 319.

Appeal.—Appeal lies from order recording compromise. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 472 ; see also A. I. R. 1929 Nag. 275=12 N. L. J. 124 ; A. I. R. 1929 Pat. 318=8 Pat. 528=10 P. L. T. 293 ; A. I. Where Court holds that the compromise is invalid and not binding on the parties and refuses to record the same, an appeal lies under Order 43, rule (1) (m), assailing the grounds for refusal to record. Proceedings in execution of decrees not affected. 4. [S. 375A.] Nothing in this Order shall apply to any proceedings in execution of a decree or order.

ORDER XXIV.

Payment into Court.

1. [S. 376.] The defendant in any suit to recover a debt or damages may, at any stage of the suit, deposit in Court such sum of money as he considers a satisfaction in full of the claim.
Deposit by defendant of amount in satisfaction of claim.

Scope.—Deposit under Order XXIV must be unconditional so as to be the disposal of the decree-holder desiring to withdraw it. A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 72 ; see also A. I. R. 1927 Rang. 278=5 Rang. 753. Rules 1 and 3 do not apply to execution proceedings and save defendant from costs of original suit. A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 72=97 Ind. Cas. 479. On analogy of these rules judgment-debtor can be relieved from the payment of interest on amount deposited by him and immediately payable to judgment-debtor. 40 A. 125=16 A. L. J. 15=43 Ind. Cas. 520. The word "debt" in this rule applies to secured debt as well as to unsecured debt. 10 Luck. 350=11 O. W. N. 1550=A. I. R. 1935 Oudh. 93.

2. [S. 377.] Notice of the deposit shall be given through the Court by the defendant to the plaintiff, and the amount of the deposit shall (unless the Court otherwise directs) be paid to the plaintiff on his application.
Notice of deposit.

Notes.—Vide 45 Ind. Cas. 638=35 M. L. J. 459 ; A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 342 (when notice is not required).

3. [S. 378.] No interest shall be allowed to the plaintiff on any sum deposited by the defendant from the date of the receipt of such notice, whether the sum deposited is in full of the claim or falls short thereof.
Interest on deposit not allowed to plaintiff after notice.

Notes.—Interest ceases running only if admitted amount is deposited in Court. A. I. R. 1928 Cal. 874=32 C. W. N. 1082=117 Ind. Cas. 687 ; 10 Luck. 350=11 O. W. N. 1550=A. I. R. 1935 Oudh 93. Where the defendant deposits the amount in Court but stipulates such conditions as will make plaintiffs unable to get payment and is thus himself responsible for non-payment to plaintiff, he cannot escape payment of interest from date of such deposit. This rule has no application to such a case. A. I. R. 1936 Lah. 76. This rule does not apply to execution proceedings. A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 72.

4. [S. 379.] (1) Where the plaintiff accepts such amount as satisfaction in part only of his claim, he may prosecute his suit for the balance ; and, if the Court decides that the deposit by the defendant was a full satisfaction of the plaintiff's claim, the plaintiff shall pay the costs of the suit incurred after the deposit and the costs incurred previous thereto, so far as they were caused by excess in the plaintiff's claim.
Procedure where plaintiff accepts deposit as satisfaction in part.

(2) Where the plaintiff accepts such amount as satisfaction in full of his claim, he shall present to the Court a statement to that effect, and such statement shall be filed and the Court shall pronounce judgment accordingly ; and, in directing by whom the costs of each party are to be paid, the Court shall consider which of the parties is most to blame for the litigation.
Procedure where he accepts it as satisfaction in full.

Illustration.

(a) A owes B Rs. 100. B sues A for the amount, having made no demand for payment and having no reason to believe that the delay caused by making a demand would place him at a disadvantage. On the plaint being filed, A pays the money into Court. B accepts it in full satisfaction of his claim, but the Court should not allow him any costs, the litigation being presumably groundless on his part.

(b) B sues A under the circumstances mentioned in illustration (a). On the plaint being filed, A disputes the claim. Afterwards A pays the money into Court. B accepts it in full satisfaction of his claim. The Court should also give B his costs of suit, A's conduct having shown that the litigation was necessary.

(c) A owes B Rs. 100, and is willing to pay him that sum without suit. B claims Rs. 150 and sues A for that amount. On the plaint being filed A pays Rs. 100 into Court and disputes only his liability to pay the remaining Rs. 50. B accepts the Rs. 100 in full satisfaction of his claim. The Court should order him to pay A's costs.

Notes.—Vide 26 C. 766 ; 13 Ind. Cas. 188.

ORDER XXV.

Security for Costs.

1. [Ss. 380, 382.] (1) Where, at any stage of a suit, it appears to the Court that a sole plaintiff is, or (when there are more plaintiffs than one) that all the plaintiffs are residing out of British India, and that such plaintiff does not, or that no one of such plaintiffs does, possess any sufficient immovable property within British India other than the property in suit, the Court may, either of its own motion or on the application of any defendant, order the plaintiff or plaintiffs, within a time fixed by it, to give security for the payment of all costs incurred and likely to be incurred by any defendant.

(2) Whoever leaves British India under such circumstances as to afford reasonable probability that he will not be forthcoming whenever he may be called upon to pay costs shall be deemed to be residing out of British India within the meaning of sub-rule (1).

(3) On the application of any defendant in a suit for the payment of money, in which the plaintiff is a woman, the Court may at any stage of the suit make a like order if it is satisfied that such plaintiff does not possess any sufficient immovable property within British India.

Notes.—Circumstances should be considered for requiring security under wide provision of Order XXV. A. I. R. 1926 Lah. 960=113 Ind. Cas. 911. Absence of prima facie good cause on appeal by pauper is good ground for security. A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 519=56 M. 523=64 M. L. J. 433. Poverty or insolvency of plaintiff is no sufficient ground for ordering him to give security or costs for proceeding with suit. 26 S. L. R. 21=A. I. R. 1932 Sind 33. Section 151 will apply even in cases when this order is not applicable. A. I. R. 1932 Sind 127=6 Luck. 591=8 O. W. N. 71. Plaintiff's temporary residence in British India does not save him from the rule. A. I. R. 1922 Bom. 299=28 Bom. L. R. 1253=46 B. 589=54 Ind. Cas. 703; see also 32 Bom. L. R. 411=A. I. R. 1930 Bom. 220. Ground of pauper plaintiffs being assisted by relation is absurd and security cannot be asked in the absence of very special grounds. 75 Ind. Cas. 309=2 Bur. L. J. 78; 1928 Lah. 960. There is no inflexible rule that only if plaintiff appellant is mere puppet for other's litigation security for costs can be demanded. 32 Ind. Cas. 786. As regards what are suits for money, vide 68 Ind. Cas. 607; 89 Ind. Cas. 620. Costs can be taken from plaintiff only under this rule. 50 C. 853=A. I. R. 1924 Cal. 251=79 Ind. Cas. 298. Order 25 imposes an exceptional disability upon plaintiffs and therefore must be strictly construed. It is not to be applied to circumstances which do not clearly come within its purview. A suit in which there are male and female plaintiffs cannot properly be described as a suit in which the plaintiff is a woman. A. I. R. 1937 Cal. 58 ; 63 C. 809. There is no absolute rule that a pauper plaintiff cannot be asked to furnish security under clause (3) of this rule. A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 230=69 M. L. J. 38=41 L. W. 135=1935 M. W. N. 513. The discretion allowed to the Court by rule 1 of Order 25, is a discretion which is unfettered and unqualified. 63 C. 897=40 C. W. N. 511.

2. [S. 381.] (1) In the event of such security not being furnished within the time fixed, the Court shall make an order dismissing the suit unless the plaintiff or plaintiffs are permitted to withdraw therefrom.

(2) Where a suit is dismissed under this rule, the plaintiff may apply for an order to set the dismissal aside, and, if it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court that he was prevented by any sufficient cause from furnishing the security within the time allowed, the Court shall set aside the dismissal upon such terms as to security, costs or otherwise as it thinks fit, and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the suit.

(3) The dismissal shall not be set aside unless notice of such application has been served on the defendant.

N. B.—For local amendments in Bombay, C. P., and Rangoon.—Vide infra.

Notes.—Order 25, r. 2 (1), applies to the suit as a whole. So where a suit is by a male minor and mother, if the suit is to be dismissed for default in furnishing security for costs, it cannot be dismissed so far as against the female only and allowing it to be continued against the male. A. I. R. 1937 Cal. 58.

ORDER XXVI.

Commissions.

Commissions to Examine Witnesses.

1. [S. 383.] Any Court may in any suit issue a commission for the examination on interrogatories or otherwise of any person resident within the local limits of its jurisdiction who is exempted under this Code from attending the Court or who is from sickness or infirmity unable to attend it.

Scope.—Witnesses should not be allowed to be examined on commission without adequate reason. The grounds for the issue of commission are ordinarily those specified in rule 1. 43 Ind. Cas. 729=42 B. 136=20 Bom. L. R. 1. Commission cannot be issued simply because witnesses are old, unless Court is satisfied of their inability to attend from sickness or infirmity. A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 524=1927 M. W. N. 218. Evidence of plaintiff ought not to be generally taken on commission unless very strong reasons. Mere inconvenience or great distance from Court to the plaintiff's residence is not sufficient ground. 13 Bur. L. T. 33=57 Ind. Cas. 955. Evidence on commission should be allowed only if witness is too ill to give evidence in Court or is absent or for other sufficient reason, and it is improper to allow principal defendant charged with fraud to be examined on commission before opening of plaintiff's case so as to conceal his demeanour from Court and himself from confronting accusers. 45 M. L. J. 363=28 C. W. N. 327=39 C. L. J. 165=73 Ind. Cas. 391 (P. C.). When an application for the examination on commission of a material witness residing within the jurisdiction of the Court is made, before a commission is issued, the Court is under the obligation of considering and coming to a definite conclusion whether the witness is suffering from any illness or if he is so suffering, whether the nature of the illness would prevent the witness from attending Court or would make it risky to his life to do so especially when the issue of the commission is for the examination of the plaintiff or a defendant in a suit. 39 C. W. N. 595. Issue of commission is a question of exercise of jurisdiction, and not of mere discretion. Grounds alleged and objection raised by parties or witnesses as also advantages and risk of issue or non-issue of commission should be carefully examined. A. I. R. 1924 Cal. 971=39 C. L. J. 598=84 Ind. Cas. 9. But the Court has no power to take away pardanashin ladies' privilege under s. 132 to be examined on commission. A. I. R. 1928 Cal. 814=114 Ind. Cas. 95; see also 1933 A. L. J. 1384=A. I. R. 1933 All. 551. Where a pardanashin lady while being examined on commission tutored by some body, Court may exclude evidence but cannot insist on personal attendance of the lady. A. I. R. 1933 All. 551=1933 A. L. J. 1384. Parties even if women should be examined by Court. A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 48=63 M. L. J. 707=141 Ind. Cas. 456. A pardanashin lady has no right to dictate place of her examination by Commissioner at her own choice. 64 Ind. Cas. 228=48 C. 448=A. I. R. 1921 Cal. 229. Plaintiff who is a ghosa lady within s. 132, should be allowed to examine herself on commission. 86 Ind. Cas. 513=A. I. R. 1925 Mad. 905. It is not for Court to decide whether party will be benefited or not by issue of commission as it is a matter entirely for the party. Word "may" in rules 1 and 4 means "is given authority to". 46 M. 574=44 M. L. J. 202=71 Ind. Cas. 530. Facts of commission being ordered for witness's sickness or infirmity is useless, unless witness is on that account prevented from giving evidence normally. 55 C. 748=32 C. W. N. 128=A. I. R. 1928 Cal. 421. Order issuing commission by Judge exercising discretion as to its issue or non-issue after being satisfied that witness was ill, unable to attend, is not, although incomplete, open to revision. 55 C. 748=32 C. W. N. 128=A. I. R. 1928 Cal. 421. Witness living at a distance specified in Order XVI, r. 19 (b) and not under party's control should be allowed to be examined on commission as it is an abuse of process of Court, and Court's wrongful refusal to open to correction on revision. 46 M. 574=44 M. L. J. 202=71 Ind. Cas. 530. Commissioner to examine witness can stop proceedings to consult Court on finding cross-examining pleader abusing his position and exceeding limits of his propriety. A. I. R. 1924 Pat. 284=72 Ind. Cas. 748. Commission should be issued where the witness is in foreign territories although within 200 miles from Court. A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 366=65 M. L. J. 334=1933 M. W. N. 677. Essential witness can be examined on commission even after the conclusion of the hearing. 35 C. W. N. 703=54 C. L. J. 516=A. I. R. 1932 Cal. 236. No revision lies from an order refusing commission for examination of witness. A. I. R. 1927 Sind 264; A. I. R. 1934 All. 37. Application cannot be refused for mere lapse of time. A. I. R. 1934 All. 37. When handwriting expert is to be examined on commission by written interrogatories, no Court acts without jurisdiction if it orders the defendants to file cross-interrogatories. Persons for whose examination commission may issue, 4. [S. 386.] (1) Any Court may in any suit issue a commission for the examination of—

(a) any person resident beyond the local limits of its jurisdiction ;
 (b) any person who is about to leave such limits before the date on which he is required to be examined in Court ; and

(c) "any person on the service of the Crown"* who cannot, in the opinion of the Court, attend without detriment to the public service.

(2) Such commission may be issued to any Court, not being a High Court, within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such person resides, or to any pleader or other person whom the Court issuing the commission may appoint.

(3) The Court on issuing any commission under this rule shall direct whether the commission shall be returned to itself or to any subordinate Court.

Court may issue a commission.—The issue of commission to examine a witness or witnesses in a suit is a matter of judicial discretion. An application for the examination of a witness by commission will not be granted unless the Court is satisfied, first that the application is made bona fide ; secondly, that the issue in respect of which the evidence is required is one which the Court ought to try ; thirdly, that the witness to be examined would give evidence material to the issue, and fourthly, there are some good reasons why the witness cannot be examined in Court. 23 Ind. Cas. 643 ; see also 84 Ind. Cas. 9=39 C. L. J. 598 ; A. I. R. 1929 All. 44 ; 103 Ind. Cas. 141=A. I. R. 1927 Rang. 175=5 Bur. L. J. 242. The case of the plaintiff stands on a different footing from that of a defendant as witness when the question arises as to whether a commission should issue for examination or not then the plaintiff has a choice of forum and has filed a suit in the forum of his own choice he is not entitled to have a commission issued unless under very exceptional circumstances. A. I. R. 1935 Pat. 220. An order refusing the issue of a commission to examine witness is not a "judgment" within clause 15 of the Letters Patent, and no appeal lies from such an order. 152 Ind. Court to examine witness pursuant to commission.

6. [S. 388.] Every Court receiving a commission for the examination of any person shall examine him or cause him to be examined pursuant thereto.

7. [S. 389.] Where a commission has been duly executed, it shall be returned, together with the evidence taken under it, to the Court from which it was issued, unless the order for issuing the commission has otherwise directed, in which case the commission shall be returned in terms of such order, and the commission and the return thereto and the evidence taken under it, shall (subject to the provisions of the next following rule) form part of the record of the suit.

Return of commission with depositions of witnesses.

Notes.—Vide 35 C. 28.

8. [S. 390.] Evidence taken under a commission shall not be read as evidence in the suit without the consent of the party against whom the same is offered, unless—

(a) the person who gave the evidence is beyond the jurisdiction of the Court, or dead or unable from sickness or infirmity to attend to be personally examined, or exempted from personal appearance in Court, or is "a person in the service of the Crown"* who cannot, in the opinion of the Court, attend without detriment to the public service, or

(b) the Court in its discretion dispenses with the proof of any of the circumstances mentioned in clause (a), and authorizes the evidence of any person being read as evidence in the suit, notwithstanding proof that the cause for taking such evidence by commission has ceased at the time of reading the same.

Scope.—A Commissioner is entitled by law to note his observations as to the demeanour of the witnesses examined by him. 28 C. L. J. 303=48 Ind. Cas. 561. R. 1927 Cal. 43 ; 90 Ind. Cas. 64=A. I. R. 1926 Sind 34. It must first of all be determined by the Court by a reference to provisions of rule 8 of Order 26, whether or not the evidence taken on commission should be read as evidence in the suit before that evidence could be looked at or used for any purpose whatsoever. The Court should not look into evidence taken on commission in order to enable itself to come to conclusion as to whether or not it would order that witness to attend in person. A. I. R. 1937 Cal. 163 ; 63 C. 914. The expression "beyond jurisdiction of the Court" in this rule must be read with reference to Order 16, rule 19. Where therefore a witness is living a few hundred yards outside the territorial jurisdiction of the Court but within 200 miles from the Court, he cannot be said to live beyond the jurisdiction of the Court. Ibid.

* Substituted in British India for the words "a civil or military officer of the Government" by G. I. Order of 1937 ; but the latter words have been retained in British Burma.

Commissions for Local Investigations.

9. [S. 392.] In any suit in which the Court deems a local investigation to be requisite or proper for the purpose of elucidating any matter in dispute, or of ascertaining the market-value of any property, or the amount of any mesne profits or damages or annual net profits, the Court may issue a commission to such person as it thinks fit directing him to make such investigation and to report thereon to the Court :

Provided that, where the Local Government has made rules as to the persons to whom such commission shall be issued, the Court shall be bound by such rules.

N. B.—For local amendment in Calcutta.—Vide infra.

Commissions to Examine Accounts.

11. [S. 394.] In any suit in which an examination or adjustment of Commission to examine or accounts is necessary, the Court may issue a commission to such person as it thinks fit directing him to make such examination or adjustment.

Scope.—This rule merely entitles the Court to appoint a Commissioner to examine the accounts when it is necessary to examine the accounts, but it had first to be shown that it is necessary to examine them. A. I. R. 1937 Nag. 136. In a suit for dissolution of partnership it is the duty of the trial Court to record the evidence on question of possession of account books itself and not to appoint a Commissioner for that purpose. This is a matter which cannot be left to the Commissioner and does not fall within the ordinary duties of the Commissioner, whose business is merely to examine the accounts produced before him and to report to the Court the result of the examination of the accounts and also to suggest a proper scheme for the winding up of the scheme. A. I. R. 1936 Lah. 458. In a suit for accounts between principal and agent, the Commissioner can determine the extent of the liability. A. I. R. 1929 Cal. 418=49 C. L. J. 245; see also 95 Ind. In a suit for accounts the questions whether certain contracts are authorized or not is a question for the trying Court to decide and not a question which should be referred to a Commissioner for taking accounts under rule 11. Appointment of commission by Appellate Court to examine accounts and to give findings on question of mixed fact and law is irregular. C.),

12. [S. 395.] (1) The Court shall furnish the Commissioner with such Court to give Commissioner part of the proceedings and such instructions as appear necessary, and the instructions shall distinctly specify whether the Commissioner is merely to transmit the proceedings which he may hold on the inquiry, or also to report his own opinion on the point referred for his examination.

Proceedings and report to be evidence.
Court may direct further inquiry.

(2) The proceedings and report (if any) of the Commissioner shall be evidence in the suit, but where the Court has reason to be dissatisfied with them, it may direct such further inquiry as it shall think fit.

Scope.—If it is found that the Commissioner's report is unsatisfactory, the proper procedure is to appoint another Commissioner who would carry out the work more satisfactorily. A. I. R. 1926 Pat. 156=90 Ind. Cas. 834. Court can decide objections against Commissioner's report in open Court. 68 Ind. Cas. 469=45 M. 79=14 L. W. 620. Appellate Court can consider whether the Commissioner acted within his jurisdiction. A. I. R. 1929 Mad. 492=114 Ind. Cas. 232.

Commissions to make Partitions.

13. [S. 396, first para.] Where a preliminary decree for partition has been passed, the Court may in any case not provided for by section 54, issue a commission to such person as it thinks fit to make the partition or separation according to the rights as declared in such decree.

Notes — Vide A. I. R. 1931 Cal. 170=34 C. W. N. 909; 52 Ind. Cas. 614.

14. [S. 396, second and third paras.] (1) The Commissioner shall, after such inquiry as may be necessary, divide the property into as many shares as may be directed by the order under which the commission was issued, and shall allot such shares to the parties, and may, if authorized thereto by the said order, award sums to be paid for the purpose of equalizing the value of the shares.

(2) The Commissioner shall then prepare and sign a report or the Commissioners (where the commission was issued to more than one person and they cannot agree) shall prepare and sign separate reports appointing the share of each party and distinguishing each share (if so directed by the said order) by metes and bounds. Such report or reports shall be annexed to the commission and transmitted to the Court; and the Court, after hearing any objections which the parties may make to the report or reports, shall confirm, vary or set aside the same.

(3) Where the Court confirms or varies the report or reports it shall pass a decree in accordance with the same as confirmed or varied; but where the Court sets aside the reports or reports it shall either issue a new commission or make such other order as it shall think fit.

Scope.—The duty of the Commissioner is to allot properties according to shares and not to decide shares. A. I. R. 1934 Pat. 32. A party cannot be heard in the Appellate Court unless he had filed his objections to the report of the Commissioner in the original Court. 12 Bur. L. T. 228=56 Ind. Cas. 972. Order by a Court confirming or varying a report of a Commissioner to make a partition passed under rule 14 (3) is not appealable. A. I. R. 1926 Oudh 195=91 Ind. Cas. 317. Under this rule the Court may order the production of any documents in the possession of any party relating to any matter in question in such a suit, but until it is known what the promisor's defence is and what the points in issue will be, it is impossible for the Court to say that the plaintiffs accounts are relevant. Hence in such a case there is no justification for an order directing the plaintiff to produce his accounts. A. I. R. 1937 Nag. 136. Although there is no provision in the Civil Procedure Code entitling a party who objects to the report of the Commissioner to produce evidence in support of his objections, Order 26, rule 14, provides that the Court after hearing any objections which the parties may make to the report or reports, shall confirm, vary or set aside the same. This implies that the parties are entitled to substantiate their objections, but in such case, as a rule of practice, the Commissioner should first be examined with reference to objections, if any, and if it appears from the statement of the Commissioner that there is ground for further inquiry into any matter which is raised in the objections, then the parties should be allowed to produce evidence or the Commissioner directed to amend his report accordingly. A. I. R. 1935 Lah. 501.

General Provisions.

15. [S. 397.] Before issuing any commission under this Order, the Court may order such sum (if any) as it thinks reasonable for the expenses of the commission to be, within a time to be fixed, paid into Court by the party at whose instance or for whose benefit the commission is issued.

N. B.—For local amendment in Madras.—Vide infra.

Scope.—Court should not alter Commissioner's fees already agreed to by parties, behind their backs. A. I. R. 1933 Pat. 681. It is necessary to determine the fee of the Commissioner before the final disposal of the case. 1 P. L. T. 171=57 Ind. Cas. 291. The Court is not prevented from making any terms that it chooses as a condition precedent to the granting of the prayer for local investigation. A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 907=104 Ind. Cas. 814. Before commission is issued, the Court must see that the Commissioner's fees and diet money of the witnesses have been duly deposited. If the party declines to pay, the proper thing for the Court to do is to make the amount costs of the suit and enter it in the decree. A. I. R. 1926 Lah. 62=89 Ind. Cas. 479; see also A. I. R. 1925 Cal. 57=52 C. 269=40 C. L. J. 180=84 Ind. Cas. 724; 82 Ind. Cas. 852=25 Bom. L. R. 713. The District Judge has no power to disallow a portion of the remuneration claimed by a Commissioner for local investigation in connection with a suit pending in the Court of the Subordinate Judge. 23 C. W. N. 203=44 Ind. Cas. 496. For nominal or worthless work by Commissioner no remuneration can be allowed. A. I. R. 1934 Pat. 316. Order demanding commission fee after return of commission can be executed by Commissioner. A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 46. In order to determine what amount a party applying for commission should be directed to pay under Order 26, rule 15 of the Civil Procedure Code, the Court has to take into consideration not only the labour expended by the Commissioner but also the return which the applicant has got for his money; the Court has also to consider whether the work was done efficiently and with due diligence in accordance with the directions of the Court. 40 C. W. N. 1216=63 C. L. J. 563. An application was made by a party to a suit for examination of his witnesses on commission. The Court directed the applicant to file interrogatories which he wished to put to the witnesses and these being filed the opposite party was directed to file cross-interrogatories within four days. Instead of filing these the opposite party objected to the issue of commission. The Court thereon ordered that commission should issue only on condition that the applicant paid Rs. 200 to the opposite party as his cost in attending the commission: Held that the order was within the competence of the Court. 159 Ind. Cas. 179=A. I. R. 1936 Pat. 33.

16. [S. 398.] Any Commissioner appointed under this order may, unless otherwise directed by the order of appointment, —

(a) examine the parties themselves and any witness whom they or any of them may produce, and any other person whom the Commissioner thinks proper to call upon to give evidence in the matter referred to him;

(b) call for and examine documents and other things relevant to the subject of inquiry;

(c) at any reasonable time enter upon or into any land or building mentioned in the order.

Scope.—Where Commissioner has been appointed to take accounts, questions of liability should be determined by Court. But if question of quantum involves question of liability, Commissioner can determine both. A. I. R. 1934 Pat. 35. It is always the duty of a Commissioner before executing the commission to obtain definite instruction from the Court and to act accordingly. 109 Ind. Cas. 733. The delegation of power to the Commissioner by the Court cannot extend to the delegation to the Commissioner of the Court's duty of deciding questions which have been raised or which are sought to be raised as definite issues in the suit. A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 888. Where a case is remanded to the lower Court for taking accounts, the latter Court has jurisdiction to appoint a Commissioner for such purpose. A. I. R. 1934 Pat. 35.

17. [S. 399.] (1) The provisions of this Code relating to the summoning, attendance and examination of witnesses, and to the remuneration of, and penalties to be imposed upon, witnesses, shall apply to persons required to give evidence, or to produce documents under this Order whether the commission in execution of which they are so required has been issued by a Court situate within or by a Court situate beyond the limits of British India, and for the purposes of this rule the Commissioner shall be deemed to be a Civil Court.

(2) A Commissioner may apply to any Court (not being a High Court) within the local limits of whose jurisdiction a witness resides for the issue of any process which he may find it necessary to issue to or against such witness, and such Court may, in its discretion, issue such process as it considers reasonable and proper.

Notes.—Provisions of order XVIII, r. 5, as in force in Oudh apply also to witnesses examined on commission. 9 O. L. J. 593=74 Ind. Cas. 445.

18. [S. 400.] (1) Where a commission is issued under this Order, the Court shall direct that the parties to the suit shall appear before the Commissioner in person or by their agents or pleaders.

(2) Where all or any of the parties do not so appear, the Commissioner may proceed in their absence.

19. (1) If a High Court is satisfied—

(a) that a foreign Court situated in a foreign country wishes to obtain the evidence of a witness in any proceeding before it,

(b) that the proceeding is of a civil nature, and

(c) that the witness is residing within the limits of the High Court's appellate jurisdiction, it may, subject to the provisions of rule 20, issue a commission for the examination of such witness.

A company in liquidation can sue in forma pauperis through its liquidator. 41 M. 624=45 Ind. Cas. 164. A pleading filed on behalf of a corporation must be supported by an affidavit to prove that the person signing it is duly authorised to do so. A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 780=31 C. W. N. 1030=105 Ind. Cas. 568. Where in a suit against the Railway Company, the plaint describes the defendant as Agent of the Railway, frame of the suit is bad. 52 C. 783=29 C. W. N. 614=90 Ind. Cas. 426. Where the description of the defendant amounts to merely a misdescription, plaint should be allowed to be amended. 25 Bom. L. R. 513=73 Ind. Cas. 1027=47 B. 785. An unregistered body cannot sue or be sued as a corporation; all its members must be impleaded. A. I. R. 1925 All. 337=23 A. L. J. 37=47 A. 342=86 Ind. Cas. 255; see also A. I. R. 1927 All. 789=103 Ind. Cas. 45; 32 P. L. R. 655=135 Ind. Cas. 41; A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 98. Defect of form is of no importance. 84 Ind. Cas. 532=75 Ind. Cas. 936. Provisions of Order 29, rule 1, are permissive and do not exclude operation of Order 6, rule 14 in a proper case to a company. 26 S. L. R. 58=A. I. R. 1931 Sind 178. As regards what particulars which heading of plaint should contain in suits by or against corporation or firm vide A. I. R. 1933 Sind 102=26 S. L. R. 436. Rule 1 comes into operation only after the proceedings have been validly started and cannot be utilized to authorize an authorised person to institute suits on behalf of the corporation. 158 Ind. Cas. 346=A. I. R. 1935 Lah. 345. Where the manager of a Bank is authorized by the Articles of Association to file a suit with the previous sanction of the executive board, a suit instituted by him without such sanction is instituted without proper authority and the fact that the act of the manager was ratified by a resolution of the Board of directors after the expiry of the period of limitation, is of no avail. 37 P. L. R. 446. Where Secretary is empowered by Articles of Association to verify pleading, plaint may be signed and verified by him. 40 C. W. N. 930. The rule in Order 29 is clearly permissive and not imperative in its terms, and it lays down mere procedure. The rule, however, does not exclude the operation of the provisions of Order 6, rr. 14 and 15. In the case of ordinary pleadings if the signature on the plaint or verification of the pleading is defective, the defect can be cured at a subsequent time. There is nothing in the Code which requires a particular course to be followed by the person who verifies the plaint. All that is required is that the plaint should be verified by a principal officer and he should be able to depose to the facts of the case. A de facto Secretary of a firm who verifies a plaint in the absence of the Secretary is a principal officer. A. I. R. 1936 Bom. 418=38 Bom. L. R. 894.

2. [S. 436.] Subject to any statutory provisions regulating service of process, where the suit is against a corporation, the summons may be served—

(a) on the Secretary, or on any director, or other principal officer of the corporation, or

(b) by leaving it or sending it by post addressed to the corporation at the registered office, or if there is no registered office then at the place where the corporation carries on business.

Scope.—Service of notice on a corporation should be according to this rule. 43 C. 411=22 C. L. J. 241=31 Ind. Cas. 35; see also 90 Ind. Cas. 680=A.I.R. 1926 Pat. 40=5 Pat. 128; A. I. R. 1928 Sind 111=108 Ind. Cas. 660. The mode of service provided by rule 2 should not be availed of where there is a mode of service provided by another statute. A. I. R. 1928 Sind 111. "Carries on business" means, where it has got principal place of business in British India. A. I. R. 1928 Sind 111.

3. [S. 436, last para.] The Court may, at any stage of the suit, require the personal appearance of the secretary or of any director, or other principal officer of the corporation who may be able to answer material questions relating to the suit.

ORDER XXX.

Suits by or against Firms and Persons carrying on business in names other than their own.

1. [R. S. C. O. 48A, r. I.] (1) Any two or more persons claiming or being liable as partners and carrying on business in British India may sue or be sued in the name of the firm (if any) of which such persons were partners at the time of the accruing of the cause of action, and any party to a suit may in such case apply to the Court for a statement of the names and addresses of the persons who were, at the time of the accruing of the cause of action, partners in such firm, to be furnished and verified in such manner as the Court may direct.

(2) Where persons sue or are sued as partners in the name of their firm under sub-rule (1), it shall, in the case of any pleading or other document required by or under this Code to be signed, verified or certified by the plaintiff or the defendant, suffice if such pleading or other document is signed, verified or certified by any one of such persons.

Amendment in Burma.—For "British India" read "British Burma."—Vide G. B. Order of 1937.

N. B.—For local amendment in Lahore.—Vide infra.

Scope and Object.—The committee have adopted with the necessary alterations the English procedure in relation to suits against firms."—Report of the Special Committee. The suit is in effect a suit against the individual partners of the firm sued. A. I. R. 1925 Sind 298=87 Ind. Cas. 932. The effect of the provisions is merely to give a compendious mode of describing in the writ the partners who compose the firms; in effect the partners are sued individually. The firm's name is not a legal entity but a mere expression. 49 C. 524=69 Ind. Cas. 885; see also 77 Ind. Cas. 1055=25 Bom. L. R. 1081. The provisions of Order XXX relating to suits by or against firms do not in any way militate against sub-rule (2) of Order XXI, r. 50. 19 S. L. R. 1=86 Ind. Cas. 1013. Firm is materially different from registered company. A. I. R. 1933 All. 523=1933 A. L. J. 1264. The order allows partners collectively to sue or to be sued in the name which the partners collectively adopt for the purpose of transacting their business. It is a facility given by the legislature in order to avoid mentioning large number of names either in the category of plaintiffs or in that of defendants. But the Code does not allow the firm to sue or to be sued. It only allows the individuals constituting the firm to sue or to be sued in the name of the firm. The privilege is given to persons, but the Code does not treat the firm as juristic persona. 16 P. L. T. 649=158 Ind. Cas. 25; see also A. I. R. 1935 Sind 225. J. 280; A. I. R. 1936 Nag. 292. The provisions of Order 30 relating to suits by and against "firm" evidently assume that the so-called "firm" is legally constituted and do not have any bearing on the question of the maintainability of a suit against an "illegal" association. 36 P. L. R. 149=A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 882. This rule is not applicable to foreign firms. 36 Bom. L. R. 983=A. I. R. 1934 Bom. 467; see also A. I. R. 1935 Sind 225. When all the owners of the firm happen to be minors there is no partnership as contemplated by the Partnership Act, and the procedure prescribed by Order 30 cannot apply, so as to make the minors liable under a decree passed in a suit in the firm name. 71 M. name even though other partners refuse to sue. 40 C. W. N. 824=A. I. R. 1936 Cal. 353. The correct way of bringing a suit under Order 30, rule 1, is to bring it in the name of the firm as plaintiff, and no other name should be mentioned as plaintiff at the head of the plaint, but in the signature and verification of the plaint, the person signing and verifying should describe himself as one of the partners of the firm which brings the suit. 157 Ind. Cas. 166=A. I. R. 1935 Rang. 209. Rule 1, clause (2) of Order 30, has no reference to a decree passed in the suit or to any proceedings in execution of the decree. There is nothing in rule 1, Order 30, which would take away the effect of the provisions of rule 1, and rule 15, Order 21. A. I. R. 1934 Mad. 330=57 M. 692=148 Ind. Cas. 860=1934 M. W. N. 286=39 L. (2) Where the plaintiffs or their pleader fail to comply with any demand made under sub-rule 1, all proceedings in the suit may, upon an application for that purpose, be stayed upon such terms as the Court may direct.

(3) Where the names of the partners are declared in the manner referred to in sub-rule (1), the suit shall proceed in the same manner, and the same consequences in all respects shall follow, as if they had been named as plaintiffs in the plaint :

Provided that all the proceedings shall nevertheless continue in the name of the firm.

Where a person serving as managing partners of a firm when requested to give the names of his partners under this rule merely gave the initials of the persons or firms, which were partners in the firm and their addresses and their respective shares and the description was not questioned by the defendant in the lower Court but was accepted as sufficient : Held that the duty of the trial Court at most was to stay the case until the names of the partners had been properly furnished and the case would not be dismissed for non-joinder of parties. A. I. R. 1937 Rang. 137.

3. [R. S. C. O. 48A, r. 3.] Where persons are sued as partners in the name of their firm, the summons shall be served either—

(a) upon any one or more of the partners, or

(b) at the principal place at which the partnership business is carried on within British India upon any person having, at the time of service, the control or management of the partnership business there, as the Court may direct ; and such service shall be deemed good service upon the firm so sued whether all or any of the partners are within or without British India :

Provided that in the case of a partnership which has been dissolved to the knowledge of the plaintiff before the institution of the suit, the summons shall be served upon every person within British India whom it is sought to make liable.

Amendment in British Burma.—For "British India" read "British Burma"—Vide G. B. Order of 1937.

Scope.—Service effected as per directions of the Court on the firm is good service. 54 C. 1057=34 C. W. N. 1004. In case of death of one partner, his legal representatives should be joined in order to make his private property liable. 51 B. 986=29 Bom. L. R. 1296=A. I. R. 1927 Bom. 581; see also A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 149; 87 Ind. Cas. 1051=27 Bom. L. R. 541. This rule does not apply where a suit is brought in the names of various partners of the firm. A. I. R. 1925 Cal. 1136=88 Ind. Cas. 489; 1 Pat. 48=3 Pat. L. T. 29=62 Ind. Cas. 927. Under rule 3, the only way of service is either upon a partner or by serving it at the principal place at which the partnership business is carried on in British India on a person having at the time of service the control or management of the partnership business. 49 C. 394=69 Ind. Cas. 236; see also A. I. R. 1926 Sind 208; 105 Ind. Cas. 305=A. I. R. 1927 Bom. 581=51 B. 986; 59 C. 496=A. I. R. 1932 Cal. 541. Proviso to rule 3 overrides Order 21, rule 50. A. I. R. 1927 Bom. 581. The provisions contained in this rule refer to a true auctioneer to the decree and are not applicable to an award which has been filed and which has become enforceable as a decree. 62 C. 833=61 C. L. J. 518. Although rule 3 provides that there must be individual service of summons upon a person who was a partner of a dissolved partnership, it cannot be said that the decree cannot be both against the firm and the partner personally. The question to be decided by the form of the plaint. If in the plaint the plaintiff sues, not only the firm but also a partner personally, then there may be decree not only against the firm but against the partner individually in his personal capacity. Order 30 contemplates a suit against a firm as such, and even if the firm be dissolved before the institution of the suit, there may still be property of the firm against which execution may proceed and merely because the partnership has been dissolved the whole of and nature of the suit is not altered. Where the partner appears not only on behalf of the firm but also in his personal capacity and puts in a personal defence, the Court is entitled to pass a decree not only against the firm but also against him. A. I. R. 1936 Sind=165 Ind. Cas. 907=30 S. L. R. 296.

Proviso.—All that the proviso to Order 30, rule 3, requires is that the summons shall be served upon every person whom it is sought to make liable which means every person "whom it is sought to make personally liable." The proviso to this rule must be read along with and in the light of Order 21, rule 50, C. P. Code and so far as the property of a dissolved firm is sought to be liable, there is no need for serving each and every partner of that firm. A. I. R. 1936 Sind 34=161 Ind. Cas. 324.

4. [New.] (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 45 of the Indian Contract Act, 1872,* where two or more persons may sue or be sued in the name of a firm under the foregoing provisions and any of such persons dies, whether before the institution or during the pendency of any suit, it shall not be necessary to join the legal representative of the deceased as a party to the suit.

(2) Nothing in sub-rule (1) shall limit or otherwise affect any right which the legal representative of the deceased may have,—

- (a) to apply to be made a party to the suit, or
- (b) to enforce any claim against the survivor or survivors.

Scope.—Rule 4 contemplates the existence of partnership and so it is competent for a surviving partner to file a suit in respect of partnership debts without joining the legal representatives of the deceased partner. 6. [R. S. C. O. 48A, r. 5.] Where persons are sued as partners in the name of their firm, they shall appear individually in their own names, but all subsequent proceedings shall, nevertheless, continue in the name of the firm.

Scope.—Where persons are sued as partners in the name of their firm, they may file different written statements, not on their own behalf, but on behalf of the firm. 54 C. 1057=31 C. W. N. 1004=A. I. Under this rule in a suit against a firm in the name of firm name, the appearance of partner is appearance of the firm, i.e., of all partners of the firm. 62 C. 510=39 C. W. N. 606.

7. [R. S. C. O. 48A, r. 6.] Where a summons is served in the manner provided by rule 3 upon a person having the control or management of the partnership business, no appearance by him shall be necessary unless he is a partner of the firm sued.

Scope.—Vide A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 149 ; A. I. R. 1926 Sind 51=89 Ind. Cas. 401.

8. [R. S. C. O. 48A, r. 7.] Any person served with summons as a partner under rule 3 may appear under protest, denying that he is a partner, but such appearance shall not preclude the plaintiff from otherwise serving a summons on the firm and obtaining a decree against the firm in default of appearance where no partner has appeared.

Notes.—Where a person who has been served as a partner under r. 3 appears under protest, the service on him as service on the firm, is a nullity, and such person is not entitled to file a written statement on his own behalf denying that he is a partner. 54 C. 1057=31 C. W. N. 1004 ; but see A. I. R. 1926 Sind 154=93 Ind. Cas. 380 (allowed to take alternative defences) ; A. I. R. 1921 Bom. 48=23 Bom. L. R. 1249=64 Ind. In a suit against a firm and its partners there is nothing in law to prevent the Court from arriving at a finding in the suit itself that a particular person is a partner in the firm, although such person appears to protest and although his protest is not struck off. A. I. R. 1936 Sind 206=30 S. L. R. 296=165 Ind. Cas. 907.

9. [R. S. C. O. 48A, r. 10.] This Order shall apply to suits between Suits between co-partners. a firm and one or more of partners therein and to suits between firms having one or more partners in common ; but no execution shall be issued in such suits except by leave of the Court, and, on an application for leave to issue such execution, all such accounts and inquiries may be directed to be taken and made and directions given as may be just.

Scope.—Suit by director against other directors is competent. A. I. R. 1920 Mad. 1215=55 M. L. J. 385. If two firms have common partner, an action can be maintained by one firm against the others. A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 1096=52 M. L. J. 303 ; see also A. I. R. 1929 Sind 192 ; 44 Ind. Cas. 428. No suit lies as between partners or between firms having common partners for recovery of monies without asking for accounts. 34 M. L. J. 408=45 Ind. Cas. 86. A surety bond executed in a partnership suit enures for the benefit of all those who eventually get a decree. 42 Ind. Cas. 436=167 P. W. R. 1917. Where a person is a common partner in two firms, no action can be brought by one firm against the other firm upon any transaction which was between them while such individual was a common partner. This rule is however subject to an exception in equity in certain cases where it might be possible to ascertain the rights and liabilities of a member of a firm when all the parties are before the Court, but the above equity does not apply in case which cannot be adequately dealt with merely by a declaration of right to a credit in the partnership. A. I. R. 1936 Bom. 246=36 Bom. L. R. 486 ; see also 38 P. L. R. 857=A. I. R. 1936 Lah. 648=164 Ind. Cas. 832. The provisions of this rule which provides that execution will not be taken without the leave of the Court and that the Court may order all accounts to be given and give such directions as it considers just and sufficient to safeguard the interests of the defendant. 38 P. L. R. 857.

10. [R. S. C. O. 48A, r. 11.] Any person carrying on business in a name Suit against person carrying or style other than his own name may be sued in such name or style as if it were a firm name ; and, so far as the nature of the case will permit, all rules under this order shall apply.

Scope.—A person carrying on business in a firm's name is only a person who has got an alias and a person desiring to sue him can sue him in his own name. A. I. R. 1930 Cal. 327=51 C. L. J. 30=34 C. W. N. 36=57 C. 931 ; A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 147=149 Ind. Cas. 998. After the death of the sole proprietor, a suit cannot be instituted under this rule in the old name of the firm. 23 A. L. J. 961=A. I. R. 1926 All 161 ; see also 25 Bom. L. R. 7=85 Ind. Cas. 464 ; A. I. R. 1930 Cal. 327=51 C. L. J. 30=34 C. W. N. 36=57 C. 931. It is doubtful whether the words "any person carrying on business" apply to person carrying on business as guardian or agent of another. A. I. R. 1924 Mad. 386=57 M. 973=66 M. L. J. 609. In the eye of law a firm has no existence apart from the members which constitute that firm. A firm is not a person either natural or artificial and it is a person who can sue and be sued. Firm is not a juristic persona to be taken cognizance of as such by the law as an idol or corporation is. Although the C. P. Code allows partners collectively to sue or to be sued in the name which the partners collectively adopt for the purposes of transacting their business, it is facility given by the legislature in order to avoid mentioning large number of names either in the category of the plaintiffs or in the category of the defendants. Yet it is to be noted that the Code does not allow the firms to sue or be sued. It allows the individuals constituting the firm to sue and be sued in the name of the firm. The privilege is given to persons, but the Code does not treat the firm as a juristic persona. A. I. R. 1936 Pat. 194=158 Ind. Cas. 25=16 P. L. T. 649. Rule 10 is subject to the same restrictions as rule 1 of Order 30. If the case of a single proprietor is to be treated as a firm for the purpose of Order 30, then the case is clearly covered by rule 1, which requires that the firm suing or being sued should be carrying on business in British India, if it is to sue or to be sued under an abbreviated title as a firm. A. I. R. 1934 Bom. 467=36 Bom. L. R. 983. A person who carries on business in a name other than his own must sue in his own name. If a mistake has been made by the plaintiff in suing in another name, the defendants are justified in filing the appeal against the firm and is not open to the plaintiff to contend that he could not sue in the name of the firm and therefore the death of the proprietor of the firm necessitated the substitution of his legal representatives in his place. A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 147=149 Ind. Cas. 998. This rule is applicable only to the case of a single individual. 161 Ind. Cas. 806=1936 M. W. N. 669=44 L. W. 310=A. I. R. 1936 Mad. 707=71 M. L. J. 373. Where on the death of the proprietor of a firm, the business of a firm is carried on by his minor son and widow under the old name of the firm, the members of the firm can be sued in the name of the firm, and it is not necessary to sue the minor in his individual capacity and as one of the heirs of the proprietor. A. I. R. 1936 Oudh. 245=1936 O. W. N. 221=160 Ind. Cas. 893.

ORDER XXXI.

Suits by or against Trustees, Executors and Administrators.

1. [S. 437.] In all suits concerning property vested in a trustee, executor or administrator, where the contention is between the persons beneficially interested in such property and a third person, the trustee, executor or administrator shall represent the persons so interested, and it shall not ordinarily be necessary to make them parties to the suit. But the Court may, if it thinks fit, order them or any of them to be made parties.

Scope.—This rule is confined when the contention is between persons beneficially interested and third person. 39 Ind. Cas. 779=2 P. L. J. 305; 18 M. 266. Under this rule no one but the executor is competent to prosecute a suit as representative of the deceased. 55 Ind. Cas. 504=2 U. P. L. R. (Pat) 31; see also 50 Ind. Cas. 509=11 Bur. L. T. 249; A. I. 2. [S. 438.] Where there are several trustees, executors or administrators, they shall all be made parties to a suit against one or more of them:

Provided that the executors who have not proved their testator's will, and trustees, executors and administrators outside British India, need not be made parties.

Amendment in British Burma.—For 'British India' read "British Burma."—Vide G. B. Order of 1937.

Scope.—In a suit against a temple all the trustees are necessary parties. A. I. R. 1922 Mad. 405=77 Ind. Cas. 942; see also A. I. R. 1934 All. 1.

3. [S. 439.] Unless the Court directs otherwise, the husband of a married trustee, administratrix or executrix shall not as such be a party to a suit by or against her.

Husband of married executrix not to join.

ORDER XXXII.

Suits by or against Minors and Persons of Unsound Mind.

1. [S. 440, first para.] Every suit by a minor shall be instituted in his name by a person who in such suit shall be called the next friend of the minor.

N. B.—For local amendments in the Punjab and Peshwar.—Vide infra.

Scope.—Order XXXII has no direct application to proceedings in execution. 109 Ind. Cas. 521; see also A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 930; 35 C. L. J. 9=64 Ind. Cas. 25; A. I. R. 1926 Cal. 109=30 C. W. N. 86. execution. A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 1057. A minor plaintiff is bound by the result of the suit in the absence of fraud on the part of the next friend. A. I. R. 1926 All. 36=48 A. 44=23 A. L. J. 901=90 Ind. Cas. 749. The Court in a proper case can order that the cost of the suit be paid by the next friend personally. A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 1023. Appeal by minor without next friend is not a nullity. A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 663. A suit by minor with next friend for possession against a defendant claiming to be in possession as minor's guardian is not maintainable. 21 N. L. R. 75=89 Ind. Cas. 55. Demand of security from next friend for costs is outside Court's jurisdiction. A. I. R. 1934 All. 458. Minor can sue as a pauper. 70 Ind. Cas. 919=37 C. L. J. 394. This order has no application when the minor happens to be a ward under the Court of Wards, and a Civil Court in which such a minor is sued has no power to appoint a guardian ad litem for him or to remove a guardian who has been acting for him. 15 Pat. 667=17 Pat. L. T. 899. There is no provision in the C. P. Code for calling upon the next friend to provide security for costs though it is open to the Court to make an order after the hearing for costs against a next friend and to call on him to provide security in the event of retiring. A. I. R. 1934 All. 458.

2. [S. 442.] (1) Where a suit is instituted by or on behalf of a minor without a next friend, the defendant may apply to have the plaint taken off the file, with costs to be paid by the pleader or other person by whom it was presented.

(2) Notice of such application shall be given to such person, and the Court, after hearing his objections (if any), may make such order in the matter as it thinks fit.

Soope.—Where there is certificated guardian, no other person can act as guardian of the minor. 115 Ind. Cas. 456. Order 32, rule 2, applies to cases under the Punjab Tenancy Act. 35 P. L. R. 428. Decree against minor without appointment of guardian ad litem is a nullity. A. I. R. 1937 Rang. 126. One minor cannot act as a next friend of another minor. 80 Ind. Cas. 602. Rule 2 applies when on the face of the plaint the plaintiff appears to be a minor. If on an issue raised and tried in the case, the Court finds that the plaintiff is a minor, it should not dismiss the suit at once but should allow a reasonable time for a next friend to come on record and go on with the suit and it is only if no one comes forward that it should reject the plaint. Such suit a minor can continue after attaining majority. 44 M. L. J. 515=74 Ind. Cas. 309; see also 69 Ind. Cas. 401; 26 C.W.N. 631=60 Ind. Cas. 889; 46 Ind. Cas. 747=16 A.L.J. 737; 75 Ind. Cas. 1028; 89 Ind. Cas. 870=3 Rang. 239. Application for substitution by minor representative without next friend can be rejected. 47 M. L. J. 370=80 Ind. Cas. 942. Where a suit was instituted in the name of joint family firm consisting of R and his minor son G, or holding a power of attorney on behalf of R, and it was found during the pendency of the suit that R was of unsound mind but was not so at the time the suit was instituted: Held that in the absence of any finding that the suit had not been properly instituted the Court had no power to order the plaint to be taken off the file: Held further that the rules relating to suits on behalf of minor should not be strictly applied under Order 32, rule 15 to the circumstances of the case and that Order 32, rule 2, did not apply as the suit was properly instituted. A. I. R. 1936 Lah. 7.

3. [S. 448, first para, S. 446.] Where the defendant is a minor, the Court, on being satisfied of the fact of his minority, shall appoint a proper person to be guardian for the suit for such minor.

(2) An order for the appointment of a guardian for the suit may be obtained upon application in the name and on behalf of the minor or by the plaintiff.

(3) Such application shall be supported by an affidavit verifying the fact that the proposed guardian has no interest in the matters in controversy in the suit adverse to that of the minor and that he is a fit person to be so appointed.

(4) No order shall be made on any application under this rule except upon notice to the minor and to any guardian of the minor appointed or declared by an authority competent in that behalf, or, where, there is no such guardian upon notice to the father or other natural guardian of the minor, or, where there is no father or other natural guardian, to the person in whose care the minor is, and after hearing any objection which may be urged on behalf of any person served with notice under this sub-rule.

"*(5) A person appointed under sub rule (1) to be guardian for the suit for a minor shall, unless his appointment is terminated by retirement, removal or death, continue as such throughout all proceedings arising out of the suit including proceedings in any appellate or revisional Court and any proceedings in the execution of a decree".

Clause (5).—"Rule 3 of Order XXXII of the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, lays down that where the defendant is a minor, the Court shall appoint a proper person to be guardian for the suit for such minor. It has been held by the High Courts that an appointment made during the course of original suit endures during proceedings in appeal. There is no provision in the Code requiring fresh appointment of guardians for the execution proceedings following suits. It might therefore be thought that a guardian ad litem appointed during a suit continues as such till the termination of execution proceedings. But some High Courts follow a different interpretation and one of them has held that the guardian ad litem appointed by a Court for a minor defendant does not continue to be the guardian for the suit in execution proceedings without a fresh appointment. The Bill purposes to make it clear that the appointment endures throughout all proceedings arising out of the suit, including those in any appellate or revisional Court and those in the execution of a decree.—Statement of Objects and Reasons.

4. [Ss. 443, 444, 445, 456, 457 and R. S. C O 65, r. 13.] (1) Any person

Who may act as next friend or be appointed guardian for the suit.

person who is of sound mind and has attained majority may act as next friend of a minor or as his guardian for the suit :

Provided that the interest of such person is not adverse to that of the minor and that he is not, in the case of a next friend, a defendant, or, in the case of a guardian for the suit, a plaintiff.

(2) Where a minor has a guardian appointed or declared by competent authority, no person other than such guardian shall act as the next friend of the minor or be appointed his guardian for the suit unless the Court considers for reasons to be recorded, that it is for the minor's welfare that another person be permitted to act or be appointed, as the case may be.

(3) No person shall without his consent be appointed guardian for the suit.

(4) Where there is no other person fit and willing to act as guardian for the suit, the Court may appoint any of its officers to be such guardian, and may direct that the costs to be incurred by such officer in the performance of his duties as such guardian shall be borne either by the parties or by any one or more of the parties to the suit, or out of any fund in Court in which the minor is interested, and may give directions for the repayment or allowance of such costs as justice and the circumstances of the case may require.

The effect of Order 32, rule 4(2) is that, normally if a minor wishes to institute a suit and he has a certificated guardian, then that certificated guardian is the right person to act as the next friend of the minor. If, however, a suit is brought against a minor, who already has a certificated guardian then he is the person who must be appointed guardian for the suit unless the Court otherwise decides. The mere fact that such guardian subsequently ceases to be the certificated guardian and some body else is appointed in his stead, does not of itself, impose such absolute and fundamental disqualification that he automatically vacates his office and becomes functus officio. 39 C. W. N. 293 = A. I. R. 1935 Cal. 160 = 61 C. 1023 = 155 Ind. Cas. 882.

Scope.—No next friend or guardian can compromise case for minor without leave of Court expressly recorded. (1917) Pat. 77=35 Ind. Cas. 675; 44 Ind. Cas. 164. Compromise effected after passing decree is governed by rule 7. 31 M. L. J. 207=35 Ind. Cas. 70. Mere recording a compromise and passing a decree according to it is no sanction. 39 M. 853=30 M. L. J. 465=32 Ind. Cas. 881; see also A. I. R. 1930 Cal. 539=51 C. L. J. 364; but see 39 Ind. Cas. 53=9 P. L. R. 1917; 71 M. L. J. 388=A. I. R. 1936 Mad. 861. Directions given in rule 7 are not formal but mandatory. A. I. R. 1933 All. 149; A. I. R. 1931 Bom. 500=33 Bom. L. R. 1033. Where sanction to compromise by a guardian is given by Court after considering terms of compromise the decree is binding on minor. A. I. R. 1931 All. 425=1931 A. L. J. 301; see also A. I. R. 1933 Pat. 104=1933 Pat. 109. Where compromise of suit has been entered by member of a joint Hindu family on behalf of his minor wards and himself, without leave of Court, it is not binding on minor nor on him as there was no legal necessity for it. A. I. R. 1931 Mad. 218=59 M. L. J. 139=32 M. L. W. 188. Order allowing compromise and granting decree in terms of it is illegal if Court does not consider whether compromise would benefit or prejudice. A. I. R. 1932 Lah. 521=33 P. L. R. 551. Order 32, rule 7 applies to execution proceedings. A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 456 (F. B.)=56 M. 430=64 M. L. J. 437; 78 Ind. Cas. 291; 62 Ind. Cas. 234=5 P. L. T. 379. Where minor seeks to avoid decree he can avoid it in toto and not in part. 39 M. 853=32 Ind. Cas. 881. The powers of a next friend acting for a minor in the course of a suit are not wider after the decree than before it. This rule or at any rate the principle embodied in it, is applicable to agreement in execution proceedings. 17 Pat. L. T. 743=A. I. R. 1936 Pat. 506=165 Ind. Cas. 857. If the parties come to an agreement to settle an appeal on certain terms which puts an end to it, such a settlement, if it affects the interests of a minor, must under this rule, but subject to the leave of the Court. 161 Ind. Cas. 751=1936 M. W. N. 123=A. I. R. 1936 Mad. 494. The provisions of rules 6 and 7 of Order 32, C. P. Code, do not restrict in any way the powers of a father or manager of a joint Hindu family to receive the amount of a decree in favour of the family and to give a valid discharge so as to bind a minor member of his family also, who is a party to the suit, without obtaining the leave of the Court in cases where such father or managing member is not the next friend of the said minor. 161 Ind. Cas. 959=1936 M. W. N. 158=43 L. W. 390=A. I. R. 1936 Mad. 434=70 M. L. J. 700. A compromise arrived at by guardian ad litem without obtaining the leave of the Court under this rule is voidable against all persons who are majors and not void; but it does not bind the minor in any way. 1936 A. L. J. 1366=A. I. R. 1936 All. 811. If the next friend of a minor expresses his willingness to relinquish the claim of the minor, should the opposite party take a certain oath, it is only a special method of proof adopted by the next friend and is not at all a compromise, and if the interests of the next friend are identical with the minor then sanction under this rule is not necessary for adopting special oath as a form of proof. A. I. R. 1936 Lah. 235=38 P. L. R. 629=162 Ind. Cas. 921. The disability imposed by Order 32, rule 7, will apply only to a father who is also the guardian ad litem for his minor son in a suit. Where the minor defendant is represented not by the father but by a Court guardian and where no attempt has been made to show that the compromise entered into by the father on behalf of the minor is improper or prejudicial to his interest, the Court is not justified to his interest, and Court is not justified in extending the provisions of Order 32, rule 7, either by analogy or on considerations of policy. A. I. R. 1937 Mad. 446. Paragraph 1, Schedule II and Order 32, rule 7, should be read together and each governs the other. The only distinction is, where the guardian of a minor has agreed to join in the reference to arbitration, the requirements of para 1, Schedule II, are complied with, but unless and until the leave of the Court has been obtained and expressly recorded in the proceedings, the requirements of Order 32, rule 7 are not fulfilled. A. I. R. 1937 All. 65 (F. B.); see also A. I. R. 1936 Lah. 665; A. I. R. 1931 Cal. 211; A. I. R. 1935 Sind 235; A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 523.

Where a petition for leave is filed under Order 32, rule 7, the Court should consider whether the compromise is or is not in the interest of the minors. A. I. R. 1934 Rang. 168. A compromise of suit made on behalf of a minor without strict compliance with the provisions of this rule, though not enforceable against minor is enforceable against adult co-obligees. 39 M. 409=43 I. Compromise against recorded custom by which property belonging to minor is given to widow is not for benefit of minor. A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 468=34 P. L. R. 409. An attorney's authority to act ends even when guardian ad litem informs the Court that the suit has been settled out of Court. A. I. R. 1932 Bom. 401=34 Bom. L. R. 614. Where application is made to Court that Court should decide case as arbitrator signed by pleader duly authorized and stating that some defendants were minors, sanction of Court is presumed from adopting application. A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 176. There is a heavy duty cast upon the counsel appearing for a minor to satisfy himself that the compromise is for the benefit of the minor, and a similar duty is cast upon the Court to scrutinize the compromise and satisfy itself before sanctioning it. A. I. R. 1935 Sind 95.

Guardian's offer to abide by special oath without leave not being compromise binds minor if not tainted with fraud or negligence. A. I. R. 1930 Cal. 463=34 C. W. N. 310=129 Ind. Cas. 408; see A. I. R. 1934 Mad. 260; but see 44A. 117=64 Ind. Cas. 646. All facts necessitating compromise must be placed before Court for obtaining leave either in evidence or by affidavit. A. I. No particular formula is necessary to be used by the Court in order to grant the leave and when it is shown that an application was made by the guardian to the Court asking for leave to enter into the compromise and the Court makes a note of that application and passes a decree in terms of the compromise, it must be held that the leave of the Court was expressly recorded. 72 Ind. Scope.—Where a minor defendant attains majority during proceedings, a duty lies on him to discharge his guardian ad litem and appear himself. A. I. R. 1926 Cal. 1053=46 C. L. J. 606=97 Ind. Las. 209. Defendant attaining majority during pendency of suit but not electing to conduct suit himself is bound by decree passed in suit. A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 294=27 L. W. 455=51 M. 763=55 M. L. J. 374 ; see also 88 Ind. Cas. 235 ; A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 555=30 P. L. R. 273 ; A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 603. Minor is not to be deemed to be instituting fresh suit where he elects to continue suit conducted by next friend. A. I. R. 1925 Sind 330=88 Ind. Cas. 116. Rules 12 and 13 lay down the course that a plaintiff may follow on attaining majority, but there is no corresponding rule relating to a defendant who should become major during the pendency of the suit. He has notice of the case already and so no further notice of it need be given to him. If he should fail to take any action on attaining majority the presumption is that he chose to allow the case to be conducted by his quondam guardian or by the counsel engaged by his guardian. It cannot in these circumstances be said that the Court has no jurisdiction to proceed with the case or that the decree passed by it is a nullity. A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 371. Minor electing on attaining majority to abandon suit filed by next friend should pay full costs incurred by next friend, unless he shows that suit was unreasonable or improperly instituted. A. I. R. 1934 Mad. 73.

13. [S. 454.] (1) Where a minor co-plain'tiff on attaining majority desires

Where minor co-plaintiff attaining majority desires to repudiate the suit. he shall apply to have his name struck out as co-plaintiff ; and the Court, if it finds that he is not a necessary party, shall dismiss him from the suit on such terms as to costs or otherwise as it thinks fit.

(2) Notice of the application shall be served on the next friend, on any co-plaintiff and on the defendant.

(3) The costs of all parties of such application, and of all or any proceedings theretofore had in the suit, shall be paid by such persons as the Court directs.

(4) Where the applicant is a necessary party to the suit, the Court may direct him to be made a defendant.

14. [S. 455.] (1) A minor on attaining majority may, if a sole plaintiff, Unreasonable or improper suit. apply that a suit instituted in his name by his next friend be dismissed on the ground that it was unreasonable or improper.

(2) Notice of the application shall be served on all the parties concerned ; and the Court, upon being satisfied of such unreasonableness or impropriety, may grant the application and order the next friend to pay the costs of all parties in respect of the application and of anything done in the suit, or make such other order as it thinks fit.

N. B.—For additional rule in C. P. and Madras.—Vide infra.

Scope.—Application by minor on becoming major stating his desire to continue suit as major and requesting opportunity to give evidence in support of his objection should be granted. A. I. R. 1928 Nag. 166=107 Ind. Cas. 668. In pauper suit Court can order next friend to pay Court-fee. A. I. R. 1931 Mad. 249=58 M. L. J. 623=53 M. 716.

15. [S. 463.] The provisions contained in rules 1 to 14, so far as they are applicable, shall extend to persons adjudged to be of unsound mind and to persons who though not so adjudged are found by the Court on inquiry, by reason of unsoundness of mind or mental infirmity, to be incapable of protecting their interests when suing or being sued.

Scope.—This rule applies to lunatics whether adjudged or not under the Lunacy Act. 34 Ind. Cas. 551=4 L. W. 228; see also 34 Ind. Cas. 428=3 L. W. 301. In order that a suit by a lunatic can be instituted in his name by his next friend the lunatic must be a person who has been adjudged to be of unsound mind or a person who, though not so adjudged, is found by the Court on enquiry by reason of unsoundness of mind or mental infirmity to be incapable of protecting his interest when suing. A. I. R. 1936 Rang. 121=161 Ind. Cas. 665. When in appeal he is not represented by next friend, prejudice to his interest must be proved to have the decree set aside. 38 P. L. R. 320=161 Ind. ORDER XXXIII.

Suits by Pauper.

Suits may be instituted in forma pauperis.

1. [S. 401.] Subject to the following provisions, any suit may be instituted by a pauper.

Explanation.—A person is a “pauper” when he is not possessed of sufficient means to enable him to pay the fee prescribed by law for the plaint in such suit, or, where no such fee is prescribed, when he is not entitled to property worth one hundred rupees other than his necessary wearing apparel and the subject-matter of the suit.

IV. B.—For local amendment in Bombay.—Vide infra.

Order 33—Time for redrafting Order 33 is long overdue. A. I. R. 1932 Rang. 195=10 Rang. 475.

Scope.—The word “person” in this rule including companies or firm. 41 M. 624 = 34 M. L. J. 421 ; A. I. R. 1930 Rang. 272. A minor without sufficient means with the definition of pauperism for the purpose of Order XXXIII, should be allowed to sue in forma pauperis by a next friend although the next friend is not a pauper. 37 C. L. J. 394=70 Ind. Cas. 919 ; see also 80 Ind. Cas. 748=26 Bom. L. R. 380 ; 11 B. L. R. 373. Where pauper plaintiff himself dies during the pendency of a suit, his legal representative can continue the suit. A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 66=109 Ind. Cas. 258 ; see also A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 278=51 M. 697 ; but see 88 Ind. Cas. 91. The word “person” means a natural person and not a judicial person such as a Receiver. A. I. R. 1930 Rang. 259=126 Ind. Cas. 650 ; but see A. I. R. 1937 Mad. 549 (F. B.). There is a difference between Indian and English law. According to Indian law, i. e., according to this rule, where no fees are prescribed pauper must show that he was not possessed of property worth more than Rs. 100. 77 Ind. Cas. 611=4 P. L. T. 538=2 Pat. 879. When pauper application is dismissed, time for payment of Court-fees can be extended. 33 M. L. T. 18=46 M. L. J. 254=76 Ind. Cas. 767. Especially in respect of partition suits it is common knowledge that there is considerable divergence of judicial opinions as to the Court-fee payable. If later on the Court considers an additional fee necessary, and if in truth and fact the plaintiffs are not possessed of means to pay additional fee, there is nothing inconsistent with the scheme of the Code, suing plaintiffs the benefit of the provisions of Order 33. A. I. R. 1936 Mad. 158=43 L. W. 380=161 Ind. Cas. 359. Immunity from Court-fees to a pauper continues during the whole course of proceeding. If however applicant afterwards becomes possessed of sufficient means, the question of pauperism should be re-considered. 25 Bom. L. R. 199=47 B. 523=72 Ind. Cas. 224 ; see also 61 Ind. Cas. 958=13 L. W. 76 ; but see 36 C. W. N. 567=A. I. R. 1932 Cal. 685. Woman allowed to sue as pauper cannot be ordered to furnish security for costs. 10 Bur. L. T. 105=36 Ind. Cas. 820. Where plaintiff who has been permitted to sue as a pauper but his pauperism is challenged, dies during the pendency of a suit, his legal representatives brought on record must along with the deceased plaintiff be found to be paupers. A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 665=104 Ind. Cas. 347 ; see also A. I. R. 1933 Nag. 334. Estate is not pauper, yet person representing such estate may file suit as pauper. A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 883. Suit filed on payment of Court-fee can be continued as pauper. A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 496=64 M. L. J. 728. Past carelessness is irrelevant for considering present poverty. A. I. R. 1934 Nag. 104. Application should not be dismissed on the mere probability that he might have means. A. I. R. 1934 Nag. 104. Two clauses in explanation are disjunctive. A. I. R. 1934 All. 323. Court has no power to grant leave to apply for review in forma pauperis. A. I. R. 1930 Rang. 280=8 Rang. 423. Costs can be made condition precedent for allowing plaintiff an adjournment even though he was allowed to sue as pauper. A. I. R. 1928 Rang. 306=3 Rang. 561. Burden of proving that property does not exceed Court-fees is on petitioner. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 821=31 P. L. R. 432. Order directing pauper to pay costs of amendment in cash and dismissing suit on failure to pay is not proper order. 24 Bom. L. R. 924=47 B. 104=69 Ind. Cas. 207. Application for bringing legal representative of deceased opponent in application for permission to sue in forma pauperis is not governed by Art. 177. A. I. R. 1929 Sind 136. On the death of the applicant his legal representative has a right to continue the proceedings by substitution on payment of Court-fee or else by filing a fresh application for leave to sue as pauper. A. I. R. 1936 Pat. 591=15 Pat. 738.

Sufficient means.—The word “means” includes all form of realisable assets which are capable of being converted into cash and as such capable of conducting litigation. A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 271=10 Lah. L. J. 159. One who is entitled to property does not mean that one is possessed of means to the value of that property. A. I. R. 1929 Nag. 319. Words possessed of sufficient means are not to be qualified by words “other than the subject-matter of the suit”. A. I. R. 1929 Nag. 319=119 Ind. Cas. 697. Mortgage in favour of petitioner is means. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 821=31 P. L. R. 432. Cash in actual possession of the petitioner cannot be taken into account. A. I. R. 1930 Cal. 147=34 C. W. N. 188=57 C. 980. Ornaments of women which are of daily use are not to be taken into account. A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 304=45 C. L. J. 68. Minor’s share in the joint Hindu family property should be taken into account. 23 A. L. J. 512=88 Ind. Cas. 420. That the applicant’s husband has property is no ground for rejection of an application to sue as a pauper by wife. 3 P. L. J. 178=44 Ind. Cas. 723; see also A. I. R. 1930 Rang. 324. While considering question of pauperism circumstances as they are at the date when the application was made should be considered. A. I. R. 1930 Cal. 147=34 C. W. N. 188=57 C. 980; see also A. I. R. 1928 Nag. 24=10 N. L. J. 177; A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 665; 90 Ind. Cas. 949=21 N. L. R. 98. The burden of proving pauperism lies on the applicant. A. I. R. 1927 Nag. 340=104 Ind. Cas. 198. Debt which is due to the applicant from the third person is to be excluded while calculating the means of the applicant. A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 309=45 C. L. J. 68. Amount deposited in Court to the pauper’s credit or appellant’s credit should be taken into consideration while allowing the appellant to sue as pauper. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 567=50 M. L. J. 114=23 L. W. 427. Occupancy holding is not property. A. I. R. 1925 Nag. 438=21 N. L. R. 98=90 Ind. Cas. 949. The words “other than his necessary wearing apparel and the subject-matter of the suit” have an application only where no specific Court-fee is prescribed. A. I. R. 1926 Nag. 273=92 Ind. Cas. 785. Rich relation capable of paying Court-fee is immaterial. A. I. R. 1933 All. 556. Equity of redemption is not assets when money cannot be raised on it. A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 528. But where an applicant is shown to own considerable properties, but all of them are necessarily mortgaged, evidence has to be taken to enable the Court to judge whether any money can be raised on the properties. 152 Ind. Cas. 260=1934 M. W. N. 1031=A. I. R. 1934 Mad. 562. Property forming part of subject-matter of suit in applicant’s possession can be considered to decide question of sufficient means. A. I. R. 1933 Pat. 203. When equity of redemption is subject-matter of suit, it should be excluded in determining whether plaintiff is pauper. A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 679=63 M. L. J. 277=1933 M. W. N. 967. Where suit is filed on insufficient stamp, the Court can allow plaintiff to continue suit as pauper. 36 C. W. N. 1035=56 C. L. J. 148=A. I. R. 1933 Cal. 238; see also 1933 M. W. N. 468=69 M. L. J. 728=A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 498; A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 25. Share in joint family property may amount to means. A. I. R. 1934 All. 396. It cannot be laid down as an abstract proposition that in every case when the plaintiff has got a mortgage or similar claim, he cannot be regarded as a pauper. A. I. R. 1934 Mad. 561=1934 M. W. N. 1054=152 Ind. Cas. 938. In considering whether a person is a pauper the subject-matter of the suit should be excluded. 152 Ind. Cas. 135=40 L. W. 783=1934 M. W. N. 1087=A. I. R. 1934 Mad. 653=67 M. L. J. 581. Where the shebait is suing in respect of debutter properties the question that requires consideration is whether the trust property vesting in the idol is sufficient to pay the Court-fees or not. 152 Ind. Cas. 241=A. I. R. 1934 Pat. 531; see also A. I. R. 1935 Nag. 209=31 N. L. R. 413. From an order allowing a pauper application the defendant can have no possible grievance, assuming the order was wrong. The only person really affected is the Crown. The High Court can interfere in a proper case, but it would be slow to move at the instance of the opposite party. 151 Ind. Cas. 316=A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 295. In considering an application for permission to sue in forma pauperis, the earnings of a brother in service cannot be regarded as property belonging to the plaintiff. A. I. R. 1935 Lah. 965. Once the application to sue as pauper is admitted the plaintiff can only be dispaupered under rule 9 on the grounds mentioned therein. A. I. R. 1935 Pat. 449=157 Ind. Cas. 520.

Explanation.—Where Court-fee is prescribed for the plaint in the suit, the case falls within the first part of the Explanation appended to rule 1 of Order 33 and the question which requires decision is whether the applicant for permission to sue in forma pauperis is possessed of sufficient property to enable him to pay the Court-fee. Provision is made in the second part of the Explanation for a case in which no

Court-fee is prescribed. As finding of the Court that the assets of the applicant are worth more than Rs. 100 is therefore, beside the point in a case covered by the first part of the Explanation. 1936 O. W. N. 237. The word "person" in Order 33, rule 1, has reference to all those who have a right to institute a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure. This rule applies to all prospective plaintiffs or persons in whom any right to relief exists within the meaning of Order 1, rule 1 of the Code. 31 N. L. R. 413=18 N. L. J. 347=158 Ind. Cas. 660=A. I. R. 1935 Nag. 209. An idol is a person who comes within the meaning of this rule. Ibid.

Appeal or Revision.—Interlocutory decision rejecting an application for leave to sue as pauper can be appealed against. A. I. R. 1928 Nag. 24=10 N. L. J. 117; see also A. I. R. 1927 Nag. 340; A. I. R. 1925 Nag. 343=88 Ind. Cas. 157. Order either granting or rejecting application for leave to sue in forma pauperis amounts to "case" decided. A.I.R. 1931 Rang. 318=135 Ind. Cas. 331. Order rejecting application to sue as pauper is subject to revision. A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 56=98 Ind. Cas. 879; see also 75 Ind. Cas. 993=19 N. L. R. 165; but see A. I. R. 1926 All. 449.

2. [S. 408.] Every application for permission to sue as a pauper shall

plaints in suits: a schedule of any movable or immovable property belonging to the applicant, with the estimated value thereof shall be annexed thereto, and it shall be signed and verified in the manner prescribed for the signing and verification of pleadings.

Scope.—This rule deals rather with form of application and not with the truth of its contents. Hence an omission of one item of property is not non-compliance with this rule. A. I. R. 1928 Pat. 28=8 P. L. T. 794. But where there is an entire omission of immovable property, the application should be dismissed. 74 Ind. Cas. 344; 9 O. L. J. 610; see also A. I. R. 1930 Pat. 368=11 P. L. T. 567. Where application to sue as pauper was presented in time, it is not time-barred merely on the ground that it was signed and verified out of time. A. I. R. 1931 Bom. 47=32 Bom. L. R. 1343. Joint family property even of minor must be mentioned. A. I. R. 1934 All. 396. "It" refers to application and not to scheduled property. A. I. R. 1932 Lah. 548=33 P. L. R. 733. Rule 2 should not be meticulously interpreted. A. I. R. 1932 Lah. 328=138 Ind. Cas. 335. In an application for leave to sue as a pauper in respect of a claim under the Fatal Accidents Act, the failure to give particulars of all the beneficiaries is a defect in form but where the plaint includes a claim for loss of petitioners personal effects as well and the Court-fee on that portion of the claim alone exceeds the value of the petitioner's belongings, the plaint cannot be rejected and the whole claim should be considered on its merits. 59 C. L. J. 391=A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 632=38 C. W. N. 551; 59 C. L. J. 394=A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 712. Under rule 2 the application should contain all particulars required in a plaint of a suit. The rule 5 of the same provides for circumstances under which a Court is entitled to reject an application to sue in forma pauperis. But from neither of these rules can it be said that for all purposes such an application is a plaint. Under Order 8 when once the application is granted the particulars which have already been given are treated as those of a plaint; but under rule 15 of the same order, if application is rejected, the plaintiff then has to proceed in the ordinary way. A. I. R. 1935 Pat. 193=156 Ind. Cas. 402.

3. [S. 404.] Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, the Presentation of application. application shall be presented to the Court by the applicant in person, unless he is exempted from appearing in Court, in which case the application may be presented by an authorized agent who can answer all material questions relating to the application, and who may be examined in the same manner as the party represented by him might have been examined had such party attended in person.

Scope.—Where a petition was given to the officer of the Court and petitioner was present when the officer presented the petition to the Judge, petition should be regarded as presented to the Judge himself. 58 Ind. Cas. 961=17 N. L. R. 22; see also 47 M. L. J. 522=84 Ind. Cas. 968. Husband of pardanashin lady can present the application of his wife for leave to sue as a pauper and no authority in writing is necessary. A. I. R. 1929 Pat. 27=10 P. L. T. 46=114 Ind. Cas. 210. This rule applies to presentation of application to appeal as a pauper and not to Memorandum of Appeal itself. A. I. R. 1926 Oudh 13=90 Ind. Cas. 371. Where plaint was returned for presentation to proper Court and the memorandum submitted by parties for continuation of suit, objection that plaint should have been presented in person in order to entitle him to sue as a pauper cannot be maintained. A. I. R. 1931 Mad. 418=1930 M. W. N. 582. Court can reject application where the claim is doubtful. 75 Ind. Cas. 744. Where original application is filed by the applicant, the amended application can be filed by pleader. A. I. R. 1933 Rang. 410=11 Rang. 414.

4. [S. 406.] (1) Where the application is in proper form and duly presented, the Court may, if it thinks fit, examine the applicant, or his agent when the applicant is allowed to appear by agent, regarding the merits of the claim and the property of the applicant.

(2) Where the application is presented by an agent, the Court may, if it thinks fit, order that the applicant be examined by a commission in the manner in which the examination of an absent witness may be taken.

Scope.—Court can examine applicant on merits of claim before and after issue of notice to opponent and may avail of help from latter though latter cannot examine applicant. A. I. R. 1928 Sind 118=22 S. L. R. 441=108 Ind. Cas. 657; 50 Ind. Cas. 676. Evidence except of applicant himself cannot be taken on merits of claim in enquiry under Order 33. 46 C. 651=52 Ind. Cas. 610; see also A. I. R. 1929 Rang. 273=7 Rang. 361. Court should not embark upon consideration of doubtful questions of law and fact in order to see whether the allegation shows cause of action. A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 231. Capacity of plaintiff himself to pay the Court-fee and not that of his next friend or relations is to be considered in pauper applications. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 746=121 Ind. Cas. 381. Opposite party can cross-examine applicant who is examined under rule 4 to test statements made in application. 60 Ind. Cas. 738.

Rejection of application.

5. [Ss. 4, 5, 407.] The Court shall reject an application for permission to sue as a pauper,—

- (a) where it is not framed and presented in the manner prescribed by rules 2 and 3, or
- (b) where the applicant is not a pauper, or
- (c) where he has, within two months next before the presentation of the application, disposed of any property fraudulently or in order to be able to apply for permission to sue as a pauper, or
- (d) where his allegations do not show a cause of action, or
- (e) where he has entered into any agreement with reference to the subject-matter of the proposed suit under which any other person has obtained an interest in such subject-matter.

N. B.—For local amendment in Allahabad.—Vide infra.

Scope.—Statute must be strictly applied to bona fide litigants in whose aid it is designed. A. I. R. 1927 Pat. 352=8 P. L. T. 810. Court must first see whether cause of action is disclosed and then determine whether applicant is really pauper. A. I. R. 1933 All. 779=1933 A. L. J. 757. Application cannot be rejected for omission of goods of small value from the list of properties. A. I. R. 1932 Pat. 308=13 P. L. T. 538. Judge not confining to plaint acts with material irregularity. bar to fresh application. A. I. R. 1932 Rang. 195=10 Rang. 475. When after rejection of pauper application, Court-fee is paid, limitation will count from presentation of pauper application. A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 883; but see A. I. R. 1933 Nag. 237; A. I. R. 1930 All. 758. Rules 5 and 7 are not applicable to pauper appeals. A. I. R. 1932 Mad. 523=63 M. L. J. 28. In considering applications by Hindu widow, the Court should consider the fact that she will be neither able to borrow money nor to sell her property. A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 883. General power of allowing amendment may be applied to application to sue in forma pauperis. A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 231. If the Court rejects the pauper petition ex parte on any of the grounds laid down in rule 5, a second application is competent; but if the Court proceeds to issue notice to the respondent and takes evidence and finally refuses to allow the petition on merits, no second application is competent. A. I. R. 1937 Pesh. 85. The omission to include one solitary item of property in the Schedule of properties attached to an application for leave to sue as a pauper is not such a defect in the form or frame of the application as to call for rejection under clause (a) where the application is otherwise regular. A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 640=38 C. W. N. 548=151 Ind. Cas. 635. In case of rejection Court should give time for payment of Court-fee. 38 P. L. R. 429; 38 P. L. R. 79.

Clause (a).—Order rejecting petition under rule 5 (a) does not bar a second petition if there has been no enquiry under rule 6 and consequent order under rule 7. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 875=26 L. W. 546=50 M. 63=51 M. L. J. 79=96 Ind. Cas. 952. Application must be rejected if Court-fee value is not calculated in accordance with s. 7 (v) (b), Court Fees Act. A. I. Where the verification in an application for leave to appeal in forma pauperis is not in the manner prescribed by the Code, the Court instead of rejecting it should allow the applicant a chance to correct the defect in the verification. A. I. R. 1937 Nag. 108.

Clause (b).—To allow or not to allow an application for leave to sue as a pauper is within the discretion of the Court. 37 Ind. Cas. 172. Court should restrict itself to question of pauperism in enquiry on pauper application. 37 M. L. J. 309=53 Ind. Cas. 239. Evidence should be limited on question of pauperism. 54 Ind. Cas. 452=10 L. application should be rejected if it is found to be barred by the rule of res judicata. A. I. R. 1936 Pesh. 39. Undischarged bankrupt cannot sue for debt due since adjudication order. 5 P. L. T. 606=79 Ind. Cas. 56; see also 87 Ind. Cas. 720=48 M. L. J. 491. For the purpose of deciding whether the allegations of the application show a cause of action under rule 5 (d), the Court must take into consideration the averments in the application and any statement, by the applicant regarding the merits of the claim made in the course of the application under rule 4, but the Court is not entitled to take into account any other evidence, oral or documentary, in considering whether the allegations disclose a cause of action. A. I. R. 1934 Rang. 124=151 Ind. Cas. 429.

Clause (e).—Agreement in order to bar an application under Order 33, rule 5(e), must be one with reference to the subject-matter of the suit instituted and must be champertous. 37 Ind. Cas. 172; see also A. I. R. 1926 Lah. 642; see also 43 L. W. 717=A. I. R. 1936 Mad. 665. Benamidar cannot be allowed to sue as pauper as it would give non-pauper a right to evade fiscal land and infringe provisions of r. 5(e) by setting up pauper nominees. 50 Ind. Cas. 520. Statement by pauper "I have not yet paid any fees to pleader" but I have undertaken to pay him fees when I obtain decree for my share" is not sufficient to dismiss application. A. I. R. 1931 Rang. 68=138 Ind. Cas. 831. Matters in clauses (c) and (e) relate to pauperism on which evidence can be adduced under rule 6, 10 Rang. 357=A. I. R. 1932 Rang. 107 (F. B.). This rule has been enacted to prevent payment of Court-fee being evaded and it matters little with what purpose the agreement has been entered into, whether it is an honest or bona fide one or of an improper character is an irrelevant factor quite outside the scope of the enquiry. The principle underlying the provision is that a person ought not to be allowed to sue in forma pauperis after transferring his interest to a third party, no matter for what reason the transfer has been made. The question is whether at the date of institution of the suit there was a subsisting agreement falling within the provision. For a plaintiff to be dispaupered all that need be shown is, that he has entered into an agreement of the character described in respect of the subject-matter of the suit and there was no warrant for assuming that the agreement should be one made with reference to or in view of the intended suit or appeal. A. I. R. 1937 Mad. 161. In case of advance of money out of piety and without agreement securing repayment, mere hope of repayment does not make the understanding illegal. A. I. R. 1934 Rang. 214=151 Ind. Cas. 429. The agreement referred to in clause (e) which authorises a Court to reject an application for permission to sue as pauper is one which is champertous. 38 C. W. N. 1069=A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 740. Such agreement must also be an agreement which is subsisting and effective on the date of the application for leave to sue as pauper. 11 O. W. N. 1356=152 Ind. Cas. 417.

Revision, etc.—Order rejecting petition for permission to sue as pauper is open to revision. 52 M. L. J. 330=A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 441; A. I. R. 1933 Sind 82; I. R. 1934 Lah. 231; but see 20 A. L. J. 55=44 A. 248=65 Ind. Cas. 255. Order rejecting pauper application is not appealable but does not bar suit in any ordinary way. 39 Ind. Cas. 942; A. I. R. 1931 Rang. 129. Court rejecting pauper application can also review its own order. 20 C. W. N. 669=33 Ind. Cas. 812.

6. [S. 408.] Where the Court sees no reason to reject the application on any of the grounds stated in rule 5, it shall fix a day (of which at least ten days' clear notice shall be given to the opposite party and the Government pleader) for receiving such evidence as the applicant may adduce in proof of his pauperism, and for hearing any evidence which may be adduced in disproof thereof.

Scope.—Under rules 6 and 7, Court adduces evidence in any matters referred to the rule 5 and gives a decision thereon. 50 Ind. Cas. 520. But rule 6 does not empower the Court to adduce evidence as to plaintiff's title. 45 A. 548=21 A. L. J. 441=73 Ind. Cas. 538. Disposal of pauper application without notice to the opposite party and the Government pleader and without evidence adduced in disproof of pauperism is acting without jurisdiction. 100 Ind. Cas. 726=A. I. R.

1927 Cal. 464. But ultimate question of the suit should not be tried in an application under Order 33. A. I. R. 1927 Rang. 72=5 Bur. L. J. 174.

7. [S. 409.] (1) On the day so fixed or as soon thereafter as may be convenient, the Court shall examine the witnesses (if any) produced by either party, and may examine the applicant or his agent, and shall make a memorandum of the substance of their evidence.

(2) The Court shall also hear any argument which the parties may desire to offer on the question whether, on the face of the application and of the evidence (if any) taken by the Court as herein provided, the applicant is or is not subject to any of the prohibitions specified in rule 5.

(3) The Court shall then either allow or refuse to allow the applicant to sue as a pauper.

Notes.—Defendant must be allowed to disprove pauperism inspite of Government Pleader's report to the contrary. 48 M. 700=47 M. L. J. 932=85 Ind. Cas. 20. Only such defects of form as unfavourably reflect on the merits of the application must be regarded as justifying an order refusing to allow the applicant to sue as pauper. 31 N. L. R. 386=157 Ind. Cas. 294=A. I. R. 1935 Nag. 168.

8. [S. 410.] Where the application is granted, it shall be numbered and registered, and shall be deemed the plaint in the suit, and the suit, shall proceed in all other respects as a suit instituted in the ordinary manner, except that the plaintiff shall not be liable to pay any Court-fee (other than fees payable for service of process) in respect of any petition, appointment of a pleader or other proceeding connected with the suit.

Scope.—Plaintiff or appellant whose application to sue in forma pauperis has been granted has not to pay the Court fees at all. A. I. R. 1930 Rang. 342. Until the application to sue as a pauper is granted, there is no suit as such. 21 C. W. N. 870=38 Ind. Cas. 600; see also 52 Ind. Cas. 688; 65 Ind. Cas. 506=18 N. L. R. 44. Suit in case of pauper application should be regarded as instituted on the date on which the pauper application is made and the Court-fee is payable from that date. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 159=49 M. L. J. 538; see also A. I. R. 1928 Nag. 296; A. I. R. 1929 Mad. 828=53 M. 43. The application to sue in forma pauperis is a potential plaint. If it is rejected under rule 5 or rule 7 it never ripens into a plaint. If the application ripens into a plaint, then the date of institution of the suit shall relate back to the date of filing of the application to sue in forma pauperis. If, on the other hand, such an application is rejected, it cannot be deemed to be a plaint, and the payment of the Court-fee after the application to sue in forma pauperis has been rejected cannot revive a potential plaint which ceased to exist when the application for leave to sue in forma pauperis was rejected. So where an application for permission to sue in forma pauperis is rejected and a full Court-fee is paid for a suit for the same relief, the suit must be considered for the purpose of limitation to have been instituted only after the payment of the Court-fee and not at the date of the presentation of the petition to sue as pauper. A. I. R. 1937 Lah. 151. An application for review of judgment passed in a suit or appeal in forma pauperis must, under the law, be considered to be one in continuation of the suit or appeal as the case may be, which is forma pauperis. 40 C. W. N. 1407=A. I. R. 1936 Cal. 752.

9. [S. 411.] The Court may, on the application of the defendant, or of the Government pleader, of which seven days' clear notice in writing has been given to the plaintiff, order of the plaintiff to be dispaupered—

(a) if he is guilty of vexatious or improper conduct in the course of the suit;

(b) if it appears that his means are such that he ought not to continue to sue as a pauper; or

(c) if he has entered into any agreement with reference to the subject-matter of the suit under which any other person has obtained an interest in such subject-matter.

Scope—Heirs of papuer plaintiff, brought on record can be dispaupered. A. I. R. 1931 Mad. 324=1931 M. W. N. 199. Executor can sue as pauper. A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 735. Pauper application can be dismissed for the laches of the applicant in not bringing the representatives of the opposite party on record within reasonable time. A. I. R. 1929 Mad. 136=116 Ind. Cas. 111. Legal representatives cannot be dispaupered for possessing sufficient means. 48 M. L. J. 397=87 Ind. Cas. 372. Dispaupering has no retrospective effect. 48 M. L. J. 390=87 Ind. Cas. 372. Omission to state in the list of assets an insurance policy of small value is only an improper conduct. 24 Bom. L. R. 734=45 B. 1017=70 Ind. Cas. 954. Engaging an eminent pleader is no cause of dispaupering. 77 Ind. Cas. 611=4 Pat. L. T. 538. When a plaintiff has been declared a pauper, res judicata does not prevent the question from being reopened. The question can be reopened on any one of three grounds mentioned in rule 9. 149 Ind. Cas. 1004=A. I. R. 1934 All. 323. The case falls under clause (c) where there was an agreement by pauper to advance to his advocate sum of Rs. 3 500 in case of success. A. I. R. 1927 Rang. 283=6 Bur. L. J. 152. Order declaring plaintiff or pauper is not res judicata. A. I. R. 1934 All. 323. Clause (c) contemplates an agreement in and by which an interest is transferred or created in the subject-matter of the suit in favour of a person who is not entitled to it, and would not cover a case where by virtue of a family settlement between the parties there is recognition of an antecedent title in one of the parties to the suit. A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 576. Rule 9 (c) must be construed as meaning that a person cannot sue as a pauper if at the time of the petition some other person has under an agreement an interest in the subject-matter of the suit. 59 M. 901=1936 M. W. N. 785=71 M. L. J. 355. For an added defendant there is nothing in Order 33, which contemplates a fresh inquiry into papuperism merely from the fact that other defendants are subsequently added to the suit. But an added defendant can apply under rule 9, for dispaupering the plaintiffs for one of the reasons given in Order 9. A. I. R. 1936 Pesh. 51=161 Ind. Cas. 51. The mere fact that the issue will be decided agreed in the suit is no reason why it should not be decided in proceeding for dispaupering. A. I. R. 1931 All. 323.

10. [S. 411.] Where the plaintiff succeeds in the suit, the Court shall Costs where pauper succeeds. calculate the amount of Court-fees which would have been paid by the plaintiff if he had not been permitted to sue as a pauper; such amount shall be recoverable by the "Provincial Government"* from any party ordered by the decree to pay the same, and shall be a first charge on the subject-matter of the suit.

Scope and object—Object of rule 10 is clearly to facilitate the recovery by Government of Court-fee, where a pauper plaintiff has realised something from his litigation and to make Government as the first creditor of a successful pauper plaintiff. 42 M. L. J. 191=14 L. W. 529=69 Ind. Cas. 743. Under this rule two distinct rights in Crown are created, one right against the property recovered in the suit, other right against the pauper ordered to pay the decree. 50 Ind. Cas. 315=4 Pat. L. J. 166. Rules 10 and 11 are not ultra vires of the Indian legislature. A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 385=54 M. L. J. 263. These rules are applicable to suits in the original side of the High Court. Ibid. Court-fee payable under rule 10 is what is payable on the date of the plaint. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 474=50 M. L. J. 280; 27 S. L. R. 240=A. I. R. 1933 Sind 354. Defendant can be ordered to pay Court-fee only to the extent to which the claim of the plaintiff is allowed, plaintiff being liable for the balance where plaintiff succeeds in part only. A. I. R. 1930 Mad. 1000=32 L. W. 172=53 M. 780; A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 216=54 M. L. J. 530=28 L. W. 328; 14 A. L. J. 657=38 A. 469=35 Ind. Cas. 46. It is within the discretion of the Court as to who should pay the costs and the Court-fees. A. I. R. 1928 Cal. 196=55 C. 488=32 C. W. N. 48; A. I. R. 1930 Pat. 353=11 P. L. T. 257=122 Ind. Cas. 152. Appellate Court direct the plaintiff to pay the difference of Court-fee when the suit is decreed in part only. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 474=50 M. L. J. 280. Where pauper plaintiff succeeds in a suit for future maintenance the proper method to recover Court-fee is by appointing a Receiver to collect maintenance. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 565=49 M. 567=50 M. L. J. 279; see also A. I. R. 1926 Cal. 859; A. I. R. 1933 Bom.

350=57 B. 507=35 Bom. L. R. 615. Pauper plaintiff cannot be ordered to pay the costs of amendment of plaintiff then and there and the suit cannot be dismissed on default of such payment. A. I. R. 1922 Bom. 335=24 Bom. L. R. 924=47 B. 104=75 Ind. Cas. 128. Where a suit in forma pauperis was decreed in terms of a compromise whereby the defendant was to pay the plaintiff a part of his claims and the decree made the plaintiff liable for the whole Court-fees and also made it a charge on the subject-matter of the compromise, but the money being paid out to the plaintiff out of Court before the decree was drawn up, satisfaction of the same was entered and subsequently the Government started an execution case against the defendant for realizing the Court-fees: Held that the application in execution was misconceived and in circumstances the defendant was not liable to pay the Court-fees. 39 C. W. N. 1274. Purchaser of decree from pauper decree-holder takes it subject to charge of Court-fee. A. I. R. 1934 All. 438. Where an appeal in forma pauperis is partially accepted, the Government is entitled under Order 33, rule 10, C. P. Code to the full amount of the Court-fee which was payable on the Memorandum of Appeal, if the appellant had not been allowed to appeal in forma pauperis. 36 P. L. R. 22. Property on which future maintenance is charged cannot be sold by Government for realising Court-fees. A. I. R. 1935 Sind 21=154 Ind. Cas. 580.

11. [S. 412.] Where the plaintiff fails in the suit or is dispaupered, Procedure where pauper fails. or where the suit is withdrawn or dismissed,—

(a) because the summons for the defendant to appear and answer has not been served upon him in consequence of the failure of the plaintiff to pay the Court-fee or postal charges (if any) chargeable for such service, or

(b) because the plaintiff does not appear when the suit is called on for hearing, the Court shall order the plaintiff, or any person added as a co-plaintiff to the suit, to pay the Court-fees which would have been paid by the plaintiff if he had not been permitted to sue as a pauper.

Scope.—Next friend can be ordered to pay costs in place of minor. Payment of Court-fee by plaintiff is included in the costs of the suit. A. I. R. 1931 Mad. 249=58 M. L. J. 623=53 M. 716. Dispaupering order operates retrospectively in respect of Court-fee. A. I. R. 1934 All. 323. An order dispaupering the plaintiff operates retrospectively in respect of payment of Court-fees. A. I. R. 1934 All. 323=149 Ind. Cas. 1004.

12. [New.] The "Provincial Government"* shall have the right at any time to apply to the Court to make an order Government may apply for for the payment of Court-fees under rule 10 payment of Court-fees. or rule 11.

Notes.—It is not competent if it thought there was a better prospect of recovering the Court-fee from the next friend who might be a person of property than from the pauper plaintiff, to apply under rule 12 for an order making the next friend pay the Court-fee. A. I. R. 1937 Mad. 145. The Court cannot deprive the Government of the right which, is expressly given by rules 11 and 12 to pass an order that the plaintiff, shall pay the Court-fee when a pauper suit fails. Ibid. It is not the function of a Court of appeal to give effect to the right of the Government conferred by rule 12. It must on admission of the appeal dispose of it in the manner laid down by Order 41. Order 33, rule 13, makes it clear that the Government should proceed in the trial Court for recovery of the Court-fee to which its right has been declared by rule 12. The appellate Court cannot enforce the right of Government in the matter of Court-fees either by issuing a process or by directing the pauper appellant to pay the Court-fee and costs awarded to Government on face of his properly stamped appeal being dismissed. A. I. R. 1937 All. 280.

* In British India the words "Provincial Government" have been substituted for the word "Government" by G. I. Order of 1937. But read "Government" for "Provincial Government" so substituted in British Burma.

13. [New] All matters arising between the "Provincial Government"* and any party to the suit under rule 10, rule 11 or rule 12 shall be deemed to be questions arising between the parties to the suit within Government to be deemed a party.

the meaning of section 47.

14. [New.] Where an order is made under rule 10, rule 11 or rule 12, the Court shall forthwith cause a copy of the decree to be forwarded to the Collector. Copy of decree to be sent to Collector.

Notes.—Where a plaintiff is ordered to pay a certain sum to the Government all that the Code requires is to send a copy of the decree to the Collector. A. I. R. 1930 Rang. 342=8 Rang. 294=127 Ind. Cas. 606.

15. [S. 413.] An order refusing to allow the applicant to sue as a pauper shall be a bar to any subsequent application of the like nature by him in respect of the same right to sue; but the applicant shall be at liberty to institute a suit in the ordinary manner in respect of such right, provided that he first pays the costs (if any) incurred by the "Provincial Government"* and by the opposite party in opposing his application for leave to sue as a pauper.

Scope.—Refusal of pauper application bars a subsequent application but withdrawal does not. A. I. R. 1931 Rang. 79=131 Ind. Cas. 64; see also 40 C. L. J. 188=84 Ind. Cas. 703; 2 Bur. L. J. 217=76 Ind. Cas. 785; 20 C. W. N. 669=33 Ind. Cas. 812; 73 Ind. Cas. 897=A. I. R. 1924 Lah. 312. Rejection of application under rule 5 is no bar to subsequent application under rule 5. 10 O. W. N. 1145=A. I. R. 1933 Oudh 534. Where previous application is withdrawn, subsequent application is not barred. A. I. R. 1931 Rang. 79=131 Ind. Cas. 64. Where first application was dismissed for not being in accordance with rules and the second dismissed for default, third application to sue in respect of the same right in forma pauperis is not barred. A. I. R. 1926 Rang. 200=4 Rang. 245=93 Ind. Cas. 26; 85 Ind. Cas. 982. Rules 5, 6, 7 and 15 should be read together. 31 C. L. J. 351=57 Ind. Cas. 9. When first application to sue for maintenance in forma pauperis was dismissed on the ground that the plaint did not disclose any cause of action, second application to sue in forma pauperis to recover maintenance for a period more than two years subsequent to the date of the previous application is not barred under rule 15. 31 C. L. J. 351=57 Ind. Cas. 9. Omission to insert a schedule of property does not bar a second application to sue in forma pauperis. 1 Lah. 151=56 Ind. Cas. 207. Second application to sue in forma pauperis is not barred though first was rejected under Order XXXII, rules 2 and 3 even after hearing the other side. 9 L. B. R. 93=42 Ind. Cas. 803. Dismissal of an application to sue in forma pauperis does not amount to rejection of plaint, which remains and may be validated by payment of Court-fees within time fixed by the Court. 46 M. L. J. 254=76 Ind. Cas. 767. The words "right to sue" have substantially the same meaning as the words "cause of action". A. I. R. 1936 Nag. 280. Rule 15 must be read in conjunction with rule 7 and not with rule 5. The Court would obviously be transgressing their legitimate province if they attempt to put such a wide construction on the wording of rule 15 as to include an order of rejection. The intention of the legislature must be gathered from the actual words used in rule 15 in describing the order of refusal which constructively put to sub-rule (3) of rule 7. An ex parte order passed under rule 15 is not governed by rule 15. 31 N. L. R. 386=157 Ind. Cas. 294=A. I. R. 1935 Nag. 168. Where there is no order for payment of cost a suit can be maintained without payment of cost. A. I. R. 1935 All. 723 (F. B.)=1935 A. L. J. 857. Cost should be paid prior to the institution of the suit. 59. M. L. J. 791.

16. [S. 415.] The costs of an application for permission to sue as a pauper and of an inquiry into pauperism shall be costs in the suit.

• Costs.

* In British India the words "Provincial Government" have been substituted for the word "Government" by G. I. Order of 1937. But read "Government" for "Provincial Government" so substituted in British Burma.

ORDER XXXIV.

Suits relating to Mortgages of Immovable Property.

1. [T. P. Act, S. 85.] Subject to the provisions of this Code, all persons having an interest either in the mortgage security or in the right of redemption shall be joined as parties to any suit relating to the mortgage.

Explanation—A puisne mortgagee may sue for foreclosure or for sale without making the prior mortgagee a party to the suit; and a prior mortgagee need not be joined in a suit to redeem a subsequent mortgage.

Scope of Order XXXIV.—Civil Procedure Code is the guide in mortgage suits in India not English practice. 91 Ind. Cas. 258=2 O. W. N. 826. Order 34 has no application to compromise decrees. 14 Pat. 488=155 Ind. Cas. 976=16 Pat. L. T. 311=A. I. R. 1935 Pat. 385. This order is not applicable to decrees on the arbitrator's award. A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 166; A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 179; A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 48. Proceedings taken under Order 34, are execution proceedings and hence Order XLI, rule 6, is applicable. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 552=30 P. L. R. 371. Court cannot appoint Receiver of the mortgaged property in a suit for its sale under Order XXXIV. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 730=122 Ind. Cas. 483; see also A. I. R. 1933 Rang. 94. In execution by sale of mortgaged property, Court cannot order the arrest of judgment-debtor. A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 103=31 P. L. R. 143. Rules of Order 34 apply to mortgage suits relating to movables as well. 36 C. W. N. 263=A. I. R. 1932 Cal. 524=59 C. 667. Interest is to be determined according to Order 34 and not according to s. 34. A. I. R. 1933 Oudh 128=8 Luck. 315; see also A. I. R. 1927 P. C. 1=54 C. 161=31 C. W. N. 399=54 I. A. 1 P. C. Interested party if not joined can claim redemption before foreclosure or sale. 47 C. 924=24 C. W. N. 954=56 Ind. Cas. 274 (P. C.). Where mortgagor transfers equity of redemption, decree against him does not bind transferee. 45 Ind. Cas. 606=21 O. C. 70; see also 22 C. W. N. 543=28 C. L. J. 256; 34 Ind. Cas. 367; 36 Ind. Cas. 744.

Scope.—Object of rule 1 is that all claims affecting equity of redemption should be disposed of in the same suit. 50 M. 180=A. I. R. 1927 P. C. 32=52 M. L. J. 338=29 Bom. L. R. 805=31 C. W. N. 670 (P. C.). This rule is not intended to punish omission to joint parties whose title-deeds or existence is not known to plaintiff. 5. N. L. J. 157 (F. B.)=66 Ind. Cas. 631; see also 61 Ind. Cas. 412=19 A. L. J. 185. Puisne mortgagee is not required to implead prior mortgagee as a party in a suit for foreclosure or sale. The principle will be the same when the subsequent mortgagee and the prior mortgagee happen to be one and the same person. 4 P. L. T. 546=74 Ind. Cas. 820; see also 50 A. 742=26 A. L. J. 529=A. I. R. 1928 All. 378; 86 Ind. Cas. 748=12 O. L. J. 127. Where it is possible for Court to do justice between the parties before it, it should do so and should not make rule 1 a ground for dismissing the entire suit. A. I. R. 1929 A. 941=52 A. 134. Non-compliance is not fatal. 35 C. W. N. 1138=60 C. 87; A. I. R. 1936 Pat. 153; A. I. R. 1936 Sind 87=30 S. L. R. 42. Party knowingly omitting to do what is enjoined by law cannot invoke aid of equity. 55 C. L. J. 299=A. I. R. 1932 Cal. 561. All mortgagees or heirs of mortgagees must be parties to the suit. 37 C. W. N. 478=60 C. 777. If a proper party in mortgage suit is omitted, his right to pursue his own remedy is not affected by that suit. A. I. R. 1932 Mad. 115=62 M. L. J. 272. Mortgaged security does not mean the mere lands which the mortgagor professes to mortgage. The mortgaged security means not the physical object but the interest therein which the mortgagor is competent to transfer by way of mortgage at the date of the transaction. A. I. R. 1936 Rang. 198. The holder of a money-decree against the mortgagor who has obtained an order for a Receiver in execution of his decree is not a person having interest in the mortgaged property or in the right of redemption so as to make him a necessary party to a suit on mortgage under this rule. 45 C. W. N. 974. Rule 1 is the rule of procedure and does not purport to deal with substantive rights of parties or the extinguishment of such rights. 30 S. L. R. 42=164 Ind. Cas. 69=A. I. R. 1936 Sind 87. No decree should be passed against third party, who claims an interest in the property not in mortgagor's interest. A. I. R. 1936 Rang. 198=162 Ind. Cas. 731. Rule 1 does not require that in a suit on a mortgage the owner of the equity of redemption must always fill in the role of a defendant. 70 M. L. J. 719=A. I. R. 1936 Mad. 814=43 L. W. 628=1936 M. W. N. 408=59 M.

1042. All parties having beneficial interest in the property at the date of the suit should be made parties. 38 C. W. N. 1045. Non-compliance with the provisions of rule 1 is not necessarily fatal to the suit to enforce a mortgage. A. I. R. 1934 Oudh 220=11 O. W. N. 524=148 Ind. Cas. 524. Rule of joining all persons interested in redemption is rule of procedure. If in a suit for redemption some of the persons interested in redemption are not joined, the Court should decide if it can adjudicate upon the rights of parties actually present. A. I. R. 1937 Pat. 414. Where in a suit for sale of mortgaged property the alienee of the whole interest of the mortgagor in the property, is made a party after expiry of the period of limitation, the suit must wholly fail. 150 Ind. Cas. 597=A. I. R. 1934 Pesh. 38; see also 61 C. L. J. 560=A. I. R. 1935 Cal. 667; A. I. R. 1935 Sind 131. Order 34, rule 1, is a rule of procedure only and is subject to the provisions of Order 1, r. 9, and there is nothing in the rule which either does or can deprive a first mortgagee of his inherent right to bar the equity of redemption of a second mortgagee. 155 Ind. Cas. 318=A. I. R. 1935 Rang. 139. The rights of a secured creditor over a property are not affected by the mortgagor being adjudicated an insolvent. A. I. R. 1935 Cal. 460=39 C.W.N. 384=62 C. 483=157 Ind. Cas. 140.

Proper Parties.—Only a person having interest either in the mortgage security or in the right of redemption can be joined as a party. 33 P. L. R. 240=136 Ind. Cas. 728; A. I. R. 1930 Mad. 801 (F. B.). If necessary party is not pleaded within time the whole suit will be dismissed. 36 Ind. Cas. 542=1 Pat. L. J. 468. All the mortgagees are necessary parties and must be impleaded in a suit to enforce the mortgage. But in a case of a deceased mortgagee, if his estate is effectively represented by the persons on the record, the suit is good and not defective. 16 P. L. T. 689; see also A. I. R. 1935 Lah. 203. Proper parties are not always necessary parties. A. I. R. 1935 Rang. 315=158 Ind. Cas. 828.

Prior mortgagee.—In a suit by *pui*sne mortgagee prior mortgagee is not necessary party. A. I. R. 1931 All. 549=53 A. 531=1931 A.L.J. 398; see also A. I. R. 1931 All. 76=1930 A. L. J. 1222. In a suit by *pui*sne mortgagee if prior mortgagee is joined, he can claim subrogation. A. I. R. 1929 Nag. 135=118 Ind. Cas. 54; see also A. I. R. 1936 Rang. 340. The mere fact that the prior mortgagee was impleaded by mistake does not affect the nature of the decree which should be passed. A. I. R. 1930 All. 113=(1930) A. L. J. 321=52 A. 426; see also A. I. R. 1931 Pat. 33=9 Pat. 816.

Puisne mortgagee.—If a subsequent mortgagee is not made a party to the prior mortgagee's suit, the subsequent mortgagee gets the right to redeem the prior mortgagee, and the amount of money to which the prior mortgagee is entitled is the amount of the mortgage loan with interest at the stipulated rate of interest and not the amount of decree passed on the prior mortgagee's suit. A. I. R. 1930 All. 485=1930 A. L. J. 573=52 A. 331; see also A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 593; A. I. R. 1927 All. 488; 6 N. L. J. 237=82 Ind. Cas. 77; 94 Ind. Cas. 284=A. I. R. 1926 Pat. 337=5 Pat. 513. Where decree in the suit by the subsequent mortgagee declared his priority, the suit by the prior mortgagee will be barred by res judicata, 71 Ind. Cas. 948=2 Pat. 435; but see 47 C. 692=38 M. L. J. 424=47 I. A. 11=55 Ind. Cas. 959 P. C. Where in a suit by a prior mortgagee *pui*sne mortgagee is not impleaded his right, is not affected. 33 Ind. Cas. 815=86 P. R. 1916; see also 33 Ind. Cas. 243=18 O. C. 347; A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 593; 38 Ind. Cas. 179; A. I. R. 1932 Cal. 561; 14 A. L. J. 337=36 Ind. Cas. 703; 58 Ind. Cas. 295; 42 A. 364=47 I. A. 71=25 C. W. N. 397=55 Ind. Cas. 969 (P. C.); 26 C. W. N. 279=42 M. L. J. 15=24 Bom. L. R. 590=48 I. A. 465=43 A. 469 (P. C.); 13 Pat. 364=A. I. R. 1934 Pat. 648; 38 C. W. N. 1178. Where *pui*sne mortgagee is not made parties, prior mortgagee can after depositing in Court money due on *pui*sne mortgagee, claim to redeem *pui*sne mortgage. 20 A. L. J. 401=44 A. 452=67 Ind. Cas. 841. Prior mortgagee cannot sue subsequent mortgagee for possession after limitation on prior mortgagee nor compel him to redeem his mortgage. A. I. R. 1926 All. 480=24 A. L. J. 661. Question of contribution between several subsequent mortgagees is foreign to mortgage suit. A. I. R. 1923 Pat. 199=4 P. L. T. 91=71 Ind. Cas. 942. First mortgagee in possession under prior sale may always shield himself under his mortgage and purchase, though his right to possession is defective. A. I. R. 1923 Rang. 107=1 Bur. L. J. 217=74 Ind. Cas. 151. Not impleading subsequent mortgagee or other person interested in mortgaged property does not make whole proceeding null and void. A. I. R. 1931 All. 466 (F. B.)=1931 A. L. J. 729=53 A. 1023.

Sub-mortgagee.—In redemption suit relief against sub-mortgagee can be given. A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 703=101 Ind. Cas. 728. First mortgagor is not necessary party in redemption suit by mortgagee to redeem his sub-mortgage. 24 Bom. L. R. 911=68 Ind. Cas. 741; see also 3 Lah. L. J. 373=67 Ind. Cas. 421. Mortgagor without notice of sub-mortgage paying off mortgagee in redemption suit is not bound by sub-mortgage. 30 M. L. T. 21=63 Ind. Cas. 192.

Paramount title.—Question of paramount title should not ordinarily be decided in mortgage suit. 59 C. 548=1932 Cal. 512; see also 10 Pat. 234=A. I. R. 1931 Pat. 64; 18 N. L. J. 291. Person who claims title paramount to mortgagor and mortgagee is not a necessary party. 80 Ind. Cas. 753=2 Rang. 106; see also 73 Ind. Cas. 428=10 O. L. J. 263; 20 C. W. N. 1079=35 Ind. Cas. 959=14 A. Paramount title is one which originates independently of the parties to the mortgage and it can be investigated in mortgage suit, if it is necessary to give complete relief. A. I. R. 1931 Nag. 20=26 N. L. R. 359. In a mortgage suit a stranger setting up an adverse claim of title cannot be made a party for the purpose of litigating that in the mortgage suit. A. I. R. 1929 Cal. 672=33 C. W. N. 659; see also A. I. R. 1930 Nag. 89=13 N. L. J. 1. The mortgagee plaintiff should not be allowed in his suit on mortgage to raise a controversy as regards the title of a third person claiming a paramount title. A. I. R. 1930 Oudh 97=7 O. W. N. 25=121 Ind. Cas. 277. In a suit to enforce mortgage, a person claiming paramount title is not necessary or proper party. 100 Ind. Cas. 195=A. I. R. 1927 Sind 265; see also A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 301=52 M. L. J. 52; 1927 Oudh 607; A. I. R. 1927 Pat. 45=7 P. L. T. 737; A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 764; but see A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 2=53 M. L. J. 647; A. I. R. 1935 All. 205=1934 A. L. J. 1177. But he can be made a party where it is just and convenient to decide such title in that suit. A. I. R. 1935 Nag. 68. Mortgagee can implead persons who as prior transferees claim paramount title to mortgaged property. A. I. R. 1937 All. 251. Rule as to non-joining person claiming adverse title is not inflexible. A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 2=53 M. L. J. 647.

Official Receiver.—The Official Receiver is not a necessary party in a suit by the mortgagee of an insolvent mortgagor to enforce the mortgage. A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 791=31 P. L. R. 506=126 Ind. Cas. 174; see also A. I. R. 1925 Cal. 785=29 C. W. N. 771=86 Ind. Cas. 1042; A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 609.

Attaching creditor.—Attaching creditor has no right to be made party in mortgage suit. A. I. R. 1929 All. 861=122 Ind. Cas. 765; 89 Ind. Cas. 446; 62 Ind. Cas. 121=44 M. 232=40 M. L. J. 65; 1936 A. An attaching creditor under a money-decree against mortgagor is entitled to redeem the mortgage. 73 Ind. Cas. 8.

Co-Mortgagee.—Failure to join co-mortgagee's heirs vitiates suit by other mortgagee. A. I. R. 1926 Cal. 416=89 Ind. Cas. 121.

Co-heirs.—Where some heirs of mortgagor are not parties, plaintiff can get decree for proportional amount of mortgage money. 25 C. W. N. 594=66 Ind. Cas. 312; see also 51 C. 223=43 B. 575. Suit by only one co-heir of mortgagee cannot be maintained. 36 Ind. Cas. 77.

Co-mortgagors.—Where all persons interested in the equity of redemption are not on record, only the interest of the defendants joined in the suit can be sold. 72 Ind. Cas. 458; see also 82 Ind. Cas. 638=29 C. W. N. 51. In a redemption suit a co-mortgagor who is not suing for redemption is a necessary party. A. I. R. 1929 All. 814=119 Ind. Cas. 97; see also A. I. R. 1926 All. 46=48 A. 171=24 A. L. J. 88. Where against dismissal of redemption suit only one mortgagor appealed, others are not necessary parties to appeal. A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 479=100 Ind. Cas. 521. The liability of mortgagor inter se can only be determined in separate suit. A. I. R. 1927 Pat. 117=8 P. L. T. 255.

Joint Hindu family.—Where manager of joint Hindu family representing the family is alone sued to enforce mortgage, rule 1 is complied with. A. I. R. 1927 Oudh 27=3 O. W. N. 954; see also A. I. R. 1926 Pat. 207=4 Pat. 723; 80 Ind. Cas. 34=3 Pat. 329; 71 Ind. Cas. 948=2 Pat. 455. Karta of joint Hindu family represents the whole family. 63 Ind. Cas. 564=2 P. L. Cas. 243;

40 Ind. Cas. 525 ; 37 Ind. Cas. 833 ; 36 Ind. Cas. 64. Where minor co-parcener is not joined the suit is not bad, but minor will not be bound. A. I. R. 1925 All. 335=47 A. 427=23 A. L. J. 246=87 Ind. Cas. 700.

Landlord.—Landlord is not necessary party in a suit to enforce mortgage of non-transferable occupancy holding. 22 C.W. N. 662. But if he is made a party the rights of the parties should be determined in the same suit. 8 Pat. 439=A. I. R. 1929 Pat. 222.

Lessee.—Vide A. I. R. 1927 Pat. 411=8 P. L. T. 229 ; A. I. R. 1926 Nag. 496=23 N. L. R. 128 ; A. I. R. 1923 Nag. 273=65 Ind. Cas. 503.

Tenant.—In a suit for redemption alleged tenants of mortgagee setting up paramount title are proper parties. A. I. R. 1926 Bom. 522=28 Bom. L. R. 848 ; see also 78 Ind. Cas. 885=3 Pat. 244.

Legal representatives.—When the defendant dies after preliminary decree, some of his legal representatives who are already in record, can represent the estate. A. I. R. 1930 Mad. 69=57 M. L. J. 712 ; see also A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 1071. Legal representatives of mortgagor can raise only those objections as the original mortgagor can. A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 1068=31 P. L. R. 998. Heirs of intestate Parsi who intermeddle with his estate, are his legal representatives. A. I. R. 1927 Bom. 474=51 B. 771. Right inter se between the legal representatives of a deceased plaintiff mortgagee need not be decided. A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 1071.

Non-joinder.—The failure to bring on record one having equity of redemption does not necessarily entail dismissal of suit. A. I. R. 1931 Pat. 164=12 P. L. T. 28. Non-joinder of necessary parties is not fatal. 83 Ind. Cas. 262 ; but see A. I. R. 1927 All. 290 ; but see 33 C. W. N. 100 ; 66 Ind. Cas. 945. Where purchaser of equity of redemption is not made a party he is not bound by the mortgage decree. 49 C. 1048=28 C. W. N. 92 ; 24 Bom. L. R. 741=69 Ind. Cas. 165 ; 25 C. W. N. 253. Non-joinder of other co-mortgagees does not vitiate suit where mortgage bonds were in favour of one who sufficiently represents other. 40 C. L. J. 67=84 Ind. Cas. 124. Suit for sale should not be dismissed though puisne mortgagee was not joined in it. 21 A. L. J. 701=74 Ind. Cas. 943. It is doubtful if mortgagee can sue purchaser of equity of redemption. 25 C. W. N. 253. A subsequent mortgagee is not bound by a decree obtained on the foot of a prior mortgage when he is not made a party thereto. A. I. R. 1929 Pat. 94=11 P. L. T. 41.

Preliminary decree in foreclosure suit. "2. (1) In a suit for foreclosure, if the plaintiff succeeds, the Court shall pass a preliminary decree—

(a) ordering that an account be taken of what was due to the plaintiff at the date of such decree for—

(i) principal and interest on the mortgage,

(ii) the costs of suit, if any, awarded to him, and

(iii) other costs, charges and expenses properly incurred by him up to that date in respect of his mortgage security, together with interest thereon ; or

(b) declaring the amount so due at that date ; and

(c) directing—

(i) that, if the defendant pays into Court the amount so found or declared due on or before such date as the Court may fix within six months from the date on which the Court confirms and countersigns the account taken under clause (a), or from the date on which such amount is declared in Court under clause (b), as the case may be, and thereafter pays such amount as may be adjudged due in respect of subsequent costs, charges and expenses as provided in rule 10, together with subsequent interest on such sums respectively as provided in rule 11, the plaintiff shall deliver up to the defendant, or to such person as the defendant appoints, all documents in his possession or power relating to the mortgaged property, and shall, if so required, re-transfer the property to the defendant at his cost free from the mortgage and from all incumbrances created by the plaintiff or any person claiming under him, or, where the plaintiff claims by derived title, by those under whom he claims, and shall also, if necessary, put the defendant in possession of the property; and

(ii) that, if payment of the amount found or declared due under or by the preliminary decree is not made on or before the date so fixed, or the defendant fails to pay, within such time as the Court may fix, the amount adjudged due in respect of subsequent costs, charges, expenses and interest, the plaintiff shall be entitled to apply for a final decree debarring the defendant from all right to redeem the property.

N. B.—For local amendments in Bombay and Rangoon.—Vide infra.

Notes.—Rules 2 to 8 have been added by Act 21 of 1929. The reason of the amendment has been thus stated by the Special Committee :—

This order relates to mortgage suits and its provisions were originally in the Transfer of Property Act (section 85 to 99), but were transferred to the Code of Civil Procedure in 1908. The amendment of the Transfer of Property Act particularly the provisions relating to mortgages, necessitates the amendment of rules 2 to 8, 10, 11 and 15 of the Order.

We propose to make the following amendments in this rule, viz :—

(1) It should be expressly stated that the decree passed under this rule is "preliminary."

(2) In clause (a) of the present rule, the Court is merely directly directed to take an account of what would be due to the plaintiff on account of (a) principal and interest on the mortgage and (b) the costs of the suit. Under sections 72 and 76 of the Transfer of Property Act, a mortgagee is authorised to spend money for certain necessary purposes in connection with the mortgage security. Under section 63 A of the Transfer of Property Act, as proposed to be added, a mortgagee is allowed to spend money for improvements in certain circumstances. The above provisions also provide that the money so spent by a mortgagee should be added to the principal money. Clause (a) is therefore, amended to make it clear that in taking an account sums spent by a mortgagee for necessary costs, charges and expenses in respect of the mortgage-security, together with interest thereon, must be taken into account.

(3) Clause (a) of the present rule 2 provides that the account of the sum due to the plaintiff will be taken up to the date fixed for payment in the preliminary decree. The date so fixed is to be within six months from the date of the decree. Clause (b) however, which relates to the declaration by a Court of the amount due to a mortgagee, merely provides that the amount due at the date of the decree is to be declared. Although clause (c) provides that the Court has to fix a date for the payment of the amount so declared within six months, no provision is made for awarding costs, charges and expenses incurred by a mortgagee in respect of the mortgage-security subsequent to the date of the declaration or the decree. This seems anomalous. There is no reason why a mortgagee should lose subsequent costs, charges and expenses where the Court declares the amount. The scheme of Order XXXIV of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, is to draw a clear distinction between a preliminary and a final decree; rule 2 is amended to make it clear that the amount to be declared or found due on taking accounts should be up to the date of the preliminary decree. The defendant will then be in a position to know what sum he has to pay in order to claim redemption. Care is taken to provide in clause (e) of sub-rule (1) of the amended rule that after tendering the amount so declared or found to be due, the defendant has to pay the amount which the Court may adjudge for subsequent interest and subsequent costs, charges and expenses. Rules 10 and 11 have been amended to empower a Court to adjudge the amount due in respect of such interest and costs.

(4) Although clause (a) of this rule refers to the date fixed for payment of the amount found to be due on taking accounts, clause (c) refers the date within six months from the date of the declaration of the amount due by the Court under clause (b). This appears to be an error. The date fixed for payment must be within six months from the date when the Court declares the amount due or, where it directs an account is to be taken from the date when such account is confirmed by the Court. Our amendment makes this clear.

(5) As the mortgagor or any other person seeking redemption has to bear all costs and expenses of the redemption, in clause (c) of sub-rule (1) it is made clear that the costs of re-conveyance or re-transfer by the mortgagee on payment of the amount due by the mortgagor shall be borne by the mortgagor or such other person.

(6) The proviso to sub-rule 2 to rule 3 provides for the extension of the time fixed for payment in the final decree. The power of the Court to extend the time fixed for payment is well recognised and is exercised at any time before a final decree for foreclosure is passed. The proper place for this provision is in the rule relating to the preliminary decree. The proviso is, therefore, placed in rule 2 as sub-rule (2). The expression "postpone the day" in this proviso has been replaced by the words "extend the time" to make it clear that the time can be extended even after the expiry of the period once fixed. Sub-rule (2) also makes it clear that the extension of the time fixed for payment must be subject to such terms as the Court may fix. It is not fair that after the plaintiff has obtained a decree for payment of the amount due on the mortgage and when the payment has been already postponed for six months, the plaintiff should be made to wait for payment for a further period without getting compensation. A defendant who applies for an extension of time must be put on terms before his application is granted.

(7) As clauses (a) and (b) of sub-rule (1) will provide for the adjudication of the amount due to a mortgagee till the date of the preliminary decree, in sub-rule (1) clause (c) it is made clear that after the payment of that amount the defendant is bound to pay subsequent costs and subsequent interest due to the plaintiff till the date of actual payment, which may be on or before date fixed in the preliminary decree or such other date to which the time for payment may have been extended under sub-rule (2). It has been well established that the mortgagee can add to mortgage-money the amount spent by him between the passing of the preliminary decree and the final decree. (I. L. R. 44 Cal. 448).

(8) It has been held that the right of a mortgagor to redeem the mortgaged property subsists till a final decree for foreclosure is passed (I. L. R. 27 Cal. 705). Default in payment on the day originally fixed in the preliminary decree for payment or on the day to which the time for payment may have been extended by the Court does not ipso facto extinguish the mortgagor's right of redemption. It is open to a mortgagor to apply for extension of time till a final decree for foreclosure has been passed, and he can do so even after the expiry of the period once fixed (I. L. R. 39 Mad. 882 ; 28 Bom. 102). Clause (d) of rule 2, as at present worded, is not consistent with the above rulings. It provides that if payment, as provided in the rule, is not made, the defendant will be debarred from all right to redeem the property. In sub-rule (2) of the amended rule, therefore, it is made clear that on non-payment of the amount due, the plaintiff will have only a right to apply for a decree for foreclosure. We propose to make it clear that the right of the plaintiff to file an application arises not only when the amount adjudged due in the preliminary decree is not paid in full, but also if any portion of the sums for subsequent costs and subsequent interest remains to be paid.

(9) Rules 2-8 of Order XXXIV do not specifically provide for decrees in suits for foreclosure or sale in which, besides the mortgagor other persons who are entitled to redeem, such as subsequent mortgagees or persons subrogated to their rights, are joined as parties. This omission was sought to be remedied by providing forms for decrees in such suits—Forms Nos. 9 to 11 in Appendix D to the Code. Under Order XLVIII, rule 1 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, forms are not binding and can be varied by the Courts. An express provision in Order XXXIV itself is necessary to give full statutory force to the forms. As such cases will be of varied type and cannot all be anticipated, it will suffice to enact in Order XXXIV that in such cases the rights of the parties will be regulated in accordance with the forms given in the Appendix, with such variations as the circumstances of the case may require. Provisions to that effect are embodied in sub-rule (3) of rule 2 and sub-rule 3 of rule 4. In a redemption suit by a mortgagor such difficulties will not arise. Consequential amendments have been made in rules 7 and 8.

We propose to amend this rule in accordance with the alterations made in rule 2. It is expressly stated that the decree made under this rule is final. For the reasons stated in paragraph (5) above, it is made clear in this rule that the payment by the mortgagor can be made at any time till the final decree for foreclosure is actually passed. It is also made clear that on payment of the amount declared or found to be due in the preliminary decree, together with the amount due for the subsequent costs and subsequent interest, the mortgagee can on the application of the mortgagor, be ordered to re-convey or re-transfer the mortgaged property. The provisions regarding the application by the mortgagor has been added to avoid difficulties which arise in such cases as I. L. R. 50 Bom. 730. Owing to the absence of words to that effect in the original rule 8, the Court found it difficult to hold what article of limitation applied to a final decree on payment by the mortgagor. In sub-rule (3) of the proposed rule, it is provided that on foreclosure the liability of the defendant, not only in respect of the mortgage but for the costs of the suit also is discharged and extinguished. The effect of a final decree for foreclosure is to vest the mortgaged property absolutely in the mortgagee, and to extinguish not only the debt due on the mortgage but all liability arising in respect of the suit brought to enforce it. It is desirable that foreclosure, which is an exceptional remedy, should extinguish in toto the whole of the liability of the mortgagor.

We propose to amend this rule, which relates to a preliminary decree for sale, on the lines of rule 2. As by the amendment in the Transfer of Property Act it is proposed to allow the remedy of foreclosure only in the case of a mortgage by conditional sale and an anomalous mortgage providing the remedy of foreclosure, the power of the Court to grant the alternative relief of sale can only be exercised in the case of such an anomalous mortgage. By the very nature of the mortgage by conditional sale the Court cannot order a sale of the property. We propose to amend clause (2) by stating clearly that it applies only to an anomalous mortgage which provides for foreclosure. Sub-rule (3) is added to rule 4 on the same lines as rule 2 (3). It provides for a case where, besides the mortgagor, there are other parties in a suit for sale.

It should, however, be noted that in the case of a decree for sale there is no reason why the Court should extend the time for payment. Even after the sale is held, there is an opportunity to a mortgagor to redeem before the confirmation of the sale. No necessity, therefore exists for empowering Courts to enlarge the time before passing a final decree for sale (I. L. R. 20 All. 354).

Section 89 of the Transfer of Property Act, which was replaced by rule 5 of Order XXXIV, Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, contained at the end the words "and thereupon the defendant's right to redeem and the security shall both be extinguished". These words gave rise to the view that an order absolute under the section had the effect of extinguishing the rights arising out of the mortgage and substituting for them rights under the decree and the mortgagor could not redeem after the order absolute was made (Hel Ram v. Shadi Ram, 45 I. A. 130; Matru Mal v. Durga Kunwar, 47 I. A. 71). To avoid this result the words quoted above which occurred in section 89 were omitted in the corresponding rule 5 of Order XXXIV. No doubt is therefore, left that the right of a mortgagor to redeem is not extinguished by the mere passing of a final decree (42 All. 517, see also Sukhi v. Gulam Safdar, 48 I. A. 465 at p. 472). We propose to lay it down definitely that the right of a mortgagor to redeem subsists till the confirmation of the sale held in execution of the decree passed against him under rule 4 or rule 7. We have, however, made a provision for compensating the purchaser when a mortgagor seeks to redeem after the sale has taken place but before it is confirmed.

The words 'any such sale' in rule 6 and its position after rules 3 to 5 led to the view being taken that the personal decree for the balance of the amount due to a mortgagor after the sale can only be passed in a suit by a mortgagee far sale, and not in a redemption suit by a mortgagor, although in a redemption decree in default of payment by the mortgagor a sale of the mortgaged property can be ordered. In I. L. R. 42 Cal. 294. It is held that as this rule does not require an application by a mortgagee for the passing of a personal decree for the balance of the mortgage-money, no period of limitation applies for claiming such relief. This is not followed by other Courts (I. L. R. 40 All. 551). This point is made clear by introducing the words "on application by the plaintiff" in rule 6, and the words 'on application by the defendant' in rule 8A.—Report of the Special Committee.

Report of the Select Committee.—"We are not convinced by the reasons given by the Special Committee for deciding not to insert a provision giving the Court power to extend the time for the payment of the amount due from a mortgagor after a preliminary decree for the sale of the mortgaged property has been passed. We think this is a power which the Court may well be trusted to exercise in proper cases and on proper terms. We have, therefore, inserted a new sub-rule as sub-rule (2) in this rule on the line of sub-clause (ii) of clause (c) in sub-rule (1) of rule 2. Sub-rules (2) and (3) of the present rule have therefore been renumbered as sub-rules (3) and (4). Abuse of such a provision is prevented by providing that the extension of time cannot be granted after the final decree for sale has been actually passed."

Rule 5.—We have added the words "if a decree has been passed an order" after the words "pass a final decree" in sub-rule (1). As the sub-rule stands at present it contemplates the passing of another final decree in favour of a mortgagor who makes payment after a final decree for sale has been passed at the instance of the mortgagee, but before the confirmation of the sale of the mortgaged property. The passing of two final decrees would lead to confusion, besides being obviously an anomaly. In the case where a mortgagor gets a sale set aside before it is confirmed by making the required payment under Order XXXI, rule 89 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, the directions given by the Court ordering the mortgagee to deliver the documents or to re-transfer the mortgaged property are orders in execution and there is no necessity for the Court to pass another decree.—Report of the Select Committee.

In a suit on mortgage, the mortgagee claimed a decree for Rs. 32,000 against the mortgaged property and person of the mortgagor. The Court passed a decree, making the decretal amount payable in eight annual instalments and entitling the mortgagee to possession under Order 34, rule 2, C. P. Code, in case the mortgagor failed to pay three instalments regularly. Mortgagee appealed from it claiming decree under Order 34, rule 4: Held that the order directing mortgagee to possession on default of three successive instalments was erroneous as Order 34, rule 2, applied to foreclosure and the mortgagee was entitled to decree under Order 34, rule 4. The stage at which the mortgagor should ask the Court for fixing instalments would be reached, when the decree-holder applied under Order 34, rule 6 to the Court to proceed against the person of the mortgagor. 3. (1) Where, before a final decree debarring the defendant from all right to redeem the mortgaged property has been passed, the defendant makes payment into Court of all amounts due from him under sub-rule (1) of rule 2, the Court shall, on application made by the defendant in this behalf, pass a final decree—

(a) ordering the plaintiff to deliver up the documents referred to in the preliminary decree,

and, if necessary,—

(b) ordering him to re-transfer at the cost of the defendant the mortgaged property as directed in the said decree,

and, also, if necessary,—

(c) ordering him to put the defendant in possession of the property.

(2) Where payment in accordance with sub-rule (1) has not been made, the Court shall, on application made by the plaintiff in this behalf, pass a final decree declaring that the defendant and all persons claiming through or under him are debarred from all right to redeem the mortgaged property and also, if necessary, ordering the defendant to put the plaintiff in possession of the property.

(3) On the passing of a final decree under sub-rule (2), all liabilities to which the defendant is subject in respect of the mortgage or on account of the suit shall be deemed to have been discharged.

In such cases if the payment is admitted by both parties the satisfaction based on such payment ought to be recorded under Order 23, rule 3, in spite of its not being made into Court. On the other hand if the alleged payment out of Court is disputed, the payment having been much in clear disregard of the mandatory provisions of Order 34, rule 5, the Court is not bound to embark upon an enquiry into the question whether the alleged payment was in fact made or not. a matter of course in every case where an appeal has been preferred against the preliminary decree. A. I. R. 1934 Pat. 225=15 P. L. T. 205=13 Pat. 379. A decree-holder who attaches in execution of his decree a preliminary mortgage decree obtained by his judgment-debtor in a certain suit, has no locus standi to apply under sub-rule (2) for the preparation of a final decree. 1936 A. 6. Where the net proceeds of any sale held under the last preceding rule are found insufficient to pay the amount due Recovery of balance due on to the plaintiff, the Court, on application by mortgage in suit for sale. him may, if the balance is legally recoverable from the defendant otherwise than out of the property sold, pass a decree for such balance.

Scope.—Application under rule 6 for decree for balance due is governed by Art. 181 and time begins to run only from date when sale becomes absolute under Order XXI, rule 92. A. I. R. 1931 Cal. 166=52 C. L. J. 531=35 C. W. N.; 231=58 C. 741. This rule applies only to personal covenant arising from mortgage and consequently existence of charge on mortgaged property at some other place does not give jurisdiction to Court of that place. A. I. R. 1931 All. 192. An application for personal decree under this rule, is not maintainable unless a sale in pursuance of the preceding rule has as a matter of fact taken place. A. I. Mortgagee is not entitled to a personal decree against the mortgagor in the absence of a stipulation to that effect. A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 32=34 P. L. R. 171. Mortgagee is not bound to ask in mortgage suit itself, relief under Order 34, rule 6, nor is the Court bound to adjudicate upon it, even if such relief is asked for. Such question can be considered when contingency arises. A. I. R. 1933 Oudh. 520. Court can under Order 34, rule 6, pass decree against surety on sale proceeds proving insufficient for satisfaction of mortgage decree. 1931 A. L. J. 559=53 A. 695=A. I. R. 1931 All. 631. Where mortgaged property is not available owing to claim of third party, personal decree can be passed. A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 174. For a right to a personal decree independent of the provisions of rule 6, there must have been made a provision for such a right in the mortgage-deed itself and in the absence of any such provision the mortgagee is entitled to a personal decree independently of this rule. A. I. R. 1937 Oudh 252. An application for a personal decree under this rule is not maintainable unless a sale in pursuance of the pleading has, as a matter of fact, taken place. In other words, before the plaintiff can invoke the aid of the provision of this rule, he must establish that the mortgaged properties have been sold as contemplated by sub-rule of rule 5. A. I. Where Jack and Khund Kar // has held that under Order 34, rule 6, it is not a condition precedent to the making of a personal decree that the mortgaged property should have been already sold and proceeds found insufficient. Nor is a separate application necessary for a personal decree. A composite decree i. e., a decree for sale in which there is also a direction that if the decretal amount is not realised by the sale of the property mortgaged, the decree-holder will be entitled to realise the balance by personal decree is not on that account invalid, though improper. 152 Ind. Cas. 770=60 C. L. There can be a personal decree against the mortgagor for the amount of costs incurred in the mortgage suit, even though his personal liability for the principal amount and interest is barred by time. 38 P. Where the mortgage-decree is in terms of compromise which expressly authorises the decree-holder to apply for a personal decree, the decree-holder is entitled to a personal decree for the balance. A. An unpaid vendor who has a statutory charge on the property sold by him, has all the right of a simple mortgagee. 1935 A. L. J. 279=A. I. R. 1935 All. 411. 7. (1) In a suit for redemption, if the plaintiff succeeds, the Court shall pass a preliminary decree—

(a) ordering that an account be taken of what was due to the defendant at the date of such decree for—

(i) principal and interest on the mortgage,
 (ii) the cost of suit, if any, awarded to him, and
 (iii) other costs, charges and expenses properly incurred by him up to that date, in respect of his mortgage security, together with interest thereon ; or

(b) declaring the amount so due at that date ; and

(c) directing—

(i) that, if the plaintiff pays into Court the amount so found or declared due on or before such date as the Court may fix within six months from the date on which the Court confirms and countersigns the account taken under clause (a), or from the date on which such amount is declared in Court under clause (b), as the case may be, and thereafter pays such amount as may be adjudged due in respect of subsequent costs, charges and expenses as provided in rule 10, together with subsequent interest on such sums respectively as provided in rule 11, the defendant shall deliver up to the plaintiff, or to such person as the plaintiff appoints, all documents in his possession or power relating to the mortgaged property, and shall, if so required, re-transfer the property to the plaintiff at his cost free from the mortgage and from all incumbrances created by the defendant or any person claiming under him, or, where, the defendant claims by derived title, by those under whom he claims, and shall also if necessary, put the plaintiff in possession of the property ; and

(ii) that, if payment of the amount found or declared due under or by the preliminary decree is not made on or before the date so fixed, or the plaintiff fails to pay, within such time as the Court may fix, the amount adjudged due in respect of subsequent costs, charges, expenses and interest, the defendant shall be entitled to apply for a final decree—

(a) in the case of a mortgage other than a usufructuary mortgage, a mortgage by conditional sale, or an anomalous mortgage the terms of which provide for foreclosure only and not for sale, that the mortgaged property be sold,

(b) in the case of a mortgage by conditional sale or such an anomalous mortgage as aforesaid, that the plaintiff be debarred from all right to redeem the property.

(2) The Court may, on good cause shown and upon terms to be fixed by the Court from time to time, at any time before the passing of a final decree for foreclosure or sale, as the case may be, extend the time fixed for the payment of the amount found or declared due under sub-rule (1) or of the amount adjudged due in respect of subsequent costs, charges, expenses and interest.

Notes.—Decree for redemption cannot be passed unless all particulars are in plaint. A. I. R. 1931 Oudh 378=8 O. W. N. 732=7 Luck. 94. Rule 7 is mandatory and directs mortgagor on redemption to pay interest upto date of redemption. A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 95. Where the mortgagor covenants in the deed of mortgage to pay the rent of mortgaged property to the Zaminder but fails to pay the same, and the mortgagee in consequence pays the rent, the latter can ask for the amount paid by him to be added to the mortgage-money in a suit for redemption for the mortgagor. It is not necessary that the mortgagee should file a separate suit for recovery of the amount. 150 Ind. Cas. 879=1934 A. L. J. 637=A. I. R. 1934 All. 888. S. 13 of the Dekhan Agriculturists' Relief Act provides for an account to be taken to the date of suit but not thereafter. In a suit on a mortgage executed by an agriculturist, accounts can be taken only upto the date of the suit. From the date of the suit an account should be taken in terms of Order 34, rule 7, C. P. Code. 154 Ind. Cas. 770=37 Bom. L. R. 76=A. I. R. 1935 Bom. 122; see also 36 Bom. L. R. 1242. There is no provision in rules 7, 8, 10 of Order 34 for taking into consideration any mesne profits by the failure of the defendant to deliver possession to plaintiff after the final decree. 152 Ind. Cas. 921=1935 A. L. J. 115=A. I. R. 1934 All. 95.

8. (1) Where, before a final decree debarring the plaintiff from all right

Final decree in redemption to redeem the mortgaged property has been suit. passed or before the confirmation of a sale held in pursuance of a final decree passed under sub-rule (3) of this rule, the plaintiff makes payment into Court of all amounts due from him under sub-rule (1) of rule 7, the Court shall, on application made by the plaintiff in this behalf, pass a final decree or, if such decree has been passed, an order—

(a) ordering the defendant to deliver up the documents referred to in the preliminary decree,

and if necessary,—

(b) ordering him to re-transfer at the cost of the plaintiff the mortgaged property as directed in the said decree,

and, also, if necessary,—

(c) ordering him to put the plaintiff in possession of the property.

(2) Where the mortgaged property or a part thereof has been sold in pursuance of a decree passed under sub-rule (3) of this rule, the Court shall not pass an order under sub-rule (1) of this rule, unless the plaintiff, in addition to the amount mentioned in sub-rule (1), deposits in Court for payment to the purchaser a sum equal to five per cent. of the amount of the purchase-money paid into Court by the purchaser.

Where such deposit has been made, the purchaser shall be entitled to an order for repayment of the amount of the purchase-money paid into Court by him, together with a sum equal to five per cent. thereof.

(3) Where payment in accordance with sub-rule (1) has not been made, the Court shall, on application made by the defendant in this behalf,—

(a) in the case of a mortgage by conditional sale or of such an anomalous mortgage as is hereinbefore referred to in rule 7, pass a final decree declaring that the plaintiff and all persons claiming under him are debarred from all right to redeem the mortgaged property and, also, if necessary, ordering the plaintiff to put the defendant in possession of the mortgaged property; or

(b) in the case of any other mortgage, not being a usufructuary mortgage, pass a final decree that the mortgaged property or a sufficient part thereof be sold, and the proceeds of the sale (after deduction therefrom of the expenses of the sale) be paid into Court and applied in payment of what is found due to the defendant, and the balance, if any, be paid to the plaintiff or other persons entitled to receive the same.

N. B.—For local amendment in Rangoon.—Vide infra.

Notes.—Adjustment out of Court cannot be pleaded in passing final decree. 54 M. 708=A. I. R. 1931 Mad. 592. In redemption suit mortgagee is decree-holder and can transfer his decree. Ibid. Application for final decree made within three years after second appeal against preliminary decree is within time. A. I. R. 1930 Mad. 353=58 M. L. J. 207.

Notes.—Order 34, rule 8A, does not apply to usufructuary mortgages. A. I. R. 1933 Oudh 40=9 O. W. N. 1059.

9. [New.] Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained if it appears, upon taking the account referred to in rule 7, that nothing is due to the defendant or that he has been overpaid, the Court shall pass a decree directing the defendant, if so required, to re-transfer the property and to pay to the plaintiff the amount which may be found due to him; and the plaintiff shall, if necessary, be put in possession of the mortgaged property.

Notes.—Suit for redemption is also suit for surplus profit due to mortgagor. 60 M. L. J. 698=A. I. R. 1931 Mad. 479; see also A. I. R. 1929 Bom. 337=31 Bom. L. R. 476.

10. In finally adjusting the amount to be paid to a mortgagee in case of a foreclosure, sale or redemption, the Court shall, unless in the case of costs of the suit, the conduct of the mortgagee has been such as to disentitle him thereto, and to the mortgage money such costs of the suit and other costs, charges and expenses as have been properly incurred by him since the date of the preliminary decree for foreclosure, sale or redemption up to the time of actual payment.

Scope.—Rule 10 in effect makes a mortgaged property liable for amount of costs in the first instance. 93 Ind. Cas. 224=A. I. R. 1926 All. 343. Rule 10 relates to costs that have been incurred by mortgagee since the passing of the preliminary decree and before the final decree passed in the case. A. I. R. 1926 All. 722=48 A. 682=96 Ind. Cas. 542; A. I. R. 1930 Oudh 328=7 O. W. N. 398. Where mortgagee raises question of involving denial of mortgagor's right to redeem it, it is subject to Court's discretion whether to award costs or not. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 405. Costs which should have been included in final decree are not claimable in execution. A. I. R. 1922 All. 27=44 A. 350=20 A. L. J. 170=65 Ind. Cas. 799. Costs including costs of appeal, form part of the decretal amount and are realisable in the first instance by the sale of mortgaged property. 48 Ind. Cas. 329.

11. In any decree passed in a suit for foreclosure, sale or redemption, where interest is legally recoverable, the Court may order payment of interest to the mortgagee as follows, namely :—

Payment of interest.

(a) interest upto the date on or before which payment of the amount found or declared due is under the preliminary decree to be made by the mortgagor or other person redeeming the mortgage—

(i) on the principal amount found or declared due on the mortgage,—at the rate payable on the principal, or where no such rate is fixed, at such rate as the Court deems reasonable,

(ii) on the amount of the costs of the suit awarded to the mortgagee,—at such rate as the Court deems reasonable from the date of preliminary decree, and

(iii) on the amount adjudged due to the mortgagee for costs, charges and expenses properly incurred by the mortgagee in respect of the mortgage-security upto the date of the preliminary decree and added to the mortgage-money— at the rate agreed between the parties, or, failing such rate, at the same rate as is payable on the principal, or failing both such rates, at nine per cent. per annum ; and

(b) subsequent interest upto the date of realization or actual payment at such rate as the Court deems reasonable—

(i) on the aggregate of the principal sums specified in clause (a) and of the interest thereon as calculated in accordance with that clause ; and

(ii) on the amount adjudged due to the mortgagee in respect of such further costs, charges and expenses as may be payable under rule 10.

Scope.—Bond rate of interest till expiry of grace period cannot be claimed as of right. A. I. R. 1932 Pat. 232=13 P. L. T. 545. "Principal amount found due or declared due on the mortgage" was only principal amount on mortgage without any interest. Mortgagee is entitled to contract rate till date fixed for payment. A. I. R. 1933 Oudh 128=10 O. W. N. 173. Having regard to Order 34 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the lower Court was perfectly right in allowing interest at the contract rate on the principal amount only from the date of the suit to the date fixed for the payment. Ibid. Interest ceases from the date of deposition money in Court and not from the date of its removal by the decree-holder. A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 126. The presumption is that where a mortgage-deed is executed the parties contemplate the possibility that payment may not be made at the time when the entire amount becomes due. If the deed contains stipulations regarding payment of interest before the date, the presumption arises that the parties intended that interest should be fixed after that date. Stipulators may be such as to justify the inference that interest on the due date is to be paid at a particular rate ; but where no inference regarding the rate can be drawn, the presumption is that what it was intended to pay interest at a reasonable rate. 28 N. L. R. 1=A. I. R. 1932 Nag. 39. Order 34, r. 11 (b), which specifically allows "subsequent interest" upto the date of realisation only gives effect to the previous judicial decisions. 63 I. A. 114=70 M. L. J. 355 (P. C.)=A. I. R. 1936 P. C. 63=17 Pat. L. T. 89=1936 A. L. J. 108=63 C. L. J. 154=40 C. W. N. 328=15 Pat. 210=38 Bom. L. R. 349. As regards the period subsequent to the date fixed for payment the award of interest even at the Court rate is not obligatory. Though ordinarily the Court will award interest for that period at the Court rate, it has in proper cases, a discretion to refuse interest altogether i. e., even at the Court rate. 59 C. 722=A. I. R. 1932 Cal 689. The words "on the principal amount found or declared due" in clause (a) sub-clause (i) of rule 11 refer not only to the principal sum secured by the mortgage-deed but also to the amount due on account of interest which has become a part of principal in accordance with the terms of the deed on the date when the preliminary decree was prepared. The mortgagee is therefore entitled to interest on the principal sum and on the interest due, which has become part of the principal at the contract rate, from the date of the suit till the date fixed for payment, if the mortgage-deed provides it. A. I. R. 1937 All. 442. Order 34, rule 11, embodies the principle that interest after it becomes due shall be added to the principal money and the aggregate amount so found due shall be decreed to the mortgagee. A. I. R. 1934 Oudh 473=11 O. W. N. 1141=151 Ind. Cas. 856. The words "principal amount" as used in sub-clause means the principal money secured by the deed of mortgage and interest which has accrued due before the suit cannot be regarded as part of the principal money. A. I. R. 1935 Oudh 263=154 Ind. Cas. 46 ; see also A. I. R. 1933 Oudh 128=8 Luck. 315. Interest on the amount of costs of the suit can be awarded only from the date of the preliminary decree, and not during the pendency of the suit. Ibid. The usual rate of future interest after date fixed for payment is 6 per cent. per annum. Ibid. Order 34, rules 2 and 4, deals respectively with a decree in a mortgage suit for foreclosure and for sale, and the words used in the rules seem to infer that the question of interest upto the date of the decree is one which is not within the discretion of the Court. But Order 34, rule 11, dealing with interest after the decree is clearly a matter within the discretion of the Court, as the word used there is "may." A. I. R. 1935 Pat. 98=14 Pat. 400=156 Ind. Cas. 290=16 Pat. L. T. 579. Words "on the principal amount found or declared due" in Order 34, rule 11 (a) (i), refer not only to principal sum but also the amount due on interest which has become part of principal. A. I. R. 1937 All. 442.

12. [T. P. Act, S. 96.] Where any property, the sale of which is directed under this Order is subject to a prior mortgage, the Court may, with the consent of the prior mortgagee, direct that the property be sold free from the same, giving to such prior mortgagee the same interest in the proceeds of the sale as he had in the property sold.

Scope.—Without the consent of the prior mortgagee the property cannot be sold free from the prior encumbrance. 47 C. 662 (P. C.)=25 C. W. N. 417; see also A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 1053=130 Ind. Cas. 49; A. I. R. 1934 All. 73. Where subsequent mortgagee impleads prior mortgagee but does not challenge prior mortgagee's failure to plead his own mortgage as defence does not bar suit to enforce his mortgage against subsequent mortgagee. 55 Ind. Cas. 956. This rule does not contemplate fuller inquiry but merely incidental inquiry. A. I. R. 1937 Mad. 554. This rule merely confers upon the Court the power of directing a sale free from the prior mortgage subject to the conditions prescribed in that rule viz., that the property must be one of which the sale is directed under Order 34, and there must be the consent of the prior mortgagee. When these conditions are fulfilled, the Court has full power in its discretion to direct the sale free from the prior mortgage. This does not require that the consent of the plaintiff is necessary or of any other person besides the prior mortgagee. A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 453=1935 M. W. N. 389. But a prior mortgagee can himself make no application under this rule. It is only the decree-holder in the suit who alone can make an application. Where the prior mortgagee agrees, a provision is to be made that the amount of his priority shall be paid off first from the sale proceeds. But that does not constitute him an alternative plaintiff in the suit or entitle him to execute the decree or to have the mortgaged property sold. A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 660=68 M. L. J. 738=1935 M. W. N. 306=41 L. W. 565.

13. [T. P. Act, S. 97.] (1) Such proceeds shall be brought into Court and applied as follows:—

first, in payment of all expenses incident to the sale or properly incurred in any attempted sale;

secondly, in payment of whatever is due to the prior mortgagee on account of the prior mortgage, and of costs, properly incurred in connection therewith;

thirdly, in payment of all interest due on account of the mortgage in consequence whereof the sale was directed, and of the costs of the suit in which the decree directing the sale was made;

fourthly, in payment of the principal money due on account of that mortgage; and lastly, the residue (if any) shall be paid to the person proving himself to be interested in the property sold, or if there are more such persons than one, then to such persons according to their respective interests therein or upon their joint receipt.

(2) Nothing in this rule or in rule 12 shall be deemed to affect the powers conferred by section 57 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882.*

Scope.—Surplus assets after an auction sale should not be paid out to a subsequent incumbrancer otherwise than with mortgagor's consent. A. I. R. 1927 All. 467=25 A. L. J. 390=49 A. 636. Mortgagee is not entitled to share in surplus sale proceeds if his final decree of sale is barred by time. 22 A. L. J. 825=83 Ind. Cas. 1033. This rule does not apply to the case of a surety who is made liable for interest under the mortgage decree. This rule is meant to regulate the position, as between the mortgagor and mortgagee and to protect the position of the mortgagee. A. I. R. 1935 Lah. 334.

14. [T. P. Act, S. 99.] (1) Where a mortgagee has obtained a decree for the payment of money in satisfaction of a claim arising under the mortgage, he shall not be entitled to bring the mortgaged property to sale otherwise than by instituting a suit for sale in enforcement of the mortgage, and he may institute such suit notwithstanding anything contained in Order II, rule 2.

(2), Nothing in sub-rule (1) shall apply to any territories to which the Transfer of Property Act, 1882,* has not been extended.

Scope.—Rule 14 does not apply where charge is created by decree itself. A. I. R. 1934 Nag. 147; see also A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 327. The opening words of rule 14 only mean that the decree should relate to the payment of the money in satisfaction of a claim arising under the mortgage, i. e., a mortgage independent of the decree. A. I. R. 1934 Nag. 147=30 N. L. R. 325=150 Ind. Cas. 492. Where a money decree is ordered to be paid in instalments on the judgment-debtor executing a security bond hypothecating immovable property for the satisfaction of the decree and default is committed in the payment of instalments, the hypothecated property can be sold in execution of the decree and a fresh suit is not necessary. A. I. R. 1936 Pat. 289=17 Pat. L. T. 434=15 Pat. 545. Where a usufructuary mortgagee, who has leased the property to the mortgagor obtains a decree against the mortgagor for arrears of rent, the arrears of rent in respect of which the decree is passed present in substance the usufruct of the mortgaged property and the decree is a decree which the mortgagee has obtained for payment of money in satisfaction of a claim arising under the mortgage. That being so, he cannot by reason of provisions of Order 34, rule 14, attach the property and put the same up for sale. A. I. R. 1936 All. 708=1936 A. L. J. 708=162 Ind. Cas. 402. This rule does not apply to consent decrees, because the mortgagor can waive the benefit of the rule. A. I. R. 1935 Nag. 129=157 Ind. Cas. 292. This rule is really intended to create a prohibition to the mortgagee securing the sale of the mortgaged property without first bringing a suit for the sale thereof. A. I. R. 1935 Lah. 672 (F. B.)=37 P. L. R. 816=6 Lah. 640. But when a suit is brought on a mortgage on joint-family property executed by the father and the mortgagee is bound to be not for legal necessity to a certain extent and the mortgage is declared invalid but a simple money decree for such amount is passed against the father, the decree-holder can, in execution of the decree so obtained, attach and sell the property covered by the mortgage and Order 34, rule 14, is no bar to his so doing. A. I. R. 1935 All. 507=157 Ind. Cas. 1010. A mortgagee can bring to sale the equity of redemption of the mortgaged property in execution of a simple money decree obtained by him on account of land revenue which he has had to pay to save the property. A. I. R. 1935 Rang. 438. A mere averment in the plaint that the mortgagee has surrendered the mortgage security does not extinguish the mortgagee's rights, and as such he is debarred from executing a money-decree against the mortgaged property. A. I. R. 1935 Rang. 132=13 Rang. 292. Where a charge is created in the decree on specified properties for payment of decretal amount, the decree can be executed and the property charged sold and so separate suit is necessary. A. I. R. 1935 Nag. 129=157 Ind. Cas. 292. Money decree-holder may bring to sale property comprised in security bond without bringing suit on basis of security bond. A. I. R. 1934 All. 524. Maintenance decree creating charge does not come within rule 14. A. I. R. 1934 Nag. 83. Award by Registrar Co-operative Societies, directing sale of mortgaged property does not militate against rule 14. A. I. R. 1933 Nag. 211. Where compromise is silent as to how hypothecated property is to be sold, rule 14 applies. 54 A. 763=1932 A. L.

J. 486=A. I. R. 1932 All. 439. It is clear from language of rule 14 that the rule does not apply unless the decree falls within decree for payment of money in satisfaction of claim under mortgage or charge. The mortgage or charge in this rule must be a mortgage or charge existing prior to date of decree and not one created by decree. It is not necessary for a person to sue to enforce a charge on immovable property created by a consent decree. 64 Ind. Cas. 852=35 C. L. J. 61; see also 43 A. 677=19 A. L. J. 728=63 Ind. Cas. 445. Rule 14 applies only to claims under mortgage and not where sale takes place in execution of decree upon claim not arising under mortgage. 27 C. W. N. 38=37 C. L. J. 265. So a mortgagee is entitled to have the equity of redemption sold in satisfaction of any debt which he might have against the mortgagor unconnected with the mortgage. 33 Ind. Cas. 802=18 P. R. 1916; see also 38 A. 327=33 Ind. Cas. 982. Rule 14 is confined to cases where a mortgagee has obtained a personal decree against a mortgagor on a mortgage debt. Rules 14 and 15 read with s. 100, Transfer of Property Act, means that where immovable property has been made security for the payment of the money and the beneficiary has obtained a decree for the payment of money so secured, he cannot bring the property to sale only by a suit for sale. The decree referred to in rule 14 must be a decree subsequent to the creation of the security. 3 Pat. L. W. 202=38 Ind. Cas. 791; see also 63 Ind. Cas. 303. Rules 14 and 15 do not apply unless the charge was created before obtaining decree. 46 Ind. Cas. 169. "Mortgagee" in rule 14 means the holder of a subsisting and effective mortgage. 39 A. 86=14 A. L. J. 902=36 Ind. Cas. 907; see also A. I. R. 1929 All. 589; 115 Ind. Cas. 829; 41 M. L. J. 160=62 Ind. Cas. 756; A. I. R. 1930 Mad. 138; 42 A. 566. Rule 14 means that the decree should relate to payment of money in satisfaction of a claim arising under the mortgage i. e., mortgage independent of the decree. 43 B. 631=51 Ind. Cas. 920.

Where there are simultaneous and different mortgages which could reasonably be treated as constituting one transaction Court would be slow to allow plaintiffs to resort to a device which would enable them to do something which it is the object of rule to prevent. 49 B. 208=27 Bom. L. R. 202=86 Ind. Cas. 870. A sale in contravention of the rule is not void but voidable at the instance of the mortgagor and to avoid it, it is sufficient for the mortgagor to show that the sale contravenes r. 14. 45 B. 174=58 Ind. Cas. 231; see also A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 1135; A. I. R. 1926 Lah. 490=27 P. L. R. 494; 2 Pat. L. J. 587=41 Ind. Cas. 533; 39 Ind. Cas. 3=41 B. 357=19 Bom. L. R. 75. Mortgagee obtaining only simple money decree cannot straightway ask to sell property in execution of that money decree. A. I. R. 1930 Mad. 138=53 M. 670. Rule 14 has no application to cases where charge is created by decree and did not exist prior to it. A. I. R. 1929 Pat. 439. Where the mortgagee brings a suit on a mortgage stating in the plaint that he has given up his mortgage right and is merely suing on the mortgage as a simple money bond he can still sue for sale under Order 34, rule 14, Civil Pro. Code, notwithstanding his statement in the plaint. A. I. R. 1937 Mad. 501.

15. All the provisions contained in this Order which apply to a simple mortgage shall, so far as may be, apply to a mortgage by deposit of title-deeds and charges, meaning of section 58, and to a charge within the meaning of section 100 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882.

N. B.—For local amendment in Oudh.—Vide infra.

Notes.—"Section 96 which it is proposed to introduce in the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, applies the provisions relating to simple mortgages to mortgages by deposit of title-deeds. Our amendment to this rules makes the necessary corresponding provisions in Order XXXIV of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908,"—Report of the Select Committee. Where in a suit for recovery of money, the defendants accept a personal decree against themselves and submit to a declaration in the decree that a portion of their immovable property should be charged for payment of the decretal amount, the decree is nothing but a personal decree, and although it also creates a charge, it cannot be regarded as a decree under Order 34. A. I. R. 1934 Nag. 140=150 Ind. Cas. 95.

ORDER XXXV.

Interpleader.

1. [S. 471.] In every suit of interpleader the plaintiff shall, in addition to the other statements necessary for plaints, state—

- (a) that the plaintiff claims no interest in the subject-matter in dispute other than for charges or costs ;
 (b) the claims made by the defendants severally,
 (c) that there is no collusion between the plaintiff and any of the defendants.

Notes.—Where the preliminary decree is passed in an interpleader suit it becomes to all intents and purposes a partition suit. A. I. R. 1930 Mad. 988=60 M. L. J. 79.

2. [S. 472.] Where the thing claimed is capable of being paid into Court or placed in the custody of the Court, the plaintiff may be required to so pay or place it before he can be entitled to any order in the suit.

3. [S. 476.] Where any of the defendants in an interpleader suit is actually suing, the plaintiff in respect of the subject-matter of such suit, the Court in which the suit against the plaintiff is pending shall, on being informed, by the Court in which the interpleader suit has been instituted, stay the proceedings as against him ; and his costs in the suit so stayed may be provided for in such suit ; but if, and in so far as, they are not provided for in that suit, they may be added to his costs incurred in the interpleader suit.

4. [S. 473, R. S. C. O. 57, r. 7.] (1) At the first hearing the Court may—

(a) declare that the plaintiff is discharged from all liability to the defendants in respect of the thing claimed, award him his costs, and dismiss him from the suit ; or

(b) if it thinks that justice or convenience so require, retain all parties until the final disposal of the suit.

(2) Where the Court finds that the admissions of the parties or other evidence enable it to do so, it may adjudicate the title to the thing claimed.

(3) Where the admissions of the parties do not enable the Court so to adjudicate, it may direct—

(a) that an issue or issues between the parties be framed and tried, and

(b) that any claimant be made a plaintiff in lieu of or in addition to the original plaintiff, and shall proceed to try the suit in the ordinary manner.

5. [S. 474.] Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to enable agents to sue their principals, or tenants to sue their landlords, for the purpose of compelling them to interplead with any persons other than persons making claim through such principals or landlords.

Illustrations.

(a) A deposits a box of jewels with B as his agent. C alleges that the jewels were wrongfully obtained from him by A and claims them from B. B cannot institute an interpleader suit against A and C.

(b) A deposits a box of jewels with B as his agent. He then writes to C for the purpose of making the jewels a security for a debt due from himself to C. A afterwards alleges that C's debt is satisfied, and C alleges the contrary. Both claim the jewels from B. B may institute an interpleader suit against A and C.

Notes.—A tenant cannot bring an interpleader suit to determine which of the two defendants both of whom claim rent from him is his landlord. 48 Ind. Cas. 733.

6. [S. 475.] Where the suit is properly instituted the Court may provide for the costs of the original plaintiff by giving Charge for plaintiff's costs. him a charge on the thing claimed or in some other effectual way.

ORDER XXXVI.

Special Case.

1. [S. 527.] (1) Parties claiming to be interested in the decision of any question of fact or law may enter into an agreement in writing stating such question in the form of a case for the opinion of the Court, and providing that, upon the finding of the Court with respect to such question,—

(a) a sum of money fixed by the parties or to be determined by the Court shall be paid by one of the parties to the other of them ; or

(b) some property, movable or immovable, specified in the agreement, shall be delivered by one of the parties to the other of them ; or

(c) one or more of the parties shall do, or refrain from doing some other particular act specified in the agreement.

(2) Every case stated under this rule shall be divided into consecutively numbered paragraphs, and shall concisely state such facts and specify such documents as may be necessary to enable the Court to decide the question raised thereby.

Notes.—A special case stated by consent can only be re-opened by mutual consent. 43 B. 281=20 Bom. L. R. 839=47 Ind. Cas. 642. Rule 1 obliges the parties to enter into an agreement in writing stating the question in the form of a case for the opinion of the Court, and providing that upon the finding of the Court with respect to such questions the parties shall do or refrain from doing some other particular act specified in the agreement. A. I. R. 1930 Bom. 232=32 Bom. L. R. 416=45 B. 825=125 Ind. Cas. 897.

2. [S. 528.] Where the agreement is for the delivery of any property, or for the doing, or the refraining from doing any particular act, the estimated value of the property to be delivered, or to which the act specified has reference shall be stated in the agreement.

3. [S. 529.] (1) The agreement, if framed in accordance with the rules hereinbefore contained, may be filed in the Court which would have jurisdiction to entertain a suit, the amount or value of the subject-matter of which is the same as the amount or value of the subject-matter of the agreement.

(2) The agreement, when so filed, shall be numbered and registered as a suit between one or more of the parties claiming to be interested as plaintiff or plaintiffs, and the other or the others of them as defendant or defendants ; and notice shall be given to all the parties to the agreement, other than the party or parties by whom it was presented.

4. [S. 530.] Where the agreement has been filed, the parties to it shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Court and shall be bound by the statements contained therein.

5. [S 581.] (1) The case shall be set down for hearing as a suit instituted in the ordinary manner, and the provisions of this Code shall apply to such suit so far as the same are applicable.

(2) Where the Court is satisfied, after examination of the parties, or after taking such evidence as it thinks fit,—

(a) that the agreement was duly executed by them,

(b) that they have a bona fide interest in the question stated therein, and

(c) that the same is fit to be decided, it shall proceed to pronounce judgment thereon, in the same way as in an ordinary suit, and upon the judgment so pronounced a decree shall follow.

Notes.—Vide A. I. R. 1930 Bom. 732=32 Bom. L. R. 41=54 B. 825=125 Ind. Cas. 897.

ORDER XXXVII.

Summary Procedure on Negotiable Instruments.

Application of Order. 1. [S. 538.] This Order shall apply only to—

(a) The High Courts of Judicature at Fort William, Madras and Bombay ;*

(c) the Court of the Judicial Commissioner of Sind ; and

(d)† any other Court to which sections 532 to 537 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1852, ‡ have been already applied.

Amendment in Burma.—In British Burma for clauses (a), (b) and (c) substitute the following clause “(a) the High Court and.”—Vide G. B. Order of 1937.

N. B.—For local amendment in Lahore.—Vide infra.

Notes.—A presiding officer of an ordinary Civil Court exercising Small Causes court's powers has no authority to act under Order XXXVII. A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 517=51 M. 491=55 M. L. J. 114. The addition of cl. (e) to this rule by the Lahore High Court in the exercise of the powers conferred by s. 122, C.P. Code, is not ultra vires. The rule merely empowers them to follow a certain definite procedure for the expeditious disposal of suits. A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 174=8 Lah. 156=28 P. L. R. 539.

2. [S. 532.] (1) All suits upon bills of exchange, hundies or promissory notes may, in case the plaintiff desires to proceed hereunder, be instituted by presenting a plaint in the form prescribed ; but the summons shall be in Form No. 4 in Appendix B or in such other form as may be from time to time prescribed.

(2) In any case in which the plaint and summons are in such forms, respectively, the defendant shall not appear or defend the suit unless he obtains leave from a Judge as hereinafter provided so to appear and defend ; and, in default of his obtaining such leave or of his appearance and defence in pursuance thereof, the allegations in the plaint shall be deemed to be admitted and the plaintiff shall be entitled to a decree.

“(a) for the principal sum due on the instrument and for the interest calculated in accordance with the provisions of section 79 or section 80, as the case may be, of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1831, upto the date of the institution of the suit, or for the sum mentioned in the summons, whichever is less, and for interest upto the date of the decree at the same rate or at such other rate as the Court thinks fit ; and

* Clause (b) has been omitted in British India by G. I. Order of 1937.

‡ XIV of 1882.

(b) for such subsequent interest, if any, as the Court may order under section 34 of this Code ; and

(c) for such sum for costs as may be prescribed :

Provided that, if the plaintiff claims more than such fixed sum for costs, the costs shall be ascertained in the ordinary way.

(3) A decree passed under this rule may be executed forthwith.*

Notes.—Order by Chamber Judge in summary suit refusing leave to defend is appealable. A. I. R. 1932 Bom. 163=56 B. 268=34 Bom. L. R. 252. Where there is no agreement to pay interest in the document (hundis) statutory interest should be allowed. A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 299=56 M. 398=64 M. L. J. 117.

3. [S. 533.] (1) The Court shall, upon application by the defendant, give leave to appear and to defend the suit, upon Defendant showing defence affidavits which disclose such facts as would on merits to have leave to appear. make it incumbent on the holder to prove consideration, or such other facts as the Court may deem sufficient to support the application.

(2) Leave to defend may be given unconditionally or subject to such terms as to payment into Court, giving security, framing and recording issues or otherwise as the Court thinks fit.

N. B.—For local amendment in Bombay.—Vide infra.

Notes.—Where defendant fails to show that hundis were without consideration, leave to defend should not be granted. A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 440. The question under rule 3 is whether or not a triable issue is disclosed on affidavit or otherwise. A triable issue means a plea which is at least plausible. 98 Ind. Cas. 72 ; see also A. I. R. 1928 Cal. 123=32 C. W. N. 125 ; A. I. R. 1929 Mad. 841 ; 82 Ind. Cas. 1028 ; 78 Ind. Cas. 505=45 M. L. J. 255. Where defendant has not obtained leave, he cannot apply for payment of decretal amount by instalments. A. I. R. 1926 Bom. 250=50 B. 262 ; but see A. I. R. 1933 Rang. 245. If there is a triable issue in the case, the Court ought to grant leave to defend without requiring the defendant either to pay the amount claimed or to furnish security therefor. A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 302=41 L. W. 573=1935 M. W. N. 280=157 Ind. Cas. 591. In a suit on a promissory-note the plaintiff referred to the pledges in respect of the jewellery for payment of money due in respect of the promissory-note but asked leave under Order 2, rule 2, to reserve his right as such pledge. The defendant applied for leave to defend on the ground that since the execution of the promissory-note various amounts had been paid in satisfaction and that upon proper account being taken it would be found that the amount claimed was in excess of the amount due : Held that leave to defend be granted on the defendant giving securities for costs only. A. I. R. 1936 Cal. 476. Where in a suit on a promissory-note instituted under this Order 37, the defendant applies for leave to appear and defend, but the Court is not satisfied with the bona fides of the defendant and vague and indefinite assertion has been made by him to gain time, it is open to the Court to grant leave to defend only conditionally i. e. on the defendant paying in Court the amount claimed. A. I. R. 1936 Lah. 534=165 Ind. Cas. 166. It will certainly not be a reasonable interpretation of Clause 2, rule 3, Order 37 of the Code to say that it contemplates only two courses either a grant of leave unconditionally or a refusal of leave. At the time when the question of granting leave comes up, the Court has not before it the full materials on which it can come to the satisfactory conclusion on the merits of the proposed defence ; and if it thinks that there is something to be said in defence, it may grant leave but only on condition of security. A. I. R. 1936 Mad. 246=70 M. L. J. 241=1936 M. W. N. 175=43 L. W. 298=161 Ind. Cas. 182. The question to be considered on an application under this rule is whether or not triable issue is disclosed by the defendants on affidavit or otherwise ; a triable issue meaning a plea which is at least plausible. Once the Court comes to the conclusion that there is a triable issue in the case, it must grant leave to defend without requiring the defendant either to pay the amount claimed in Court or to furnish security therefor; such a condition must be imposed only in exceptional cases, where, for instance, there appears to be so grave a suspicion that the Court comes to the conclusion that the defence is put only in order to obtain further time. A. I. R. 1934 Sind 191; see also 42 L. W. 650=152 Ind. Cas. 687.

4. [S. 534.] After decree, the Court may, under special circumstances, set aside the decree, and if necessary stay or set aside execution, and may give leave to the defendant to appear to the summons and to defend the suit, if it seems reasonable to the Court so to do, and on such terms as the Court thinks fit.

Notes.—Vide 32 M. L. J. 503=38 Ind. Cas. 481.

5. [535.] In any proceeding under this Order the Court may order the bill, hundi or note on which the suit is founded to be forthwith deposited with an officer of the Court, and may further order that all the proceedings shall be stayed until the plaintiff given security for the costs thereof.

6. [S. 536.] The holder of every dishonoured bill of exchange or promissory-note shall have the same remedies for the recovery of the expenses incurred in noting the same for non-acceptance or non-payment, or otherwise, by reason of such dishonour, as he has under this Order for the recovery of the amount of such bill or note.

7. [S. 537.] Save as provided by this Order, the procedure in suits hereunder shall be the same as the procedure in suits instituted in the ordinary manner.

ORDER XXXVIII.

Arrest and Attachment before Judgment.

Arrest before Judgment.

1. [Ss. 477, 478.] Where at any stage of a suit, other than a suit of the nature referred to in section 16, clauses (a) to (d), the Court is satisfied, by affidavit or otherwise,—

Where defendant may be called upon to furnish security for appearance,—

(a) that the defendant, with intent to delay the plaintiff, or to avoid any process of the Court or to obstruct or delay the execution of any decree that may be passed against him,—

(i) has absconded or left the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court; or

(ii) is about to abscond or leave the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court; or

(iii) has disposed of or removed from the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court his property or any part thereof, or

(b) that the defendant is about to leave British India under circumstances affording reasonable probability that the plaintiff will or may thereby be obstructed or delayed in the execution of any decree that may be passed against the defendant in the suit, the Court may issue a warrant to arrest the defendant and bring him before the Court to show cause why he should not furnish security for his appearance:

Provided that the defendant shall not be arrested if he pays to the officer entrusted with the execution of the warrant any sum specified in the warrant as sufficient to satisfy the plaintiff's claim; and such sum shall be held in deposit by the Court until the suit is disposed of or until the further order of the Court.

Scope.—Where warrant has been taken under rule 1, amount of security to be furnished is the amount mentioned in the warrant. A. I. R. 1929 Cal. 732=56 C. 700. Court should exercise powers under Order 38, after satisfying that plaintiff's case is prima facie an unimpeachable subject to his proving plain allegations and there must be reason to believe that unless the jurisdiction is exercised there is a real danger that the defendant will remove himself from the ambit of the powers of the Court. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 884=50 Mad. 27; see also 4 Lah. L. J. 423. Sale must be in fraud of creditors. 36 C. W. N. 46=A. I. R. 1932 Cal. 790. Provincial Small Cause Court has no power to attach immovable property before judgment. 28 C. W. N. 16. The power of Court to issue simultaneous execution for arrest and attachment is entirely discretionary. 84 Ind. Cas. 270. Attachment before judgment does not rank in the same position as an attachment after judgment. 3 Pat. 250=83 Ind. Cas. 413.

2. [S. 479.] (1) Where the defendant fails to show such cause the Court shall order him either to deposit in Court money or other property sufficient to answer the claim against him, or to furnish security for his appearance at any time when called upon while the suit is pending and until satisfaction of any decree that may be passed against him in the suit, or make such order as it thinks fit in regard to the sum which may have been paid by the defendant under the proviso to the last preceding rule.

(2) Every surety for the appearance of a defendant shall bind himself, in default of such appearance, to pay any sum of money which the defendant may be ordered to pay in the suit.

Scope.—Security under rule 2 is for defendant's appearance at any time when called upon while the suit is pending and until satisfaction of any decree that may be passed against him in suit. If decree has been passed, defendant would be bound to appear when called upon between date of decree and satisfaction thereof. 70 Ind. Cas. 129=1 Bur. L. J. 196; see also 115 Ind. Cas. 129; A. I. R. 1931 Mad. 828; A. I. R. 1934 Mad. 24. Where money is deposited, money is subject to the lien of the plaintiff. 41 M. 1053=35 M. L. J. 355=49 Ind. Cas. 20. Claimant whose objection has been disallowed is at liberty to bring a suit under Order 21, rule 63 within period prescribed by Art. 11 of the Limitation Act. 47 Ind. Cas. 1000=35 M. L. J. 231.

3. [S. 480.] (1) A surety for the appearance of a defendant may at any time apply to the Court in which he became such surety to be discharged from his obligation.

(2) On such application being made, the Court shall summon the defendant to appear or, if it thinks fit, may issue a warrant for his arrest in the first instance.

(3) On the appearance of the defendant in pursuance of the summons or warrant, or on his voluntary surrender, the Court shall direct the surety to be discharged from his obligation, and shall call upon the defendant to find fresh security.

Scope.—A surety in case of arrest before judgment can set a discharge under rule 3. But surety for due performance cannot be granted discharge. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 435=30 P. L. R. 130; see also A. I. R. 1929 Bom. 190=31 Bom. L. R. 225. A surety is not discharged even the judgment-debtor is adjudged insolvent. A. I. R. 1928 Rang. 184=6 Rang. 241. Obligation of surety continues even though the parties to the suit entered into a compromise on the strength of which a decree is passed. 43 M. 272=53 Ind. Cas. 367; see also A. I. Attachment before Judgement.

5. [Ss. 483, 484.] Where, at any stage of the suit, the Court is satisfied, by affidavit or otherwise, that the defendant, with intent to obstruct or delay the execution of any decree that may be passed against him,—

(a) is about to dispose of the whole or any part of his property, or

(b) is about to remove the whole or any part of his property from the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court, the Court may direct the defendant, within a time to be fixed by it, either to furnish security, in such sum as may be specified in the order, to produce and place at the disposal of the Court, when required, the said property or the value of the same, or such portion thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the decree, or to appear and show cause why he should not furnish security.

(2) The plaintiff shall, unless the Court otherwise directs, specify the property required to be attached and the estimated value thereof.

(3) The Court may also in the order direct the conditional attachment of the whole or any portion of the property so specified.

Scope.—Under rule 5 attachment before judgment can be of property within or without the jurisdiction of the Court. A. I. R. 1926 Lah. 330=27 P. L. R. 144 ; A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 376 ; A. I. R. 1926 B. 278 ; A. I. R. 1931 Rang. 279. This rule does not contemplate attachment of property already disposed of. A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 772. The provision of rule 5 can only be invoked if the Court is satisfied that the property is about to be disposed of wholly or partly. A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 808 ; see also A. I. R. 1928 Pat. 172 ; 73 Ind. Cas. 721=5 Pat. L. T. 124. It is essential that the plaintiff must make out a prima facie case before any attachment before judgment or an injunction can be granted. The Court must be satisfied that interference is necessary to prevent injury which is irreparable, and that the mischief or inconvenience likely to arise in consequence of refusal will be greater than that from granting it. Neither an attachment nor an injunction should be lightly granted. It would be serious if persons in possession were restrained from making use of their property—merely because a suit has been instituted against them. It is only where it is essential that the property should be kept in its existing condition pending the suit that the Court should interfere under Order 38, rule 5 (1) or under Order 39 rule 1. 38 C. Where security is given to obtain removal of attachment before judgment under Order 38, the liability of the surety is fully incurred as soon as the decree of the Court of first instance is made and subsequent appeal or appeals from the decree do not destroy the liability, although they may have the effect of reducing the quantum of the liability which may even be found to be nothing. 14 Rang. 361=164 Ind. not furnish security, or fails to furnish the security required within the time fixed by the Court, the Court may order that the property specified, or such portion thereof as appears sufficient to satisfy any decree which may be passed in the suit, be attached.

(2) Where the defendant shows such cause or furnishes the required security, and the property specified or any portion of it has been attached, the Court shall order the attachment to be withdrawn, or make such other order as it thinks fit.

Scope.—Attachment before judgment of mortgaged property can under proper circumstances be ordered in mortgage suit. 84 Rang. 270=2 Rang. 362. Attachment remains in force until termination is ordered. 90 Ind. Cas. 545=49 M. L. J. 88. Scope.—Attachment before judgment of debt is not injunction nor objection to such attachment that debt did not exist is one under O. 38, rule 8. A. I. R. 1933 All. 481. Court has jurisdiction to go into question of title under peculiar circumstances. A. I. R. 1929 Pat. 747=11 P. L. T. 59; see also A. I. R. 1927 Sind 114. Release of property from attachment under rule 8 does not determine ownership. 41 M. 23=39 Ind. Cas. 863. Although claims to property attached before judgment should be investigated, if made, according to the procedure laid down by Order 21, rule 58, it does not follow that a person who has a claim to such property is bound to make an objection before the decree; and a claim preferred within a reasonable time after the decree and application for execution is not "designedly or unnecessarily delayed" within the meaning of proviso to Order 21, rule 58, Civil Procedure Code. It is not therefore necessary for any person who has a claim to property attached before judgment to prefer a claim, though he may do so if he wishes to do so under the provisions of Order 38, rule 8. 31 N. L. R. 426=158 Ind. Cas. 353=A. I. R. 1935 Nag. 222.

Scope.—The attachment before judgment is converted after decree into an attachment in execution and the provisions of Order XXI, rule 57, will apply. A. I. R. 1929 Bom. 321=53 B. 545=31 Bom. L. 2. [S. 493.] (1) In any suit for restraining the defendant from committing a breach of contract or other injury of any kind, whether compensation is claimed in the suit or not, the plaintiff may, at any time after the commencement of the suit, and either before or after judgment, apply to the Court for a temporary injunction to restrain the defendant from committing the breach of contract or injury complained of, or any breach of contract or injury of a like kind arising out of the same contract or relating to the same property or right.

(2) The Court may by order grant such injunction, on such terms as to the duration of the injunction, keeping an account, giving security, or otherwise as the Court thinks fit.

(3) In case of disobedience, or of breach of any such terms, the Court granting an injunction may order the property of the person guilty of such disobedience or breach to be attached, and may also order such person to be detained in the civil prison for a term not exceeding six months, unless in the meantime the Court directs his release.

(4) No attachment under this rule shall remain in force for more than one year, at the end of which time, if the disobedience or breach continues, the property attached may be sold, and out of the proceeds the Court may award such compensation as it thinks fit, and shall pay the balance, if any, to the party entitled thereto.

Scope.—Temporary mandatory injunctions are not covered by rule 2 but can be issued under s. 151. A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 201=24 L. W. 854. Possession of Receiver—Receiver is not agent of judgment-creditor. A. I. R. 1930 Mad. 4. The object of appointing a receiver is the safeguarding of property for the benefit of those entitled to it. His possession is on behalf and for the benefit of all the parties to the suit in which he is appointed, and is in possession of all the said parties according to their titles. The property in his hands is in custodia legis for the person who can make a title to it. The title of the real owner is in no way affected either in theory or principle by his appointment. He collects and receives the rents, issues and profits not upon his own title but upon the title of some other persons, parties to the action. A Receiver is not the representative or agent of the party or parties but of the Court in the sense that he acts in the interest of neither plaintiff nor defendant but for the common benefit of all parties interested. A. I. R. 1926 Cal. 385=52 C. 914=41 C. L. J. 571=90 Ind. Cas. 851; see also A. I. R. 1924 Cal. 600=39 C. L. J. 40=79 Ind. Cas. 520. The words "any person" in Order XL, r. 1 (2), are not confined to persons who are not parties to the suit. 12 L. W. 254=61 Ind. Cas. 605. The possession of the Court through its Receiver is possession on behalf of the party finally held to be entitled to the properties in dispute and does not suspend the operation of adverse possession of the successful party. 40 Ind. Cas. 53=5 L. W. 690=32 M. L. J. 85.

R. 1928 P. C. 49=55 C. 720=55 I. A. 131=32 C. W. N. 681 (P. C.). A Court of appeal should not generally disturb an order as to the appointment of a Receiver by the Court below. A. I. But discretion in appointing a Receiver must be exercised on sound judicial lines, and if the discretion is not exercised on these lines, the appellate Court should interfere with the order of appointment. 95 Ind. Cas. 30=A. I. R. 1926 Cal. 1092. An appellate Court should not interfere in selection of Receiver unless there be some fatal objection; but this rule holds good only in case of original appointment and not in that of substituted one. A. I. R. 1929 Pat. 114=115 Ind. Cas. 831. Where a Receiver is appointed in an appeal from interlocutory order, the only person materially prejudiced thereby would be the person entitled to present possession. [S. 545.] (1) An appeal shall not operate as a stay of proceedings under a decree or order appealed from except so far as the appellate Court may order, nor shall execution of a decree be stayed by reason only of an appeal having been preferred from the decree; but the appellate Court may for sufficient cause order stay of execution of such decree.

Sub-section (1).—Rules 17 and 19 are exhaustive in respect of cases of appellant's absence and the Court cannot in its inherent powers restore an appeal dismissed for default. 45 M. L. The Court may make an order that the appeal to be dismissed mean that the Court may dismiss the appeal or may adjourn it to some other date or pass other order, but the Court cannot consider an appeal in the absence of the appellant and decide it on merits. Appellate Court must hear both parties to the appeal and then decide it according to its judgment. A. I. R. 1929 Cal. 475=56 C. 412=119 Ind. Cas. 129. The mere unpreparedness of the appellant's counsel to argue the appeal is no ground for dismissing the appeal for default. A. I. R. 1929 Nag. 89=115 Ind. Cas. 173=11 N. L. J. 238. Court should dismiss the appeal on merits under this rule. A. I. R. 1924 All. 144=45 All. 669=21 A. L. J. 667=74 Ind. Cas. 905. Where no date is fixed for hearing of an appeal and no notice is given to the parties of date of hearing an order dismissing the appeal for default is without jurisdiction. A. I. Dismissal of appeal for default puts the parties in same position as if there had been no appeal or as if it had been dismissed on the merits. 68 Ind. Cas. 239=7 N. L. J. 163=A. I. R. 1923 Nag. 1. Appellate Court cannot dismiss an application to restore an appeal dismissed under rule 17, for default without giving the appellant an opportunity as required under rule 19. A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 888=104 Ind. Cas. 347. No appeal lies to Privy Council from order dismissing application for restoration of the appeal dismissed for default, as it is not a decree or final order passed in appeal nor an order passed in the exercise of the original civil jurisdiction of the High Court. 79 Ind. Where an appeal is transferred by the District Judge from one subordinate Court to another without notice to any party and the appellants are thereby unable to be present in the latter Court when the case is called on, it is a sufficient cause to restore the appeal dismissed for default. 46 Ind. 18. [S 557.] Where on the day fixed, or any other day to which the hearing may be adjourned it is found that the notice to the respondent has not been served in consequence of the failure of the appellant to deposit within the period fixed, the sum required to defray the cost of serving the notice, the Court may make an order that the appeal be dismissed :

Dismissal of appeal where notice not served in consequence of appellant's failure to deposit costs.

Provided that no such order shall be made although the notice has not been served upon the respondent, if on any such day the respondent appears when the appeal is called on for hearing.

19. [S 558.] Where an appeal is dismissed under rule 11, sub-rule (2) or rule 17 or rule 18, the appellant may apply to the Appellate Court for the re-admission of the appeal; and, where it is proved that he was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing when the appeal was called on for hearing or from depositing the sum so required, the Court shall re-admit the appeal on such terms as to costs or otherwise as it thinks fit.

In dealing with applications to set aside order of dismissal for default, the Court has to consider the position of the party concerned rather than the conduct of the members of the bar. As regards the position of the party, a litigant should not be deprived of hearing unless there has been something equivalent to misconduct or gross negligence on his part or something which cannot be set right by his being ordered to pay costs; where the non-appearance is due to the default of counsel engaged in the case, a similar consideration will mutatis mutandis be applicable, when the Court has to decide whether there was sufficient cause for the non-appearance of the party or of his counsel. A. I. R. 1937 Mad. 503. Without giving an appellant the opportunity of being heard an application for restoration under this rule, should not be dismissed for default. A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 112=120 Ind. "For any other sufficient reason" in rule 1 of Order XLVII govern the case where there is a good ground for not filing the deficit printing costs, and therefore, an application to set aside a dismissal of appeal for failure to file printing costs is one for review and not an application under Order XLI, rule 19. When a next friend of the minor defendants is not served with a notice of the date fixed, the order of dismissal for default cannot be sustained. 53 Ind. Cas. 333. Where a pleader is engaged in another Court some one should be left behind to inform the Court of the fact, so that if it likes it can take up some other business. Otherwise if the appeal is dismissed, the appellant will not be granted a rehearing. 79 Ind. Cas. 550=A. I. R. 1925 Oudh. 234. Where there is a transfer of appeal from District Judge's Court to the Court of the Additional District Judge and appellant is ignorant of transfer and hence is absent and the appeal is dismissed for default, the dismissal should be set aside. Where the pleader soon after the dismissal appears and satisfies the Court that failure to appear is wholly unintentional, the appeal can be restored. 5 Lah. L. J. 89=79 Ind. Cas. 504. A fresh appeal on the dismissal for default of a previously filed appeal can be entertained provided the latter appeal was otherwise in order and was filed within the period of limitation. A fresh appeal will be barred if dismissal of the previous appeal would operate as res judicata to the hearing of the fresh appeal. The omission of a provision for fresh appeal in Order XLI, rule 19, cannot take away such right if it is not otherwise barred. A. I. R. 1923 Pat. 514=4 P. L. T. 405=2 Pat. 739=75 Ind. Cas. 284. The order of a Judge in chambers rejecting an application under this rule for re-admission of an appeal dismissed for default is appealable. 89 Ind. Cas. 795=A. I. R. 1925 Lah. 617. An opportunity should be given to the applicant under this rule to substantiate his case. 31 P. L. R. 969=132 Ind. Cas. 5. An appeal should be re-admitted if the appellant can prove that he was prevented by sufficient cause from appearing on the date fixed. A. I. R. 1935 Pesh. 110=157 Ind. Cas. 171.

20. [S. 559.] Where it appears to the Court at the hearing that any person who was a party to the suit in the Court from whose decree the appeal is preferred, but who has not been made a party to the appeal, is interested in the result of the appeal, the Court may adjourn the hearing to a future day to be fixed by the Court and direct that such person be made a respondent.

Notes.—Court should implead proper party. A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 295. This rule is permissive. 14 R. D. 88 (B. R.). Person not party to original suit cannot be added. 53 B. 598. Where party is left out owing to bona-fide mistake he should be made party. 56 M. L. J. 315. Rule 20 does not exhaust appellate Court's power to add parties. A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 806=65 M. L. J. 548. Discretionary power should be refused if party is deprived of his valuable right. A. I. R. 1932 Sind 220=26 S. L. R. 362. This rule is permissive and it does not bind a Court to act on that rule in order to bring in a necessary party against whom an appeal is already time-barred. 14 R. D. 88 (B. R.). But under this rule a party to the proceedings in the Court below can be added as a respondent to the appeal even after limitation. A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 120=103 Ind. Cas. 223; see also 9 Lah. L. J. 550=A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 202; A. I. R. 1926 Lah. 614. Rule 20 deals with the addition of a respondent whom the appellant has not made a party to the appeal. Court can make such party a respondent when it appears to the Court that he is interested in the result of the appeal. A defendant against whom a suit has been dismissed and as against whom the right of appeal has become barred cannot be claimed to be interested in the result of the appeal filed by the plaintiff against the other defendants. Plaintiff appellant has to show what is the nature of the interest of such defendant. A. I. R. 1927 P. C. 252=6 Rang. 29=32 C. W. N. 281=30 Bom. L. R. 220=26 A. L. J. 371=107 Ind. Cas. 237=47 C. L. Where the pleader for plaintiff-appellant does not implead co-plaintiffs in the appeal under mistaken view of Order 41, rule 4, the Court can allow them to be joined as respondents at the hearing. A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 43=106 Ind. Cas. 313. The power to take action under this rule is discretionary and the law of limitation does not apply in such cases. A. I. R. 1924 Lah. 629=76 Ind. Cas. 285; A. I. R. 1923 Lah. 503=75 Ind. Cas. 90; see also 66 Ind. Cas. 217=5 N. L. J. 192; 15 R. D. 217; but see 1931 A. L. J. 1004. It must be shown that a person was not added in the list of respondents owing to bona fide mistake that is a mistake which has crept in inspite of the exercise of due care and caution. A. I. R. 1935 Lah. 802. A person against whom an appeal has abated is not a person interested in the result of the appeal within the meaning of this rule. 156 Ind. Cas. 110=41 L. W. 111=1935 M. W. Ordinarily rules of limitation relating to appeals do not apply where justice requires a party to the suit to be added. A. I. R. 1924 Pat. 773=5 P. L. T. 509=82 Ind. Cas. 600. But Court will not generally add new respondents after limitation for appeal against them. A. I. R. 1925 Rang. 108=84 Ind. Cas. 522. Where a party has not filed an appeal against another non-appellant party and the time for so doing has expired he cannot have him added in order to file a memorandum of objections although Appellate Court can do so. A. I. R. 1929 Mad. 479=120 Ind. Cas. 369. Order under this rule should be strongly used where the appellant omits to implead the necessary respondents through oversight. A. I. Rule 20 applies to case of a necessary party, and to admittedly necessary parties. Also it applies to cases where the Court itself discovers the defect as to the non-joinder of the parties, and to cases where the appellant applies for addition of a party. A. I. The Appellate Court should refuse to add the representatives of the deceased respondent under Order 41, rules 20 and 43 of the C. P. Powers of a Court to implead parties under s. 151, are circumscribed by this rule and the inherent powers under s. 151 can be invoked under exceptional circumstances. A. I. R. 1923 Lah. 490=73 Ind. R. 1927 Cal. 733=46 C. L. J. 51=104 Ind. Cas. 151. Appellate Court cannot implead under Order XLI, rule 20, a person not a party to the decree though a party to the suit, as the person is not "interested in the result of the appeal". A. I. Where names of certain defendants are omitted by mistake, in a memorandum of appeal, the Court can add them as parties under this rule. 4 N. L. J. 138=63 Ind. Cas. 352. An appellate Court can in second appeal add as respondents persons impleaded in the original Court but not in first appeal even after expiry of limitation. 10 L. B. R. 191=59 Ind. Cas. 798; but see 57 Ind. Cas. 259=2 Lah. L. J. 5. A respondent to an appeal can proceed against his co-respondent by way of cross-objections and join him as party to the appeal though previously he was not interested. 27 M. L. T. 266=11 L. W. 602=56 Ind. Cas. 612. The powers of the Court, however ample they may be within this rule and rule 33 cannot be used to the detriment of a person against whom no appeal has been preferred. 58 C. 923=133 Ind. Cas. 177=A. I. R. 1931 Cal. 738.

21. [S. 560.] Where an appeal is heard ex parte and judgment is pronounced against the respondent, he may apply to the Appellate Court to re-hear the appeal; and if he satisfies the Court that the notice was not duly served or that he was prevented by sufficient cause from appearing when the appeal was called on for hearing, the Court shall re-hear the appeal on such terms as to costs or otherwise as it thinks fit to impose upon him.

22. [S. 561.] (1) Any respondent, though he may not have appealed from any part of the decree, may not only support the decree on any of the grounds decided against him in the Court below, but take any cross-objection to the decree which he could have taken by way of appeal, provided he has filed such objection in the appellate Court within one month from the date of service on him or his pleader of notice of the day fixed for hearing the appeal, or within such further time as the Appellate Court may seem fit to allow.

(2) Such cross-objection shall be in the form of a memorandum, and the provisions of rule 1, so far as they relate to the form and contents of the memorandum of appeals, shall apply thereto.

(3) Unless the respondent files with the objection a written acknowledgment from the party who may be affected by such objection or his pleader of having received a copy thereof, the Appellate Court shall cause a copy to be served, as soon as may be after the filing of the objection, on such party or his pleader at the expense of the respondent.

(4) Where in any case in which any respondent has under this rule filed a memorandum of objection, the original appeal is withdrawn or is dismissed for default, the objection so filed may nevertheless be heard and determined after such notice to the other parties as the Court thinks fit.

(5) The provisions relating to pauper appeals shall, so far as they can be made applicable, apply to an objection under this rule.

Scope—Rule 22 provides for cross-objections aimed against an appellant from a decree of a lower Court and are not cross-objections against a co-respondent. Such cross-objections will not be allowed as against a co-respondent, where the respondent could have preferred them by way of appeal. A. I. R. 1930 Bom. 1=31 Bom. L. R. 1179. Though there be dismissal of appeal on appellant's admission that appeal was incompetent, cross-objection can be heard. 54 Ind. Cas. 50=10 L. W. 605. The memorandum of objections may be treated as a separate cross-appeal. 52 M. 521=A. I. R. 1929 Mad. 429. Where a person cannot prefer an independent appeal against an order, his mere addition as pro forma respondent in the appeal against the order cannot entitle him to raise any cross-objection to the order. R. 1925 Cal. 973=88 Ind. Cas. 866. The party "who may be affected" does not absolutely empower a respondent to file cross-objections against a co-respondent, even where such co-respondent is not an interested party at all and no relief is claimed against him in the appeal. In such cases the discretion under Order XLI. rule 33, should not be exercised. A. I. R. 1929 All. 195=107 Ind. Cas. 569. Cross-objections if amounting to appeal against non-appealable order is not maintainable. A. I. R. 1927 Oudh 218=1 Luck. Cas. 24=102 Ind. Cas. 467. Where appeal from original side of High Court is dismissed for default, memo of objection can be treated as appeal. A. I. R. 1925 Mad. 725=48 M. 631=48 M. L. J. 384=88 Ind. Cas. 443. Where an appeal is filed from decree dismissing a suit, the defendant can support the decree even on grounds decided against him, and the decree being one of dismissal of whole suit he need not file any formal cross-objection. J. 694=96 Ind. Cas. 67. Rule 22 enables lower Court's decision being supported on grounds different from those on which lower Court proceeded. A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 801=50 M. 866=53 M. L. J. 189=104 Ind. Cas. 472. The cross-objection relating to costs, should bear Court-fee upon the amount claimed. A. I. R. 1929 Pat. 286=8 Pat. 543=10 P. L. T. 224. The words "support the decree" do not mean merely "support the decision". 12 Pat. L. T. 659. The provisions of sub-rule (4) must be interpreted strictly and not extended beyond their obvious meaning. Apart from two instances excepted in sub-rule (4) cross-objections cannot be entertained if the appeal fails. 8 Rang. 533=A. I. R. 1931 Rang. 38=129 Ind. Cas. 500.

Even where an appeal is filed by two out of 96 defendants the plaintiff is entitled to file cross objections. Such cross-objection cannot be refused on the ground that in any case the decree would remain in tact as against the 94 defendants who had not appealed. A. I. R. 1934 Oudh. 131=11 O. W. N. 258=151 Ind. Cas. 530. A defendant respondent whose set-off has not been decreed or has not been referred to in the decree, may make this ground of cross-examinations in appeal. 150 Ind. Cas. 433=A. I. R. 1934 All. 543. It is doubtful whether on abatement of the appeal by death of the appellant, the cross-objections can be heard after bringing the legal representatives on the record. 151 Ind. Cas. 387=A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 136. Under clause (3) the respondent should file with cross-objection a written acknowledgment of notice from the party who may be affected by such an objection. 150 Ind. Cas. 364=A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 345=58 C. L. J. 534. A cross-objection which seeks to raise a question as between two respondents inter se and is purely a lateral attack in which the appellant is not concerned or interested, is not maintainable. 158 Ind. Cas. 708=1935 O. W. N. 1139. The expression "cross-objection" in this rule indicates that it should be directed against the appellant, but it may also be taken against another respondent if there is community of interests between the appellant and the latter. 57 A. 580=155 Ind. Cas. 89=A. I. R. 1935 All. 134=1935 A. L. J. 145. Where in an appeal filed by the defendant the cross-objection filed by the plaintiff is allowed and the plaintiff files a second appeal not being completely satisfied with the lower appellate Court's decree it is open to the defendant either to file a cross-appeal from the other part or to file a cross-objection to the plaintiff's appeal. In either case the Appellate Court is seized of the whole matter and has jurisdiction to dispose of the entire suit. A. I. R. 1935 All. 494=1935 A. L. J. 418=158 Ind. Cas. 100.

23. [S. 562.] Where the Court from whose decree an appeal is preferred

Remand of case by Appellate Court. has disposed of the suit upon a preliminary point and the decree is reversed in appeal, the Appellate Court may, if it thinks fit, by order remand the case, and may further direct what issue or issues shall be tried in the case so remanded, and shall send a copy of its judgment and order to the Court from whose decree the appeal is preferred, with directions to readmit the suit under its original number in the register of civil suits, and proceed to determine the suit; and the evidence (if any) recorded during the original trial shall, subject to all just exceptions, be evidence during the trial after remand.

N. B.—For local amendment in Madras—Vide infra.

Grounds for remand.—Where a case is not decided on preliminary point Appellate Court cannot remand the case under this rule. 35 C. L. J. 345=70 Ind. Cas. 547; see also 70 Ind. Cas. 1008; 24 Bom. L. R. 820=67 Ind. Cas. 965, A. I. R. 1923 Lah. 480; 95 Ind. Cas. 44; A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 618; A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 639; A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 181. A preliminary point within the meaning of Order 41, rule 23, is any point the decision of which avoids the necessity for the full hearing of the suit. A. I. R. 1934 Pat. 13. It must be independent of merits. A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 49. The test of finality is whether rights of parties are finally disposed of. 37 C. W. N. 495 P. C. "Preliminary point" comprehends all points whether of law or of fact which prevent Court from disposing of case on merits. A. I. R. 1933 Rang. 413. Remand order can be under inherent power. A. I. R. 1933 Pat. 706; see also A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 135=34 P. L. R. 270; A. I. R. 1932 Lah. 311=33 P. L. R. 285; 37 C. W. N. 1084. Under r. 23 suit must be disposed of on preliminary point. 33 P. L. R. 54=A. I. R. 1932 Lah. 219. There cannot be any remand where the trial Court made its finding on all points. 33 C. W. N. 1211. Where the trial Court decides the suit on merits, it is not open to the Appellate Court to remand the case under rule 23, as though the suit had been decided on a preliminary point but under r. 24 or r. 25. 66 Ind. Cas. 922; see also 56 Ind. Cas. 984; 55 Ind. Cas. 484.

If decision of the lower Court is clearly right in law remand is improper because it may have been based upon a debatable point of law. A. I. R. 1929 Mad. 718=30 L. W. 230=119 Ind. Cas. 43. Where a case is tried on various material issues, it should not be remanded. A. I. R. 1930 All. 180=1930 A. L. J. 99=123 Ind. Cas. 324. The District Court can remand case for determination of a question of fact essential to the right decision of the suit upon its merits. A. I. R. 1930 Rang. 188=127 Ind. Cas. 598; A. I. R. 1930 Pat. 7=11 P. L. T. 637=124 Ind. Cas. 385; A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 774=10 Lah. 360=30 P. L. R. 541=112 Ind. Cas. 736; A. I. R. 1927 Nag. 192=101 Ind. Cas. 281. Where original Court fails to frame and determine particular issue, case should be remanded for finding on that issue and not for trial. 38 Ind. Cas. 641. Order of remand is illegal where evidence is recorded on material issues. 41 Ind. Cas. 735; see also 35 Ind. Cas. 239. Where evidence is recorded, but some issues are not decided, proper order of Appellate Court is to call for findings under rule 25 and not under rule 23. 38 A. 520=14 A. L. J. 754=36 Ind. Cas. 245. Where in a pre-emption suit, custom is pleaded in the first Court and extract in the Appellate Court the latter Court should not decide the point but allow amendment and remand case. A. I. R. 1922 All. 281=44 A. 571=20 A. L. J. 464=66 Ind. Cas. 572. Order for remand for adducing further evidence and disposal and also setting aside trial Court's decree dismissing suit is illegal. A. I. R. 1929 Bom. 175=31 Bom. L. R. 208=53 B. 335=118 Ind. Cas. 790. Where the record showed that the judgment of the final Court was based upon the consent of the parties and the fact was controverted in appeal before Board of Judicial Committee and the Board found that the recital of consent was in some way erroneous and that no judgment upon the merits had been pronounced by the Court Board sent back the record so that it might be reconsidered and dealt with in the ordinary way. Where Judge has jurisdiction to try a case under the ordinary procedure, mere fact that he tries it under special procedure is no ground for dismissing it. Proper procedure is to remand the case. A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 174=8 Lah. 156=9 Lah. L. J. 57=28 P. L. R. 539=99 Ind. Cas. 648. Where issues framed by the trial Court are exhaustive and there is no alternative relief prayed, it is not competent for the Appellate Court to set up new case and remand the case. A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 42=98 Ind. Cas. 906. Court need not remand a case if the only object is to have an enquiry under the Bengal Tenancy Act, s. 158. A. I. R. 1928 Cal. 43=105 Ind. Cas. 133. If Appellate Court is not satisfied with local investigation accepted by trial Court it can direct trial Court to take evidence under rules 27, 28, 29 but cannot order retrial. A. I. R. 1928 Cal. 748=110 Ind. Cas. 448. Where appeal is preferred against preliminary decree in partition suit and Appellate Court remands case for retrial the proper order would be under rule 25 and not under rule 23. A. I. R. 1927 Oudh 591=101 Ind. Cas. 89. Where documents put in are mechanically exhibited without the trial Court and objection to admissibility is put forth in second appeal an order for retrial is justified. A. I. R. 1927. Lah. 45=8 Lah. L. J. 537=99 Ind. Cas. 920.

Remand under inherent power.—Even where rule 23 does not apply, the Appellate Court has inherent power to make a remand under s. 151. A. I. R. 1930 Mad. 72 ; see also 32 C. W. N. 101 ; A. I. R. 1927 Pat. 295=6 Pat. 380 ; A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 1190 ; A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 335=52 M. L. J. 90 ; 43 C. L. J. 601=A. I. R. 1926 Cal. 1076 ; A. I. R. 1926 Lah. 537. Where there is no question of any preliminary point and the order of remand affects the whole decision of the whole suit the remand must be taken to have been under inherent powers. A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 335=52 M. L. J. 90. High Court can deal with small question of fact to avoid remand. 34 C. W. N. 951. The High Court has ample powers to make a remand in order that a point which has not been considered by the lower Court may be considered. A. I. R. 1934 Rang. 168. An Appellate Court has an inherent power to remand a case even where rule 23 does not apply provided that the interest of the justice requires it. A. I. R. 1935 Bom. 216=37 Bom. L. R. 203=156 Ind. Order under the rule.—Where the trial Court has disposed of suit completely on the merits, it is beyond the competence of Appellate Court to direct a remand upon grounds which do not arise from the pleadings. 119 Ind. Cas. 2. Where remanding suit to the trial Court for fresh disposal it should be made quite clear whether the order of remand is under Order 41, rule 23 or independently of it. A. I. R. 1929 Mad. 205=119 Ind. Cas. 705 ; see also 45 C. L. J. 194. It is the duty of the Court to which remand is made to record findings to all the questions sent on remand and not to omit certain answers because of the view it takes of the law. A.

I. R. 1927 Bom. 594=51 B. 1026. No order of remand can be regarded as made under rule 23, unless the case has been disposed of without entering into the full merits by reason of a decision on law or fact which has prevented the case being tried to the end. 73 Ind. Cas. 591. The High Court has authority to limit the scope of certain appeal remanded to the lower Court without keeping them on its own file. 20 C. W. N. 584. The issues decided by the order of remand under rule 23 cannot be re-opened between the parties at any subsequent stage of litigation. 70 Ind. Cas. 983. When all points have been decided by the lower Court remand should be under rule 25 and not under rule 23. A. I. R. 1932 Lah. 443=33 P. L. R. 487. Except under rule 23 no case shall be remanded for a second decision which can be disposed of finally by first Appellate Court. 36 Ind. Cas. 241=12 N. L. R. 120. Where case is decided on important point but remanded to lower Court for some purpose, the order is not a decree. A. I. R. 1928 All. 13=26 A. L. J. 103=107 Ind. Cas. 677. Mere omission to pass order for refund of Court-fees does not make order of remand one under any other law. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 175=118 Ind. Cas. 393. Where case is remanded to find whether person has title, it includes inquiry whether he has lost title or whether he is precluded from relying on it. 20 C. W. N. 149=31 Ind. Cas. 987. Power of remand under the new Code is not only to be used where the trial Court has disposed of a case on a preliminary issue but also where important evidence has been wrongly excluded or important questions wrongly disallowed. 36 Ind. Cas. 813; see also 37 Ind. Cas. 951. An order of remand is an interlocutory order and therefore not subject of appeal to His Majesty in Council. 2 Lah. 106=60 Ind. Cas. 522. Where the order of remand decides a certain question it cannot be re-opened on appeal after remand. 53 Ind. Cas. 677; see also A. I. R. 1923 Pat. 226=76 Ind. Cas. 135. Where on second appeal the case is remanded to lower Appellate Court, it is not open to that Court, to consider arguments abandoned or not raised in second appeal or to come to a fresh findings on points decided by order of remand. 61 Ind. Cas. 575. Where trial Court decides a suit on all the issues and dismisses the order of Appellate Court remanding the suit for fresh disposal being of contrary opinion on one issue without disturbing the findings of the first Court on the other issues is improper. A. I. R. 1923 Mad. 227=76 Ind. Cas. 1041. An order under rule 23 is a final order which is subject to appeal and cannot be considered by the Court which passed it except on review whereas an order under rule 25 is an interlocutory order which it is open to the Court to reconsider. 25 O. C. 189=9 O. L. J. 235=69 Ind. Cas. 730. The power of remanding a case, otherwise than under rule 23, should be most sparingly used in first appeal. A. I. R. 1929 Nag. 63=26 N. L. R. 44=117 Ind. Cas. 280. Jurisdiction of a Court trying remanded case depends entirely on the order of the Appellate Court when remanding. A. I. R. 1923 Mad. 351=44 M. L. J. 238=72 Ind. Cas. 314. The word remand should be used only when a case is returned for decision and not for return of a case for finding. A. I. R. 1925 Rang 302=92 Ind. Cas. 370. An Appellate Court is not confined to the grounds mentioned in r. 23 and may do so on any other ground. 5 Lah. L. J. 269=74 Ind. Cas. 497.

Appellate Court.—Appellate Court cannot remand a case, not disposed on a preliminary point, for a fresh decision on taking further evidence. 27 C. L. J. 596=46 Ind. Cas. 333. Under rule 23, Appellate Court can only frame issue and remand case for finding, it cannot remand for further evidence and pass fresh decree itself. 38 Ind. Cas. 797. Even if it be competent to the High Court on second appeal to remit case for re-hearing on an issue not raised in the pleadings or even suggested in the Court below, this ought only to be done in exceptional cases for good cause shown and on payment of all costs. 43 C. 1104=43 Ind. Cas. 172=20 C. W. N. 1245 (P. C.). Appellate Court can remand whole case where plaint is allowed to be amended by addition of parties in appeal. 43 C. 938=32 Ind. Cas. 791=20 C. W. N. 517. Contention not arising out of pleadings and not raised in lower Court is not to be allowed to be raised on remand. 38 Ind. Cas. 509=1 Pat. L. W. 188=2 Pat. L. J. 8; see also 44 Ind. Cas. 416. Where an Appellate Court passed an order of remand without specifying the provisions of law under which it is made, it must be presumed to be under rule 23, and it is appealable. A. I. R. 1922 All. 226=20 A. L. J. 321=44 A. 192=67 Ind. Cas. 713. Where trial Court omits to put in issue an important point, Appellate Court can raise that issue and remand case. 64 P. R. 1919=51 Ind. Cas. 712. Appellate Court can decide case on evidence on record after excluding irrelevant or unsatisfactory portions. 50 Ind. Cas. 391. If the defendant appeals against ex parte decree without seeking to set it aside, Appellate Court should not remand case under rule 23, but should itself dispose it on merits. 24 P. L. R. 1917=39 Ind. Cas. 749; see also 25 C. L. J. 473=39 Ind. Cas. 886; but see 56 Ind. Cas. 255=(1919) 3 U. B. R. 193. Where the lower Appellate Court reversed the decree of the Court below, modifying one of the issues and remanding the case for a de novo trial on the modified issue, the order is wrong. A. I. R. 1922 Cal. 456=35 C. L. J. 345=70 Ind. Cas. 547. Remand order can not confer on the subordinate Court a jurisdiction which that Court would not have had but for the remand. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 534=30 P. L. R. 244=116 Ind. Cas. 324. An Appellate Court has power to transfer a case from one Court to another Court. 25 P. W. R. 1922=66 Ind. Cas. 113; see also 24 C. L. J. 457=35 Ind. Cas. 698; but see 66 Ind. Cas. 113. This rule contemplates a position in which the Appellate Court does not retain seizin of the case. The remand under it is for a 'determination of the suit,' and after remand the Appellate Court has nothing more to do with the matter unless it comes back to it by way of a fresh appeal. A. I. R. 1936 Nag. 140. But when the Appellate Court retains seizin of the case when remanding for finding on issue rule 20 or rule 27 is more applicable. A. I. R. 1936 Nag. 140. Where a District Judge remands a suit to the trial Court and the suit is ultimately dismissed by the trial Judge and an appeal is preferred again to his successor, it is competent for him to go behind the finding of his predecessor. 38 P. L. R. 567=A. I. R. 1936 Lah. 708. Remand order by Appellate Court is proper where the trial Court adopted unjustifiable and unsatisfactory procedure. A. I. R. 1936 Cal. 195=162 Ind. Cas. 697.

Preliminary Point.—The expression "preliminary point" is not confined to such legal points only as may be pleaded in bar of suit but comprehend all such points as may have prevented the Court disposing of the case on the merits, whether such points are pure question of law or pure questions of fact. There are many instances of such point such as, that a suit is barred by limitation; that the Court has no jurisdiction under the Estates Land Act; that evidence tendered was not admissible, that on the plaintiffs' evidence there is no evidence for the defendant to answer; in a libel suit that there is no proof of publication. 45 M. 900=69 Ind. Cas. 828; see also 2 Pat. L. J. 398=41 Ind. Cas. 202; 61 Ind. Cas. 829=13 L. W. 54; 48 M. L. J. 100=86 Ind. Cas. 548; A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 1159; A. I. R. 1935 Pat. 49; A. I. R. 1935 Rang. 34. In a mortgage suit the question whether plaintiff is entitled to an unconditional decree for possession or one subject to defendant's right to redeem is a preliminary point. A. I. R. 1930 Mad. 1017=60 M. L. J. 72. Decision as to rejection of evidence in order to make it a decision on a preliminary point within Order XXI, r. 23, must be found to have restricted the trial of the suit. A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 991. Dismissal of suit on the ground of the inadmissibility of document is dismissal on a preliminary point. A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 592; see also 5 P. L. J. 410. Where a suit is remanded for retrial on amended plaint the remand is on a preliminary point. A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 196=100 Ind. Cas. 42. Where Court records findings on all issues but dismissing suit as not maintainable the disposal is on preliminary point. 4 P. L. J. 645=52 Ind. Cas. 125. The expression "in disposed of the suit on a preliminary point" means disposed of the whole suit on a preliminary point only. 57 Ind. Cas. 800. Where the death of one defendant is brought to the notice of the Court, but the Court continued the suit and passes a decree without legal representative, the Court must be deemed to have disposed of the suit on a preliminary point justifying a remand under rule 23. 74 Ind. Cas. 682=5 Lah. L. J. 187. Appellate Court can remand suit if lower Court overlooks defendants' plea of subsisting tenancy. 38 A. 533=14 A. L. J. 734. Where the lower Court has admitted inadmissible evidence the proper procedure for the Appellate Court is to remand the case. 55 Ind. Cas. 922; see also 34 C. L. J. 205. A case decided on a wrong view of s. 107 and s. 108 of the Evidence Act should be remanded to the Court, as a case of wrong disposal on preliminary point. 22 Bom. L. R. 771=57 Ind. Cas. 525. No remand is justifiable where plaintiff fails to prove documents. A. I. R. 1937 Lah. 454. Where a trial Court disposes of a suit completely on merits the Appellate Court is not justified under rule 23 to direct remand upon grounds which do not arise from the pleadings. 119 Ind. Cas. 2. A preliminary point when determined in favour of the plaintiff, permits the progress of the suit, but when determined against him concludes it. A. I. R. 1930 Nag. 295=128 Ind. Cas. 407. A preliminary point must be decided as a preliminary point at the earliest stage of the suit. A. I. R. 1930 All. 863=128 Ind. Cas. 827. Where Court appears to have decided every issue, the fact that its decision on a preliminary point covers the decision on the remaining points does not justify its being held that the decision was only on a preliminary point. A. I. R. 1924 Oudh 97=74 Ind. Cas. 582. A preliminary point within the meaning of Order 41, rule 23, is any point the decision of which avoids the necessity for the full hearing of the suit. 151 Ind. Cas. 947=A. I. R. 1934 Pat. 13. Where a case has been decided by the lower Court wholly on merits and not on any preliminary point, the case must be remanded by the Appellate Court under rule 25 and not under rule 23. 151 Ind. Cas. 493=36 P. L. R. 269=A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 576. Even under this rule no case should be remanded for second decision by the trial Court which can be finally disposed of by the first Appellate Court. 31 N. L. R. (Supp) 72=165 Ind. Cas. 202=A. I. R. 1936 Nag. 8. Where the Judge of an Appellate Court allows an appeal on a preliminary point of law which necessitates the remand of the suit for further trial or retrial of the suit he should refrain from making any remarks in his judgment. Concerning the merits of the claim, as by so doing, he must necessarily prejudice the further trial or new trial on remand. A. I. R. 1936 Rang. 251=163 Ind. Cas. 397. This rule is applicable where a Court decides a case on a preliminary point. A. I. R. 1935 Rang. 123.

Appeal.—An order of remand can be appealed against only if it is made under Order XLI, rule 23 i. e., where the trial Court has disposed of the suit on a preliminary point and not if it is made under s. 151. A. I. R. 1929 Mad. 205=119 Ind. Cas. 705; see also A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 221=30 P. L. R. 645=119 Ind. Cas. 330; A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 753=110 Ind. Cas. 748; A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 341=107 Ind. Cas. 284; A. I. R. 1922 Mad. 112=45 M. 449=42 M. L. J. 372=30 M. L. T. 217=68 Ind. Cas. 869; A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 1200=110 Ind. Cas. 692. Rule 23 applies only to cases where the whole suit has been determined upon a preliminary point and not to cases where a portion only of the suit has been so decided and reversed on appeal. A. I. R. 1926 Pat. 514=8 P. L. T. 9=97 Ind. Cas. 1. No appeal lies from remand order where trial Court disposes of all issues. 1926 M. W. N. 48=92 Ind. Cas. 1045. Order of rejection of plaint set aside by Appellate Court is not an order under this rule and is not appealable. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 83=108 Ind. Cas. 597. Where the Appellate Court decides the main point and remands the case for disposal of the remaining issues, the decision is not one on a preliminary point and is not appealable. 12 L. W. 667=60 Ind. Cas. 609. Where the remanding judgment clearly adjudicates upon the rights of the parties in regard to certain matters in controversy between them, it has all the force of a decree and is appealable as such. A. I. R. 1928 Nag. 68=105 Ind. Cas. 567. Where trial Court dismissed suit without entering into merits on ground of defect in description of defendant and the Appellate Court directed amendment of plaint and remanded case and Court-fee on appeal was ordered to be refunded, Appellate Court's order was held one of remand. A. I. R. 1925 Cal. 716=52 C. 783=29 C. W. N. 614=93 Ind. Cas. 426. An appeal from an order of an Appellate Court under rule 23 does lie in all cases except where absolutely no right of second appeal is given in the body of the Court or by any other law. A. I. R. 1922 Lah. 178=3 Lah. 218=4 Lah. L. J. 359 (F. B.)=68 Ind. Cas. 849. An order of remand by an Appellate Court which is such in form and in substance, though irregular, is order under rule 23. A. I. R. 1925 Cal. 1258=42 C. L. J. 22=30 C. W. N. 41=89 Ind. Cas. 744; see also A. I. R. 1922 Cal. 279=80 Ind. Cas. 172; 71 Ind. Cas. 204=A. I. R. 1923 Mad. 331=17 L. W. 159; 64 Ind. Cas. 878=44 A. 176=19 A. L. J. 971. The policy of the Legislature being not to allow a second appeal on facts, an appellant coming in appeal under Order 43, rule 1 (u), cannot question findings of fact in this Court. 59 Ind. Cas. 715=31 P. W. R. 1921=36 P. L. R. 1919. If a Court purports to pass an order of remand under Order 41, rule 23, even if the order is wrongly passed under that rule, an appeal lies from the order. 31 N. L. R. (Supp) 72=160 Ind. Cas. 202=A. I. R. 1936 Nag. 8. A distinction has to be drawn between an order of remand under Order 41, rule 23 and an order under rule 25, remitting issues for decision. An order under rule 25 does not amount an "order remanding a case", within Order 43, rule 1 (u) and is not therefore appealable. A. I. R. 1935 Oudh 333=1935 O. W. N. 352=154 Ind. C. 676.

Revision.—Where order of remand is not justified High Court can interfere in revision. A. I. R. 1930 All. 863=128 Ind. Cas. 827; A. I. R. 1925 Mad. 171=79

Ind. Cas. 857. An order of remand finally disposing of matter before Court is revisable. A. I. R. 1926 All. 55=48 A. 27=23 A. L. J. 891=89 Ind. Cas. 409. Where both parties have no evidence to offer on points in issues and trial Court decides case on admissions order of Appellate Court allowing fresh questions to be raised and remanding case for fresh evidence can be set aside in revision. A. I. R. 1929 Mad. 205=119 Ind. Cas. 705.

24. [S. 565.] Where the evidence upon the record is sufficient to enable the Appellate Court to pronounce judgment, the Appellate Court may, after re-settling the issues, if necessary, finally determine the suit notwithstanding that the judgment of the Court from whose decree the appeal is preferred has proceeded wholly upon some ground other than that on which the Appellate Court proceeds.

Notes.—First Appellate Court can consider question of relevancy of document though the question was not raised in the trial Court. A. I. R. 1928 Cal. 512=109 Ind. Cas. 26.

25. [S. 566.] Where the Court from whose decree the appeal is preferred has omitted to frame or try any issue, or to determine any question of fact, which appears to the Appellate Court essential to the right decision of the suit upon the merits, the Appellate Court may, if necessary, frame issues, and refer the same for trial to the Court from whose decree the appeal is preferred, and in such case shall direct such Court to take the additional evidence required ; and such Court shall proceed to try such issues and shall return the evidence to the Appellate Court together with its findings thereon and the reasons therefor.

Scope.—Under Order 41, when the Appellate Court is of opinion that certain findings of fact are necessary for the proper disposal of appeal and that evidence should be led on these points the proper procedure is under rule 25 and partly under rule 26 by calling for further findings. A. I. R. 1929 Bom. 175=53 B. 335. Appellate Court can frame additional issues and remand a case. A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 984. Where trial Court does not come to a finding on a point considering it to be unnecessary for it to do so, lower Appellate Court is not bound to remand the case but can legally come to any finding of fact on the point. A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 535=110 Ind. Cas. 548. Where Appellate Court is of opinion that parties should be allowed to adduce evidence on certain issue not tried by trial Court, the proper procedure is to make order under rule 25. 110 Ind. Cas. 444. The order of remand, on the ground that the Court wrongly decided necessary issue on plea of res judicata not raised, and without considering evidence is under rule 25. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 376=29 P. L. R. 270. Where lower Appellate Court has omitted to determine question of facts essential to right decision, High Court can frame necessary issues and refer them for trial. 43 M. 567=35 C. W. N. 485=22 Bom. L. R. 578=18 A. L. J. 707 (P. C.). Remand of specific issues under rule 25 is open to reconsideration. 25 O. C. 189=69 Ind. Cas. 730. Where plaintiff fails to produce evidence that is necessary to establish his right in trial Court, remand cannot be granted. 71 Ind. Cas. 284.

Remand order does not take away Appellate Court's seizin of the case. A. I. R. 1932 Rang. 137=10 Rang. 335. In first appeal the High Court can investigate facts in interest of justice. A. I. R. 1932 Pat. 286=11 Pat. 513. Where important evidence has been disregarded by lower Court, case should be remanded. A. I. R. 1933 Pat. 472. Where party knew but failed to discharge, remand is not proper though issue is not clear. A. I. R. 1932 Lah. 293=32 P. L. R. 861. Appellate Court cannot make new case and remand the suit. A. I. R. 1933 All. 829=17 R. D. 775. As regards whether a remand is under rule 23 or rule 25, vide A. I. R. 1933 Oudh 560. Appointment of Commissioner by Appellate Court to examine accounts and to give findings on mixed questions of fact and law is irregular. The proper course is to frame issue and refer it to trial Court under Order 41, rule 25. 35 C. W. N. 841=33 Bom. L. R. 988=A. I. R. 1931 P. C. 136 (P. C.). Under Order 41, rule 25, case stands pending during appeal and before final judgment. Court may give different consideration before final judgment. 46 Ind. Cas. 922 ; see also 24 C. W. N. 145=30 C. L. J. 428=54 Ind. Cas. 700. Exercise of power of remand is within the discretion of the Appellate Court. 67 Ind. Cas. 244. Where Appellate Court finds that parties failed to grasp essential questions and adduce evidence, adequately, it can frame new issues and remand them for trial. 66 Ind. Cas. 833 ; see also 34 C. L. J. 160=26 C. W. N. 1022. Court to which case is remanded must give opportunity to both parties to produce evidence. 19 A. L. J. 79=62 Ind. Cas. 447. In case of remand under rule 25, the Appellate Court can re consider the view of the law on which the remand was based. 63 Ind. Cas. 242. Suit should not be remanded unless omitted issue is likely to affect final result of suit. 27 O. C. 383=80 Ind. Cas. 591=A. I. R. 1925 Oudh 97. Where issues though necessary is not framed case should not be remanded but issue referred for taking additional evidence and for returning case with findings. 78 Ind. Cas. 1=A. I. R. 1925 Mad. 169. It cannot be affirmed broadly that when order has been made under rule 25, the Court called upon to determine the appeal finally under Order 41, rule 26, is competent to treat the order as erroneously made, when an order has been made under rule 25, the appeal remains pending and undisposed of on the file of the Court. The order, till it has been set aside in an appropriate proceeding must be treated as an interlocutory one which is operative in law. If the order had been made under Order 41, rule 23, its propriety would not have been challenged in an appeal against the final decree made after remand. The same principle is applicable to order under Order XLI, rule 25, subject to the reservation that as the appeal remains pending, the alternate decision must be based upon a consideration of all the findings before and after the order under Order XLI, rule 25. The evidence and findings become part of the record in the suit and the Court proceeds to determine the appeal, such determination must be based upon all the materials on the record. A. I. R. 1923 Cal. 521=37 C. L. J. 122=74 Ind. Cas. 392.

Where High Court remits certain issues to lower Appellate Court and that Court in its turn remits those issues to the subordinate Court, the procedure is wrong. A. I. R. 1924 Lah. 354=71 Ind. Cas. 895 ; A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 769=102 Ind. Cas. 273. Where lower Appellate Court fails to determine issues, case should be remanded to that Court for determining issues according to law. A. I. R. 1929 Pat. 98=10 P. L. T. 10=115 Ind. Cas. 674.

An order of remand made under this rule decides nothing, and the reasons that the Court gives for its support are given merely for its own convenience and for helping the lower Court to proceed rightly in carrying out order. The Court either the same or differently constituted, when determining the appeal finally has ample jurisdiction to go back on the views as expressed in the order of remand passed under Order XLI, rule 25. The finding or decision of a Division Bench of a High Court in remanding a case is not conclusive and it can be re-opened at the final determination of the appeal. A. I. R. 1928 Cal. 186=47 C. L. J. 112=32 C. W. N. 1233=107 Ind. Cas. 730. Appellate Court reversing decision on one issue cannot remand whole case for retrial. Remand can only be made under Order XLI, rule 25. A. I. R. 1927 Bom. 111=29 Bom. L. R. 56=100 Ind. Cas. 578. Where though the case is remitted twice but the lower Court does not determine the issue High Court can remand the case even a third time for that purpose. A. I. R. 1922 P. C. 292=45 M. 536=16 L. W. 102=49 I. A. 286=37 C. L. J. 199=27 C. W. N. 245 (P. C.)=68 Ind. Cas. 538. Dismissal of suit is improper where on appeal against decree in partition suit, Appellate Court remands suit for fresh disposal as regards appellant. 22 P. L. R. 1918=44 P. W. R. 1918=44 Ind. Cas. 135. Where issues are remanded to lower Appellate Court it may ask trial Court to record evidence but the finding must be recorded by the lower Appellate Court itself. 9 S. L. R. 148=32 Ind. Cas. 634. Record of Rights being published after decision is no ground for admitting additional evidence. Remand should not be had where Court has considered and understood evidence. 43 Ind. Cas. 750=2 Pat. L. J. 564. Even if an Appellate Court be deemed competent to remit a case for re-hearing on an issue not raised in pleadings, this ought only to be done in exceptional cases. 66 Ind. Cas. 647=34 C. L. J. 319=A. I. R. 1921 Cal. 509. The High Court can on second appeal remand case for findings even on points not taken in the grounds of appeal. The finding of the lower Appellate Court on a question of fact not put in issue can be challenged in second appeal. A. I. R. 1921 Lah. 256=85 Ind. Cas. 92.

Order wrongly remitting issue to trial Court though not appealable can be reversed when appeal from decree of lower Appellate Court is heard and determined. A. I. R. 1927 Oudh 499=4 O. W. N. 958=105 Ind. Cas. 410. Where an issue is necessary for fair disposal of a case but parties are not prejudiced by omission, suit will not be remanded. A. I. R. 1927 All. 410=100 Ind. Cas. 650. Where Appellate Court frames additional issues and remand case reversing decree instead of calling for finding retaining case on its file remand order is not appealable either under Order XLIII, rule 1 (u) or under s. 100, it not being a decree within s. 2. A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 850=55 C. 219=47 C. L. J. 69=103 Ind. Cas. 864. Where decision of trial Court is reversed in appeal and additional issues are remitted to trial Court, remand not being remand on preliminary point is not appealable under Order XLI, r. 23. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 695=23 L. W. 540=95 Ind. Cas. 325. Appeal does not lie from order of remand under rule 25. A. I. R. 1924 Rang. 131=76 Ind. Cas. 816=2 Bur. L. J. 216. The High Court has power under second appeals to frame issues and refer them for trial to the first Court. A. I. R. 1934 Nag. 207. An appeal does not lie from an order remitting a certain issue to the trial Court under Order 41, rule 25. 4 P. W. R. 1120. Where a case is remanded under rule 25, it is not open to a Court of second appeal to examine the facts, except in so far as it is empowered to do so under s. 103, and it is immaterial whether the first Court takes the evidence or the lower Appellate Court. A. I. R. 1936 Nag. 140.

Findings and evidence to be put on record. Objections to finding.

26. [S. 587.] (1) Such evidence and findings shall form part of the record in the suit, and either party may, within a time to be fixed by the Appellate Court present a memorandum of objections to any finding.

(2) After the expiration of the period so fixed for presenting such memorandum the Appellate Court shall proceed to determine the appeal.

Notes—Appellate Court must give decisions on issues even though findings have not been objected. 40 Ind. Cas. 405. Court may not hear at hearing objections to memorandum of objections which have not been filed. 3 Lah. L. J. 230=67 Ind. Cas. 846. No Court-fee is payable on memorandum of objections filed under rule 26. A. I. R. 1928 Pat. 85.

27. [S. 588] (1) The parties to an appeal shall not be entitled to produce additional evidence, whether oral or documentary, in the Appellate Court, but if—

(a) the Court from whose decree the appeal is preferred has refused to admit evidence which ought to have been admitted, or

(b) the Appellate Court requires any document to be produced or any witness to be examined to enable it to pronounce judgment, or for any other substantial cause, the appellate Court may allow such evidence or document to be produced, or witness to be examined.

(2) Wherever additional evidence is allowed to be produced, by an Appellate Court, the Court shall record the reasons for its admission.

Notes.—Additional evidence is allowed not for benefit of party but when evidence recorded is defective. 1 P. L. J. 435=37 Ind. Cas. 1008; see also 57 Ind. Cas. 843; 54 Ind. Cas. 666; 53 Ind. Appellate Court can allow production of evidence. 2 Pat. 676=50 I. A. 183=25 Bom. L. R. 1252=28 C. W. N. 277 (P. C.). Additional evidence must be allowed where justice demands it. A. I. R. 1930 Oudh 110=6 O. W. N. 1060. The language of rule 27 is very strict and it is only whether the Appellate Court "requires" it that additional evidence can be admitted. Where it does not require it to enable it to pronounce judgment or for any other substantial cause additional evidence cannot be admitted. 147 Ind. Cas. 339=A. I. R. 1934 All. 175; see also A. I. P. Code, it must record its reason for doing so ; and it is only when the Court itself requires additional evidence and finds it needful in order to pronounce judgment for any other substantial cause, that such evidence can be admitted. 38 C. This power should be used very sparingly in second appeal. 18 R. D. 665. In the absence of any lacuna in the evidence as it stands on the record, the Appellate Court will be going out of its way if it summons additional evidence in an appeal for the sole purpose of comparison of handwriting and signature in documents. It is not within the power of the Appellate Court to admit evidence which might have been produced in the lower Court, merely because the Court has drawn an adverse inference from the non-production of such evidence, more especially in the absence of special circumstances explaining such non-production at the proper time. 159 Ind. Where the lower Court has not refused to admit evidence which is tendered in appeal and when the Appellate Court is not unable to pronounce judgment in the absence of additional evidence, there is no reason which would justify the Appellate Court in admitting evidence in appeal. 70 M. was passed liable under the order passed by the Appellate Court. A. I. R. 1926 Cal. 335=30 C. W. N. 45=90 Ind. Cas. 986. Under this rule it is competent to the Appellate Court to vary the decree. A. I. R. 1937 Cal. 10. A technical mistake can be rectified under this rule. A. I. R. 1937 All. 401.

While Order 41, rule 33, C. P. Code, authorises the Appellate Court to pass a decree in favour of a party who has not been heard, it does not authorise the Court to pass a decree against a person who is not a party to the appeal. The powers under the rule cannot be exercised to the detriment or prejudice of a person who is not given a hearing. 61 C. 919. Under this rule, the Appellate Court has power to deal with a case in such a manner as to adjust the rights of all the parties concerned. 59 C. L. J. 318. This rule ought not to be applied to cases where there has been distinct and separate decree against the defendants who have not chosen to appeal. A. I. R. 1934 Pat. 524=150 Ind. Cas. 784. The Appellate Court under rule 33 records the compromise and gives a decree in terms of it. 15 L. R. 14 (Rev.). Order 41, rule 22, does not enable a respondent as a matter of right to urge cross-objections against another respondent, though the very wide discretion given by rule 33 will entitle the Court, in exceptional case where justice requires it, to entertain objections by one respondent against another. A. I. R. 1934 Pat. 134=13 Pat. 200=15 Pat. L. T. 42. It is open to an Appellate Court to grant relief to a party by way of a perpetual injunction, which has been refused by the trial Court although there is no appeal or cross-objection by that party on the point. 63 C. 1008=40 C. W. N. 916=63 C. L. J. 210. Where an appeal is filed by the defendant, the Court in a proper case can grant a relief to the plaintiff respondent, which was refused by the lower Court even when against that finding there is neither appeal nor cross-appeal by the respondent. 40 C. W. N. 1397; but see 39 C. W. N. 420=A. I. R. 1935 Cal. 458. Addition of party after expiry of limitation by lower Appellate Court is not proper. A. I. R. 1935 Rang. 364=159 Ind. Cas. 186. Very wide powers are given to the Appellate Court by this rule. A. I. R. 1935 Lah. 378=158 Ind. Cas. 71. Where one of the two appeals from a decree is found to be time-barred, and the appellants in that appeal, who happen to be respondents in the other appeal, seek under this rule whatever relief is given to the appellants in the second appeal, but the interest of each of the appellants is distinct and independent, such relief cannot be granted. A. I. R. 1935 Lah. 889.

Rule 33 does not authorise modification of decree in favour of a person not a party to appeal. A. I. R. 1926 Nag. 135=89 Ind. Cas. 803. Where suit is decreed as against the first two defendants but dismissed as against the third defendant and the first two defendants appealing but the plaintiff did not, the Appellate Court can pass a decree against the 3rd. defendant alone exonerating the first two defendants. A. I. R. 1925 All. 555=47 All. 597=23 A. L. J. 501=88 Ind. Cas. 438.

Court will not apply rule 33 in favour of party who has appealed or filed cross-objections and failed without strong reasons. A. I. R. 1925 Lah. 2=17 P. W. R. 1923=79 Ind. Cas. 670. Where only one of the defendants appeals from a decree, Appellate Court is quite competent to set aside the whole decree although the other defendant had not appealed. 75 Ind. Cas. 946=A. I. R. 1924 Pat. 336=(1923) Pat. 332; see also 32 Ind. Cas. 491=22 C. L. J. 391. Appellate Court is enabled to deal with the entire decree although the appeal may be as to a part of the decree, and also to give directions in favour of parties who have actually not filed any appeal or objection. 79 Ind. Cas. 794=3 Pat. 327=5 P. L. T. 21. Save when it is necessary in the interest of justice to give effect to the Appellate Court's decision by interfering in some way or other with the rights of those parties which are not the subject of appeal before the Appellate Court there is no right whatever in the Appellate Court to interfere. 82 Ind. Cas. 984=A. I. R. 1925 Pat. 285=4 Pat. 37. Court cannot exercise its discretionary power under rule 20 or under rule 33 to add new respondents to an appeal after the period of limitation for filing an appeal has elapsed and the lower Court's decree has become res judicata. A. I. R. 1925 Rang. 108=2 Rang. 541=3 Bur. L. J. 259=84 Ind. Cas. 522; 32 C. W. N. 281=A. I. R. 1927 P. C. 252. Rule 33 enables the Court to do complete justice between the parties to the appeal. Court may grant relief to the respondent although he has not filed an appeal or preferred an objection. A. I. R. 1928 All. 77=50 All. 218=25 A. L. J. 1017=108 Ind. Cas. 728.

Rule 33 should not be construed too widely, lest it lead to an abrogation of the rule of C. P. Code, the Court Fees Act and the Limitation Act. It should be limited to cases where in interfering on behalf of the appellant it becomes necessary to alter the decree in favour of the respondent or respondents against other respondents lest injustice result. This rule does not give a right to a respondent to urge something in his favour against another respondent who has nothing to do with the result of the appeal, without his filing an appeal or memorandum of objections himself. A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 620=50 M. 614=52 M. L. J. 612=25 L. W. 699=103 Ind. Cas. 394 ; see also A. I. R. 1929 All. 195=107 Ind. Cas. 569.

Where one of the alternative reliefs has been refused by the lower Court, the Appellate Court for the ends of justice can refuse that relief and can grant the relief which has been refused by the lower Court. A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 831=46 C. L. J. 247=105 Ind. Cas. 600. Ordinarily the powers contained in rule 33 are limited to those cases where as a result of the Appellate Court's interference with a decree in favour of the appellant, a further interference is required in order to adjust the rights of the parties in accordance with justice, equity and good conscience. A. I. R. 1926 Cal. 57=89 Ind. Cas. 24. Court has power to consider the circumstances subsequent to the decree appealed from. A. I. R. 1925 Nag. 251=8 N. L. J. 14=95 Ind. Cas. 371. Where only one plaintiff appeals against the dismissal of a suit Court has power to set aside the entire decree and grant relief to all the plaintiffs. A. I. R. 1926 All. 425=94 Ind. Cas. 315. Appellate Court has power to vary the decree appealed against where there is a common defence even in favour of persons who have not appealed but who were parties to the suit. 94 Ind. Cas. 347=1927 All. 37=24 A. L. J. 586. The omission on the part of the party to file a memorandum of objections praying for the amendment of the decree when Appellate Court has cognizance of the case, does not affect the party's inherent right to have a decree in accordance with the judgment passed in his favour. A. I. R. 1925 Mad. 735=49 M. L. J. 385=88 Ind. Cas. 828. Appellate Court can give any judgment and make any order which ought to have been made, and to make such further or other order as the case may require under rule 33 although the appeal may be from a part of the judgment only, and although the respondent may not complain of the decision. A. I. R. 1926 Oudh 304=13 O. L. J. 648=3 O. W. N. 299=95 Ind. Cas. 957 ; see also 45 C. L. J. 119=30 C. W. N. 885=A. I. R. 1926 Cal. 1042=96 Ind. Cas. 474. In a mortgage suit, Appellate Court is at liberty under this rule to make a decree for sale of the mortgaged property, including the part of it in which some of the other defendants are interested against all the defendants if they are all parties before it. A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 349=52 M. L. J. 135. Rule 33 is not applicable where a person is a party to a suit but not made party to the decree. A. I. R. 1926 Lah. 497=8 Lah. L. J. 333=27 P. L. R. 576=97 Ind. Cas. 338. Where no appeal is filed by party against whom a decree has been passed nor cross-objections when the opponent files an appeal, he cannot be allowed to dispute the decision of the Court below against him. A. I. R. 1927 Bom. 128=28 Bom. L. R. 627=93 Ind. Cas. 383.

34. [S 576.] Where the appeal is heard by more Judges than one, any

Dissent to be recorded. Court shall state in writing the decision or order which he thinks should be passed on the appeal, and he may state his reasons for the same.

(3) The decree shall also state the amount of costs incurred, in the appeal, and by whom, or out of what property, and in what proportions such costs and the costs in the suit are to be paid.

(4) The decree shall be signed and dated by the Judge or Judges who passed it :

Provided that where there are more Judges than one and there is a difference of opinion among them, it shall not be necessary for any Judge dissenting from the judgment of the Court to sign the decree.

Copies of judgment and decree to be furnished to parties.

37. [S. 581] A copy of the judgment and of the decree, certified by the Appellate Court or such officer as it appoints in this behalf, shall be sent to the Court which passed the decree appealed from and shall be filed with the original proceedings in the suit, and an entry of the judgment of the Appellate Court shall be made in the register of civil suits.

Scope of the rule.—"We suggest that there should be appeals from orders pronouncing judgment against a party under Order VIII, r. 10 ; Order X, r. 4 and Or. XVI, r. 20. These orders are under the present law appealable as decrees, but having regard to the definition of a decree under the Code they would no longer be appealable in the way, and we think it is necessary to make them appealable as orders. We have also given an appeal against an order made under rule 21 of Order XI."—Report of the Select Committee. There can be no doubt that the right of appeal is a creature of statute, and when such right is expressly conferred by the statute, there is no right of appeal. A. I. R. 1936 Cal. 485=63 C. L. J. 277=40 C. W. N. 992. Section 104 of the C. P. Code conferred a right of appeal only in respect of orders specified in that section or in Order 43, rule 1. 58 M. 814=157 Ind. Cas. 1012=1935 M. W. N. 582=41 L. W. 811=A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 609=69 M. L. J. 99. Appeal can lie on a portion of the order if the order itself is appealable. A. I. R. 1922 All. 92=20 A. L. J. 11=44 A. 209=64 Ind. Cas. 932.

Clause (a).—An order under rule 10 of Order VII by a Court of first instance returning a plaint to be presented to the proper Court is appealable under this order. 2 A. 357 ; 4 A. 478 ; 53 Ind. Cas. 1001=23 C. W. N. 942 ; 47 Ind. Cas. 7. Similarly an appeal is competent where such order is passed by a Court of first appeal. 25 A. 174 (F. B.) ; see also 26 C. 275=3 C. W. N. 243 ; 19 A. L. J. 305=62 Ind. Cas. 399 ; 79 Ind. Cas. 1024 ; 52 Ind. Cas. 801=46 C. 738 ; 97 Ind. Cas. 790=51 M. L. J. 119=A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 900 ; 22 Ind. Cas. 614=36 A. 58 ; 1 L. B. R. 32 ; but see A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 839=128 Ind. Cas. 491. An order returning a memorandum of appeal for presentation to the proper Court does not come within this rule and therefore is not appealable. 31 C. 344 ; 13 A. 320=11 A. W. N. 96 ; 63 Ind. Cas. 951=A. I. R. 1921 All. 177=19 A. L. J. 868=63 Ind. Cas. 951 ; 56 Ind. Cas. 865=2 Lah. L. J. 366 ; A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 832=31 P. L. R. 536=128 Ind. Cas. 491 ; 47 Ind. Cas. 16=16 A. L. J. 630=42 A. 659. No appeal lies from an order rejecting a plaint under Order VII, rule 11, when based on a question of valuation. 4 Pat. L. J. 57=49 Ind. Cas. 412. An order rejecting or returning an application for leave to sue in forma pauperis on the ground that the Court has no jurisdiction does not fall under this sub-clause and as such is not appealable. 158 Ind. Cas. 1012=1935 M. W. N. 1135=42 L. W. 647=A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 1043. Plaintiff does not lose his right of appeal against an order returning a plaint by filing it in the Court to which he is directed. 34 M. L. J. 397=41 M. 721=45 Ind. Cas. 89. An order returning the plaint under rule 10 of Order VII, is appealable under Order XLIII, rule 1 clause (a) and as the order passed by the Appellate Court becomes final under s. 104, clause (2), section 105, does not preclude the aggrieved party from disputing the correctness of the remand order in second appeal if he is otherwise entitled to do so. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 900=51 M. L. J. 119=97 Ind. Cas. 790. An application for a decree under Order 34, rule 6, cannot be considered to come under "plaint" and consequently an appeal does not lie under Order 43, rule 1 (a) from order returning such application to be presented to the proper Court. 1931 A. L. J. 893=A. I. R. 1931 All. 192.

Clause (c).—Where on dismissal of a suit for default of appearance, the plaintiff applied for restoration of the suit, and his application for restoration was dismissed for non-prosecution, the order of dismissal of the application is one under Order 9, rule 9 and an appeal therefore lies against that order to the District Judge under this sub-rule. 1936 A. L. J. 305=A. I. R. 1936 All. 737. This sub rule applies only in cases when a suit has been dismissed. While the order dismissing the petitioner's first application remains in force, no fresh application can be made to set aside the dismissal of the suit. The order dismissing the second application is not an order refusing to set aside the dismissal of a suit within the meaning of clause (c) of rule 1 of Order 43. 36 C. L. J. 184=69 Ind. Cas. 1003=A. I. R. 1922 Cal. 572. An application to set aside an ex parte decree was dismissed for default. An application was then made to have that dismissal set aside and for restoration of the original application, but that was dismissed on the merits. An appeal having been preferred against the latter order of dismissal: Held that no appeal lay under Order 43, rule 1(c). 58 Ind. Cas. 814=157 Ind. Cas. 1012=1935 M. W. N. 582=41 L. W. 811=A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 609=69 M. L. J. 99. Although an order rejecting an application under Order 9, rule 9, is open to appeal under this sub-rule, an order allowing such an application is not open to appeal. A. I. R. 1934 Oudh 491=11 O. W. N. 1373=152 Ind. Cas. 110. Where the plaintiff's application under Order IX, rule 9, is rejected on the ground of previous dismissal under Order XVII, rule 3 and not under Order XVII, rule 2, the plaintiff can appeal against it under Order XLIII, rule 1. A. I. R. 1923 Pat. 223=4 Pat. L. T. 46=73 Ind. Cas. 373. A dismissal of suit for default comes under Order IX, rule 8 and the dismissal of application for restoration is appealable under Order XLIII, r. 1(c). 2 U. P. L. R. (A) 288=57 Ind. Cas. 245. An order of dismissal of an application for restoration of the application, dismissed in default, for restoration of the suit, dismissed in default is appealable. A. I. R. 1923 Nag. 293=19 N. L. R. 119=75 Ind. Cas. 589. An appeal lies from an order of a Judge of the High Court in original jurisdiction rejecting an application under Order IX, rule 9 for the restoration of a suit dismissed for default. 20 C. W. N. 594=23 C. L. J. 443=43 C. 857=34 Ind. Cas. 634. "Case open to appeal" need not be necessarily construed only with reference to the decree and to no other order. A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 909=55 M. L. J. 262=29 L. W. 490=112 Ind. Cas. 691. An application to set aside a sale is a suit within clause (c). 20 C. W. N. 1203=33 Ind. Cas. 80. The words are perfectly general and they mean whether the case is open to appeal and not whether an appeal can be successfully prosecuted against the decree. 14 A. L. J. 332=38 A. 297=33 Ind. Cas. 80. No appeal lies from an order dismissing for default, an application to set aside the dismissal of a suit under Order IX, rule 9 as it is not covered by rule 1(c) of Order XLIII. A. I. R. 1928 Pat. 336=7 Pat. 333=9 P. L. T. 669=109 Ind. Cas. 264. Where an application to set aside a decree is dismissed for default and the Court refuses to set aside the order of dismissal and restore the application, no appeal lies against the order. A. I. R. 1922 All. 337=20 A. L. J. 519=67 Ind. Cas. 320. No appeal lies from an order rejecting an application to set aside the dismissal of an application for restoration of a suit dismissed in default. 28 N. L. R. 83=139 Ind. Cas. 296=A. I. R. 1932 Nag. 101.

Clause (d)—The words of Order 43, rule 1 (d), are perfectly general. The words "in a case open to appeal" have no reference to the appeal against the decree actually passed. If there could be no appeal against a decree that could be passed in the suit or proceeding under any circumstances, there would be no appeal against an order refusing to set aside an ex parte decree passed in such a suit or proceeding. A case is not open to appeal within the meaning of this sub-rule when no appeal would lie against a decree under any circumstance. 63 C. L. J. 277=40 C. W. N. 992=A. I. R. 1936 Cal. 485. Under clause (d), an appeal lies against an order under rule 13 of Order IX rejecting an application (in a case open to appeal) for an order to set aside a decree passed ex parte. A. I. R. 1934 Rang. 202=149 Ind. Cas. 777=6 R. R. 325; see also 2 B. 644; A. I. R. 1927 Pat. 240=101 Ind. Cas. 753=6 Pat. 474=8 P. L. T. 604. An order refusing to set aside an ex parte preliminary decree in a mortgage-suit is appealable though a final decree has been passed before the filing of the appeal. A. I. R. 1928 Cal 721=48 C. L. J. 28=32 C. W. N. 858=117 Ind. Cas. 557. An order rejecting the application for an order to set aside a decree passed ex parte is appealable on ground that the conditions which lawfully imposed on the defendants are not complied with. A. An appeal lies from an order dismissing for default an application to set aside an ex parte decree. 36 Ind. Cas. 798. An order setting aside an ex parte decree passed in a resumption suit, although not appealable under rule 1, is appealable under the Oudh Rent. Act. 3 O. L. J. 229=34 Ind. Cas. 702. An appeal lies to the District Judge only when an application lies to the Court of first instance under Order IX, rule 13. A. I. R. 1925 All. 267=47 A. 140=85 Ind. Cas. 470. Rejecting an application in Order XLIII, rule 1(d), implies an immediate rejection and not a conditional or prospective rejection, i. e., an order imposing a condition before setting aside. 6 L. W. 757=43 Ind. Cas. 1. An appeal from the ex parte decree is no bar to appeal from an order rejecting an application for setting aside the ex parte decree. A. I. R. 1924 Lah. 224=72 Ind. Cas. 900. In an appeal from an order rejecting an application to set aside ex parte decree, the Appellate Court cannot transgress the provisions of Order IX, rule 13 for reasons for setting aside the decree. A. I. R. 1925 All. 610=24 A. L. J. 56=48 A. 175=90 Ind. Cas. 180. Where a Munsiff rejects the application to set aside the ex parte decree passed by a Munsiff, having small cause powers, who is succeeded by former who had no small cause powers, no appeal lies to the District Judge. 65 Ind. Cas. 967=A. I. R. 1922 All. 50=20 A. L. J. 208. An order purporting to be made under Order IX, rule 13, dismissing an application for restoration of an application to set aside an ex parte decree is not appealable. 49 Ind. Cas. 745. No appeal lies from an order granting an application under Order IX, rule 13. 17 A. L. J. 1052=52 Ind. Cas. 901. An order refusing to set aside a dismissal of a suit under Order IX, r. 4, is not appealable. 27 C. L. J. 117=43 Ind. Cas. 374. An order passed under Order IX, rule 9, dismissing for default, a petition to restore a suit dismissed for default is not appealable. 2 P. L. W. 221=2 P. L. J. 720=43 Ind. Cas. 54.

Clause (e).—This clause corresponds to clause (10) of old section 588. The order under s. 120 of the old Code from which an appeal was allowed by clause (10) of old section 588, was an order under the second paragraph of s. 120 passing a decree against the defaulting party. 3 O. C. 31. The sub-clause states that an appeal will lie against the order "pronouncing judgment against a party."

Clause (f).—Rule 21 of Order XI, corresponds to section 136 of the old Code. Under the old Code an order under s. 136 of the Code of Civil Procedure dismissing a suit, has been held to be decree, and as such is appealable. 6 C. L. J. 374; 19 B. 307; 7A. 159. R. 1936 Sind 59. Where the trial Court holds that a compromise has been arrived at between the parties, the proper procedure is to record a separate order recording the compromise and then to pass a decree in accordance with it. In such a case no appeal would lie against the decree but an appeal should lie against the order recording the compromise and a petition for revision would lie to the High Court against the appellate order. A. I. R. 1936 Lah. 963. An appeal lies on an order refusing to record a compromise under Order 23, rule 3, whatever the reasons of refusal may be. A. I. R. 1929 Nag. 275=12 N. L. J. 124=119 Ind. W. N. 1030=A. I. R. 1934 Oudh 417. The right of appeal under Order 43, rule 1, against an order recording a compromise under Order 23, rule 3, C. P. Code, is not lost because the decree involved in the order is not appealed against. It would be more correct to appeal against the decree, but if the order is set aside on appeal, the decree must go with it. 61 C. 910=59 C. L. J. 421=A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 846.

An unconditional attachment can be ordered under rule 6 only where attachment is unconditional it may be taken that the order is under rule 6 even though the Judge passing the order purports to have acted under rule 5 and such an order is appealable under Order 43, rule 1 (q). A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 445=107 Ind. Cas. 276. An order of attachment before judgment is appealable. 21 B. 273. Where in response to a notice issued to the defendant under Order 38, rule 5, defendant appears in Court and shows cause why no order for furnishing security for costs should be passed against him and why no order should be passed directing attachment of property, the order of the Court accepting the contention of the defendant is an order which falls under Order 38, rule 6 (2) and from such an order an appeal lies under Order 43, r. (1) (q). 140 Ind. Cas. 95=1932 A.L.J. 228=A.I.R. 1932 All. 269. An order made under the provisions of Order XXXVIII, rule 5, is not a "judgment" within the meaning of clause 13 of the Letters Patent, it being a mere interlocutory order and so no appeal lies from that order. A. I. R. 1925 Rang. 267=4 Bur. L. J. 108=3 Rang. 307=90 Ind. Cas. 995. The Court ought not to admit appeals from orders refusing injunction or attachment except in cases of serious misdirection in law or fact, when special directions might be given for expedition. 61 C. 814=38 C. W. N. 771=A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 694.

Clause (r).—An order granting an injunction and an order refusing an injunction are both appealable. An appeal lies from the refusal of a Judge of the original side of the High Court to grant an interim injunction, but what the Court of Appeal has to consider is simply whether or not the Judge who dealt with the matter properly exercised the discretion which he undoubtedly possessed. A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 713=152 Ind. Cas. 563; see also 61 C. 814=38 C. W. N. 771=A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 694.

I. R. 1922 Pat. 577=1 Pat. 625=4 P. L. T. 210=69 Ind. Cas. 929; 13 P. L. T. 525. The mere fact that an appointment of a Receiver is made ad interim does not mean that the order is not an order under Order 42, rule 1, C. P. Where property of a third party is interfered with an officer of the Court like the Receiver he may either apply to the Court for a summary order restraining the Receiver from interfering or he may with Court's permission sue the Receiver for the same relief. Where the party adopts the summary remedy the Order of the Court is an order under Order XL, rule 1 (b) and is appealable. A. I. R. 1923 Mad. 129=16 L. W. 833=69 Ind. Cas. 393. Where a Court passes an order passing the accounts submitted by the Receiver, an appeal lies. A. I. R. 1921 Bom. 427=45 B. 99=59 Ind. Cas. 421. Refusing to remove a Receiver already appointed is different from refusing to appoint a new Receiver. 78 Ind. Cas. 625=A. I. R. 1924 Mad. 614=46 M. L. J.

196=19 L. W. 247. Where a Receiver is appointed in execution of a mortgage decree overruling the objections of a third party, he cannot appeal but he can prefer a revision to the High Court. 45 Ind. Clause (u).—An appeal from an order of remand is maintainable if the point on which the lower Appellate Court determined the case is a preliminary point. A. I. R. 1930 Nag. 295=128 Ind. Cas. 407. A party prejudiced by an order of remand can appeal against such an order. But where a party has himself obtained an order of remand he cannot appeal merely because the ground covered by it is not so wide as that which he himself derived. A. I. R. 1929 Oudh 398=116 Ind. Cas. 55. An order of remand without jurisdiction, if it purports to be one under rule 23 of Order XLI, is appealable. A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 642=31 C. W. N. 878=104 Ind. Cas. 422. The lower Appellate Court accepted an appeal in part and remanded that part of the case for trial on the merits. The remaining case was dismissed. N. 1049=55 Ind. Cas. 95. Rule 1 (u) gives right of appeal against an order under Order XLI, rule 23, but applies only when the trial Court disposes of the suit on a preliminary point. Where the Appellate Court sets aside the trial Court's decree on the ground of non-joinder of a necessary party and remands the case for a fresh trial with the addition of such party, as this is not disposing of the suit on a preliminary point, so neither Order XLI, r. 23 nor Order 43, rule 1 (a), applies. Order XLI, rule 23, C. P. Code, does not contemplate a case decided upon the whole evidence and upon all the issues which were raised. The rule has no application to an order of remand on which no appeal lies. 1 P. L. T. 509=55 Ind. Cas. 484.

High Court is bound by the findings of fact in appeal from order under Order XLI, rule 23. A. I. R. 1921 Oudh 214=8 O. L. J. 624=65 Ind. Cas. 376; see also 48 Ind. Cas. 379=109 P. R. 1918=23 P. L. R. 1919. The lower Appellate Court made an order of remand under Order XLI, r. 23, remanding the case to the original Court, for the decision of remaining questions arising in the case. An appeal was preferred to the High Court: Held, appellant coming in appeal under Order XLIII, rule 1 (u), could not question findings of fact. A. I. R. 1922 Lah. 97=2 Lah. 25=36 P. L. R. 1921=58 P. L. R. 1921=59 Ind. Cas. 715. An order of remand not falling within Order XLI, r. 23, is not appealable under Order XLIII. A. I. R. 1922 Mad. 112=45 M. 449=68 Ind. Cas. 869; see also A. I. R. 1923 Oudh 177=26 O. C. 10=10 O. L. J. 36=73 Ind. Cas. 591; A. I. R. 1927 Cal. 850=47 C. L. J. 69=55 C. 219=103 Ind. Cas. 864; 104 Ind. Cas. 331; A. I. R. 1927 All. 496=101 Ind. Cas. 687. An appeal does not lie on a remand order not passed on appeal from a decree as it is not an order under Order XLI, rule 23. A. I. R. 1926 Lah. 141=89 Ind. Cas. 384. No appeal lies from an order of remand when the order itself is made in an appeal preferred under any other clause of that rule. 111 Ind. Cas. 789. Where a case is disposed of by the trial Court on one issue only leaving other issues undisposed of, an appeal against order of remand is competent. A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 907. Although Order 41, rule 23, might not strictly apply where the Appellate Court has remanded the suit to the first Court for final determination of the suit, an appeal lies to the High Court under Order 43, rule 1 (u), C. P. Code. 38 C. W. N. 1202. An appeal does not lie from an order remitting a certain issue to the trial Court under Order 41 rule 25, C. P. Code. 4 A. W. R. 1120; see also A. I. R. 1933 Cal. 496=37 C. W. N. 195=145 Ind. Cas. 183; 10 O. W. N. 664=A. I. R. 1933 Oudh 350; A. I. R. 1931 Mad. 1=60 M. L. J. 713. Where an order dismissing an application to set aside an ex parte decree is set aside and the Court of first instance is directed to proceed with the suit the order is not an order of "remand" within the meaning of Order 43, rule 1 (u) and the order of the Appellate Court is not appealable. 53 A. 519. No distinction seems to be recognized in Order 43, rule 1 (u) between a partial and a total remand of the case. 146 Ind. Cas. 939=A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 615. Where an appeal is directed against the order of remand it should be filed as a miscellaneous appeal under Order 43, rule 1 (u) and a Court-fee of rupees two is payable in Oudh. A. I. R. 1933 Oudh 191=144 Ind. Cas. 967=10 O. W. N. 143. An order passed by the District Judge setting aside the rejection of a plaint is not appealable order within this clause. A. I. R. 1934 Pesh. 88. For the purposes of the competency of an appeal the Court has to see what the lower Court purported to do actually did and not what the lower Court should have done. Where the lower Appellate Court remands the case under Order 41, rule 23, Civil Procedure Code, its order is appealable under Order 43, rule 1 (u). A. I. R. 1937 Lah. 454.

Clause (w).—The right of appeal conferred by Order XLIII, r. 1 (w), is subject to the conditions of Order XLVII, r. 7. A. I. R. 1925 All. 552=47 A. 881=23 A. L. J. 534=88 Ind. Cas. 653 ; 37 C. W. I. R. 1936 Oudh 409=1936 O. W. N. 836=165 Ind. Cas. 19. Right of appeal given by clause (w) against the acceptance of review is restricted by Order XLVII, r. 7. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 26=116 Ind. An appeal lies on an order granting a review only on one of the grounds set out in Order XLVII, r. 7. 103 Ind. Cas. 377=A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 641=50 M. 891=52 M. L. J. 682=26 L. W. 277=39 M. L. T. 11 ; 35 Bom. L. R. 280=144 Ind. Cas. 728=A. I. R. 1933 Bom. 183. Right of appeal under this sub-rule being subject to conditions under Order XLVII, rule 7, appeal not coming under this rule cannot be maintained. 42 A. 626=18 A. L. J. 838=60 Ind. R. 104=116 Ind. Cas. 645 ; but see A. I. R. 1926 Bom. 121=27 Bom. L. R. 1446=94 Ind. Cas. 591. Clause (w) has to be read along with Order XLVII, rule 7. The two provisions of the Code are not mutually inconsistent, but are really complementary of each other. Both rules read together do not give an unlimited right of appeal. Order XLVII, r. 7, should be held to control and restrict the earlier rule. A. I. R. 1927 Lah. 435=8 Lah. 817=29 P. L. R. 81=107 Ind. Cas. 596 ; see also A. I. R. 1930 All. 126=122 Ind. Cas. 184. Order granting review for "other sufficient reason" under Order 47, rule 1, cannot be questioned in appeal under Order 47, rules 4 and 7. A. I. R. 1935 Rang. 501. No appeal lies from an order refusing to restore an application for review when the application to restore has been heard on merits. A. I. R. 1925 All. 57=47 A. 1=80 Ind. Cas. 649. No appeal lies from an order refusing to grant review. 113 Ind. Cas. 92. An order granting a review of a judgment, itself not appealable, is appealable, subject to Order XLVII, r. 7. An order granting a review for sufficient grounds is not appealable. 1 P. L. J. 193=35 Ind. Cas. 15. An appeal against an order granting a review can only be entertained on one of the grounds set forth in Order XLVII, rule 7. A. I. R. 1929 Rang. 105=7 Rang. 187=118 Ind. Cas. 120 ; see also A. I. R. 1925 Oudh 266=11 O. L. J. 682=28 O. C. 4=84 Ind. Cas. 515. An appeal does not lie from an order refusing to restore an application for review when the application to restore has been heard on merits. A. I. R. 1925 All. 57=47 A. 1=80 Ind. Cas. 649. An appeal does not lie from an order of the lower Appellate Court rejecting an application for review of an appeal dismissed for default and a memorandum of cross-examinations allowed ex parte. 53 Ind. Cas. 901. No second appeal lies against an order granting a review. 64 Ind. Cas. 568.

2. [S. 590.] The rules of Order XLI shali apply, so far as may be, to appeals from orders.

Pauper Appeals.

1. [S. 592.] Any person entitled to prefer an appeal, who is unable to pay the fee required for the memorandum of appeal, may present an application accompanied by a memorandum of appeal, and may be allowed to appeal as a pauper, subject in all matters, including the presentation of such application, to the provisions relating to suits by paupers, in so far as those provisions are applicable :

Provided that the Court shall reject the application unless, upon a perusal thereof and of the judgment and decree appealed from, it sees reason to think that the decree is contrary to law or to some usage having the force of law, or is otherwise erroneous or unjust.

N. B.—For local amendment in Allahabad,—Vide infra.

Scope.—Court is not bound to here respondent before leave to appeal in forma pauperis is granted. A. I. R. 1932 Mad. 523=63 M. L. J. 28. Issue of notice to interested parties is not necessary to decide whether application should be rejected. A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 658=65 M. L. J. 372. Where Appellate Court has issued notice, it has no jurisdiction to dismiss application summarily. A. I. R. 1932 All. 925; see also A. I. R. 1933 All. 11=54 All. 394. Mere fact that order refusing application was brief does not constitute material irregularity. A. I. R. 1932 All. 712=1932 A. L. J. 860. Admission of application for permission to appeal in forma pauperis is not final disposal of application A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 256=34 P. L. R. 516. Proviso applies even after application is admitted and notice to respondent is ordered. A. I. R. 1932 Lah. 654=33 P. L. R. 1077. Proviso is mandatory. Ibid. Appellate Court, even after application has been admitted and notice on the opposite party has been served considers whether the conditions in the proviso are satisfied. 133 Ind. Cas. 125 (Lah); 1934 A. L. J. 827=A. I. R. 1934 All. 424; A. I. R. 1934 All. 1004 (F. B.)=1934 A. L. J. 931. Before leave to appeal as pauper is granted it is incumbent upon pauper appellant to satisfy Court that judgment is erroneous. A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 519=56 M. 323; but see 53 M. 245. Allowing appellant to appeal in forma pauperis does not preclude respondent from showing at later date that the appeal is without substance. A. I. R. 1932 Mad. 523. Court-fee on appeal is to be calculated as on date of presentation and not of payment. A. I. R. 1932 Oudh 343=9 O. W. N. 855. Court after application under Order 44, rule 1, is still competent to consider if conditions in the proviso to Order 44, rule 1, are satisfied. A. I. R. 1931 Pat. 183 (F. B.)=12 P. L. T. 156. No distinction exists between rejection and grant of application for revision. A. I. R. 1931 Rang. 131. Where notice ordered in the absence of respondent, he is not precluded from arguing that decree was not contrary to law. A. I. R. 1934 Lah. 73. Order is revisable if the order is passed without hearing Government pleader. A. I. R. 1924 All. 424. Where notice has been given issued upon an application under Order 44, rule 1, to the opposite party and the Government Advocate, it is still open to the Court under the proviso to that Rule to reject the application, unless upon a perusal thereof, and of the judgment and decree appealed from, it sees reason to think that the decree is contrary to law or to some usage having the force of law, or is otherwise erroneous or unjust. A. I. R. 1937 Oudh 222. A Court cannot reject an application to appeal in forma pauperis under the proviso to Order 44, rule 1, after issuing notices to Government pleader and to the respondent. A. I. R. 1937 Oudh 2. Where leave to appeal in forma pauperis is refused, Court can grant time for payment of Court-fee. A. I. R. 1937 Mad. 161. There is no reason why every ground should be dismissed in an order rejecting an application to file appeal in forma pauperis. A. I. R. 1935 Pesh. 22=154 Ind. Cas. 943. Order 44, rule 1, C. P. Code, applies to appeals sought to be preferred in forma pauperis from decrees of Courts in the Agency tracts, although there is no corresponding provisions in the Agency Rules. 58 M. 298=153 Ind. Cas. 476=40 L. W. 862=A. I. R. 1935 Mad. 51=68 M. L. J. 51. Where the valuation of the appeal is beyond the jurisdiction of single Judge of a High Court, he has no jurisdiction to dismiss an application for leave to appeal in forma pauperis on the ground that the appeal is barred by limitation. 157 Ind. Cas. 347=1935 A. L. J. 681=A. I. R. 1935 All. 620 (F. B.). An application for leave to appeal in forma pauperis may be disposed of in chambers in a summary manner without hearing the applicant and without giving time to the applicant for payment of the deficient Court-fee. 42 L. W. 831=69 M. L. J. 781=1935 M. W. N. 1262. Where application for leave to appeal as pauper is not accompanied by decree and judgment, by rejection, of the application the whole matter falls through and there is no longer any appeal pending before the Court. 157 Ind. Cas. 347=1935 A. L. J. 681=A. I. R. 1935 All. 620 (F. B.) On an application for leave to appeal as a pauper under Order 44, rule 1, according to procedure of the Madras High Court, notice should not go as a matter of routine to the respondent. 163 Ind. Cas. 755=A. I. R. 1936 Mad. 661. It is not open to the Court to reject an application to appeal in forma pauperis under the proviso to Order 44, rule 1, after notices were issued to the Government Advocate and the respondents. 165 Ind. Cas. 276=1936 Q. W. N. 875. This rule does not apply to appeals to Privy Council and the High Courts have no power to grant leave to appeal to Privy Council in forma pauperis. 161 Ind. Cas. 192=A. I. R. 1936 Pesh. 36. A person can file a petition to appeal in forma pauperis only against a decree as a whole, and not against any order which is not a decree and which does not dispose of a case finally. A. I. R. 1936 Lah. 426=163 Ind. Cas. 366=38 P. L. R. 1119. It is quite true that the respondent has no right to be heard on application for leave to appeal in forma pauperis under Order 44, rule 1, C. P. Code. 163 Ind. Cas. 741=1936 M. W. N. 1027=A. I. R. 1936 Mad. 843. Appellate Court should not interfere with discretion exercised by Court in rejecting application for leave to file memo of objections in forma pauperis whether or not there may be right of appeal, as the matter is proper subject for the exercise of discretion. A. I. R. 1926 Mad. 656=50 M. L. J. 426=23 L. W. 511=94 Ind. Cas. 45. Leave to appeal in forma pauperis should be granted where decree was altered in material particulars by successor of Judge deciding suit. A. I. R. 1930 Pat. 142=147 Ind. Cas. 187. Court need not arrive at definite and final conclusion that decree appealed against is contrary to law, or erroneous or unjust, before allowing pauper appeal. A. I. R. 1931 Mad. 198=31 L. W. 76=58 M. L. J. 195=53 M. 245=122 Ind. Cas. 337. Where appellant in a pauper appeal enters into agreement under which third person obtains interest in subject-matter of appeal, application must be dismissed. 122 Ind. Cas. 831. It is not necessary to state reasons for rejection and trial is not vitiated thereby. A. I. R. 1930 Nag. 53=120 Ind. Cas. 413. Even when leave to appeal in forma pauperis is granted it can be interfered with where there is reason to believe that it falls within proviso to this rule. A. I. R. 1930 Nag. 28=12 N. L. J. 92=121 Ind. Cas. 61; see also 133 Ind. Cas. 124. If particular case is considered to be fit for granting the leave, the granting of the leave involves the consequence, if not expressly at least, by necessary implication that prima facie, that case is fit to be placed outside the purview of Order XLII, r. 10. A. I. R. 1930 Nag. 28=12 N. L. J. 92=121 Ind. Cas. 61. Respondent is entitled to show that the provisions of proviso to Order XLIV, rule 1, are not complied with even after the explanation has been ex parte. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 514=114 Ind. Cas. 325; see also A. I. R. 1929 Pat. 27=7 Pat. 825=10 P. L. T. 46=114 Ind. Cas. 210. Provisions of Order XLIV, rule 1, proviso are mandatory and leave to appeal in forma pauperis cannot be granted unless the Court has reason to think that decree is contrary to law or otherwise erroneous. A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 539=114 Ind. Cas. 80; 109 Ind. Cas. 391; 54 Ind. Cas. 814=4 Pat. 67=A. I. R. 1925 Pat. 442. Appeal in forma pauperis should be admitted only when correctness or reasonableness of the decision of the lower Court is doubted. A. I. R. 1925 Mad. 1178=49 M. L. J. 353=87 Ind. Cas. 560. Record of evidence cannot be referred under this rule and the attention of the Court must be confined to the judgment and decree appealed against. A. I. R. 1925 Rang. 249=88 Ind. Cas. 988. Application to appeal as pauper should not be admitted if the decree appealed from is not erroneous or unjust even if the applicant is really a pauper. A. I. R. 1925 Lah. 391=7 Lah. L. J. 214=89 Ind. Cas. 292; 38 M. L. J. 146=54 Ind. Cas. 761. Rule 1 has no application unless the applicant is a pauper. A. I. R. 1924 Lah. 536=6 Lah. L. J. 205=80 Ind. Cas. 649. Decision in case of appeal in forma pauperis as to correctness of the judgment ought to be arrived at before the notice to the parties is issued and the question cannot be raised again afterwards. A. I. R. 1924 Pat. 791=2 Pat. L. R. 153=8 P. L. T. 119; see also A. I. R. 1929 Pat. 31=7 Pat. 827=10 P. L. T. 387. Question as regards the correctness of decree cannot be gone into after notice to the Government and respondent have been issued. A. I. R. 1928 Pat. 118=6 Pat. 687=109 Ind. Cas. 645. Leave to appeal in forma pauperis to the Privy Council cannot be granted by the High Court. 42 M. 32=35 M. L. J. 258=24 M. L. T. 207=8 L. W. 463=47 Ind. Cas. 646; see also 44 Ind. Cas. 731=3 P. L. J. 179. Proper course to apply for leave to appeal as a pauper is to apply to a Bench of two Judges where subject-matter is of the value of Rs. 10,000 or upwards. 3 O. L. J. 694=38 Ind. Cas. 541. Where Court-fee is paid after application to appeal in forma pauperis is rejected, appeal being presented together with application, it is a proper case for the application of s. 5, Limitation Act. 9 P. L. T. 613=115 Ind. Cas. 678; see also 65 Ind. Cas. 741=A. I. R. 1922 Lah. 225=3 Lah. 35=26 P. W. R. 1922; 38 Ind. Cas. 617=31 M. L. J. 269=40 M. 637. A separate order directing payment of Court-fee must be passed while dismissing application for leave to appeal in forma pauperis under rule 1 or an enquiry into pauperism. A. I. R. 1926 Oudh. 13=9 Ind. Cas. 371. Where there is a bona fide mistake as to the Court-fee which the applicant is unable to pay, he may be given time to make up the deficiency, also permission to appeal as a pauper should be granted and time extended for the same. A. I. R. 1928. All. 499=26 A. L. J. 847=111 Ind. Cas. 655; A. I. R. 1935 Pesh. 22=154 Ind. Cas. 943. Appeal is deemed to be presented on the day on which the pauper application is presented even if the Court-fee is paid before the end of the enquiry.

9 Bur. L. T. 69=32 Ind. Cas. 630. There must be some material, either upon the application or upon the judgment and decree from which the Court could reasonably form the opinion that the case falls within the proviso. 9 Rang. 92=132 Ind. Cas. 707=A. I. R. 1931 Rang. 131. In considering whether a person is a "pauper" the subject-matter of the suit is to be excluded. 67 M. L. J. 581=152 Ind. Cas. 135=A. I. R. 1934 Mad. 653. An appeal under Order 41, rule 1, should not be admitted until the Judge is satisfied that the decree of the Court appealed against is unjust or contrary to law. 71 M. L. J. 497=A. I. R. 1936 Mad. 842.

Revision—Order refusing leave to appeal as pauper is open to revision but there can be no interference on merits of order. A. I. R. 1930 Nag. 53=120 Ind. Cas. 413; see also A. I. R. 1926 Oudh 204=91 Ind. Cas. 96. Dismissal of an application for leave to appeal in forma pauperis does not amount to dismissal of appeal. Hence if the Court refuses to allow Court-fees to be paid on the memo of appeal, it refuses to exercise its jurisdiction. 40 A 381=16 A. L. J. 309=45 Ind. Cas. 29. The High Court can, after rejecting a petition for revision against an order of the District Judge rejecting an application to appeal as pauper extend the time fixed by the District Judge for paying the requisite Court-fees, even though such time has already expired and the appeal has been dismissed. 38 P. L. R. 374=A. I. R. 1936 Lah. 909.

2. [S 593.] The inquiry into the pauperism of the applicant may be made either by the Appellate Court or under Inquiry into pauperism. the orders of the Appellate Court by the Court from whose decision the appeal is preferred :

Provided that, if the applicant was allowed to sue or appeal as a pauper in the Court from whose decree the appeal is preferred, no further inquiry in respect of his pauperism shall be necessary, unless the Appellate Court sees cause to direct such inquiry.

Notes.—If assets are not set out without most good faith Appellate Court can reject application for leave to appeal in forma pauperis ab initio. A. I. R. 1930 Pat. 368=11 P. L. T. 567=123 Ind. Cas. 398.

ORDER XLV.

Appeals to the King in Council.

1. [S. 594.] In this Order, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context, the expression "decree" shall "Decree" defined. include a final order.

Notes.—Where review application to the High Court against its own judgment was successful and application for leave to appeal to the Privy Council in forma pauperis was made, no order on the latter application is necessary. But where the order of review was set aside the Privy Council's original application for leave to appeal was still alive. A. I. R. 1924 Lah. 225=77 Ind. Cas. 869.

2. [S. 598.] Whoever desires to appeal Application to Court whose decree complained of. to His Majesty in Council shall apply by petition to the Court whose decree is complained of.

Notes.—Case for granting leave to appeal to the Privy Council is not properly presented where appeal was dismissed for default in furnishing the list of papers to be printed in the paper-book. A. I. R. 1921 Pat. 83=2 P. L. T. 112=60 Ind. Cas. 285.

3. [S. 600.] (1) Every petition shall state the grounds of appeal and Certificate as to value or fit- pray for a certificate either that, as regards ness. amount or value and nature, the case fulfils the requirements of section 110, or that it is otherwise a fit one for appeal to His Majesty in Council.

(2) Upon receipt of such petition, the Court shall direct notice to be served on the opposite party to show cause why the said certificate should not be granted.

N. B.—For local amendments in Bombay and C. P.—Vide infra.

In a redemption suit involving no question of principle and value of claim being less than Rs. 10,000 a certificate cannot be granted there being no exceptional circumstances to justify it. A. I. R. 1929 Oudh 243=6 O. W. N. 211=116 Ind. Cas. 208. An order suspending a vakil is a disciplinary matter and not a judgment; hence no leave to appeal to the Privy Council can be granted. A. I. The difference between appeal and reference is that reference by a Subordinate Court to a Superior Court while appellant is a party to the suit to the Appellate Court. 47 A. 513. Collector executing a decree transferred to him under s. 48 cannot make a reference under Order XLVI, rule 1. 54 Ind. Cas. 564=22 O. C. 319=2 U. P. L. R. (1907) 21. Order of reference by the lower Court under rule 1, can be questioned by the High Court under r. 5. A. I. R. 1923 Bom. 30=30 Bom. L. R. 1527. jurisdiction to entertain it, High Court can under s. 151 pass order as it thinks necessary in the interest of justice, even though the orders passed were very late. 85 Ind. Cas. 703=A. I. R. 1925 Oudh 461=12 O. L. J. 189=28 O. C. 330. A reference under Order 46, rule 1 of the C. P. Code can only be made in a suit or appeal and not in proceedings under s. 93 of the Bengal Tenancy Act which are in the nature of an application. A. I. R. 1934 Cal. 566=38 C. W. N. 499=151 Ind. Cas. 721.

2. [S. 618.] The Court may either stay the proceedings or proceed in the case notwithstanding such reference, and may pass a decree or make an order contingent upon the decision of the High Court on the point referred ;

but no decree or order shall be executed in any case in which such reference is made until the receipt of a copy of the judgment of the High Court upon the reference.

3. [S. 619.] The High Court, after hearing the parties if they appear and desire to be heard, shall decide the point so referred, and shall transmit a copy of its judgment, under the signature of the Registrar, to the Court by which the reference was made ; and such Court shall, on the receipt thereof, proceed to dispose of the case in conformity with the decision of the High Court.

4. [S. 620.] The costs (if any) consequent on a reference for the decision of the High Court shall be costs in the case.

5. [S. 621.] Where a case is referred to the High Court under rule 1, the High Court may return the case for amendment, and may alter, cancel or set aside any decree or order which the Court making the reference has passed or made in the case out of which the reference arose, and make such order as it thinks fit.

Notes.—High Court acts while hearing a reference to the Court of Appeal quite as much as when it hears application for Court of revision. 25 C. W. N. 80=32 C. L. J. 433=48 C. 766.

6. [S. 646A] (1) Where at any time before judgment a Court in which a suit has been instituted doubts whether the suit is cognizable by a Court of Small Causes or is not so cognizable, it may submit the record to the High Court with a statement of its reasons for the doubt as to the nature of the suit.

(2) On receiving the record and statement, the High Court may order the Court either to proceed with the suit or to return the plaint for presentation to such other Court as it may in its order declare to be competent to take cognizance of the suit.

Notes.—Where a plaint was returned by Munsiff to the Small Cause Court which was again returned to the Munsiff's Court as being cognizable by it, Subordinate Court ought to have referred the matter to the High Court under Order XLVI or if he had no doubt he should have sent the record to the District Judge for necessary action under r. 7. 21 C. W. N. 784=27 C. L. J. 96=41 Ind. Cas. 929.

7. [S. 646B.] (1) Where it appears to a District Court that a Court subordinate thereto has, by reason of erroneously holding a suit to be cognizable by a Court of Small Causes or not to be so cognizable, failed to exercise a jurisdiction vested in it by law, or exercised a jurisdiction not so vested, the District Court may, and if required by a party shall, submit the record to the High Court with a statement of its reasons for considering the opinion of the Subordinate Court with respect to the nature of the suit to be erroneous.

(2) On receiving the record and statement the High Court may make such order in the case as it thinks fit.

(3) With respect to any proceedings subsequent to decree in any case submitted to the High Court under this rule, the High Court may make such order as in the circumstances appears to it to be just and proper.

(4) A Court subordinate to a District Court shall comply with any requisition which the District Court may make for any record or information for the purposes of this rule.

N. B.—For local amendments in Allahabad, Bombay and Oudh.—Vide infra.

Notes.—Where plaint is returned by two Courts the remedy of the applicant is to make an application to the District Judge under the provisions of this rule. A. I. R. 1933 Nag. 221=145 Ind. Cas. 261; see also 17 N. L. J. 169=A. I. R. 1934 Nag. 257.

ORDER XLVII.

Review.

1. [S. 623.] (1) Any person considering Application for review of judgment. himself aggrieved—

(a) by a decree or order from which an appeal is allowed, but from which no appeal has been preferred,

(b) by a decree or order from which no appeal is allowed, or

(c) by a decision on a reference from a Court of Small Causes, and who, from the discovery of new and important matter or evidence which, after the exercise of due diligence, was not within his knowledge or could not be produced by him at the time when the decree was passed or order made, or on account of some mistake or error apparent on the face of the record, or for any other sufficient reason, desires to obtain a review of the decree passed or order made against him, may apply for a review of judgment to the Court which passed the decree or made the order.

(2) A party who is not appealing from a decree or order may apply for a review of judgment notwithstanding the pendency of an appeal by some other party except where the ground of such appeal is common to the applicant and the appellant or when, being respondent, he can present to the Appellate Court the case on which he applies for the review.

Scope.—Review can only be granted on grounds set out in order 47. A. I. R. 1934 Pat. 229. Consent decree cannot be set aside on ground of fraud under order 47. 144 Ind. Cas. 82. Revenue Court has no power of review. A. I. R. 1932 All. 293=54 A. 646 (F. B.). Jurisdiction to entertain an application depends upon circumstances when application is made. 33 Bom. L. R. 378=A. I. R. 1931 Bom. 232. Order under section 35, Provincial Insolvency Act, can be reviewed if conditions laid down by Order 47, rule 1, are existent. A. I. R. 1933 Mad 631 (F. B.)=65 M. L. J. 173; see A. I. R. 1932 Mad. 63=61 M. L. J. 719. When decree under partition suit is alleged to be incorrect, review under rule 1 may be made. A. I. R. 1931 Pat. 296=12 P. L. T. 466. Application to set aside an ex parte order is not an application for review. A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 345=37 M. L. W. 720. Court cannot grant leave to file application for review in forma pauperis. A. I. R. 1930 Rang. 280=8 Rang. 423. Review of a consent decree under order 47 is not competent on the ground that it was obtained by fraud. A. I. R. 1929 Cal. 470=33 C. W. N. 883=124 Ind. Cas. 525. Interlocutory orders made in chambers is subject to review under s. 151, if it is necessary in the interest of justice. A. I. R. 1930 Bom. 294=32 Bom. L. R. 665=125 Ind. Cas. 690. Events happening after the decree has been passed cannot be made grounds of review. A. I. R. 1922 Mad. 227=15 L. W. 593=43 M. L. J. 33=70 Ind. Cas. 741=31 M. L. T. 473. S. 144 and Order XLVII, have application to cases for review of a decree in any appeal under the Letters Patent. A. I. R. 1927 Bom. 232=29 Bom. L. R. 371=101 Ind. Cas. 765. Orders dismissing an objection for default cannot be appealed from. Remedy in such cases is by appeal to s. 151 or Order XLVII. A. I. R. 1929 All. 123=26 A. L. J. 1395=112 Ind. Cas. 380. Application for review after the period of limitation allowed for alternative remedies is not necessarily incompetent. A. I. R. 1929 Sind 38=115 Ind. Cas. 314. Application for review should be granted where the Court having dismissed the suit in presence of pleader for plaintiff passed another order on plaint dismissing suit for default of appearance after pleader had left the Court. A. I. R. 1929 Sind 38=115 Ind. Cas. 314. Where a plaintiff gets a decree for specific performance but afterwards finds that defendant cannot give him a good title, his proper remedy is by way of review or to file a separate suit for setting aside the decree. A. I. R. 1923 Bom 26=46 B 990=24 Bom. L. R. 495=67 Ind. Cas. 766. Where the whole system of calculation adopted by the Court was challenged in plaintiff's application and there was no mere allegation of an arithmetical or clerical mistake, held that although Court purported to act under s. 152, it must be considered to have acted under Order XLVII. A. I. R. 1921 Lah. 250=3 Lah. L. J. 341=66 Ind. Cas. 992.

Grounds for review.—It is a good ground for review that evidence on a certain point was shut out owing to a misconception on the part of the pleader and therefore an issue was found against the party. A. I. R. 1931 Sind 3=130 Ind. Cas. 545. Erroneous view of evidence or law is no ground for review. Also grounds good for appeal would not support application for review. A. I. R. 1930 Cal. 701=34 C. W. N. 695=129 Ind. Cas. 355. The words "for any other sufficient reason" mean a reason sufficient on grounds at least analogous to those specified immediately previous to discovery of new and important matter or mistake or error apparent on the face of the record. A deliberate order passed by a Bench of the High Court with a view to obtain a just decision of the dispute between the parties does not constitute a reason for review analogous to discovery of fresh evidence or a manifest mistake on the record and therefore no review lies. A. I. R. 1930 Oudh 392=7 O. W. N. 741=126 Ind. Cas. 677. Where judgment does not conclude the question whether the decree may be executed against partners individually and when the decree as it stands can be executed only against property of the firm, the judgment may be reviewed. A. I. R. 1926 Lah. 236=92 Ind. Cas. 898. Where decree is amended without giving party affected thereby opportunity to show cause against it amendment is wrong. It is open to judgment-debtor to apply to original Court for review of its order. A. I. R. 1926 Lah. 384=24 A. L. J. 266=48 A. 281=94 Ind. Cas. 877. Parties agreeing to abide by decision in another suit, decree was passed in accordance with decision in that suit. But decision in the other suit was reversed in appeal. Such reversal is good ground for review of decree. A. I. R. 1927 Rang. 189=5 Rang. 251=103 Ind. Cas. 258. Where a suit is dismissed for default though parties were not directed to be present on that particular date, an application for review of the order dismissing the suit filed after more than two months would lie. A. I. R. 1928 Rang. 177=6 Rang. 254=111 Ind. Cas. 80. Where the Court passes an ex parte order for issue of writ of delivery of possession of property, Court can review its own order. A. I. R. 1925 Cal. 1023=41 C. L. J. 319=88 Ind. Cas. 921. Where the High Court by its decree ordered possession and mesne profits to the plaintiff but the executing Court finding that there was a compromise between the same parties as regards certain suit items, which was not brought to the notice of the High Court, modified the decree; held that the lower Court had no jurisdiction to make the order it passed and the proper remedy of the aggrieved party was to apply for review or other legal proceeding. A. I. R. 1928 Cal. 804=115 Ind. Cas. 591. Summary rejection of an appeal as time-barred without fixing date for hearing the appellant forms a good ground for review. A. I. R. 1925 Oudh 543=2 O. W. N. 678=90 Ind. Cas. 115. Where the question was as to the amount of mesne profits to be awarded to plaintiff and Court dismissed the claim as there was no evidence on the point, and where in a petition for review of the decision, it was contended that the burden of proving the value of the notes was on the opposite party and that Court made an error of law, held that there was not any mistake or error apparent on the face of the record within the meaning of rule 1. A. I. R. 1925 Pat. 368=6 P. L. T. 40=86 Ind. Cas. 143.

A remand order made on second appeal is, unless a review of it be obtained within the prescribed time, conclusively determination of the points of law involved in it ; and the correctness of the law laid down upon a remand cannot be questioned in a subsequent second appeal ; the policy of the legislature as indicated in the Civil Procedure Code of 1908 is in favour of finality of orders of remand. Nor is the fact of the Courts adopting a different view of the law after an order has been made in general, a good ground for allowing a review of such an order after the time for a review has elapsed. A. I. R. 1923 Cal. 385=72 Ind. Cas. 588. Dismissal for default under Order IX, rule 8, is good ground for review. 9 L. W. 311=50 Ind. Cas. 327=37 M. L. J. 59. That if second opportunity be given applicant would satisfy Court that its first order was wrong is no good reason for review. 57 Ind. Cas. 145. Where counsel erroneously abandoned evidence but considered its admissibility, review did not lie. A. I. R. 1926 Oudh 644=35 Ind. Cas. 752.

The Commissioner has no power to "review" under s. 151, or Order XLVII, r. 1. He may on proper grounds re-open the inquiry into any of the items. Until his report is made he decides nothing final and conclusive. But he must have proper grounds for re-opening enquiry into any item, grounds similar to the provisions of rule 1, that rule being the best grounds in a matter of this kind. If he re-opens the enquiry on the grounds which are not proper the party aggrieved can object only by means of exceptions to this report. A. I. R. 1924 Bom. 231=25 Bom. L. R. 280=47 B. 593=82 Ind. Cas. 593. The mere fact that a Judge has not in terms referred to certain of the evidence in favour of the one party or the other is not a sufficient reason for granting a review. A. I. R. 1924 Pat. 258=2 Pat. 765=82 Ind. Cas. 502. S. 114, C. P. Code, has to be read with Order 47, rule 1, which prescribes the grounds upon which an application for review may be made ; and unless the case can be shown to be within the terms of this rule, a review ought not to be granted. 151 Ind. Cas. 41=11 O. W. N. 1084=1934 A. L. J. 918=36 P. L. R. 305=39 C. W. N. 1=60 C. L. J. 267=35 Bom. L. R. 1179=67 M. L. J. 608 (P. C.)=A. I. R. 1934 P. C. 213. Where there is no failure to apply the apposite law no review is competent. 148 Ind. Cas. 718=A. I. R. 1934 Nag. 111. Where the mistake though apparent is only of a clerical nature and does not affect the actual decision of the case is no ground for review. Ibid. The negligence on the part of a party or his agent is not any sufficient reason analogous to those mentioned in Order 47, rule 1 (1). A. I. R. 1934 Nag. 143=150 Ind. Cas. 44.

The phrase "any other sufficient reason" means any other sufficient cause similar or analogous to those categorically set forth in Order 47, rule 1. 154 Ind. Cas. 1102=1935 O. W. N. 446=A. I. R. 1935 Oudh 405. Under Order 47, rule 1, it is not enough that the applicant did not know the existence of the new matter, but he must also show that such matter would prove his case conclusively. 156 Ind. Cas. 733=A. I. R. 1935 Rang. 184. The grounds on which a review is competent are different from those on which an appeal under clause 10 of the Letters Patent (Lahore) will lie. A. I. R. 1935 Lah. 330=37 P. J. R. 708=157 Ind. Cas. 23=16 Lah. 602. Persons who are never parties to the suit or appeal need not file a review. A. I. R. 1935 Rang. 364=159 Ind. Cas. 186. The Court has no jurisdiction to grant a review on a reconsideration of the case on exactly the same materials. 37 P. L. R. 387. Where the decision of the Judge, which is sought to be reviewed, is based on an obvious misapprehension of the nature of attachment it is sufficient reason for review. A. I. R. 1936 Lah. 486=163 Ind. Cas. 374. The mere fact that the party seeking a review desires to have a sifting of the evidence is clearly not a sufficient reason for review. 19 N. L. J. 276. A review of a consent decree on the ground that it was obtained by fraud or mistake, cannot be had, and the consent decree can be set aside only by means of separate suit. 164 Ind. Cas. 785=A. I. R. 1936 Rang. 389. Review may be granted on the discovery of new evidence by the counsel. A. I. R. 1936 Lah. 650 ; but see 19 N. L. J. 276. It is doubtful whether an erroneous admission of fact made by counsel can be considered to be a good ground for review. 161 Ind. Cas. 444=A. I. R. 1936 Lah. 48. Subsequent reversal of view of law is no ground for granting review. A. I. R. 1936 Sind 34=161 Ind. Cas. 324. Where the Court rejects a plaint as not stamped with the requisite Court-fee, for failure to pay the necessary Court-fee after the plaintiff was granted time therefor again and again, the order cannot be reviewed by the Court. 59 M. 975=163 Ind. Cas. 96=1936 M. W. N. 538=43 L. W. 494=A. I. R. 1936 Mad. 503=70 M. L. J. 491 ; but see A. I. R. 1936 Pat. 30=17 Pat. L. T. 766=162 Ind. Cas. 992.

Where evidence on a point is shut out owing to misconception of pleader, it is a ground for review. A. I. R. 1931 Sind 3=25 S. L. R. 242. Faulty logic and error of law is no ground for review. A. I. R. 1932 Pat. 275=11 Pat. 519. Omission to consider important facts on record is ground for review. A. I. R. 1932 Nag. 177=28 N. L. R. 221. Discovery of new argument based on fact or law is no ground for review. A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 290; 57 Ind. Cas. 147; 63 Ind. Cas. 344. Where due to mistake of everybody a revision filed and dismissed from an appealable order it is a ground of review. A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 476=14 Lah. 453=34 P. L. R. 470. Review may be granted when evidence was overlooked by excusable misfortune. A. I. R. 1933 Sind 110. Court is competent to review its wrongly made order. 48 Ind. Cas. 129. The ground for review under rule 1, must be something which existed at the date of the decree. 70 Ind. Cas. 741=43 M. L. J. 33; 73 Ind. Cas. 4; 89 Ind. Cas. 216; 13 O. L. J. 507; 31 C. W. N. 822. Overlooking substantial rights and taking too strict views of title of suit and its prayer is good ground for review. A. I. R. 1930 Rang. 162. Subsequent decision of superior Court of binding authority on the question of law does not make prior judgment passed on a different view of law liable to be reviewed. A. I. R. 1930 Mad. 579. Fraud practised upon Court or party discovered after order or decree is new and important matter. 33 C. W. N. 572; see also 64 Ind. Cas. 259; 48 A. 160=83 Ind. Cas. 946. Failure to consider bar of limitation is sufficient to justify Court in granting application for review. A. I. R. 1929 Nag. 185; A. I. R. 1928 Lah. 919. Where judgment is delivered without notice to parties it is good ground for review. A. I. R. 1929 Rang. 70=6 Rang. 794. Subsequent legislation is no ground for review. A. I. New evidence.—Review on ground of discovery of new and important matter can be granted when such matter was in existence at the date of the decree. A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 485; see also A. I. R. 1933 Pat. 63; 64 Ind. Cas. 324; 23 C. W. N. 242. Fresh documentary evidence cannot be admitted in review unless sufficient reasons are given for non-production at time of trial. A. I. R. 1933 Oudh 328. The word "evidence" includes oral evidence also. A. I. R. 1928 Nag. 279. The evidence newly discovered must be at least such as is presumably to be believed, and if believed would be conclusive. A. I. R. 1929 All. 545; see also 38 Ind. Cas. 142. Review on ground of discovery of fresh evidence cannot be supported in absence of proof that applicant could not have got it earlier. 29 Bom. L. R. 371=A. I. R. 1927 Bom. 232. Review cannot be admitted where new evidence does not comply with requirements of rule. 85 Ind. Cas. 180; see also 75 Ind. Cas. 91; A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 641=50 M. 891; A. I. R. 1930 Oudh 392; A. I. Where appeal has been summarily dismissed, petition for review on ground of discovery of new evidence should be dismissed if review is sought by defendants who preferred appeal. 21 C. W. N. 430=24 C. L. J. 517=36 Ind. Cas. 460. High Court has no power to review order for dismissal under Order XLI, rule 11, on the ground of discovery of new and important evidence. A. I. R. 1922 Cal. 165=27 C. W. N. 918=36 C. L. J. 76=70 Ind. Cas. 408. Discovery of new and important evidence on a question of fact is no ground for review of the decree of the second Appellate Court. A. I. R. 1929 Bom. 225=31 Bom. L. R. 436=118 Ind. Cas. 255. Interference in revision is not competent simply because the Court has not said in so many words that the new matter is important. A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 641=52 M. L. J. 682=26 L. W. 277=50 M. 891=103 Ind. Cas. 377.

Omission to produce evidence owing to wrong advice of counsel is not sufficient ground for review. 5 O. L. J. 695=48 Ind. Cas. 918. In case of re-trial on ground of further evidence, further evidence should apparently be conclusive. A. I. R. 1918 P. C. 184. Review may be obtained where judgment is tainted by fraud. Ibid. Party cannot be allowed in review to raise case not raised at the trial. A. I. R. 1925 All. 552=47 A. 881=23 A. L. J. 534=88 Ind. Within his knowledge.—Vide 75 Ind. Cas. 91.

Mistake or error.—Decision on wrong authority is not mistake apparent on face of record. A. I. R. 1933 Lah. 223=38 P. L. R. 254. The error must be on the face of the record. A. I. R. 1933 Mad. 631 (F. B.)=65 M. L. J. 173 ; see also A. I. R. 1931 Mad. 608. An error apparent on face of the record "means that one can find in the judgment or a document, actually incorporated thereto, some legal proposition which is the basis of the judgment and which one can say is erroneous." Further an error of law to be apparent on the face of it must relate to some proposition of law which is well settled and beyond controversy so far as the Court which delivered the judgment is concerned and on which the judgment rests. A. I. R. 1929 Mad. 209=1928 M. W. N. 911 ; see also A. I. R. 1929 Rang. 70=6 Rang. 794 ; A. I. R. 1930 Lah. 37=11 Lah. 158 ; A. I. R. 1929 Lah. 424=30 P. L. R. 593 ; 76 Ind. Cas. 312=46 M. 955=45 M. It is open to the Appellate Court to examine the ground upon which the review was admitted and if the ground for the review does not come within the words of rule 1, then the Appellate Court is competent to hold that the review was improperly admitted. Where application for review is preferred before filing appeal, Court should decide the application on the merits notwithstanding the fact that an appeal has subsequently been filed. 65 Ind. Power of Court.—Former Court can still entertain application to set aside its previous order. A. I. R. 1933 All. 783 (F. B.). Cas. 541. Time for review cannot be extended unless sufficient cause is shown. A. I. R. 1931 All. 218=1931 A. L. J. 103=130 Ind. Cas. 839. The right of review is entirely different from that given by s. 234 of the Succession Act or s. 50 of the Probate and Administration Act. The powers of review can be exercised by Court dealing with a contentious matter in proceedings for the grant of letters of administration. A. I. R. 1925 Rang. 314=3 Rang. 261=91 Ind. Cas. 509. If the review comes before another Judge, the mere fact that that second Judge might disagree with his predecessor does not appear to be sufficient reason for granting a review. In order to succeed in review before a Judge other than the Judge who passed the order sought to be reviewed, it is necessary that there is good reason for supposing that the Judge who passed the order complained of could have been persuaded that it was wrong. A. I. R. 1922 U. B. R. 16=4 U. B. R. 27=64 Ind. Cas. 895.

Bar to Review.—It is a condition precedent for filing an application for review that no appeal has been preferred. Review cannot be refused because appeal was filed subsequently. A. I. R. 1929 All. 375=119 Ind. Cas. 561; see also A. I. R. 1935 Nag. 174=31 N. L. R. 418=157 I. C. 366. Withdrawal of appeal, where review petition was filed pending the appeal, before hearing of review application does not make that application for review competent. 132 Ind. Cas. 446=33 Bom. L. Where appeal is preferred and dismissed appellant cannot be said to have not preferred appeal, and no application for review of an order summarily dismissing appeal lies. A. I. R. 1929 Bom. 225=31 Bom. L. R. 426=118 Ind. Cas. 255. Where application for restoration was made and dismissed as time-barred, subsequent application for review cannot be entertained. A. I. R. 1925 Lah. 517=86 Ind. Cas. 616. There is no necessity for review while an appeal from the original decree is pending. But if a review is made and allowed the decree to be appealed against is the reviewed decree. A. I. R. 1926 Oudh 55=90 Ind. Cas. 119. Should review application succeed appeal must abate. 44 C. 1011=41 Ind. Cas. 497; see also 57 Ind. Cas. 785; 18 A. L. J. 135=54 Ind. Cas. 764=42 A. 317; 50 Ind. Cas. 329=15 N. L. R. 65. Review is not allowed if appeal is preferred against. 35 Ind. Cas. 867. Where a party presents a cross-objection in appeal, application for review by him is not maintainable. 35 Ind. Cas. 529. Where application for review is filed after an appeal is filed by the opposite party, the Court should decline to proceed with application until hearing of appeal and should direct the applicant to obtain the relief by filing cross-objections. 3 O. W. N. 968=99 Ind. Cas. 271. The word "party" in Order 47, rule 1 (2), is properly used in the context. It presupposes that the person to whom it refers is a party to decree. 159 Ind. Cas. 186=A. I. R. 1935 Rang. 364.

Revision.—The order rejecting review after hearing parties does not attract the application of s. 115. A. I. R. 1926 Cal. 773=30 C. W. N. 570=53 C. 679=96 Ind. Cas. 705. Interference in revision is not competent simply because the Court has not said in so many words that the new matter is important. A. I. R. 1927 Mad. 641=52 M. L. J. 682=103 Ind. Cas. 377=50 M. 891=(1927) M. W. N. 806. Though revising powers are wider under s. 25, Small Cause Courts Act than under s. 115 every order should not be interfered with in revision. A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 56=104 Ind. Cas. 746. Where lower Appellate Court postpones consideration of review application, applicant's only remedy to correct the order is in revision. A. I. R. 1929 All. 375=119 Ind. Cas. 561. Word "evidence" in rule 1, includes oral evidence also. Court should hold an enquiry for deciding whether applicant could or could not with due diligence have discovered evidence at the stage of original trial. Failure to make enquiry amounts to material irregularity to justify revision. A. I. R. 1928 Nag. 279=108 Ind. Cas. 439.

2. [S. 624.] An application for review of a decree or order of a Court, not being a High Court, upon some ground other than the discovery of such new and important matter or evidence as is referred to in rule 1 or the existence of a clerical or arithmetical mistake or error apparent on the face of the decree, shall be made only to the Judge, who passed the decree or made the order sought to be reviewed; but any such application may, if the Judge who passed the decree or made the order has ordered notice to issue under rule 4, sub-rule (2), proviso (a), be disposed of by his successor.

Notes.—Rule 2 applies when another Judge entertains review. A. I. R. 1924 Pat. 809=75 Ind. Cas. 91. Rule 2 applies where Judge merely signs decree without writing or delivering judgment though his predecessor had granted application for review which was set aside. 20 C. W. N. 391=32 Ind. Cas. 101. Judge when transferred to another Court cannot grant review. A. I. R. 1925 All. 804=47 A. 751=23 A. L. J. 674=89 Ind. Cas. 295. Review application on ground of accidental omission may lie before succeeding Judge. A. I. R. 1936 Mad. 1083; but see A. I. R. 1937 Cal. 425.

Form of applications for review. 3. [S. 625.] The provisions as to the form of preferring appeals shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to applications for review.

Notes.—The objection that the review application is not accompanied by copy of decree or that Court-fee is insufficient are invalid pleas in revision against order granting review. A. I. R. 1925 All. 777=93 Ind. Cas. 996.

4. [S. 626.] (1) Where it appears to the Court that there is not sufficient ground for a review, it shall reject the application.

(2) Where the Court is of opinion that the application for review should be granted it shall grant the same :

Provided that—

(a) no such application shall be granted without previous notice to the opposite party, to enable him to appear and be heard in support of the decree or order, a review of which is applied for ; and,

(b) no such application shall be granted on the ground of discovery of new matter or evidence which the applicant alleges was not within his knowledge, or could not be adduced by him when the decree or order was passed or made, without strict proof of such allegation.

Notes.—Orders of Order XLVII, rule 4, are discretionary with Court. 115 P. R. 1916=38 Ind. Cas. 769. Proof of discovery of new matter must be established beyond all doubt before review can be granted. 38 Ind. Cas. 403=2 U. B. R. (1916) 126. THE SECOND SCHEDULE.

ARBITRATION.

Arbitration in Suits.

1. [S. 506.] (1) Where in any suits all the parties interested agree that any matter in difference between them shall be referred to arbitration, they may, at any time before judgment is pronounced, apply to the Court for an order of reference.

(2) Every such application shall be in writing and shall state the matter sought to be referred.

Second schedule.—Provisions of Schedule 2 are recommendatory. A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 1025=55 M. L. J. 429=28 L. W. 321=51 M. 800 (F. B.)=113 Ind. Cas. 632. Object of Schedule II is that parties having made reference must stick to it. A. I. R. 1928 All. 674=(1929) A. L. J. 31=111 Ind. Cas. 559. This schedule applies also to cases where parties intend to refer to arbitration without Court's intervention. A. I. R. 1926 Cal. 116=90 Ind. Cas. 624. Schedule II does not extend to execution proceedings. A. I. R. 1925 Cal. 812=29 C. W. N. 885=52 C. 559=42 C. L. J. 26=87 Ind. Cas. 633. Main provisions of Schedule II are only permissive and not compulsory or exhaustive. A. I. R. 1927 Bom. 565=51 B. 908=29 Bom. L. R. 1254 (F. B.)=105 Ind. Cas. 516. Party seeking benefit of Schedule II must comply with provisions of rr. 1 to 15. A. I. R. 1927 Bom. 565=51 B. 908=29 Bom. L. R. 1254=105 Ind. Cas. 516. Procedure taken under Schedule II regarding matter converted into one under Arbitration Act, is without jurisdiction. A. I. R. 1926 Cal. 730=43 C. L. J. 292=94 Ind. Cas. 177. Suits of a public nature e. g., under s. 92 cannot be referred to arbitration. A. I. R. 1923 Nag. 112=6 N. L. J. 7=72 Ind. Cas. 1016. Provisions of the Schedule II are permissive and not mandatory. A. I. R. 1931 Oudh 127=1 O. W. N. 71=131 Ind. Cas. 443.

Scope.—The Court can refer to arbitration only matters in difference in suit itself, and not all matters in dispute between the parties. A. I. R. 1921 Mad. 709=14 L. W. 666=(1921) M. W. N. 756=65 Ind. Cas. 92. A Court can restrain the defendant from proceeding to arbitration when an action brought impeaches the instrument containing the agreement for reference. 15 S. L. R. 5=70 Ind. Cas. 864. An award under an invalid reference, being itself invalid gives no rights either as an award or as compromise. A. I. R. 1921 Mad. 709=14 L. W. 666=1921 M. W. N. 756=65 Ind. Cas. 92. If a claimant objects to the attachment of property in execution of a decree and the matter is referred to arbitration the judgment debtor is a necessary party to the reference. 64 Ind. Cas. 469. An agreement to refer to an arbitration even if relating to an office, is not necessarily unlawful or opposed to public policy, but the Court must ascertain whether it is in violation of the trusts of the institution or affects adversely the interests of the public. A. I. R. 1922 Mad. 429=15 L. W. 111=31 M. L. T. 52=(1921) M. W. N. 423=79 Ind. Cas. 410. Where a pleader signs a reference on behalf of a party but his vakalatnama does not contain a power to refer to arbitration, the reference is not valid so far as that party is concerned. 25 C. W. N. 832. Absence of one of the arbitrators at one of the meetings, at which nothing material was done, does not make the award invalid. 12 L. W. 505=60 Ind. Cas. 181. Without the consent of the other party a portion of the claim under reference to an arbitration can not be withdrawn. 28 C. L. J. 275=46 Ind. Cas. 477. Parties can refer disputes to private arbitration though a suit between them is pending without Court's permission. (1916) 1 M. W. N. 203=19 M. L. T. 228. Where a reference to arbitration in a suit is a general one of the whole case, the power of dealing with costs rests with the arbitrator. 46 Ind. Cas. 182. An agreement of arbitration entered into by his predecessor-in-title binds the minor. 23 C. W. N. 293=50 Ind. Cas. 879. The provisions of Schedule II para 1, have to be strictly complied with so that there may be a valid reference to arbitration suit. 49 Ind. Cas. 262. Where it is impossible to ascertain what is referred to arbitration the agreement to refer is bad for indefiniteness. 49 Ind. Cas. 522. A consent given by the parties to abide by the decision of a Court as an arbitrator does not fall within Schedule II. The provisions of Schedule II do not govern the proceedings of the Court acting as such arbitrator. 52 Ind. Cas. 569=37 M. L. J. 100; see also 51 Ind. Cas. 827=42 M. 625=36 M. L. J. 291=(1919) M. W. M. L. T. 228=33 Ind. Cas. 67. So where a matter in dispute in pending suit is referred to arbitration without the intervention of the Court the reference does not fall within Schedule II, but the award may be recorded as an agreement adjusting or compromising the suit and a decree may be passed in the terms of the award. 49 Ind. Cas. 746. Where an application is made for adjustment before the Court in which it is asked to send the records to a certain arbitrator to whom the parties had already referred the matter in dispute in the pending suit, it amounts to a request to make reference to arbitrator. 3 L. W. 375=34 Ind. Cas. 741. If an order of arbitration is made by the Court on the application of the plaintiff and one of the defendants it is legal 64 Ind. Cas. 480. No appeal or revision lies from the decree as per award whether the Court does or does not give proper opportunities for hearing all the objections to the award or whether it is right or wrong in deciding that the objection put in was not a proper application to set aside the award does not matter. A. I. R. 1922 Mad. 429=15 L. W. 111=31 M. L. T. 52=(1921) M. W. N. 423=70 Ind. Cas. 410. Arbitrators acting under an order made in pursuance of paras 1 and 2 must comply with its terms. Where umpire may arbitrate in lieu of arbitrators. 9. [S. 515.] Where an umpire has been appointed, he may enter on the reference in the place of the arbitrators,—

- (a) If they have allowed the appointed time to expire without making an award, or Scope.—An agreement to refer to arbitration was filed in Court and in accordance therewith two arbitrators were appointed on each side and an umpire. The Court made an order fixing a date within which the award was to be filed, but before the expiry of the period so fixed two of the arbitrators retired. Subsequently to their retirement, the umpire forwarded a document to the Court, which was of the nature of a compromise, and which he recommended should become the subject of a decree. Held, that no decree could be based upon such document, in as much as it is not an award. 1 A. ence between them shall be referred to arbitration, the parties to the agreement, or any of them, may apply to any Court having jurisdiction in the matter to which the agreement relates, that the agreement be filed in Court.

(2) The application shall be in writing and shall be numbered and registered as a suit between one or more of the parties interested or claiming to be interested as plaintiff or plaintiffs and the others or other of them as defendants or defendant, if the application has been presented by all the parties, or, if otherwise, between the applicant as plaintiff and the other parties as defendants.

(3) On such application being made the Court shall direct notice thereof to be given to all the parties to the agreement, other than the applicants, requiring such parties to show cause, within the time specified in the notice, why the agreement should not be filed.

(4) Where no sufficient cause is shown, the Court shall order the agreement to be filed, and shall make an order of reference to the arbitrator appointed in accordance with the provisions of the agreement or, if there is no such provision and the parties cannot agree, the Court may appoint an arbitrator.

Scope.—The scope of this para is no more than this : that where an agreement of reference to arbitration has been entered into by the parties but the arbitrators have not so far functioned, the Court has power to enforce to agreement against the parties where the arbitrators are ready and willing to act in terms of the reference. Para 17, far from implying an ouster of jurisdiction, predicates that the arbitrators have the jurisdiction to act on the reference and the Court should step in and ask them to exercise their powers as arbitrators if they are agreeable to do so. 1932 A. L. J. 331=137 Ind. Cas. 198=A. I. R. 1932 All. 348=A. L. R. 1932 A 727. This para and the subsequent paras refer to cases where the parties agree in writing to refer to arbitration any difference between them independently of the Court. A proceeding under this para does not commence with a plaint. Sub-para (2) of para 17, however, provides that an application to file in Court an agreement to refer to arbitration shall be numbered and registered as a suit between one or more of the parties interested or claiming to be interested as plaintiff or plaintiffs, and others or other of them as defendant or defendants. This provision does not convert the application into a suit for all purposes. When the law says that the application shall be numbered and registered as a suit it implies that it is not in fact a suit. If it were really a suit, it must proprio vigore have all the attributes of a suit ; and it would be wholly redundant to enact that it shall be numbered and registered as a suit. It is to be observed that the proceeding, which commences with an application under para 17 is governed by the special procedure prescribed by the second schedule and not by the rules applicable to a suit. 13 Lah. 672=137 Ind. Where a party has gone to arbitration in which if he has refused to go to arbitrations an order of reference would have been made under para 17, it is too late for him when a difficulty arises at a latter stage of the proceedings which has not been provided for unless an order of reference has been made, to dispute the right of his opponent to obtain an order of reference under para 17, Sch. Sub-para (3).—Where a party to an agreement for reference to arbitration is called upon to show cause why the agreement should not be filed, it is necessary for him to show what cause he has there and then. Sub-para (4).—It is not open to a party to an agreement of reference to revoke the submission to arbitration except for good cause. The words "sufficient cause" should not be confined within the narrow compass of the fraud, coercion, and undue influence. There are other causes besides these, which may be sufficient for the reversal of an order under Sch. II, para 17, C. P. Code. A. L. R. 1933 Sind 449=A. I. R. 1933 Sind 68=143 Ind. Cas. 635. person claiming under him, institutes any suit against any other party to the agreement, or any person claiming under him, in respect of any matter agreed to be referred, any party to such suit may, at the earliest possible opportunity and in all cases where issues are settled at or before such settlement, apply to the Court to stay the suit ; and the Court, if satisfied that there is no sufficient reason why the matter should not be referred in accordance with the agreement to refer to arbitration, and that the applicant was, at the time when the suit was instituted and still remains, ready and willing to do all things necessary to the proper conduct of the arbitration may make an order staying the suit.

Scope.—Where parties refer disputes to arbitration but subsequently one of them files suit in respect of that dispute the arbitrators lose their authority. Defendant still desiring arbitration, must obtain stay of the suit under para 18. On refusal to stay the remedy by arbitration ceases to be available. If the suit is stayed and the arbitrators have not yet made an award they are free to bring their proceedings to a termination and make an award in accordance with law. If they have made an award after the institution of the suit, the award can not be pleaded as bar to the suit. The award so made should be brought up before the Court under para 20 : the Court will refuse to enforce it under para 21 read with para 14 (c) ; and as the award will thus stand cancelled because without jurisdiction, the arbitrators will be left free thereafter to resume their proceedings on the basis of the original reference. 19. [S. 524.] The foregoing provisions, so far as they are consistent with any agreement filed under paragraph 17, shall be applicable to all proceedings under the order of reference made by the Court under that paragraph, and to the award and to the decree following thereon.

Notes.—The words “so far as they are consistent with any agreement so filed” do not mean that the agreement must contain in every case an express provision as to what ought to be done if any arbitrator is unwilling to act in order that the judge may act in conformity to it, and that para 5 has otherwise no application. The reasonable construction is that the action of the judge under para 5 should not be inconsistent with the agreement, if it contains any special provision on the subject. 17 M. 498. The Court is competent to set aside award on the ground of misconduct. 6 M. 368. No appeal lies against an order passed under this para setting aside an award. 8 S. L. R. 260. This para comes only into operation where an order of reference has already been made under para 17. 151 I. C. 1001 = 110 W. N. 1118.

Arbitration without the intervention of a Court.

20. [S. 525.] (1) Where any matter has been referred to arbitration without the intervention of a Court, and an award has been made thereon, any person interested in the award may apply to any Court having jurisdiction over the subject-matter of the award that the award be filed in Court.

(2) The application shall be in writing and shall be numbered and registered as a suit between the applicant as a plaintiff and the other parties as defendants.

(3) The Court shall direct notice to be given to the parties to the arbitration, other than the applicant requiring them to show cause, within a time specified, why the award should not be filed.

Scope.—This para enables parties who have agreed to refer their differences to arbitration and have obtained an award to have that award filed in Court. 27 A. 53 = 1 A. L. J. 398. Upon an application made to Court under this para, the Court has jurisdiction to and is bound to, enquire into the question whether the parties had or had not referred the matter in question to arbitration. A. W. N. 1906, 126 = 28 A. 621. The Court has full power to enter into the question of the validity of the cause showing against the filing in Court of an award. 9 C. 597. This para does not lay down that no award shall be binding upon the parties unless filed in Court, nor is there anything in them to bar a regular suit on the basis of an award which has never been filed in Court. This para is purely optional and is intended to allow parties to arbitration awards to avail themselves of a summary procedure for obtaining the sanction of a decree of a Court for such arbitration award as have been made under a private agreement without the intervention of a Court of justice. A. W. N. 1884, 148. Where an application is made under this para the jurisdiction of the Court, to order the award to be filed and to allow proceedings to be taken under it, is not taken away by a mere denial of the reference to arbitration, on an objection to the validity of the reference. 29 C. 278 = 6 C. An award which is provisional, that is to say, which does not completely and once for all determine the dispute between the parties, can not be filed under this para and it cannot be made rule of the Court. 6 A. And the sum so levied shall be sent to the Treasury for credit to the Municipal or District Board, as the case may be, under whose jurisdiction the pound is. All such sum shall be applied in the same manner as fines levied under section 12 of the said Cattle Trespass Act.

119. The pound-keeper shall take charge of feed and water, animals attached and committed as aforesaid until they are withdrawn from his custody as hereinafter provided and he shall be entitled to be paid for their maintenance at such rates as may be from time to time, prescribed under proper authority. 120. The charges herein authorized for the maintenance of live-stock shall be paid to the pound-keeper by the attaching officer for the first fifteen days at the time the animals are committed to his custody, and thereafter for such further period as the Court may direct, at the commencement of such period. 121. Animals attached and committed as aforesaid shall not be released from custody by the pound-keeper except on the written order of the Court, or of the attaching officer, or of the officer appointed to conduct the sale ; the person receiving the animals, on their being so released, shall sign a receipt for them in the register mentioned in rule 118.

122. For the safe custody of movable property other than live-stock while under attachment, the attaching officer shall, subject to approval by the Court, make such arrangements as may be most convenient and economical.

123. With the permission of the Court the attaching officer may place one or more persons in special charge of such property.

124. The fee for the services of each such person shall be payable in the manner prescribed in rule 116. 125. When the services of such persons are no longer required the attaching officer shall give him a certificate on a counterfoil form of the number of days he has served and of the amount due to him ; and on the presentation of such certificate to the Court which ordered the attachment, the amount shall be paid to him in the presence of the presiding Judge : provided that where the amount does not exceed Rs. 5, it may be paid to the sahnu by money order on requisition by the Amin, and the presentation of the certificate may be dispensed with.

126. When in consequence of an order of attachment being withdrawn or for some other reason, the person has not been employed or has remained in charge of the property for a shorter time than that for which payment has been made in respect of his services, the fee paid shall be refunded in whole or in part, as the case may be.

127. Fees paid into Court under the foregoing rules shall be entered in the Register of Petty Receipts and Repayments.

129. The cost of repairing attached property for sale, or of conveying it to the place where it is to be kept or sold, shall be payable by the decreeholder to the attaching officer. In the event of the decreeholder failing to provide the necessary funds, the attaching officer shall report his default to the Court, and the Court may thereupon issue an order for the withdrawal of the attachment and direct by whom the costs of the attachment are to be paid.

130. Nothing in these rules shall be deemed to prevent the Court from issuing and serving on the judgment-debtor simultaneously the notices required by Order XXI, rules 22, 66 and 107.

"Garnishee Orders."

"131. The Court may, in the case of any debt, due to the judgment-debtor (other than a debt secured by a mortgage or a charge or a negotiable instrument, or a debt recoverable only in a revenue Court), or any movable property not in the possession of the judgment-debtor, issue a notice to any person (hereinafter called the garnishee) liable to pay such debt, or to deliver or account for such movable property, calling upon him to appear before the Court and show cause why he should not pay or deliver into the Court the debt due from or the property deliverable by him to such judgment-debtor, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the decree and the cost of execution

132. If the garnishee does not forthwith or within such time as the Court may allow, pay or deliver into Court the amount due from or the property deliverable by him to the judgment-debtor, or so much as may be sufficient to satisfy the decree and the cost of execution, and does not dispute his liability to pay such debt or deliver such movable property, or if he does not appear in answer to the notice, then the Court may order the garnishee to comply with the terms of such notice, and on such order execution may issue as though such order were a decree against him.

133. If the garnishee disputes his liability the Court, instead of making such order, may order that any issue or question necessary for determining his liability be tried as though it were an issue in a suit ; and upon the determination of such issue shall pass such order upon the notice as shall be just.

134. Whenever in any proceedings under these rules it is alleged, or appears to the Court to be probable that the debt or property attached or sought to be attached belongs to some third person or that any third person has a lien or charge upon, or an interest in it, the Court may order such third person to appear and state the nature of his claim, if any, upon such debt or property and prove the same, if necessary.

135. After hearing such third person, and any other person who may subsequently be ordered to appear, or in the case of such third or other person not appearing when ordered, the Court may pass such order as is hereinbefore provided or make such other order as it shall think fit upon such terms in all cases with respect to the lien, charge or interest, if any, of such third or other person as to such Court shall seem just and reasonable.

136. Payment or delivery made by the garnishee whether in execution of an order under these rules or otherwise shall be a valid discharge to him as against the judgment-debtor, or any other person ordered to appear as aforesaid, for the amount paid, delivered or realized although such order or the judgment may be set aside or reversed.

137. Debts owing from a firm carrying on business within the jurisdiction of the Court may be attached under these rules, although one or more members of such firm may be resident out of the jurisdiction : provided that any person having the control or management of the partnership business or any member of the firm within the jurisdiction is served with the garnishee order. An appearance by any member pursuant to an order shall be a sufficient appearance by the firm.

138. The costs of any application under these rules and of any proceedings arising therefrom or incidental thereto, or any order made thereon, shall be in the discretion of the Court.

139. (1) Where the liability of any garnishee has been tried and determined under these rules, the order shall have the same force and be subject to the same conditions as to appeal or otherwise as if it were a decree.

(2) Orders not covered by clause (1) shall be appealable as orders made in execution.

Illustration.—"An application for a garnishee order is dismissed either on the ground that the debt is secured by a charge or that there is no prima facie evidence of debt due. This order is appealable as an order in execution."

Add the following rule 140 :—

140. All the rules in this Code relating to service upon either plaintiffs or defendants at the address filed or subsequently altered under Order VII or Order VIII shall apply to all proceedings taken under Order XXI or section 47."

(b) in the charge of an officer of the Court, if a suitable place for its safe custody be provided and the remuneration of the officer for a period of fifteen days paid in advance.

4. If attached property (other than livestock) is not sold under the proviso to Rule 43, Order 21, or retained in the village or place where it is attached, it shall be brought to the Court-house at the decreeholder's expense and delivered to the proper officer of the Court. In the event of the decree-holder failing to make his own arrangement for the removal of the property with safety, or paying the cost thereof in advance to the attaching officer, then, unless such payment has previously been made into Court, the attachment shall at once be deemed to be withdrawn and the property shall be made over to the person in whose possession it was before attachment.

6. 7. Whenever it shall appear to the Court that livestock under attachment are not being properly tended or maintained, the Court shall make such orders as are necessary for their care and maintenance and may if necessary direct the attachment to cease and the livestock to be returned to the person in whose possession they were when attached. The Court may order the decree-holder to pay any expenses so incurred in providing for the care and maintenance of the livestock, and may direct that any sum so paid shall be refunded to the decreeholder by any other party to the proceedings.

10. The Court may direct that any sums which have been legitimately expended by the attaching officer or are payable to him, if not duly deposited or paid, be recovered from the sale-proceeds of the attached property, if sold or be paid by the person declared entitled to delivery before he receives the same. The Court may also order that any sums deposited or paid under these rules be recovered as costs of the attachment from any party to the proceeding.

11. In the event of the custodian of attached property failing, after due notice, to produce such property at the place named to the officer deputed for the purpose or to restore it to its owner if so ordered or failing in the case of livestock to maintain and take proper care thereof, he shall be liable to be proceeded against for the enforcement of his bond in the execution proceedings.

12. When property other than livestock is brought to the Court, it shall immediately be made over to the Nazir, who shall keep it on his sole responsibility in such place as may be approved by the Court. If the property cannot from its nature or bulk be conveniently stored, or kept on the Court premises or in the personal custody of the Nazir, he may, subject to the approval of the Court, make such arrangement for its safe custody under his own supervision as may be most convenient and economical. If any premises are to be hired and persons are to be engaged for watching the property the Court shall fix the charges for the premises and the remuneration to be allowed to the persons (not being officers of the Court) in whose custody the property is kept. All such costs shall be paid into Court by decree-holder in advance for such period as the Court may from time to time direct.

13. When attached livestock is brought to Court under special order as aforesaid it shall be immediately made over to the Nazir, who shall be responsible for its due preservation and safe custody until he delivers it up under the orders of the Court.

14. If there be a pound maintained by Government or local authority in or near the place where the Court is held, the Nazir shall, subject to the approval of the Court, be at liberty to place in it such livestock as can be properly kept there, in which case the pound-keeper will be responsible for the property to the Nazir and shall receive from the Nazir the same rates for accommodation and maintenance thereof as are paid in respect of impounded cattle of the same description.

15. If there no pound available or if in the opinion of the Court, it be inconvenient to lodge the attached livestock in the pound, the Nazir may keep them in his own premises, or he may entrust them to any person selected by himself and approved by the Court.

16. All costs for the keeping and maintenance of the livestock shall be paid into the Court by the decreeholder in advance for not less than fifteen days at a time as often as the Court may from time to time direct. In the event of failure to pay the costs within the time fixed by the Court, the attachment shall be withdrawn and the livestock shall be at the disposal of the person in whose possession it was at the time of attachment.

Qualifications to be a next friend or guardian. "3. (1) Any person who is of sound mind and has attained majority may act as next friend of a minor or as his guardian for the suit :

Provided that the interest of that person is not adverse to that of the minor and that he is not, in the case of a next friend, a defendant, or, in the case of a guardian for the suit, a plaintiff.

(2) Where a minor has a guardian appointed or declared by competent authority, no person other than the guardian shall act as the next friend of the minor or to be appointed his guardian for the suit unless the Court considers for reasons to be recorded, that it is for the minors' welfare that another person be permitted to act or be appointed as the case may be.

(3) Where the defendant is a minor, the Court, on being satisfied of the fact of his minority, shall appoint a proper person to be guardian for the suit for the minor.

(4) An order for the appointment of a guardian for the suit may be obtained upon application in the name and on behalf of the minor or by the plaintiff. The application, where it is by the plaintiff, shall set forth, in the order of their suitability a list of persons (with their full addresses for service or notice in Form No. 11A set forth in Appendix H hereto) who are competent and qualified to act as guardian for the suit for the minor defendant. The Court may, for reasons to be recorded, in any particular case, exempt the applicant from furnishing the list referred to above.

(5) The application referred to in the above sub-rule whether made by the plaintiff or on behalf of the minor defendant shall be supported by an affidavit verifying the fact that the proposed guardian has not or that one of the proposed guardians has, any interest in the matters in controversy, in the suit and adverse to that of the minor and that the proposed guardian or guardians are fit persons to be so appointed. The affidavit shall further state according to the circumstances of each case (a) particulars of any existing guardian appointed or declared by competent authority, (b) the name and address of the person, if any, who is the de facto guardian of the minor, (c) the names and addresses of persons, if any, who in the event of either the natural or the de facto guardian or the guardian appointed or declared by competent authority, not being permitted to act, are by reason of relationship or interest or otherwise, suitable persons to act as guardian for the minor for the suit.

Application for appointment of guardian to be separate from application for bringing on record the legal representatives, of a deceased party. (6) An application for the appointment of a guardian for the suit of a minor shall not be combined with an application for bringing on record the legal representatives of a deceased plaintiff or defendant. The applications shall be by separate petitions.

(7) No order shall be made on any application under sub-rule (4) above except upon notice to any guardian of the minor appointed or declared by an authority competent in that behalf or where there is no guardian, upon notice to the father or other natural guardian of the minor or where there is no father or other natural guardian, to the person in whose care the minor is, and after hearing any objection which may be urged on behalf of any person served with notice under this sub-rule. The notice required by this sub-rule shall be served six clear days before the day named in the notice for the hearing of the application and may be in Form No. 11 set forth in Appendix H hereto.

The applicant shall, within three days of intimation of unwillingness by the first set of proposed guardians, pay the prescribed fee for service and produce the necessary forms duly filled in.

(9) No person shall, without his consent, be appointed guardian for the suit. Whenever an application is made proposing the name of a person as guardian for the suit, a notice in Form No. 11A set forth in Appendix H hereto shall be served on the proposed guardian unless the applicant himself be the proposed guardian or the proposed guardian consents.

(10) Where the Court finds no person fit and willing to act as guardian, for the suit, the Court may appoint any of its officers or a pleader of the Court to be the guardian and may direct that the costs to be incurred by that officer in the performance of his duties as guardian shall be borne either by the parties or by any one or more of the parties to the suit or out of any fund in Court in which the minor is interested, and may give directions for the repayment or allowance of the costs as justice and the circumstances of the case may require.

(11) When a guardian for the suit of a minor defendant is appointed and it is made to appear to the Court that the guardian is not in possession of any or sufficient funds for the conduct of the suit on behalf of the defendant and that the defendant will be prejudiced in his defence thereby, the Court may, from time to time, order the plaintiff to advance monies to the guardian for purpose of his defence and all monies so advanced shall form part of the costs of the plaintiff in the suit. The order shall direct that the guardian, as and when directed, shall file in Court an account of the monies so received by him.

(1) Before issuing a warrant for the attachment of movable property which it will be necessary to place in charge of one or more peons, permanent or temporary, the Court shall satisfy itself that the attaching decree-holder has produced a receipt in the Form 15A, Appendix E, from the Bailiff that he has paid in cash as process-fees under rule 17 (1) C (ii) of the Process Fees Rules not less than Rs. 10 for each person who the Bailiff considers should be employed.

(2) In sending the warrant for execution to the Bailiff the Court Clerk shall certify at the foot of the warrant that the receipt granted by the Bailiff for the necessary fees has been filed in the record, the Bailiff shall then endorse on the warrant the name of the process-server to whom it is issued for execution. If a temporary peon is employed for the custody of the attached property, the process-server shall state in his report of the attachment the name of the temporary peon employed and the date from which his duties commenced.

(3) At the time of granting the receipt in Form 15A, for payments made by the decree-holder, as required by sub-rule (1), the Bailiff shall state in the lower portion of the form the date on which the fees paid will be exhausted, warning the decree-holder that the property will not be kept under attachment after that date, unless further fees are paid before that date.

If the further fees required are not paid, the attachment shall cease as soon as the period for which fees have already been paid expires. In such a case the amount paid prior to the cessation of the attachment shall not be allowed to the attaching decree-holder as costs.

(4) The payment of fees under sub-rule (1) shall be made in cash to the Bailiff and the amount shall at once be entered in Bailiff's Register No. II. The Court Clerk shall on receipt of the Bailiff's acknowledgment (Form 15) file it in the record and make an entry to that effect in the diary.

(5) Temporary peons employed for the custody of attached property shall be remunerated at the rate provided for in r. 15 of the rules regarding process serving establishments, provided that the total remuneration disbursed shall in no case exceed the amount of the process fees actually paid under the foregoing sub-rules.

Permanent peons shall be presumed to be remunerated at the same rate as temporary peons but if the services of the former are utilised, the fees paid shall be credited direct into the Treasury to "Process-Servers' Fees—" "XVIA, Law and Justice"—"Courts of Law"—"Court-Fees realised in cash."

(6) The remuneration of temporary peons employed to take charge of attached property shall be paid direct by the Bailiff to them on the order of the Judge.

Before passing such order the Judge must verify the name of the payee from the report of the attachment and must satisfy himself that the amount proposed to be paid does not exceed the amount of the fees deposited with the Bailiff, or, if any payments have already been made in the case of the unexpended balance of such deposits and that all amounts previously drawn have been disbursed to the proper persons.

(7) When the order has been signed by the Judge, the money shall be disbursed by the Bailiff at once to the peon or peons concerned, whose acknowledgment of receipt shall be taken in Bailiff's Register II. If, however, the amount has been transferred to Bailiff's Register I the Bailiff shall draw the amount necessary for payment from the Treasury as if it were a re-payment of deposit and shall then disburse the amount due to the peon or peons concerned, whose acknowledgment of receipt shall be taken in Bailiff's Register I.

(8) When the attachment is brought to a close or has not been effected, if the Judge finds, at the time of calculating the amount paid in and properly chargeable for peons, that the total amount of the fees actually paid under sub-rules 1 and 3 exceeds the total amount that is chargeable for peons including the amount of the last payments, he shall direct that the excess be refunded to the payer.

(9) The Judge shall in all cases in which a refund is to be made, issue to the bailiff an order, a copy of which shall be placed on the record, to make such refund.

If a sufficient portion of the amount paid by the decree-holder to pay such refund is in the hands of the Bailiff that officer shall make the refund in the ordinary way prescribed in his Register II for repayments. If the amount has been credited into the Treasury, he shall prepare a bill for the amount to be refunded in the prescribed treasury form and shall lay it before the Judge for signature with the record of the case in the same way as a bill for the remuneration of temporary peons. Before signing the refund order, the Judge must satisfy himself that the amount is available for refund by examining Bailiff's Register I and the record. The bill when signed by the Judge will be given to the payee, with instructions to present it for payment at the Treasury or Sub-Treasury.

45B. (1) In addition to the fees payable before a warrant issues for the attachment of movable property under r. 45 A, the Bailiff shall require the attaching decree-holder to deposit a sum of money sufficient to cover the costs of attachment other than the pay of peons employed to take charge of it, for such period as the Bailiff may think fit.

Explanation.—The costs in question might be for example, (a) rent of building in which to store attached furniture, (b) cost of conveying the attached property from the place of attachment to Court or to a secure place of custody, (c) cost of feeding and tending livestock, (d) cost of proceeding to the place of attachment to sell perishable property.

(2) If the attaching decree-holder fails to comply with the Bailiff's requisition, the warrant shall not be issued.

(3) Sums thus deposited shall be entered in the Bailiff's Registers I and II and re-payments thereof shall be made according to existing orders. A receipt for such sums shall be granted by the Bailiff in form No. 15A, Appendix E.

(4) In the receipt given for the sums deposited, the Bailiff shall, state the period for which such sums will last, and if the attaching decree-holder does not deposit a further sum before the expiry of such period, the attachment shall cease when the sum deposited is exhausted.

(5) The officer actually attaching the property shall unless the Court otherwise directs, give the debtor, or, in his absence, any adult member of his family who may be present, the option of having the attached property kept on his premises or elsewhere, on condition that a suitable place for its safe custody is duly provided. The option so given may be subsequently withdrawn by order of the Court.

Where the attached property consists of cattle these may be employed, so far as is consistent with rule 43, in agricultural operations.

(6) If no such suitable place be provided, or if the Court directs that the property shall be removed, the officer shall remove the property to the Court, unless the property attached is growing crop, when rule 45 applies. Whenever live-stock is placed at the place where it has been attached, the judgment-debtor shall be at liberty to undertake the due feeding and tending of it under the supervision of the attaching officer.

(7) Whenever property is attached, the officer shall forthwith report to the Court and shall with his report forward an accurate list of the property seized.

(8) If the debtor shall give his consent in writing to the sale of property without awaiting the expiry of the term prescribed in r. 68, the officer shall receive the written consent and forward it without delay to the Court for its orders.

(9) When property is removed to the Court it shall be kept by the Bailiff, on his own sole responsibility, in such place as may be approved by the Court. If the property cannot, from its nature or bulk, be conveniently kept on the Court premises, or in the personal custody of the Bailiff, he may, subject to the approval of the Court, make such arrangement for its safe custody under his own supervision as may be most convenient and economical.

(10) If there be a cattle pound maintained by Government or any Local authority in or near the place where the Court is held, the Bailiff shall be at liberty to place in it such attached live-stock as can be properly there kept, in which case the pound-keeper will be responsible for the property to the Bailiff and shall receive the same rates for accommodation and maintenance thereof as are paid in respect of impounded cattle of the same description.

(11) Whenever property is attached, and any person other than the judgment-debtor shall claim the same, or any part of it, the officer shall nevertheless, unless the decree-holder desires to withdraw the attachment of the property so claimed, remain in possession and shall direct the claimant to prefer his claim to the Court.

(12) If the decree-holder shall withdraw an attachment or if it shall cease under sub-r. (2) or (4), the Bailiff's officer shall inform the debtor or in his absence, an adult member of his family that the property is at his disposal.

(13) If any portion of the deposit made under sub-r. (1) or (4) remains unexpended it shall be refunded to the decree-holder in the manner prescribed for such refunds in sub-r. (4) of rule 45 A. Any difference between the cost of attachment of movable property (other than the costs referred to in r. 45A) and the sums deposited by the attaching decree-holder shall, unless the difference is due to the fault of the Bailiff, be recovered from the sale proceeds of the attached property, if any, and if there are no sale proceeds, from the attaching decree-holder on the application of the Bailiff. If there is still a deficiency, the amount shall be paid by Government.

Rule 46.—Sub-Rule (3) of rule 46 shall be deleted.

Rule 53.—In clause (b) of sub-rule (1) of rule 53 after the words "to such other Court" occurring in the second and third lines of the clause, the words "and to any Court to which it may have been transferred for execution" shall be added, and for the word "its" occurring in the fifth line, the word "the" shall be substituted.

In sub-clause (ii) of clause (b) of sub-rule (1) of rule 53 for the words "its own" the words "the attached" shall be substituted.

Rule 54.—To rule 54, the following shall be added as sub-rule (3), namely :—

"(3) The order of attachment shall take effect, as against transferees without consideration from the judgment-debtor from the date of the order of attachment, and as against all other persons from the date on which they respectively had knowledge of the order of attachment, or the date on which the order was duly proclaimed under sub-rule (2) whichever is the earlier."

GARNISHEE ORDERS.

63 A. Where a debt has been attached under rule 46, the debtor prohibited under clause (i) of sub-rule (1) of rule 46 (hereinafter called the garnishee) may pay the amount of the debt due from him to the judgment-debtor into Court, and such payment shall discharge him as effectually as payment to the party entitled to receive the same.

63 B. Where a debt has been attached under rule 46, and the garnishee does not pay the amount of the debt into Court in accordance with the foregoing rule, the Court, on the application of the decree-holder, may order a notice to issue calling upon the garnishee to appear before the Court and show cause why he should not pay into Court the debt due from him to the judgment debtor or so much thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the decree together with the costs of execution. A copy of such notice shall, unless otherwise ordered by the Court, be served on the judgment-debtor.

63 C (1) If the garnishee does not pay into Court the amount of the debt due from him to the judgment-debtor, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the decree and the costs of execution, and if he does not appear in answer to the notice issued under rule 63 B, or does not dispute his liability to pay such debt to the judgment-debtor, then the Court may order the garnishee to comply with the terms of such notice, and on such order execution may issue against the garnishee as though such order were a decree against him.

(2) If the garnishee appears in answer to the notice issued under rule 63 B and dispute his liability to pay the debt attached, the Court, instead of making an order as aforesaid, may order that any issue or question necessary for determining his liability be tried as though it were an issue in a suit, and may proceed to determine such issue, and upon the determination of such issue shall pass such order upon the notice as shall be just.

63 D. Whenever in any proceedings under the foregoing rules, it is alleged by the garnishee that the debt attached belongs to some third person, or that any third person has a lien or charge upon or interest in it, the Court may order such third person to appear and state the nature and particulars of his claim, if any, upon such debt and prove the same if necessary.

63E. After hearing such third person and any other person who may subsequently be ordered to appear, or in the case of such third or other person not appearing as ordered, the Court may pass such order as is provided in the foregoing rules or make such other order as the Court shall think upon terms to all cases with respect to the lien, charge or interest, if any, or such third or other person, as shall seem just and reasonable.

63F. Payment made by or levied by execution upon the garnishee in accordance with any order made under these rules shall be a valid discharge to him as against the judgment-debtor and any other person ordered to appear under these rules, for the amount paid or levied, although such order or the judgment may be set aside or revised.

63G. The costs of any application for the attachment of a debt or under the foregoing rules, and of any proceedings arising from or incidental to such application, shall be in the discretion of the Court. Costs awarded to the decree-holder shall unless otherwise directed, be retained out of the money recovered by him under the garnishee order and in priority to the amount of his decree."

In Or. XXI, the following shall be substituted for rule 65 :—

65 (1). The day to be set apart and the place selected for holding the sales, and any changes therein, shall be reported for the information of the High Court.

(4) The following scale is laid down as to the amount which may be deducted from the proceeds of the sale of property sold in execution of the decree, as the expenses of sale, and paid to the officer conducting the sale under the orders of the Court as his authorized commission :—

The calculation of the commission shall be on the whole amount realised in pursuance of one application for execution.

(5) Subject to the provisions of sub-rule (13) of rule 45B, no further sum beyond this authorized commission and the cost of conveyance of property to the place of sale shall be deducted from the sale proceeds.

Rule 90.—In Order XXI, for the present proviso to rule 90, the following shall be substituted :

Provided that no application to set aside a sale shall be admitted unless—

(a) it discloses a ground which could not have been put forward by the applicant before the sale was conducted, and,

(b) the applicant deposits with his application the amount mentioned in the sale warrant or an amount equal to the amount realised by the sale, whichever is less ; and in case the application is unsuccessful the costs of the opposite parties shall be a first charge on the amount so deposited.

(2) Where a minor has a guardian appointed or declared by competent authority, no person other than such guardian shall act as the next friend of the minor, or be appointed his guardian for the suit unless the Court considers, for reasons to be recorded, that it is for the minor's welfare that another person be permitted to act or be appointed, as the case may be.

(B) that if such payment is not made within the said period the defendant shall be debarred from all right to redeem the property, or

A tender of such security, if made later than the date of filing the petition for leave to appeal, will not be accepted unless the Court is satisfied that the delay in making it was inevitable, and in any case shall not be accepted after the certificate is granted.

62. On tender of security other than cash or Government securities, notice of the tender shall, if possible, be given to the opposite party requiring him to show cause, if he wishes to do so, within the time fixed (see Rule 57 above) for granting the certificate, why the security tendered should not be accepted. 76. Where an appellant whose appeal has been admitted, fails to show due diligence in taking all necessary steps in connection with the preparation of the record, the Court may, either on its motion or on the application of the respondent call upon the appellant to show cause why a certificate should not be issued that the appeal has not been effectually prosecuted by the appellant and if the Court sees fit to issue such a certificate, the appeal shall be deemed as from the date of such certificate to stand dismissed for non-prosecution, without express order of His Majesty in Council, and the costs of the appeal and the security entered into by appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may think fit to direct.

77. Where at any time between the admission of an appeal and the despatch of the record to England the record becomes defective by reason of the death, or change of status of a party to the appeal, the Court may notwithstanding the admission of the appeal, on an application in that behalf made by any person interested, grant a certificate showing who, in the opinion of the Court, is the proper person to be substituted or entered on the record in place of, or in addition to, the party who has died, or undergone a change of status, and the name of such person shall thereupon be deemed to be so substituted, or entered on the record as aforesaid without express order of His Majesty in Council. ficate, the appeal shall be deemed, as from the date of such certificate to stand dismissed for non-prosecution without express order of His Majesty in Council and the costs of the appeal and the security entered into by the appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may think fit to direct.

78. Where the record subsequently to its despatch to England becomes defective by reason of the death, or change of status of a party to the appeal, the Court may, upon an application in that behalf made by any person interested, cause a certificate to be transmitted to the Registrar of the Privy Council showing who, in the opinion of the Court, is the proper person to be substituted or entered on the record, in place of, or in addition to, the party who has died, or undergone a change of status. If, in the opinion of the Court, there has been undue delay in making this application the Court may order the appellant or the party interested, to take all necessary steps to perfect the record within such time as the Court may direct, and, if he fails to comply with such order, the Court shall report the matter to the Registrar of the Privy Council.

PART II.

20. Index to Part II.
21. Exhibits.
- Appendix II.—List of formal and other documents excluded.

NOTE.

(1) Index.—The index to Part I should be in chronological order and should be placed at the beginning of the volume. The index to Part II should follow the order of the exhibit mark, and should be placed immediately after the index to Part I.

Records.—Part I should be arranged strictly in chronological order, i. e., in the same order as the index. Part II should be arranged in the most convenient way for the use of the Judicial Committee as the circumstances of the case require. The documents should be printed as far as suitable in chronological order mixing plaintiff's and defendants' documents together when necessary. Each document should show its exhibit mark, and whether it is plaintiff's or defendant's document (unless this is clear from the exhibit mark) and in all cases documents relating to the same matter, such as (a) a series of correspondence, or (b) proceedings in a suit other than the one under appeal, should be kept together. The order in the record of the documents in Part II will probably be different from the order of the index, and the proper page number of each document should be inserted in the printed index.

The parties will be responsible for arranging the record in proper order for the Judicial Committee, and in difficult cases counsel may be asked to settle it.

(3) Numbering of documents.—The documents in Part I should be numbered consecutively. The documents in Part II should not be numbered apart from the exhibit mark.

(4) Heading of documents.—Each document should have a heading which should consist of the number of exhibit mark, and the description of the document in the index, without the date.

(5) Marginal note.—Each document should have a marginal note which should be repeated on each page over which the document extends, viz :—

PART I.

(a) Where the case has been before more than one Court, the short name of the Court should first appear. Where the case has been before only one Court the name of the Court need not appear.

(b) The marginal note of the document should then appear consisting of the number and the description of the document in the index, with the date, except in the case of oral evidence.

(c) In the case of oral evidence "Plaintiff's evidence" or "Defendant's evidence" should appear beneath the name of the Court and then the marginal note consisting of the number in the index and the witness's name with 'examination', 'cross-examination' or 're-examination' as the case may be.

PART II.

The word "Exhibit" should first appear. The marginal note of the exhibit should then appear consisting of the exhibit mark and the description of the document in the index, with the date.

(6) Omission of formal documents, etc.—The parties should agree to the omission of formal and irrelevant documents, but the description of the document may appear (both in the index and in the record), if desired with the words "Not printed" against it.

A long series of documents, such as accounts, rent rolls, inventories, etc., should not be printed in full, unless counsel so advise, but the parties should agree to short extracts being printed as specimens.

Every document should be carefully edited for the printer, avoiding the repetition of unnecessary titles and omitting formal portions.

81. The charges for translation and copying shall be regulated by the rules dealing with the matters. It shall not be necessary to translate any papers which have already been translated.

82. All translations whether previously made or made for the purpose of the appeal to His Majesty in Council, shall be authenticated by the person by whom they were made.

83. The notices in India shall be limited, in the absence of any express direction by the Court, to the notice of application for this certificate of admission, notice declaring the appeal admitted and notice of the transmission of the record to England; and in all cases where a party has appeared, service on the advocate shall be deemed to be sufficient notice.

84. When the record is to be printed the style to be adopted shall be as follows :—

(i) The form known as demi quarto (i. e., 54 ems in length and 42 in width) shall be followed.

(ii) The size of the paper used shall be such that the sheet when folded and trimmed shall be 11 inches in length and 8½ inches in width.

(iii) The type to be used in the text shall be Pica type, but Longprimer shall be used in printing accounts, tabular matters and notes.

(iv) The number of lines in each page of Pica type shall be 47 or thereabouts and every tenth line shall be numbered in the margin.

85. When the record is printed in India, 100 copies of the transcript shall be struck off. Twenty copies shall be supplied to the party at whose cost the record is printed. Any other party to the suit shall be supplied with copies of the record on payment of the cost price. Copies so supplied shall not be certified. A charge of Re. 1 for every 750 words shall be made for proof reading. Money paid for proof reading shall be credited to Government.

86. When the transcript is ready, if it is to be printed in England, one certified copy shall be transmitted to the Registrar of His Majesty's Privy Council Whitehall at the expense of the appellant, together with an index of all the papers and exhibits in the case. No other certified copies of the record shall be transmitted to the agents in England by or on behalf of the parties to the appeal.

87. When the transcript has been printed in India, and 100 copies struck off under rule 85, 40 copies shall be sent, at the expenses of the appellant, to the Registrar of His Majesty's Privy Council one of which shall be certified to be correct by the Deputy Registrar of the Court by his signing his name on, initialling every eighth page thereof and by affixing the seal of the Court thereto. Where part of the record is printed in India and part is to be printed in England, this rule shall, as far as practicable, apply to such parts as are printed in India and such as are to be printed in England respectively.

F8. All costs incurred in British India whether allowed by the Court under rule 64 or otherwise, shall be recoverable, as if they were the amount of a decree for money.

Part II.

EJECTMENT AND DISTRESSES.

A. Recovery of possession of immovable property.

79. An application under Section 17 of the Act shall be in the form of a plaint in which the applicant shall be the plaintiff and the occupant the defendant and the matter shall be treated as a suit. For the purpose of ascertaining the value of the suit the annual rental value of the property in respect of which the claim is made shall be deemed to be the value of such suit, and such annual value shall be stated in the application,

80. When an application has been made under section 17 of the Act, the Court shall by summons call upon the occupant to show cause why he should not be compelled to deliver up the property.

81. The summons shall be served on the occupant in the manner provided by the code for the service of summons on a defendant.

82. If the occupant does not appear at the time appointed and show cause to the contrary, the applicant shall, if the Court is satisfied that he is entitled to apply under section 17 of the Act, be entitled to an order addressed to the Bailiff directing him to give possession of the property to the applicant on such a day as the Court thinks fit to name in such order.

83. Any such order shall justify the Bailiff in entering after the hour of eight in the morning and before the hour of six in the afternoon upon the property named therein, with such assistants as he thinks necessary, and giving possession of such property to the applicant, after removing if necessary anything found therein.

84. When the applicant, at the time of applying for any such order as aforesaid, was entitled to the possession of such property, neither he nor any person acting in his behalf shall be deemed, on account of any error, defect or irregularity in the mode of proceeding to obtain possession thereunder, to be a trespasser; but any person aggrieved may institute a suit for the recovery of compensation for any damage which he has sustained by reason of such error, defect or irregularity. When no such damage is proved, the suit shall be dismissed; and when such damage is proved but the amount of the compensation assessed by the Court does not exceed ten rupees, the Court shall award to the plaintiff no more costs than compensation, unless the Judge who tries the case certifies that in his opinion full costs should be awarded to the plaintiff.

B.—Distress Warrants.

85. Every application for a distress warrant under section 22 of the Act shall be accompanied by an affidavit in the prescribed form and (so long as the Rangoon Rent Act 1920, remains in force) by a certificate from the controller certifying the standard rent of the premises in respect of which the application is made.

86. The Court may issue a warrant under its seal and returnable within six days, in the prescribed form addressed to the Bailiff.

The Court may, at its discretion, upon personal examination of the person applying for such warrant, decline to issue the same.

87. Every distress shall be made after sunrise, and before sunset, and not at any other time.

88. The Bailiff directed to make the distress may enter any dwelling house, the outer door of which may be open, and may break open the door of any room in such dwelling-house and may force open any stable, out-house or other building for the purpose of seizing property liable to be seized:—

Provided that he shall not enter or break open the door of any room appropriated for residence of women, which by the usage of the country is considered private.

89. In pursuance of the warrant the Bailiff shall seize the movable property found in or upon the house or premises mentioned in the warrant and belonging to the person from whom the rent is claimed (here-in-after called the debtor), or such part thereof as may, in the Bailiff's judgment, be sufficient to cover the amount of the said rent, together with the costs of the said distress.

90. The Bailiff may impound or otherwise secure the property so seized in or on the house or premises chargeable with the rent.

91. On seizing any property under Rule 19 the Bailiff shall make an inventory of such property and shall give notice in writing in the prescribed form to the debtor or to any other person on his behalf in or upon the said house or premises that such property will be sold pursuant to the provisions of the Act. The date on which the sale will be held shall be stated in the notice and shall be not less than seven days after the date of seizure.

The Bailiff shall, as soon as may be, file in the Court copies of the said inventory and notice.

92. The debtor or any other person alleging himself to be the owner of any property seized, or the duly constituted attorney of such debtor or other person, may apply to the Court to discharge or suspend the warrant, or to release a distrained article, and the Court may discharge or suspend such warrant or release such article accordingly, upon such terms as it thinks just, and may in its discretion give reasonable time to the debtor to pay the rent due from him. Upon any such application, the costs attending it and attending the issue and execution of the warrant shall be in the discretion of the Court, and shall be paid as the Court directs.

93. If any claim is made to, or in respect of any, property seized under these provisions or in respect of the proceeds or value thereof by any person not being the debtor, the Registrar, upon the application of the Bailiff who seized the property may issue a summons calling before the Court the claimant and the person who obtained the warrant.

And thereupon any suit which may have been brought in the High Court in respect of such claim shall be stayed and the High Court, on proof of the issue of such summons and of the distraint, may order the plaintiff to pay the costs of all proceedings in such suit after the issue of such summons.

And the Court shall adjudicate upon such claim and make such order between the parties in respect thereof and of the costs of the proceeding as it thinks fit, and such order shall be enforced as if it were an order made in a suit brought in the Court. The procedure under this rule shall conform, as far as may be, to the procedure in an ordinary suit in the Court.

94. In any case under Rule 92 or 93 the Judge by whom the case is heard may award such compensation by way of damages to the applicant or claimant (as the case may be) as the Judge thinks fit, and may for that purpose make such enquiry as he thinks necessary ; and the order of the Judges awarding or refusing such compensation shall bar any suit for the recovery of compensation for any damage caused by the distress.

95. In default of any order to the contrary made by the Court or by the High Court the distrained property shall be sold on the day mentioned in the notice prescribed by rule and the Bailiff shall, on realizing the proceeds pay the amount thereof into judicial deposit ; and such amount shall be applied first in payment of the bailiff's commission and the costs of the said distress and then in satisfaction of the debt ; and the surplus, if any, shall be paid to the debtor.

96. No costs of any distress under these provisions shall be taken or demanded except those mentioned in the scale of fees prescribed in Appendix B to this Schedule.

The Chief Judge may apply the sum so obtained as costs towards the payment of the contingent charges and Bailiff's remuneration as appears to the said Judge expedient.

97. The Registrar shall keep a book in which all sums received as costs upon distresses made, and all sums paid as remuneration to the Bailiff, and all contingent charges incurred in respect of such distress, shall be duly entered. He shall also enter in the said book all sums realised by sale of the property distrained and paid over to landlords under these provisions,

98. No distress shall be levied for arrears of rent except under these provisions.

99. The forms prescribed in Appendix B, with such variation as the circumstances may require, shall be used for the purposes therein mentioned.

105. If the garnishee does not forthwith, or within such time as the Court may allow, pay or deliver into Court the amount due from or the property deliverable by him to the judgment-debtor, or so much as may be sufficient to satisfy the decree and the cost of execution and does not dispute his liability to pay such debt or deliver such movable property or if he does not appear in answer to the notice, then the Court may order the garnishee to comply with the terms of such notice and on such order execution may issue as though such order were a decree against him.

106. If the garnishee disputes his liability the Court, instead of making such order, may order that any issue or question necessary for determining his liability be tried as though it were an issue in a suit ; and upon the determination of such issue shall pass such order upon the notice as shall be just.

107. Whenever in any proceedings under these rules it is alleged or appears to the Court to be probable, that the debt or property attached or sought to be attached belongs to some third person, or that any third person has a lien or charge upon, or an interest in it, the Court may order such third person to appear and state the nature of his claim, if any, upon such debt or property and prove the same, if necessary.

108. After hearing such third person, and any other person who may subsequently be ordered to appear, or in the case of such third or other person not appearing when ordered, the Court may pass such order as is hereinbefore provided or make such other order as it shall think fit, upon such terms in all cases with respect to the lien, charge or interest, if any, of such third or other person as to such Court shall seem just and reasonable.

109. Payment or delivery made by the garnishee, whether in execution of an order under these rules or otherwise, shall be a valid discharge to him as against the judgment-debtor, or any other person ordered to appear as aforesaid, for the amount paid, delivered or realized although such order of the judgment may be set aside or reversed.

110. Debts owing from a firm carrying on business within the jurisdiction of the Court may be attached under these rules, although one or more members of such firm may be resident out of the jurisdiction :

Provided that any person having the control or management of the partnership business or any member of the firm within the jurisdiction is served with the garnishee order, an appearance by any member pursuant to an order shall be sufficient appearance by the firm.

111. The costs of any application under these rules and of any proceedings arising therefrom or incidental thereto or any order made thereon, shall be in the discretion of the Court.

112. (1) Where the liability of any garnishee has been tried and determined under these rules the order shall have the same force, and be subject to the same conditions as to appeal or otherwise as if it were a decree.

(2) Orders not covered by sub-rule (1) shall be appealable as orders made in execution.

Illustration.—An application for a garnishee order is dismissed either on the ground that the debt is secured by a charge or that there is no prima facie evidence of debt due. This order is appealable as an order in execution.

113. All the rules in this Code relating to service upon either plaintiffs or defendants at the address filed or subsequently altered under Order VII or Order VIII shall apply to all proceedings taken under Order XXXI or section 47.
